3 Iehoahaz the sonne of Iehu is deliuered into the handes of the Syrians. 4 He prayeth vnto God and is deliuered. 9 Ioash his sonne reigneth in his steade. 20 Elisha dyeth. 24 Hazael dyeth.

IN the three and twentieth yeere of Ioash the sonne of Ahaziah King of Iudah, Iehoahaz the sonne of Iehu began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, and he reigned seuenteene yeere.

2 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lorde, and followed the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, which made Israel to [a] sinne, and departed not therefrom.

3 And the Lord was angry with Israel, and deliuered them into the hand of Hazael King of Aram, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the sonne of Hazael, all [b] his dayes.

4 And Iehoahaz besought the Lord, and the Lord heard him: for he saw the trouble of Israel, wherewith the King of Aram troubled them.

5 (And the Lorde gaue Israel a [c] deliuerer, so that they came out from vnder the subiection of the Aramites. And the children of Israel [d] dwelt in their tents as †before time.

6 Neuerthelesse they departed not from the sinnes of the house of Ieroboam which made Israel sinne, but walked in them. euen the [e] groue also remayned still in Samaria)

7 For hee had left of the people to Iehoahaz but fiftie horsemen, and tenne charets, and tenne thousand footemen, because the King [f] of Aram had destroyed them, and made them like dust beaten to pouder.

8 Concerning the rest of the actes of Iehoahaz and all that he did, and his valiant deedes, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

9 And Iehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Ioash his sonne reigned in his steade.

10 ¶ In the seuen and thirtieth yeere of Ioash King [g] of Iudah began Iehoash the sonne of Iehoahaz to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteene yeere, 11 And did euill in the sight of the Lorde: for hee departed not from all the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat that made Israel to sinne, but he walked therein.

12 Concerning the rest of the actes of Ioash and all that hee did, and his valiant deedes, and how he fought against Amaziah King of Iudah, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

13 And Ioash slept with his fathers, and Ieroboam sate vpon his seate: and Ioash was buried in Samaria among the Kings of Israel.

14 ¶ When Elisha fell sicke of his sickenesse whereof he died, Ioash the King of Israel came downe vnto him, and wept vpon his face, and said, [h] O my father, my father, the charet of Israel, and the horsemen of the same.

15 Then Elisha sayde vnto him, Take a bowe and arrowes. And hee tooke vnto him bowe and arrowes.

16 And hee sayde to the King of Israel, Put thine hand vpon the bowe. And hee put his hand vpon it. And Elisha put his hands vpon the Kings hands, 17 And saide, Open the windowe [i] Eastward. And when he had opened it, Elisha said, Shoote. And he shot. And he said, Beholde the arrowe of the Lordes deliuerance and the arrowe of deliuerance against Aram: for thou shalt smite the Aramites in Aphek, till thou hast consumed them.

18 Againe he said, Take the arrowes. And he tooke them. And he sayde vnto the King of Israel, Smite the ground. And he smote thrise, and ceased.

19 Then the man of God was [k] angrie with him, and sayde, Thou shouldest haue smitten fiue or sixe times, so thou shouldest haue smitten Aram, till thou hadst consumed it, where now thou shalt smite Aram but thrise.

20 ¶ So Elisha died, and they buried him. And certaine bandes of the Moabites came into the land that yeere.

21 And as they were burying a man, beholde, they saw the souldiers: therfore they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha. And when the man was downe, and touched the bones of Elisha, * he [l] reuiued and stood vpon his feet.

22 ¶ But Hazael King of Aram vexed Israel all the dayes of Iehoahaz.

23 Therefore the Lorde had mercie on them & pitied them, and had respect vnto them because of his couenant with Abraham, Izhak, and Iaakob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them

6 At the same time Rezin king of Aram restored [d] Elath to Aram, and droue the Iewes from Elath: so the Aramites came to Elath, and dwelt there vnto this day.

3 Hoshea King of Israel is taken, 6 And he and all his realme brought to the Assyrians, 18 for their idolatrie. 25 Lions destroy the Assyrians that dwell in Samaria. 29 Euery one worshippeth the god of his nation, 35 Contrary to the commandement of God.

IN the twelft yeere of Ahaz King of Iudah began Hoshea the sonne of Elah to reigne in Samaria ouer Israel, and reigned nine yeeres.

2 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lorde, [a] but not as the Kings of Israel, that were before him.

3 And Shalmaneser king of Asshur came vp against him, and Hoshea became his seruant, and gaue him presents.

4 And the King of Asshur founde treason in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So King of Egypt, and brought no present vnto the King of Asshur, [b] as he had done yeerely: therfore the king of Asshur shut him vp, and put him in prison.

5 Then the king of Asshur came vp throughout all the land, and went against Samaria, and besieged it three yeere.

6 ¶ *In the ninth yeere of Hoshea, the King of Asshur tooke Samaria, and caryed Israel away vnto Asshur, and put them in Halah, and in Habor by the riuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the [c] Medes.

7 For when the children of Israel [d] sinned against the Lorde their God, which had brought them out of the land of Egypt, frō vnder the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and feared other gods,

8 And walked according to the facions of the Heathen, whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel, & after the maners of the Kings of Israel, which they vsed,

9 And the children of Israel had done secretly things that were not vpright before the Lorde their God, and throughout all their cities had built hie places, both from the tower [e] of the watch, to the defensed citie,

10 And had made them images and groues vpon euery hie hill, and vnder euery greene tree,

11 And there burnt incense in all the hie places, as did the heathen, whom the Lorde had taken away before them, and wrought wicked things to anger the Lord, 12 And serued idoles: whereof the Lorde had sayd vnto them, *Ye shal do no such thing.

13 Notwithstanding the Lorde testified to Israel, and to Iudah †by all the Prophets, and by all the Seers, saying, *Turne from your euill wayes, and keepe my commaundements and my statutes, according to all the Lawe, which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my seruants the Prophets.

14 Neuerthelesse they would not obey, *but hardened their neckes, like to the neckes of their [f] fathers, that did not beleeue in the Lorde their God.

15 And they refused his statutes and his couenant, that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies (wherewith hee witnessed vnto them) and they followed vanitie, and became vaine, and followed the heathen that were rounde about them: concerning whome the Lorde had charged them, that they should not do like them.

images, *euen two calues, and made a groue, and 17 And they made their sonnes and their selues to doe euill in the sight of the Lord, to anger him.

18 Therefore the Lorde was exceeding wroth with Israel, and put them out of his sight, and none was left but the tribe of Iudah k onely.
19 Yet Iudah kept not the commaundements of the Lord their God, but walked according to the facion of Israel, which they vsed.
20 Therefore the Lorde cast off all the seede of Israel, and afflicted them, and deliuered them into the handes of spoylers, vntill hee had cast them out of his l sight.
21 m For he cut off Israel from the house of Dauid, and they made Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat King: and Ieroboam drewe Israel away from following the Lord, and made them sinne a great sinne.
22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sinnes of Ieroboam, which he did, and departed not therefrom, 23 Vntill the Lord put Israel away out of his sight, as he had sayd †by all his seruants the *Prophets, and caryed Israel away out of their land to Asshur vnto this day.
24 And the King of Asshur brought folke from Babel, and from n Cuthah, and from Aua, and from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria in steade of the children of Israel: so they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.
25 ¶ And at the beginning of their dwelling there, they o feared not the Lord: therefore the Lord sent Lions among them, which slewe them.

shur, saying, The nations which thou hast remonot the maner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and beholde, they slay them, because they knowe not the maner of the God of the land.

27 Then the King of Asshur commaunded, saying, Carie thither one of the Priestes whome yee brought thence, and let him goe and dwell there, and teache them the maner of the God p of

phemed me.
7 Beholde, I will sende a blast d vpon him, and hee shall heare a noyse, and returne to his owne land: and I will cause him to fall by the sworde in his owne land.
8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the King of Asshur fighting against Libnah: for hee had heard that he was departed from Lachish.
9 e He heard also men say of Tirhakah King of ‖Ethiopia, f Beholde, hee is come out to fight against thee: he therefore departed and sent other messengers vnto Hezekiah, saying, 10 Thus shall yee speake to Hezekiah King of Iudah, and say, Let not thy g God deceiue thee in whome thou trustest, saying, Ierusalem shall not be deliuered into the hand of the King of Asshur.
11 Beholde, thou hast heard what the Kings of Asshur haue done to all landes, how they haue destroyed them: and shalt thou be deliuered?
12 Haue the gods of the Heathen deliuered them which my fathers haue destroyed? as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden, which were in Thelasar?
13 Where is the King of Hamath, & the King of Arpad, and the King of the citie of Sepharuaim, Hena and Iuah?
14 ¶ So Hezekiah receiued the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went vp into the house of the Lorde, and Hezekiah spread it before the h Lord.
15 And Hezekiah i prayed before the Lorde, and sayde, O Lorde God of Israel, which dwellest betweene the Cherubims, thou art very God alone ouer all the kingdomes of the earth: thou hast made the heauen and the earth.
16 Lord, k bow downe thine eare, and heare: Lorde open thine eyes and beholde, and heare the wordes of Sanecherib, who hath sent to blaspheme the l liuing God.
17 Trueth it is, Lord, that the Kings of Asshur haue destroyed the nations and their lands, 18 And haue set fire on other gods: for they were no gods, but the worke of mans hands, euen wood and stone: therefore they destroyed them.
19 Nowe therefore, O Lord our God, I beseech thee, saue thou vs out of his hand, that all the m kingdomes of the earth may knowe, that thou, O Lord, art onely God.
20 ¶ Then Isaiah the sonne of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, I haue heard that which thou hast prayed me, concerning Sanecherib King of Asshur.
21 This is the worde that the Lord hath spoken against him, O n Virgine, daughter of Zion, he hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorne:
O daughter of Ierusalem, hee hath shaken his head at thee.
22 Whom hast thou railed on? and whome hast thou blasphemed? and against whome hast thou exalted thy voyce, and lifted vp thine eyes on hie? euen o against the Holie one of Israel.
23 By thy messengers thou hast railed on the Lorde, and said, By the multitude of my charets I am come vp to the toppe of the mountaines, by the sides of Lebanon, and will cut downe the hie cedars thereof, and the faire firre trees thereof, and I will goe into the p lodging of his borders, and into the forest of ‖ his Carmel.
24 I haue digged, and drunke the waters of others, and with the plant of my feete haue I dried all the ‖ floods closed in.
25 Hast thou not heard, howe I haue of olde time made it, and haue formed it long agoe? q and should I nowe bring it, that it should be destroyed, & laid on ruinous heapes, as cities defensed?
26 Whose r inhabitants haue small power, and are afraid, and confounded: they are like the grasse of the field, and greene herbe, or grasse on ẏ house toppes, or as corne blasted before it growen.
27 I knowe thy dwelling, yea, thy going out, and thy comming in, and thy furie against me.
28 And because thou ragest against me, and thy tumult is come vp to mine eares, I will put mine s hooke in thy nostrels, and my bridle in thy lippes, and will bring thee backe againe the same way thou camest.
29 And this shalbe a t signe vnto thee, O Hezekiah, Thou shalt eate this yeere such things as growe of themselues, and the next yeere such as growe without sowing, and the third yeere sowe ye and reape, and plant vineyardes, and eate the fruites thereof.
30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Iudah, shall againe take u roote downewarde, and beare fruite vpwarde.
31 For out of Ierusalem shall goe a remnant,
and some that shall escape out of mount Zion:
the x zeale of the Lorde of hostes shall doe this.
32 Wherefore thus sayth the Lorde, concerning the King of Asshur, He shall not enter into this citie, nor shoote an arrowe there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a mount against it: 33 But he shall returne the way he came, and shall not come into this citie, sayth the Lorde.
34 For I will defende this citie to saue it for mine owne sake, and for Dauid my seruants sake.
35 ¶ * And the same night the Angell of the Lorde went out and smote in the campe of Asshur an hundreth fourescore and fiue thousande:
so when they rose earely in the morning, beholde,
they were all dead corpses.
26 So Sanecherib King of Asshur departed, and went his way, and returned, and dwelt in Nineueh.
27 And as he was in the Temple worshipping Nisroch his god, Adramelech and Sharezer his sonnes y slewe him with the sworde: and they escaped into the land of Ararat, and Esarhaddon his sonne reigned in his steade.

o God counteth the iniurie done to him, and will reuenge it, which is done to any of his Saints.

q He declareth that forasmuch as he is the authour and beginning of his Church, he will neuer suffer it vtterly to bee destroyed, as other cities, and kingdomes.
r Thus he describeth the wicked, which for a time florish, and afterward fade and decay like flowers.
s I will bridle thy rage & turne thee to and fro as pleaseth me. t God did not onely promise him the victorie, but giueth him a signe to confirme his fayth.
u The Lord will multiplie in great nomber that small remnant of Iudah that is escaped.

1 Hezekiah is sicke, and receiueth the signe of his health. 12 Hee receiueth rewardes of Berodach, 13 Sheweth his treasures, and is reprehended of Isaiah. 21 Hee dyeth, and Manasseh his sonne reigned in his steade.

Amoz

Amoz came to him, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lorde, Put thine house in an order: for thou shalt die, and not liue.
2 Then he turned his face to the a wall, and prayed to the Lord, saying, 3 I beseech thee, O Lorde, remember nowe, howe I haue walked before thee in trueth & with a b perfite heart, & haue done that which is good in thy sight: and Hezekiah c wept sore.
4 ¶ And afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle of the court, the worde of the Lord came to him, saying,
5 Turne againe, and tell Hezekiah the captaine of my people, Thus saith the Lorde God of Dauid thy father, I haue heard thy d prayer, and seene thy teares: behold, I haue healed thee, and ye third day thou shalt go vp to ye e house of ye Lord, 6 And I wil adde vnto thy dayes fiftene yere, and will deliuer thee and this citie out of the hand of the King of Asshur, and will defende this citie for mine owne sake, & for Dauid my seruants sake.
7 Then Isaiah sayde, Take a f lumpe of drie figges. And they tooke it, and layed it on the boile, and he recouered.
8 ¶ For Hezekiah had sayde vnto Isaiah,
What shalbe the signe that the Lorde will heale mee, and that I shall goe vp into the house of the Lord the third day?
9 And Isaiah answered, This signe shalt thou haue of the Lorde, that the Lorde will doe that he hath spoken, Wilt thou that the shadowe goe forward ten degrees, or * go backe ten degrees?
10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadowe to passe forward ten degrees: not so then, but let the shadow g go backe ten degrees.
11 And Isaiah the Prophet called vnto the Lord, and he brought againe the shadowe ten degrees backe by the degrees whereby it had gone downe in the h diall of Ahaz.
12 ¶ *The same season Berodach Baladan the sonne of Baladan King of Babel, sent letters and a i present to Hezekiah: for he had heard how that Hezekiah was sicke.
13 And Hezekiah heard them, and shewed them all his treasure house, to wit, the siluer, and the golde, and the spices, and the precious oynt-ment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was founde in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, and in all his k realme, that Hezekiah shewed them not.
14 Then Isaiah the Prophet came vnto King Hezekiah, and sayde vnto him, What sayde these men? and from whence came they to thee? And Hezekiah said, They be come from a farre countrey, euen from Babel.
15 Then saide hee, What haue they seene in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house haue they seene: there is nothing among my treasures, that I haue not shewed the.
16 And Isaiah said vnto Hezekiah, Heare the word of the Lord.
17 Beholde, the dayes come, that all that is in thine house, and what so euer thy fathers haue layed vp in store vnto this day, * shall bee caried into Babel: Nothing shall be left, saith the Lord.
18 And of thy sonnes, that shall proceede out of thee, and which thou shalt beget, shall they take away, & they shalbe eunuches in the palace of the King of Babel.
19 Then Hezekiah said vnto Isaiah, The word of the Lord which thou hast l spoken, is good: for said he, Shall it not be good, if m peace and truth be in my dayes?

kiah, and all his valiant deeds, and how he made a

CHAP. XXI.

3 King Manasseh restoreth idolatrie, 16 And vseth great crueltie. 18 He dieth, and Amon his sonne succeedeth, 23 Who is killed of his owne seruants. 26 After him reigneth Josiah.

Manasseh * was twelue yeeres olde when hee beganne to reigne, and reigned fiftie and fiue yeeres in Ierusalem: his mothers name also was Hephzi-bah.
2 And hee did euill in the sight of the Lorde after the abomination of the heathen, whom the
* Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.
3 For he went backe and built the hie places,
* which Hezekiah his father had destroyed: and he erected vp altars for Baal, and made a groue, as did Ahab King of Israel, & worshipped all the host of heauen and serued them.
4 Also hee * built altars in the house of the Lord, of the which the Lord said, * In Ierusalem will I put my Name.
5 And he built altars for all the host of ye heauen in the two courts of the house of the Lord.
6 And he caused his sonnes a to passe through the fire, and gaue himselfe to witchcraft and sorce-rie, and hee vsed them that had familiar spirits and were soothsayers, and did much euill in the sight of the Lord to anger him.
7 And hee set the image of the groue, that he had made, in the house, whereof the Lord had said to Dauid & to Salomon his sonne, * In this house and in Ierusalem, which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my Name for euer.
8 Neither will I make the feete of Israel mooue any more out of the lande, which I gaue their fathers: so that they will b obserue and do all that I haue commaunded them, and according to all the Lawe that my seruant Moses commaunded them.
9 Yet they obeyed not, but Manasseh ledde them out of the way, to doe more wickedly then did the heathen people, whom the Lord destroyed before the children of Israel.
10 Therefore the Lorde spake by his seruants the Prophets, saying, 11 * Because that Manasseh King of Iudah hath done such abominations, and hath wrought more wickedly then all that the Amorites (which were before him) did, and hath made Iudah sinne also with his idoles, 12 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Beholde, I will bring an euill vpon Ierusalem & Iudah, that who so heareth of it, both his * eares shall c tingle.
13 And I will stretch ouer Ierusalem the line d of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Ierusalem, as a man wipeth a dish, which he wipeth, and turneth it vpside inheritance, and deliuer them into the hand of their enemies, and they shalbe robbed and spoyled of all their aduersaries, 15 Because they haue done euill in my sight, and haue prouoked me to anger, since the time their fathers came out of Egypt vntill this day.

16 Moreouer Manasseh shed f innocent blood exceeding much, till hee replenished Ierusalem from corner to corner, beside his sinne wherewith hee made Iudah to sinne, and to doe euill in the seh, and all that he did, and his sinne that he sinyeere in Ierusalem: his mothers name also was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Iotbah.

his father Manasseh did.

walked in, and serued the idoles that his father ser-ued, and worshipped them.
22 And he forsooke the Lord God of his fathers, and walked not in the g way of the Lord.

gainst him, and slewe the King in his owne house.

that had conspired against King Amon, and the people made Iosiah his sonne King in his stead.

4 Iosiah repaireth the Temple. 8 Hilkiah findeth the booke of the Law, and causeth it to be presented to Iosiah. 12 Who sendeth to Huldah the prophetesse to inquire the Lords will.

IOsiah was * eight yeere olde when he began to reigne, and hee reigned one and thirtie yeere in Ierusalem. His mothers name also was Iedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozcath.
2 And hee did vprightly in the sight of the Lord, and a walked in all the wayes of Dauid his father, and bowed neither to the right hand, nor to the left.
3 ¶ And in the eighteenth yeere of King Io-siah, the King sent Shaphan the sonne of Azaliah the sonne of Meshullam the chanceller to the house of the Lord, saying, 4 Goe vp to Hilkiah the high Priest, that he may ‖ summe the siluer which is brought into the house of the Lorde, which the keepers of the ‖ b doore haue gathered of the people.
5 And let them c deliuer it into the hand of them that doe the worke, and haue the ouersight of the house of the Lord: let them giue it to them that worke in the house of the Lorde, to repaire the decayed places of the house:

masons, and to bye timber, and hewed stone to repayre the house.

‖Or, coyne, as verse 9.

‖Or, vessell.

b Certaine of the Priests were appoynted to this office, as Chap. 12.9.

c From the time of Ioash for the space of 224. yeres the temple remained without reparation through the negligence of the priests, this declareth, that they that haue a charge, and execute it not, ought to haue it taken from them.

7 Howbeit, let no reckoning bee made with them of the money, that is deliuered into their hand: for they deale d faithfully.
8 And Hilkiah the high Priest sayde vnto Shaphan the chanceller, I haue found the e booke of the Lawe in the house of the Lorde: and Hilkiah gaue the booke to Shaphan, and hee read it.
9 So Shaphan the chanceller came to the King, and brought him word againe, and sayde, Thy ser-uants haue † gathered the money, that was found in the house, and haue deliuered it vnto the hands of them that doe the worke, and haue the ouersight of the house of the Lord.
10 Also Shaphan the chanceller shewed the King, saying, Hilkiah the Priest hath deliuered me a booke. And Shaphan read it before the King.
11 And when the King had heard the wordes
of the booke of the Law, he rent his clothes.
12 Therefore the King commanded Hilkiah the Priest, and Ahikam the sonne of Shaphan, and Achbor the sonne of Michaiah, and Shaphan the chanceller, and Asahiah the Kings seruant, saying, 13 Goe ye and f inquire of the Lord for me, and for the people, and for all Iudah concerning the wordes of this booke that is founde: for great is the wrath of the Lord that is kindled against vs, because our fathers haue not obeyed the wordes of this booke, to doe according vnto all that which is written therein for vs.
14 ¶ So Hilkiah the Priest and Ahikam, and Achbor & Shaphan, and Asahiah went vnto Huldah the Prophetesse the wife of Shallum, the sonne of Tikuah, the sonne of Harhas keeper of the wardrobe: (and she dwelt in Ierusalem in the g colledge) and they communed with her.
15 And shee answered them, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,
16 Thus saith the Lord, Beholde, I will bring euill vpon this place, and on the inhabitants thereof, euen all the wordes of the booke which the King of Iudah hath read, 17 Because they haue forsaken mee, and haue burnt incense vnto other gods, to anger me with al the h works of their hands: my wrath also shalbe kindled against this place & shal not be quenched.
18 But to the King of Iudah, who sent you to inquire of the Lord, so shall ye say vnto him, Thus sayeth the Lorde God of Israel, The wordes that thou hast heard, shall come to passe.
19 But because thine heart did i melt, & thou hast humbled thy selfe before the Lorde, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants of the same, to wit, that it should be destroyed and accursed, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me, I haue also heard it, saith the Lord.
20 Beholde therfore, I will gather thee to thy fathers, & thou shalt be put in thy graue in k peace, and thine eyes shall not see all the euill, which I will bring vpon this place. Thus they brought the King word againe.

d So God prouided him of faithfull seruants, seeing hee went about so zealously to set foorth the worke of God.

e This was the copie that Moses left them, as appeareth, 2.Chro 34.14. which either by the negligence of the Priests had bene lost, or els by the wickednesse of idolatrous kings had bene abolished.

i Meaning, that he did repent, as they that doe not repent, are sayde to harden their heart, Psal.95.8.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Iosiah readeth the Lawe before the people. 3 Hee maketh a couenant with the Lorde. 4 Hee putteth downe the idols, after hee had killed their Priestes. 22 Hee keepeth Passeouer. 24 Hee destroyeth the coniurers. 29 Hee was killed in Megiddo. 30 And his sonne Iehoahaz reigneth in his stead. 33 After hee was taken, his sonne Iehoiakim was made King.

Then

THen * the King [a] sent, and there gathered vnto him all the Elders of Iudah and of Ierusalem.
2 And the King went vp into the house of the Lord, with all the men of Iudah and all the inhabitants of Ierusalem with him, and the Priests and Prophets, and all the people both small and great:
and hee read in their eares all the wordes of the booke of the couenant, which was founde in the house of the Lord.
3 And the King stood by [b] the pillar, and made a [c] couenant before the Lorde, that they shoulde walke after the Lord, and keepe his commaundements, and his testimonies, and his statutes with all their heart, and with all their soule, that they might accomplish the wordes of this couenant written in this booke. And all the people stood to the couenant.
4 Then the King commanded Hilkiah the hie Priest and the [d] priestes of the second order, and the keepers of the doore, to bring out of the Temple of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the groue, and for all the hoste of heauen, and he burnt them without Ierusalem in the fieldes of Kedron, and caried [e] the pouder of them into Beth-el.
5 And he put downe the [f] Chemarims, whom the Kings of Iudah had founded to burne incense in the hie places, and in the cities of Iudah, and about Ierusalem, and also them that burnt incense vnto Baal, to the sunne and to the moone, and to the planets, and to all the hoste of heauen.
6 And hee brought out the [g] groue from the Temple of the Lord without Ierusalem vnto the valley of Kedron, and burnt it in the valley Kedron, and stampt it to pouder, and cast the dust thereof vpon the [h] graues of the children of the people.
7 And he brake downe the houses of the Sodomites, that were in the house of the Lord, where the women woue hangings for the groue.
8 Also he brought all the priests out of the cities of Iudah, and defiled the hie places where the Priestes had burnt incense, euen from Geba to Beer-sheba, and destroyed the hie places of the gates, that were in the entring in of the gate of Ioshua the gouernour of the citie, which was at the left hand of the gate of the citie.
9 Neuerthelesse the Priestes of the hie places
[i] came not vp to the altar of the Lord in Ierusalem, saue onely they did eate of the vnleauened bread among their brethren.
10 He defiled also [k] Topheth, which was in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man shoulde make his sonne or his daughter to passe through the fire to Molech.
11 Hee put downe also the [l] horses that the Kings of Iudah had giuen to the sunne at the en-tring in of the house of the Lord, by the chamber of Nethan-melech the eunuch, which was ruler of the suburbes, and burnt the charets of the sunne with fire.
12 And the altars that were on the top of the chamber of Ahaz, which the Kings of Iudah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the Lord did the King breake downe, and hasted thence, and cast the dust of them in the ‖ brooke Kedron.

lomon the King of Israel had built for Ashtoreth

15 Furthermore [n] the altar that was at Beth-el,

Nebat, which made Israel to sinne, both this altar and also the hie place, brake he downe, and burnt the hie place, and stampt it to pouder and burnt

16 And as Iosiah turned himselfe, he spied the graues, that were in the mount, and sent and tooke the bones out of the graues, and burnt them vpon the altar and polluted it, according to the word of the Lorde, that the [o] man of God proclaimed, which cryed the same wordes.
17 Then he sayde, What title is that which I see? And the men of the citie sayd vnto him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Iudah, and tolde these things that thou hast done to the altar of Beth-el.
18 Then sayde he, Let him alone: let none re-mooue his bones. So his bones were saued with the bones of the [p] Prophet that came from Samaria.
19 Iosiah also tooke away all the houses of the hie places, which were in the cities of Samaria, which the Kings of Israel had made to anger the Lord, and did to them according to all the factes that he had done in Beth-el.
20 And he sacrificed all the Priestes of the hie places that were there vpon the altars, and burnt mens bones vpon them, and returned to Ierusalem.
21 ¶ Then the king commanded all the people, saying, * Keepe the passeouer vnto the Lord couenant.

rael, nor in all the dayes of the Kings of Israel, and of this Kings of Iudah, 23 And in the eighteenth yeere of King Iosiah was this Passeouer celebrated vnto the Lord in Ie-
rusalem.
24 Iosiah also tooke away them that had familiar spirits, and the soothsayers, and the images, and the idoles, and all the abominations that were espied in the land of Iudah and in Ierusalem, to performe the wordes of the * Lawe, which were written in the booke that Hilkiah the Priest found in the house of the Lord.
25 Like vnto him was there no King before him, that turned to the Lord with all his heart, and with all his soule, and with all his might according to all the Lawe of Moses, neither after him arose there any like him.
26 Notwithstanding the Lord turned not from the [r] fiercenesse of his great wrath wherewith he was angry against Iudah, because of all the prouo-cations wherewith Manasseh had prouoked him.
27 Therefore the Lorde sayde, I will put Iudah also out of my sight, as I haue put away Israel, and will cast off this citie Ierusalem, which I

IN his [a] dayes came Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel vp, and Iehoiakim became his seruaunt three yeere: afterwarde he turned, and rebelled against him.
2 And the Lord sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Aramites, and bands of the Moabites, and bandes of the Ammonites, and he sent them against Iudah to destroy it, * according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by his seruants the Prophets.
3 Surely by the [b] commaundement of the Lorde came this vpon Iudah, that hee might put them out of his sight for the sinnes of Manasseh, according to all that he did,
4 And for the innocent blood that he shed,
(for hee filled Ierusalem with innocent blood) therefore the Lord would not pardon it.
5 Concerning the rest of the actes of Iehoi-akim, and all that hee did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kinges of Iudah?
6 So Iehoiakim [c] slept with his fathers, and Iehoiachin his sonne reigned in his stead.
7 ¶ And the King of Egypt came no more out of his lande: for the King of Babel had taken from the riuer of Egypt, vnto the riuer || Perath, all that perteined to the King of Egypt.
8 ¶ Iehoiachin was eighteene yeres old, when hee beganne to reigne, and reigned in Ierusalem three moneths. His mothers name also was Ne-hushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Ierusalem.
9 And he did euill in the sight of the Lord according to all that his father had done.
10 * In that time came the seruants of Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel vp against Ierusalem:
so the citie was besieged.
11 And Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel came against the citie, and his seruantes did besiege it.
12 Then Iehoiachin the king of Iudah [d] came out against the King of Babel, he, and his mother and his seruants, and his princes, & his eunuches:
& the King of Babel tooke him in the eight yere [e] of his reigne.
13 * And hee caried out thence all the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the Kings house, and brake all the vessels of gold, which Salomon King of Israel had made in the Temple of the Lord, as the Lord had said.
14 And he caried away all Ierusalem, and all the princes, and all the strong men of warre, euen ten thousande into captiuitie, and all the worke-men, and cunning men: so none remained sauing the poore people of the land.
15 * And hee caried away Iehoiachin into Babel, and the Kings mother, and the Kings wiues, and his eunuches, and the mightie of the lande caried hee away into captiuitie from Ierusalem to Babel,
16 And all the men of warre, euen seuen thousand, and carpenters, and lockesmithes a thousand:
all that were strong & apt for warre, did the King of Babel bring to Babel captiues.
17 ¶ * And the King of Babel made Mattaname to Zedekiah.

18 Zedekiah was one and twentie yeere olde, when he began to reigne, and hee reigned eleuen yeeres in Ierusalem. His mothers name also was Hamutal the daughter of Ieremiah of Libnah.
19 And he did euill in the sight of the Lord,

20 Therefore certainly the wrath of the Lord was against Ierusalem and Iudah vntill hee cast them out of his [f] sight. And Zedekiah rebelled a-7 And they slewe the sonnes of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, buzar-adan ‖chiefe stewarde and seruaunt of the 9 And burnt the house of the Lorde, and the Kings house, and all the houses of Ierusalem, and all the great houses burnt he with fire.

10 And all the armie of the Caldees that were with the chiefe stewarde, brake downe the walles

the King of Babel,with the remnant of the multitude,did Nebuzar-adan chiefe steward cary away

12 But the chiefe steward left of the poore of the land to dresse the vines,and to till the land.
13 * Also the pillars of brasse that were in the house of the Lorde, and the bases, and the brasen Sea that was in the house of the Lorde, did the Caldees breake, and caried the brasse of them to Babel.
14 The pots h also and the besomes, and the instruments of musike, and the incense dishes,and al the vessels of brasse that they ministred in,tooke they away.
15 And the ash pannes, and the basens, and all that was of golde,and that was of siluer, tooke the chiefe steward away, 16 With the two pillars, one Sea and the bases, which Salomon had made for the house of the Lorde: the brasse of all these vessels was without weight.
17 * The height of the one pillar was eigh-teene cubites,and the chapiter thereon was brasse, and the height of the chapiter was with networke three cubites, and pomegranates vpon the cha-piter rounde about, all of brasse: and likewise was the second pillar with the networke.
18 And the chiefe steward tooke Seraiah the chiefe Priest, and Zephaniah the i seconde Priest, and the three keepers of the doore.
19 And out of the citie hee tooke an Eunuch that had the ouersight of the men of warre, and k fiue men of them that were in the Kinges presence, which were founde in the citie, and Sopher captaine of the hoste, who mustred the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land,that were found in the citie.
20 And Nebuzar-adan the chiefe stewarde tooke them, and brought them to the King of Babel to Riblah.
21 And the King of Babel smote them,& slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Iudah was caried away captiue out of his owne land.
22 * Howbeit there remained people in the land of Iudah, whom Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel left, and made Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam the sonne of Shaphan ruler ouer them.
23 Then when all the captaines of the host & their men heard, that the king of Babel had made Gedaliah gouernour, they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah,to wit, Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah, and Iohanan the sonne of Kareah, and Seraiah the sonne of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, & Iaazaniah the sonne of Maachathi, they and their men.
24 And Gedaliah l sware to them, and to their men, and said vnto them, Feare not to be the ser-uants of the Caldees: dwell in the land,and serue the King of Babel,and ye shalbe well.
25 * But in the seuenth moneth Ishmael the sonne of Nethaniah the sonne of Elishama of the Kings seede, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah,& he died,& so did he the Iewes, and the Caldees that were with him at Mizpah.
26 Then all the people both small & great,and the captaines of the armie arose,and came to m Egypt: for they were afraid of the Caldees.
27 Notwithstanding in the seuen and thirtieth yeere after n Iehoiachin King of Iudah was caried away in the twelft moneth and the seuen and twentieth day of the moneth, Euil-merodach King of Babel in the yere that he began to reigne, did lift vp the head of Iehoiachin King of Iudah out of the prison,

aboue the throne of the Kings that were with him in Babel,

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Iewes comprehend both these bookes in one, which the Grecians because of the length diuide into two: and they are called Chronicles, because they note briefly the histories from Adam to the returne from their captiuitie in Babylon. But these are not those books of Chronicles, which are so oft mentioned in the books of the Kings of Judah & Jsrael, which did at large set forth the storie of both the kingdoms, and afterward perished in the captiuitie: but an abridgement of the same, and were gathered by Ezra, as the Iewes write, after their returne from Babylon. This first booke conteineth a briefe rehearsall of the children of Adam vnto Abraham, Izhak, Iaakob, and the twelue Patriarches, chiefly of Iudah and of the reigne of Dauid, because Christ came of him according to the flesh. And therefore it setteth foorth more amply his actes, both concerning ciuill gouernement, and also the administration, and care of things concerning religion, for the good successe whereof he reioyceth, and giueth thanks to the Lord.

had made a breach in Vzza, and he called the 10 Then Dauid asked counsel at God, saying, Shall I goe vp against the Philistims, and wilt thou deliuer them into mine hande? And the Lorde saide vnto him, Goe vp: for I will deliuer them into thine hand.

11 So they came vp to Baal-perazim, and Da-uid smote them there: and Dauid said, God hath deuided

deuided mine enemies with mine hand, as waters are deuided: therefore they called the name of that place, [c] Baal-perazim.

12 And there they had left their gods: and Dauid said, Let them euen be burnt with fire.

13 Againe the Philistims came & spread themselues in the valley.

14 And when Dauid asked againe counsell at God, God saide to him, Thou shalt not goe vp after them, but turne away from them, that thou maiest come vpon them ouer against the mulberie trees.

15 And when thou hearest the noise of one going in the toppes of the mulberie trees, then goe out to battell: for God is gone foorth before thee, to smite the hoste of the Philistims.

16 So Dauid did as God had commaunded him: and they smote the hoste of the Philistims from Gibeon euen to Gezer.

17 And the fame of Dauid went out into all landes: and the Lorde brought the feare of him vpon all nations.

c That is, the valley of diuisions, because the enemies were dispersed there like waters.

CHAP. XV.

1 Dauid prepareth an house for the Arke. 4 The number and order of the Leuites. 16 The singers are chosen out among them. 25 They bring againe the Arke with ioye. 29 Dauid dauncing before it, is despised of his wife Michal.

AND Dauid made him houses in the [a] citie of Dauid, and prepared a place for the Arke of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then Dauid saide, * None ought to carie the Arke of God, but the Leuites: for the Lorde hath chosen them to beare the Arke of the Lorde, and to minister vnto him for euer.

3 ¶ And Dauid gathered all Israel together to Ierusalem to bring vp the [b] Arke of the Lorde vnto his place, which he had ordeined for it.

4 And Dauid assembled the sonnes of Aaron, and the Leuites.

5 Of the sonnes of Kohath, Vriel the chiefe, and his ‖ brethren sixe score.

6 Of the sonnes of Merari, Asaiah the chiefe, and his brethren two hundreth and twentie.

7 Of the sonnes of Gershom, Ioel the chiefe, and his brethren an hundreth and thirtie.

8 Of the sonnes of [c] Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chiefe, and his brethren two hundreth.

9 Of the sonnes of [d] Hebron, Eliel the chiefe, and his brethren fourescore.

10 Of the sonnes of Vzziel, Amminadab the chiefe, and his brethren an hundreth and twelue.

11 ¶ And Dauid called Zadok and Abiathar the Priestes, and of the Leuites, Vriel, Asaiah and Ioel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab:

12 And he saide vnto them, Ye are the chiefe fathers of the Leuites: [e] sanctifie your selues, and your brethren, and bring vp the Arke of the Lord God of Israel vnto the place that I haue prepared for it.

13 For * because ye were not there at the first, the Lorde our God made a breach among vs: for we sought him not after due [f] order.

14 So the Priestes and the Leuites sanctified themselues to bring vp the Arke of the Lord God of Israel.

15 ¶ And the sonnes of the Leuites bare the Arke of God vpon their shoulders with the barres, as Moses had commanded, * according to the worde of the Lorde.

16 And Dauid spake to the chiefe of the Leuites, that they should appoint certaine of their brethren to sing with [g] instruments of musike, with violes and harpes, and cymbales, that they might make a sounde, and lift vp their voice with ioye.

17 So the Leuites appointed Heman the sonne of Ioel, and of his brethren Asaph the sonne of Berechiah, and of the sonnes of Merari their brethren, Ethan the sonne of Kushaiah, 18 And with them their brethren in the [h] second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Iaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Iehiel, and Vnni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneah, and Obed Edom, and Ieiel the porters.

19 So Heman, Asaph and Ethan were singers to make a sounde with cymbales of brasse,

20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Iehiel, and Vnni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah with violes on [i] Alamoth, 21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneah, and Obed Edom, and Ieiel, and Azaziah, with harpes vpon [k] Sheminith Ienazzeah.

22 But Chenaniah the chiefe of the Leuites had [l] the charge, bearing ŷ burden in the charge, for he was able to instruct.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were porters for the Arke.

24 And Shecaniah and Iehoshaphat and Nethaneel and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer the Priestes did blowe with trumpets before the Arke of God, and Obed Edom and Iehiah were porters [m] for the Arke.

25 * So Dauid and the Elders of Israel and the captaines of thousandes went to bring vp the Arke of the couenant of the Lord from the house of Obed Edom with ioye.

26 And because that God [n] helped the Leuites that bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lorde, they offered [o] seuen bullockes and seuen rammes.

27 And Dauid had on him a linnen garment, as all the Leuites that bare the Arke, and the singers and Chenaniah that had the chiefe charge of the singers: and vpon Dauid was a linnen [p] Ephod.

28 Thus all Israel brought vp the Arke of the Lordes couenant with shouting and sounde of cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbales, making a sound with violes and with harpes.

29 And when the Arke of the [q] couenant of the Lorde came into the citie of Dauid, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at a windowe, and sawe King Dauid dauncing and playing, and * she despised him in her heart.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Arke being placed, they offer sacrifices. 4 Dauid ordeineth Asaph and his brethren to minister before the Lorde. 8 He appointeth a notable Psalme to be sung in praise of the Lorde.

SO * they brought in the Arke of God, and set it in the middes of the Tabernacle that Dauid had pitched for it, and they offred burnt offrings and peace offrings before God.

2 And when Dauid had made an ende of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he [a] blessed the people in the Name of the Lorde.

3 Dauid is forbidden to builde an house vnto the Lorde. 11 Christ is promised vnder the figure of Salomon. 18 Dauid giueth thankes, 23 And prayeth vnto God.

holde, I dwell in an house of a cedar trees, but the Arke of the Lordes couenant remaineth vnder

2 Then Nathan said to Dauid, Doe c all that is in thine heart: for God is with thee.
3 And the same d night euen the word of God came to Nathan, saying, 4 Goe, and tell Dauid my seruant, Thus saith the Lorde, Thou shalt not builde me an house to dwell in:
5 For I haue dwelt in no house, since the day that I brought out the children of Israel vnto this day, but I haue bene from e tent to tent, and from 6 Wheresoeuer I haue f walked with all Israel, spake I one word to any of the iudges of Israel (whom I commanded to feede my people) saying, Why haue ye not built me an house of cedar trees?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say vnto my seruant Dauid, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I † wicked people ‖ vexe them any more, as at the beginning,

11 And when thy dayes shalbe fulfilled to go ter thee, which shalbe of thy sonnes, and will stablish his kingdome.

12 He shall build me an house, and I will stablish his throne for [k] euer.
13 I wil be his father, and he shalbe my sonne,

I tooke it from him that was before [l] thee.
14 But I wil establish him in mine house, and in my kingdome for euer, and his throne shall be stablished for euer, ding to al this vision. So Nathan spake to Dauid.

16 ¶ And Dauid the King [m] went in and ‖ sate before the Lord & said, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me [n] hitherto?
17 Yet thou esteeming this a small thing, O God, hast also spoken concerning the house of thy seruant for a great while, & hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of [o] hie degree, O Lord God.
18 What can Dauid desire more of thee for the honour of thy seruant? for thou knowest thy seruant.
19 O Lord, for thy seruants sake, euen according to thine [p] heart hast thou done all this great thing to declare all magnificence.
20 Lord, there is none like thee, neither is there deeme them to be his people, and to make thy selfe a Name, and to doe great and terrible things by casting out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast deliuered out of Egypt?

22 For thou hast ordeined thy people Israel to be thine owne people for euer, and thou Lord art become their God.
23 Therefore nowe Lorde, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy seruant & concerning his house, be confirmed for euer, and doe as thou hast sayd, 24 And let thy name be stable and magnified for euer, that it may be sayd, The Lorde of hostes, God of Israel, is the God of [q] Israel, and let the house of Dauid thy seruant bee stablished before thee.
25 For thou, O my God, hast [r] reueiled vnto the eare of thy seruant, that thou wilt builde him an house: therefore thy seruant hath † bene bolde to pray before thee.
26 Therefore nowe Lord (for thou art [s] God, and hast spoken this goodnesse vnto thy seruant.)

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The battell of Dauid against the Philistims, 2 And against Moab, 3 Zobah, 5 Aram, 12 And Edom.

AND after this, Dauid smote the Philistims, & subdued them, and tooke [a] Gath, and the villages thereof out of the hand of the Philistims.
2 And he smote Moab, and the Moabites became Dauids seruants, and ‖ brought gifts.
3 ¶ And Dauid smote ‖ Hadarezer King of Zobah vnto Hamath, as hee went to stablish his border by the riuer ‖ Perath.
4 And Dauid tooke frō him a thousand charets, and seuen thousand horsemen, and twentie rets, but he reserued of them an hundreth charets.

5 ¶ Then came the Aramites of Damascus to slewe of the Aramites two and twentie thousand.

6 And Dauid put a garison in Aram of ‖ Damascus, & the Aramites became Dauids seruants, and brought giftes: and the Lorde [b] preserued Dauid wheresoeuer he went.
7 And Dauid tooke the shieldes of gold that were of the seruants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Ierusalem.
8 And from [c] Tibhath, and from Chun (cities of Hadarezer) brought Dauid exceeding much brasse, wherewith Salomon made the bra-sen * Sea, and the pillars and the vessels of brasse.
9 ¶ Then Tou King of Hamath heard howe Dauid had smitten all the hoste of Hadarezer King of Zobah:
10 Therefore he sent [d] Hadoram his sonne to King Dauid, to salute him, and to reioyce with him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, & beaten him (for Tou had warre with Hadarezer) who brought all vessels of golde and siluer and brasse.
11 ¶ And King Dauid did dedicate them vnto the Lorde, with the siluer and golde that hee brought from all the nations, from [e] Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistims, and from Amalek.
12 ¶ And Abishai the sonne of Zeruiah smote of Edom in the salt valley [f] eighteene thousand, 13 And he put a garison in Edom, and all the Edomites became Dauids seruants: and the Lord preserued Dauid wheresoeuer he went.
14 So Dauid reigned ouer all Israel, and executed iudgement and iustice to all his people.
15 And Ioab the sonne of Zeruiah was ouer

4 Hanun King of the children of Ammon doth great iniuries to the seruants of Dauid. 6 He prepareth an armie against Dauid, 15 And is ouercome.

AFter this also * Nahash the King of the chil-1 dren of Ammon died, and his sonne reigned in his stead.

* 2. Sam. 10.1.

2 And

2 And Dauid said, I will shew kindnesse vnto Hanun the sonne of Nahash, because his [a] father shewed kindnesse vnto me. And Dauid sent messengers to comfort him for his father. So the ser-uants of Dauid came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun to comfort him.
3 And the princes of the children of Ammon saide to Hanun, Thinkest thou that Dauid doeth honour thy father, that hee hath sent comforters vnto thee? Are not his seruaunts come to thee to [b] search, to seeke and to spie out the land?
4 Wherefore Hanun tooke Dauids seruants, and [c] shaued them, & cut off [d] their garments by the halfe vnto the buttocks, and sent them away.
5 And there went certaine and tolde Dauid concerning the men: and hee sent to meete them (for the men were exceedingly ashamed) and the King saide, Tarie at Iericho, vntill your beards be growen: then returne.
6 ¶ When the children of Ammon saw that they ‖ stanke in the sight of Dauid, then sent Hanun and the children of Ammon a thousande talents of siluer to hire them charets and horsemen out * of Aram Naharaim and out of Aram Maachah, and out of [e] Zobah.
7 And they hired them two and thirtie thousande charets, and the King of Maachah and his people, which came and pitched before [f] Mede-ba: and the children of Ammon gathered themselues together from their cities, and came to the battell.
8 ¶ And when Dauid heard, he sent Ioab and all the host of the valiant men.
9 And the children of Ammon came out, and set their battell in aray at the gate of the city. And the Kings that were come, were by themselues in the field.
10 When Ioab sawe that the front of the battell was against him before and behinde, then he chose out of all the choise of Israel, & set himselfe in aray to meet the Aramites.
11 And the rest of the people hee deliuered vnto the hande of Abishai his brother, and they put them selues in aray against the children of Ammon.
12 And he said, If Aram be too strong for me, then thou shalt succour me: and if the children of Ammon preuaile against thee, then I will succour
thee.
13 Be strong, and let vs shewe our selues valiant for our [g] people, and for the cities of our God, & let the Lord do that which is good in his owne sight.
14 So Ioab and the people that was with him, came neere before the Aramites vnto the battell,
and they fled before him.
15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Aramites fled, they fled also before Abishai his brother, and entred into the citie: so Ioab came to Ierusalem.

were discomfited before Israel, they sent messengers & caused the Aramites to come forth ẏ were the host of Hadarezer went before them.

red all Israel, and went ouer Iorden, and came vnto them, and put himselfe in aray against them:
And when Dauid had put himselfe in battell aray to meet the Aramites, they fought with him.

Dauid, and serued him. And the Aramites woulde no more succour the children of Ammon.

CHAP. XX.

1 Rabbah destroyed. 3 The Ammonites tormented. 4 The Philistims are thrise ouercome with their giants.

AND * when the yeere was expired, in the time that Kings goe out a warfare, Ioab caried out the strength of the armie, and destroyed the countrey of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged [a] Rabbah (but Dauid taried at Ierusalem) and Ioab smote Rabbah and destroyed it.
2 * Then Dauid tooke the crowne of their King from off his head, and found it the weight of a [b] talent of golde, with precious stones in it: and it was set on Dauids head, and hee brought away the spoile of the citie exceeding much.
3 And hee caried away the people that were in it, and cut them with sawes, and with harrowes of yron, and with axes: euen thus did Dauid with all the cities of the children of Ammon.
Then Dauid and all the people came againe to Ierusalem.
4 ¶ * And after this also there arose warre at ‖ Gezer with the Philistims: then Sibbechai the Hushathite slewe ‖ Sippai, of the children of ‖ Ha-raphah, and they were subdued.
5 And there was yet another battell with the Philistims: and Elhanan the sonne of Iair slewe [c] Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spearestaffe was like a weauers beame.
6 And yet againe there was a battell at Gath, there was a man of a great stature, and his fingers were by [d] sixes, euen foure and twentie, and was also the sonne of Haraphah.
7 And when he reuiled Israel, Iehonathan the sonne of Shimea Dauids brother did slay him.
8 These were borne vnto Haraphah at Gath, and fell by the hand of Dauid, and by the handes of his seruants.

1 Dauid causeth the people to be numbred, 14 And there die seuentie thousand men of the pestilence.

AND [a] Satan stoode vp against Israel, and prouoked Dauid to number Israel.
2 Therefore Dauid saide to Ioab, and to the rulers of the people, Go, and number Israel from [b] Beer-sheba euen to Dan, and bring it to me, that I may know the number of them.
3 And Ioab answered, The Lord increase his people an hundreth times so many as they be, O my lord the King: are they not all my lords ser-uants? wherefore doeth my lord require this thing?
why should he be a cause of [c] trespasse to Israel?

gainst Ioab. And Ioab departed and went thorow all Israel, and returned to Ierusalem.

thousand men that drew sword.
6 But the Leuites and Beniamin counted hee not among them: for the Kings word was abominable to Ioab.
7 ¶ And God was displeased with this thing:
therefore he smote Israel.
8 Then Dauid saide vnto God, I haue sinned greatly, because I haue done this thing: but now, I beseeche thee, remooue the iniquitie of thy seruant: for I haue done very foolishly.
9 And the Lord spake vnto Gad Dauids ‖Seer, saying,
10 Goe and tell Dauid, saying, Thus saith the Lord, I offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may doe it vnto thee.
11 So Gad came to Dauid, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Take to thee 12 Either three yeres famine, or three moneths to be destroyed before thine aduersaries, and the sworde of thine enemies ‖ to take thee, or els the sword of the Lord and pestilence in the land three dayes, that the Angell of the Lorde may destroy throughout all the coasts of Israel: now therefore aduise thee, what word I shall bring againe to him that sent me.
13 And Dauid said vnto Gad, I am in a won-derfull strait. let me nowe fall into the hand of the Lord: for his mercies are exceeding great, and let me not fall into the hand of man.
14 So the Lord sent a pestilence in Israel, and there fell of Israel seuentie thousand men.
15 ¶ And God sent the Angel into Ierusalem to destroy it. And [f] as he was destroying, the Lord beheld, and [g] repented of the euill and said to the Angell that destroyed, It is now enough, let thine hand cease. Then the Angell of the Lord stood by the thresshing floore of ‖ Ornan the Iebusite.
16 And Dauid lift vp his eyes, and saw the Angel of the Lord stand betweene the earth and the heauen with his sworde drawen in his hande and stretched out toward Ierusalem. Then Dauid and the Elders of Israel, which were clothed in sacke, fell vpon their faces.
17 And Dauid said vnto God, Is it not I that commanded to number the people? It is euen I that haue sinned and haue committed euill, but these sheepe what haue they done? O Lorde my God, I beseech thee, let thine hand be on me and on my fathers house, and not on [h] thy people for their destruction.
18 ¶ Then the Angel of the Lord commanded Gad to say to Dauid, that Dauid should goe vp, & set vp an altar vnto the Lorde in the thresshing floore of Ornan the Iebusite.
19 So Dauid went vp according to the saying of Gad, which hee had spoken in the Name of the Lord.
20 And Ornan turned about and saw the Angel, and his foure sonnes, that were with him, [i] hid themselues, and Ornan thresshed wheat.
21 And as Dauid came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw Dauid, and went out of the thresshing floore, and bowed himselfe to Dauid with his face to the ground.
22 And Dauid saide to Ornan, Giue mee the place of thy thresshing floore, that I may builde an [k] altar therein vnto the Lorde: giue it mee for sufficient money, that the plague may be stayed from the people.
23 Then Ornan saide vnto Dauid, Take it to thee, and let my lord the King do that which seemeth him good: loe, I giue thee bullockes for burnt offringes, and thresshing instrumentes for wood, and wheat for meate offring, I giue it all.
24 And King Dauid saide to Ornan, Not so:
but I will bye it for sufficient [l] money: for I will not take that which is thine for the Lord, nor offer burnt offrings without cost.
25 So Dauid gaue to Ornan for that place [m] sixe hundreth shekels of golde by weight.
26 And Dauid built there an altar vnto the Lorde, and offred burnt offringes, and peace of-frings, and called vpon the Lorde, and he [n] answered him by fire from heauen vpon the altar of burnt offring.
27 And when the Lorde had spoken to the Angel, hee put vp his sworde againe into his sheath.
28 At that time when Dauid saw that the Lord had heard him in the thresshing floore of Ornan the Iebusite, then he sacrificed there.
29 (But the Tabernacle of the Lorde which Moses had made in the wildernesse, and the altar of burnt offring were at that season in the hie place at Gibeon.
30 And Dauid could not goe before it to aske counsell at God: for he was afraide of the sworde of the Angel of the Lord.)

CHAP. XXII.

2 Dauid prepareth things necessarie for the building of the Temple. 6 He commandeth his sonne Salomon to build the Temple of the Lord, which thing he himselfe was forbidden to doe. 9 Under the figure of Salomon Christ is promised.

AND Dauid saide, This is the [a] house of the Lorde God, and this is the altar for the burnt offring of Israel.
2 And Dauid commanded to gather together the [b] strangers that were in the land of Israel, and he set masons to hew aud polish stones to builde the house of God.
3 Dauid also prepared [c] much yron for the nayles of the doores and of the gates, and for the ioyninges, aud abundance of brasse passing weight,
4 And cedar trees without number: for the Zidonians and they of Tyrus brought much cedar wood to Dauid.
5 And Dauid saide, Salomon my sonne is yoong and tender, and we must builde an house for the Lorde, magnificall, excellent and of great fame and dignitie throughout all countreyes. I will therefore nowe prepare for him. So Dauid prepared very much before his death.
6 Then he called Salomon his sonne, & charged him to builde an house for the Lorde God of Israel.
7 And Dauid said to Salomon, * My sonne, I purposed with my selfe to builde an house to the Name of the Lord my God, 8 But the word of the Lord came to me, saying, * [d] Thou hast shed much blood, & hast made great battels: thou shalt not builde an house vnto my Name: for thou hast shed much blood vpon the earth in my sight.
9 Beholde, a sonne is borne to thee, which shalbe a man of rest, for I will giue him rest from all his enemies rounde about: therefore his name is Salomon: and I will sende peace and quietnesse vpon Israel in his dayes.

10 * Hee shall builde an house for my Name, vpon Israel for euer.

11 Nowe therefore my sonne, the Lord shalbe with thee, and thou shalt [e] prosper, and thou shalt builde an house to the Lord thy God, as he hath spoken of thee.

e He sheweth that there can be no prosperitie, but when the Lord is with vs.

12 Onely the Lord giue thee [f] wisedome and vnderstanding, and giue thee charge ouer Israel, euen to keepe the Lawe of the Lord thy God.

f These are onely the meanes whereby Kings gouerne their subiects aright, and whereby the realmes doe prosper and florish.

13 Then thou shalt prosper, if thou take heede to obserue the statutes and the iudgements which the Lorde commaunded Moses for Israel: bee strong and of good courage: feare not, neither be afraid.
14 For beholde, according to my [g] pouertie haue I prepared for the house of the Lord an hun-dreth thousand talents of golde, and a thousande thousand talents of siluer, and of brasse and of yron passing weight: for there was abundance:
I haue also prepared timber and stone, and thou mayest prouide more thereto.

Israel to helpe Salomon his sonne, saying, 18 Is not the Lord your God with you, and hath giuen you rest on euery side? for he hath giuen the [i] inhabitants of the land into mine hand, and the land is subdued before the Lord, and before his people.

19 Nowe set [k] your hearts and your soules to seeke the Lord your God, and arise, and builde the Sanctuarie of the Lorde God to bring the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, and the holy vessels of God into the house built for the Name of the Lord.

k For els he knew that God would plague them, and not prosper their labours except they sought with all their hearts to set forth his glorie.

21 ¶ The sonnes of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sonnes of Mahli, Eleazar and Kish.
22 And Eleazar dyed, and had no sonnes, but daughters, and their [d] brethren the sonnes of Kish tooke them.

d Meaning, their cousins.

23 The sonnes of Mushi were Mahli, and Eder, and Ierimoth, three.

to the house of their fathers, euen the chiefe fathers according to their offices, according to the nomber of names and their summe that did the worke for the seruice of the house of the Lord from the age of [e] twentie yeeres and aboue.

e Dauid did chose the Leuites twise, first at the age of thirtie, as verse 3. and againe afterward at 20. as the necessitie of the office did require: at the beginning they had no charge in the Temple, before they were fiue and twentie yeere olde, and had none after fiftie, Nomb.4.3.

25 For Dauid sayde, The Lord God of Israel hath giuen rest vnto his people, that they may dwell in Ierusalem for euer.
26 And also the Leuites shall no more beare the Tabernacle and all the vessels for the seruice thereof.
27 Therefore according to the last wordes of Dauid, the Leuites were nombred from twentie yeere and aboue, 28 And their office was vnder the hand of the sonnes of Aaron, for the seruice of the house of the Lord in the courtes, and chambers, and in the [f] purifying of all holy things and in the worke of the seruice of the house of God,

f In washing and clensing all the holy vessels.

1 The offring of Dauid and of the princes for the building of the Temple. 10 Dauid giueth thankes to the Lorde. 20 He exhorteth the people to doe the same. 22 Salomon is created King. 28 Dauid dyeth, and Salomon his sonne reigneth in his stead.

Moreouer Dauid the King sayde vnto all the Congregation, God hath chosen Salomon mine onely sonne yong and tender, and the worke is great: for this house is not for man, but for the a Lord God.

a And therefore it ought to bee excellent in all poyntes.

2 Nowe I haue prepared with all my power for the house of my God, golde for vessels of golde, and siluer for them of siluer, and brasse for things of brasse, yron for things of yron, and wood for things of wood, and onix stones, and stones to be set, and carbuncle stones and of diuers colours, and all precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.
3 Moreouer, because I haue b delite in the house of my God, I haue of mine owne golde and siluer, which I haue giuen to the house of my God, beside all that I haue prepared for the house of the Sanctuarie,

b His great zeale toward the furtherance of the Temple made him to spare no expenses, but to bestow his owne peculiar treasure.

4 Euen c three thousand talents of gold of the golde of Ophir, and seuen thousand talents of fined siluer to ouerlay the walles of the houses.

c He sheweth what he had of his owne store for the Lords house.

5 The golde for the things of golde, and the siluer for things of siluer, and for all the worke by the handes of artificers: and who is d willing || to fill his hand to day vnto the Lord?

d He was not onely liberall himselfe, but prouoked others to set foorth the worke of God.
|| Or, to offer.

6 So the princes of the families, and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captaines of thousands and of hundreths, with the rulers of the Kings worke, offred willingly, 7 And they gaue for the seruice of the house of God fiue thousand talents of golde, & ten thousand pieces, and ten thousand talents of siluer, and eighteene thousand talents of brasse, and one hun-dreth thousand talents of yron.
8 And they with whome precious stones were e found, gaue them to the treasure of the house of the Lord, by the hand of Iehiel the Gershunnite.

e Meaning, them that had any.

9 And the people reioyced when they offred willingly: for they offred willingly vnto the Lord, with a f perfite heart. And Dauid the King also
* reioyced with great ioy.

f That is, with a good courage and without hypocrisie.
*Psal.122.1.

10 Therefore Dauid blessed the Lorde before all the Congregation, and Dauid saide, Blessed be thou, O Lord God, of g Israel our father, for euer and euer.

g Which didest reueile thy selfe to our father Iaakob.

11 Thine, O Lord, is greatnesse and power, & glory, and victorie & praise: for all that is in heauen and in earth is thine: thine is the kingdome, O Lord, and thou excellest as head ouer all.
12 Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest ouer all, and in thine hand is power and strength, and in thine hande it is to make great, and to giue strength vnto all.
13 Now therefore our God, we thanke thee, and praise thy glorious Name.
14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we shoulde be able to offer willingly after this sort? for all thinges h come of thee: and of thine owne hand we haue giuen thee.

h We gaue thee nothing of our owne, but that which we haue receiued of thee: for whether the gifts be corporall or spirituall, we receiue them all of God, and therefore must giue him the glorie.

dow vpon the earth, and there is none † abiding.

the heart, and hast pleasure in righteousnesse: I haue offred willingly in the vprightnesse of mine heart all these things: nowe also haue I seene thy people which are found here, to offer vnto thee willingly with ioy.
18 O Lord God of Abraham, Izhak and Israel our fathers, keepe this for euer in the [k] purpose, and the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their hearts vnto thee.
19 And giue vnto Salomon my sonne a perfite heart to keepe thy commandements, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to doe all things, and to builde the house which I haue prepared.
20 ¶ And Dauid sayde to all the Congregation, Nowe blesse the Lord your God. And all the Congregation blessed the Lord God of their fathers, and bowed downe their heads, and worshipped the Lord and the [l] King.
21 And they offered sacrifices vnto the Lord, and on the morowe after that day, they offered burnt offerings vnto the Lord, euen a thousand yong bullockes, a thousand rammes, and a thousand sheepe, with their [m] drinke offrings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.
22 And they did eate and drinke before the Lord the same day with great ioy, and they made Salomon the sonne of Dauid King the second time, and anoynted him prince before the Lorde, and Zadok for the hie Priest.
23 So Salomon sate on the [n] throne of the Lord, as King in stead of Dauid his father, and prospered: and all Israel obeyed him.
24 And all the princes and men of power, and all the sonnes of King Dauid † submitted themselues vnder King Salomon.
25 And the Lord magnified Salomon in dignitie, in the sight of all Israel, and gaue him so glorious a kingdome, as no King had before him in Israel.
26 ¶ * Thus Dauid the sonne of Ishai reigned ouer all Israel.
27 And the space that he reigned ouer Israel, was fourtie yeere: seuen yeere reigned hee in Hebron, and three and thirtie yeere reigned he in Ie-
rusalem:
28 And hee dyed in a good age, full of dayes, riches and honour, and Salomon his sonne reigned in his steade.
29 Concerning the actes of Dauid the King first and last, behold, they are written in the booke of Samuel the Seer, and in the booke of [o] Nathan the Prophet, and in the booke of Gad the Seer,

THE SECOND BOOKE OF THE CHRONICLES.

THE ARGVMENT.

THis second booke conteineth briefly in effect that, which is comprehended in the two bookes of the Kings: that is, from the reigne of Salomon to the destruction of Jerusalem, & the carying away of the people captiue into Babylon. In this story are certaine things declared and set forth more copiously then in the bookes of the Kings, and therefore serue greatly to the vnderstanding of the Prophets. But three things are here chiefely to be considered. First that the godly Kings, when they sawe the plagues of God prepared against their countrey for sinne, had recourse to the Lorde, and by earnest prayer were heard, and the plagues remoued. The seconde, howe it is a thing that greatly offendeth God, that such as feare him and professe his religion, shoulde ioyne in amitie with the wicked. And thirdly, howe the good rulers euer loued the Prophets of God, and were very zealous to set forth his religion thorowout all their dominions, & contrariwise the wicked hated his ministers, deposed them, and for the true religion & word of God, set vp idolatry and serued God according to the fantasie of men. Thus haue we hitherto the chiefe actes from the beginning of the world to the building againe of Ierusalem, which was the two and thirtieth yeere of Darius, and conteine in the whole, three thousand, fiue hundreth, threescore and eighteene yeeres, and sixe moneths.

CHAP. I.

6 The offring of Salomon at Gibeon. 8 He prayeth vnto God to giue him wisedome: 11 Which he giueth him and more. 14 The number of his charets and horses, 15 and of his riches.

WHen Salomon the sonne of Dauid was ‖ confirmed in his kingdome: and the Lorde his God was with him, and magnified him highly.
2 And Salomon [a] spake vnto all Israel, to the captaines of thousands, and of hundreds, and to the iudges, and to all the gouernours in all Israel, euen the chiefe fathers.
3 So Salomon and all the Congregation with him went to the hie place that was at [b] Gibeon:
for there was the Tabernacle [c] of the Congregation of God which Moses the seruant of the Lorde had made in the wildernesse.
4 But the Arke of God had Dauid brought vp from Kiriath-iearim, when Dauid had made preparation for it: for he had pitched a tent for it in Ierusalem.
5 Moreouer the [d] brasen altar * that Bezaleel the sonne of Vri, the sonne of Hur had made, did hee set before the Tabernacle of the Lorde: and Salomon and the Congregation sought it.
6 And Salomon offred there before the Lord vpon the brasen altar that was in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: * euen a thousand burnt of-frings offred he vpon it.
7 ¶ The same night did God appeare vnto Salomon, and sayde vnto him, Aske what I

8 And Salomon sayde vnto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy vnto Dauid my father and hast made me to reigne in his stead.
9 Nowe therefore, O Lorde God, let thy promes vnto Dauid my father be [c] true:for thou hast made mee King ouer a great people, like to the dust of the earth.
10 Giue me now wisdome & knowledge, that I may [f] goe out and goe in before this people: for who can iudge this thy great people?
11 And God sayde to Salomon, Because this was in thine heart,and thou hast not asked riches, treasures nor honour, nor the [g] liues of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life, but hast asked for thee wisdome and knowledge that thou mightest iudge my people, ouer whome I haue made thee King, 12 Wisdome and knowledge is granted vnto thee,and I will giue thee riches and treasures and honour, so that there hath not bene the like among the Kings which were before thee, neither after thee shal there be the like.
13 Then Salomon came from the hie place, that was at Gibeon, to Ierusalem from before the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and reigned ouer Israel.
14 *And Salomon gathered the charets and horsemen: and hee had a thousand and foure hun-dreth charets, and twelue thousande horsemen, whome hee placed in the [h] charet cities, and with the King at Ierusalem.
15 And the King gaue siluer and gold at Ieru-salem as [i] stones, and gaue cedar trees as the wilde figge trees,that are abundantly in the playne.
16 Also Salomon had horses brought out of Egypt and * fine linen: [k] the Kings marchants re-ceiued the fine linen for a price.
17 They came vp also and brought out of Egypt some charet, worth sixe hundreth shekels of siluer, that is an horse for an hundreth and fiftie:
and thus they brought horses to all the Kings of the Hittites, and to the Kings of Aram by their †meanes.

2 The nomber of Salomons workemen to builde the Temple.
3 Salomon sendeth to Hiram the King of Tyrus for wood and workemen.

THen Salomon determined to builde an house for the Name of the Lord, and an ‖ house for his kingdome.
2 And Salomon tolde out seuentie thousand that bare burdens, and fourescore thousande men to hewe stones in the mountaine, and three thousand and [a] sixe hundreth to ouersee them.
3 And Salomon sent to ‖ Huram the king of Tyrus, saying, As thou hast done to Dauid my father,and*didst sende him cedar trees to buyld him an house to dwell in, so doe to me.
4 Behold, I buylde an house vnto the Name of the Lord my God, to sanctifie it vnto him, and to burne sweete incense before him, and for the continuall shewbread, and for the burnt offrings of the morning and euening, on the Sabbath dayes,and in the new moneths,and in the solemne feastes of the Lorde our God: this is a perpetuall thing for Israel.
5 And the house which I buylde, is great: for great is our God aboue all gods.
6 Who is he then that can be able to buylde him an house, when the heauen, and the heauen of heauens cannot conteine him? who am I then that I should buylde him an house? but I doe it to burne [b] incense before him.
7 Sende mee nowe therefore a cunning man that can worke in golde,in siluer,and in brasse,and in yron, and in purple, and ‖ crimosin & blue silke, and that can graue in grauen worke with the cunning men that are with me in Iudah and in Ierusalem,whom Dauid my father hath prepared.
8 Sende mee also cedar trees, firre trees and [c] ‖ Algummim trees from Lebanon: for I knowe that thy seruantes can skill to hewe timber in Lebanon: and beholde, my seruants shalbe with thine,
9 That they may prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I doe buylde, is great and wonderfull.
10 And behold, I will giue to thy seruants the cutters and the hewers of timber twentie thousand †measures of beaten wheate,and twentie thousand measures of barley, and twentie thousand baths of wine,and twentie [d] thousand baths of oyle.
11 Then Huram King of Tyrus answered in writing which hee sent to Salomon, Because the Lorde hath loued his people, hee hath made thee King ouer them.
12 Huram sayd moreouer, Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel, which made the heauen and the earth, and that hath giuen vnto Dauid the King a [e] wise sonne, that hath discretion, prudence and vnderstanding to buylde an house for the Lorde, and a palace for his kingdome.
13 Now therefore I haue sent a wise man, and of vnderstanding of my father Hurams, 14 The sonne of a woman of the [f] daughters of Dan: and his father was a man of Tyrus, and he can skill to worke in golde,in siluer, in brasse, in yron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue silke, and in fine linen, and in crimosin, and can graue in all grauen workes, and broyder in all broydered worke that shalbe giuen him, with thy cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord Dauid thy father.
15 Nowe therefore the wheate and the barley, the oyle and the wine, which my lorde hath spoken of,let him send vnto his seruants.
16 And we will cut wood in Lebanon as much as thou shalt neede, and will bring it to thee in ‖ raftes by sea to ‖ Iapho,so thou mayest cary them to Ierusalem.
17 ¶ And Salomon nombred all the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the nombring that his father Dauid had nombred them: and they were found an hundreth and three and fiftie thousand, and sixe hundreth.

stones in the mountaine, and three thousande and

SO * Salomon began to buyld the house of the moneth and the second day, in the fourth yeere of his reigne.

3 And these are the measures, whereon Salomon grounded to buylde the house of God: the length of cubites after the first [b]measure was three score cubites, and the breadth twenty cubites:
4 And the porch, that was before the length in the front [c] of the breadth was twentie cubites, and the height was an [d] hundreth and twentie, and he ouerlayd it within with pure golde.
5 And the greater house hee sieled with firre tree which he ouerlayd with good golde, and graued thereon palme trees and chaines.
6 And hee ouerlayde the house with precious stone for beautie: and the golde was golde of [e] Paruaim.
7 The house, I say, the beames, postes, and walles thereof and the doores thereof ouerlayd he with gold, & graued Cherubims vpon the walles.
8 ¶ Hee made also the house of the most holy place: the length thereof was in the front of the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, & the breadth thereof twentie cubites: and hee ouerlayde it with the best golde, of sixe hundreth talents.
9 And the weight of the nayles was fiftie shekels of golde, and he ouerlayde the chambers with golde.
10 ¶ And in the house of the most holy place hee made two Cherubims wrought like children, and ouerlayde them with golde.
11 * And the winges of the Cherubims were twentie cubites long: the one wing was fiue cu-bites, reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing fiue cubites, reaching to the wing of the other Cherub.
12 Likewise the wing of the other Cherub was fiue cubites, reaching to the wall of the house, and the other wing fiue cubites ioyning to the wing of the other Cherub.
13 The wings of these Cherubims were spread abroade twentie cubites: they stood on their feete, and their faces were toward the house.
14 ¶ He made also [f] the vaile of blew silke and purple, and crimosin, and fine linen, and wrought Cherubims thereon.
15 ¶ And hee made before the house two pillars [g] of fiue and thirtie cubites hie and the chapi-ter that was vpon the top of eche of them was fiue cubites.
16 Hee made also chaines for the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars, and made an [h] hundreth pomegranates, and put them among the chaines.
17 And hee set vp the pillars before the Temple, one on the right hande and the other on the left, and called that on the right hand Iachin, and that on the left hand Boaz.

1 The altar of brasse. 2 The molten sea. 6 The caldrons. 7 The candlesticks, &c.

AND hee made an altar of brasse twentie cu-bites long, and twentie cubites broade, and ten cubites hie.
2 And he made a molten [a] Sea of ten cubites from brim to brim, rounde in compasse, and fiue cubites hie: and a line of thirtie cubites did compasse it about.
3 And vnder [b] it was the facion of oxen, which did compasse it rounde about, [c] tenne in a cubite compassing the Sea about: two rowes of oxen were cast when it was molten.
4 It stoode vpon twelue oxen: three looked toward the North, and three looked towarde the West, and three looked towarde the South, and three looked towarde the East, and the Sea stoode about vpon them, and all their hinder parts were inwarde.
5 And the thicknesse thereof was an hande breadth, and the brim thereof was like the worke of the brim of a cuppe, with floures of ‖ lilies: it conteined [d] three thousand baths.
6 ¶ Hee made also ten caldrons, and put fiue on the right hand, and fiue on the left, to wash in them, and to clense in them that which appertei-ned to the burnt offrings: but the Sea was for the Priests to wash in.
7 ¶ And hee made ten candlestickes of golde (according to [e] their forme) and put them in the Temple, fiue on the right hand, & fiue on the left.
8 ¶ And hee made ten tables, and put them in the Temple, fiue on the right hand, and fiue on the left: and he made an hundreth basens of golde.
9 And hee made the court of the Priests, and the great [f] court and doores for the court, and ouerlayd the doores thereof with brasse.
10 And hee set the Sea on the right side Eastward toward the South.
11 And Huram made ‖ pottes and besoms and basens, and Huram finished the worke that hee shoulde make for King Salomon for the house of God,

chapiters on ỹ top of the two pillars, & two grates to couer the two bowles of the chapiters which were vpon the toppe of the pillars: 13 And foure hundreth pomegranates for the two grates, two rowes of pomegranates for euery grate to couer the two bowles of the chapiters, that were vpon the pillars.
14 He made also bases, and made caldrons vpon
the bases:
15 And a Sea, and twelue bulles vnder it:
16 Pottes also and besomes, and fleshhookes, and all these vessels made Huram [g] his father, to King Salomon for the house of the Lord, of shining brasse.
17 In the playne of Iorden did the King cast them in clay betweene Succoth and Zeredathah.
18 And Salomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of brasse could not be rekoned.
19 And Salomon made al the vessels that were for the house of God: the golden altar also and the tables, whereon the [h] shewbread stoode.
20 Moreouer the candlestickes, with their lampes to burne them after the maner, before the 2 Then Salomon assembled the Elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chiefe fathers of the children of Israel vnto Ierusalem to bring vp the Arke of the couenant of the Lorde from the [a] citie of Dauid, which is Zion.

a Reade 2.Sam. 6.12.

3 And all the men of Israel assembled vnto the King at the [b] feast: it was in the seuenth [c] moneth.

c Called in Ebrewe Ethanim, conteining part of September and part of October, 1.King.8.2. which moneth the Iewes called the first moneth, because they say, that the world was created in that moneth, and after they came from Egypt, they began at March: because this opinion is vncertaine, we make March euer the first, as best writers doe.

4 And all the Elders of Israel came, and the Leuites tooke vp the Arke.

5 And they caried vp the Arke and the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and all the holy vessels that were in the Tabernacle, those did the Priestes and Leuites bring vp.

6 And King Salomon and all the Congregation of Israel that were assembled vnto him, were before the Arke, offring sheepe & bullocks, which could not be tolde nor nombred for multitude.

7 So the Priestes brought the Arke of the couenant of the Lord vnto his place, into the Oracle of the house, into the most Holy place, euen vnder the wings of the Cherubims.

8 For the Cherubims stretched out their wings ouer the place of the Arke, and the Cherubims couered the Arke and the barres thereof aboue.

9 And they drewe out the barres, that the endes of the barres might bee seene out of the Arke before the Oracle, but they were not seene ‖ without: and there they are vnto this day.

10 Nothing was in the Arke, saue [d] the two Tables, which Moses gaue at Horeb, where the Lorde made a couenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

11 And when the Priestes were come out of the Sanctuarie (for all the Priestes that were present, were [e] sanctified, and did not waite by course.

12 And the Leuites the singers of all sortes, as of Asaph, of Heman, of Ieduthun, and of their sonnes and of their brethren, being clad in fine linen, stoode with cymbales, and with violes and harpes at the East ende of the altar, and with them an hundreth and twentie Priestes blowing with trumpets.

13 And they were [f] as one, blowing trumpets, and singing, and made one sounde to bee heard in praysing, and thanking the Lorde, and when they lift vp their voyce with trumpets and with cymbales, and with instruments of musicke, and when they praysed the Lord, singing, [g] For he is good, because his mercie lasteth for euer) then the house, euen the house of the Lorde was filled with a cloude, f They agreed all in one tune.

g This was the effect of their songs, Psal.118.1. and 136.1.

14 So that the Priests could not stand to minister, because of the cloude: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of God.

9 Notwithstanding thou shalt not builde the house, but thy sonne which shall come out of thy loynes, he shall builde an house vnto my Name.

10 And the Lorde hath performed his worde that he spake: and I am risen vp in the roume of Dauid my father, and am set on the throne of Israel as the Lord promised, and haue built an house to the Name of the Lord God of Israel.

11 And I haue set the Arke there, wherin is the [b] couenant of the Lorde, that he made with the children of Israel.

12 ¶ And the King [c] stoode before the altar of the Lorde, in the presence of all the Congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands, c On a skaffold that was made for that purpose, that he praying for the whole people might be heard of all, as 1.King 8.22.

13 (For Salomon had made a brasen scaffold and set it in the middes of the court, of fiue cubits long, and fiue cubites broade, and three cubites of height, and vpon it he stoode, and kneeled downe vpon his knees before all the Congregation of Israel, and [d] stretched out his handes toward heauen)

d Both to giue thankes for the great benefites of God bestowed vpon him, and also to pray for the perseuerance and prosperitie of his people.

14 And said, O Lord God of Israel, *there is no God like thee in heauen nor in earth, which keepest couenant, and mercie vnto thy seruants, that walke before thee with all their heart.

16 Therefore now Lord God of Israel, keepe with thy seruant Dauid my father, that thou hast promised him, saying, Thou † shalt not want a man in my sight, that shal sit vpon the throne of Israel: so that thy sonnes take heede to their wayes, to walke in my Lawe, as thou hast walked before me.

17 And now, O Lord God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou spakest vnto thy seruant Dauid.

18 (Is it true in deede that God will dwell with man on earth? behold, the * heauens, and the heauens of heauens are not able to conteyne thee: how much more vnable is this house, which I haue built?)

*1.King.8.27.

19 But haue thou respect to the prayer of thy seruant, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to heare the cry and prayer which thy seruaunt prayeth before thee,

20 That thine [e] eyes may be open toward this house day and night, euen toward the place, wherof thou hast said, that thou wouldest put thy name there, that thou mayest hearken vnto the prayer, which thy seruant prayeth in this place.

e That thou mayest declare in effect, that thou hast a continuall care ouer this place.

21 Heare thou therefore the supplication of thy seruant,and of thy people Israel, which they pray in this place: and heare thou in the place of iudge thy seruants, in recompensing the wicked to bring his way g vpon his head,and in iustifying the righteous, to giue him according to his righteousnesse.

24 ¶ And when thy people Israel shalbe ouer-throwen before the enemie, because they haue sinned against thee, and turne againe, and ‖ con-fesse thy Name, and pray, and make supplication before thee in this house, full vnto the sinne of thy people Israel,and bring them againe vnto the land which thou gauest to them and to their fathers.

shalbe no rayne, because they haue sinned against thee, and shall pray in this place,and confesse thy Name, and ‖ turne from their sinne, when thou doest afflict them, 27 Then heare thou in heauen, and pardon the sinne of thy seruants, and of thy people Israel (when thou hast taught them the good way wherein they may walke) and giue raine vpon thy lande, which thou hast giuen vnto thy people for an inheritance.
28 ¶ * When there shalbe famine in the land, when there shalbe pestilence,blasting, or mildew,
when there shall be grashopper, or caterpiller, when their enemie shall besiege them † in the cities of their land, or any plague or any sickenesse, shalbe made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when euery one shall know his owne plague, and his owne disease, and shall stretch foorth his place,and be mercifull,and giue euery man according vnto all his wayes, as thou doest knowe his children of men)

31 That they may feare thee,and walke in thy gauest vnto our fathers.

32 ¶ Moreouer,as touching the stranger which is not of thy people Israel, who shall come out of a farre countrey for thy great Names sake,and thy mightie hande, and thy stretched out arme: when they shall come and i pray in this house, leth for vnto thee, that all the people of the earth may knowe thy Name, and feare thee like thy people Israel, and that they may knowe, that

1 The fire consumeth the sacrifice. 2 The glory of the Lorde filleth the Temple. 12 He heareth his prayer, 17 and promiseth to exalt him and his throne.

AND * when Salomon had made an end of pray-sumed the burnt offring and the sacrifices: and the glory of the Lord filled the house, 2 So that the Priests could not enter into the house of the Lord,because the glory of the Lorde had filled the Lords house.

fire,and the glory of the Lord come downe vpon the house, they bowed themselues with their faces to the earth vpon the pauement,and woorshipped and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good, because his mercy lasteth for euer.
4 * Then the King and all the people offred sacrifices before the Lord.
5 And King Salomon offred a sacrifice of two

the people dedicated the house of God.

8 And Salomon made [b] a feast at that time of seuen dayes, and all Israel with him, a very great Congregation, from the entring in of Hamath, vnto the riuer of Egypt.
9 And in the eight day they [c] made a solemne assemblie: for they had made the dedication of the altar seuen dayes, and the feast seuen dayes.
10 And the [d] three & twentieth day of the seuenth moneth, he sent the people away into their tents, ioyous and with glad heart, because of the goodnesse that the Lord had done for Dauid & for Salomon, and for Israel his people.
11 * So Salomon finished the house of the Lorde, and the Kings house, and all that came into Salomons heart to make in the house of the Lord: and he prospered in his house.
12 ¶ And the Lord * appeared to Salomon by night and said to him, I haue heard thy prayer, and haue chosen this place for my selfe to be an house

13 If I shut the heauen that there bee no and seeke my presence, and turne from their wicked wayes, then will I heare in heauen, & be mercifull to their sinne, and will [e] heale their land: 15 Then mine eyes shalbe open & mine eares attent vnto the prayer made in this place.

16 For I haue nowe chosen and sanctified this house, that my Name may be there for euer: and mine eyes & mine heart shalbe there perpetually.
17 And if thou wilt walke before me, as Dauid thy father walked, to doe according vnto all that I haue commanded thee, and shalt obserue my statutes and my iudgements, 18 Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdome, according as I made the couenant with Dauid thy father, saying, * Thou shalt not want a man to be ruler in Israel.
19 But if ye turne away, and forsake my statutes and my commandements which I haue set before you, and shall go and serue other gods, and worship them,
20 Then will I plucke them vp out of my land, which I haue giuen them, and this house which I haue [f] sanctified for my Name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a prouerbe and a common talke among all people.
21 And this house which is most hie, shall be an astonishment to euery one that passeth by it, so that he shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus to this land, and to this house?
22 And they shall answere, Because they forsooke ẏ Lord God of their fathers, which brought them out of the lande of Egypt, and haue taken holde on other gods, and haue worshipped them, and serued them, therefore hath he brought all this

3 And Salomon went to Hamath Zobah, and ouercame it.
4 And he built Tadmor in the wildernesse, & repayred all [c] the cities of store which he built in Hamath.
5 And he built [d] Beth-horon the vpper, and Beth-horon the nether, cities defensed with walles,

6 Also Baalath, and all the cities of store that Salomon had, and all the charet cities, and the ci-

Salomon had a minde to builde in Ierusalem, and not consumed, euen them did Salomon make † tributaries vntill this day.

9 But of the children of Israel did Salomon make no seruantes for his worke: for they were men of warre, and his chiefe princes, and the captaines of his charets and of his horsemen.
10 So these were the chiefe of the officers which Salomon had, euen [f] two hundreth & fiftie that bare rule ouer the people.
11 ¶ Then Salomon brought vp the daughter of Pharaoh out of the citie of Dauid, into the house that he had built for her: for he sayde, My wife shall not dwell in the house of Dauid King of Israel: for it is holie, because that the Arke of the Lord came vnto it.

to the Lord, on the * altar of the Lord, which hee had built before the porch, of Moses ‖ euery day, in the Sabbaths, and in the

in the feast of the Tabernacles.

father, and the Leuites in their watches, for to for so was the commandement of Dauid the man of God.

15 And they declined not from the commandement of the King, concerning the Priestes and the Leuites, touching all things, and touching the treasures.
16 ¶ Nowe Salomon had made prouision for all the [h] worke, from the day of the foundation of the house of the Lord, vntill it was finished: so the house of the Lord was perfite.
17 Then went Salomon to Ezion-geber, and to Eloth by the [i] sea side in the lande of Edom.
18 And Huram sent him by the handes of his seruants, shippes, and seruants that had knowledge of the sea: and they went with the seruants of Sadreth and fiftie talents of golde, and brought them

1. 9 The Queene of Sheba commeth to see Salomon and bringeth gifts. 13 His yeerely reuenues. 30 The time of his reigne. 31 His death.

AND * when the Queene of Sheba heard of the fame of Salomon, she came to a prooue Salomon with hard questions at Ierusalem, with a very great traine, and camels that bare sweet odours & much golde, and precious stones: and when shee came to Salomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

2 And Salomon declared her all her questions, and there was b nothing hid from Salomon, which he declared not vnto her.

3 Then the Queene of Sheba sawe the wisedome of Salomon, and the house that he had built,

4 And the meate of his table, and the sitting of his seruants, and the order of his wayters, and their apparell, and his butlers, and their apparell, & his ||burnt offrings which hee offred in the house of the Lord, and she was † greatly astonied.

5 And she saide to the King, It was a true worde which I heard in mine owne lande of thy ||sayings, and of thy wisedome:

6 Howbeit I beleeued not their report, vntill I came, and mine eyes had seene it: and beholde, the one halfe of thy great wisdome was not tolde me: for thou exceedest the same that I heard.

7 Happie are thy men, and happie are these thy seruants, which stande before thee alway, and heare thy wisedome.

8 Blessed be the Lord thy God, which loued thee, to set thee on his c throne as King, in the steade of the Lorde thy God: because thy God loueth Israel, to establish it for euer, therefore hath he made thee King ouer them, to execute iudgement and iustice.

9 Then she gaue the King sixe score talents of golde, and of sweet odours exceeding much and precious stones: neither was there such sweete odours since, as the Queene of Sheba gaue vnto King Salomon.

10 And the seruants also of Huram, and the seruants of Salomon, which brought golde from Ophir, brought d Algummim wood and precious stones.

11 And the King made of the Algummim wood e staires in the house of the Lorde, and in the Kinges house, and harpes and violes for singers: and there was no such seene before in the land of Iudah.

12 And King Salomon gaue to the Queene of Sheba euery pleasant thing that shee asked, f besides for that which shee had brought vnto the King: so she returned and went to her owne countrey, both she, and her seruants.

13 ¶ Also the weight of golde that came to Salomon in one yeere, was sixe hundreth threescore and sixe talents of golde, 14 Besides that which chapmen and marchants brought: and all the Kings of Arabia, and the princes of the countrey brought golde and siluer to Salomon.

15 And King Salomon made two hundreth targets of beaten golde, and g sixe hundreth shekels of beaten golde went to one target, 16 And three hundreth shieldes of beaten golde: three hundreth h shekels of golde went to one shielde, and the King put them in the house of the wood of Lebanon.

17 And the King made a great throne of yuorie and ouerlaid it with pure golde.

18 And the throne had sixe steps, with a footestoole of golde i fastened to the throne, and stayes on either side on the place of the seate, and two lions standing by the k stayes.

19 And twelue lions stoode there on the sixe steps on either side: there was not the like made in any kingdome.

20 And all King Salomons drinking vessels were of golde, and all the vessels of the house of the wood of Lebanon were of pure golde: for siluer was nothing esteemed in ẏ dayes of Salomon.

21 For the Kings ships went to Tarshish with the seruants of Huram, euery three yeere once came the ships of l Tarshish, and brought golde, and siluer, yuorie, and apes, and peacocks.

22 So King Salomon excelled all the Kings of the earth in riches and wisedome.

23 And all the Kings of the earth sought the presence of Salomon, to heare his wisedome that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought euery man his present, vessels of siluer, and vessels of golde, and raiment, armour, and sweet odours, horses, and mules, from yeere to yeere.

25 And Salomon had m foure thousand stalles of horses, and charets, and twelue thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the charet cities, and with the King at Ierusalem.

26 And he reigned ouer all the Kings from the ||Riuer euen vnto the land of the Philistims, and to the border of Egypt.

27 And the King gaue siluer in Ierusalem, n as stones, and gaue cedar trees as the wilde fig trees, that are abundant in the plaine.

28 And they brought vnto Salomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

29 Concerning the rest of the actes of Salomon first and last, are they not written in the booke of Nathan the Prophet, and in the prophecie of Ahiiah the Shilonite, and in the visions of ||Iedo the Seer o against Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat?

shai. O Israel, euery man to your tents: now see to thine owne house, Dauid. So all Israel departed to their tents.

4 Rehoboam is forbidden to fight against Ieroboam. 5 Cities which he built. 21 Hee hath eighteene wiues, and threescore concubines, and by them eight and twentie sonnes and threescore daughters.

And * when Rehoboam was come to Ierusalem, he gathered of the house of Iudah and a Beniamin nine score thousand chosen men of warre to fight against b Israel, and to bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboam.

* 1.King.12.20,21.

a That is, the halfe tribe of Beniamin: for the other halfe was gone after Ieroboam.

b Meaning, the ten tribes which rebelled.

2 But the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, 3 Speake vnto Rehoboam, the sonne of Salomon King of Iudah, and to all Israel that are in Iudah, and Beniamin, saying, 4 Thus sayth the Lord, Ye shall not goe vp, nor fight against your brethren: returne euery man to his house: for this thing is done of mee.
They obeyed therefore the word of the Lord, and returned from going against Ieroboam.
5 And Rehoboam dwelt in Ierusalem, and c built strong cities in Iudah.

c Or, repayred them and made them strong, to be more able to resist Ieroboam.

6 Hee built also Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,
7 And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam,
8 And Gath, and Maresha, and Ziph, 9 And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah, 10 And Zorah, and Aialon, and Hebron, which were in Iudah and Beniamin, strong cities.
11 And he || repaired the strong holdes and put captaines in them, and store of vitaile, and oyle and wine.

|| Or, strengthened.

12 And in all cities he put shieldes and speares, and made them exceeding strong: so Iudah and Beniamin were his.

were in all Israel, † resorted vnto him out of all their coastes.

16 And after the Leuites there came to Ieru-salem of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their e hearts to seeke the Lord God of Israel, to offer vnto the Lord God of their fathers.

e Which were zealous of true religion, and feared God.

17 So they strengthened the kingdome of Iudah, and made Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon mightie, three yeere long: for three yeere they f walked in the way of Dauid and Salomon.

f So long as they feared God, and set forth his word, they prospered.

18 ¶ And Rehoboam tooke him Mahalath the daughter of Ierimoth the sonne of Dauid to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the sonne of Ishai,
19 Which bare him sonnes Ieush, and Shemariah, and Zaham.
20 And after her he tooke Maakah the daughter of Absalom which bare him Abiiah, and At-thai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.
21 And Rehoboam loued Maakah the daughter of Absalom aboue all his wiues and his con-cubines: for he tooke eighteene wiues, and three score concubines, and begate eight and twentie sonnes, and three score daughters.
22 And Rehoboam made g Abiiah the sonne of Maakah the chiefe ruler among his brethren:
for he thought to make him King.

g Called also Abiiam, who reigned three yeere, 1.King.15.2.

23 And hee taught him: and dispersed all his sonnes throughout all the countreys of Iudah and Beniamin vnto euery strong citie: and hee gaue them abundance of vitaile, and h desired many wiues.

h He gaue himselfe to haue many wiues.

And when || Rehoboam had established the kingdome and made it strong, he forsooke the Lawe of the Lord, and a all Israel with him.

|| Or, when the Lord had established Rehoboams kingdome.

a For such is the inconstancie of the people, that for the most part they followe the vices of their gouernours.

2 The refore

2 Therefore in the fift yeere of King Rehoboam, Shishak the King of Egypt came vp against Ierusalem (because they had transgressed against the Lord)

3 With twelue hundreth charets, and three score thousand horsemen, & the people were without nomber, that came with him from Egypt, euen the Lubims, [b] Sukkiims, and the ‖ Ethiopians.

4 And hee tooke the strong cities which were of Iudah, and came vnto Ierusalem.

5 ¶ Then came Shemaiah the Prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Iudah, that were gathered together in Hierusalem, because of Shishak, and said vnto them, Thus saith the Lord, Ye haue forsaken me, [c] therefore haue I also left you in the hands of Shishak.

6 Then the Princes of Israel, & the king humbled themselues, and sayd, The Lord is [d] iust.

7 And when the Lord sawe that they humbled themselues, the worde of the Lorde came to Shemaiah, saying, They haue humbled thẽselues, therefore I will not destroy them, but I will sende them deliuerance shortly, and my wrath shall not † bee powred out vpon Ierusalem by the hande of Shishak.

8 Neuertheles they shalbe his seruants: so shall they knowe my [e] seruice, and the seruice of the kingdomes of the earth.

9 ¶ Then Shishak King of Egypt came vp against Ierusalem, and tooke the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and the treasures of the Kings house he tooke euen all, and hee carried away the shields of golde, * which Salomon had made.

10 In stead whereof King Rehoboam made shieldes of brasse, and committed them to the handes of the chiefe of the garde, that wayted at the doore of the Kings house.

11 And when the King entred into the house of the Lorde, the garde came and bare them and brought them againe vnto the garde chamber.

12 And because he [f] humbled himselfe, the wrath of the Lorde turned from him, that hee would not destroy altogether. And also in Iudah the things prospered.

13 * So King Rehoboam was strong in Ierusalem and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and fourtie yeere olde, when he began to reigne, and reigned [g] seuenteene yeeres in Ierusalem, the citie which the Lord had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his Name there. And his mothers name was Naamah an Ammonitesse.

14 And he did euill: for hee prepared not his heart to seeke the Lord.

15 The actes also of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the † booke of Shemaiah the Prophet, and Iddo the Seer, in rehearsing the genealogie? and there was warre alway betweene Rehoboam and Ieroboam.

3 And Abiiah set the battell in aray with the armie of valiant men of warre, euen foure hundreth thousand chosen men. Ieroboam also set the battell in aray against him with eight hundreth thousand chosen men which were strong and valiant.

4 And Abiiah stoode vp vpon mount [d] Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and sayde, O Ieroboam, and all Israel, heare you me,

5 Ought you not to know that the Lord God of Israel hath giuen the kingdome ouer Israel to [e] Dauid for euer, euen to him and to his sonnes by a couenant [f] of salt?

6 And Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat the seruant of Salomon the sonne of Dauid is risen vp, and hath * rebelled against his lord:

7 And there are gathered to him [g] vaine men and † wicked, and made themselues strong against Rehoboam the sonne of Salomon: for Rehoboam was [h] but a childe and ‖ * tender hearted, and could not resist them.

8 Nowe therefore ye thinke that ye be able to resist against the kingdome of the Lord, which is in the handes of the sonnes of Dauid, and ye be a great multitude, and the golden calues are with you which Ieroboam made you for gods.

10 But wee belong vnto the Lorde our God, and haue not forsaken him, and the Priestes the sonnes of Aaron minister vnto the Lord, and the Leuites in their office.

11 And they burne vnto the Lorde euery [k] morning and euery euening burnt offerings and sweete incense, and the bread is set in order vpon the pure table, and the candlesticke of golde with the lampes thereof, to burne euery euening: for we keepe the watch of the Lord our God: but ye haue forsaken him.

12 And beholde, this God [l] is with vs, a captaine, and his Priests with the sounding trumpets, to crie an alarme against you. O yee children of Israel, fight not against the Lord God of your fathers: for ye shall not prosper.

13 ¶ But Ieroboam caused an ambushment [m] to compasse, and come behind them, when they were before Iudah, and the ambushment behinde them.

14 Then Iudah looked, and beholde, the battell was before and behinde them, and they cried vnto the Lorde, and the Priestes blewe with the trumpets, 15 And the men of Iudah gaue a shoute: and euen as the men of Iudah shouted, God ‖ smote Ieroboam and also Israel before Abiiah and Iudah.

16 And the children of Israel fledde before Iudah, and God deliuered them into their hand.

17 And Abiiah and his people slewe a great slaughter of them, so that there fell downe wounded of Israel fiue hundreth thousand chosen men.

18 So the children of Israel were brought vnder at that time: and the children of Iudah preuailed, [n] because they stayed vpon the Lord God of their fathers.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Asa destroyeth idolatrie, & commandeth his people to serue the true God. 11 Hee prayeth vnto God when he shoulde goe to fight. 12 He obteineth the victorie.

* 1.King.15.8.

SO * Abiiah slept with his fathers, & they buried him in the citie of Dauid, and Asa his sonne reigned in his stead: in whose dayes the land was quiet ten yeere.

2 And Asa did that was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God.

3 For he tooke away the altars of the strange gods and the hie places, and brake downe the images, and cut downe the [a] groues, a Which were planted contrary to the lawe, Deut.16.21.

4 And commanded Iudah to seeke the Lorde God of their fathers, and to doe according to the Law and the commandement.

5 And hee tooke away out of all the cities of Iudah the hie places, and the images: therefore the kingdome was [b] quiet before him.

b He sheweth that the rest and quietnesse of kingdomes standeth in abolishing idolatrie, and aduancing true religion.

6 He built also strong cities in Iudah, because the land was in rest, and he had no warre in those yeeres: for the Lord had giuen him rest.

7 Therefore he saide to Iudah, Let vs builde these cities and make walles about, and towers, gates, and barres, whiles the lande is [c] before vs:
because wee haue sought the Lorde our God, wee haue sought him, and he hath giuen vs rest on eue-rie side: so they built and prospered.

c Whiles wee haue the full gouernment thereof.

8 And Asa had an armie of Iudah that bare shieldes and speares, three hundreth thousand, and of Beniamin that bare shieldes and drew bowes, two hundreth and fourescore thousand: all these were valiant men.

9 ¶ And there came out against them Zerah [d] of Ethiopia with an host of ten hundreth thousand, and three hundreth charets, and came vnto [e] Mareshah.

d The King of Ethiopia, or Egypt.
e Which was a citie in Iudah, Iosh.15.44 where Michaiah the Prophet was borne.

10 Then Asa went out before him, and they set the battell in aray in the valley of Zephathah beside Mareshah.

11 And Asa cryed vnto the Lorde his God, and saide, Lord, * it is nothing with thee to helpe ‖ with many, or with no power: helpe vs, O Lorde our God: for we rest on thee, and in thy Name are wee come against this multitude: O Lorde, thou art our God, [f] let not man preuaile against thee.

* 1.Sam.14.6.
‖ Or, against many, without power.
f That the children of God neither trust in their owne power or policie, neither feare the strength and subtiltie of their enemies, but consider the cause and see whether their enterprises tend to Gods glorie, and thereupon assure themselues of the victorie by him, which is onely Almightie and can turne all flesh into dust with ÿ breath of his mouth.

12 ¶ So the Lord smote the Ethiopians before Asa and before Iudah, and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa and the people that was with him, pursued them vnto Gerar. And the Ethiopians host was ouerthrowen, so that there was no life in them: for they were destroyed before the Lord & before his host: and they carried away a mightie great spoile.

14 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar: for the [g] feare of the Lorde came vpon them, and they spoiled all the cities, for there was exceeding much spoile in them.

g The Lord had striken them with feare.

15 Yea, and they smote the tents of cattell, and caried away plentie of sheepe and camels, and returned to Ierusalem.

CHAP. XV.

1 The exhortation of Azariah. 8 Asa purgeth his countrey of idolatrie. 11 He sacrificeth with the people. 14 They sweare together, to serue the Lord. 16 He deposeth his mother for her idolatrie.

THen the Spirite of God came vpon [a] Azariah the sonne of Obed.

a Who was called Obed, as his father was, vers. 8.

2 And he went out to meete Asa, and said vnto him, O Asa, and all Iudah, and Beniamin, heare ye me. The Lord is with you, while ye be with him: and if ye seeke him, he will be found of you, but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Nowe for a long season Israel hath beene without the [b] true God, and without Priest to teach and without Law.

b For the space of twelue yeres vnder Rehoboam, & three yeres vnder Abiiah, religion was neglected and idolatrie planted.

4 But whosoeuer returned in his affliction to the Lord God of Israel, and sought him, he [c] was found of them.

c He sheweth, that notwithstanding the wickednesse of tyrants & their rage, yet God hath his, whom he heareth in their tribulation, as he deliuered his from Zerah King of the Ethiopians, Chap. 14.9,12. and out of all other dangers, when they called vpon the Lord.

5 And in that time there was no peace to him, that did goe out and goe in: but great troubles were to all the inhabitants of the earth.

6 For nation was destroyed of nation, and ci-tie of citie: for God troubled them with all aduersitie.

7 Be yee strong therefore, and let not your handes be weake: for your [d] worke shall haue a reward.

d Your confidence and trust in God shall not be frustrate.

8 ¶ And when Asa heard these wordes, and the prophesie of Obed the Prophet, he was encouraged, and tooke away the abominations out of all the lande of Iudah, and Beniamin, and out of the cities which he had taken of mount Ephraim, and he renued the altar of the Lorde, that was before the porch of the Lord.

9 And he gathered all Iudah and Beniamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for there fell many to him out of Israel, when they sawe that the Lord his God was with him.

10 So they assembled to Ierusalem in the [e] third moneth, in the fifteenth yere of the reigne of Asa.

e Called Shiuan, conteining part of May and part of Iune.

11 And they offred vnto the Lorde the same time of the [f] spoile, which they had brought, euen seuen hundreth bullockes, and seuen thousande sheepe.

f Which they had taken of the Ethiopians.

12 And they made a couenant to seeke the Lord God of their fathers, with all their heart, and with all their soule.

13 And [g] whosoeuer will not seeke the Lorde God of Israel, shalbe slaine, whether he were small or great, man or woman.

g These were the words of their couenant, which commanded all idolaters to be put to death according to the Lawe of God, Deut.13.5.9.15.

14 And they sware vnto the Lorde with a loude voyce, and with shouting & with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Iudah reioyced at the othe: for they had sworne vnto the Lorde with all their heart, and sought him with a whole desire, and he was [h] founde of them. And the Lorde gaue them rest round about.

h So long as they serued him aright, so long did he preserue and prosper them.

16 ¶ And King Asa deposed * Maachah his made an idole in a groue: and Asa brake downe her idole, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brooke Kidron.

17 But

17 But the hie places were not [k] taken away out of [l] Israel: yet the heart of Asa was [m] perfite all his dayes.
18 Also he brought into the house of God the thinges that his father had dedicate, and that hee had dedicate, siluer, and golde, and vessels.
19 And there was no warre vnto the fiue and k Which partlie came through lacke of zeale in him, partly through the negligence of his officers, and partly by the superstition of the people, that all were not taken away. l Because that God was called the God of Israel by reason of his promise to Iaakob: therefore Israel is sometime taken for Iudah, because Iudah was his chiefe people. m In respect of his predecessours.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Asa for feare of Baasha King of Israel, maketh a couenant with Benhadad King of Aram. 7 He is reproued by the Prophet, 10 Whom he putteth in prison. 12 He putteth his trust in the Phisitions. 13 His death.

IN the sixe and thirtieth yeere of the reigne of Asa came [a] * Baasha king of Israel vp against Iudah, and built [b] Ramah to let none passe out or go in to Asa king of Iudah.
2 Then Asa brought out siluer and golde out of the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and of the Kings house, and sent to Benhadad King of Aram that dwelt at || Damascus, saying,
3 There is a couenant betweene me and thee, and betweene my father and thy father: behold,
I haue sent thee siluer and golde: come, [c] breake thy league with Baasha King of Israel that he may depart from me.
4 And Benhadad hearkened vnto King Asa, and sent the captaines of the armies which he had,
against the cities of Israel. And they smote Iion, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali.
5 And when Baasha heard it, he left building of Ramah, and let his worke cease.
6 Then Asa the King tooke all Iudah, and caried away the stones of Ramah & the timber ther-of, wherewith Baasha did build, and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.
7 ¶ And at that same time Hanani the || Seer came to Asa King of Iudah, and saide vnto him, Because thou hast rested vpon the king of Aram, and not rested in the Lorde thy God, therefore is the host of the King of Aram escaped out of thine hand.
8 * The Ethiopians & the Lubims, were they not a great hoste with charets & horsemen, exceeding many? yet because thou didst rest vpon the Lord, he deliuered them into thine hand.
9 * For the eyes of the Lorde beholde all the earth to shew himselfe strong with them that are of perfite heart toward him: thou hast then done foolishly in this: therefore from henceforth thou shalt haue warres.
10 Then Asa was wroth with the Seer, and put him into a † prison: for hee was [d] displeased with him, because of this thing. And Asa oppressed certaine of the people at the same time.

ease was || [e] extreme: yet he sought not the Lorde
in his disease, but to the [f] Phisicions.

one and fourtieth yeere of his reigne.
14 And they buried him in one of his sepulchres, which he had made for him selfe in the citie of Dauid, and layed him in the bed, which they

Dauid, and sought not [b] Baalim, 4 But sought the Lorde God of his father, and walked in his commandements, and not after the † trade of Israel.
5 Therefore the Lorde stablished the kingdome in his hande, and all Iudah brought presents to Iehoshaphat, so that he had of riches and honour in abundance.
6 And he [c] lift vp his heart vnto the wayes of the Lorde, and he tooke away moreouer the hie places and the groues out of Iudah.
7 ¶ And in the thirde yeere of his reigne hee sent his princes, Ben-hail, and Obadiah, and Zechariah, and Nethaneel, and Michaiah, that they should [d] teach in the cities of Iudah, 8 And with them Leuites, Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Iehonathan, and Adoniiah, and Tobiiah, and Tob-adoniiah, Leuites, and with them Elishama and Iehoram Priests.
9 And they taught in Iudah, and had the booke of the Lawe of the Lorde with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Iudah, and taught the people.
10 And the feare of the Lord fell vpon all the kingdomes of the lands that were round about Iudah, and they [e] fought not against Iehoshaphat.
11 Also some of the Philistims brought Iehoshaphat gifts and tribute siluer, and the Arabians brought him flocks, seuen thousand & seuen hun-dreth rammes, and seuen thousand and seuen hun-dreth he goates.
12 So Iehoshaphat prospered and grewe vp on hie: and he built in Iudah palaces and cities of store.
13 And hee had great workes in the cities of Iudah, and men of warre, and valiant men in Ieru-salem.
14 And these are the numbers of them after the house of their fathers, In Iudah were captaines of thousands, Adnah the captaine, & † with him of valiant men three hundreth thousand.

which the King put in the strong cities throughout all Iudah.

CHAP XVIII.

1 Iehoshaphat maketh affinitie with Ahab. 10 Foure hun-dreth Prophets counsell Ahab to goe to warre. 16 Michaiah is against them. 23 Zidkiah smiteth him. 25 The king putteth him in prison. 29 The effect of his prophecie.

AND * Iehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance, but he was ioyned in a affinitie with Ahab.
2 And after certaine b yeeres he went downe to Ahab to Samaria: and Ahab slewe sheepe and oxen for him in great nomber, and for the people that hee had with him, and entised him to goe vp vnto c Ramoth Gilead.
3 And Ahab King of Israel sayde vnto Iehoshaphat King of Iudah, Wilt thou goe with mee to Ramoth Gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people, and we will ioyne with thee in warre.
4 And Iehoshaphat sayde vnto the King of Israel, Aske counsell, I pray thee, at the d word of the Lord this day.
5 Therefore the King of Israel gathered of e Prophets foure hundreth men, and sayde vnto them, Shall we goe to Ramoth Gilead to battell, or shall I cease? And they sayde, Goe vp: for God shall deliuer it into the Kings hand.
6 But Iehoshaphat sayde, Is there heere neuer a Prophet more of the Lord that wee might inquire of him?
7 And the King of Israel sayde vnto Iehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whome wee may aske counsell of the Lorde, but I f hate him: for he doeth not prophecie good vnto me, but alway euill: it is Michaiah the sonne of Imla. Then Iehoshaphat said, Let not the King say g so.
8 And the King of Israel called an eunuch, and said, Call quickely Michaiah the sonne of Imla.
9 ¶ And the King of Israel, and Iehoshaphat King of Iudah sate either of them on his throne clothed in their h apparell: they sate euen in the threshing floore at the entring in of the gate of Samaria: and all the Prophets prophecied before them.
10 And Zidkiah the sonne of Chenaanah made him i hornes of yron, and sayde, Thus saith the Lord, With these shalt thou push the Aramites vntill thou hast consumed them.
11 And all the Prophets prophecied so, saying, Goe vp to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper: for the Lord shall deliuer it into the hand of the King.
12 ¶ And the messenger that went to call Michaiah, spake to him, saying, Beholde, the wordes of the Prophets declare good to the King with one k accord: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and speake thou good.
13 And Michaiah sayde, As the Lorde liueth, whatsoeuer my God saith, that will I speake.
14 ¶ So hee came to the King, and the King sayd vnto him, Michaiah, shall we goe to Ramoth Gilead to battell, or shall I leaue off? And he sayd, l Goe yee vp, and prosper, and they shall be deliuered into your hand.

k Thinking, that wheras foure hundreth Prophets had agreed in one thing, that he being but one man, and in least estimation durst not gainesay it.
l He spake this by derision of the false prophets, as the King well perceiued.

15 And the King sayd to him, Howe oft shall I charge thee, that thou tell me nothing but the trueth in the Name of the Lord?
16 Then he said, I saw all Israel scattered in the mountaines, as sheepe that haue no shepheard: and the Lord sayd, m These haue no Master: let them returne euery man to his house in peace.
17 And the King of Israel sayde to Iehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee, that he would not prophecie good vnto me, but euill?
18 Againe he sayde, Therefore heare ye the word of the Lord: I sawe the Lord sit vpon his throne, and all the n hoste of heauen standing at his right hand, and at his left.
19 And the Lord sayde, Who shall || perswade Ahab King of Israel, that he may goe vp, and fall at Ramoth Gilead? And one spake and sayd thus, and another said that.
20 Then there came foorth a spirit and stoode before the Lorde, and sayde, I will perswade him.
And the Lord said vnto him, Wherein?
21 And he saide, I will goe out, and be a false spirit in the mouth of all his Prophets. And o he sayd, Thou shalt perswade, and shalt also preuaile:
goe foorth, and doe so.
22 Nowe therefore beholde, the Lord hath put a p false spirite in the mouth of these thy Prophets, and the Lord hath determined euill against thee.
23 Then Zidkiah the sonne of Chenaanah came neere, & smote Michaiah vpon the q cheeke, and sayde, By what way went the Spirite of the Lord from me, to speake with thee?
24 And Michaiah sayde, Behold, thou shalt see that day when thou shalt goe from chamber to chamber to hide thee.
25 And the King of Israel sayd, Take ye Michaiah, and cary him to Amon the gouernour of the citie, and to Ioash the Kings sonne, 26 And say, Thus saith the King, Put this man in the prison house, and feede him with bread of r affliction and with water of affliction vntill I returne in peace.
27 And Michaiah said, If thou returne in peace,
the Lord hath not spoken by me. And || he sayde, Heare, all ye people.
28 So the King of Israel and Iehoshaphat the King of Iudah went vp to Ramoth Gilead.
29 And the King of Israel said vnto Iehoshaphat, I will s change my selfe, and enter into the battell: but put thou on thine apparell. So the King of Israel changed himselfe, and they went into the battell.
30 And the King of Aram had commanded the captaines of the charets that were with him, saying, Fight you not with small nor great, but against the King of Israel onely.
31 And when the captaines of the charets saw Iehoshaphat, they sayde, It is the King of Israel: and they compassed about him to fight. But Iehoshaphat t cryed, and the Lord helped him and mooued them to depart from him.
32 For when the captaines of the charets sawe that he was not the King of Israel, they turned backe from him.
33 Then a certaine man drewe a bowe † mightily, and smote the King of Israel betweene the ioyntes of || his brigandine: Therefore he sayd to his charetman, Turne thine hand, and carie mee out of the hoste: for I am hurt.

the sunne going downe.

a He dissembled his hurt, that his souldiers might fight more courageously.

CHAP. XIX.

4 After Iehoshaphat was rebuked by the Prophet, he called againe the people to the honouring of the Lord. 5 Hee appoynteth iudges and ministers, 9 And exhorteth them to feare God.

AND Iehoshaphat the King of Iudah returned † safe to his house in Ierusalem.
2 And Iehu the sonne of Hanani the Seer went out to meete him, and sayde to King Iehoshaphat, a Wouldest thou helpe the wicked, and loue them that hate the Lord? therefore for this thing the wrath † of the Lord is vpon thee.
3 Neuertheles good things are found in thee, because thou hast taken away the groues out of the land, and hast prepared thine heart to seeke God.
4 ¶ So Iehoshaphat dwelt at Ierusalem, and returned and went b through the people from Beersheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them againe vnto the Lord God of their fathers.
5 And he set iudges in the land throughout all the strong cities of Iudah, citie by citie, 6 And said to the iudges, Take heede what ye doe: for ye execute not the iudgements of man, but of the Lord, and he will be c with you in the cause and iudgement.
7 Wherefore nowe let the feare of the Lorde be vpon you: take heede, and doe it: for there is no d iniquitie with the Lord our God, neither *respect of persons, nor receiuing of reward.
8 Moreouer in Ierusalem did Iehoshaphat set of the families of Israel, for the iudgement and cause of the Lord: & they e returned to Ierusalem.

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye doe in the feare of the Lord faithfully and with a perfite heart.
10 And in euery cause that shal come to you of f blood and blood, betweene law and precept, sta-

CHAP. XX.

3 Iehoshaphat and the people pray vnto the Lord. 22 The maruellous victorie that the Lorde gaue him against his enemies. 30 His reigne and actes.

AFter this also came the children of Moab and the children of Ammon, & with them of the a Ammonites against Iehoshaphat to battell.
2 Then there came that tolde Iehoshaphat, saying, There commeth a great multitude against thee from beyond the b Sea, out of Aram: and beholde, they bee in Hazzon Tamar, which is En-gedi.
3 And Iehoshaphat feared, and set himselfe c to seeke the Lord, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Iudah.
4 And Iudah gathered them selues together to aske counsell of the Lord: they came euen out of all the cities of Iudah to inquire of the Lord.
5 And Iehoshaphat stoode in the Congregation of Iudah and Ierusalem in the house of the Lord before the newe court, 6 And saide, O Lord God of our fathers, art not thou God in heauen? and reignest not thou on all the kingdomes of the heathen? and in thine hand is power and might, and none is able to withstand thee.
7 Diddest not thou our God cast out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and d gauest it to the seede of Abraham thy friende for euer?
8 And they dwelt therein, and haue built thee a Sanctuare therein for thy Name, saying, 9 *If euill come vpon vs, as the e sworde of iudgement, or pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house & in thy presence (for thy name f is in this house) and will crie vnto thee in our tribulation, and thou wilt heare and helpe.
10 And nowe beholde, the children of *Ammon and Moab, and mount Seir, by whome thou wouldest not let Israel goe, when they came out of the land of Egypt: but they turned aside from them, and destroyed them not:
11 Beholde, I say, they reward vs, in comming to cast vs out of thine inheritance, which thou hast caused vs to inherit.
12 O our God, wilt thou not iudge them? for there is no strength in vs to stand before this great multitude that commeth against vs, neither doe we knowe what to doe: but our eyes g are toward thee.
13 And all Iudah stoode h before the Lorde with their yong ones, their wiues, and their children.
14 And Iahaziel the sonne of Zechariah the sonne of Benaiah, the sonne of Ieiel, the sonne of Mattaniah, a Leuite of the sonnes of Asaph, was there, vpon whome came i the Spirit of the Lord, in the middes of the Congregation.
15 And he sayd, Hearken ye, all Iudah, and ye inhabitants of Ierusalem, and thou, King Iehoshaphat: thus saith the Lord vnto you, Feare you not, neither be afraide for this great multitude: for the k battell is not yours, but Gods.
16 To morowe goe yee downe against them:
beholde, they come vp by the cleft of Ziz, and ye shall finde them at the ende of the brooke before the wildernesse of Ieruel.
17 Ye shall not neede to fight in this battell:
*stand still, mooue not, and behold the ‖ saluation of the Lord towardes you: O Iudah, and Ierusalem, feare ye not, neither be afraide: to morowe goe out against them, and the Lord will be with you.
18 ¶ Then Iehoshaphat l bowed downe with his face to the earth, and all Iudah and the inhabitants of Ierusalem fell downe before the Lord, worshipping the Lord.
19 And the Leuites of the children of the Ko-hathites and of the children of the Corhites stood vp to praise the Lord God of Israel with a loude voyce on hie.
20 And when they arose early in the morning, they went forth to the wildernesse of Tekoa: and as they departed, Iehoshaphat stoode and sayde, Heare

a That is, which counterfaited the Ammonites in language and apparell. The Hebrewes thinke that they were the Amalekites, but as may appeare by the tenth verse, they were the Idumeans of mount Seir. b Called the dead Sea, where God destroyed the fiue cities for sinne.

c This declareth what the feare of the godly is, which is as a pricke to stirre them to prayer, and to depend on the Lord, where as it mooueth the wicked either to seeke after worldly meanes and policies, or els to fall into despaire.
d He groundeth his prayer vpon Gods power, whereby he is able to helpe, and also on his mercie, which he will continue toward his, for as much as he hath once chosen them and begun to shewe his graces toward them.

Heare yee me, O Iudah, and ye inhabitants of Ie-rusalem: put your trust in the Lord your God, and ye shalbe assured: beleeue his m Prophets, and yee shall prosper.
21 And when he had consulted with the people, and appoynted singers vnto the Lorde, and them that should prayse him that is in the beautifull Sanctuarie, in going forth before the men of armes, and saying, n Prayse yee the Lorde, for his mercy lasteth for euer, 22 And when they began to shoute, and to prayse, the Lorde layed ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and o mount Seir, which were come against Iudah, and they slewe one another.
23 For the children of Ammon & Moab rose against the inhabitants of mount Seir, to slay and to destroy them: and when they had made an ende of the inhabitants of Seir, euery one helped to p destroy another.
24 And when Iudah came towarde Mizpah in the wildernes, they looked vnto the multitude:
and behold, the carkeises were fallen to the earth, and none escaped.
25 And when Iehoshaphat & his people came to take away the spoyle of them, they founde among them in abundance both of substance and also of bodies laden with precious iewels, which they tooke for themselues, till they could cary no more: they were three dayes in gathering of the spoyle: for it was much.
26 And in the fourth day they q assembled themselues in the valley of Berachah: for there they blessed the Lorde: therefore they called the name of that place, The valley of Berachah vnto this day.
27 Then euery man of Iudah and Ierusalem returned with Iehoshaphat their head, to go againe to Ierusalem with ioy: for the Lorde had made them to reioyce ouer their enemies.
28 And they came to Ierusalem with viols and with harpes, and with trumpets, euen vnto the house of the Lord.
29 And the r feare of God was vpon all the kingdomes of the earth, when they had heard that the Lord had fought against the enemies of Israel.
30 So the kingdom of Iehoshaphat was quiet, and his God gaue him rest on euery side.
31 ¶ And * Iehoshaphat reigned ouer Iudah, and was fiue and thirtie yeere olde, when he began to reigne: and reigned fiue and twentie yeere in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.
32 And hee walked in the s way of Asa his father, and departed not therefrom, doing that which was right in the sight of the Lord.
33 Howbeit the hie places were t not taken away: for the people had not yet prepared their hearts vnto the God of their fathers.
34 Concerning the rest of the actes of Iehoshaphat first and last, beholde, they are written in the booke of Iehu the sonne of Hanani, which * is mentioned in the booke of the kings of Israel.
35 ¶ Yet after this did Iehoshaphat King of Iudah ioyne himselfe with Ahaziah King of Israel, who was giuen to doe euill.
36 And he ioyned with him, to * make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the shippes in Ezion Gaber.
37 Then Eliezer the sonne of Dodauah of Man This was a psalme of thankesgiuing, which they vsed commonly to sing when they praised the Lord for his benefites, and was made by Dauid, Psal. 136.

p Thus the Lord according to Iehoshaphats praier declared his power, when he deliuered his by causing their enemies to kill one another.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Iehoshaphat dyeth. 3 Iehoram succeedeth him, 4 which killeth his brethren. 6 He was brought to idolatrie, 11 and seduceth the people. 16 Hee is oppressed of the Philistims. 18 His miserable ende.

IEhoshaphat then slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid: and Iehoram his sonne reigned in his steade.
2 And he had brethren the sonnes of Iehoshaphat, Azariah, and Iehiel, and Zechariah, and A-zariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah. Al these were the sonnes of Iehoshaphat King of a Israel.
3 And their father gaue them great giftes of siluer and of golde, and of precious things, with strong cities in Iudah, but the kingdome gaue he to Iehoram: for he was the eldest.
4 *And Iehoram rose vp vpon the kingdome of his father, and made himselfe strong, and b slew all his brethren with the sworde, and also of the princes of c Israel.
5 Iehoram was two and thirtie yeere olde, when he began to reigne, and hee reigned eyght yeere in Ierusalem.
6 And he walked in the way of the Kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab had done: for hee had the daughter of Ahab to d wife, and hee wrought euill in the eyes of the Lord.
7 Howbeit the Lorde would not destroy the house of Dauid, because of the * couenant that he had made with Dauid, and because hee had promised to giue a light to him, and to his sonnes for euer.
8 ¶ In his dayes Edom rebelled from vnder the hand of Iudah, and made a King ouer them.
9 And Iehoram went forth with his princes, and all his charets with him: and hee rose vp by night, and smote Edom, which had compassed him in, and the captaines of the charets.
10 But Edom rebelled from vnder the hande of Iudah vnto this day. then did e Libnah rebell at the same time from vnder his hand, because hee had forsaken the Lord God of his fathers.
11 ¶ Moreouer hee made hie places in the mountaines of Iudah, and caused the inhabitants of Ierusalem to commit f fornication, and compelled Iudah thereto.
12 And there came a writing to him from g Eli-iah the Prophet, saying, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Dauid thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the wayes of Iehoshaphat thy father, nor in the wayes of Asa King of Iudah, 13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Iudah and the inhabitants of Ierusalem to go a whoring, as the house of Ahab went a whoring, and hast also slaine thy brethren of thy fathers house, which were better then thou, 14 Beholde, with a great plague will the Lorde smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wiues, and all thy substance, 15 And thou shalt bee in great diseases in the disease of thy bowels, vntill h thy bowels fall out

f Meaning idolatrie, because that the idolater breaketh promes with God, as doeth the adulteresse to her husband.

h We see this example dayly practised vpō them that fal away from God, and become idolaters and murtherers of their brethren.
i There were other Arabians in Africa Southward toward Egypt.

17 And they came vp into Iudah, and brake into it, and caryed away all the substance that was found in the Kings house, and his sonnes also, and his wiues, so that there was not a sonne left him, saue [k] Iehoahaz, the yongest of his sonnes.
18 And after all this, the Lorde smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.
19 And in processe of time, euen after the end of two yeeres, his guttes fell out with his disease:
so he dyed of sore diseases: and his people made no burning for him like the burning of his fathers.
20 When he began to reigne, he was two and thirtie yeere olde, and reigned in Ierusalem eight yeere, [l] and liued without being desired: yet they buryed him in the citie of Dauid, but not among the sepulchres of the Kings.

k Called also Ahaziah, as Chap. 22.1. or Azariah, verse 6. following.
l That is, as some write, he was not regarded, but deposed for his wickednes, & idolatry: so that his sonne reigned 22. yeres, (his father yet liuing) without honour, and after his fathers death hee was confirmed to reigne still, as Chap. 22.2.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Ahaziah reigneth after Iehoram. 9 Iehu king of Israel killeth Ahaziah. 10 Athaliah putteth to death all the Kings linage. 11 Ioash escapeth.

AND * the inhabitants of Ierusalem made Ahaziah his yongest sonne King in his steade:
for the armie that came with [a] the Arabians to the campe, had slayne all the eldest: therefore Ahaziah the sonne of Iehoram King of Iudah reigned.
2 Two and [b] fourtie yeere olde was Ahaziah when hee began to reigne, and hee reigned [c] one yeere in Ierusalem. and his mothers name was Athaliah the daughter [d] of Omri.
3 Hee walked also in the wayes of the house of Ahab: for his mother counselled him to doe wickedly.
4 Wherefore hee did euill in the sight of the Lorde, like the house of Ahab: for they were his [e] counsellers after the death of his father, to his destruction.
5 And he walked after their counsel, and went with Iehoram the sonne of Ahab King of Israel to fight against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead: and the Aramites smote Ioram.
6 ¶ And he returned to be healed in Izreel, because of the wounds wherewith they had wounded him at Ramah, when hee fought with Ha-zael King of Aram. Nowe Azariah the sonne of Iehoram King of Iudah went downe to see Iehoram the sonne of Ahab at Izreel, because hee was diseased.
7 And the destruction of Ahaziah [f] came of God in that he went to Ioram: for when hee was come, hee went forth with Iehoram against Iehu the sonne of Nimshi, * whom the Lord had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab.
8 Therefore when Iehu || executed iudgement vpon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Iudah and the sonnes of the brethren of Ahaziah that waited on Ahaziah, he slew them also.
9 And hee sought Ahaziah, and they caught him where hee was hid in Samaria, and brought him to Iehu, and slewe him and buryed him, because, said they, hee is the sonne of [g] Iehoshaphat, which sought the Lorde with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah was not able to reteine the kingdome.
10 ¶ * Therefore when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah sawe that her sonne was dead, shee arose and [h] destroyed all the Kings seede of the house of Iudah.
11 But Iehoshabeath the daughter of the King, tooke Ioash the sonne of Ahaziah, and stale him from among the Kings sonnes, that shoulde bee slayne, and put him and his nource in the bedde chamber: so Iehoshabeath the daughter of King Iehoram the wife of Iehoiada the Priest (for shee was the sister of Ahaziah) hid him from Athaliah:
so shee slew him not.
12 And hee was with them hid in the [i] house of God sixe yeeres, whiles Athaliah reigned ouer the [k] land.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Ioash the sonne of Ahaziah is made King. 15 Athaliah is put to death. 17 The Temple of Baal is destroyed. 19 Iehoiada appoynteth ministers in the Temple.

AND * [a] in the seuenth yeere Iehoiada waxed bolde, and tooke the captaines of hundreths, mael the sonne of Iehohanan, and Azariah the

2 And they went about in Iudah, & gathered the Leuites out of all the cities of Iudah, and the chiefe fathers [b] of Israel: & they came to Ierusalē.
3 And al the Congregation made a couenant with the King in the house of God: and he sayde vnto them, Beholde, the Kings sonne must reigne,
* as the Lord hath sayd of the sonnes of Dauid.
4 This is it that ye shall doe, The third part of you that come on the Sabbath of the Priests, and the Leuites, shalbe porters of the doores.

they shal go in, for they are holy: but all the peo-

7 And the Leuites shall compasse the king be slaine, and be you with the King, when he commeth in, and when he goeth out.

8 ¶ So the Leuites and all Iudah did according to all things that Iehoiada the Priest had commanded, and tooke euery man his men that came on the Sabbath, with them that [e] went out on the Sabbath: for Iehoiada the Priest did not discharge the courses.
9 And Iehoiada the Priest deliuered to the captaines of hundreths speares, and shieldes, and bucklers which had bene King Dauids, and were in the house of God.

CHAP. XXIIII.

4 Ioash repayreth the house of the Lord. 17 After the death of Iehoiada, he falleth to idolatrie. 21 He stoneth to death Zechariah the Prophet. 25 Ioash is killed of his owne seruants. 27 After him reigneth Amaziah.

IOash *was seuen yeere olde, when hee began to reigne,and he reigned fourtie yere in Ierusalem:
and his mothers name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.
2 And Ioash did vprightly in the sight of the Lord,all the dayes of [a] Iehoiada the Priest.
3 And Iehoiada ‖ tooke him two wiues, and he begate sonnes and daughters.
4 ¶And afterward it came into Ioash mind, to renew the house of the Lord.
5 And hee assembled the Priests and the Le-uites, and said to them, Goe out vnto the cities of Iudah, and gather of all [b] Israel money to repaire the house of your God, from yeere to yeere, and haste the thing: but the Leuites hasted not.
6 Therefore the King called Iehoiada, the [c] chiefe, and saide vnto him, Why hast thou not required of the Leuites to bring in out of Iudah and Ierusalem * the taxe of Moses the seruant of the Lord,and of the Congregation of Israel, for the Tabernacle of the testimonie?
7 For [d] wicked Athaliah, and her children brake vp the house of God: and all the things that were dedicate for the house of the Lord, did they bestow vpon Baalim.

made a chest, and set it at the gate of the house of the Lord without.

taxe of Moses the seruant of God, layde vpon Israel in the wildernesse.
10 And all the princes and all the people reioyced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, vntill they had finished.
11 And when it was time, [e] they brought the chest vnto the Kings officer by the hande of the Leuites: and when they sawe that there was much siluer, then the Kings Scribe (and one appoynted by the hie Priest) came and emptied the chest, and tooke it, and caried it to his place againe: thus they did day by day, and gathered siluer in abundance.
12 And the King and [f] Iehoiada gaue it to such as did the labour and worke in the house of the Lorde,and hyred masons and carpenters to repayre the house of the Lorde: they gaue it also to workers of yron and brasse,to repayre the house of the Lord.
13 So the workemen wrought, and the worke †amended through their hands:and they restored the house of God to his state,and strengthened it.
14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the siluer before the King and Iehoiada,,and hee made thereof [g] vessels for the house of the Lord, euen vessels to minister, both morters and incense cuppes, and vessels of golde, and of siluer: and they offred burnt offrings in the house of the Lord continually all the dayes of Iehoiada.
15 ¶But Iehoiada waxed olde,and was full of dayes and died. An hundreth and thirtie yere olde was he when he died.
16 And they buried him in the citie of Dauid with the [h] kings, because he had done good in Israel,and toward God and his house.
17 ¶ And after the death of Iehoiada, came the [i] princes of Iudah, and did reuerence to the King,and the King hearkened vnto them.
18 And they left the house of the Lord God of their fathers, and serued groues and idoles: and wrath came vpon Iudah and Ierusalem, because of this their trespasse.
19 And God sent Prophets among thē,to bring them againe vnto the Lord: & they [k] made pro-testation among them, but they would not heare.
20 And the Spirite of God came vpon Zechariah the sonne of Iehoiada the Priest, which stoode [l] aboue the people, and sayde vnto them, Thus sayth God, Why transgresse ye the com-mandements of the Lord? surely ye shall not prosper: because ye haue forsaken the Lord, he also hath forsaken you.
21 Then they conspired against him & stoned him with stones at the [m] commandement of the King,in the court of the house of the Lord.
22 Thus Ioash the King remembred not the kindenesse which Iehoiada his father had done to him,but slew his sonne. And when he died, he said,

Aram came vp against him,and they came against Iudah and Ierusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoile of them vnto the King of Dataxe gathered by him, and the [r] foundation of the house of God, beholde, they are written in the storie of the booke of the Kings. And Amaziah his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXV.

3 Amaziah putteth them to death which slewe his father. 10 Hee sendeth backe them of Israel. 11 Hee ouercommeth the Edomites. 14 Hee falleth to idolatrie. 17 And Ioash King of Israel ouercommeth Amaziah. 27 Hee is slaine by a conspiracie.

Amaziah was fiue and twentie yere olde when he began to reigne, and he reigned nine and twentie yeere in * Ierusalem: and his mothers name was Iehoaddan, of Ierusalem.
2 And hee did [a] vprightly in the eyes of the Lord, but not with a perfite heart.
3 And when the kingdome was established vnto him, hee slewe his seruants, that had slaine the King his father.
4 But hee slewe not their children, but did as it is written in the Lawe, and in the booke of Moses, where the Lord commanded, saying, * The fathers shall not die for the [b] children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but euery man shall die for his owne sinne.
5 ¶ And Amaziah assembled Iudah, and made them captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer hundreths, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Iudah and Beniamin:
and he nombred them from [c] twentie yeere olde and aboue, and founde among them three hun-dreth thousand chosen men, to goe foorth to the warre, and to handle speare and shielde.
6 Hee hyred also an hundreth thousand valiant men [d] out of Israel for an hundreth talents of siluer.
7 But a man of God came to him, saying, O King, let not the armie of Israel goe with thee: for the Lorde is not [e] with Israel, neither with all the house of Ephraim.
8 If [f] not, goe thou on, doe it, make thy selfe strong to the battel, but God shall make thee fall before the enemie: for God hath power to helpe, and to cast downe.
9 And Amaziah sayde to the man of God,
What shall we doe then for the hundreth talents, which I haue giuen to the hoste of Israel? Then the man of God answered, The Lorde is able to [g] giue thee more then this.
10 So Amaziah separated them, to wit, the armie that was come to him out of Ephraim, to returne to their place: wherefore their wrath was kindled greatly against Iudah, and they returned to their places with great anger.
11 Then Amaziah was encouraged, and led forth his people, and went to the salt valley, and smote of the children of [h] Seir, ten thousand.
12 And other ten thousand did the children of Iudah take aliue, and caryed them to the top of a [i] rocke, and cast them downe from the top of the rocke, and they all burst to pieces.
13 But the men of the [k] armie, which Amaziah sent away, that they should not goe with his people to battell, fell vpon the cities of Iudah frō Samaria vnto Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and tooke much spoyle.
14 Nowe after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them vp to bee his gods, and [l] worshipped them, and burned incense vnto them.
15 Wherefore the Lorde was wroth with Amaziah, and sent vnto him a Prophet, which sayd vnto him, Why hast thou sought the gods of the people, which were not able to [m] deliuer their owne people out of thine hand?
16 And as hee talked with him, [n] he said vnto him, Haue they made thee the Kings counseler? cease thou: why should they [o] smite thee? And the Prophet ceased, but saide, I knowe that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not obeyed my counsell.
17 ¶ Then Amaziah King of Iudah tooke counsell, and sent to Ioash the sonne of Iehoahaz, the sonne of Iehu King of Israel, saying, Come, [p] let vs see one another in the face.
18 But Ioash King of Israel sent to Amaziah King of Iudah, saying, The thistle that is in Lebanon, sent to the cedar that is in Lebanon, saying, * Giue thy daughter to my sonne to wife: and the wilde beast that was in Lebanon went and trode downe the thistle.
19 Thou thinkest: loe, thou hast smitten Edom, and thine heart lifteth thee vp to bragge:
abide now at home: why doest thou prouoke to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, and Iudah with thee?
20 But Amaziah would not heare: for [q] it was of God, that he might deliuer them into his hand, because they had sought the gods of Edom.
21 So Ioash the King of Israel went vp: and he, and Amaziah King of Iudah saw one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which is in Iudah.
22 And Iudah was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled euery man to his tents.
23 But Ioash the King of Israel tooke Amaziah King of Iudah, the sonne of Ioash, the sonne of Iehoahaz in Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Ierusalem, & brake downe the wall of Ierusalem, from the gate of Ephraim vnto the corner gate, foure hundreth cubites.
24 And he tooke all the golde & the siluer, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with [r] Obed Edom, & in the treasures of the Kings house, and the children that were in hostage, and returned to Samaria.
25 ¶ And Amaziah the sonne of Ioash King of Iudah liued after the death of Ioash sonne of Iehoahaz King of Israel, fifteene yeere.
26 Concerning the rest of the acts of Amaziah first and last, are they not written in the booke of the Kings of Iudah and Israel?

turne away from the Lord, * they wrought treason

CHAP. XXVI.

1. 5 Vzziah obeying the Lord, prospereth in his enterprises. 16 Hee waxeth proude and vsurpeth the Priests office. 19 The Lord plagueth him. 20 The Priests driue him out of the Temple, and exclude him out of the Lords house. 23 His death, and his successour.

THen *all the people of Iudah tooke a Vzziah, which was sixteene yeere olde, and made him
King in the steade of his father Amaziah.
2 He buylt b Eloth, and restored it to Iudah after that the King slept with his fathers.
3 *Sixteene yeere olde was Vzziah, when he began to reigne, and he reigned two and fiftie yere in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Iecoliah of Ierusalem.
4 And hee did vprightly in the sight of the Lord, according to al that his father Amaziah did.
5 And he sought God in the dayes of c Zechariah (which vnderstoode the visions of God) and when as d he sought the Lorde, God made him to prosper.
6 For hee went forth and fought against the Philistims and brake downe the wall of Gath, and the wall of Iabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities in Ashdod, and among the Philistims.
7 And God helped him against the Philistims, and against the Arabians that dwell in Gur-baal and Hammeunim.
8 And the Ammonites gaue e gifts to Vzziah, and his name spred to the entring in of Egypt:
for he did most valiantly.
9 Moreouer Vzziah buylt towres in Ierusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the * f turning, and made them strong.
10 And he built towres in the wildernesse, and digged many ‖ cisternes: for hee had much cattell both in the valleyes and playnes, plowmen, and dressers of vines in the mountaines, and in g Carmel: for he loued husbandrie.
11 Vzziah had also an hoste of fighting men that went out to warre by bandes, according to the count of their nomber vnder the hande of Ieiel the Scribe, and Maaseiah the ruler, and vnder the hande of Hananiah, one of the Kings captaines.
12 The whole h nomber of the chiefe of the families of the valiant men were two thousand and sixe hundreth.
13 And vnder their hande was the armie for warre, three hundreth and seuen thousand, & fiue hundreth that fought valiantly to helpe the King against the enemie.
14 And Vzziah prepared them throughout all the hoste, shieldes, and speares, and helmets, and brigandines, and bowes, and stones to sling.
15 He made also very † artificial engins in Ie-rusalem, to be vpon the towres and vpon the corners, to shoote arrowes and great stones: and his name spred farre abroade, because God did helpe him marueilously, till he was mightie.
16 ¶ But when hee was strong, his heart i was lift vp to his destruction: for he transgressed against the Lord his God, & went into the Temple of the Lord to burne incense vpon the altar of incense.
17 And Azariah the Priest went in after him, and with him fourescore Priests of the Lorde, valiant men.
18 And they withstoode Vzziah the King, and said vnto him, *It perteineth not to thee, Vzziah, to burne incense vnto the Lord, but to the Priests the sonnes of Aaron, that are consecrated for to offer incense: k goe forth of the Sanctuarie: for thou hast transgressed, and thou shalt haue none honour of the Lord God.

19 Then Vzziah was wroth, and had incense in his hand to burne it: and while he was wroth with the Priestes, the leprosie rose vp in his foreheade before the Priestes in the house of the Lorde beside the incense altar.
20 And when Azariah the chiefe Priest with al the Priestes looked vpon him, beholde, hee was leprous in his forehead; and they caused him hastily to depart thence: and he was euen compelled to go out, because the Lord had smitten him.
21 *And Vzziah the king was a leper vnto the day of his death, and dwelt as a leper in an l house apart, because he was cut off from the house of the Lord: and Iotham his sonne ruled ouer the Kings house, and iudged the people of the land.
22 Concerning the rest of the acts of Vzziah, first and last, did Isaiah the Prophet the sonne of Amoz write.
23 So Vzziah slept with his fathers, and they buryed him with his fathers in the fielde of the burial, which perteined to the kings: for they saide, Hee m is a leper. And Iotham his sonne reigned in his steade.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Iotham reigneth, and ouercommeth the Ammonites. 8 His reigne and death. 9 Ahaz his sonne reigneth in his stead.

IOtham * was fiue and twentie yere olde when he began to reigne, and reigned sixteene yeere in Ierusalem, and his mothers name was Ierushah the daughter of Zadok.
2 And hee did vprightly in the sight of the Lorde according to all that his father Vzziah did, saue that hee entred not into the a Temple of the Lorde, and the people did yet b corrupt their wayes.
3 Hee built the hie c gate of the house of the Lord, and he buylt very much on the wall of the castle.
4 Moreouer hee buylt cities in the moun-taines of Iudah, and in the forests hee buylt palaces and towres.
5 And hee fought with the King of the children of Ammon, and preuailed against them. And the children of Ammon gaue him the same yere an hundreth talents of siluer, and ten thousand † measures of wheate, and ten thousand of barley: this did the children of Ammon giue him ‖ both in the second yeere and the third.
6 So Iotham became mightie d because hee directed his way before the Lord his God.
7 Concerning the rest of the acts of Iotham, and all his warres and his wayes, loe, they are written in the booke of the Kings of Israel, and Iudah.
8 Hee was fiue and twentie yeere olde when he began to reigne, and reigned sixteene yeere in 9 And Iotham slept with his fathers, and they buryed him in the citie of Dauid: and Ahaz his sonne reigned in his stead.

Lord, like Dauid his ‖ father.
2 But a he walked in the wayes of ẏ Kings of Israel, & made euen molten images for b Baalim.
3 Moreouer he burnt incense in the valley of Ben-hinnom, and ‖ burnt his sonnes with fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.
4 Hee sacrificed also and burnt incense in the hie places, and on hilles, and vnder euery greene tree.
5 Wherefore the Lorde his God deliuered him into the hande of the King of the Aramites, and they smote him, and tooke of his, † many prisoners, and brought them to Damascus: and he was also deliuered into the hand of the King of Israel, which smote him with a great slaughter.
6 For c Pekah the sonne of Remaliah slewe in Iudah sixe score thousande in one day, all † valiant men, because they had forsaken the Lord God of their fathers.
7 And Zichri a ‖ mightie man of Ephraim slew Maaseiah the Kings sonne, and Azrikam the go-uernour of the house, and Elkanah the second after the King.
8 And the children of Israel tooke prisoners of their brethren, d two hundreth thousand of women, sonnes and daughters, and caried away much spoyle of them, and brought the spoyle to Samaria.
9 ¶ But there was a Prophet of the Lordes, (whose name was Oded) and hee went out before the hoste that came to Samaria, & said vnto them, Behold, e because the Lord God of your fathers is wroth with Iudah, hee hath deliuered them into your hand, and ye haue slaine them in a rage, that reacheth vp to heauen.
10 And nowe yee purpose to keepe vnder the children of Iudah and Ierusalem, as seruants and handmaides vnto you: but are not you such, that f sinnes are with you before the Lord your God?
11 Nowe therefore heare mee, and deliuer the captiues againe, which ye haue taken prisoners of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the Lorde is toward you.
12 Wherefore certaine of the chiefe of the children of g Ephraim, Azariah the sonne of Iehohanan, Berechiah the sonne of Meshillemoth, and Iehizkiah the sonne of Shallum, and Amasa the sonne of Hadlai, stoode vp against them that came from the warre, 13 And said vnto them, Bring not in the cap-tiues hither: for this shalbe h a sinne vpon vs against the Lord: ye entende to adde more to our sinnes and to our trespasse, though our trespasse be great, and the fierce wrath of God is against Israel.
14 So the armie left the captiues & the spoyle before the princes and all the Congregation.
15 And the men that were i named by name, rose vp and tooke the prisoners, and with the spoyle clothed all that were naked among them, and arayed them, and shod them, and gaue them meate, and gaue them drinke, and k anoynted them, and caryed all that were feeble of them vp-on asses, and brought them to Iericho the citie of to Samaria.

thers, but f giue the hand to the Lorde, and come into his sanctuarie, which hee hath sanctified for euer, and serue the Lord your God, and the fiercenesse of his wrath shall turne away from you.
9 For if ye returne vnto the Lord, your brethren and your children shall finde mercie before them that led them captiues, and they shall g returne vnto this land: for the Lord your God is gracious and mercifull, and will not turne away his face from you, if ye conuert vnto him.
10 ¶ So the postes went from citie to citie thorowe the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, euen vnto Zebulun: but they h laughed them to scorne, and mocked them.
11 Neuerthelesse diuers of Asher, and Manasseh, and of Zebulun submitted themselues, and came to Ierusalem.
12 And the hand of God was in Iudah, so that he gaue them one i heart to doe the commaun-dement of the King, and of the rulers, according to the word of the Lord.
13 And there assembled to Ierusalem much people, to keepe the feast of the vnleauened bread in the second moneth, a very great assemblie.
14 ¶ And they arose, and tooke away the k altars that were in Ierusalem: and all those for incense tooke they away, and cast them into the brooke Kidron.
15 Afterwarde they slewe the Passeouer the fourteenth day of the seconde moneth: and the Priestes and Leuites were l ashamed, and sanctified themselues, and brought the burnt offrings into the house of the Lord.
16 And they stoode in their place after their maner, according to the Lawe of Moses the man of God: and the Priestes sprinkled the m blood, receiued of the handes of the Leuites.
17 Because there were many in the Congregation that were not sanctified, therefore the Leuites had the charge of the killing of the Passeouer for all that were not cleane, to sanctifie it to the Lord.
18 For a multitude of the people, euen a multitude of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun had not cleansed themselues, yet did eate the Passeouer, but not as it was written: wherefore Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The n good Lord be not clensed, according to the purification of the Sanctuarie.

20 And the Lord heard Hezekiah, and o healed the people.
21 And the children of Israel that were present at Ierusalem, kept the feast of the vnleauened bread seuen dayes with great ioye, and the Leuites, and the Priestes praysed the Lorde, day by day, singing with loude instruments vnto the Lorde.
22 And Hezekiah † spake comfortably vnto all the Leuites that had good knowledge to sing vnto the Lorde: and they did eate in that feast seuen dayes, and offred peace offrings, and praysed the Lord God of their fathers.
23 And the whole assembly tooke counsel to keepe it other seuen dayes. So they kept it seuen dayes with ioy.
24 For Hezekiah King of Iudah had giuen to the Congregation a p thousande bullockes, and seuen thousande sheepe. And the princes had giuen to the Congregation a thousand bullocks, and ten thousand sheepe: and many Priests were sanctified.
25 And all the Congregation of Iudah reioy-ced with the Priestes and the Leuites, and all the Congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Iudah.
26 So there was great ioye in Ierusalem: for since the time of Salomon the sonne of Dauid King of Israel there was not the like thing in Ie-
rusalem.
27 Then the Priests and the Leuites arose, and q blessed the people, and their voyce was heard, and their prayer came vp vnto heauen, to his holy habitation.

went out and a brake the images, and cut downe the groues, and brake downe the hie places, and Ephraim also and Manasseh, vntill they had made an ende: afterwarde all the b children of Israel returned euery man to his possession, into their owne cities.

2 And Hezekiah appoynted the courses of the Priests and Leuites by their turnes, euery man according to his office, both Priestes and Leuites, ster and to giue thankes, and to praise in the gates

6 And the children of Israel and Iudah that dwelt in the cities of Iudah, they also brought the tithes of bullockes and sheepe, and the holy tithes [f] which were consecrate vnto the Lord their God, and laid them on [g] many heapes.

7 In the third moneth they began to lay the foundation of the heapes, and finished them in the seuenth moneth.

8 ¶ And when Hezekiah and the princes came, and saw the heapes, they [h] blessed the Lord and his people Israel.

9 And Hezekiah questioned with the Priests and the Leuites concerning the heapes.

10 And Azariah the chiefe Priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and sayde, Since the people beganne to bring the offrings into the house of the Lord, we haue [i] eaten and haue bene satisfied, and there is left in abundance: for the Lord hath blessed his people, and this abundance that is left.

11 ¶ And Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of the Lord: and they prepared them, 12 And caried in the first fruites, and the tithes, and the dedicate things faithfully: and ouer them was Conaniah the Leuite, the chiefe, and Shimei his brother the second.

13 And Iehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Ierimoth, and Iozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah were ouerseers † by the appointment of Conaniah, and Shimei his brother, and by the commandement of Hezekiah the King, and of Azariah the chiefe of the house of God.

14 And Kore the sonne of Imnah the Leuite, porter towarde the East, was ouer the things that were willingly offred vnto God, to distribute the oblations of the Lorde, and the holy things that were consecrate.

15 And at his hand were Eden, and Miniamin, and Ieshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shechaniah, in the cities of the Priestes, to distribute with fidelitie to their brethren by courses, both to the great and small,

16 Their daily portion: beside their generation being males [k] from three yeere olde and aboue, euen to all that entred into the house of the Lord to their office in their charge, according to their courses:

17 Both to the generation of the Priestes after the house of their fathers, and to the Leuites from twentie yeere olde and aboue, according to their charge in their courses:

18 And to the generation of all their children, their wiues, and their sonnes and their daughters throughout all the Congregation: for by their [l] fidelitie are they partakers of the holy things.

19 Also to the sonnes of Aaron, the Priestes, which were in the fieldes and suburbes of their cities, in euerie citie the men that were appointed by names, shoulde giue portions to all the males of the Priests, and to all the generation of the Leuites.

20 And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Iudah, and did well, and vprightly, and truelie before the Lord his God.

21 And in all the works that he beganne for the seruice of the house of God, both in the Lawe and in the commandements, to seeke his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

f Which they had dedicated to the Lord by a vow.

h They praised the Lord, and prayed for all prosperitie to his people.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Sanecherib inuadeth Iudah. 3 Hezekiah prepareth for the warre. 7 He exhorteth the people to put their trust in the Lorde. 9 Sanecherib blasphemeth God. 20 Hezekiah prayeth. 21 The Angell destroyeth the Assyrians, and the King is slaine. 25 Hezekiah is not thankfull toward the Lord. 33 His death.

After these things faithfully described, * Sanecherib King of Asshur came & entred into Iudah, and besieged the strong cities, and thought to † winne them for himselfe.

2 When Hezekiah sawe that Sanecherib was come, and that his † purpose was to fight against Ierusalem,

3 Then he tooke counsell with his princes & his nobles, to stoppe the water of the fountaines without the citie: and they did helpe him.

4 So many of the people assembled themselues, and stopt all the fountaines, and the riuer that ranne through the middes of the countrey, saying, Why should the Kings of Asshur come, & finde much water?

5 And † he tooke courage, and built all the broken wall, and made vp the towers, and [a] another wall without, and repayred † Millo in the [b] citie of Dauid, and made many [c] dartes & shields.

6 And he set captaines of warre ouer the people, and assembled them to him in the broad place of the gate of the citie, and † spake comfortablie vnto them, saying,

7 Be strong and couragious: feare not, neither be afraide for the King of Asshur, neither for all the multitude that is with him: * for there be mo with vs, then is with him.

8 With him is an [d] arme of flesh, but with vs is the [e] Lord our God for to helpe vs, and to fight our battels. Then the people were confirmed by the words of Hezekiah King of Iudah.

9 * After this, did Sanecherib King of Asshur send his seruants to Ierusalem (while hee was [f] against Lachish, and all his dominion with him) vnto Hezekiah King of Iudah and vnto all Iudah that were at Ierusalem, saying,

10 Thus saith Sanecherib the King of Asshur, Wherein doe ye trust, that ye will remaine in Ierusalem, during the siege?

11 Doeth not Hezekiah entice you to giue ouer your selues vnto death by famine and by thirst, saying, The Lord our God shall deliuer vs out of the hand of the King of Asshur?

12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his hie places and his [g] altars, and commanded Iudah and Ierusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burne incense vpon it?

13 Knowe ye not what I and my fathers haue done vnto all the people of other countries? were the gods of the nations of other lands able to deliuer their land out of mine hand?

14 Who is he of all the [h] gods of those nations (that my fathers haue destroyed) that coulde deliuer his people out of mine hande? that your God shoulde be able to deliuer you out of mine hand?

15 Nowe therefore let not Hezekiah deceiue you, nor seduce you after this sort, neither beleeue ye him: for none of all the gods of any nation or kingdome was able to deliuer his people out of [i] mine hand and out of the hand of my fathers: how much lesse shall your gods deliuer you out of mine hand?

g Thus the wicked put no difference betweene the true religion and false, God and idoles: for Hezekiah onely destroyed idolatrie and placed true religion: thus the Papists slander the seruants of God: for when they destroy idolatrie, they say that they abolish religion.
h This is his blasphemie, that he will compare the liuing God to vile idoles.
i When man hath prosperitie, he swelleth in pride, and thinketh him selfe able to resist and ouercome euen God himselfe.

k Herein we see that when the wicked speake euill of the seruants of God, they care not to blaspheme God himselfe: for if they feared God, they would loue his seruants.

u Here we see the cause, why the faithfull are tempted, which is to trie whether they haue faith or no, & that they may feele the presence of God, who suffereth them not to be ouercome by tentations, but in their wickednesse ministreth strength.

16 And his seruants spake yet more against the Lorde God, and against his [k] seruant Hezekiah.
17 He wrote also letters, blaspheming the Lord God of Israel and speaking against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other countries could not deliuer their people out of mine hande, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliuer his people out of mine hand.
18 Then they [l] cried with a loude voyce in the Iewes speech vnto the people of Ierusalem that were on the wall, to feare them and to astonish them, that they might take the citie.
19 Thus they spake against the God of Ierusalem, as against the Gods of the people of the earth, euen the [m] works of mans hands.
20 But Hezekiah the King, and the Prophet Isaiah the sonne of Amoz [n] prayed against this & cried to heauen.
21 And the Lord sent an Angel which destroyed all the valiant men, and the princes and [o] captaines of the host of the King of Asshur: so he returned † with shame to his owne land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came foorth of his [p] owne bowels, slew him there with the sword.
22 So the Lord saued Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Ierusalem from the hand of Saneherib King of Asshur, & from the hand of all other, and ‖ mainteined them on euery side.
23 And many brought offrings vnto the Lord to Ierusalem, and presents to Hezekiah King of Iudah, so that he was [q] magnified in the sight of al nations from thencefoorth.
24 * In those dayes Hezekiah was sicke vnto the death, and prayed vnto the Lorde, who spake vnto him, and gaue him [r] a signe.
25 But Hezekiah did not render according to the reward bestowed vpon him: for his heart [s] was lift vp, and wrath came vpon him, and vpon Iudah and Ierusalem.
26 Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himselfe (after that his heart was lifted vp) he and the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and the wrath of the Lord came not vpon them in the dayes of Hezekiah.
27 Hezekiah also had exceeding much riches and honour, and he gate him treasures of siluer, and of golde, and of precious stones, and of sweete odours, and of shieldes, and of all pleasant vessels:
28 And of store houses for the increase of wheat and wine and oyle, and stalles for all beasts, and ‖ rowes for the ‖ stables.
29 And he made him cities, and had possession of sheepe and oxen in abundance: for God had gi-uen him substance exceeding much.
30 This same Hezekiah also stopped the vpper water springs of [t] Gihon, & led them streight vnderneath toward the citie of Dauid Westward, so Hezekiah prospered in all his works.
31 But because of the ambassadours of the princes of Babel, which sent vnto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him to [u] trie him, and to know all that was in his heart.
32 Concerning the rest of the actes of Hezekiah, and his goodnesse, beholde, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the Prophet, the sonne of Amoz, in the booke of the Kings of Iudah and Israel.
33 So Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the highest sepulchre of the sonnes of Dauid: and all Iudah and the inhabitants of Ie-rusalem did him honour at his death: & Manasseh his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Manasseh an idolater. 9 He causeth Iudah to erre. 11 He is led away prisoner into Babylon. 12 He prayeth to the Lord, and is deliuered. 15 He abolisheth idolatrie, 16 And setteth vp true religion. 20 He dieth and Amon his sonne succeedeth, 24 Whome his owne seruants slay.

MAnasseh was twelue yeere olde, * when hee began to reigne, and he reigned fiue and fifty
yeere in Ierusalem:
2 And he did euill in the sight of the Lorde, like the abominations of the heathen, * whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.
3 For he went backe and built the hie places,
* which Hezekiah his father had broken downe:
* and he set vp altars for Baalim, and made groues, and worshipped all the hoste of the heauen, and serued them.
4 Also hee built altars in the house of the Lord, whereof the Lord had said, * In Ierusalem shall my Name be for euer.
5 And he built altars for all the hoste of the heauen in the two courtes of the house of the Lord.
6 [a] And he caused his sonnes to passe through the fire in the valley of Ben-hinnom: hee gaue himselfe to witchcraft and to charming, and to sorcerie, and he vsed them that had familiar spirits, & soothsayers: he did very much euill in the sight of the Lord to anger him.
7 He put also the carued image, which he had made, in the house of God: whereof God had said to Dauid and to Salomon his sonne, * In this house and in Ierusalem, which I haue chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my Name for
euer,
8 Neither will * I make the foote of Israel to remooue any more out of the lande which I haue appointed for your fathers, so that they take heed, and doe all that I haue commanded them, according to the Law and statutes and iudgements by the [b] hand of Moses.
9 So Manasseh made Iudah and the inhabitants of Ierusalem to erre, and to doe worse then the heathen, whome the Lorde had destroyed before the children of Israel.
10 ¶ And the Lorde spake [c] to Manasseh and to his people, but they would not regard.
11 Wherefore the Lorde brought vpon them the captaines of the hoste of the King of Asshur, which tooke Manasseh and put him in fetters, and bound him in chaines, and caried him to Babel.
12 And when he was in tribulation, he prayed to the Lord his God, and humbled himselfe greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed vnto him: and God was [d] entreated of him, and heard his prayer, and brought him againe to Ierusalem into his kingdome: then Manasseh knew that the Lord was God.
14 Nowe after this he built a wall without the citie of Dauid, on the West side of [e] Gihon in the valley, euen at the entrie of the fish gate, and compassed about [f] Ophel, and raised it verie hie, and put captaines of warre in all the strong cities of Iudah.

16 Also he prepared the g altar of the Lorde, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings, and of thankes, and commanded Iudah to serue the Lord

h Thus by ignorance they were deceiued, thinking it nothing to keepe the altars, so that they worshipped God: but it is idolatrie to worship God any otherwise then he hath appoynted.

in the hie places, but vnto the h Lord their God.

in Ierusalem.

as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed to all the images, which Manasseh his father had made, and serued them,

Lord, as Manasseh his father had humbled himselfe: but this Amon trespassed more and more.

he was yet a b childe) he began to seeke after the God of Dauid his father: and in the twelft yeere he began to purge Iudah, and Ierusalem from the hie places, and the groues, and the carued images, and molten images.

c Which sheweth that he would see the reformation with his owne eyes.

tars of Baalim, and hee caused to cut downe the images that were on hie vpon them: he brake also maules they brake all round about.

e This great zeale of this godly King the holy Ghost setteth foorth as an example and paterne to other Kings and rulers, to teach them what God requireth of them.

7 And when he had e destroyed the altars and the groues, and had broken and stamped to pou-der the images, and had cut downe all the idoles throughout all the land of Israel, hee returned to Ierusalem.

* 2.King.22.3.

8 ¶ * Then in the eighteenth yere of his reigne, when hee had purged the land and the Temple,
he sent Shaphan the sonne of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the gouernour of the citie, and Ioah the sonne of Ioahaz the recorder, to repaire the house of the Lord his God.
9 And when they came to Hilkiah the hie Priest, they deliuered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Leuites that kept the doore, had gathered at the hand of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and of all the residue of Israel, and of all Iudah and Beniamin, and ‖ of the inhabitants of Ierusalem.

‖ Or, they returned to Ierusalem. meaning, Shaphan, &c.

10 And they put it in the hands of them that shoulde doe the worke and had the ouersight in the house of the Lord: and they gaue it to the workemen that wrought in the house of the Lord, to repaire and amend the house.
11 Euen to the workemen and to the builders gaue they it to bye hewed stone and timber for couples and for beames of the f houses, which the Kings of Iudah had destroyed.

f For there were many portions and places annexed to the Temple.

g Meaning, that they were in such credite for their fidelitie, that they made none accounts of that which they receiued, 2.King.22.7.

12 And the men did the worke g faithfully, and the ouerseers of them were Iahath and Obadiah the Leuites, of the children of Merari, and Zechariah, and Meshullam, of the children of the Ko-hathites to set it forward: and of the Leuites all that could skill of instruments of musike.
13 And they were ouer the bearers of burdens, and them that set forward all the workemen in euery worke: and of the Leuites were scribes, and officers and porters.
14 ¶ And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the Lord, Hilkiah the Priest found the h booke of the Lawe of the Lord giuen by the hand of Moses.

h Reade 2.King. 22.8.

15 Therefore Hilkiah answered and sayde to Shaphan the chanceller, I haue found the booke of the Law in the house of the Lord: & Hilkiah gaue the booke to Shaphan.
16 And Shaphan caried the booke to i the King, and brought the King word againe, saying, All that is committed to the hand of thy ser-uants, that doe they.

i For the King was commanded to haue continually a copie of this booke, and to read therein day and night, Deut.17.18.

17 For they haue gathered the money that was found in the house of the Lord, and haue de-liuered it into the handes of the ouerseers, and to the hands of the workemen.
18 Also Shaphan the chanceller declared to the King, saying, Hilkiah the Priest hath giuen mee a booke, and Shaphan read it before the King.
19 And when the King had heard the wordes
of the Lawe, he k tare his clothes.

k For sorowe that the word of God had bene so long suppressed and the people kept in ignorance, considering also the curses contained therein against the transgressours.

20 And the King commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the sonne of Shaphan, and Abdon the sonne of Micah, and Shaphan the chanceller, and Asaiah the Kings seruant, saying, 21 Goe and enquire of the Lord for me, and for the rest in Israel and Iudah, concerning the words of this booke that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lorde that is fallen vpon vs, because our l fathers haue not kept the worde of the Lord, to doe after all that is written in this booke.

l Thus the godly doe not onely lament their owne sinnes, but also that their fathers and predecessours haue offended God.

22 Then Hilkiah and they that the King had appointed, went to Huldah the Prophetesse the wife of Shallum, the sonne of ‖ Tokhath, the sonne of ‖ Hasrah

in Ierusalem within the n colledge) and they communed hereof with her.
23 And shee answered them, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, Tell yee o the man that sent you to me,
24 Thus sayeth the Lord, Behold, I will bring euill vpon this place, and vpon the inhabitants thereof, euen all the curses, that are written in the booke which they haue read before the King of Iudah:
25 Because they haue forsaken mee, and burnt incense vnto other gods, to anger mee with all the workes of their p hands, therefore shall my wrath fall vpon this place, and shall not be quenched.
26 But to the King of Iudah, who sent you to enquire of the Lord, so shall ye say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The wordes which thou hast heard, shall come to passe.
27 But because thine heart did q melt, and thou diddest humble thy selfe before God, when thou heardest his wordes against this place and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thy selfe before me and tarest thy clothes, and weptest before mee, I haue also heard it, sayth the Lord.
28 Beholde, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt bee put in thy graue in peace, and thine eyes shall not see all the euill, which I will bring vpon this r place, and vpon the inhabitants of the same. Thus they brought the king word againe.
29 ¶ Then the King sent and gathered all the Elders of Iudah and Ierusalem.
30 And the King went vp into the house of the Lord, and all the men of Iudah, and the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and the Priestes and the Leuites, and all the people from the greatest to the s smallest, and hee read in their eares all the wordes of the booke of the couenant that was found in the house of the Lord.
31 And the King stood by his pillar, and made a couenant before the Lord, to walke after the Lord, and to keepe his commaundements, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soule, and that hee woulde accomplish the words of the couenant written in the same booke.
32 And he caused all that were found in Ieru-salem, and Beniamin to stand to it: and the inhabitants of Ierusalem did according to the couenant of God, euen the God of their fathers.
33 So Iosiah tooke away all the abominations out of all the countreys that perteined to the children of Israel, and compelled all t that were found in Israel, to serue the Lorde their God: so all his dayes they turned not backe from the Lorde God
of their fathers.

CHAP. XXXV.

*1 Iosiah keepeth the Passeouer. 2 He setteth forth Gods seruice. 20 He fighteth against the King of Egypt, and dyeth.
24 The people bewayle him.*

MOreouer * Iosiah kept a Passeouer vnto the Lord in Ierusalem, and they slew the a Passeouer in the fourteenth day of the first moneth.
2 And he appoynted the Priestes to their charges, and incouraged them to the seruice of the house of the Lord,
3 And he sayde vnto the Leuites that b taught all Israel and were sanctified vnto the Lord, Put the holy Arke in the house which Salomon the sonne of Dauid King of Israel did build: it shal be no more a c burden vpon your shoulders: serue nowe the Lord your God, and his people Israel.
4 And prepare your selues by the houses of your fathers according to your courses, as * Da-uid the King of Israel hath written, and according to the writing of Salomon his sonne, 5 And stand in the Sanctuarie according to the deuision of the families of your brethren ‖ the children of the people, and after the deuision of the familie of the Leuites.
6 So kil the Passeouer and sanctifie your selues, and d prepare your brethren that they may doe according to the word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.
7 Iosiah also gaue to the † people sheepe, lambs and kiddes, all for the Passeouer, euen to all that were present, to the nomber of thirtie thousand, and three thousand bullockes: these were of the Kings substance.
8 And his princes offred willingly vnto the people, to the Priests and to the Leuites: Hilkiah, and Zechariah, and Iehiel, rulers of the house of God, gaue vnto the Priests for the Passeouer, euen two thousand and sixe hundreth sheepe, and three hundreth bullockes.
9 e Conaniah also and Shemaiah and Netha-neel his brethren, and Hashabiah and Ieiel, and Iozabad, chiefe of the Leuites gaue vnto the Le-uites for the Passeouer, fiue thousande sheepe, and fiue hundreth bullockes.
10 Thus the seruice was prepared, and the Priestes stoode in their places also the Leuites in their orders, according to the Kings commandement:
11 And they slewe the Passeouer, and the Priestes f sprinkled the blood with their hands, and the Leuites flayed them.
12 And they tooke away from the g burnt offering to giue it according to the diuisions of the families of the children of the people, to offer vnto the Lord, as it is written in the booke of Moses, and so of the bullockes.
13 And * they rosted the Passeouer with fire, according to the custome, but the sanctified things they sod in pots, pannes, and cauldrons, and distributed them quickely to all the people.
14 Afterwarde also they prepared for them selues and for the Priestes: for the Priestes the sonnes of Aaron were occupied in offering of burnt offrings, and the fat vntill night: therefore the Leuites prepared for themselues, and for the Priestes the sonnes of Aaron.
15 And the singers the sonnes of Asaph stoode in their standing * according to the commandement of Dauid, and Asaph, and Heman, and Ie-duthun the Kings h Seer: and the porters at eue-ry gate, who might not depart from their seruice:
therefore their brethren the Leuites prepared for
them.
16 So all the seruice of the Lord was prepared the same day, to keepe the Passeouer, and to offer burnt offerings vpon the altar of the Lord, according to the commandement of King Iosiah.
17 And the children of Israel that were present, kept the Passeouer the same time, and the feast of the vnleauened bread seuen dayes.
18 And there was no Passeouer kept like that,
in Israel, from the dayes of Samuel the Prophet:

him, but l changed his apparell to fight with him, and hearkened not vnto the wordes of Necho, which were of the mouth of God, but came to the King saide to his seruants, Cary me away, for I am very sicke.

ret, and put him in the seconde charet which hee had, and when they had brought him to Ierusa-his fathers: and all Iudah and Ierusalem m mour-

he made Zedekiah his ‖ brother King ouer Iudah

God: and he hardned his necke & made his heart obstinate that hee might not returne to the Lorde God of Israel.
14 All the chiefe of the Priests also and of the people trespassed wonderfully, according to all the abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of the Lorde which he had sanctified in Ie-sent to them † by his messengers, f rising earely &

on his habitation.

The prayer of Manasseh King of the Iewes.

This prayer is not in the Ebrew, but is translated out of the Greeke.

O Lorde Almightie, God of our fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Iacob, and of their righteous seede, which hast made heauen and earth with all their ornament, which hast bounde the sea by the worde of thy commandement, which hast shut vp the deepe and sealed it by thy terrible and glorious Name, whome all doe feare and tremble before thy power: for the Maiestie of thy glorie can not be borne, and thine angrie threatning toward sinners is importable, but thy mercifull promise is vnmeasurable and vnsearchable. For thou art the most high Lord, of great compassion, long suffering, and most mercifull, and repentest for mans miseries. Thou, O Lorde, according to thy goodnesse hast promised [a] repentance and forgiuenesse to them that sinne against thee, and for thine infinite mercies hast appointed repentance vnto sinners that they may be saued. Thou therefore, O Lord, that art the God of the iust, hast not appointed repentance to the iust, as to Abraham, and Isaac and Iacob, which haue not [b] sinned against thee, but thou hast appointed repentance vnto me that am a sinner: for I haue sinned aboue the number of the sand of the sea. My transgressions, O Lord, are multiplied: my transgressions are exceeding many: and I am not woorthy to beholde and see the height of the heauens for the multitude of mine vnrighteousnesse. I am bowed downe with many yron bands, that I cannot lift vp mine head, neither haue any release. For I haue prouoked thy wrath and done euill before thee. I did not thy will, neither kept I thy commandements. I haue set vp abominations and haue multiplied offences. Now therefore I bowe the knee of mine heart, beseeching thee of grace. I haue sinned, O Lord, I haue sinned, and I acknowledge my transgressions: but I humbly beseech thee, forgiue me: O Lord, forgiue me, and destroy me not with my transgressions. Be not angry with me for euer by reseruing euill for me, neither condemne me into the lower partes of the earth. For thou art the God, euen the God of them that repent: and in me thou wilt shew all thy goodnesse: for thou wilt saue me that am vnwoorthie, according to thy great mercie: therefore I will praise thee for euer all the dayes of my life. for all the power of the heauens praise thee, and thine is the glory for euer and euer, Amen.

a Thou hast promised that repentance shalbe the way for them to returne to thee.
b He speaketh this in comparison of himselfe & those holy fathers which haue their commendation in the Scriptures, so that in respect of himselfe he calleth their sinnes nothing, but attributeth vnto them righteousnesse.

EZRA.

THE ARGVMENT.

As the Lord is euer mercifull vnto his Church, and doth not punish them, but to the intent they should see their owne miseries, and be exercised vnder the crosse, that they might contemne the world and aspire vnto the heauens: so after that he had visited the Iewes and kept them now in bondage seuentie yeeres in a strange countrey among infidels and idolaters, he remembred his tender mercies and their infirmities, and therefore for his owne sake raised them vp a deliuerer, and mooued both the heart of the chiefe ruler to pitie them, and also by him punished such, which had kept them in seruitude. Notwithstanding least they shoulde grow into a contempt of Gods great benefite, he keepeth them still in exercise, and raiseth domesticall enemies, which endeuour as much as they can to hinder their most woorthie enterprises: yet by the exhortation of the Prophet they went forwarde by litle and litle till their worke was finished. The authour of this booke was Ezra, who was Priest, and Scribe of the Law, at chap.7.6. He returned to Ierusalem the sixt yeere of Darius, who succeeded Cyrus, that is, aboue fiftie yeeres after the returne of the first vnder Zerubbabel, when the Temple was built. He brought with him a great companie, and much treasures, with letters to the Kings officers for all such thinges as should be necessarie for the Temple: and at his comming he redressed that which was amisse, and set the things in good order.

5 Then the chiefe fathers of Iudah & Beniamin, & the Priests & Leuites rose vp, with al them whose spirit God had raysed to goe vp, to builde the house of the Lord which is in Ierusalem.

6 And all [g] they that were about them, strengthened their hands with vessels of siluer, with gold, with substance and with cattel, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offred.

1 They builde the altar of God. 6 They offer to the Lord. 7 They prepare for the Temple. 11 And sing vnto the Lord.

And * when the a seuenth moneth was come,
and the children of Israel were in their cities, the people assembled themselues as one man vnto Ierusalem.
2 Then stoode vp Ieshua the sonne of Ioza-dak, and his brethren the Priestes, and Zerubbabel the b sonne of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offrings thereon, as it is written in the Lawe of Moses the man of God, 3 And they set the altar vpon c his bases (for feare was among them, because of the people of those countreys) therefore they offred burnt offerings thereon vnto the Lord, euen burnt offrings in the morning, and at euen.
4 They kept also the feast of the Tabernacles, as it is written, and the burnt offring *daily, by nomber according to the custome day by day, 5 And afterward d the continuall burnt offring, both in the newe moneths and in all the feast dayes that were consecrate vnto the Lorde, and in all the oblations willingly offered vnto the Lord.
6 From the first day of the seuenth moneth began they to offer burnt offrings vnto the Lord:
but the foundation of the Temple of the Lord was not layde.
7 They gaue money also vnto the masons, and to the workemen, and meate and drinke, and oyle vnto them of Zidon and of Tyrus, to bring them cedar wood from Lebanon to the sea vnto ||Iapho, according to the graunt that they had of Cyrus King of Persia.
8 ¶ And in the second yeere of their com-ming vnto the house of God in Ierusalem in the e second moneth began Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel, and Ieshua the sonne of Iozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the Priests and the Leuites, and all they that were come out of the captiuitie vnto Ierusalem, and appoynted the Le-uites from twentie yeere olde and aboue, to set forward the worke of the house of the Lord.
9 And Ieshua f stoode with his sonnes, and his brethren, and Kadmiel with his sonnes, and the sonnes of Iudah together to set forwarde the workemen in the house of God, and the sonnes of Henadad with their sonnes, and their brethren

10 And when the builders layed the foundation of the Temple of the Lord, they appoynted the Priestes in their apparell with trumpets, and the Leuites the sonnes of Asaph with cymbales, to praise the Lord, * after the ordinance of Da-uid King of Israel.
11 Thus they sang when they gaue praise, and when they gaue thankes vnto the Lord, For he is good, for his mercie endureth for euer toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shoute, when they praysed the Lorde, because the foundation of the house of the Lorde was layed.
12 Many also of the Priests & the Leuites and the chiefe of the fathers, ancient men which had seene the first house, (when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes) g wept with a loude voyce, and many shouted aloud for ioy, 13 So that the people coulde not discerne the sound of the shoute for ioy, from the noyse of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud crie, and the noyse was heard farre off.

CHAP. IIII.

2 The building of the Temple is hindred and begunne. 11 Letters to Artaxerxes, and the answere.

BVt [a] the aduersaries of Iudah and Beniamin heard, that the children of the captiuitie builded the Temple vnto the Lord God of Israel.
2 And they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chiefe fathers, and sayd vnto them, We will builde with you: for we seeke the Lord your God as yee do, and we haue sacrificed vnto him since the time of Esar Haddon king of Asshur, which brought vs vp hither.
3 Then Zerubbabel, and Ieshua, and the rest of the chiefe fathers of Israel, sayde vnto them, It is not for you, but for vs to buyld the house vnto our God: [b] for we our selues together will buylde it vnto the Lorde God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded vs.
4 Wherefore the people of the land † discouraged the people of Iudah, and troubled them in buylding,
5 And they [c] hired counsellers against them, to hinder their deuise, all the dayes of Cyrus King of Persia, euen vntill the reigne of Darius
King of Persia.
6 And in the reigne of [d] Ahashuerosh (in the beginning of his reigne) wrote they an accusation against the inhabitants of Iudah and Ierusalem.
7 And in the daies of [e] Artahshashte, Mithre-dath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions wrote when it was peace, vnto Artahshashte king of Persia, and the writing of the letter was the Aramites writing, and the thing declared was in the language of the Aramites.
8 Rehum the ‖chancelour, and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Ierusalem to Artahshashte the King, in this sort.
9 Then wrote Rehum the chauncelour, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions [f] Dinaie, and Apharsathcaie, Tarpelaie, Apharsaie, Archeuaie, Bablaie, Shushanchaie, Dehaue, El-maie,
10 And the rest of the people whom the great and noble [g] Asnappar brought ouer, and set in the cities of Samaria, and other that are beyonde the [h] Riuer and [i] Cheeneth.
11 ¶ This is the copie of the letter that they sent vnto King Artahshashte, THY SER-VANTS the men beyond the Riuer and Cheeneth, salute thee.
12 Be it knowen vnto the King that the Iewes, which came vp from thee to vs, are come vnto Ierusalem (a citie rebellious and wicked) and buylde, and lay the foundations of the walles, and haue ioyned the foundations.
13 Bee it knowen nowe vnto the King, that if this citie be built, & the foundations of the walles layed, they wil not giue tolle, tribute, nor [k] custome:
so shalt thou hinder the Kings tribute.
14 Nowe therefore because † wee haue bene brought vp in the Kings palace, it was not meete for vs to see the Kings dishonour: for this cause haue we sent and certified the King, 15 That one may searche in the booke of the Chronicles of thy fathers, and thou shalt finde in the booke of the Chronicles, & perceiue that this citie is rebellious and noysome vnto Kings & prouinces, and that they haue moued sedition of olde time, for the which cause this citie was destroyed.
16 Wee certifie the King therefore, that if this citie be buylded, and the foundation of the walles layd, by this meanes the portion beyond the Riuer shal not be thine.
17 ¶ The King sent an answere vnto Rehum the Chauncelour, and Shimshai the Scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwelt in Samaria, and vnto the other beyond the Riuer, [l] Shelam and [m] Cheeth.
18 ¶ The letter which yee sent vnto vs, hath bene openly read before me, 19 And I haue commanded & they haue searched, and founde, that this citie of olde time hath made insurrection against kings, & hath rebelled, and rebellion hath bene committed therein.
20 There haue bene mightie kings also ouer Ierusalem, which haue ruled ouer all beyonde the Riuer, and tolle, tribute, and custome was giuen
vnto them.
21 Make ye now a decree, that those men may cease, and that the citie be not buylt, till I haue gi-uen another commandement.
22 Take heede nowe that yee fayle not to doe this: why should domage grow to hurt the King?
23 When the copie of king Artahshashtes letter was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went vp in all the haste to Ierusalem vnto the Iewes, and caused them to cease by force and power.
24 Then [n] ceased the worke of the house of God, which was in Ierusalem, & did stay vnto the second yeere of Darius King of Persia.

9 And that which they shall haue neede of, let it be giuen vnto them day by day, whether it be yong bullockes, or rammes, or lambes for the burnt offrings of the God of heauen, wheate, salt, the Priestes that are in Ierusalem, that there bee

no fault,
10 That they may haue to offer sweete odours vnto the God of heauen, and praye for the Kings life, and for his sonnes.
11 And I haue made a decree, that whosoeuer shall alter this sentence, the wood shall be pulled downe from his house, and shall be set vp, and hee shalbe hanged thereon, and his house shalbe made a dunghill for this.
12 And the God that hath caused his Name [e] to dwell there, destroy all Kings and people that put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God, which is in Ierusalem. I Darius haue made a decree, let it be done with speede.

phet, and Zechariah the sonne of Iddo, and they buylded & finished it, by the appoyntment of the God of Israel, and by the commandement of Cyrus and Darius, and Artahshashte king of Persia.

of the moneth [g] Adar, which was [h] the sixt yeere of the reigne of King Darius.

the Leuites, and the residue of the children of the

of God an hundreth bullockes, two hundreth rams, foure hundreth lambes, and twelue goates, for the sinne of all Israel, according to the nomber of the tribes of Israel.
18 And they set the Priests in their order, and the Leuites in their courses ouer the seruice of God in Ierusalem, as it is written in the *booke of Moses.

19 And the children of the captiuitie kept the 20 (For the Priests and the Leuites were purified altogether) and they killed the Passeouer for all the children of the captiuitie, and for their brethren the Priests, and for themselues.

21 So the children of Israel which were come againe out of captiuitie, and all such as had [i] separated themselues vnto them, from the filthines of the Heathen of the land to seeke the Lord God of Israel, did eate,

CHAP. VII.

1 By the commandement of the King, Ezra and his companions come to Ierusalem. 27 He giueth thankes to God.

NOw after these things, in the reigne of [a] Artahshashte King of Persia, was Ezra the sonne of Seraiah, the sonne of Azariah, the sonne of Hilkiah,

2 The sonne of Shallum, the sonne of Zadok, the sonne of Ahitub,

3 The sonne of Amariah, the sonne of Azariah, the sonne of Meraioth,

4 The sonne of Zeraiah, the sonne of Vzzi, the sonne of Bukki,

5 The sonne of Abishua, the sonne of Phinehas, the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of [b] Aaron, the chiefe Priest.

6 This Ezra came vp from Babel, and was a [c] Scribe prompt in the Lawe of Moses, which the Lord God of Israel had giuen, and the King gaue him all his request according to the hande of the Lord his God, which was vpon him.

7 And there went vp certaine of the children of Israel, and of the Priestes, and the Leuites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims vnto Ierusalem, in the seuenth yeere of King Artahshashte.

8 And hee came to Ierusalem in the [d] fift moneth, which was in the seuenth yeere [e] of the King.

9 For vpon the first day of the first moneth began he to goe vp from Babel, and on the first day of the fift moneth came he to Ierusalem, according to the good hand of his God that was vpon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seeke the Lawe of the Lord, and to doe it, and to teach the precepts and iudgements in Israel.

11 ¶ And this is the copie of the letter that King Artahshashte gaue vnto Ezra the Priest and scribe, euen a writer of the words of the commandements of the Lord, & of his statutes ouer Israel.

12 ARTAHSHASHTE King of Kings to Ezra the Priest and perfite scribe of the Lawe of the God of heauen, and to [f] Cheeneth.

13 I haue giuen commandement, that euery one, that is willing in my kingdome of the people of Israel, and of the Priestes, and Leuites [g] to goe to Ierusalem with thee, shall goe.

14 Therefore art thou sent of the King and his seuen counsellers, to [h] enquire in Iudah and Ierusalem, according to the lawe of thy God, which is in [i] thine hand,

15 And to cary the siluer and the gold, which the King & his counsellers willingly offer vnto the God of Israel (whose habitation is in Ierusalem)

16 And all the siluer and golde that thou canst finde in all the prouince of Babel, with the free offring of the people, and that which the Priestes offer willingly to the house of their God which is in Ierusalem, 17 That thou mayest bye speedily with this siluer, bullocks, rammes, lambes, with their meate offrings and their drinke offrings: and thou shalt offer them vpon the altar of the house of your God, which is in Ierusalem.

18 And whatsoeuer it pleaseth thee and thy brethren to do with the rest of the siluer, and gold, doe ye it according to the will of your [k] God.

19 And the vessels that are giuen thee for the seruice of the house of thy God, those deliuer thou before God in Ierusalem.

20 And the residue that shall be needefull for the house of thy God, which shall be meete for thee to bestowe, thou shalt bestowe it out of the Kings treasure house,

21 And I King Artahshashte haue giuen commandement to all the treasurers which are beyond [l] the Riuer, that whatsoeuer Ezra the Priest and Scribe of the Law of the God of heauen shall require of you, that it be done incontinently, 22 Vnto an hundreth talents of siluer, vnto an hundreth † measures of wheate, and vnto an hundreth baths of wine, & vnto an hundreth [m] baths of oyle, and salt without writing.

23 Whatsoeuer is by the commaundement of the God of heauen, let it be done speedily for the house of the God of heauen: for why should hee be wroth [n] against the realme of the King, and his children?

24 And we certifie you, that vpon any of the Priestes, Leuites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or Ministers in this house of God, there shall no gouernour laye vpon them tolle, tribute nor custome.

25 And thou Ezra (after the wisedome of thy God, that is in thine hand) [o] set iudges and arbiters, which may iudge all the people that is beyond the Riuer, euen all that know the Law of thy God, and teach ye them that know it not.

26 And whosoeuer will not doe the Lawe of thy God, and the Kings lawe, let him haue iudgement without delay, whether it be vnto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

27 [p] Blessed be the Lorde God of our fathers, which so hath put in the Kings heart, to beautifie the house of the Lord that is in Ierusalem, 28 And hath enclined mercie toward mee, before the King and his counsellers, and before all the Kings mightie Princes: and I was comforted by the hand of the Lord my God which was vpon me, and I gathered the chiefe of Israel to goe vp with me.

a The Ebrewes write, that diuers of the Kings of Persia were called by this name, as Pharaoh was a common name to the Kings of Egypt, and Cesar to the Emperours Romaine.

b Ezra deduceth his kinred, till he commeth to Aaron, to prooue that he came of him.

c He sheweth here what a scribe is, who had charge to write the Lawe and to expound it, whom Marke calleth a scribe, Mar. 12.28. Matt. and Luke call him a Lawyer, or doctor of the Lawe, Matt. 22.35. Luke 10.25.

‖ Or, captaine of Moab.

9 Of the sonnes of Ioab, Obadiah the sonne of Iehiel, and with him two hundreth and eigh-teene males.
10 And of the sonnes of Shelomith the sonne of Iosiphiah, and with him an hundreth and three-score males.
11 And of the sonnes of Bebai, Zechariah the sonne of Bebai, and with him eight and twentie males.
12 And of the sonnes of Azgad, Iohanan the sonne of Hakkatan, and with him an hundreth

13 And of the sonnes of Adonikam, that were the [b] last, whose names are these: Eliphelet, Ie-hiel and Shemaiah, and with them three score males.

b That came to goe with Ezra.

14 And of the sonnes of Biguai, Vthai, and Zabbud, and with them seuentie males.
15 And I gathered them to the [c] Riuer that goeth toward Ahaua, and there abode wee three dayes: then I viewed the people, and the Priestes, and found there none of the sonnes of Leui.

c To that place of Euphrates, where Ahaua the riuer entreth into it. looke 1. Esdr. 8.41.

16 Therefore sent I to Eliezer, to Ariel, to Shemeiah, and to Elnathan, and to Iarib, and to Elnathan, and to Nathan, and to Zechariah, and to Meshullam the chiefe, and to Ioiarib and to Elnathan, men of vnderstanding, 17 And I gaue them commandement, to Iddo the [d] chiefest at the place of Casiphia, and I † tolde them the words that they should speake to Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims at the place of Casiphia, that they shoulde cause the ministers of the house of our God to come vnto vs.

d Hee was the chiefest that taught there the Lawe of God vnto the Leuites.
† Ebr. put wordes in their mouth.

18 So by the good hand of our God which was vpon vs, they brought vs a man of vnder-standing of the sonnes of Mahali the sonne of Leui the sonne of Israel, and Sherebiah with his sonnes and his brethren, euen eighteene.
19 Also Hashabiah, and with him Ieshaiah of the sonnes of Merari, with his brethren, and their sonnes twentie.
20 And of the [e] Nethinims, whom Dauid had set, and the Princes for the seruice of the Leuites, two hundreth and twenty of the Nethinims, which all were named by name.

e Reade Chap. 2.43.

21 And there at the Riuer, by Ahaua, I proclaimed a fast, that we might humble [f] our selues before our God, and seeke of him a right way for vs, and for our children, and for all our substance.
22 For I was [g] ashamed to require of the King an armie and horsemen, to helpe vs against the e-nemie in the way, because we had spoken to the King, saying, The hande of our God is vpon all them that seeke him in goodnesse, but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.
23 So we fasted, and besought our God for this:
and he was intreated of vs.

f He sheweth that the ende of fasting is to humble the body to the spirit, which must proceede of the heart liuely touched, or else it is but hypocrisie.
g He thought it better to commit himselfe to the protectiõ of God, then by seeking these ordinarie meanes, to giue an occasion to others to thinke that he did doubt of Gods power.

24 Then I separated twelue of the chiefe of the Priests, Sherebiah, and Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them, 25 And weighed them the siluer and the gold, and the vessels, euen the offring of the house of our God, which the King and his counselers, and his Princes, and all Israel that were present had offred.
26 And I weighed vnto their hand sixe hun-dreth and fiftie [h] talents of siluer, and in siluer vessel, an hundreth talents, and in golde, an hundreth talents:

h Reade 1. King. 9.14.

27 And twentie basins of golde, of a thousande [i] drammes, and two vessels of shining brasse very good, and precious as golde.

i Reade Chap. 2.69.

28 ¶ And I saide vnto them, Ye are consecrate vnto the Lord, and the vessels are consecrate, and the gold and the siluer are freely offred vnto the Lord God of your fathers.
29 Watch ye, and keepe them vntill yee weigh them before the chiefe Priestes and the Leuites, and the chiefe fathers of Israel in Ierusalem in the chambers of the house of the Lord.
30 So the Priests and the Leuites receiued the weight of the siluer and of the golde, and of the vessels to bring them to Ierusalem, vnto the house of our God.
31 ¶ Then we departed from the Riuer of Ahauah on the twelft day of the first moneth, to go vnto Ierusalem, and the hand of our God was vp-on vs, and deliuered vs from the hand of the ene-mie, and of such as layde [k] waite by the way.
32 And we came to Ierusalem, & abode there three dayes.

k This declared that their iourney was full of danger, and yet God deliuered them according to their prayer.

33 And on the fourth day was the siluer weighed, and the golde and the vessell in the house of our God by the hande of Meremoth the sonne of Vriah the Priest, and with him was Eleazar the sonne of Phinehas, and with them was Iozabad the sonne of Ieshua, and Noadiah the sonne of Binnui the [l] Leuites, 34 By number and by weight of euery one, and all the weight was written at the same time.

l This was a token of a good conscience and of his integritie, that he woulde haue witnesses of his fidelitie.

35 Also the children of the captiuitie, which were come out of captiuitie, offered burnt offrings vnto the God of Israel, twelue bullockes for all Israel, ninetie and sixe rammes, seuentie and seuen lambes, and twelue hee goates for sinne: all was a burnt offring of the Lord.
36 And they deliuered the Kings commission vnto the Kings officers, and to the captaines beyond the Riuer: and they promoted the people, and the house of God.

nites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Iebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the

2 For they haue taken their daughters to themselues, and to their sonnes, and they haue mixed the holy seede with the people of the landes, and the hande of the [b] princes and rulers hath beene

7 From the dayes of our fathers haue we bin in a great trespasse vnto this day, and for our iniquities haue we, our Kings, and our Priestes bene de-liuered into the hand of the kings of the lands, vnto the sword, into captiuitie, into a spoyle, and into confusion of face, as appeareth this day.
8 And nowe for a litle space grace hath bene shewed from the Lord our God, in causing a remnant to escape, and in giuing vs a f nayle in his holy place, that our God may light our eyes, and giue vs a litle reuiuing in our seruitude.
9 For though we were bondmen, yet our God hath not forsaken vs in our bondage, but hath enclined mercy vnto vs in the sight of the Kings of Persia, to giue vs life, and to erect the house of our God, and to redresse the desolate places therof, and to giue vs a wall in Iudah and in Ierusalem.
10 And nowe, our God, what shal we say after this? for we haue forsaken thy commandements, 11 Which thou hast commaunded by thy ser-uants the Prophets, saying, *The lande whereunto ye go to possesse it, is an vncleane land, because of the filthines of the people of the lands, which by their abominations, and by their vncleannes haue filled it from corner to corner.
12 Now therefore shal ye not giue your daughters vnto their sonnes, neither shall ye take their daughters vnto your sonnes, nor seeke their *peace nor wealth for euer, that yee may be strong and eate the goodnes of the lande, and leaue it for an inheritance to your sonnes for euer.
13 And after all that is come vpon vs for our euill deedes, and for our great trespasses, (seeing that thou our God hast stayed vs from being beneath g for our iniquities, and hast giuen vs such deliuerance)
14 Should we returne to breake thy commandements, and ioyne in affinitie with the people of such abominations? wouldest not thou be angrie towarde vs till thou haddest consumed vs, so that there should be no remnant nor any escaping?

haue bene h reserued to escape, as appeareth this day: beholde, we are before thee in our trespasse:
therfore we cannot stand before thee because of it.

CHAP. X.

1 The people repent and turne, and put away their strange wiues.

WHiles * Ezra prayed thus, and a confessed himselfe weeping, and falling downe before the house of God, there assembled vnto him of Israel a very great Congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept with a great lamentation.
2 Then Shechaniah the sonne of Iehiel one of the sonnes of Elam answered, and sayde to Ezra, We haue trespassed against our God, and haue taken strange wiues of the people of the land, yet nowe there is b hope in Israel concerning this.
3 Nowe therfore let vs make a couenant with our God, to put away c all the wiues (and such as are borne of them) according to the counsell of the Lorde, and of those that feare the commandements of our God, and let it be done according to the Lawe.
4 Arise: for the matter d belongeth vnto thee:
we also wil be with thee: be of comfort and do it.
5 ¶ Then arose Ezra, and caused the chiefe Priestes, the Leuites, and all Israel, to sweare that they would doe according to this worde. So they sware.
6 * And Ezra rose vp from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Iohanan the sonne of Eliashib: he went euen thither, but hee did eate neither bread, nor drunke water: for hee mourned, because of the transgression of them of the captiuitie.
7 And they caused a proclamation to goe throughout Iudah and Ierusalem, vnto † all them of the captiuitie, that they should assemble themselues vnto Ierusalem.
8 And whosoeuer woulde not come within three dayes according to the counsel of the Princes and Elders, all his substance should be ‖ forfait, and he should be separate from the Congregation of them of the captiuitie.
9 ¶ Then all the men of Iudah and Beniamin assembled themselues vnto Ierusalem within three dayes, which was the twentieth day of the e ninth moneth, and all the people sate in the streete of the house of God, trembling for this matter, and for the f raine.
10 And Ezra the Priest stood vp, and said vnto them, Ye haue transgressed, and haue taken strange wiues, to g increase the trespasse of Israel.
11 Now therefore h giue praise vnto the Lorde God of your fathers, and do his will, and separate your selues from the people of the land, and from the strange wiues.
12 And all the Congregation answered, and sayde with a loude voyce, So will we do according to thy wordes vnto vs.
13 But the people are many, and it is a raynie weather, and wee are not able to stande without, neither is it the worke of one day or two: for we are many that haue offended in this thing.
14 Let our rulers stande therefore i before all the Congregation, and let all them which haue taken strange wiues in our cities, come at the time appoynted, and with them the Elders of euery city and the Iudges thereof, til the fierce wrath of our God for this matter turne away from vs.
15 Then were appoynted Ionathan the sonne of Asahel, and Iahaziah the sonne of Tikuah ouer this matter, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Leuites helped them.
16 And they of the captiuitie did so, and k departed, euen Ezra the Priest, and the men that were chiefe fathers to the familie of their fathers by name, and sate downe in the first day of the tenth moneth to examine the matter.
17 And vntill the first day of the first moneth they were finishing the businesse with all the men that had taken strange wiues.
18 And of the sonnes of the Priests there were men founde, that had taken strange wiues, to wit, of the sonnes of Ieshua, the sonne of Iozadak, and of his brethren, Maaseiah, Aeliezer, and Iarib and Gedaliah.
19 And they gaue l their hands, that they would put away their wiues, and they that had trespassed, gaue a ramme for their trespasse.

NEHEMIAH.

THE ARGVMENT.

GOd doeth in all ages and at all times set vp worthie persons for the commoditie and profite of his Church, as nowe within the compasse of seuentie yeeres he raysed vp diuers excellent men for the preseruation of his people, after their returne from Babylon, as Zerubbabel, Ezra, and Nehemiah. Whereof the first was their captaine to bring them home, and prouided that the Temple was builded: the seconde reformed their maners and planted religion: and the thirde builded vp the walles, deliuered the people from oppression, and prouided that the Lawe of God was put in execution among them. He was a godly man and in great authoritie with the King, so that the King fauoured him greatly, and gaue him most ample letters for the accomplishment of all things which he coulde desire. This booke is also called of the Latines the second of Ezra, because he was the writer thereof.

CHAP. I.

4 Nehemiah bewaileth the calamitie of Ierusalem. 5 Hee confesseth the sinnes of the people, and prayeth God for them.

THe words of Nehemiah the sonne of Hachaliah. In ÿ moneth [a] Chisleu, in the twentieth yeere, as I was in the palace of Shushan, a Which conteineth part of Nouember & part of December, & was their ninth moneth.

2 Came Hanani, one of my [b] brethren, he and the men of Iudah, and I asked them concerning the Iewes that were deliuered, which were of the residue of the captiuitie, and concerning Ierusalem.

b A Iewe as I was.

3 And they sayde vnto me, The residue that are left of the captiuitie there in the [c] prouince, are in great affliction and in reproche, & the wall of Ierusalem is broken downe, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.

c Meaning in Iudea.

4 And when I heard these words, I sate downe and wept, and mourned certeine dayes, and I fasted and prayed before the God of heauen,

5 And sayde, * O Lorde God of heauen, the great and terrible God, that keepeth couenant and mercy for them that loue him, and obserue his commandements, * Dan. 9. 4.

6 I pray thee, let thine eares be attent, & thine eies open, to heare the praier of thy seruāt, which I pray before thee dayly, day & night for the childrē of Israel thy seruants, & confesse the sinnes of the children of Israel, which wee haue sinned against thee, both I and my fathers house haue sinned:

7 Wee haue grieuously sinned against thee, and haue not kept the commandements, nor the statutes, nor the iudgements, which thou commandedst thy seruant Moses.

8 I beseeche thee, remember the worde that thou commandedst thy seruant Moses, saying, Yee wil transgresse, and I * will scatter you abroade among the people.

* Deu. 29. 21, 28.

9 But if ye turne vnto me, and keepe my commandements, and doe them, * though your scattering were to the vttermost part of the heauen, yet will I gather you from thence, and will bring you vnto the place that I haue chosen to place my Name there.

* Deut. 30. 4.

10 Now these are thy seruants and thy people, whome thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy mightie hand.

11 O Lord, I beseech thee, let thine eare nowe hearken to the prayer of thy seruant, and to the prayer of thy seruants, who desire to [d] feare thy Name, & I pray thee, cause thy seruant to prosper this day, and giue him fauour in the presence of [e] this man: for I was the Kings butler.

d That is, to worship thee.

e To wit, the King Artahshashte.

CHAP. II.

1 After Nehemiah had obteined letters of Artaxerxes, 11 he came to Ierusalem, 17 and buylded the walles.

NOwe in the moneth [a] Nisan in the twentieth yeere of king [b] Artahshashte, the wine stoode before him, and I tooke vp the wine, and gaue it vnto the King. nowe I was not before time sad in his presence.

a Which was the first moneth of the yere & conteineth part of March and part of April.

b Who is also called Darius, reade Ezra 7. 1. & was the sonne of Hystaspis.

2 And the king said vnto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sicke? this is nothing, but sorow of heart. Then was I sore afrayd,

3 And I said to the King, God saue the King for euer: why should not my countenance be sad, when the citie and house of the sepulchres of my fathers lieth waste, and the gates thereof are deuoured with fire?

4 And the King said vnto me, For what thing doest thou require? Then I prayed [c] to the God of heauen, c I desired God in mine heart to prosper mine enterprise.

5 And sayde vnto the King, If it please the King,and if thy seruant haue found fauour in thy sight, I desire that thou wouldest send me to Iudah vnto the citie of the sepulchres of my fathers, that I may builde it.
6 And the King sayde vnto me, (the Queene also sitting by him) How long shall thy iourney be?and when wilt thou come againe? So it pleased the King,and he sent me,and I set him a time.
7 After I sayde vnto the King, If it please the King, let them giue mee letters to the captaines beyond the ‖ Riuer, that they may conuay me ouer,till I come into Iudah,

‖ Or, Euphrates.

8 And letters vnto Asaph the keeper of the Kings ‖ parke, that he may giue mee timber to builde the gates of the palace (which appertei-ned to the house) and for the walles of the citie, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the King gaue mee according to [d] the good hand of my God vpon me.

‖ Or, paradise.

d As God moued me to aske, and as he gaue me good successe therein.

9 ¶ Then came I to the captaines beyond the Riuer, and gaue them the Kings letters. And the Kings had sent captaines of the armie and horsemen with me.
10 But [e] Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah a seruant an Ammonite heard it, and it grieued them sore, that there was come a man which sought the wealth of the children of Israel.

e These were great enemies to the Iewes,and laboured alwayes both by force and subtiltie to ouercome them,and Tobiah,because his wife was a Iewesse,had aduertisement euer of their affaires,and so wrought them great trouble.

11 So I came to Ierusalem,and was there three dayes.
12 And I rose in the night, I, and a fewe men with me: for I told no man, what God had put in mine heart to do at Ierusalem,and there was not a beast with me,saue the beast whereon I rode.
13 And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, and came before the draggon well,and to the dung porte,and viewed the walles of Ieru-salem, howe they were broken downe, and the portes thereof deuoured with the fire.
14 Then I went foorth vnto the gate of the ‖ fountaine, and to the Kings fishpoole, and there was no rowme for the beast that was vnder me to passe.

‖ Or, conduite.

15 Then went I vp in the night by the brooke, and viewed the wall,and turned backe,and com-ming backe,I entred by the gate of the valley and returned.
16 And the rulers knewe not whither I was gone,nor what I did, neither did I as yet tell it vnto the Iewes, nor to the Priestes, nor to the noble men, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that laboured in the worke.
17 Afterward I saide vnto them, Ye see the miserie that wee are in, howe Ierusalem lyeth waste, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire:come and let vs buylde the wall of Ierusalem, that we be no more [f] a reproche.

f That is, contemned of other nations,as though God had forsaken vs.

18 Then I told them of the hand of my God, (which was good ouer mee) and also of the Kings wordes that he had spoken vnto me. And they said, Let vs rise,and buyld.So they [g] strengthened their hand to good.

g They were incouraged and gaue themselues to doe well,and to trauell in this worthy enterprise.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the seruant an Ammonite, and [h] Geshem the Arabian heard it, they mocked vs and despised vs, and said, What a thing is this that ye doe? Will ye [i] rebell against the King?

h These were three chiefe gouernours vnder the King of Persia beyond Euphrates.

i Thus the wicked when they will burthen the children of God, euer lay treason vnto their charge, both because it maketh them most odious to the worlde,and also stirreth the hatred of Princes most against them.

20 Then answered I them, and sayde to them,
The God of heauen, he will prosper vs, and we his seruants will rise vp and buylde; but as for you,yee haue no portion nor right, nor [k] memoriall in Ie-
rusalem.

k Neither yee are of the nomber of the children of God (to whome he hath appoynted this citie only) neyther did any of your predecessours euer feare God.

CHAP. III.

The number of them that buylded the walles.

THen arose Eliashib the hie Priest with his brethren the Priestes, and they buylt the sheepegate: they [a] repayred it, and set vp the doores thereof: euen vnto the tower of Meah repayred they it, and vnto the tower of Ha-naneel.

a In Ebrewe they sanctified it,that is, they finished it, and so dedicated it to the Lorde by prayer,in desiring him to maintaine it.

2 And next vnto him buylded the men of Iericho, and beside him Zaccur the sonne of Imri.
3 But the fish port did the sonnes of Senaah buylde, which also layde the beames thereof, and set on the doores thereof, the lockes thereof, and the barres thereof.
4 And next vnto them fortified Merimoth, the sonne of Vrijah, the sonne of Hakkoz: and next vnto them fortified Meshullam, the sonne of Berechiah, the sonne of Meshezabeel: and next vnto them fortified Zadok, the sonne of Baana:
5 And next vnto them fortified the Tekoites : but the great men of them [b] put not their necks to the works of their lords.

b The rich and mightie woulde not obey them, which were appointed officers in this worke, neither woulde they helpe thereunto.

6 And the gate of the * olde fishpoole fortified Iehoiada the sonne of Paseah, and Meshullam the sonne of Besodaiah: they laid the beames thereof, and set on the doores thereof,and the locks thereof,and the barres thereof.

* Isa 22.11.

7 Next vnto them also fortified Melatiah the Gibeonite, & Iadon the Meronothite,men of Gi-beon, and of Mizpah, vnto the [c] throne of the Duke,which was beyond the Riuer.

c Vnto the place where the Duke was wont to sit in iudgement, who gouerned the countrey in their absence.

8 Next vnto him fortified Vzziel the sonne of Harhohiah ‖ of the golde smithes: next vnto him also fortified Hananiah, the sonne ‖ of Harakkahim,and they repaired Ierusalem vnto the broad wall.

‖ Or, of Zorephim.
‖ Or, of the Apotecaries.

9 Also next vnto them fortified Rephaiah, the sonne of Hur, the ruler of the halfe part of Ie-
rusalem.
10 And next vnto him fortified Iedaiah the sonne of Harumaph, euen ouer against his house:
and next vnto him fortified Hattush, the sonne of Hashabniah.
11 Malchiiah the sonne of Harim, and Hashub the sonne of Pahath Moab fortified the seconde ‖ portion,and the tower of the fornaces.

‖ Or, measure.

12 Next vnto him also fortified Shallum, the sonne of Halloesh,the ruler of the halfe part of Ie-rusalem,he,and his daughters.
13 The valley gate fortified Hanum, and the inhabitants of Zanuah: they built it,and set on the doores thereof, the lockes thereof, and the barres thereof, euen a thousand cubites on the wall vnto the dung port.
14 But the dung port fortified Malchiah, the sonne of Rechab, the ruler of the fourth part of Beth-haccerem: he built it, and set on the doores thereof,the locks thereof,and the barres thereof.
15 But the gate of the fountaine fortified Shallun, the sonne of Col-hozeh, the ruler of the fourth part of Mizpah: he builded it, and co-uered it, and set on the doores thereof, the lockes thereof, and the barres thereof, and the wall

‖Or, Siloe.

vnto the fishpoole of ‖ Shelah by the Kings garden, and vnto the steppes that goe downe from the citie of Dauid.
16 After him fortified Nehemiah the sonne of Azbuk, the ruler of the halfe part of Beth-zur, vntill the other side ouer against the sepulchres of Dauid, and to the fishpoole that was repaired, and vnto the house of the mightie.
17 After him fortified the Leuites, Rehum the sonne of Bani, and next vnto him fortified Hashabiah the ruler of the halfe part of Keilah in his quarter.
18 After him fortified their brethren: Bauai, the sonne of Henadad the ruler of the halfe part of Keilah:
19 And next vnto him fortified Ezer, the sonne of Ieshua the ruler of Mizpah, the other portion ouer against the going vp to the d corner of the armour.

d Where the weapons and armour of the citie lay.

20 After him was earnest Baruch the sonne of Zacchai, and fortified another portion from the corner vnto the doore of the house of Eliashib the hie Priest.
21 After him fortified Merimoth, the sonne of Vrijah, the sonne of Hakkoz, another portion from the doore of the house of Eliashib, euen as long as the house of Eliashib extended.
22 After him also fortified the Priests, the men of e the plaine.

e Which dwelt in the playne countrey by Iorden and Iericho.

23 After them fortified Beniamin, and Hasshub ouer against their house: after him fortified Azariah, the sonne of Maaseiah, the sonne of Ananiah, by his house.
24 After him fortified Binnui, the sonne of Henadad another portion, from the house of Azariah vnto the turning and vnto the corner.
25 Palal, the sonne of Vzai, from ouer against the corner, and the high towre, that lieth out from the Kings house, which is beside the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah, the sonne of Parosh.
26 And the f Nethinims they dwelt in the fortresse vnto the place ouer against the water gate Eastward, and to the towre that lyeth out.

f Reade Ezra, Chap. 2. 43.

27 After him fortified the Tekoites another portion ouer against the great towre that lyeth out, euen vnto the wall of the fortresse.
28 From aboue the horsegate forth fortified the Priests, euery one ouer against his house.
29 After them fortified Zadok the sonne of Immer ouer against his house: and after him fortified Shemaiah, the sonne of Shechaniah the keeper of the East gate.
30 After him fortified Hananiah, the sonne of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sonne of Zalaph, the g sixt, another portion: after him fortified Meshullam, the sonne of Berechiah, ouer against his chamber.

g Meaning, the sixt of his sonnes.

31 After him fortified Malchiah the goldesmiths sonne, vntill the house of the Nethinims, and of the marchants ouer against the gate h Miphkad, and to the chamber in the corner.

h Which was the place of iudgemēt, or execution.

32 And betweene the chamber of the corner vnto the sheepegate fortified the goldesmithes and the marchantes.

CHAP. IIII.

7 The building of Ierusalem is hindered. 15 but God breaketh their enterprise. 17 The Iewes builde with one hand, and holde their weapons in the other.

BVt when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, then was he wroth and sore grieued, and mocked the Iewes,
2 And sayde before his a brethren and the armie of Samaria, thus hee sayde, What doe these b weake Iewes? wil they fortifie themselues? wil they sacrifice? wil they finish it in a day? will they make the stones whole againe out of the heapes of dust, seeing they are burnt?
3 And Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and said, Although they buylde, yet if a foxe goe vp, hee shall euen breake downe their stonie
wall.
4 c Heare, O our God (for wee are despised) and turne their shame vpon their owne head, and giue them vnto a pray d in the lande of their captiuitie,
5 And couer not their e iniquitie, neither let their sinne bee put out in thy presence: for they haue prouoked vs before the builders.
6 So wee built the wall, and all the wall was ioyned vnto the ‖ halfe thereof, and the heart of the people was to worke.
7 ¶ But when Sanballat, & Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodims heard that the walles of Ierusalem were repayred, (for the breaches beganne to be stopped) then they were very wroth, 8 And conspired all together to come and to fight against Ierusalem, and to † hinder them.
9 Then we prayed vnto our God, & set watchmen by them, day and night, because of them.
10 And Iudah said, The strength of the bearers is weakened, and there is much earth, so that we are not able to build the wall.
11 Also our aduersaries had sayde, They shall not knowe, neither see, till we come into the mids
of them & slay them, and cause to worke to cease.
12 But when the Iewes (which dwelt beside them) came, they tolde vs f ten times, g From all places, whence ye shall returne, they will be vpon vs.
13 Therefore set I in the lower places behinde the wall vpon the toppes of the stones, and placed the people by their families, with their swordes, their speares and their bowes.
14 Then I beheld, and rose vp, and saide vnto the Princes, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not afrayde of them: h remember the great Lorde, and fearefull, and fight for your brethren, your sonnes, and your daughters, your wiues, and your houses.
15 And when our enemies heard that it was knowen vnto vs, then God brought their counsell to nought, & we turned all againe to the wall, euery one vnto his worke.
16 And from that day, halfe of the yoong men did the labour, and the other halfe part of them held the speares, and shields, and bowes, and habergins: and the rulers stoode i behinde all the house of Iudah.
17 They that builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, and they that laded, did the worke with one hand, and with the other held the sword.
18 For euery one of the builders had his sword girded on his loines, and so builded: and hee that blew the trumpet, was beside me.
19 Then said I vnto the Princes, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The worke is great & large, and we are separated vpon the wall, one farre from another.

a Of his companions that dwelt in Samaria.
b Thus the wicked, that consider not ẏ Gods power is euer in a readinesse for the defence of his, mocke them as though they were weake and feeble.
c This is the remedie that the children of God haue against the derision & threatnings of their enemies to flee to God by prayer.
d Let them be spoyled and led away captiue.
e Let thy plagues declare to ẏ world that they set themselues against thee, and against thy Church: thus he prayeth, onely hauing respect to Gods glory, and not for any priuate affection, or grudge.
‖Or, halfe height.
†Ebr. make to stay, meaning the people.
f That is, often times.
g They, which brought the tidings, said thus, When you leaue your worke, and goe either to eate or to rest, your enemies will assaile you.
h Who is euer at hand to deliuer his out of danger, and therefore seeing they should fight for ẏ maintenance of Gods glory, and for the preseruation of their owne liues and of theirs, he encourageth them to play the valiant men.
i To ouersee them and to encourage them to their worke.

20 In what place therefore ye heare the sounde of the trumpet, [k] resort yee thither vnto vs : our God shall fight for vs.
21 So we laboured in the worke, and halfe of them held the speares, from the appearing of the morning, till the starres came foorth.
22 And at the same time saide I vnto the people, Let euery one with his seruant lodge within Ierusalem, that they may be a watch for vs in the night, and labour in the day.
23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my ser-uants, nor the men of the ward, (which followed me) none of vs did put off our clothes, saue euery one put them off [l] for washing.

k Meaning, to resist their enemies, if neede required.

l That is, when they purified themselues, or els when they washed their clothes.

CHAP. V.

1 The people are oppressed and in necessitie. 6 Nehemiah remedieth it. 14 He tooke not the portion of others that had ruled before, least he should grieue the people.

NOwe there was a great crie of the people, and of their wiues [a] against their brethren the Iewes.
2 For there were that said, We, our sonnes and our daughters are many, therefore wee take vp [b] corne, that we may eate and liue.
3 And there were that said, We must gage our lands, and our vineyards, and our houses, and take vp corne for the famine.
4 There were also that said, We haue borowed money for the Kings [c] tribute vpon our landes and our vineyards.
5 And nowe our flesh is as [d] the flesh of our brethren, and our sonnes as their sonnes: and loe, we bring into subiection our sonnes & our daughters, as seruants, and there be of our daughters now in subiection, and there is no power [e] in our hands:
for other men haue our lands and our vineyards.
6 Then was I very angrie when I heard their crie and these words.
7 And I thought in my minde, and I rebuked the princes, and the rulers, and sayde vnto them, You lay [f] burthens euery one vpon his brethren:
and I set a great [g] assemblie against them, 8 And I saide vnto them, We (according to our abilitie) haue redemed our brethren the Iewes, which were solde vnto the heathen : and will you sell your brethren againe, or shall they be [h] solde vnto vs? Then held they their peace, and could not answere.
9 [i] I said also, That which ye do, is not good.
Ought ye not to walke in the feare of our God,
for the [k] reproch of the heathen our enemies?
10 For euen I, my brethren, and my seruants do lend them money and corne : I pray you, let vs leaue off this || burden.
11 Restore, I pray you, vnto them this day their landes, their vineyardes, their oliues, and their houses, and remit the hundreth part of the siluer and of the corne, of the wine, and of the oile [l] that ye exact of them.
12 Then said they, We will restore it, and will not require it of them : we will doe as thou hast said. Then I called the Priestes, and caused them to sweare, that they should doe according to this promise.
13 So I shooke my lappe, and said, So let God shake out euery man that will not performe this promise from his house, and from his labour : euen thus let him be shaken out, and emptied. And all the Congregation said, Amen, & praised the Lord:
and the people did according to this promise.

a Against the rich, which oppressed them.

b This is the complaint of the people, shewing to what extremitie they were brought vnto.

c To pay our tribute to the King of the Persians, which was exacted yeerely of vs.

d By nature the rich is no better then the poore.

e We are not able to redeeme them, but for pouertie are constreined to hire them to others.

f You presse them with vsurie, and seeke howe to bring all things into your hands.

g Both because they should be moued with pitie, seeing howe many were by them opprest, and also beare the iudgement of others, which should be as it were witnesses of their dealing toward their brethren.

h Seeing God hath once deliuered them from the bondage of the heathen, shall we make them our slaues?

i Meaning, Nehemiah.

k Who by this occasion will blaspheme the Name of God, seeing that our actes are no better then theirs.

|| Or vsurie.

l Which ye take of them for the loane.

14 And from the time that the King gaue me charge to be gouernour in the land of Iudah, from the twentieth yeere, euen vnto the two and thirtieth yeere of King Artahshashte, that is, twelue yere, I, & my brethren haue not eaten the [m] bread of the gouernour.
15 For the former gouernours that were before me, had beene chargeable vnto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, besides fourtie shekels of siluer : yea, and their seruants bare rule ouer the people : but so did not I, because of the feare of God.
16 But rather I fortified a portion in the worke of this wall, and we bought no land, and all my ser-uants came thither together vnto the worke.
17 Moreouer there were at my table an hun-dreth and fiftie of the Iewes, and rulers, which came vnto vs from among the heathen that are about vs.
18 And there was prepared daylie an oxe, and sixe chosen sheepe, and birdes were prepared for me, and || within ten dayes wine for all [n] in abundance. Yet for all this I required not the bread of the gouernour: for the bondage was grieuous vnto this people.
19 Remember me, O my God, in goodnesse, according to all that I haue done for this people.

m I receiued not that portion, and diet, which the gouernours, that were before me, exacted: wherein he declareth that he rather sought the wealth of the people, then his owne commoditie.

|| Or, once in ten dayes.

n Whereas at other times they had by measure, at this time they had most liberally.

CHAP. VI.

8 Nehemiah answereth with great wisedome, and zeale to his aduersaries. 11 He is not discouraged by the false Prophets.

ANd when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had built the wall, & that there were no mo [a] breaches therein, (though at that time I had not set vp the doores vpon the gates) 2 Then sent Sanballat and Geshem vnto me, saying, Come thou that we may meete together in the villages in the plaint of Ono : & they thought to doe me euill.
3 Therefore I sent messengers vnto them, saying, I haue a great worke to doe, and I can not come downe : [b] why shoulde the worke cease, whiles I leaue it, and come downe to you?
4 Yet they sent vnto me foure times after this sort. And I answered them after the same maner.
5 Then sent Sanballat his seruant after this sort vnto me the fift time, with an open letter in his hand,
6 Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and || Gashmu hath said it, that thou and the Iewes thinke to rebell, for the which cause thou buildest the wal, and thou wilt be their King according to these [c] words.
7 Thou hast also ordeined [d] the Prophets to preach of thee at Ierusalem, saying, There is a King in Iudah : and nowe according to these wordes it shall come to the Kings eares : come now therefore, and let vs take counsell together.
8 Then I sent vnto him, saying, It is not done according to these wordes that thou sayest : for thou feinest them of thine owne heart.
9 For all they afraid vs, saying, Their handes shalbe weakened from the worke, and it shall not be done : now therefore † encourage thou me.
10 ¶ And I came to the house of Shemaiah the sonne of Delaiah the sonne of Mehetabeel, and he was [e] shut vp, and he said, Let vs come together into the house of God in the middes of the Temple, and shut the doores of the Temple :
for

a That is, that they were ioyned together, as Chap.4.6.

b Meaning, that if he should obey their request, the worke, which God had appointed, should cease: shewing hereby that we shoulde not commit our selues to the hands of the wicked.

|| Or, Geshem.

c As the fame goeth.

d Thou hast bribed, and set vp false Prophets, to make thy selfe King, and so to defraud the King of Persia of that subiection, which you owe vnto him.

† Ebr. strengthen thou mine hand.

e As though he would be secret, to the intent that he might pray vnto God with greater libertie, and receiue some reuelation, which in him was but hypocrisie.

for they will come to slay thee: yea, in the night will they come to kill thee.
11 Then I said, f Should such a man as I, flee?
Who is he, being as I am, that would go into the Temple to liue? I will not go in.
12 And loe, I perceiued, that God had not sent him, but that he pronounced this prophecie against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.
13 Therefore was hee hired, that I might be afrayde, and doe thus, and sinne, and that they might haue an euill report that they might reproch me.
14 My God, remember thou Tobiah, and Sanballat according vnto these their works, and Noa-diah the g Prophetesse also, and the rest of the Prophets that would haue put me in feare.
15 ¶ Notwithstanding the wall was finished on the fiue and twentieth day of h Elul, in two and i fiftie dayes.
16 And when all our enemies heard thereof, euen all the heathen that were about vs, they were afraid, & their courage failed them: for they knew, that this worke was wrought by our God.
17 And in these dayes were there many of the princes of Iudah, whose k letters went vnto Tobiah, and those of Tobiah came vnto them.
18 For there were many in Iudah, that were sworne vnto him: for he was the sonne in law of Shechaniah, the sonne of Arah: and his sonne Iehonathan had the daughter of Meshullam, the sonne of Berechiah.
19 Yea, they spake in his praise before me, and tolde him my wordes, and Tobiah sent letters to put me in feare.

f He doubted not but God was able to preserue him, & knew that if he had obeyed this counsell, he should haue discouraged all the people: thus God giueth power to his, to resist false prophecies though they seeme to haue neuer so great probabilitie.
g Verie griefe caused him to pray against such, which vnder the pretence of being the ministers of God, were aduersaries to his glorie, and went about to ouerthrowe his Church, declaring also hereby that where there is one true minister of God, the deuill hath a great sort of hirelings.
h Which was the sixt moneth and conteined part of August, and part of September.
i After that I had sent Sanballat his answere.
k Thus the Church of God hath euermore enemies within it selfe, which are more dangerous then the outward and professed enemie.

CHAP. VII.

1 After the wall once builded, is the watch appointed. 6 They that returned from the captiuitie are numbred.

NOwe* when the wall was builded, and I had set vp the dores, and the porters, and the singers and the Leuites were appointed,
2 Then I commanded my brother Hanani & Hananiah the prince of the palace in Ierusalem (for he was doubtlesse a faithfull man, and feared God aboue many)
3 And I saide vnto them, Let not the gates of Ierusalem be opened, vntill the heate of the sunne: and while a they stand by, let them shut the doores, and † make them fast: and I appointed wardes of the inhabitants of Ierusalem, euerie one in his warde, and euery one ouer against his

CHAP. VIII.

2 Ezra gathereth together the people, and readeth to them the Law. 12 They reioyce in Israel for the knowledge of the word of God. 15 They keepe the feast of Tabernacles or boothes.

AND all the people assembled themselues † together, in the streete that was before the watergate, and they spake vnto Ezra the [a] Scribe, that he would bring the booke of the Law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded to Israel.

a Reade Ezra. 7.6.

2 And Ezra the Priest brought the Lawe before the Congregation both of men and women, and of all that [b] could heare and vnderstand it, in the first day of the seuenth moneth, b Which had age and discretion to vnderstand.

3 And he read therein in the streete that was before the watergate (from the morning vntill [c] the midday) before men and women, and them that vnderstoode it, and the eares of all the people hearkened vnto the booke of the Lawe.

c This declareth the great zeale, that the people had to heare the word of God.

4 And Ezra the Scribe stoode vpon a pulpit of wood which hee had made for the preaching, and beside him stoode Mattithiah, and Shema, and Ananiah, and Vriiah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah on his right hand, and on his left hand Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, & Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

5 And Ezra opened the booke before all the people: for he was [d] aboue all the people: and when he opened it, all the people stoode vp.

d To the intent that his voyce might be the better heard.

6 And Ezra praysed the Lord the great God, and all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting vp their hands: and they bowed themselues, and worshipped the Lord with their faces toward the ground.

7 Also Ieshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Iamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Iozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Leuites caused the people to vnderstand the lawe, and the people stoode in their place.

8 And they read in the booke of the Lawe of God distinctly, and gaue the sense, and caused them to vnderstand the reading.

9 Then Nehemiah (which is Tirshatha) and Ezra the Priest and scribe, and the Leuites that instructed the people, sayde vnto all the people, This day is holy vnto the Lord your God: mourne not, neither weepe: for all the people [e] wept, when they heard the words of the Lawe.

e In considering their offences against the Lawe. Therefore the Leuites doe not reproone them for mourning, but assure them of Gods mercies forasmuch as they are repentant.

10 He said also vnto them, Go, and eate of the fat, and drinke the sweete, & send part vnto them, for whome none is [f] prepared: for this day is holie vnto our Lord: be ye not sory therefore: for the

11 And the Leuites made silence throughout all the people, saying, Holde your peace: for the day is holy, be not sad therefore.
12 Then all the people went to eate and to drinke, and to send away part, and to make great ioy, because they had vnderstand the wordes that they had taught them.
13 And on the second day the chiefe fathers of all the people, the Priestes and the Leuites were gathered vnto Ezra the scribe, that he also might instruct them in the wordes of the Lawe.
14 And they found written in the Lawe, (that the Lorde had commanded by Moses (that the boothes, and sate vnder the boothes: for since the

had not the children of Israel done so, and there was very great ioy.

God euery day, from the first day vnto the last day. And they kept the feast seuen dayes, and on the eight day a solemne assemblie, according vnto the maner.

for them, but hardened their neckes, and had in their heads to returne to their bondage by their rebellion: but thou, O God of mercies, gratious and full of compassion, of long suffering and of great mercie, yet forsookest them not.
18 Moreouer, when they made them a molten ple, and d scatteredst them into corners: so they possessed* the land of Sihon & the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og King of Bashan.

23 And thou diddest multiplie their children, like the starres of the heauen, and broughtest them into the lande, whereof thou haddest spoken vnto their fathers, that they should goe, and possesse it.

24 So the children went in, and possessed the lande, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the lande, euen the Canaanites, and gauest them into their handes, with their Kings and the people of the lande, that they might doe with them what they would.

25 And they tooke their strong cities and the fat land, and possessed houses, full of all goods, cisternes digged out, vineyards, and oliues, and trees for food in abundance, and they did eate, and were filled, and became fat, & liued in pleasure through thy great goodnesse.

26 Yet they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy Law behinde their backs, and slew thy Prophets (which [e] protested among them to turne them vnto thee) and committed great blasphemies.

e Taking heauen and earth to witnesse that God would destroy them, except they returned, as 2. Chron. 24. 19.

27 Therefore thou deliueredst them into the hande of their enemies that vexed them: yet in the time of their affliction, when they cryed vnto thee, thou heardest them from the heauen, and through thy great mercies thou gauest them sauiours, who saued them out of the hand of their aduersaries.

28 But when they had [f] rest, they returned to doe euill before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion ouer them, yet when they conuerted & cried vnto thee, thou heardest them from heauen, and deliueredst them according to thy great mercies many times, f He declareth how Gods mercies euer contended with the wickednesse of the people, who euer in their prosperitie forgat God.

29 And protestedst among them that thou mightest bring them againe vnto thy Lawe: but they behaued them selues proudely, and hearkened not vnto thy commaundements, but sinned against thy iudgements (* which a man should doe and liue in them) and [g] pulled away the shoulder, and were stiffenecked, and would not [h] heare.

34 And our kings and our princes, our Priests and our fathers haue not done thy Lawe, nor regarded thy commaundements nor thy protestations, wherewith thou hast [l] protested among them.

l That thou wouldest destroy them, except they would returne to thee, as verse 26.

35 And they haue not serued thee in their kingdome, and in thy great goodnesse that thou shewedst vnto them, and in the large and fat lande which thou diddest set before them, and haue not conuerted from their euill workes.

36 Beholde, we are seruants this day, and the lande that thou gauest vnto our fathers, to eat the [m] fruit thereof, & the goodnesse thereof, beholde, we are seruants therein.

m That is, to be the lordes thereof.

37 And it yeeldeth much fruit vnto the kinges whom thou hast set ouer vs, because of our sinnes: and they haue dominion ouer our bodies and ouer our cattell at their pleasure, and we are in great affliction.

38 Nowe because of all this we make [n] a sure couenant, and write it, and our princes, our Leuites and our Priests seale vnto it.

n Thus by affliction they promise to keepe Gods commandements, whereunto they could not be brought by Gods great benefites.

begate Eliashib, Eliashib begate Ioiada.
11 And Ioiada begate Ionathan, & Ionathan begate Iaddua, 12 And in the dayes of Ioiakim were these, the chiefe fathers of the Priestes: vnder [e] Seraiah was uites written, and the Priestes in the reigne of Darius the Persian.

e That is, next to Seraiah, or rather of the order, which was called after the name of Seraiah.

f Whereof was Zacharie Iohn Baptists father.

23 The sonnes of Leui, the chiefe fathers were written in the booke of the Chronicles euen vnto the dayes of Iohanan the sonne of Eliashib.
24 And the chiefe of the Leuites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Ieshua the sonne of Kadmiel, and their brethren about them to giue praise and thankes, according to the ordinance of Dauid the man of God, ward ouer [g] against ward.
25 Mattaniah and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Me-shullam, Talmon and Akkub were porters keeping the warde at the thresholdes of the gates.
26 These were in the dayes of Ioiakim, the sonne of Ieshua, the sonne of Iozadak, and in the dayes of Nehemiah the captaine, and of Ezra the Priest and Scribe.

g That is, one after another, and euery one in his course.

27 And in the dedication of the wall at Ieru-salem they sought the Leuites out of all their places to bring them to Ierusalem to keepe the dedication and gladnesse, both with thankesgiuings and with songs, cymbales, violes and with harpes.
28 Then the † singers gathered themselues together both from the plaine countrey about Ie-rusalem, and from the villages of [h] Netophathi, 29 And from the house of Gilgal, and out of the countreys of Geba, and Azmaueth: for the singers had built them villages round about Ie-
rusalem.

h Which were a certaine familie and had their possessions in the fields, 1.Chron.2.54.

30 And the Priests and Leuites were purified, and clensed the people, and the gates, and the wall.
31 And [i] I brought vp the princes of Iudah vp-on the wall, and appoynted two great companies to giue thankes, and the one went on the right hand of the wall toward the dung gate.
32 And after them went Hoshaiah, and halfe of the princes of Iudah, 33 And Azariah, Ezra and Meshullam, 34 Iudah, Beniamin, and Shemaiah, and Ieremiah,
35 And of the Priestes sonnes with trumpets, Zechariah the sonne of Ionathan, the sonne of Shemaiah, the sonne of Mattaniah, the sonne of Michaiah, the sonne of Zaccur, the sonne of Asaph.
36 And [k] his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azareel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Iudah, Hanani, with the musicall instruments of Dauid the man of God: and Ezra the scribe went before them.

i Meaning, Nehemiah.

k That is, the brethren of Zaccur.

37 And to the gate of the fountaine, euen ouer against them went they vp by [l] the staires of the citie of Dauid, at the going vp of the wall beyond the house of Dauid, euen vnto the water gate Eastward.
38 And the second companie of them that gaue thankes, went on the other side, and I after them, and the halfe of the people was vpon the wall, and vpon the towre of the furnaces euen vnto the broad wall.
39 And vpon the gate of Ephraim, and vpon the olde gate, and vpon the fishgate, and the towre of Hananeel, and the towre of Meah, euen vnto the sheepegate: and they stoode in the gate of the warde.
40 So stood the two companies (of them that gaue thankes) in the house of God, and I and the halfe of the rulers with me.
41 The Priestes also, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, Hananiah, with trumpets,
42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Vzzi, and Iehohanan, and Malchiiah, and Elam,

l Which was the going vp to the mount Zion, which is called the citie of Dauid.

‡Ebr. caused to heare.

Elam, and Ezer: and the singers ‡ sang loude, hauing Izrahiah which was the ouerseer.
43 And the same day they offered great sacrifices and reioyced: for God had giuen them great ioy, so that both the women, and the children were ioyfull: and the ioy of Ierusalem was heard farre off.
44 Also at the same time were men appoynted
m ouer the chambers of the store for the offerings (for the first fruites, and for the tithes) to gather into them out of the fieldes of the cities, the portions of the Lawe for the Priests and the Leuites:
for Iudah reioyced for the Priests and for the Le-uites, that serued.

m Which were chambers appoynted to Hezekiah to put in the tithes, and such things, 2.Chron. 31.11, and nowe were repayred againe for the same vse.

45 And both the singers and the Leuites kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification according to the commaundement of David, and Salomon his sonne.
46 * For in the dayes of Dauid and Asaph, of olde were chiefe singers, and songs of praise and thankesgiuing vnto God.

*1.Chron.25.16.

47 And in the dayes of Zerubbabel, and in the dayes of Nehemiah did al Israel giue portions vnto the singers and porters, euery day his portion, and they gaue the holy things vnto the Leuites, and the Leuites n gaue the holy things vnto the sonnes of Aaron.

n That is, the tenth part of the tithes.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The Lawe is read. 3 They separate from them all strangers. 15 Nehemiah reproueth them that breake the Sabbath. 30 An ordinance to serue God.

AND on that day did they reade in the booke of Moses, in the audience of the people, and it was found written therein, that the Ammonite, and the Moabite * should not enter into the Congregation of God,
2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, * but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: and our God turned the curse into a blessing.
3 Nowe when they had heard the Lawe, they separated from Israel a all those that were mixed.
4 ¶ And before b this had the Priest Eliashib the ouersight of the chamber of the house of our God, being c kinseman to Tobiah:
5 And he had made him a great chamber, and there had they aforetime layde the offrings, the incense, and the vessels, and the tithes of corne, of wine, and of oyle (appoynted for the Leuites, and the singers, and the porters) and the offrings of the Priests.
6 But in all this time was not I in Ierusalem:
for in the two and thirtieth yeere of d Artashashte King of Babel, came I vnto the King, and ‖ after certaine dayes I obteined of the King.
7 And when I was come to Ierusalem, I vn-derstood e the euill that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in that hee had made him a chamber in the court of the house of God, 8 And it grieued me sore: therefore I cast forth all the vessels of the house of Tobiah out of the chamber.
9 And I commanded them to clense the chambers: and thither brought I againe the vessels of the house of God with the meate offring and the incense.
10 And I perceiued that the portions of the Leuites had not bene giuen, and that euery one was fled to his land, euen the Leuites and singers that executed the worke.

*Deut.23.3.

*Nomb.22.5,6.

a That is, all such, which had ioyned in vnlawful mariage, and also those with whom God had forbidden them to haue societie.

b That the separation was made.

c He was ioyned in affinitie with Tobiah the Ammonite, and enemie of the Iewes.

d Called also Darius, Ezra 7.1.

‖ Or, at the yeeres end.

e Thus we see to what inconueniences the people fall into, when they are destitute of one that hath the feare of God, seeing that their chiefe gouernour was but a while absent, and yet they fell into such great absurdities: as appeareth also, Exod.32.1.

11 Then reprooued I the rulers and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I assembled them, and set them in their place.
12 Then brought all Iudah the tithes of corne and of wine, and of oyle vnto the treasures.
13 And I made treasurers ouer the treasures, Shelemiah the Priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Leuites, Pedaiah, and vnder their hand Hanan the sonne of Zaccur the sonne of Matta-niah: for they were counted faithfull, and their office was to distribute vnto their brethren.
14 Remember me, O my God, herein, and wipe not out my f kindnesse that I haue shewed on the house of my God, and on the offices thereof.
15 In those dayes sawe I in Iudah them, that trode wine presses on the Sabbath, & that brought in sheaues, and which laded asses also with wine, grapes, and figges, and all burdens, and brought them into Ierusalem vpon the Sabbath day: and g I protested to them in the day that they solde vitailes.

f He protesteth that he did his duety with a good conscience, yet hee doeth not iustifie himselfe herein, but desireth God to fauour him, and to be mercifull vnto him for his owne goodnesse sake, as vers.22.and 31.

g I declared vnto them, that God would not suffer such transgressours of his Lawe to be vnpunished.

16 There dwelt men of Tyrus also therein, which brought fish and all wares, and solde on the Sabbath vnto the children of Iudah euen in Ierusalem.
17 Then reprooued I the rulers of Iudah, and sayde vnto them, What euill thing is this that yee doe, and breake the Sabbath day?
18 Did not your fathers h thus, and our God brought all this plague vpon vs, and vpon this citie? yet yee increase the wrath vpon Israel, in breaking the Sabbath.
19 And when the gates of Ierusalem began to be i darke before the Sabbath, I commanded to shut the gates, and charged, that they should not be opened till after the Sabbath, and some of my seruants set I at the gates, that there shoulde no burden be brought in on the Sabbath day.
20 So the chapmen and marchants of all marchandise remained once or twise all night without Ierusalem.
21 And I protested among them, and said vnto them, Why tary ye all night about the wall? If ye do it once againe, I will lay hands vpon you. from that time came they no more on the Sabbath.

h Was not this a great cause, why God plagued vs in times past? meaning, that if they transgressed nowe in the same againe, their plague should be greater.

i About the time that the sunne went downe: for the Sabbath lasted from the sunne going downe of the one day, to the sunne setting of the other.

22 ¶ And I sayde vnto the Leuites, that they should clense themselues, and that they shoulde come and k keepe the gates, to sanctifie the Sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and pardon me according to thy great mercy.
23 In those dayes also I sawe Iewes that married wiues of l Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab.
24 And their children spake halfe in the speach of Ashdod, and coulde not speake in the Iewes language, and according to the language of the one people, and of the other people.
25 Then I reproued them, and m cursed them, and smote certaine of them, and pulled off their haire, and tooke an othe of them by God, Yee shall not giue your daughters vnto their sonnes, neither shall ye take of their daughters vnto your sonnes, nor for your selues.
26 *Did not Salomon the king of Israel sinne by these things? yet among many nations was there no King like him: for he was * beloued of his God, and God had made him King ouer Israel:
* yet strange women caused him to sinne.
27 Shall wee then obey vnto you, to doe all this great euill, and to transgresse against our God, euen to marry strange wiues?

k Meaning of the Temple, that none that was vncleane, should enter.

THE ARGVMENT.

Because of the diuersitie of names, wherby they vsed to name their Kings, and the supputation of yeres wherein the Ebrewes, and the Grecians doe vary, diuers autors write diuersly as touching this Ahashuerosh, but it seemeth Daniel 6.1. & 9.1. that he was Darius King of the Medes, and sonne of Astyages, called also Ahashuerosh, which was a name of honour, and signified great and chiefe, as chiefe head. Herein is declared the great mercies of God toward his Church: who neuer faileth them in their greatest dangers, but when all hope of worldly helpe faileth, he euer stirreth vp some, by whom he sendeth comfort, and deliuerance. Herein also is described the ambition, pride and crueltie of the wicked, when they come to honour, and their sudden fall when they are at highest: and howe God preserueth, and preferreth them which are zealous of his glory, and haue a care and loue toward their brethren.

CHAP. I.

1 King Ahashuerosh maketh a royall feast, 12 whereunto the Queene Vashti will not come, 19 for which cause she is diuorced. 20 The Kings decree touching the preeminence of man.

IN the dayes of [a] Ahashuerosh (this is Ahashuerosh that reigned, from India euen vnto Ethiopia, ouer an [b] hundreth, and seuen and twentie prouinces)
2 In those dayes when the King Ahashuerosh [c] sate on his throne, which was in the palace of *Shushan, 3 In the third yeere of his reigne, he made a feast vnto all his princes and his seruants, euen the power of Persia and Media, and to the captaines and gouernours of the prouinces which were before
him,
4 That he might shewe the riches and glorie of his kingdome, and the honour of his great maiestie many dayes, euen an hundreth and foure score dayes.
5 And when these dayes were expired, the King made a feast to al the people that were found in the palace of Shushan, both vnto great & small, seuen daies, in the court of the garden of the Kings palace,
6 Vnder an hanging of white, greene, and blue clothes, fastened with cordes of fine linen and purple, in siluer rings, and pillars of marble: the [d] beds were of gold, and of siluer vpon a pauement of porphyre, and marble & alabaster, and blue colour.
7 And they gaue them drinke in vessels of golde, and changed vessel after vessel, and royall wine in abundance according to the [e] power of the King.
8 And the drinking was by an order, none might [f] compel: for so the King had appoynted vnto all the officers of his house, that they should do according to euery mans pleasure.
9 ¶ The Queene Vashti made a feast also for the women in the royall house of King Ahashuerosh.
10 Vpon the [g] seuenth day when the King was merie with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seuen eunuches, (that serued in the presence of King Ahashuerosh)
11 To bring Queene Vashti before the King with the crowne royall, that he might shewe the people and the princes her beautie: for shee was fayre to looke vpon.
12 But the Queene Vashti refused to come at the Kings worde, † which he had giuen in charge to the eunuches: therfore the King was very angry, and his wrath kindled in him.
13 Then the King said to the wise men, [h] that knewe the times (for so was the Kings maner towards all that knew the law and the iudgement:
14 And the next vnto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan the seuen princes of Persia, and Media, which sawe the [i] Kings face, and sate the first in the kingdome)
15 What shall we doe vnto the Queene Vashti according to the lawe, because she did not according to the word of the King Ahashuerosh by the commission of the eunuches?
16 Then Memucan answered before the King
& the Princes, The Queene Vashti hath not only done [k] euill against the King, but against all the princes, and against all the people that are in all the prouinces of King Ahashuerosh.
17 For the [l] acte of the Queene shall come abroade vnto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their owne eyes, & shal say, The King Ahashuerosh cōmanded Vashti the Queene to be brought in before him, but she came not.
18 So shall the [m] princesses of Persia and Media this day say vnto all the Kings Princes, when they heare of the acte of the Queene: thus shal there be much despitefulnesse and wrath.
19 If it please the King, let a royal decree proceede from him, and let it bee written among the statutes of Persia, & Media, (& let it not be transgressed) that Vashti come [n] no more before King Ahashuerosh: & let the King giue her royal estate vnto her companion that is better then she.
20 And when the decree of the King which shalbe made, shalbe published throughout all his kingdome (thought it be [o] great) all the women shall giue their husbands honour, both great and small.
21 And this saying pleased the King and the princes, and the King did according to the worde of Memucan.
22 For he sent letters into all the prouinces of the King, into euery prouince according to the writing thereof, and to euery people after their language,

a Called also Darius, who was now the soueraigne Monarch, and had the gouernment of the Medes, Persians & Chaldeans, some thinke he was Darius Hystaspis sonne, called also Artaxerxes.

CHAP. II.

1 After the Queene is put away, certaine yong maydes are brought to the King. 17 Ester pleaseth the King, and is made Queene. 22 Mordecai discloseth vnto the King those that would betray him.

AFter these things, when the wrath of King Ahashuerosh was appeased, hee a remembred Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed b against her.
2 And the Kings seruants that ministred vnto him, sayd, Let them seeke for the King beautifull yong virgins,
3 And let the King appoynt officers through all the prouinces of his kingdome, and let them gather all the beautifull yong virgins vnto the palace of Shushan, into the house of the women, vnder the hande of Hege the Kings eunuche, c keeper of the women, to giue them their things d for purification.
4 And the mayde that shall please the King, let her reigne in the steade of Vashti. And this pleased the King, and he did so.
5 ¶In the citie of Shushan, there was a certaine Iewe, whose name was Mordecai the sonne of Iair, the sonne of Shimei, the sonne of Kish a man of Iemini,
6 Which had bene caryed away from Ierusalem* with the captiuitie that was caryed away with Ieconiah King of Iudah (whom Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel had caryed away) 7 And hee nourished Hadassah, that is Ester, his vncles daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the mayde was fayre, and beautifull to looke on: and after the death of her father, and her mother, Mordecai tooke her for his own daughter 8 And when the Kings commandement, and his decree was published, and many maydes were brought together to the palace of Shushan, vnder the hand of Hege, Ester was brought also vnto the Kings house vnder the hande of Hege the keeper of the women,
9 And the mayde pleased him, & she founde fauour in his sight: therefore hee caused her things for purification to bee giuen her speedily, and her †state, and seuen comely maides to bee giuen her out of the Kings house, and hee gaue change to her and to her maydes of the best in the house of the women.
10 But Ester shewed not her people and her kinred: for Mordecai had charged her, that shee should not tell it.
11 And Mordecai walked e euery day before the court of the womens house, to knowe if Ester did well, and what should be done with her.
12 And when the course of euery mayde came,
to go in to King Ahashuerosh, after that shee had bene twelue moneths according to the maner of the women (for so were the dayes of their purifications accomplished, sixe moneths with oyle of myrrhe, and sixe moneths with sweete odours and in the purifying of the women: 13 And thus went the maides vnto the King) whatsoeuer she required, was f giuen her, to goe with her out of the womens house vnto the kings house.
14 In the euening she went, and on the morow she returned into the second house of the women vnder the hand of Shaashgaz the Kings eunuche, which kept the concubines: shee came in to the King no more, except shee pleased the King, and that she were called by name.
15 Nowe when the course of Ester the daughter of Abihail the vncle of Mordecai (which had taken her as his owne daughter) came, that shee should go in to the King, she desired nothing, but what || Hege the Kings eunuche the keeper of the women g sayde: and Ester founde fauour in the sight of all them that looked vpon her.
16 ¶So Ester was taken vnto King Ahashuerosh into his house royall in the tenth moneth, which is the h moneth Tebeth, in the seuenth yeere of his reigne.
17 And the King loued Ester aboue all the women, and shee founde grace and fauour in his sight more then all the virgins: so that he set the crowne of the kingdome vpon her head, and made her Queene in stead of Vashti.
18 Then the King made a great feast vnto all his princes, and his seruants, which was i the feast of Ester, and gaue rest k vnto the prouinces, and gaue gifts, according to the l power of a King.
19 And when the virgins were gathered the m second time, then Mordecai sate in the Kings gate.
20 Ester had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people, as Mordecai had charged her: for Ester did after the worde of Mordecai, as when she was nourished with him.
21 ¶In those dayes when Mordecai sate in the Kings gate, two of the Kings eunuches, Bigthan and Teresh, which kept the doore, were wroth, and sought to lay n hande on the King Ahashuerosh.
22 And the thing was knowen to Mordecai, and he tolde it vnto Queene Ester, and Ester certified the King thereof in Mordecais name: and when inquisition was made, it was found so: therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the booke of the o Chronicles before the King.

CHAP. III.

1 Haman, after hee was exalted, obtained of the King, that all the Iewes should bee put to death, because Mordecai had not done him worship as other had.

AFter these things did King Ahashuerosh promote Haman the sonne of Hammedatha the Agagite, and exalted him, and set his seate aboue all the princes that were with him.
2 And all the Kings seruants that were at the Kings gate, bowed their knees, and reuerenced Haman: for the King had so commaunded concerning him: but Mordecai a bowed not the knee, neither did reuerence.
3 Then the Kings seruants which were at the Kings gate, said vnto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the Kings commandement?
4 And albeit they spake dayly vnto him, yet he would not heare them: therefore they b tolde Haman, that they might see how Mordecais matters would stande: for he had tolde them, that hee was a Iewe.
5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not the knee vnto him, nor did reuerence vnto him, then Haman was full of wrath.
6 Now he †thought it too litle to lay hands onely on Mordecai: and because they had shewed him the people of Mordecai, Haman sought to destroy all the Iewes, that were throughout the whole kingdome of Ahashuerosh, euen the people of Mordecai.

they cast Pur (that is a lot) d before Haman, from day to day, and from moneth to moneth, vnto the twelft moneth, that is the moneth e Adar.
8 Then Haman said vnto King Ahashuerosh, There is a people scattered, and dispersed among the people in all the prouinces of thy kingdome, and their lawes are diuers from all people, and they doe not obserue the f Kings lawes: therefore it is not the Kings profite to suffer them.
9 If it please the King, let it be written that they may be destroyed, and I will † pay ten thousand talents of siluer by the handes of them that haue the charge of this businesse to bring it into the Kings treasurie.
10 Then the King tooke his ring from his hand, and gaue it vnto Haman the sonne of Hammedatha the Agagite the Iewes aduersarie.
11 And the King sayde vnto Haman, Let the siluer be thine, and the people to doe with them as it pleaseth thee.
12 Then were the Kings ‖ scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first moneth, and there was written (according to all that Haman commaunded) vnto the Kings officers, and to the captaines that were ouer euery prouince, and to the rulers of euery people, and to euery prouince, according to the writing thereof, and to euery people according to their language: in the name of King Ahashuerosh was it written, and sealed with the Kings ring.

Adar) and to spoyle them as a pray.
14 The contents of the writing was, that there shoulde be giuen a commandement in all prouin-ces, and published vnto al people, that they should be ready against the same day.
15 And the postes compelled by the Kings commandement went foorth, and the commandement was giuen in the palace at Shushan: and the King and Haman sate drinking, but the g citie of Shushan was in perplexitie.

CHAP. IIII.

5 Mordecai giueth the Queene knowledge of the cruell decree of the King against the Iewes. 16 She willeth that they pray for her.

NOwe when Mordecai perceiued all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackecloth, and ashes, and went out into the middes of the citie, and cryed with a great crye, and a bitter.
2 And he came euen before the Kings a gate, but he might not enter within the Kings gate, being clothed with sackecloth.
3 And in euery prouince, and place, whither the Kings charge and his commission came, there was great sorowe among the Iewes, and fasting, and weeping and mourning, and † many laye in sackecloth and in ashes.
4 ¶ Then Esters maydes and her eunuches came and tolde it her: therefore the Queene was very heauie, and shee sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackecloth from him, but he receiued it not.
5 Then called Ester Hatach one of the Kings eunuches, whome he † had appointed to serue her, and gaue him a commaundement vnto Mordecai, to knowe what it was, and why it was,
6 So Hatach went foorth to Mordecai vnto the streete of the citie, which was before the Kings gate.
7 And Mordecai tolde him of all that which had come vnto him, and of the † summe of the siluer that Haman had promised to pay vnto the Kings treasures, because of the Iewes, for to destroy them.
8 Also he gaue him the ‖ copy of the writing and commission that was giuen at Shushan, to destroy them, that he might shewe it vnto Ester and declare it vnto her, and to charge her that shee should goe in to the King, and make petition and supplication before him for her people.
9 ¶ So when Hatach came, he told Ester the wordes of Mordecai.
10 Then Ester sayde vnto Hatach, and commaunded him to say vnto Mordecai, 11 All the Kings seruants and the people of the Kings prouinces doe knowe, that whosoeuer, man or woman, that commeth to the King into the inner court, which is not called, there is a law of his, that he shall die, except him to whome the King holdeth out the golden rodde, that he may liue. Now I haue not beene called to come vnto the King these thirtie dayes.
12 And they certified Mordecai of Esters wordes.
13 And Mordecai saide, that they should an-swere Ester thus, Thinke not with thy selfe that thou shalt escape in the Kings house, more then all the Iewes.
14 For if thou holdest thy peace at this time, † comfort and deliuerance b shall appeare to the Iewes out of another place, but thou and thy fathers house shall perish: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdome for c such a time?
15 Then Ester commanded to answere Mordecai, 16 Goe, and assemble all the Iewes that are found in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and eate not, nor drinke in three dayes, day nor night. I also and my maydes will fast likewise, and so will I goe in to the King, which is not according to the law:
and if I perish, d I perish.
17 So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Ester had commanded him.

CHAP. V.

1 Ester entreth in to the King, and biddeth him and Haman to a feast. 14 Haman prepareth a galowe for Mordecai.

ANd on the third a day Ester put on her royall apparell, and stoode in the court of the Kings palace within, ouer against the Kings house: and the King sate vpon his royall throne in the Kinges palace ouer against the gate of the house.
2 And when the King saw Ester the Queene standing in the court, she found fauour in his sight:
and the King b helde out the golden scepter that was in his hand: so Ester drew neere, and touched the top of the scepter.
3 Then saide the King vnto her, What wilt thou, Queene Ester? & what is thy request? it shall be euen giuen c thee to the halfe of the kingdome.
4 Then saide Ester, If it please the King, let the King & Haman come this day vnto the ban-ket, that I haue prepared for him.

a To wit, after that the Iewes had begun to fast.
b Which was a signe that her comming was agreeable vnto him, as Chap. 4. 11.
c Meaning hereby, that whatsoeuer shee asked, should be granted, as Mar. 6. 23.

5 And the King sayde, Cause Haman to make haste that he may doe as Ester hath sayde. So the King and Haman came to the banket that Ester had prepared.
6 And the King sayde vnto Ester at the ban-ket of d wine, What is thy petition, that it may be giuen thee? and what is thy request? it shall euen be performed vnto the halfe of the kingdome.

d Because they vsed to drinke excessiuely in their bankets, they called the banket by the name of that, which was most in vse or esteemed.

7 Then answered Ester, and sayde, My petition and request is,
8 If I haue founde fauour in the sight of the King, and if it please the King to giue me my petition, and to perfourme my request, let the King and Haman come to the banket that I shall prepare for them, and I will doe to morowe according to the Kings e saying.

e I will declare what thing I demaund.

9 ¶ Then went Haman foorth the same day ioyfull and with a glad heart. But when Haman sawe Mordecai in the Kings gate, that hee stoode not vp, nor mooued for him, then was Haman full of indignation at Mordecai.
10 Neuerthelesse Haman refrained himselfe: and when he came home, hee sent, and called for his friendes, and Zeresh his wife.
11 And Haman tolde them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the King had f promoted him, and how that he had set him aboue the princes and seruants of the King.

f Thus the wicked when they are promoted, in stead of acknowledging their charge and humbling themselues, waxe ambitious, disdainefull, and cruell.

12 Haman sayde moreouer, Yea, Ester the Queene did let no man come in with the King to the banket that she had prepared, saue me: and to morowe am I bidden vnto her also with the King.
13 But all this doth nothing auaile me, as long as I see Mordecai the Iew sitting at the kings gate.
14 Then sayde Zeresh his wife and all his friendes vnto him, Let them make a tree of fiftie g cubites hie, and to morowe speake thou vnto the King, that Mordecai may be hanged thereon:
then shalt thou goe ioyfully with the King vnto the banket. And the thing pleased Haman, and he caused to make the tree.

g Meaning, the highest that coulde be found.

3 Then the King sayd, What honour and dignitie hath bene giuen to Mordecai a for this? And the Kings seruants that ministred vnto him, sayde, There is nothing done for him.

a For he thought it vnworthie his estate to receiue a benefite, and not reward it.

4 And the King sayde, Who is in the court?
(Nowe Haman was come into the inner court of the Kings house, that hee might speake vnto the King to b hang Mordecai on the tree that hee had prepared for him.)
5 And the Kings seruants saide vnto him, Be-holde, Haman standeth in the court. And the King sayde, Let him come in.

b Thus while the wicked imagine the destruction of others, they themselues fall into the same pit.

6 And when Haman came in, the King saide vnto him, What shalbe done vnto ẏ man, whome the King will honour? Then Haman thought in his heart, To whome would the King doe honour more then to me?
7 And Haman answered the King, The man whome the King would honour, 8 Let them bring for him royall apparell, which the King vseth to weare, and the c horse that the King rideth vpon, and that the crowne royall may be set vpon his head.

c Meaning hereby that the King should make him next vnto himself, as Ioseph hereby was knowen to be next to Pharaoh, Gen.41.43.

9 And let the raiment and the horse bee deli-uered by ẏ hande of one of the Kings most noble princes, & let them apparell the man (whome the King will honour) and cause him to ride vpon the horse thorow the streete of the citie, and proclaime before him, Thus shall it bee done vnto the man, whome the King will honour.
10 Then the King said to Haman, Make haste, take the rayment and the horse as thou hast saide, and doe so vnto Mordecai the Iewe, that sitteth at the Kings gate: let nothing fayle of all that thou hast spoken.
11 So Haman tooke the rayment & the horse, and arayed Mordecai, and brought him on horse backe thorowe the streete of the citie, and proclaymed before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the King will honour.
12 And Mordecai came againe to the Kinges gate, but Haman hasted home mourning and his head couered.
13 And Haman tolde Zeresh his wife, and all his friends all that had befallen him. Then said his wise men, and Zeresh his wife vnto him, If Morde-cai be of the seed of the Iewes, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not preuaile against him, d but shalt surely fall before him.
14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the Kings eunuches and hasted to bring Haman vnto the banket that Ester had prepared.

d Thus God sometime putteth in the mouth of the very wicked, to speake that thing, which he hath decreed shall come to passe.

CHAP. VII.

3 The Queene biddeth the King and Haman againe and prayeth for her selfe and her people. 6 She accuseth Haman, and he is hanged on the galous, which he had prepared for Mordecai.

SO the King and Haman came to banket with the Queene Ester.
2 And the King said againe vnto Ester on the second day at the banket of a wine, What is thy petition, Queene Ester, that it may be giuen thee?
and what is thy request? It shall be euen perfourmed vnto the halfe of the kingdome.

a Reade Chap. 5.6.

3 And Ester the Queene answered, and said, If I haue found fauour in thy sight, O King, and if it please the King, let my life be giuen me at my petition, and my people at my request.
4 For we are solde, I, and my people, to be destroyed, to be slaine and to perish: but if we were solde for seruants, and for handmaides, I woulde haue helde my tongue: although the aduersarie could not b recompence the Kings losse.

b Haman could not so much profit the King by this his malice, as he should hinder him by the losse of the Iewes, and the tribute which he hath of them.

5 Then King Ahashuerosh answered, and said vnto the Queene Ester, Who is he? and where is he that † presumeth to doe thus?

† Ebr. filleth his heart.

6 And Ester said, The aduersarie and enemie is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraide before the King and the Queene.
7 And the King arose from ẏ banket of wine in his wrath, and went into the palace garden: but Haman stood vp, to make request for his life to the Queene Ester: for hee sawe that there was a c mischiefe prepared for him of the King.

c His conscience did accuse him that as he had conspired the death of innocents, so the vengeance of God might fall vpon him for the same.

8 And when the King came againe out of the palace garden, into the house where they dranke wine, Haman was d fallen vpon the bed where-

d He fell downe at the beds feete or couche, whereupon she sate, and made request for his life.

whereon Ester sate: therefore the King sayde, Will he force the Queene also before me in the house?
As the worde went out of the Kings mouth, they e couered Hamans face.

e This was the maner of the Persians, when one was out of the Kings fauour.

9 And Harbonah one of the eunuches, sayde in the presence of the King, Beholde, there stan-deth yet the tree in Hamans house fiftie cubites hie, which Haman had prepared for Mordecai, that spake f good for the King. Then the King sayd, Hang him thereon.

f Which discouered the conspiracie against the King, Chap. 2. 21, 22.

10 So they hanged Haman on the tree, that he had prepared for Mordecai: then was the Kings wrath pacified.

CHAP. VIII.

1 After the death of Haman was Mordecai exalted. 14 Comfortable letters are sent vnto the Iewes.

THe same day did King Ahashuerosh giue the house of Haman the aduersarie of the Iewes vnto the Queene Ester. and Mordecai a came before the King: for Ester tolde what hee was b vnto her.

a That is, was receiued into the Kings fauour and presence.
b That he was her vncle, and had brought her vp.

2 And the King tooke off his ring, which hee had taken from Haman, and gaue it vnto Morde-cai: and Ester set Mordecai ouer the house of Haman.

3 And Ester spake yet more before the King, and fell downe at his feete weeping, & besought him that hee would put away the c wickednesse of Haman the Agagite, and his deuice that hee had imagined against the Iewes.

c Meaning, that he should abolish the wicked decrees, which he had made for the destruction of the Iewes.

4 And the King held out the golden d scepter toward Ester. Then arose Ester, and stoode before the King,

d Reade Chap. 5. 2.

5 And sayd, If it please the King, and if I haue found fauour in his sight, and the thing be acceptable before the King, and I please him, let it bee written, that the letters of the deuice of Haman the sonne of Ammedatha the Agagite may be called againe, which hee wrote to destroy the Iewes, that are in all the Kings prouinces.

6 For howe can I suffer and see the euil, that shall come vnto my people? Or howe can I suffer and see the destruction of my kinred?

7 And the King Ahashuerosh sayde vnto the Queene Ester, and to Mordecai the Iewe, Behold, I haue giuen Ester the house of Haman, whome they haue hanged vpon the tree, because he ‖ layde hand vpon the Iewes.

‖ Or, went about to slay the Iewes.

8 Write yee also for the Iewes, as it liketh you in the Kings name, and seale it with the Kings ring (for the writings written in the Kings name, and sealed with the Kings ring, may no e man reuoke)

e This was the law of the Medes and Persians, as Dan. 6. 15: notwithstanding the King reuoked the former decree graunted to Haman, for Esters sake.

9 Then were the Kings Scribes called at the same time, euen in the thirde moneth, that is the moneth f Siuan, on the three and twentieth day thereof: and it was written, according to all as Mordecai commanded, vnto the Iewes and to the princes, and captaines and rulers of the prouinces, which were from India euen vnto Ethiopia, an hundreth and seuen and twentie prouinces, vnto euery prouince, according to the g writing thereof, and to euery people after their speache, and to the Iewes, according to their writing, and according to their language.

f Which conteineth part of May and part of Iune.
g That is, in such letters and language, as was vsual in euery prouince.

10 And hee wrote in the king Ahashuerosh name, and sealed it with the kings ring: and hee sent letters by postes on horsebacke and that rode on beastes of price, as dromedaries and ‖ coltes of mares.

‖ Or, mules.

11 Wherein the King graunted the Iewes (in what cities so euer they were) to gather themselues together, and to stand for h their life, & to roote out, to slay & to destroy all the power of the people & of the prouince that vexed them, both children and women, and to spoyle their goods:

h That is to defend themselues against all that would assaile them.

12 Vpon one day in all the prouinces of King Ahashuerosh, euen in the thirteenth day of the twelft moneth, which is the moneth i Adar.

i Which hath part of Februarie and part of March.

13 The copie of the writing was, howe there should be a commandement giuen in all & euery prouince, published among all the people, & that the Iewes should be ready against that day to k auenge themselues on their enemies.

k The King gaue them libertie to kill all that did oppresse them.

14 So the postes rode vpon beasts of price, and dromedaries, & went forth with speede, to execute the Kings commaundement, and the decree was giuen at Shushan the palace.

15 And Mordecai went out from the King in royall apparell of blewe, and white, and with a great crowne of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple, and the citie of Shushan reioy-ced and was glad.

16 And vnto the Iewes was come light and l ioy and gladnes, and honour.

l He sheweth by these wordes that follow, what this light was.

17 Also in all and euery prouince, and in all & euery citie & place, where the Kings commandement and his decree came, there was ioy and glad-nes to the Iewes, a feast and good day, and many of the people of the land m became Iewes: for the feare of the Iewes fell vpon them.

m Conformed themselues to the Iewes religion.

CHAP IX.

1 At the commandement of the King the Iewes put their aduersaries to death. 14 The ten sonnes of Haman are hanged. 17 The Iewes keepe a feast in remembrance of their deliuerance.

SO in the twelfth moneth, which is the moneth Adar, vpon the thirteenth daye of the same, when the Kings commandement and his decree drew neere to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Iewes hoped to haue power ouer them (but it a turned contrary: for the Iewes had rule ouer them that hated them)

a This was by Gods great prouidence, who turneth the ioy of the wicked into sorowe, & the teares of the godly into gladnes.

2 The Iewes gathered themselues together into their cities throughout all the prouinces of the King Ahashuerosh, to lay hande on such as sought their hurt, and no man coulde withstande them: for the feare of them fel vpon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the prouinces, and the princes and the captaines, and the officers of the King b exalted the Iewes: for the feare of Morde-cai fell vpon them.

b Did them honour, and shewed them friendship.

4 For Mordecai was great in the kings house, and the report of him went through all the prouinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Iewes smote all their c enemies with strokes of the sworde and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they woulde vnto those that hated them.

c Which had conspired their death by the permission of the wicked Haman.

6 And at Shushan the palace slewe the Iewes and destroyed d fiue hundreth men, d Besides those three hundreth, that they slew the second day, as verse 15.

7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

8 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vaiezatha,

10 The ten sonnes of Haman, ẏ sonne of Am-medatha, the aduersarie of the Iewes slew they:
but they layd not their hands e on the spoyle.

e Whereby they declared that this was Gods iust iudgement vpon the enemies of his Church, forasmuch as they sought not their owne gaine, but to execute his vengeance.

11 On the same day came ẏ nomber of those that that were slaine, vnto the palace of Shushan before

the King.
12 And the King sayd vnto the Queene Ester, The Iewes haue slayne in Shushan the palace and destroyed fiue hundreth men, & the ten sonnes of Haman: what haue they done in the rest of the Kings prouinces? and what is thy petition, that it may be giuen thee? or what is thy request more-ouer, that it may be performed?
13 Then sayd Ester, If it please the King, let it be granted also to morrow to the Iewes that are in Shushan, to do according [f] vnto this daies decree, ỳ they may hang vpon ỳ tree Hamans ten sonnes.

f This she requireth, not for desire of vengeance, but with zeale to see Gods iudgements executed against his enemies.

14 And the King charged to doe so, and the decree was giuen at Shushan, and they hanged Ha-mans ten sonnes.
15 ¶ So the Iewes that were in Shushan, assembled themselues vpon the fourteenth day of the moneth Adar, & slew three hundreth men in Shushan, but on the spoyle they layd not their hand.
16 And the rest of the Iewes that were in the Kings prouinces assembled themselues, and stood for [g] their liues, and had rest from their enemies, and slewe of them that hated them, [h] seuentie and fiue thousand: but the layd not their hand on the spoyle.

g Reade Chap. 8.11.
h Meaning, that they layd hands on none, that were not the enemies of God.

17 This they did on the [i] thirteenth day of the moneth Adar, and rested the fourteenth day ther-of, and kept it a day of feasting and ioy.

i Meaning, in all places sauing in Shushan.

18 But the Iewes that were in Shushan assembled themselues on the thirteenth day, and on the fourteenth therof, and they rested on the fifteenth of the same, and kept it a day of feasting and ioy.
19 Therefore the Iewes of the villages that dwelt in the vnwalled townes, [k] kept the foure-teenth day of the moneth Adar with ioy and feasting, euen a ioyfull day, and euery one sent presents vnto his neighbour.

k As the Iewes do euen to this day, calling it in the Persians language Purim, that is, the day of lots.

20 ¶ And Mordecai wrote [l] these words, and sent letters vnto all the Iewes that were through all the prouinces of the King Ahashuerosh, both neere and farre,
21 Inioyning them that they shoulde keepe the fourteenth day of the moneth Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, euery yeere.

l The Iewes gather hereof that Mordecai wrote this storie, but it seemeth that he wrote but onely these letters, & decrees that followe.

22 According to the dayes wherein the Iewes rested from their enemies, and the moneth which was turned vnto them from sorowe to ioy, and from mourning into a ioyfull day, to keepe them the dayes of feasting, and ioy, and [m] to sende presents euery man to his neyghbour, and giftes to the poore.
23 And the Iewes promised to doe as they had

m He setteth before our eyes the vse of this feast, which was for the remembrance of Gods deliuerance, the maintenance of mutual friendship, and reliefe of the poore.

begun, and as Mordecai had written vnto them, 24 Because Haman the sonne of Hammedatha the Agagite al the Iewes aduersarie, had imagined against the Iewes, to destroy them, and had [n] cast Pur (that is a lot) to consume and destroy them.
25 And when [o] she came before the King, hee commaunded by letters, Let this wicked [p] deuise (which he imagined against the Iewes) turne vpon his own head, & let them hang him and his sonnes on the tree.

n Reade Chap. 3.7.
o That is, Ester.
p These are the words of the kings commandement to disanul Hamans wicked enterprise.

26 Therfore they called these dayes Purim, by the name of Pur, and because of all the wordes of this letter, and of that which they had seene besides this, and of that which had come vnto them.
27 The Iewes also ordeined, and promised for them and for their seede, and for all that ioyned vnto them, that they woulde not ‖ faile to obserue those [q] two dayes euery yeere, according to their writing, and according to their season,

‖ Or, transgresse.
q Meaning, the fourteenth and the fifteenth day of the moneth Adar.

28 And that these dayes shoulde bee remem-bred, and kept throughout euery generation and euery familie, and euery prouince, and euery citie:
euen these daies of Purim should not faile among the Iewes, and the memoriall of them should not perish from their seede.
29 And the Queene Ester the daughter of Abihail & Mordecai the Iew wrote with all ‖ authori-tie (to cōfirme this letter of Purim the second time)

‖ Or, strength, efficacie.

30 And he sent letters vnto all the Iewes to the hundreth and seuen and twentie prouinces of the kingdome of Ahashuerosh, with [r] words of peace and trueth,
31 To confirme these dayes of Purim, according to their seasons, as Mordecai the Iewe and Ester the Queene had appointed them, & as they had promised for them † selues and for their seede with [s] fasting and prayer.
32 And the decree of Ester confirmed these words of Purim, and was written in the booke.

r Which were letters declaring vnto them quietnes, & assurance, & putting them out of doubt & feare.
† Ebr. soules.
s That they would obserue this feast with fasting and earnest prayer, which in Ebrew is signified by this word (their cry)

CHAP. X.

The estimation and authoritie of Mordecai.

AND the King Ahashuerosh layde a tribute vp-on the land, and vpon the yles of the sea.
2 And all the actes of his power, and of his might, and the declaration of the dignitie of Mordecai, wherewith the King magnified him, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the the Kings of Media and Persia?
3 For Mordecai the Iewe was the second vnto King Ahashuerosh, & great among the Iewes, and [a] accepted among the multitude of his brethren, who procured the wealth of his people, and spake peaceably to all his seede.

a These three poyntes are here set forth as commendable, & necessary for him, that is in authoritie: to haue the fauour of the people, to procure their wealth, & to be gentle, & louing toward them.

IOB.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN this historie is set before our eyes the example of a singular patience. For this holy man Iob was not onely extremely afflicted in outwarde things and in his body, also in his minde and conscience, by the sharpe tentations of his wife, and chiefe friendes: which by their vehement wordes, and subtill disputations brought him almost to despaire: for they set forth God as a seuere Iudge, and mortall enemie vnto him, which had cast him off, therefore in vaine he should seeke vnto him for succour. These friendes came vnto him vnder pretence of consolation, and yet they tormented him more then did all his affliction. Notwithstanding he did constantly resist them, & at length had good successe. In this story we haue to marke that Iob maintaineth a good cause, but handleth it euill: againe his aduersaries haue an euill matter, but they defend it craftily. For Iob held that God did not alway punish men according to their sinnes, but that he had secrete iudgements, whereof man knewe not the cause, and therefore man could not reason against God therein, but he shoulde be conuicted. Moreouer, he was assured that God had not reiected him, yet through his great torments, and affliction he brasteth forth into many inconueniences both of wordes and sentences, sentences, and sheweth himselfe as a desperate man in many things, and as one that woulde resist God: and this is his good cause which hee doth not handle well. Againe the aduersaries maintaine with many goodly arguments, that God punisheth continually according to the trespasse, grounding vpon Gods prouidence, his iustice, and mans sinnes, yet their intention is euill: for they labour to bring Job into despaire, and so they mainteine an euill cause. Ezekiel commendeth Job as a iust man, Ezek.14.14. and Iames setteth out his patience for an example, Iam.5.11.

CHAP. I.

1 The holinesse, riches, and care of Job for his children. 10 Satan hath permission to tempt him. 13 Hee tempteth him by taking away his substance, and his children. 20 His faith and patience.

THere was a man in the lande of [a] Vz called Iob, and this man [b] was an vpright and iust man, [c] one that feared God, and eschewed euill.

2 And he had seuen sonnes, & three daughters.

3 His [d] substance also was seuen thousande sheepe, and three thousand camels, and fiue hundreth yoke of oxen, and fiue hundreth shee asses, and his familie was very great, so that this man was the greatest of all the † men of [e] the East.

4 And his sonnes went and banketted in their houses, euery one his day, and sent, and called their three sisters to eate and drinke with them.

5 And when the dayes of their banketting were gone about, Iob sent, and [f] sanctified them, and rose vp earely in the morning, and [g] offered burnt offrings according to the nomber of them all. For Iob thought, It may be that my sonnes haue sinned, and [h] blasphemed God in their hearts: thus did Iob [i] euery day.

6 ¶ Nowe on a day when the [k] children of God came and stoode [l] before the Lorde, Satan [m] came also among them.

7 Then the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, Whence [n] commest thou? And Satan answered the Lorde, saying, [o] From compassing the earth to and fro, and from walking in it.

8 And the Lord saide vnto Satan, Hast thou not considered my seruant Iob, howe none is like him in the earth? an vpright and iust man, one that feareth God, and escheweth euill?

9 Then Satan answered the Lorde, and sayd, Doeth Iob feare God for [p] nought?

10 Hast thou not made [q] an hedge about him and about his house, and about all that he hath on euery side? thou hast blessed the worke of his hands, and his substance is inrcaeased in the land.

11 But stretch out now thine hand & [r] touch all that he hath, to see if he wil not blaspheme thee to [s] thy face.

12 Then the Lorde sayde vnto Satan, Lo, all that he hath is in [t] thine hande: onely vpon himselfe shalt thou not stretch out thine hand. So Satan departed from the [u] presence of the Lord.

13 ¶ And on a day, when his sonnes and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house,

14 There came a messenger vnto Iob, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding in their places,

15 And the [x] Shabeans came violently, and tooke them: yea, they haue slayne the seruants with the edge of the sworde: but I onely am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 And whiles hee was yet speaking, another came, and sayde, The [y] fire of God is fallen from the heauen, and hath burnt vp the sheepe and the seruants, and deuoured them: but I onely am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 And whiles he was yet speaking, another came, and said, The Caldeans set out three bands, and fell vpon the camels, and haue taken them, and haue slaine the seruants with the edge of the sworde: but I onely am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 And whiles hee was yet speaking, came another, and sayd, Thy [z] sonnes, and thy daughters were eating, and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house, 19 And behold, there came a great winde from beyond the wildernesse, and smote the foure corners of the house, which fell vpon the children, and they are dead, and I onely am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Iob arose, and [a] rent his garment, and shaued his head, and fell downe vpon the ground, and worshipped, 21 And saide, *Naked came I out of my mothers wombe, and naked shall I returne [b] thither: the Lord hath giuen, and the Lord hath taken it: [c] blessed be the Name of the Lord.

22 In all this did not Iob sinne, nor charge God [d] foolishly.

a That is, of the countrey of Idumea, as Lamen 4.21. or bordering thereupon: for the land was called by the name of Vz the sonne of Dishan the sonne of Seir, Gen.36.28.
b Forasmuch as he was a Gentile, and not a Iewe, and yet is pronounced vpright, and without hypocrisie, it declareth that among the heathen God hath his.
c Hereby is declared, what is meant by an vpright and iust man.
d His children and riches are declared, to commend his vertue in his prosperitie, and his patience, and constancie, when God had taken them from him.
† Ebr. children.
e Meaning, the Arabians, Chaldeans, Idumeans, &c. f That is, commaunded them to be sanctified: meaning, that they shoulde consider the faultes, that they had committed, and reconcile themselues for the same.
g That is, he offred for euery one of his children an offring of reconciliation, which declared his religion towarde God, and the care that hee had towarde his children.
h In Ebrewe it is, and blessed God, which is sometime taken for blaspheming and cursing, as heere, and 1.King.21.10 and 13.&c. i While the feast lasted.
k Meaning, the Angels which are called the sonnes of God, because they are willing to execute his will.
l Because our infirmitie cannot comprehende God in his maiestie, hee is set forth vnto vs as a King, that our capacitie may bee able to vnderstande that which is spoken of him.
m This declareth that although Satan bee aduersary to God, yet hee is compelled to obey him, and doe him all homage, without whose permission and appoyntment hee can doe nothing.
n This question is asked for our infirmitie: for God knewe whence hee came.
o Herein is described the nature of Satan, which is euer ranging for his pray, 1 Pet.5.8.
p Hee feareth thee not for thine owne sake, but for the commoditie that hee receiueth by thee.
q Meaning, the graces of God, which serued Iob, as a rampart against all tentations.
r This signifieth, that Satan is not able to touche vs, but it is God that must doe it. s Satan noteth the vice, whereunto men are commonly subiect: that is, to hide their rebellion, and to bee content with God in the time of prosperitie, which vice is disclosed in the time of their aduersitie.

t God giueth not Satan power ouer man to gratifie him, but to declare that he hath no power ouer man, but that which God giueth him.
u That is, went to execute that which God had permitted him to doe: for else hee can neuer goe out of Gods presence.
x That is, the Arabians.
y Which thing was also done by the craft of Satan, to tempt Iob the more grieuously, for as much as he might see, that not onely men were his enemies, but that God made warre against him.
z This last plague declareth that when one plague is past which seemeth hard to be borne, God can send vs another farre more grieuous, to trie his, and teach them obedience.
a Which came not [illegible] declareth that the children of God are not insensible like blockes, but that in their patience they feele affliction, and griefe of minde: yet they keepe a meane herein, and rebell not against God, as the wicked doe. *Eccle.5.14. 1.tim.6.7.
b That is, into the bellie of the earth, which is the mother of all.
c Hereby he confesseth that God is iust, and good, although his hand be sore vpon him.
d But declared that God did all things according to iustice and equitie.

CHAP. II.

6 Satan hath permision to afflict Job. 9 His wife tempteth him to forsake God. 11 His three friends visite him.

ANd on a day the [a] children of God came and stood before the Lord, and [b] Satan came also among them, and stood before the Lord.

2 Then the Lorde sayd vnto Satan, Whence commest thou? And Satan answered the Lord, and said, From compassing the earth to and fro, and from walking in it.

3 And the Lord saide vnto Satan, Hast thou not considered my seruant Iob, howe none is like him in the earth? * an vpright and iust man, one that feareth God, and escheweth euill? for yet he continueth in his vprightnesse, [c] although thou mouedst me against him, to destroy [d] him without cause.

c He proueth Iobs integritie by this that he ceased not to feare God when his plagues were grieuously vpon him.
d That is, when thou hadst nought against him, or when thou wast not able to bring thy purpose to passe.

4 And Satan answered the Lorde, and sayde, e Skin for skin, and all that euer a man hath, will he giue for his life.
5 But stretch nowe out thine hand, and touch his f bones and his flesh, to see if he will not blaspheme thee to thy face.
6 Then the Lord sayde vnto Satan, Loe, he is in thine hand, but saue g his life.
7 ¶ So Satan departed from the presence of the Lord, and smote Iob with sore h boyles, from the sole of his foote vnto his crowne.
8 And he tooke a i potshard to scrape him, and he sate downe among the ashes.
9 Then saide his k wife vnto him, Doest thou l continue yet in thine vprightnesse? m Blaspheme God, and dye.
10 But he sayde vnto her, Thou speakest like a foolish woman: what? shall we receiue good at the hand of God, and not n receiue euill? In all this did not Iob sinne with his o lippes.
11 Nowe when Iobs three p friendes heard of all this euill that was come vpon him, they came euery one from his owne place, to wit, Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zo-phar the Naamathite: for they were agreed together to come to lament with him, and to comfort him.
12 So when they lift vp their eyes a farre off, they knewe him not: therefore they lift vp their voyces and wept, and euery one of them rent his garment, and sprinkled q dust vpon their heads toward the heauen.
13 So they sate by him vpon the grounde seuen dayes, and seuen nights, and none spake a worde vnto him: for they sawe, that the griefe was very r great.

e Hereby he meant that a mans owne skin is dearer vnto him then another mans.
f Meaning, his owne person.
g Thus Satan can goe no further in punishing, then God hath limitted him.
h This sore was most vehement, wherewith also God plagued the Egyptians, Exod. 9. 9. and threatneth to punish the rebellious people, Deuter. 28. 27. so that this tentation was most grieuous: for if Iob had measured Gods fauour by the vehemencie of his disease, he might haue thought that God had cast him off.
i As destitute of all other helpe and meanes, and wonderfully afflicted with the sorowe of his disease.
k Satan vseth the same instrument against Iob, as he did against Adam. l Meaning, what gainest thou to serue God, seeing he thus plagueth thee as though hee were thine enemie? This is the most grieuous tentation of the faithfull, when their faith is assailed and when Satan goeth about to perswade them, that they trust in God in vaine. m For death was appoynted to the blasphemer, and so shee meant that hee shoulde bee soone ridde out of his payne. n That is, to bee patient in aduersitie, as wee reioyce, when hee sendeth prosperitie, and so to acknowledge him to bee both mercifull and iust. o Hee so bridled his affections, that his tongue through impaciencie did not murmure against God. p Which were men of authoritie, wise and learned, and as the Septuagint write, Kings, and came to comfort him, but when they sawe howe he was visited, they conceiued an euill opinion of him, as though hee had bene but an hypocrite, and so iustly plagued of God for his sinnes. q This was also a ceremonie, which they vsed in those countreys, as the renting of their clothes in signe of sorowe, &c. r And therefore thought that he would not haue hearkened to their counsell.

CHAP. III.

1 Iob complayneth and curseth the day of his birth. 11 Hee desireth to dye, as though death were the ende of all mans miserie.

Afterward a Iob opened his mouth, and b cursed his day.
2 And Iob cryed out, and sayd,
3 Let the day c perish, wherein I was borne, and the night when it was sayde, There is a man childe conceiued.
4 Let that day bee darkenesse, let not God d regard it from aboue, neyther let the light shine vpon it,
5 But let darkenesse, and the e shadowe of death staine it: let the cloude remayne vpon it, and let them make it fearefull as a bitter day.
6 Let darkenesse possesse that night, let it not be ioyned vnto the dayes of the yeere, nor let it come into the count of the moneths.
7 Yea, desolate bee that night, and let no ioy be in it.
8 Let them that curse the day, (being f readie to renue their mourning) curse it.
9 Let the starres of that twilight bee dimme through darkenesse of it: let it looke for light, but haue none: neither let it g see † the dawning of
the day,
10 Because it shut not vp the dores of my mothers wombe nor hid sorowe from mine eyes.
11 h Why died I not in the birth? or why dyed I not, when I came out of the wombe?
12 Why did the knees preuent me? and why did I sucke the breasts?
13 For so should I nowe haue i lyen and bene quiet, I should haue slept then, and bene at rest, 14 With the Kings & counselers of the earth, which haue buylded themselues k desolate places: 15 Or with the princes that had golde, and haue filled their houses with siluer.
16 Or why was I not hid, as an vntimely birth, either as infants, which haue not seene the light?
17 The wicked l haue there ceased from their tyrannie, and there they that laboured valiantly, are at rest.
18 The m prisoners rest together, and heare not the voyce of the oppressour.
19 There are small and great, and the seruant is free from his master.
20 Wherefore is the light giuen to him that is in miserie? and n life vnto them that haue heauie hearts?
21 Which long for death, and if it come not,
they would euen search it more then treasures: 22 Which ioy for gladnesse, and reioyce, when they can finde the graue.
23 Why is the light giuen to the man whose way is o hid, and whom God hath hedged in?
24 For my sighing commeth before I eate, and my roarings are powred out like the water.
25 For the thing I p feared, is come vpon me,
& the thing that I was afraid of, is come vnto me.
26 I had no peace, neither had I quietnesse, neither had I rest, q yet trouble is come.

a The seuen daies ended, Chap. 2. 13.
b Here Iob beginneth to feele his great imperfection in this battel betweene ye spirit & the flesh, Rom. 7. 18. and after a maner yeeldeth, yet in the end he getteth victorie, though he was in the meane time greatly wounded.
c Men ought not to be wearie of their life, & curse it, because of the infirmities that it is subiect vnto, but because they are giuen to sinne and rebellion against God. d Let it be put out of the nomber of dayes, and let it not haue the light of the sunne to separate it from the night. e That is, most obscure darkenesse, which maketh them afraid of death, that are in it.
f Which curse the day of their birth, let them lay that curse vpon this night.
g Let it be alwayes night, and neuer see day.
† Ebr. The eye liddes of the morning.
h This and that which followeth, declareth that when man giueth place to his passions, hee is not able to stay nor keepe measure, but runneth headlong into all euill, except God call him backe.
i The vehemencie of his afflictions made him to vtter these words, as though death were the end of all miseries, & as if there were no life after this, which he speaketh not as though it were so, but the infirmities of his flesh caused him to brast out into this errour of the wicked.
k He noteth the ambition of them, which for their pleasure, as it were, change the order of nature, & build in most barren places, because they woulde hereby make their names immortall.
l That is, by death the crueltie of the tyrants hath ceased. m All they that sustaine any kinde of calamitie and miserie in this world: which he speaketh after the iudgement of the flesh. n He sheweth that the benefites of God are not comfortable, except the heart be ioyfull, and the conscience quieted. o That seeth not how to come out of his miseries, because he dependeth not on Gods prouidence. p In my prosperitie I looked euer for a fal, as is come now to passe. q The feare of troubles that should ensue, caused my prosperitie to seeme to me as nothing, and yet I am not exempted from trouble.

CHAP. IIII.

5 Iob is reprehended of impatiencie, 7 and uniustice, 17 and of the presumption of his owne righteousnesse.

Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, and
said,
2 If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieued? but a who can withholde himselfe from speaking?
3 Beholde, thou hast taught many, and b hast strengthened the wearie hands.
4 Thy wordes haue confirmed him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the weake knees.
5 But now it is come vpon thee, and thou art grieued: it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.
6 Is not this thy c feare, thy confidence, thy patience, and the vprightnesse of thy wayes?
7 Remember, I pray thee: who euer perished, being

a Seeing this thine impatiencie.
b Thou hast comforted others in their afflictions, & canst not now comfort thy selfe.
c This he concludeth that Iob was but an hypocrite, and had no true feare nor trust in God.

being an d innocent ? or where were the vpright destroyed ?
8 As I haue seene, they that e plow iniquitie, and sowe wickednesse,reape the same.
9 With the f blast of God they perish, and with the breath of his nostrels are they consumed.
10 The roaring of the g Lion, and the voyce of the Lionesse,and the teeth of the Lions whelps are broken.
11 The Lion perisheth for lacke of pray, and the Lions whelps are scattered abroad.
12 But a thing was brought to me h secretlie, and mine eare hath receiued a litle thereof.
13 In the thoughts of the visions of the night, when sleepe falleth on men, 14 Feare came vpon me, & dread which made all my bones i to tremble.
15 And the winde passed before me, and made the haires of my flesh to stand vp.
16 Then stoode one, and I knewe not his face;
an image was before mine eyes, and in k silence heard I a voyce, saying, 17 Shall man be more l iust then God? or shall a man be more pure then his maker ?
18 Beholde, he founde no stedfastnesse in his Seruants,and laid follie vpon his m Angels.
19 Howe much more in them that dwell in houses of n clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which shalbe destroyed before the moth?
20 They be destroyed from o the morning vnto the euening : they perish for euer, p without regard.
21 Doth not their dignitie go away with them?
do they not die,and that without q wisedome?

d He concludeth that Iob was reprooued,seeing that God handled him so extreemely,which is the argument that the carnall men make against the children of God. e They that doe euill,can not but receiue euill. f He sheweth that God needeth no great preparation to destroy his enemies: for he can doe it with the blast of his mouth. g Though men according to their office do not punish tyrants (whome for their crueltie he compareth to lyons, and their children to their whelpes) yet God both is able,and his iustice will punish them. h A thing that I knewe not before, was declared vnto me by vision: that is,that whosoeuer thinketh him selfe iust,shall be found a sinner, when he commeth before God. i In these visions which God sheweth to his creatures, there is euer a certaine feare ioyned, that the authoritie thereof might be had in greater reuerence. k When all things were quiet, or when the feare was somewhat asswaged, as God appeared to Eliah, 1.King.19.12. l He prooueth that if God did punish the innocent, the creature should be more iust then the Creatour, which were a blasphemie. m If God finde imperfection in his Angels, when they are not mainteined by his power, how much more shall he lay follie to mans charge, when he would iustifie himselfe against God? n That is, in this mortall bodie, subiect to corruption, 2.Cor.5.1. o They see death continually before their eyes, and dayly approching toward them. p No man for all this doth consider it. q That is,before that any of them were so wise as to thinke on death.

CHAP. V.

1. 2 Eliphaz sheweth the difference betweene the children of God and the wicked. 3 The fall of the wicked. 9 Gods power who destroyeth the wicked,and deliuereth his.

CAll nowe, if any will a answere thee, and to which of the Saints wilt thou turne?
2 Doubtlesse b anger killeth the foolish, and enuie slayeth the idiot.
3 I haue seene the c foolish well rooted, and suddenly I d cursed his habitation,saying, 4 His e children shall be farre from saluation, and they shall be destroyed in the f gate, and none shall deliuer them.
5 The hungrie shall eate vp his haruest : yea, they shall take it from among the g thornes, and the thirstie shall drinke vp their substance.
6 For miserie commeth not foorth of the dust, h neither doeth affliction spring out of the earth.
7 But man is borne vnto i trauell, as the sparks flie vpward.

a He willeth Iob to consider the example of all them that haue liued or doe liue godly,whether any of them be like vnto him in raging against God as he doeth. b Murmuring against God in afflictions increaseth the paine, and vttereth mans follie. c That is,the sinner that hath not the feare of God. d I was not moued with his prosperitie,but knew that God had cursed him and his. e Though God sometime suffer the fathers to passe in this world, yet his iudgements will light vpon their wicked children. f By publique iudgement they shall be condemned, and none shall pitie them. g Though there be but two or three eares left in the hedges, yet these shall be taken from him. h That is, the earth is not the cause of barrennesse and mans miserie, but his owne sinne. i Which declareth that sinne is euer in our corrupt nature: for before sinne it was not subiect to paine and affliction.

8 But I would inquire k at God,and turne my talke vnto God:
9 Which l doeth great things and vnsearcha-ble,and maruellous things without number.
10 He m giueth raine vpon the earth, & powreth water vpon the streets, 11 And setteth vp on hie them that be low,that the sorowfull may be exalted to saluation.
12 He scattereth the deuises of the craftie: so that their handes can not accomplish that which they doe enterprise.
13 * He taketh the wise in their craftinesse,and the counsell of the wicked is made foolish.
14 They meete with n darkenesse in the day time,and o grope at noone day,as in the night.
15 But he saueth the p poore from the sword, from their q mouth,and from the hand of the violent man,
16 So that the poore hath his hope, but iniquitie shall r stop her mouth.
17 Beholde, blessed is the man whome God correcteth : therefore refuse not thou the chastising of the Almightie.
18 For he maketh the wound, and bindeth it vp : he smiteth,and his hands make whole.
19 He shall deliuer thee in s sixe troubles, and in the seuenth the euill shall not touch thee.
20 In famine he shall deliuer thee from death :
and in battell from the power of the sword.
21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue,and thou shalt not be afraide of destruction when it commeth.
22 But thou shalt t laugh at destruction and dearth, and shalt not be afraid of the beast of the earth.
23 For the stones of the fielde u shall be in league with thee,and the beasts of the field shalbe at peace with thee.
24 And thou shalt knowe, that peace shalbe in thy tabernacle, and thou shalt visit thine habitation,and shalt not x sinne.
25 Thou shalt perceiue also , that thy seede shalbe great, and thy posteritie as the grasse of the earth.
26 Thou shalt goe to thy graue in y a full age, as a ricke of corne commeth in due season into the barne.
27 Lo, z thus haue we inquired of it, and so it is : heare this and know it for thy selfe.

k If I suffred as thou doest, I would seeke vnto God. l He counselleth Iob to humble himselfe vnto God,to whome all creatures are subiect, and whose workes declare that man is inexcusable,except he glorifie God in all his workes. m He sheweth by particular examples, what the workes of God are. * 1.Cor.3.19. n In things plaine and euident they shew themselues fooles in stead of wise men. o This declareth that God punisheth the worldly wise, as he threatned, Deut.28.29. p That is,he that humbleth himselfe before God. q He compareth the slander of the wicked to sharpe swords. r If the wicked be compelled at Gods works to stoppe their mouthes,much more they that professe God. s He will send trouble after trouble,that his children may not for one time, but continually trust in him : but they shall haue a comfortable issue,euen in the greatest and the last, which is here called the seuenth. t Where as the wicked lament in their troubles, thou shalt haue occasion to reioyce. u When we are in Gods fauour, all creatures shall serue vs. x God shall so blesse thee, that thou shalt haue occasion to reioyce in all things, and not to be offended. y Though the children of God haue not alwayes this promise perfourmed, yet God doeth recompense it otherwise to their aduantage. z We haue learned these points by experience,that God punisheth not the innocent, that man can not compare in iustice with him, that the hypocrites shall not long prosper, and that the affliction which man susteineth, commeth for his owne sinne.

CHAP. VI.

1 Iob answereth, that his paine is more grieuous then his fault. 8 He wisheth death. 14 He complaineth of his friends.

BVt Iob answered and said,
2 Oh that my griefe were well weighed, and my miseries were layed together in the a balance!
3 For it woulde be nowe heauier then the sande of the sea : therefore my wordes are b swallowed vp.
4 For the arrowes of the Almightie are in me, the venime whereof doth drinke vp my spirit, and the terrours of God c fight against me.

a To know whether I complaine without iust cause. b My griefe is so great, that I lacke words to expresse it. c Which declareth that he was not onely afflicted in bodie, but wounded in conscience, which is the greatest battell that the faithfull can haue.

5 Doeth

5 Doeth the d wilde asse bray when hee hath grasse? or loweth the oxe when he hath fodder?
6 That which is e vnsauerie, shall it be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egge?
7 Such things as my soule refused to touch, as were sorowes, are my meate.
8 Oh that I might haue my f desire, and that God would grant me the thing that I long for!
9 That is, that God woulde destroy me: that he would let his hand go, and cut me off.
10 Then should I yet haue comfort, (though I burne with sorowe, let him not spare) g because I haue not denied the words of the Holy one.
11 What power haue I that I should endure?
or what is mine h end, if I should prolong my life?
12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brasse?
13 Is it not so, that there is in me no i helpe?
and that ‖ strength is taken from me?
14 He that is in miserie, ought to be comforted of his neighbour: but men haue forsaken the feare of the Almightie.
15 My brethren haue deceiued me as a k brooke, and as the rising of the riuers they passe away.
16 Which are blackish with yce, and wherein the snowe is hid.
17 But in time they are dried vp with heate and are consumed: and when it is hote they faile out of their places, 18 Or they depart from their way and course, yea, they vanish and perish.
19 They that goe to Tema, l considered them, and they that goe to Sheba, waited for them.
20 But they were confounded: when they hoped, they came thither and were ashamed.
21 Surely nowe are ye like m vnto it: ye haue seene my fearefull plague, and are afraid.
22 Was it because I said, Bring vnto me? or giue a reward to me of your n substance?
23 And deliuer me from the enemies hand, or ransome me out of the hand of tyrants?
24 Teach me, and I will o holde my tongue: & cause me to vnderstand, wherein I haue erred.
25 Howe p stedfast are the wordes of righte-ousnes? and what can any of you iustly reproue?
26 Doe yee imagine to reproue q wordes, that the talke of the afflicted should be as the winde?
27 Ye make your wrath to fall vpon the fatherlesse, and dig a pit for your friend.
28 Now therefore be content to r looke vpon me: for I will not lie before your face.
29 Turne, I pray you, let there be none iniquitie: returne, I say, and ye shall see yet my righteousnesse in that behalfe. Is there iniquitie in my tongue? doeth not my mouth feele sorowes?

d Thinke you that I crie without cause, seeing the bruite beasts do not complaine when they haue what they would? e Can a mans taste delite in that that hath no sauour? meaning, that none take pleasure in affliction, seeing they can not away with things that are vnsauerie to the mouth. f Herein he sinneth double, both in wishing through impaciencie to die, and also in desiring of God a thing which was not agreeable to his will. g That is, let me die at once, before I come to distrust in Gods promes through mine impatiencie. h He feareth least he shoulde be brought to inconueniences, if his sorowes should continue. i Haue I not sought to helpe my selfe as much as was posible? ‖ Or, wisedome, or, law. k He compareth those friendes which comfort vs not in miserie, to a brooke, which in sommer, when we neede waters, is drie, in winter is hard frozen, and in the time of raine, when we haue no neede, ouerfloweth with water. l They that passe thereby to goe into the hote countries of Arabia, thinke to finde water there, to quench their thirst, but they are deceiued. m That is, like to this brooke, which deceiueth them, that thinke to haue water there in their neede, as I looked for consolation at your hands. n He toucheth the worldlings, which for no necessitie will giue part of their goods, and much more these men, which would not giue him comfortable words. o Shew me wherein I haue erred, and I will confesse my fault. p He that hath a good conscience, doeth not shrinke at the sharpe words or reasonings of others, except they bee able to perswade him by reason. q Doe you cauill at my words, because I should be thought to speake foolishly, which am now in miserie? r Consider whether I speake as one that is driuen to this impatiencie through very sorow, or as an hypocrite, as you condemne me.

CHAP. VII.

1 Iob sheweth the shortnesse and miserie of mans life.

IS there not an appointed time to man vpon earth? and are not his dayes as the dayes of an a hireling?
2 As a seruant longeth for the shadowe, and as an hireling looketh for the end of his worke, 3 So haue I had as an inheritance the b mo-neths of vanitie, and painefull nights haue beene appointed vnto me.
4 If I layed me downe, I sayde, When shall I arise? and measuring the euening I am euen full with tossing to and fro vnto the dawning of
the day.
5 My flesh is c clothed with wormes and fil-thinesse of the dust: my skin is rent, and become horrible.
6 My dayes are swifter then d a weauers shittle, and they are spent without hope.
7 Remember that my life is but a winde, and that mine eye shall not returne to see pleasure.
8 The eye that hath seene me, shall see mee no more: thine eyes are vpon me, and I shall be no longer.
9 e As the cloude vanisheth and goeth away, so he that goeth downe to the graue, shall f come vp no more.
10 He shall returne no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.
11 Therefore I will not g spare my mouth, but will speake in the trouble of my spirite, and muse in the bitternesse of my minde.
12 Am I a sea h or a whalefish, that thou keepest me in ward?
13 When I say, My couch shall relieue me, and my bed shall bring comfort in my meditation, 14 Then fearest thou me i with dreames, and astonishest me with visions.
15 Therefore my soule k chuseth rather to be strangled and to die, then to be in my bones.
16 I abhorre it, I shall not liue alway: l spare me then, for my dayes are but vanitie.
17 What is man, that thou m doest magnifie him, and that thou settest thine heart vpon him?
18 And doest visite him euery morning, and triest him euery moment?
19 Howe long will it be yet thou depart from me? thou wilt not let me alone whiles I may swallow my spettle.
20 I haue n sinned, what shall I do vnto thee?
O thou preseruer of men, why hast thou set me as a marke against thee, so that I am a burden vnto my selfe?
21 And why doest thou not pardon my tres-passe? and take away mine iniquitie? for nowe shall I sleepe in the dust, and if thou seekest me in the morning, I shall o not be found.

a Hath not an hired seruant some rest and ease? then in this my continuall torment I am worse then an hireling. b My sorowe hath continued from moneth to moneth, and I haue looked for hope in vaine. c This signifieth that his disease was rare and most horrible. d Thus he speketh in respect of the breuitie of mans life, which passeth without hope of returning, in consideration whereof he desireth God to haue compassion on him. e If thou beholde me in thine anger, I shall not be able to stand in thy presence. f Shall no more enioy this mortall life. g Seeing I can by none other meanes comfort my selfe, I will declare my griefe by wordes, and thus he speaketh as one ouercome with griefe of minde. h Am not I a poore wretch? what needest thou then to lay so much pain on me? i So that I can haue no rest, night nor day. k He speaketh as one ouercome with sorow, and not of iudgement, or of the examination of his faith. l Seeing my terme of life is so short, let me haue some rest and ease. m Seeing that man of himselfe is so vile, why doest thou giue him that honour to contend against him? Iob vseth all kindes of persuasion with God, that he might stay his hand. n After all tentations faith brasteth forth, & leadeth Iob to repentance: yet it was not in such perfection, that he could bridle himselfe from reasoning with God, because that he still tryed his faith. o That is, I shall be dead.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Bildad sheweth that Iob is a sinner, because God punisheth the wicked and preserueth the good.

THen answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,
2 Howe long wilt thou talke of these things? & how long shall the words of thy mouth a be as a mightie winde?
3 Doeth God peruert iudgement? or doeth the Almightie subuert iustice?
4 If thy sonnes haue sinned against him, and he hath sent them into the place of their b iniquitie,

a He declareth that their words, which woulde diminish any thing from the iustice of God, is but as a puffe of winde that vanisheth away. b That is, hath rewarded them according to their iniquitie: meaning that Iob ought to be warned by the example of his children, that he offend not God.

5 Yet

5 Yet if thou ᵉ wilt earely seeke vnto God, and pray to the Almightie, 6 If thou be pure and vpright, then surely he will awake vp vnto thee, and he will make the habitation of thy righteousnesse prosperous.
7 And though thy beginning ᵈ be small, yet thy latter ende shall greatly encrease.
8 ᵉ Inquire therefore, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thy selfe to search of their fathers.
9 (For we are but ᶠ of yesterday, and are ignorant: for our dayes vpon earth are but a shadow) 10 Shall not they teach thee and tell thee, and vtter the wordes of their heart?
11 Can a rush ᵍ growe without myre? or can the grasse growe without water?
12 Though it were in greene and not cutte downe, yet shall it wither before any other herbe.
13 So are the paths of all that forget God, and the hypocrites hope shall perish.
14 His confidence also shalbe cut off, and his trust shalbe as the house of a ʰ spyder.
15 He shall leane vpon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall holde him fast by it, yet shall it not endure.
16 The ⁱ tree is greene before the sunne, and the branches spread ouer the garden thereof.
17 The rootes thereof are wrapped about the fountaine, & are folden about the house of stones.
18 If any plucke it from his place, and it ᵏ denie, saying, I haue not seene thee, 19 Beholde, it will reioyce ˡ by this meanes, that it may growe in another molde.
20 Behold, God will not cast away an vpright man, neither will he take the wicked by the hand, 21 Till he haue filled thy mouth with ᵐ laughter, and thy lippes with ioy.
22 They that hate thee, shall be clothed with shame, and the dwelling of the wicked shall not remaine.

c That is, thou turne betime whiles God calleth thee to repentance.
d Though the beginnings be not so pleasant, as thou wouldest desire, yet in the ende thou shalt haue sufficient occasion to content thy selfe.
e He willeth Iob to examine al antiquitie, and he shall finde it true which he here saith.
f Meaning, that it is not ynough to haue the experience of our selues, but to be confirmed by the examples of them that went before vs.
g As a rush cannot growe without moystnesse, so can not the hypocrite, because he hath not faith, which is moistened with Gods Spirit.
h Which is to day, and to morowe swept away.
i He compareth the iust to a tree, which although it be remoued out of one place vnto another, yet florisheth: so the affliction of the godly turneth to their profite.
k That is, so that there remaine nothing there to proue whether the tree had growen there or no. l To be planted in another place, where it may growe at pleasure. m If thou be godly, hee will giue thee occasion to reioyce, and if not, thine affliction shall increase.

CHAP. IX.

1 Iob declareth the mightie power of God, and that mans righteousnesse is nothing.

THen Iob answered, and sayd,
2 I knowe verilie that it is so: for howe should man compared to God be ᵃ iustified?
3 If he would dispute with him, he could not answere him one thing of a ᵇ thousand.
4 He is wise in heart, & mighty in strength: who hath bene fierce against him and hath prospered?
5 He remoueth the mountaines, and they feele not when he ouerthroweth them in his wrath.
6 He ᶜ remooueth the earth out of her place, that the pillars thereof doe shake.
7 He commandeth the sunne, and it riseth not:
he closeth vp the starres, as vnder a signet.
8 Hee himselfe alone spreadeth out the hea-uens, and walketh vpon the height of the sea.
9 He maketh the starres ᵈ Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the climates of the South.
10 Hee doth great things, and vnsearcheable:
yea, marueilous things without nomber.
11 Lo, when he goeth ᵉ by me, I see him not:
and when he passeth by, I perceiue him not.
12 Beholde, when he taketh a pray, ᶠ who can make him to restore it? who shall say vnto him, What doest thou?
13 God ᵍ will not withdrawe his anger, and the most mightie helpes ʰ doe stoupe vnder him.
14 Howe much lesse shall I answere him? or howe should I finde out ⁱ my wordes with him?
15 For though I were iust, yet could I ᵏ not an-swere, but I would make supplication to my Iudge.
16 If I ˡ cry, and he answere me, yet would I not beleeue, that he heard my voyce.
17 For hee destroyeth me with a tempest, and woundeth me ᵐ without cause.
18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitternesse.
19 If we speake of strength, beholde, hee is ⁿ strong: if we speake of iudgement, who shall bring me in to pleade?
20 If I shoulde iustifie my selfe, mine owne mouth shall condemne me: ᵒ if I would be perfite, he shall iudge me wicked.
21 Though I were perfite, yet I knowe not my soule: therefore abhorre I my life.
22 This is one poynt: therefore I said, He de-stroyeth the ᵖ perfite and the wicked.
23 If the scourge should suddenly ᵠ slay, should God ʳ laugh at the punishment of the innocents?
24 The earth is giuen into the hand of the wicked: hee ˢ couereth the faces of the iudges thereof: if not, where ᵗ is hee? or who is hee?
25 My dayes haue bene more swift then a post:
they haue fled, and haue seene no good thing.
26 They are passed as with the most swift ships, and as the eagle that flyeth to the pray.
27 If ᵘ I say, I will forget my complaint, I will cease from my wrath, and comfort me, 28 Then I am afraid of all my sorowes, knowing that thou wilt not iudge me innocent.
29 If I be wicked, why ˣ labour I thus in vaine?
30 If I ʸ wash my selfe with snowe water, and purge mine hands most cleane, 31 Yet shalt thou plung mee in the pit, and mine owne ᶻ clothes shall make me filthie.
32 For he is not a man as I am, that I shoulde answere him, if we come together to iudgement.
33 Neither is there any vmpire ᵃ that might lay his hand vpon vs both.
34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his feare astonish me: 35 Then will I speake, and feare him not: ᵇ but because I am not so, I hold me still.

a Iob here answereth to that poynt of Eliphaz and Bildads oration, touching the iustice of God, and his innocencie, confessing God to be infinitie in iustice, and man to be nothing in respect.
b Of a thousand things, which God could lay to his charge, man cannot answere him one.
c He declareth what is the infirmitie of man, by the mightie and incomprehensible power that is in God, shewing what he coulde doe if he would set forth his power. d These are the names of certaine starres, whereby hee meaneth that all starres both knowen and vnknowen are at his appoyntment. e I am not able to comprehend his workes, which are common and daily before mine eyes, much lesse in those things, which are hid and secret.

f He sheweth that when God doth execute his power, he doth it iustly, forasmuch as none can controle him.
g God will not be appeased for ought that man can lay for himselfe for his iustification.
h That is, all the reasons that men can lay to approue their cause.
i How should I be able to answere him by eloquence? whereby he noteth his friends, that albeit they were eloquent in talke, yet they felt not in heart, that which they spake.
k Meaning in his owne opinion, signifying, that man wil sometime flatter himselfe to be righteous, which before God is abomination.
l Whiles I am in my pangs, I cannot but brast forth into many inconueniences, although I know still that God is iust.
m I am not able to feele my sinnes so great, as I feele the weight of his plagues: and this he speaketh to condemne his dulnesse, and to iustifie God.
n After he hath accused his owne weakenesse, he continueth to iustifie God & his power.
o If I would stand in mine owne defence, yet God hath iust cause to condemne me, if he examine mine heart & conscience.
p If God punish according to his iustice, he will destroy aswell them that are counted perfite as them that are wicked. q To wit, the wicked. r This is spoken according to our apprehension, as though he would say, If God destroy but the wicked, as Chap. 5.3. why should he suffer the innocents to be so long tormented by them? s That they can not see to doe iustice. t That can shewe the contrary? u I thinke not to fall into these affections, but my sorowes bring me to these manifold infirmities, and my conscience condemneth me. x Why doeth not God destroy me at once? thus he speaketh according to the infirmitie of the flesh. y Though I seeme neuer so pure in mine owne eyes, yet all is but corruption before God. z Whatsoeuer I would vse to couer my filthinesse with, shall disclose me so much more. a Which might make an accord betweene God and me, speaking of impacienci, and yet confessing God to bee iust in punishing him. b Signifying that Gods iudgements keepe him in awe.

CHAP. X.

1 Iob is wearie of his life, and setteth out his fragilitie before God. 20 He desireth him to stay his hand. 22 A description of death.

MY soule is cut off ᵃ though I liue: I will leaue my ᵇ complaint vpon my selfe, & will speake

a I am more like to a dead man then to one that liueth. b I will make an ample declaration of my torments, accusing my selfe and not God.

in the bitternesse of my soule.
2 I will say vnto God, c Condemne mee not:
shewe me, wherefore thou contendest with me.
3 Thinkest thou it d good to oppresse me, and to cast off the e labour of thine handes, and to fauour the f counsell of the wicked?
4 Hast thou g carnall eyes? or doest thou see as man seeth?
5 Are thy dayes as mans h dayes? or thy yeeres, as the time of man,
6 That thou inquirest of mine iniquitie, and searchest out my sinne?
7 Thou knowest that I cannot do i wickedly:
for none can deliuer me out of thine hand.
8 Thine k handes haue made me, and fashioned me wholly rounde about, and wilt thou destroy me?
9 Remember, I pray thee, that thou hast made me as l the clay, and wilt thou bring me into dust againe?
10 Hast thou not powred me out as milke? and turned me to cruds like cheese?
11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and ioyned mee together with bones and sinewes.
12 Thou hast giuen me life, and m grace: and thy n visitation hath preserued my spirit.
13 Though thou hast hid these things in thine heart, yet I knowe o that it is so with thee.
14 If I haue sinned, then thou wilt streightly looke vnto me, and wilt not holde mee giltlesse of mine iniquitie.
15 If I haue done wickedly, wo vnto me: if I haue done righteously, I will not p lift vp mine head, being full of confusion, because I see mine affliction.
16 But let it increase: hunt thou me as a lyon:
returne and shew thy selfe q marueilous vpon me.
17 Thou renuest thy plagues against mee, and thou increasest thy wrath against mee: r changes and armies of sorowes are against me.
18 Wherefore then hast thou brought me out of the wombe? Oh that I had perished, and that none eye had seene me!
19 And that I were as I had not bene, but brought from the wombe to the graue!
20 Are not my dayes fewe? let him s cease, and leaue off from me, that I may take a litle comfort, 21 Before I goe and shall not t returne, euen to the land of darkenesse and shadow of death: 22 Into a land, I say, darke as darkenesse it selfe, and into the shadow of death, where is none u order, but the light is there as darkenesse.

c He woulde not that God should proceede against him by his secret iustice, but by the ordinarie meanes that he punisheth others.
d Is it agreeable to thy iustice to doe me wrong?
e Wilt thou be without compassion?
f Wilt thou gratifie the wicked and condemne me?
g Doest thou this of ignorance?
h Art thou inconstant and changeable, as the times, to day a friend, to morow an enemie?
i By affliction thou keepest me as in a prison, and restrainest me from doing euill, neither can any set me at libertie.
k In these eight verses following he describeth the mercie of God in the wonderfull creation of man: and theron groundeth that God should not shewe himselfe rigorous against him.
l As brittle as a pot of clay.
m That is, reason and vnderstanding, and many other giftes whereby man excelleth all earthly creatures.
n That is, thy fatherly care and prouidence, wherby thou preseruest me, and without the which I should perish streightway.
o Though I be not fully able to comprehend these things, yet I must needes confesse that it is so.
p I will alway walke in feare and humilitie, knowing that none is iust before thee. q Iob being sore assaulted in this battell betweene the flesh and the spirite, brasteth out into these affections, wishing rather short dayes then long paine. r That is, diuersitie of diseases and in great abundance: shewing that God hath infinite meanes to punish man. s Hee wisheth that God woulde leaue off his affliction, considering his great miserie and the breuitie of his life. t Hee speaketh thus in the person of a sinner, that is ouercome with passions and with the feeling of Gods iudgements, and therefore cannot apprehend in that state the mercies of God and comfort of the resurrection. u No distinction betweene light and darkenesse, but where all is very darkenesse it selfe.

CHAP. XI.

2 Iob is vniustly reprehended of Zophar. 7 God is incomprehensible. 14 He is mercifull to the repentant. 18 Their assurance that liue godly.

THen answered Zophar the Naamathite, and saide,
2 Should not the multitude of wordes be answered? or should a great a talker be iustified?
3 Should men hold their peace at thy lyes? and when thou mockest others, shall none make thee ashamed?
4 For thou hast sayde, b My doctrine is pure, and I am cleane in thine eyes.
5 But, oh that God would speake and open his lippes against thee!
6 That hee might shewe thee the c secrets of wisedome, howe thou hast deserued double, according to right: know therefore that God hath forgotten thee for thine iniquitie.
7 Canst thou by searching finde out God?
canst thou finde out the Almighty to his perfection?
8 The heauens are hie, what canst thou doe?
d it is deeper then the hel, how canst thou know it?
9 The measure therof is longer then the earth, and it is broader then the sea.
10 If he cut off and e shut vp, or gather together, who can turne him backe?
11 For he knoweth vaine men, and seeth iniquitie, and him that vnderstandeth nothing.
12 Yet vaine man would be wise, though man newe borne is like a wilde asse f colte.
13 If thou g prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him: 14 If iniquitie be in thine h hand, put it farre away, and let no wickednesse dwell in thy Tabernacle.
15 Then truely shalt thou lift vp thy i face without spot, and shalt be stable, and shalt not feare.
16 But thou shalt forget thy miserie, and remember it as waters that are past.
17 Thine age also shall appeare more cleare then the noone day: thou shalt shine and be as the morning.
18 And thou shalt be bolde, because there is hope: and thou shalt digge pittes, and shalt lye downe safely.
19 *For when thou takest thy rest, none shall make thee afraide: yea, many shall make sute vnto thee.
20 But the eyes k of the wicked shall faile, and their refuge shall perish, and their hope shalbe so-rowe of minde.

a Should he perswade by his great talke, that he is iust?
b He chargeth Iob with this, that he should say, that the thing which he spake, was true, and that he was without sinne in the sight of God.
c Which is not to stand in iustifying of thy selfe: he signifieth that man will neuer be ouercome, whiles he reasoneth with another, and therefore God must breake off the controuersie, and stop mans mouth.
d That is, this perfection of God, and if man be not able to comprehend the height of the heauen, the depth of hell, the length of the earth, the breadth of the sea, which are but creatures: howe can he attaine to the perfection of the Creator?
e If God should turne the state of things, and establish a newe order in nature, who coulde controlle him?
f That is, without vnderstanding: so that whatsoeuer giftes he hath afterward, come of God and not of nature.
g If thou repent, pray vnto him.
h Renounce thine owne euill workes, and see that they offend not God, ouer whome thou hast charge.
i Hee declareth what quietnesse of conscience and successe in all things such shall haue, which turne to God by true repentance. *Leuit. 26.5,6.
k He sheweth that contrary things shall come vnto them that doe not repent.

CHAP. XII.

2 Iob accuseth his friendes of ignorance. 7 He declareth the might, and power of God, 17 And howe he changeth the course of things.

THen Iob answered, and sayd,
2 In deede because that ye are the people onely, a wisedome must dye with you.
3 But I haue vnderstanding aswell as you, and am not inferiour vnto you: yea, who knoweth not such things?
4 * I am b as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth vpon God, and he c heareth him: the iust and the vpright is laughed to scorne.
5 d Hee that is readie to fall, is as a lampe despised in the opinion of the rich.
6 The tabernacles of robbers doe prosper, and they are in safetie, that prouoke God, † whome God hath enriched with his hand.
7 Aske now the beastes, e and they shall teach
thee,

a Because you feele not that which you speake, you thinke the whole standeth in wordes, and so flatter your selues as though none knew any thing, or could knowe but you.
*Prou. 14.2.
b He reprooueth these his friendes of two faultes: the one, that they thought they had better knowledge then in deede they had, and the other, that in stead of true consolation, they did deride and despise their friend in his aduersitie. c The which neighbour being a mocker, and a wicked man, thinketh that no man is in Gods fauour but he, because he hath all things that he desireth. d As the rich esteeme not a light, or torch that goeth out, so is he despised that falleth from prosperitie to aduersitie. † Ebr. to whom God hath brought in with his hand. e He declareth to them that did dispute against him, that their wisedome is common to all, and such as the very brute beastes do daily teach.

thee, and the foules of the heauen, and they shall tell thee:

8 Or speake to the earth, and it shall shewe thee: or the fishes of the sea, and they shall declare vnto thee.

9 Who is ignorant of all these, but that the hand of the Lord hath made these?

10 In whose hande is the soule of euery liuing thing, and the breath of all || mankinde.

11 Doeth not the eares [f] discerne the wordes? and the mouth taste meat for it selfe?

12 Among the [g] ancient is wisedome, and in the length of dayes is vnderstanding.

13 With him is wisedome and strength: hee hath counsell and vnderstanding.

14 Beholde, he will breake downe, and it can not be built: he shutteth a man vp, and he cannot be loosed.

15 Beholde, he withholdeth the waters, and they drie vp: but when he sendeth them out, they destroy the earth.

16 With him is strength & wisedome: he that is deceiued, and that [h] deceiueth, are his.

17 He causeth the counsellers to goe as spoyled, and maketh the iudges fooles.

18 [i] He looseth [k] the coller of Kings, and girdeth their loines with a girdle.

19 He leadeth away the princes as a pray, and ouerthroweth the mightie.

20 He taketh away the speech from the [l] faithfull counsellers, and taketh away the iudgement of the ancient.

21 He powreth contempt vpon princes, & maketh the strength of the mightie weake.

22 He discouereth the deepe places from their darkenesse, and bringeth foorth the shadowe of death to sighe.

23 He [m] increaseth the people, and destroyeth them: he inlargeth the nations, & bringeth them in againe.

24 He taketh away the hearts of them that are the chiefe ouer the people of the earth, & maketh them to wander in the wildernesse out of the way.

25 They grope in the darke without light: and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.

|| Or, flesh.
f He exhorteth them to be wise in iudging, and aswell to know the right vse why God hath giuen them eares, as he hath done a mouth.
g Though men by age, and continuance of time attaine to wisedome, yet it is not comparable to Gods wisedome, nor able to comprehend his iudgements, wherein he answereth to that, which was alleged, Chap. 8.8.
h He sheweth that there is nothing done in this world without Gods will & ordinance: for els he should not be almightie.
i He taketh wisedome from them.
k He abateth the honour of princes, and bringeth them into the subiection of others.
l He causeth that their wordes haue no credite, which is when he will punish sinne.
m In this discourse of Gods wonderfull works Iob sheweth that whatsoeuer is done in this world both in the order and change of things, is by Gods will and appointment: wherein he declareth that he thinketh well of God and is as able to set foorth his power in wordes as they that reasoned against, were.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Iob compareth his knowledge with the experience of his friendes. 16 The penitent shalbe saued, and the hypocrite condemned. 20 He prayeth vnto God that he would not handle him rigorouslie.

LOe, mine eye hath seene all this: mine eare hath heard, and vnderstand it.

2 I know also as much as you know: I am not inferiour vnto you.

3 But I will speake to the Almightie, and I desire [a] to dispute with God.

4 For in deede ye forge lyes, and all you are [b] physitions of no value.

5 Oh, that you woulde holde your tongue, that it might be imputed to you for wisedome!

6 Nowe heare my disputation, and giue eare to the arguments of my lips.

7 Will ye speake [c] wickedly for Gods defence, and talke deceitfully for his cause?

8 Will ye accept his person? or will ye contend for God?

a For although he knewe that God had a iustice, which was manifest in his ordinarie working and another in his secret counsell, yet he would vtter his affection to God, because he was not able to vnderstand the cause why he did thus punish him.
b You doe not well applie your medicine to the disease.
c He condemneth their zeale, which had not knowledge, neither regarded they to comfort him, but alway grated on Gods iustice, as though it was not euident in Iob, except they had vndertaken the probation thereof.

9 Is it well that hee shoulde seeke of you? will you make a lie for him, as one lieth for a man?

10 He will surely reprooue you, if ye doe secretly accept any person.

11 Shall not his excellencie make you afraid? and his feare fall vpon you?

12 Your [d] memories may bee compared vnto ashes, and your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 Hold your tongues in my presence, that I may speake, and let come vpon what will.

14 Wherefore doe I [e] take my flesh in my teeth, and put my soule in mine hand?

15 Loe, though he slay mee, yet will I trust in him, and I will reproove my wayes in his sight.

16 He shall be my saluation also: for the [f] hypocrite shall not come before him.

17 Heare diligently my words, and marke my talke.

18 Behold now: if I prepare me to iudgement, I know that I shalbe [g] iustified.

19 Who is he, that will pleade [h] with me? for if I now holde my tongue, I [i] die.

20 But doe not these two thinges vnto me: then will I not hide my selfe from thee.

21 [k] Withdrawe thine hande from me, and let not thy feare make me afraid.

22 Then call thou, and I will answere: or let me speake, and answere thou me.

23 How many are [l] mine iniquities and sinnes? shew me my rebellion, and my sinne.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and takest me for thine enemie?

25 Wilt thou breake a leafe driuen to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the drie stubble?

26 For thou writest bitter thinges against me, and makest me to possesse [m] the iniquities of my youth.

27 Thou puttest my feete also in the [n] stocks, and lookest narrowly vnto all my pathes, and makest the print thereof in the † heeles of my feet.

28 Such one consumeth like a rotten thing, and as a garment that is motheaten.

d Your fame shall come to nothing.
e Is not this a manifest signe of mine affliction, and that I doe not complaine without cause, seeing that I am thus tormented as though I should teare mine owne flesh, and put my life in danger?
f Whereby he declareth that he is not an hypocrite as they charged him.
g That is, cleared, and not cast off for my sinnes, as you reason.
h To proue that God doeth thus punish me for my sinnes.
i If I defend not my cause, euery man will condemne me.
k He sheweth what these two things are.
l His pangs thus mooue him to reason with God, not denying but that he had sinned: but he desired to vnderstand what were his great sinnes that had deserued such rigour, wherein he offended that he would know a cause of God why he did punish him.
m Thou punishest me now for the faultes that I committed in my youth.
n Thou makest me thy prisoner, and doest so presse me that I can not stirre hand nor foot.
† Ebr. roots.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Iob describeth the shortnesse and miserie of the life of man. 14 Hope susteineth the godly. 22 The condition of mans life.

MAn [a] that is borne of woman, is of short continuance, and full of trouble.

2 He shooteth foorth as a flowre, and is cut downe: he vanisheth also as * a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And yet thou openest thine eyes vpon such [b] one, and causest mee to enter into iudgement with thee.

4 * Who can bring a cleane thing out of filthinesse? there is not one.

5 Are not his dayes determined? the number of his moneths are with thee: thou hast appointed his bounds, which he cannot passe.

6 Turne from him that hee may cease vntill his desired day, [c] as an hireling.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut downe, that it will yet sprowte, and the branches thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root of it waxe old in the earth, and the stocke thereof be dead in the ground,

9 Yet by the sent of water it will budde, and a Taking occasion of his aduersaries wordes, he describeth the state of mans life from his birth to his death.

* Chap. 8.9. psal. 144.4.
b His meaning is, that seeing that man is so fraile a creature, God should not handle him so extremely: wherein Iob sheweth the wickednes of the flesh, when it is not subiect to the Spirit.
* Psal. 51. 5,7.
c Vntill the time that thou hast appointed for him to die, which he desireth, as the hireling waiteth for the end of his labour to receiue his wages.

bring foorth boughes like a plant.
10 [d] But man is sicke, and dieth, and man perisheth, and where is he?
11 As the waters passe from the sea, and as the flood decayeth and drieth vp, 12 So man sleepeth and riseth not: for he shall not wake againe, nor be raised from his sleepe till the heauen be no more.
13 Oh that thou wouldest hide me in the graue, and keepe me secret, vntill thy [e] wrath were past, and wouldest giue me terme, and [f] remember me.
14 If a man die, shall he liue againe? All the dayes of mine appointed time will I wait, till [g] my changing shall come.
15 Thou shalt call me, and I will [h] answere thee: thou louest the worke of thine owne hands.
16 But now thou * numbrest my steppes, and doest not delay my sinnes.
17 Mine iniquitie is sealed vp, as in a [i] bagge, and thou addest vnto my wickednesse.
18 And surely as the mountaine that falleth, commeth to nought, and the [k] rocke that is remoued from his place:
19 As the water breaketh the stones, when thou ouerflowest the things which grow in the dust of the earth: so thou destroyest the hope of man.
20 Thou preuailest alway against him, so that he passeth away: he changeth his face when thou castest him away.
21 And he knoweth not if his sonnes shall be honourable, neither shall he vnderstand concerning them, whether they shall be of low degree, 22 But while his [l] flesh is vpon him, he shall be sorowfull, and while his soule is in him, it shall mourne.

d He speaketh not here as though he had not hope of the immortalitie, but as a man in extreme paine, when reason is ouercome by affections and torments.
e Hereby he declareth that the feare of Gods iudgement was the cause why he desired to die.
f That is, release my paines, and take me to mercie.
g Meaning, vnto the day of the resurrection when he should be changed, and renued.
h Though I be afflicted in this life, yet in the resurrection I shall feele thy mercies and answere when thou callest me.
* Prouerb. 5.21.
i Thou layest them all together, and suffereſt none of my sinnes vnpunished.
k He murmureth through the impatiencie of the flesh against God, as though he vsed as great seueritie against him as against the hard rocks, or waters that ouerflow, so that hereby all the occasion of his hope is taken away.
l Yet whiles he liueth, he shalbe in paine and miserie.

CHAP. XV.

1 Eliphaz reprehendeth Iob, because he ascribeth wisedome, and pureneſſe to himselfe. 16 He describeth the curse that falleth on the wicked, reckoning Iob to be one of the number.

THen answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and
said,
2 Shall a wise man speake words of ye [a] winde, and fill his bellie [b] with the East winde?
3 Shall he dispute with wordes not comelie?
or with talke that is not profitable?
4 Surely thou hast cast off [c] feare, and restrainest prayer before God.
5 For thy mouth declareth thine iniquitie, seeing thou hast chosen [d] the tongue of the craftie, 6 Thine owne mouth condemneth thee, and not I, and thy lips testifie against thee.
7 Art thou the [e] first man, that was borne?
and wast thou made before the hils?
8 Hast thou heard the secret counsell of God, and doest thou restraine wisedome [f] to thee?
9 What knowest thou that we know not? and vnderstandest that is not in vs?
10 With vs are both ancient & very aged men, farre older then thy father.
11 Seeme the consolations of God [g] small vnto thee? is this thing strange vnto thee?
12 Why doeth thine heart [h] take thee away,
and what doe thine eyes meane, 13 That thou answerest to God † at thy pleasure, and bringest such words out of thy mouth?
14 What is man, that he should be cleane?
and he that is borne of woman, that he should [i] be iust?
15 Beholde, he founde no stedfastnesse in his Saintes: yea, the heauens are not cleane in his sight.
16 How much more is man abominable, and filthie, which [k] drinketh iniquitie like water?
17 I will tell thee: heare me, and I will declare that which I haue seene: 18 Which wise men haue tolde, as they haue heard of their fathers, and haue not kept it secret: 19 To whome alone the land was [l] giuen and no stranger passed through them.
20 The wicked man is continuallie as one that trauelleth of childe, and the number [m] of yeeres is hid from the tyrant.
21 A sounde of feare is in his eares, and in his prosperitie the destroyer shall come vpon him.
22 He beleeueth not to returne out of [n] darke-nesse: for he seeth the sword before him.
23 He wandreth [o] to and fro for bread where he may: he knoweth that the day of darkenesse is prepared at hand.
24 Affliction and [p] anguish shall make him afraid: they shall preuaile against him as a King readie to the battell.
25 For he hath stretched out his hand against GOD, and made him selfe strong against the Almightie.
26 Therefore God shall runne vpon him, euen vpon his necke, and against the most thicke part of his shield.
27 Because he hath couered his face with [q] his fatnesse, and hath collops in his flancke.
28 Though he dwell [r] in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, but are become heapes,
29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shal he prolong the [s] perfection thereof in the earth.
30 He shall neuer depart out of darknesse: the flame shall drie vp his branches, and he shall goe away with the breath of his mouth.
31 He [t] beleeueth not that he erreth in vani-
tie: therefore vanitie shalbe his change.
32 His branch shall not be greene, but shall be cut off before his day.
33 God shall destroy him as the vine her sowre [u] grape, and shall cast him off, as the oliue doeth her flowre.
34 For the congregation of the hypocrite shalbe desolate, and fire shall deuoure the houses of [x] bribes.
35 For they [y] conceiue mischiefe and bring foorth vanitie, and their bellie hath prepared deceit.

a That is, vaine words, and without consolation.
b Meaning, with matters that are of none importance, which are forgotten assoone as they are vttered, as the East winde drieth vp the moisture assoone as it falleth.
c He chargeth Iob as though his talke caused men to cast off the feare of God and prayer.
d Thou speakest as doe the mockers and contemners of God.
e That is, the most ancient, and so by reason the most wise?
f Art thou onely wise?
g He accuseth Iobs pride and ingratitude, that will not be comforted by God, nor by their counsell.
h Why doest thou stand in thine owne conceit?
† Ebr. in thy spirit.

i His purpose is to proue that Iob as an vniust man and an hypocrite is punished for his sinnes, like as he did before, Chap. 4.18.
k Which hath a desire to sinne as he that is thirstie to drinke.
l Who by their wisedome so gouerned, that no stranger inuaded them, and so the land seemed to be giuen to them alone.
m The cruell man is euer in danger of death, and is neuer quiet in conscience.
n Out of that miserie whereunto he once falleth.
o God doeth not onely impouerish the wicked oft times: but euen in their prosperity he punisheth them with a greedinesse euermore to gather: which is as a beggerie.
p He sheweth what weapons God vseth against the wicked, which lift vp themselues against him, to wit, terrour of conscience, and outward afflictions.
q That is, he was so puft vp with great prosperitie and abundance of all things, that he forgate God: noting, that Iob in his felicitie, had not the true feare of God.
r Though he build, and repaire ruinous places to get him fame, yet God shall bring all to nought, and turne his great prosperitie into extreme miserie.
s Meaning, that his sumptuous buildings should neuer come to perfection.
t He standeth so in his owne conceite, that he will giue no place to good counsell, therefore his owne pride shall bring him to destruction.
u As one that gathereth grapes before they be ripe.
x Which were built or mainteined by powling, and briberie.
y And therefore all their vaine deuices shall turne to their owne destruction.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Iob mooued by the importunacie of his friends, 7 Counteth in what extremitie he is, 19 And taketh God witnesse of his innocencie.

BVt Iob answered, and said,
2 I haue oft times heard such things: miserable comforters are ye all.
3 Shall there be none ende of the wordes of a winde?

awinde? or what maketh thee bold so to b answere?
4 I coulde also speake as ye doe: (but would God your c soule were in my soules stead) I could keepe you companie in speaking, and could d shake mine head at you,
5 But I woulde strengthen you e with my mouth, and the comfort of my lips should asswage your sorowe.
6 Though I speake, my sorowe f can not be asswaged: though I cease, what release haue I?
7 But nowe g hee maketh me wearie: O God, thou hast made all my h congregation desolate, 8 And hast made mee full of i wrinkles which is a witnesse thereof, and my leannesse riseth vp in me, testifying the same in my face.
9 k His wrath hath torne me, and hee hateth me, and gnasheth vpon mee with his teeth: mine enemie hath sharpened his eyes against me.
10 They haue opened their mouthes vpon me, and smitten me on the l cheeke in reproch: they gathered themselues together against me.
11 God hath deliuered me to the vniust, and hath made mee to turne out of the way by the m handes of the wicked.
12 I was in wealth, but he hath brought me to nought: he hath taken me by the necke, and beaten me, and set me as a marke for himselfe.
13 His n archers compasse mee rounde about:
he cutteth my reines, and doth not spare, and powreth my gall o vpon the ground.
14 He hath broken me with one breaking vp-on another, and runneth vpon me like a gyant.
15 I haue sowed a sackecloth vpon my skinne, and haue abased mine p horne vnto the dust.
16 My face is withered with weeping, and the shadow of death is vpon mine eyes, 17 Though there be no wickednesse in q mine hands, and my prayer r be pure.
18 O earth, couer not thou my f blood, and let my crying finde no place.
19 For lo, now my t witnesse is in the heauen, and my record is on hie.
20 My friends u speake eloquently against me:
but mine eye powreth out teares vnto God.
21 Oh that a man might x pleade with God, as man with his neighbour!
22 For the yeeres accounted come, and I shall goe the way, whence I shall not returne.

a Which serue for vaine ostentation, and for no true comfort.
b For Eliphaz did replie against Iobs answere.
c I would you felt that which I doe.
d That is, mocke at your miserie, as you doe at mine.
e If this were in my power, yet would I comfort you, and not doe as ye doe to me.
f If they would say, Why doest thou not then comfort thy selfe? hee answereth, that the iudgements of God are more heauie, then he is able to asswage either by wordes or silence.
g Meaning, God.
h That is, destroyed most of my familie.
i In token of sorowe and griefe.
k That is, God by his wrath: and in this diuersitie of words and his style, he expresseth howe grieuous the hand of God was vpon him.
l That is, hath handled me most contemptuously: for so smiting on the cheek signified, 1.King.22.24. mar.14.65.
m They haue led me whither they would.
n His manifold afflictions.
o I am wounded to the heart.
p Meaning, his glory was brought lowe.
q Signifying, that he is not able to comprehend the cause of this his grieuous punishment. r That is, vnfained, and without hypocrisie. f Let my sinne be knowen if I be such a sinner as mine aduersaries accuse me, and let me finde no fauour. t Though man condemne mee, yet God is witnesse of my cause. u Vse painted wordes in steade of true consolation. x Thus by his great torments hee is caried away, and brasteth out into passions, and speaketh vnaduisedly, as though God should intreat man more gently, seeing he hath but a short time here to liue.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Job sayth that he consumeth away, and yet doth patiently abide it. 10 He exhorteth his friendes to repentance, 13 shewing that he looketh but for death.

MY breath is corrupt: my dayes are cut off, and the graue is readie for me.
2 There are none but a mockers with mee, and mine eye continueth in b their bitternesse.
3 c Lay downe nowe and put me in suretie for thee: who is he, that d will touch mine hand?
4 For thou hast hid their heart from e vnder-standing: therefore shalt thou not set them vp on hie.
5 f For the eyes of his children shall faile, that speaketh flattery to his friends.
6 Hee hath also made me a g byword of the people, and I am as a Tabret h before them.
7 Mine eye therefore is dimme for griefe, and all my strength is like a shadowe.
8 The righteous shalbe astonied at i this, and the innocent shalbe moued against the hypocrite.
9 But the righteous wil hold his k way, and he whose hands are pure, shall increase his strength.
10 All l you therefore turne you, and come nowe, and I shall not finde one wise among you.
11 My dayes are past, mine enterprises are broken, and the thoughts of mine heart 12 Haue changed the m night for the day, and the light that approched, for darkenesse.
13 Though I hope, n yet the graue shall bee mine house, and I shall make my bed in the darke.
14 I shall say to corruption, Thou art my o father, and to the worme, Thou art my mother and my sister.
15 Where is then now mine hope? or who shal consider the thing, that I hoped for?
16 p They shall goe downe into the bottome of the pit: surely it shall lye together in the dust.

a In stead of comfort, being nowe at deaths doore, he had but them that mocked at him, and discouraged him.
b I see still that they seeke but to vexe me.
c He reasoneth with God as a man beside himselfe, to the intent that his cause might be brought to light. d And answere for thee? e That these mine afflictions are thy iust iudgements though man knowe not the cause.
f He that flattereth a man, and onely iudgeth him happie in his prosperitie, shall not himselfe onely but in his posteritie be punished.
g God hath made all the worlde to speake of me, because of mine afflictions.
h That is, as a continuall sound in their eares.
i To wit, when they see the godly punished, but in the ende they shall come to vnderstanding, and know what shall be the reward of the hypocrite.
k That is, will not be discouraged, considering that the godly are punished, as well as the wicked.
l Iob speaketh to them three, that came to comfort him. m That is, haue brought mee sorowe in stead of comfort. n Though I shoulde hope to come from aduersitie to prosperitie as your discourse pretendeth. o I haue no more hope in father, mother, sister, or any worldly thing: for the dust and wormes shall bee to mee in stead of them. p All worldly hope, and prosperitie fayle, which you say, are onely signes of Gods fauour: but seeing that these things perish, I set mine hope in God, and in the life euerlasting.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Bildad rehearseth the paines of the vnfaithfull and wicked.

THen answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,
2 When will a yee make an ende of your wordes? b cause vs to vnderstand, and then wee will speake.
3 Wherefore are wee counted as beastes, and are vile in your sight?
4 Thou art c as one that teareth his soule in his anger. Shall the d earth bee forsaken for thy sake? or the rocke remooued out of his place?
5 Yea, the light of the wicked shalbe e quenched, and the sparke of his fire shall not shine.
6 The light shalbe darke in his dwelling, and his candle shalbe put out with him.
7 The steps of his strength shalbe restrained, and his owne counsell shall cast him downe.
8 For hee is taken in the net by his feete, and he f walketh vpon the snares.
9 The grenne shall take him by the heele, and the theefe shall come vpon him.
10 A snare is layed for him in the ground, and a trappe for him in the way.
11 Fearefulnesse shall make him afrayd on e-uery side, and shall driue him to his feete.
12 His strength shalbe g famine: and destruction shalbe readie at his side.
13 It shall deuoure the inner partes of his skinne, and the h first borne of death shall deuoure his strength.
14 His hope shalbe rooted out of his dwelling, & shall cause him to go to the i King of feare.
15 Feare shall dwell in his house (because it is not k his) l and brimstone shalbe scattered vpon his habitation.
16 His rootes shalbe dryed vp beneath, and aboue shal his branch be cut downe.
17 His remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall haue no name in the streete.

a Which count your selues iust as Chap. 12.4. b Whome you take to be but beastes, as chap. 12.7 c That is, like a mad man.
d Shall God change the order of nature for thy sake, by dealing with thee otherwise then he doeth with all men?
e When the wicked is in his prosperitie, then God changeth his state: and this is his ordinarie working for their sinnes.
f Meaning, that the wicked are in continuall danger.
g That which should nourish him, shalbe consumed by famine.
h That is, some strong and violent death shall consume his strength: or as the Ebrewe word signifieth, his members or parts.
i That is, with most great feare.
k Meaning, not truely come by.
l Though all the world would fauour him, yet God would destroy him and his.

18 They shall driue him out of the m light vnto darkenesse, and chase him out of the world.
19 Hee shall neither haue sonne nor nephewe among his people, nor any posteritie in his dwellings.
20 The posteritie shalbe astonied at his o day, and feare shall come vpon the ancient.
21 Surely such are the habitations of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

m He shall fall from prosperitie to aduersitie.

o When they shall see what came vnto him.

CHAP. XIX.

2 Iob reprooueth his friendes, 13 and reciteth his miseries and grieuous paines. 25 Hee assureth himselfe of the generall resurrection.

BVt Iob answered, and said,
2 Howe long will yee vexe my soule, and torment me with wordes?
3 Ye haue now a ten times reproched me, and are not ashamed: ye are impudent toward me.
4 And though I had in deede erred, mine er-rour b remaineth with me.
5 But in deede if yee will aduance your selues against me, and rebuke me for my reproch, 6 Knowe nowe, that God hath c ouerthrowen me, and hath compassed me with his net.
7 Beholde, I crie out of violence, but I haue none answere: I crie, but there is no iudgement.
8 Hee hath hedged vp my way that I cannot d passe, and he hath set darkenesse in my paths.
9 Hee hath spoyled mee of mine honour, and taken the e crowne away from mine head.
10 Hee hath destroyed me on euery side, and I am gone: and he hath remoued mine hope like f a tree.
11 And he hath kindled his wrath against me,
and counteth me as one of his enemies.
12 His g armies came together, and made their way vpon me, and camped about my tabernacle.
13 He hath remooued my brethren farre from mee, and also mine acquaintance were strangers vnto me.
14 My neighbours haue forsaken mee, and my familiars haue forgotten me.
15 h They that dwell in mine house, and my maydes tooke me for a stranger: for I was a stranger in their sight.
16 I called my seruant, but he woulde not an-swere, though I prayed him with my mouth.
17 My breath was strange vnto my wife, though I prayed her for the childrens sake of mine
i owne body.
18 The wicked also despised mee, and when I rose, they spake against me.
19 All my secret friends abhorred me, and they whom I loued, are turned against me.
20 My bone k cleaueth to my skinne and to my flesh, and I haue escaped with the l skinne of my teeth.
21 Haue pitie vpon me: haue m pitie vpon me, (O yee my friendes) for the hand of God hath touched me.
22 Why do ye persecute me, as n God? and are not satisfied with my o flesh?
23 Oh that my wordes were nowe written! oh that they were written euen in a booke, 24 And grauen with p an yron pen in lead, or in stone for euer!
25 For I am sure, that my q redeemer liueth, and he shall stand the last on the earth.
26 And though after my skin wormes destroy this bodie, yet shall I see God r in my flesh.
27 Whome I my selfe shall see, and mine eyes shall beholde, and none other for me, though my reines are consumed within me.
28 But ye sayde, Why is hee persecuted? And there was a f deepe matter in me.
29 Be ye afrayde of the sword: for the sword will be t auenged of wickednesse, that ye may knowe that there is a iudgement.

a That is, many times, Nehe. 4. 12.
b That is, I my selfe shalbe punished for it, or you haue not yet confuted it.
c He brasteth out againe into his passions, & declareth still that his affliction commeth of God, though he be not able to feele ÿ cause in himselfe.
d Meaning, out of his afflictions.
e Meaning, his children, & whatsoeuer was deare vnto him in this world.
f Which is pluckt vp, & hath no more hope to growe.
g His manifolde afflictions.
h Mine housholde seruants: by al these losses Iob sheweth that touching the flesh he had great occasion to be mooued.
i Which were hers and mine.
k Besides these great losses and most cruel vnkindnesse, he was touched in his owne person as followeth.
l All my flesh was consumed.
m Seeing I haue these iust causes to complaine, condemne me not as an hypocrite, specially ye which should comfort me. n Is it not ynough that God doth punish me, except you by reproches increase my sorow?
o To see my body punished, except ye trouble my minde?
p He protesteth that notwithstanding his sore passions his religion is perfit, and that he is not a blasphemer, as they iudged him.
q I doe not so iustifie my selfe before the world, but I know that I shall come before the great iudge, who shall be my deliuerer and Sauiour.
r Herein Iob declareth plainly that he had a ful hope, that both the soule and body should enioy the presence of God in the last resurrection.
f Though his friendes thought that he was but persecuted of God for his sinnes, yet he declareth that there was a deeper consideration: to wit, the triall of his faith and patience, and so to be an example for others. t God will be reuenged of this hastie iudgement, whereby you condemned me.

CHAP. XX.

1 Zophar sheweth, that the wicked and the couetous shall haue a short ende, 22 though for a time they florish.

THen answered Zophar the Naamathite and
said,
2 Doubtlesse my thoughts cause me to an-swere, and therefore I make haste.
3 I haue heard a the correction of my reproch:
therefore the spirite of mine vnderstanding causeth me to answere.
4 Knowest thou not this of olde? and since God placed man vpon the earth, 5 That the reioycing of the wicked is short,
and that the ioy of hypocrites is but a moment?
6 Though b his excellencie mount vp to the heauen, and his head reach vnto the cloudes, 7 Yet shall hee perish for euer, like his dung, and they which haue seene him, shall say, Where is he?
8 He shall flee away as a dreame, and they shall not finde him, and shall passe away as a vision of the night,
9 So that the eye which had seene him, shall do so no more, and his place shal see him no more.
10 His children shall c flatter the poore, and his hands shall d restore his substance.
11 His bones are full of the sinne of his youth, and e it shall lie downe with him in the dust.
12 When wickednesse f was sweete in his mouth, and he hid it vnder his tongue, 13 And fauoured it, and would not forsake it, but kept it close in his mouth, 14 Then his meate in his bowels was turned:
the gall of Aspes was in the middes of him.
15 He hath deuoured substance, and hee shall vomit it: for God shall drawe it out of his bellie.
16 He shall sucke the g gall of Aspes, and the vipers tongue shall slay him.
17 He shall not see the h riuers, nor the floods and streames of honie and butter.
18 He shall restore the labour, and shall deuoure no more: euen according to the substance shalbe his exchange, and he shall enioy it no more.
19 For he hath vndone many: he hath forsaken the poore, and hath spoyled houses which he builded not.
20 Surely he shal feele no quietnes in his body, neither shall he reserue of that which he desired.
21 There shall none of his k meate be left:
therefore none shall hope for his goods.
22 When he shalbe filled with his abundance, he shalbe in paine, and the hand l of all the wic ked shall assaile him.

a He declareth that two things mooued him to speake: to wit, because Iob seemed to touch him, and because he thought he had knowledge sufficient to confute him.
b His purpose is to prooue Iob to be a wicked man, and an hypocrite, because God punished him, and changed his prosperitie into aduersitie.
c Whereas the father through ambition and tyranny oppressed the poore, the children through pouertie and miserie shall seeke fauour at the poore.
d So that the thing, which he hath taken away by violence shall be restored againe by force.
e Meaning, that he shall cary nothing away with him, but his sinne.
f As poyson that is sweete in the mouth bringeth destruction, when it commeth into the body: so al vice at the first is pleasant, but afterward God turneth it to destruction.
g He compareth euill gotten goods to the venim of aspes, which is most dangerous: noting that Iobs great riches were not truely come by, and therefore God did plague him iustly for the same. h Though God giue him other abundance of his blessings, yet he shall haue no part thereof. i That is, the rauenours and spoylers of the poore shall enioy their theft but for a time: for God will take it from them and cause them to make restitution, so that it is but an exchange. k He shall leaue nothing to his posteritie. l The wicked shall not be in rest: for one wicked man shall seeke to destroy another.

23 Hee shall be about to fill his belly, but God shall sende vpon him his fierce wrath, m and shall cause to rayne vpon him, euen vpon his meate.
24 Hee shall flee from the yron weapons, and the bow of steele shal strike him through.
25 The arrowe is drawen out, and commeth forth of the n body, and shineth of his gall, so feare commeth vpon him.
26 o All darkenesse shalbe hid in his secret places: the fire that is not p blowen, shall deuoure him, and that which remaineth in his tabernacle, shalbe destroyed.
27 The heauen shal declare his wickednes, and the earth shal rise vp against him.
28 The q increase of his house shal goe away: it shall flow away in the day of his wrath.
29 This is the portion of the wicked man from r God, and the heritage that he shall haue of God, for his s wordes.

CHAP. XXI.

7 Iob declareth howe the prosperitie of the wicked maketh them proude, 15 In so much that they blaspheme God. 16 Their destruction is at hand. 23 None ought to be iudged wicked for affliction, neither good for prosperitie.

BVt Iob answered, and sayd,
2 Heare diligently my wordes, and this a shalbe in stead of your consolations.
3 Suffer mee, that I may speake, and when I haue spoken, mocke on.
4 Doe I direct my talke to man? If it b were so, how should not my spirit be troubled?
5 Marke mee, and bee abashed, and lay your hand vpon your c mouth.
6 Euen when I remember, I am affrayde, and feare taketh hold on my flesh.
7 Wherefore do the wicked d liue, and waxe olde, and grow in wealth?
8 Their seede is established in their sight with them, and their generation before their eyes.
9 Their houses are peaceable without feare, and the rod of God is not vpon them.
10 Their bullocke gendreth, and fayleth not: their cow calueth, and casteth not her calfe.
11 They send forth their children e like sheepe, and their sonnes dance.
12 They take the tabret and harpe, and reioyce in the sound of the organs.
13 They spend their dayes in wealth, and suddenly f they go downe to the graue.
14 They say also vnto God, Depart from vs: for we desire not the g knowledge of thy wayes.
15 Who is the Almightie, that we should serue him? and what profit should we haue, if we should pray vnto him?
16 Lo, their wealth is not in their h hand: therefore let the counsell of the wicked i bee farre from me.
17 How oft shall the candle of the wicked bee put out? and their destruction come vpon them? he will deuide their liues in his wrath.
18 They shall be as stubble before the winde, and as chaffe that the storme carieth away.
19 God will lay vp the sorowe of the father for his children: when hee rewardeth him, hee shall knowe it.
20 k His eyes shall see his destruction, and hee shall drinke of the wrath of the Almightie.
21 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the nomber of his moneths is cut off?
22 Shall any teache l God knowledge, who iudgeth the hiest things?
23 One m dyeth in his full strength, being in all ease and prosperitie.
24 His beasts are full of milke, and his bones runne full of marowe.
25 And another n dieth in the bitternes of his soule, and neuer eateth with pleasure.
26 They shall sleepe both in o the dust, and the wormes shal couer them.
27 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the enterprises, wherewith ye do me wrong.
28 For ye say, Where is the princes p house? and where is the tabernacle of the wickeds dwelling?
29 May ye not q aske them that go by the way? and ye can not deny their signes, 30 But the wicked is kept vnto the day of r destruction, and they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.
31 Who shal declare his way s to his face? and who shall reward him for that he hath done?
32 Yet shal he be brought to the graue, and remaine in the heape.
33 The t slimie valley shalbe sweete vnto him, and euery man shall draw after him, as before him there were innumerable.
34 How then comfort u ye me in vaine, seeing in your answeres there remaine but lyes?

CHAP. XXII.

2 Eliphaz affirmeth that Job is punished for his sinnes. 6 He accuseth him of vnmercifulnes, 13 And that he denied Gods prouidence, 21 He exhorteth him to repentance.

THen Eliphaz the Temanite answered, and sayde,
2 May a man be a profitable vnto God, as he that is wise may be profitable to himselfe?
3 *Is it any thing vnto the Almightie, that thou art righteous? or is it profitable to him, that thou makest thy wayes vpright?
4 Is it for feare b of thee that hee will accuse thee? or go with thee into iudgement?
5 Is not thy wickednes great, and thine iniquities innumerable?
6 For thou hast taken the c pledge from thy brother for nought, and spoyled the clothes of the naked.
7 To such as were wearie, thou hast not giuen water to drinke, and hast withdrawen bread from the hungrie.
8 But the mightie man d had the earth, and he that was in authoritie, dwelt in it.
9 Thou hast cast out widowes emptie, & the armes of e the fatherles were broken.
10 Therefore snares are round about thee, and feare shal suddenly trouble thee:
11 Or darkenes that thou shouldest not see, & f abundance of waters shall couer thee.
12 Is not God g on hie in the heauen? and behold the height of the h starres how hie they are.
13 But thou sayest, Howe should God i know? can he iudge through the darke cloude?

m So that whatsoeuer [illegible] he shall be stricken with a stab. n Some reade, of the quiuer. o All feare & sorow shall light vpon him, when he thinketh to escape. p That is, fire from heauen, or the fire of Gods wrath. q Meaning, the children of the wicked shal flowe away like riuers & be dispersed in diuers places. r That God will plague ŷ wicked. s Against God, thinking to excuse himselfe and to escape Gods hand.

a Your diligent marking of my wordes shalbe to me a great consolation. b As though he would say, I do not talke with man, but with God, who will not answere me, & therefore my minde must needes be troubled. c He chargeth them as though they were not able to comprehend this his so long of Gods iudgement, & therefore they should kepe silence. d Iob proueth against his aduersaries that God punisheth not straightwayes the wicked, but oft times giueth them long life, & prosperitie: so that we must not iudge Gods iust [illegible] by the things that appeare to the eyes. e They haue store of children, cattel & houshold, and in [illegible] to that which Zophar alleged before. f Not being tormented with long sicknes. g They desire nothing more then to be exempt from all subiection that they should beare to God: this Iob [illegible] by his other sentences, that if they reason only by that which is seene by common [experience,] the wicked that hate God, are better dealt withall, then they that loue [him.] h It is not their owne, but God onely lendeth it vnto them. i God [keepe me] from their prosperitie. k When God recompenseth his wickednes, [he shall knowe] that his prosperitie was but vanitie.

l Who sendeth to the wicked prosperitie, & punisheth the godly. m Meaning, the wicked. n To wit, the godly. o As concerning their bodies: and this he speaketh according to the common iudgement. p Thus they called Iobs house in derision, concluding that it was destroyed because he was wicked. q Which through long trauelling haue experience & tokens hereof, to wit, that the wicked do prosper, & the godly liue in affliction. r Though the wicked florish here, yet God will punish him in the last day. s Though man doe not reproue him, and none dare reproue him in this worlde, yet death is a token, that God will bring him to an account. t He shall be glad to lye in a slimie pitte, which before could not be content with a royall palace. u Saying, that the iust in this worlde haue prosperitie and the wicked aduersitie.

a Though man were iust, yet God could haue no profite of this his iustice, and the reason why he punisheth him, he hath no regard to his iustice, but to his sinne. *Chap.35.7. b Least thou shouldest reproue or hurt him? c Thou hast bene cruel and without charitie, and wouldest do nothing for the poore, but for thine owne aduantage. d When thou wast in power & authoritie, thou didst not iustice, but wrong. e Thou hast not onely not shewed pity, but oppressed them. f That is, manifold afflictions. g He accuseth Iob of impietie & contempt of God, as though he would say, If thou passe not for men, yet consider ŷ height of Gods maiestie. h That so much the more by that excellent worke thou mayest feare God, and reuerence him. i Hereproueth Iob as though hee denied Gods prouidence, and that he could not see the things that were done in this worlde.

14 The cloudes hide him that he can not see,
and he walketh in the circle of heauen.
15 Hast thou marked the way of the worlde, k wherein wicked men haue walked?
16 Which were l cut downe before the time, whose foundation was as a riuer that ouerflowed: 17 Which sayde vnto God, Depart from vs, and asked what the Almightie could do for them.
18 Yet hee m filled their houses with good things: but let the counsell of the wicked be farre from me.
19 The righteous shall see them, & shal reioyce, n and the innocent shall laugh them to scorne.
20 Surely o our substance is hid: but the fire hath deuoured the remnant of p them.
21 Therefore acquaint thy selfe, I pray thee, q with him, and make peace: thereby thou shalt haue prosperitie.
22 Receiue, I pray thee, the law of his mouth, and lay vp his words in thine heart.
23 If thou returne to the Almightie, thou shalt r be built vp, and thou shalt put iniquitie farre from thy tabernacle.
24 Thou shalt lay vp golde for s dust, and the gold of Ophir, as the flintes of the riuers.
25 Yea, the Almightie shalbe thy defence, and thou shalt haue plentie of siluer.
26 And thou shalt then delite in the Almigh-tie, and lift vp thy face vnto God.
27 Thou shalt make thy praier vnto him, & he shall heare thee, and thou shalt render thy vowes.
28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and he shall establish it vnto thee, and the t light shal shine vp-on thy wayes.
29 u When others are cast downe, then shalt thou say, I am lifted vp: and God shall saue the humble person.
30 The innocent shall deliuer the x yland, & it shalbe preserued by the purenes of thine hands.

k How God hath punished them from the beginning? l He prooueth Gods prouidence by the punishment of the wicked, whom he taketh away before they can bring their wicked purposes to passe. m He answereth to that, which Iob had sayd, Chap. 21.7. that the wicked haue prosperitie in this worlde: desiring that hee might not be partaker of the like. n The iust reioyce at the destruction of the wicked for two causes: first, because God sheweth himselfe iudge of the world; & by this meanes continueth his honour and glorie: secondly, because God sheweth that he hath care ouer his in that he punisheth their enemies. o That is, the state & preseruation of the godly is hid vnder Gods wings. p Meaning, of the wicked. q He exhorteth Iob to repentance and to returne to God. r God wil restore vnto thee al thy substance. s Which shalbe in abundance like dust. t That is, the fauour of God. u God will deliuer his when the wicked are destroyed round about them, as in the flood and in Sodom. x God wil deliuer a whole countrey from peril, euen for the iust mans sake.

CHAP. XXIII.

2 Iob affirmeth that hee both knoweth and feareth the power and sentence of the Iudge. 10 And that hee is not punished onely for his sinnes.

BVt Iob answered and sayd,
2 Though my talke be this day in a bitternes, and my plague greater then my groning, 3 Would God yet I knew howe to finde him,
I would enter vnto his place.
4 I would pleade the cause before him, & fill my mouth with arguments.
5 I would knowe the wordes, that he would answere me, and would vnderstand what he would say vnto me.
6 Would he b plead against me with his great power? No, but he would c put strength in me.
7 d There the righteous might reason with him, so I shoulde bee deliuered for euer from my Iudge.
8 e Behold, if I go to the East, he is not there:
if to the West, yet I can not perceiue him:
9 If to the North where hee worketh, yet I cannot see him: he wil hide himselfe in the South, and I cannot beholde him.

a He sheweth the iust cause of his complaining, and as touching that Eliphaz had exhorted him to returne to God, Cha. 22.21. he declareth that he desireth nothing more: but it seemed that God would not bee found of him. b Vsing his absolute power, and saying, Because I am God, I may do what I will. c Of his mercie he would giue me power to answere him. d When hee of his mercie hath giuen strength to maintaine their cause. e Meaning, that if hee consider Gods iustice, he is not able to comprehende his iudgements on what side or part soeuer he turneth himselfe.

10 But he knoweth my f way, and trieth mee, and I shall come forth like the gold.
11 My foote hath followed his steps: his way haue I kept, and haue not declined.
12 Neyther haue I departed from the commandement of his lippes, and I haue g esteemed the words of his mouth more then mine appointed foode.
13 Yet he is in one minde, and who can h turne him? yea, he doeth what his minde desireth.
14 For he will performe that, which is decreed of me, and i many such things are with him.
15 Therfore I am troubled at his presence, and in considering it, I am afraid of him.
16 For God k hath softened mine heart, and the Almightie hath troubled me.
17 For I am not cut off in l darknesse, but hee hath hid the darkenesse from my face.

f God knoweth the [illegible] my wayes [illegible] I am innocent, I am not able to iudge of his workes: sheweth also his confidence, that God doeth visite him for his profite. g His worde is more precious to me, then the meate wherewith the body is sustained. h Iob confesseth that at this present he felt not Gods fauour, & yet was assured, that he had appoynted him to a good ende. i In many poyntes man is not able to atteine to Gods iudgements. k That I shoulde not bee without feare. l Hee sheweth the cause of his feare, which is, that he being in trouble, seeth none end, neither yet knoweth the cause.

CHAP. XXIIII.

2 Iob describeth the wickednes of men, and sheweth what curse belongeth to the wicked. 12 Howe all things are gouerned by Gods prouidence. 17 And the destruction of the wicked.

HOwe shoulde not the times a bee hid from the Almightie, seeing that they which knowe him, see not his b dayes?
2 Some remoue the lande marks, that rob the flockes and feede thereof.
3 They leade away the asse of the fatherlesse, and take the widowes oxe to pledge.
4 They make the poore to turne out of the way, so that the poore of the earth hide themselues c together.
5 Behold, others as wilde asses in the wildernesse, goe foorth to their businesse, and d rise early for a pray: the wildernesse e giueth him and his children foode.
6 They reape f his prouision in the fielde, but they gather the late g vintage of the wicked.
7 They cause the naked to lodge without garment, and without couering in the colde.
8 They are wet with the showres of the moūtaines, h and they imbrace the rocke for want of a couering.
9 They plucke the fatherles i from the breast, and take the pledge k of the poore.
10 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and take the gleaning from the hungrie.
11 They that make oyle l betweene their walles, and treade their wine presses, suffer thirst.
12 Men m cry out of the citie, and the soules of the slayne n cry out: yet God doth o not charge them with follie.
13 These are they, that abhorre the p light: they know not the wayes thereof, nor continue in the paths thereof.
14 The murtherer riseth early and killeth the poore and the needie: and in the night hee is as a theefe.
15 The eye also of the q adulterer waiteth for the twilight, and sayth, No eye shall see me, and disguiseth his face.
16 They digge through houses in the darke, which they marked for themselues in the daye:

a Thus Iob speaketh in his passion & after the iudgement of the flesh, that is, that he seeth not the things that are done at times, neither yet hath a peculiar care ouer all, because he punisheth not the wicked, nor rewardeth the godly. b When he punisheth & when he rewardeth. c And for trouble & oppression dare not shewe their faces. d That is, spare no diligence. e He and his, liue by robbing and murthering. f Meaning the poore man. g Signifying, that the wicked man will not spoyle one other, but for necessitie. h The poore are driuen by the wicked into rockes & holes, where they cannot lye dry for the rayne. i That is, they so powle & pill the poore widow, that she cannot haue to sustayne her selfe that she may be able to giue her childe sucke. k That is, his garment, whereby he should be couered or clad. l In such places which are appoynted for y purpose, meaning that those that labor for the wicked, are pined for hunger. m For y great oppression & extortion. n Crie out & call for vengeance. o God doeth not condemne the wicked, but seemeth to passe ouer it by his long silence. p That is, Gods word, because they are reprooued thereby. q By these particular vices & the like thereunto, he would proue that God punisheth not the wicked & rewardeth the [illegible]

they know not the light.
17 But the morning is euen vnto them as the shadowe of death: if one knowe them, they are in the terrour of the shadowe of death.
18 He is swift vpon the [r] waters: their [s] portion shalbe cursed in the earth: hee will not be-holde the way of the vineyardes.
19 As the dry ground and heate consume the snowe waters, so shall the graue [t] the sinners.
20 [u] The pitifull man shall forget him: the worme shall feele his sweetenes: he shalbe no more remembred, & the wicked shalbe broken like a tree.
21 He [x] doth euil intreat the barren, that doth not beare, neither doeth he good to the widowe.
22 He draweth also the [y] mighty by his power, and when he riseth vp, none is sure of life.
23 Though men giue him assurance to be in safetie, yet his eyes are vpon their wayes.
24 They are exalted for a litle, but they are gone, and are brought lowe as all others: they are destroyed, and cut off as the toppe of an eare of corne.
25 But if it be not [z] so, where is he? or who will proue me a lyar, and make my words of no value?

r He fleeth to the waters for succour.
s They thinke that all the world is bent against them, and dare not goe by the hie way.
t As the drye ground is neuer full of waters, so will they neuer cease sinning, till they come to the graue.
u Though God suffer the wicked for a time, yet their ende shall be most vile destruction, and in this poynt Iob commeth to himselfe and sheweth his confidence.
x He sheweth why the wicked shall not be lamented, because he did not pitie others.
y He declareth that after that the wicked haue destroyed the weakest, they will doe like to the stronger, and therefore they are iustly preuented by Gods iudgements.
z That is, that contrary to your reasoning no man can giue a perfite reason of Gods iudgements, let me be reprooued.

CHAP XXV.

Bildad prooueth that no man is cleane nor without sinne before God.

THen answered Bildad the Shuhite, and sayde, 2 [a] Power and feare is with him, that ma-keth peace in his hie places.
3 Is there any nomber in his armies? and vpon whom [b] shall not his light arise?
4 And how may a man [c] be iustified with God?
or how can he be cleane, that is borne of woman?
5 Beholde, he will giue no light to the moone, [d] and the starres are vncleane in his sight.
6 Howe much more man, a worme, euen the sonne of man, which is but a worme?

a His purpose is to prooue, that albeit God trie and afflict the iust, yet soone after he sendeth prosperitie, and because he did not so to Iob, he concludeth that he is wicked.
b Who can hide him from his presence?
c That is, be iust in respect of God?
d If God shewe his power, the moone and starres cannot haue that light, which is giuen them, much lesse can man haue any excellencie, but of God.

CHAP. XXVI.

Iob sheweth that man can not helpe God, and prooueth it by his miracles.

BVt Iob answered, and sayde,
2 [a] Whom helpest thou? him that hath no power? sauest thou the arme that hath no strength?
3 Whome counsellest thou? him that hath no wisedome? thou [b] shewest right well as the thing is.
4 To whom doest thou declare these wordes?
or whose spirit [c] commeth out of thee?
5 The [d] dead things are formed vnder the waters, and neere vnto them.
6 The graue is [e] naked before him, and there is no couering for [f] destruction.
7 He stretcheth out the [g] North ouer the emp-tie place, & hangeth the earth vpon nothing.
8 Hee bindeth the waters in his cloudes, and the cloude is not broken vnder them.
9 Hee holdeth backe the face of his throne:
[h] and spreadeth his cloude vpon it.
10 He hath set bounds about the waters, vntil the [i] day and night come to an ende.
11 The [k] pillars of heauen tremble and quake at his reproofe.
12 The sea is calme by his power, and by his vnderstanding he smiteth the pride thereof.
13 His Spirite hath garnished the heauens, and his hand hath formed the crooked [l] serpent.
14 Loe, these are part of his wayes: but [m] how litle a portion heare we of him? and who can vn-derstand his fearefull power?

a Thou concludest nothing: for neither thou helpest me, which am destitute of all helpe, neyther yet speakest sufficiently on Gods behalfe, who hath no neede of thy defence.
b But thou doest not apply it to the purpose.
c That is, mooueth thee to speake this?
d Iob beginneth to declare the force of Gods power and prouidence in the mines and mettals in the deepe places of the earth.
e There is nothing hidde in the bottome of the earth, but hee seeth it.
f Meaning, the graue wherein thinges putrifie.
g Hee causeth the whole heauen to turne about the North pole.
h That is, he hideth the heauens, which are called his throne.
i So long as this world endureth.
k Not that heauen hath pillars to vpholde it, but he speaketh by a similitude, as though he woulde say, The heauen it selfe is not able to abide his reproche.
l Which is a figure of starres fashioned like a serpent, because of the crookednesse.
m If these fewe thinges, which wee see dayly without cease, declare his great power and prouidence, howe much more woulde they appeare, if we were able to comprehend all his workes?

CHAP. XXVII.

3 The constancie and perfitenesse of Iob. 13 The rewarde of the wicked and of the tyrants.

MOreouer Iob proceeded and continued his parable, saying,
2 The liuing God hath taken away my [a] iudgement: for the Almightie hath put my soule in bitternesse.
3 Yet so long as my breath is in me, and the Spirit of God in my nostrels, 4 My lips surely shall speake no wickednesse,
[b] and my tongue shall vtter no deceit.
5 God forbid, that I should [c] iustifie you: vntill I die, I will neuer take away mine [d] innocencie from my selfe.
6 I will keepe my righteousnesse, and will not forsake it: mine heart shall not reprooue me of my [e] dayes.
7 Mine enemie shall be as the wicked, and he that riseth against me, as the vnrighteous.
8 For what [f] hope hath the hypocrite when he hath heaped vp riches, if God take away his soule?
9 Will God heare his cry, when trouble commeth vpon him?
10 Will he set his delight on the Almightie?
will he call vpon God at all times?
11 I will teache you what is in the hande of [g] God, and I will not conceale that which is with the Almightie.
12 Beholde, all ye your selues [h] haue seene it:
why then doe you thus vanish [i] in vanitie?
13 This is the [k] portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of tyrants, which they shall receiue of the Almightie.
14 If his children be in great number, the sworde shall destroy them, and his posteritie shall not be satisfied with bread.
15 His remnant shall be buried in death, and his widowes [l] shall not weepe.
16 Though he shoulde heape vp siluer as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay, 17 He may prepare it, but the iust shall put it on, and the innocent shall diuide the siluer.
18 He buildeth his house as the [m] moth, and as a lodge that the watchman maketh.
19 When the rich man sleepeth, [n] he shall not be gathered to his fathers: they opened their eyes, and he was gone.
20 Terrours shall take him as waters, & a tempest shall cary him away by night.
21 The East winde shall take him away, & he shall depart: & it shall hurle him out of his place.
22 And God shall cast vpon him and not spare, though he would faine flee out of his hand.

a He hath so sore afflicted me, that men can not iudge of mine vprightnesse: for they iudge onely by outward signes.
b Howsoeuer men iudge of me, yet will I not speake contrary to that, which I haue said, and so do wickedly in betraying the trueth.
c Which condemne mee as a wicked man, because the hand of God is vpon me. d I will not confesse that God doth thus punish me for my sinnes.
e Of my life past.
f What aduantage hath the dissembler to gaine neuer so much, seeing he shall lose his owne soule?
g That is, what God reserueth to himselfe, & whereof he giueth not the knowledge to all.
h That is, these secret iudgements of God, & yet doe not vnderstand them.
i Why maintaine you then this errour?
k Thus will God order the wicked, and punish him, euen vnto his posteritie.
l None shall lament him.
m Which breedeth in another mans possession or garment, but is soone shaken out.
n He meaneth that the wicked tyrants shall not haue a quiet death, nor be buried honourably.

23 Euery man shall clap their handes at him, and hisse at him out of their place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

Iob sheweth that the wisedome of God is vnsearchable.

THe siluer surely hath his veine, [a] and the gold his place, where they take it.

2 Yron is taken out of the dust, and brasse is molten out of the stone.

3 God putteth an end to darkenesse, [b] and hee tryeth the perfection of all things: hee setteth a bond of darkenesse, and of the shadow of death.

4 The flood breaketh out against the [c] inhabitant, and the waters [d] forgotten of the foote, being higher then man, are gone away.

5 Out of the same earth commeth [e] bread, and vnder it, as it were fire is turned vp.

6 The stones thereof are a place [f] of saphirs, and the dust of it is golde.

7 There is a path which no foule hath knowen, neither hath the kites eye seene it.

8 The lyons whelpes haue not walked it, nor the lyon passed thereby.

9 He putteth his hand vpon the [g] rockes, and ouerthroweth the mountaines by the rootes.

10 Hee breaketh riuers in the rockes, and his eye seeth euery precious thing.

11 Hee bindeth the floods, that they doe not ouerflowe, and the thing that is hid, bringeth he to light.

12 But where is wisdome found? [h] and where is the place of vnderstanding?

13 Man knoweth not [i] the price thereof: for it is not found in the land of the liuing.

14 The depth sayeth, It is not in me: the sea also sayth, It is not with me.

15 [k] Golde shall not be giuen for it, neither shall siluer be weighed for the price thereof.

16 It shall not bee valued with the wedge of golde of Ophir, nor with the precious Onix, nor the saphir.

17 The golde nor the chrystall shall be equall vnto it, nor the exchange shalbe for plate of fine golde.

18 No mention shall be made of corall, nor of the [l] gabish: for wisedome is more precious then pearles.

19 The Topaz of Ethiopia shall not be equall vnto it, neither shall it be valued with the wedge of pure gold.

20 Whence then commeth wisedome? and where is the place of vnderstanding, 21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all the liuing, and is hid from the [m] foules of the heauen?

22 Destruction and death say, Wee haue heard the fame thereof with our eares.

23 But God vnderstandeth the [n] way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.

24 For he beholdeth the endes of the worlde, and seeth all that is vnder heauen, 25 To make the weight of the windes, and to weigh the waters by measure.

26 When he made a decree for the rayne, and a way for the lightening of the thunders, 27 Then did he see it, and counted it: hee prepared it and also considered it.

28 And vnto man he said, Behold, * the [o] feare of the Lord is wisedome, and to depart from euill is vnderstanding.

a His purpose is to declare that man may attaine in this world to diuers secrets of nature, but man is neuer able to comprehend the wisedome of God.
b There is nothing but it is compassed within certaine limites, and hath an end, but Gods wisdom.
c Meaning, him that dwelleth thereby.
d Which a man cannot wade thorowe.
e That is, corne, and vnderneath is brimstone or cole, which easily conceiueth fire.
f He alludeth to the mines and secrets of nature, which are vnder the earth, whereinto neither foules nor beastes can enter.
g After that he hath declared the wisedome of God in the secretes of nature, he describeth his power.
h Though Gods power, and wisedome may be vnderstand in earthly things, yet his heauenly wisedome cannot be atteined vnto.
i It is too hie a thing for man to attaine vnto in this world.
k It can neither be bought for gold nor precious stones, but is onely the gift of God.
l Which is thought to be a kinde of precious stone.
m Meaning, that there is no naturall meanes, whereby man might attaine to the heauenly wisdome: which he meaneth by the foules, that flie hie.
n He maketh God only the autor of this wisdome, and the giuer thereof.
* Prouerb.1.7.
o He declareth that man hath so much of this heauenly wisdome, as he sheweth by fearing God, and departing from euil.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 Iob complayneth of the prosperitie of the time past. 7. 21 His authoritie, 12 iustice and equitie.

SO Iob proceeded and continued his parable, saying,

2 Oh that I were as † in times past, when God preserued me!

3 When his [a] light shined vpon mine head: and when by his light I walked thorowe the [b] darkenesse,

4 As I was in the dayes of my youth: when [c] Gods prouidence was vpon my tabernacle:

5 When the almightie was yet with me, and my children round about me:

6 When I washed my pathes [d] with butter, and when the rocke powred me out riuers of oyle:

7 When I went out to the gate, euen to the iudgement seate, and when I caused them to prepare my seate in the streete.

8 The yong men saw me, and [e] hid themselues, and the aged arose, and stood vp.

9 The princes stayed talke, and layde their hand on their [f] mouth.

10 The voyce of princes was hidde, and their tongue cleaued to the roofe of their mouth.

11 And when the [g] eare heard me, it blessed me: and when the eye saw me, it gaue witnesse to [h] me.

12 For I deliuered the [i] poore that cryed, and the fatherlesse, and him that had none to helpe him.

13 [k] The blessing of him that was ready to perish, came vpon me, & I caused the widowes heart to reioyce.

14 I put [l] on iustice, and it couered me: my iudgement was as a robe, and a crowne.

15 I was the eyes to the blinde, and I was the feet to the lame.

16 I was a father vnto the poore, and when I knew not the cause, I sought it out diligently.

17 I brake also the chawes of the vnrighteous man, and pluckt the pray out of his teeth.

18 Then I sayd, I shall die in my [m] nest, and I shall multiplie my dayes as the sand.

19 For my roote is [n] spread out by the water, and the dew shall lie vpon my branch.

20 My glory shall renue towarde me, and my bowe shalbe restored in mine hand.

21 Vnto me men gaue eare, and wayted, and held their tongue at my counsell.

22 After my wordes they replied not, and my talke [o] dropped vpon them.

23 And they waited for me, as for the raine, and they opened their mouth [p] as for the latter raine.

24 If I [q] laughed on them, they beleeued it not: neither did they cause the light of my countenance [r] to fall.

25 I appoynted out [s] their way, and did sit as chiefe, and dwelt as a King in the armie, and like him that comforteth the mourners.

a When I had his fauour.
b I was free from affliction.
c That is, seemed by euident tokens to be more present with me.
d By these similitudes he declareth the great prosperitie, y he was in, so that he had none occasion to be such a sinner as they accused him.
e Being ashamed of their lightnesse and afrayde of my grauitie.
f Acknowledging my wisedome.
g All that heard me, praysed me.
h Testifying that I did good iustice.
i Because his aduersaries did so much charge him with wickednesse, he is compelled to render account of his life.
k That is, I did succour him that was in distresse, & so he had cause to prayse me. l I delited to doe iustice, as others did to weare costly apparell.
m That is, at home in my bed, without all trouble, and vnquietnesse.
n My felicitie doeth increase.
o That is, was pleasant vnto them.
p As the drie ground thirsteth for the raine.
q That is, they thought it not to be a iest, or they thought not that I would condescend vnto them.
r They were afraid to offend me, and cause me to be angry.
s I had them at commandement.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Iob complaineth that he is contemned of the most contemptible, 11. 21. because of his aduersitie and affliction. 23 Death is the house of all flesh.

BVt now they that are yonger then I, [a] mocke me: yea, they whose fathers I haue refused to set with the [b] dogges of my flocks.

a That is, mine estate is changed, and whereas before the auncient men were glad to doe me reuerence, the yoong men now contemne me. b Meaning, to be my shepheardes, or to keepe my dogges.

2 For whereto shoulde the strength of their handes haue serued mee, seeing age [c] perished in
them?
3 For pouertie and famine they were solitary, fleeing into the wildernes, which is darke, desolate and waste.
4 They cut vp ‖ nettle by the bushes, & the iuniper rootes was their meate.
5 They were [d] chased forth frō among men they shouted at them, as at a theefe.
6 Therefore they dwelt in the clefts of riuers, in the holes of the earth and rockes.
7 They roared among the bushes, and vnder the thistles they gathered themselues.
8 They were the children of fooles and the children of villaines, which were more vile then
the earth.
9 And now am I their [e] song, and I am their talke.
10 They abhorre me, and flee farre from mee, and spare not to spit in my face.
11 Because that God hath loosed my [f] corde and humbled me, [g] they haue loosed the bridle before me.
12 The youth rise vp at my right hand: they haue pusht my feete, and haue trode on me as on the [h] paths of their destruction.
13 They haue destroyed my paths: they tooke pleasure at my calamitie, they had none [i] helpe.
14 They came as a great breach of waters, and [k] vnder this calamitie they come on heapes.
15 Feare is turned vpon mee: and they pursue my soule as the winde, and mine health passeth away as a cloude.
16 Therefore my soule is nowe [l] powred out vpon me, and the dayes of affliction haue taken holde on me.
17 [m] It pearceth my bones in the night, and my sinewes take no rest.
18 For the great vehemencie is my garment changed, which compasseth me about as the coler of my coate.
19 [n] He hath cast me into the myre, and I am become like ashes and dust.
20 Whē I cry vnto thee, thou doest not heare me, neither regardest me, when I stand vp.
21 Thou turnest thy selfe [o] cruelly against me, and art enemie vnto mee with the strength of thine hand.
22 Thou takest me vp and causest mee to ride vpon the [p] winde, & makest my ‖ strength to faile.
23 Surely I knowe that thou wilt bring mee to death, and to the house appoynted for all the liuing.
24 Doubtles none can stretch his hand [q] vnto
the graue, though they cry in his destruction.
25 Did not I weepe with him that was in trouble? was not my soule in heauinesse for the poore?
26 Yet when I looked for good, [r] euill came vnto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkenesse.
27 My bowels did boyle without rest: for the dayes of affliction are come vpon me.
28 I went mourning [s] without sunne: I stood vp in the congregation [t] and cryed.
29 I am a brother to the [u] dragons, & a companion to the ostriches.
30 My skinne is blacke vpon me, & my bones are burnt with [x] heate.

c That is, their fathers died for famine before they came to age.
‖ Or, mallowes.
d Iob sheweth that these that mocked him in his afflictiō, were like to their fathers, wicked, & lewde felowes, such as he here describeth.
e They make songs of me, and mocke at my miserie.
f God hath taken from me the force, credit & autoritie, wherewith I kept thē in subiection.
g He said that the yōg men when they saw him, hid themselues, as Chap. 29. 8, and nowe in his miserie they were impudent and licentious.
h That is, they sought by all meanes how they might destroy me.
i They neede none to helpe them.
k By my calamitie they tooke an occasion against me.
l My life fayleth me, and I am as halfe dead.
m Meaning, sorowe.
n That is, God hath brought me into contempt.
o He speaketh not thus to accuse God, but to declare the vehemencie of his afflictiō, whereby he was caried beside him selfe.
p He compareth his afflictions to a tempest or whirlewinde.
‖ Or, wisedome, or Lawe.
q None can deliuer mee thence though they lament at my death.
r In stead of comforting they mocked at me.
s Not delighting in any worldly thing, no not so much, as in the vse of the sunne.
t Lamenting them that were in affliction, & mouing others to pitie thē.
u I am like the wilde beastes that desire most solitarie places.
x With the heate of afliction.

31 Therefore mine harpe is turned to mourning, and mine organs into the voyce of them that weepe.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Iob reciteth the innocencie of his liuing, & number of his vertues, which declareth what ought to be the life of the faithfull.

I Made a couenant with mine [a] eyes: why then should I thinke on [b] a mayde?
2 For what portion should I haue of God from aboue? and what inheritance of the Almigh-tie from on hie?
3 Is not destruction to the wicked & strange punishment to [c] the workers of iniquitie?
4 Doeth not hee beholde my wayes and tell all my steps?
5 If I haue walked in vanitie, or if my foote hath made haste to deceite, 6 Let God weigh me in the iust balance, and he shall know mine [d] vprightnes.
7 If my steppe hath turned out of the way, or mine heart hath [e] walked after mine eye, or if any blot hath cleaued to mine handes, 8 Let me sowe, & let another [f] eate: yea, let my plantes be rooted out.
9 If mine heart hath bene deceiued by a woman, or if I haue layde wayte at the doore of my neighbour,
10 Let my wife [g] grinde vnto another man,
and let other men bow downe vpon her.
11 For this is a wickednes, and iniquitie to be condemned:
12 Yea, this is a fire that shal deuoure [h] to destruction, & which shal roote out al mine increase.
13 If I did contemne the iudgement of my seruant, and of my mayde, when they [i] did contend with me,
14 What then shall I do when [k] God standeth vp? & when he shal visit me, what shall I answere?
15 He that hath made me in the wombe, hath he not made [l] him? hath not he alone facioned vs in the wombe?
16 If I restrained the poore of their desire, or haue caused the eyes of the widow [m] to faile, 17 Or haue eaten my morsels alone, and the fatherlesse hath not eaten thereof, 18 (For from my youth hee hath growen vp with me [n] as with a father, and from my mothers wombe I haue bene a guide vnto her) 19 If I haue seene any perish for want of clothing, or any poore without couering, 20 If his loynes haue not blessed me, because he was warmed with the fleece of my sheepe, 21 If I haue lift [o] vp mine hande against the fatherlesse, when I saw that I might helpe him in the gate,
22 Let mine [p] arme fall from my shoulder, and mine arme be broken from the bone.
23 For Gods punishment was [q] fearefull vnto me, & I could not be deliuered from his highnes.
24 If I made gold mine hope, or haue sayde to the wedge of golde, Thou art my confidence, 25 If I reioyced because my substance was great, or because mine hand had gotten much, 26 If I did behold the [r] sunne, when it shined, or the moone walking in her brightnes, 27 If mine heart did flatter me in secrete, or if my mouth did kisse mine [s] hand, 28 (This also had bene an iniquitie to be condemned: for I had denied the God aboue), 29 If I reioyced at his destruction that hated a I kept mine eyes from all wanton lookes.

b Would not God then haue punished me?
c Iob declareth that the feare of God was a bridle to stay him from all wickednesse.
d He sheweth wherein his vprightnes standeth, that is, in asmuch as he was blameles before men, & sinned not against the second table.
e That is hath accōplished the lust of mine eye.
f According to the curse of the lawe. Deut. 28. 33.
g Let her be made a slaue.
h He sheweth that albeit man neglect the punishment of adulterie, yet the wrath of God will neuer cease till such be destroyed.
i When they thought themselues euil intreated by me.
k If I had oppressed others, howe should I haue escaped Gods iudgement?
l He was moued to shew pitie vnto seruants, because they were Gods creatures as he was.
m By lōg wayting for her request.
n He nourished the fatherlesse and maintained the widowes cause.
o To oppresse him & do him iniurie.
p Let me rotte in pieces.
q I refrained not from sinning for feare of men, but, because I feared God.
r If I was proude of my worldly prosperitie and felicitie, which is meant by the shining of the sunne and brightnes of the moone.
s If mine owne doings delighted me. t By praising & deedes in any thing but in him alone.

me, or was mooued to ioye when euill came vpon him.
30 Neither haue I suffred my mouth to sinne, by wishing a curse vnto his soule.
31 Did not the men of my [u] Tabernacle say, Who shall giue vs of his flesh? we can not be satisfied.
32 The stranger did not lodge in the streete, but I opened my doores vnto him, that went by the way.
33 If I haue hid [x] my sinne, as Adam, concealing mine iniquitie in my bosome, 34 Though I coulde haue made afraid a great multitude, yet the most contemptible of the families did [y] feare me: so I kept [z] silence, and went not out of the doore.
35 Oh that I had some to heare me! beholde my [a] signe that the Almightie will witnesse for me: though mine aduersarie should write a booke against me, 36 Woulde not I take it vpon my shoulder, and binde it as [b] a crowne vnto me?
37 I will tell him the nomber of my goings, and goe vnto him as to a [c] prince.
38 If my lande [d] crye against me, or the furrowes thereof complaine together, 39 If I haue eaten the fruites thereof without siluer: or if I haue grieued [e] the soules of the masters thereof, 40 Let thistles growe in steade of wheate, and cockle in the stead of barley.

THE [f] WORDES OF IOB ARE ENDED.

u My seruants moued me to be reuenged of mine enemie, yet did I neuer wish him hurt.
x And not confessed it freely: whereby it is euident that he iustified himselfe before men & not before God.
y That is, I reuerenced the most weake and contemned, and was afraid to offend them.
z I suffred them to speake euill of me, and went not out of my house to reuenge it.
a That is a sufficient token of my righteousnesse, that God is my witnesse and will iustifie my cause.
b Should not this booke of his accusations be a praise and commendation to me?
c I will make him a count of all my life, without feare. d As though I had withholden their wages that laboured in it.
e Meaning, that he was no briber nor extortioner.
f That is, the talke which he had with his three friendes.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Elihu reproueth them of follie. 8 Age maketh not a man wise, but the spirit of God.

SO these three men ceased to answere Iob, because he † esteemed himselfe iust.
2 Then the wrath of Elihu the sonne of Barachel the [a] Buzite, of the familie of [b] Ram, was kindled: his wrath, I say, was kindled against Iob, because he iustified himselfe [c] more then God.
3 Also his anger was kindled against his three friendes, because they could not finde an answere, and yet condemned Iob.
4 (Nowe Elihu had wayted til Iob had spoken: for [d] they were more ancient in yeeres then he)
5 So when Elihu sawe, that there was none answere in the mouth of the three men, his wrath was kindled.
6 Therefore Elihu the sonne of Barachel, the the Buzite answered, & sayd, I am yong in yeeres, and ye are ancient: therefore I doubted, and was afraide to shewe you mine opinion.
7 For I said, The dayes [e] shall speake, and the multitude of yeeres shall teach wisedome.
8 Surely there is a spirite in man, [f] but the inspiration of the Almightie giueth vnderstanding.
9 Great men are not alway wise, neither doe the aged alway vnderstand iudgement.
10 Therefore I say, Heare me, and I will shew also mine opinion.
11 Behold, I did waite vpon your wordes, and hearkened vnto your knowledge, whiles you sought out [illegible] reasons.
12 Yea, when I had considered you, lo, there was none of you that reproued Iob, nor answered his wordes:
13 Lest ye should say, We haue [h] found wisedome: for God hath cast him downe, and no man.
14 Yet hath [i] he not directed his words to me, neyther will I answere [k] him by your wordes.
15 Then they fearing, answered no more, but left off their talke.
16 When I had wayted (for they spake not, but stood still and answered no more) 17 Then answered I in my turne, and I shewed mine opinion.
18 For I am full of [l] matter, and the spirit within me compelleth me.
19 Beholde, my belly is as the wine, which hath no vent, and like the new bottels that brast.
20 Therefore will I speake, that I may take breath: I will open my lippes, and will answere.
21 I will not now accept the person of man, [m] neyther will I giue titles to man.
22 For I may not giue [n] titles, lest my Maker should take me away suddenly.

† Or, was iust in his owne eyes.
a Which came of Buz the sonne of Nahor Abrahams brother.
b Or, as the Chalde paraphrast readeth, Abram.
c By making himselfe innocent, and by charging God of rigour.
d That is, the three mencioned before.
e Meaning, the ancient, which haue experience.
f It is a speciall gift of God that man hath vnderstanding, and commeth neither of nature nor by age.
g To proue that Iobs affliction came for his sinnes.
h And flatter your selues, as though you had ouercome him.
i To wit, Iob.
k He vseth almost the like arguments, but without taunting, & reproches.
l I haue conceiued in my minde great store of reasons.
m I will neither haue regard to riches, credit, nor authoritie, but will speake the very trueth.
n The Ebrewe worde signifieth, to change the name, as to call a foole a wise man: meaning that hee would not cloke the trueth to flatter man.

CHAP. XXXIII.

5 Elihu accuseth Iob of ignorance. 14 Hee sheweth that God hath diuers meanes to instruct man and to drawe him from sinne. 19, 29 He afflicteth man and suddenly deliuereth him. 26 Man being deliuered giueth thankes to God.

WHerefore, Iob, I pray thee, heare my talke and hearken vnto all my wordes.
2 Beholde nowe, I haue opened my mouth: my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.
3 My words are in the vprightnesse of mine heart, & my lippes shall speake pure knowledge.
4 The [a] Spirite of God hath made mee, and the breath of the Almightie hath giuen me life.
5 If thou canst giue me answere, prepare thy selfe and stand before me.
6 Beholde, I am according to thy wish in [b] Gods stead: I am also formed of the clay.
7 Beholde, my terrour shall not feare thee, neither shal mine hand [c] be heauie vpon thee.
8 Doubtles thou hast spoken in mine eares, and I haue heard the voyce of thy wordes:
9 I am [d] cleane, without sinne: I am innocent, and there is none iniquitie in me.
10 Lo, hee hath found occasions against mee, and counted me for his enemie.
11 He hath put my feete in the stockes, and looketh narowly vnto all my paths.
12 Beholde, in this hast thou not done right: I will answere thee, that God is greater then man.
13 Why doest thou striue against him? for he doeth not [e] giue account of all his matters.
14 For God speaketh [f] once or twise, and one seeth it not.
15 In dreames and [g] visions of the night, when sleepe falleth vpon men, and they sleepe vpon their beds, 16 Then he openeth the eares of men, euen by their corrections, which he [h] had sealed, 17 That hee might cause man to turne away from his enterprise, and that hee might hide the [i] pride of man, 18 And keepe backe his soule from the pit, and that his life should not passe by the sword.
19 He is also striken with sorow vpon his bed, a I confesse the power of God, and am one of his, therefore thou oughtest to heare mee.

b Because Iob had wished to dispute his cause with God, Chap. 13.3, so that he might doe it without feare, Elihu sayth, he wil reason in Gods stead, whom he needeth not to feare, because he is a man made of the same matter that he is.
c I will not handle thee so roughly as these others haue done.
d He repeateth Iobs words, whereby he protested his innocencie in diuers places, but specially in the 13.16. and 30. Chapter.
e The cause of his iudgements is not alwayes declared to man.
f Though God by sundry examples of his iudgements speake vnto man, yet the reason thereof is not knowen: yea and though God should speake, yet he is not vnderstande.
g God sayth hee speaketh commonly, either by visions to teach vs the cause of his iudgements, or els by afflictions, or by his messengers.
h That is, determined to send vpon them.
i He sheweth for what end God sendeth afflictions: to beate downe mans pride, and to turne from euill.

and

and the griefe of his bones is sore, 20 So that his [k] life causeth him to abhorre bread, and his soule daintie meate.
21 His flesh faileth that it can not be seene, and his bones which were not seene, clatter.
22 So his soule draweth to the graue, and his life [l] to the buriers.
23 If there be a [m] messenger with him, or an interpreter, one of a thousand [n] to declare vnto man his righteousnesse, 24 Then wil he haue [o] mercie vpon him, and will say, [p] Deliuer him, that he go not downe into the pit: for I haue receiued a reconciliation.
25 Then shal his flesh be [q] as fresh as a childes, and shall returne as in the dayes of his youth.
26 He shall pray vnto God, and he wil be fauourable vnto him, and hee shall see his face with ioy: for he wil render vnto man his [r] righteousnes.
27 Hee looketh vpon men, and if one say, I haue sinned, and [s] peruerted righteousnesse, and it did not profite [t] me, 28 [u] He will deliuer his soule from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.
29 Lo, all these things will God worke [x] twise or thrise with a man, 30 That he may turne backe his soule from the pit, to be illuminate in the light of the liuing.
31 Marke well, O Iob, and heare me: keepe silence, and I will speake.
32 If there be matter, answere me, and speake:
for I desire to [z] iustifie thee.
33 If thou hast not, heare mee: holde thy tongue, and I will teach thee wisedome.

k That is, his principall and desirable life. l To them that shall burie him. m A man sent of God to declare his will. n A singular man, and as one chosen out of a thousand, which is able to declare the great mercies of God vnto sinners: and wherein mans righteousnes standeth, which is through the iustice of Iesus Christ and faith therein. o He sheweth that it is a sure token of Gods mercie towards sinners, when he causeth his worde to be preached vnto them. p That is, the minister shall by the preaching of the worde pronounce vnto him the forgiuenesse of his sinnes. q He shall feele Gods fauour and reioyce: declaring hereby, wherein standeth the true ioy of the faithful: and that God will restore him to health of body, which is a token of his blessing. r God will forgiue his sinnes and accept him as iust. s That is, done wickedly. t But my sinne hath bene the cause of Gods wrath toward me. u God will forgiue the penitent sinner. x Meaning, oft times, euen as oft as a sinner doeth repent. y If thou doubt of any thing, or see occasion to speake against it. z That is, to shew thee, wherein mans iustification consisteth.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

5 Elihu chargeth Iob, that he called himselfe righteous. 12 He sheweth that God is iust in his iudgements. 24 God destroyeth the mightie. 30 By him the hypocrite reigneth.

MOreouer Elihu answered, and sayde, 2 Heare my wordes, ye [a] wise men, and hearken vnto me, ye that haue knowledge.
3 For the eare tryeth the words, as the mouth tasteth meate.
4 Let vs seeke [b] iudgement among vs, and let vs know among our selues what is good.
5 For Iob hath sayd, I am righteous, & God hath taken [c] away my iudgement.
6 Should I lye in my [d] right? my wound of the arrowe is [e] grieuous without my sinne.
7 What man is like Iob, that drinketh [f] scorn-fulnesse like water?
8 Which goeth in the [g] company of them that worke iniquitie, and walketh with wicked men?
9 For he hath sayde, [h] It profiteth a man nothing that he should [i] walke with God.
10 Therefore hearken vnto mee, yee men of wisedome. God forbid that wickednes should be in God, and iniquitie in the Almightie.
11 For he will render vnto man according to his worke, and cause euery one to finde according to his way.
12 And certainely God wil not doe wickedly, neither wil the Almightie peruert iudgement.
13 Whome *hath he appointed ouer the earth beside him selfe? or who hath placed the whole worlde?

a Which are esteemed wise of the worlde. b Let vs examine the matter vprightly. c That is, hath afflicted me without measure. d Should I say, I am wicked, being as innocent? e I am sorer punished, then my sinne deserueth. f Which is compelled to receiue the reproch and scornes of many for his foolish wordes. g Meaning, that Iob was like to the wicked, because he seemed not to glorifie God and submit himselfe to his iudgement. h Hee wresteth Iobs wordes, who sayd ỹ Gods children are oft times punished in this worlde, and the wicked goe free. i That is, liue godly, as Gene. 5. 22. * Chap. 36. 23.

14 If [k] he set his heart vpon man, and gather vnto himselfe his spirit [l] and his breath, 15 All flesh shal perish together, and man shal returne vnto dust, 16 And if thou hast vnderstanding, heare this and hearken to the voyce of my wordes.
17 Shal he that hateth iudgement, [m] gouerne?
and wilt thou iudge him wicked that is most iust?
18 Wilt thou say vnto a King, Thou art [n] wicked? or to princes, Ye are vngodly?
19 How much lesse to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, & regardeth not the rich, more then the poore? for they be all the worke of his handes.
20 They shall die suddenly, [o] and the people shalbe troubled at midnight, [p] and they shall passe foorth and take away the mightie without hand.
21 For his eyes are vpon the wayes of man, and he seeth all his goings.
22 There is no darkenesse nor shadowe of death, that the workers of iniquitie might be hid therein.
23 For hee will not lay on man so much, that he should [q] enter into iudgement with God.
24 He shall breake the mightie without [r] seeking, and shall set vp other in their stead.
25 Therefore shal he declare their [s] workes: he shall turne the [t] night, and they shalbe destroyed: 26 He striketh them as wicked men in the places of the [u] seers, 27 Because they haue turned backe from him,
and would not consider all his wayes: 28 So that they haue caused the voyce of the poore to [x] come vnto him, and he hath heard the cry of the afflicted.
29 And when he giueth quietnesse, who can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who can beholde him, whether it be vpon nations, or vpon a man onely?
30 Because the [y] hypocrite doeth reigne, and because the people are snared.
31 Surely it appertaineth vnto God [z] to say, I haue pardoned, I wil not destroy.
32 [a] But if I see not, teach thou mee: if I haue done wickedly, I will doe no more.
33 Wil he performe the thing through [b] thee?
for thou hast reproued [c] it, because that thou hast chosen, and not I, now speake what thou knowest.
34 Let men of vnderstanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken vnto me.
35 Iob hath not spoken of knowledge, neither were his wordes according to wisdome.
36 I desired that Iob may be [d] tryed, vnto the ende touching the answeres for wicked men.
37 For hee [e] addeth rebellion vnto his sinne:
he clappeth his handes among vs, and multiplieth his wordes against God.

k To destroy him. l The breath of life which he gaue man. m If God were not iust, howe could he gouerne the worlde? n If man of nature feare to speake euil of such as haue power, then much more ought they to be afraid to speake euil of God. o When they looke not for it. p The messengers of visitation that God shall send. q God doeth not afflict man aboue measure, so that he should haue occasion to contende with him. r For all his creatures are at hande to serue him, so that he needeth not to seeke for any other army. s Make them manifest that they are wicked. t Declare the things that were hid. u Meaning, openly in the sight of all men. x By their crueltie, and extortion. y When tyrants sit in the throne of Iustice which vnder pretence of executing iustice are but hypocrites and oppresse the people, it is a signe that God hath drawen backe his countenance and fauour from that place. z Onely it belongeth to God to moderate his correction, and not vnto man. a Thus Elihu speaketh in the person of God, as it were mocking Iob because hee would be wiser then God. b Will God vse thy counsell in doing his workes? c Thus he speaketh in the person of God, as though Iob should chose and refuse affliction at his pleasure. d That he may speake as much as he can, that we may answere him and all the wicked that shall vse such arguments. e He standeth stubburnely in the maintenance of his cause.

CHAP. XXXV.

6 Neither doeth godlinesse profite, or vngodlinesse hurt God, but man. 13 The wicked crie vnto God and are not heard.

ELihu spake moreouer, and sayd,
2 Thinkest thou this right, that thou hast sayd, I am [a] more righteous then God?
3 For thou hast sayd, What profiteth it thee and what auaileth it me, to purge me frõ my sinne?

a Iob [illegible] spake [illegible] was [illegible] cause [illegible] as though hee would say, that God tormented him without iust cause.

4 Therefore

4 Therefore will I answere thee, and thy [b] companions with thee.
5 Looke vnto the heauen, and see and behold
the [c] cloudes which are hier then thou.
6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou [d] against him, yea, when thy sinnes bee many, what doest thou vnto him?
7 If thou be righteous, what giuest thou vnto him? or what receiueth he at thine hand?
8 Thy wickednesse may hurt a man as thou art:
and thy righteousnes may profite the sonne of man.
9 They cause many that are oppressed, [e] to crie, which crie out for the violence of the mighty.
10 But none sayth, Where is God that made me, which giueth songs in the night?
11 Which teacheth vs more then the beastes of the earth, and giueth vs more wisedome then the foules of the heauen.
12 Then they crye because of the violence of the wicked, but [f] he answereth not.
13 Surely God will not heare vanitie, neither will the Almightie regard it.
14 Although thou sayest to God, Thou wilt not regard it, [g] yet iudgement is before him: trust thou in him.
15 But nowe because his anger hath not visited, nor called to count the euill with great extremitie,
16 Therfore Iob [h] openeth his mouth in vaine, and multiplieth wordes without knowledge.

b Such as are in the like errour.
c If thou canst not control the clouds, wilt thou presume to instruct God?
d Neither doth thy sinne hurt God, nor thy iustice profite him: for he will be glorified without thee.
e The wicked may hurt man and cause him to cry, who if he sought to God, which sendeth comfort, should be deliuered.
f Because they pray not in faith, as feeling Gods mercies.
g God is iust, howsoeuer thou iudgest of him.
h For if he did punish thee as thou deseruest, thou shouldest not be able to open thy mouth.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 Elihu sheweth the power of God, 6 And his iustice, 9 And wherefore he punisheth. 13 The propertie of the wicked.

ELihu also proceeded and sayde, 2 Suffer me a litle, and I will instruct thee:
for I haue yet to speake on Gods behalfe.
3 I will fetch [a] my knowledge a farre off, and will attribute righteousnesse vnto my Maker.
4 For truely my words shall not be false, and he that is [b] perfect in knowledg, speaketh with thee.
5 Behold, the mighty God casteth away none that is [c] mighty and valiant of courage.
6 [d] Hee mainteineth not the wicked, but he giueth iudgement to the afflicted.
7 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous, but they are with [e] kings in the throne, where he placeth them for euer: thus they are exalted.
8 And if they bee bounde in fetters and tyed with the cordes of affliction, 9 Then will he shewe them their [f] worke and their sinnes, because they haue bene proude.
10 He openeth also their eare to discipline, and cōmandeth them that they returne from iniquity.
11 * If they obey and serue him, they shall end their dayes in prosperity, & their yeres in pleasures.
12 But if they will not obey, they shal passe by the sword, and perish [g] without knowledge.
13 But the hypocrites [h] of heart increase the wrath: for they [i] call not when he bindeth them.
14 Their soule dyeth in [k] youth, and their life among the whoremongers.
15 He deliuereth the poore in his affliction, and openeth their eare in trouble.
16 Euen so would he haue taken thee out of the streight place into a broade place and not shut vp beneath: and [l] that which resteth vpon thy table, had bene full of fat.
17 But thou art full of the [m] iudgement of the wicked, though iudgement and equitie maintaine all things.
18 [n] For Gods wrath is, least he should take thee away in thine abundance: for no multitude of giftes can deliuer thee.
19 Will he regard thy riches? he regardeth not golde, nor all them that excell in strength.
20 [o] Be not carefull in the night, howe he de-stroyeth the people out of their place.
21 Take thou heede: looke not to [p] iniquitie:
for thou hast chosen it rather then affliction.
22 Beholde, God exalteth by his power: what teacher is like him?
23 Who hath appoynted to him his way? or who can say, Thou hast done wickedly?
24 Remember that thou magnifie his worke, which men behold.
25 All men see it, and men beholde it [q] afarre off.
26 Beholde, God is excellent, [r] and we knowe him not, neither can the nomber of his yeeres be searched out.
27 When he restraineth the drops of water,
the raine [s] powreth downe by the vapour thereof, 28 Which raine the cloudes doe drop and let fall abundantly vpon man.
29 Who can know the diuisions of the clouds and the thunders of his [t] tabernacle?
30 Beholde, he spreadeth his light vpon [u] it, and couereth the [x] bottome of the sea.
31 For thereby he iudgeth [y] the people, and giueth meate abundantly.
32 He couereth the light with the clouds, and commandeth them to goe [z] against it.
33 [a] His companion sheweth him thereof, and there is anger in rising vp.

a He sheweth that when we speake of God, we must lift vp our spirits more hie, then our naturall sense is able to teach.
b Thou shalt perceiue that I am a faithfull instructour, and that I speake to thee in the name of God.
c Strong and constant, and of vnderstanding: for these are the giftes of God, and he loueth them in man: but forasmuch as God punished now Iob, it is a signe that these are not in him.
d Therfore he will not preserue the wicked: but to the humble and afflicted heart he will shew grace.
e He preferreth the godly to honour.
f He will moue their hearts to feele their sinnes that they may come to him by repentance as he did Manasseh.
* Isa. 1.19.
g That is, in their folly or obstination and so shalbe cause of their owne destruction. h Which are maliciously bent against God and flatter themselues in their vices. i When they are in affliction they seeke not to God for succour, as Asa. 2. Chro. 16. 12. Reue. 16. 11. k They die of some vile death and that before they come to age. l If thou hadst bene obedient to God, he would haue brought thee to libertie and wealth.

m Thou art altogether after the maner of the wicked: for thou dost murmure against the iustice of God.
n God doth punish thee, least thou shouldest forget God in thy wealth & so perish.
o Be not thou curious in seeking the cause of Gods iudgements, when he destroyeth any.
p And so murmure against God through impaciencie.
q The workes of God are so manifest, that a man may see them a farre off and know God by the same.
r Our infirmitie hindereth vs so, that we cannot atteine to the perfite knowledge of God.
s That is, the raine commeth of those drops of water, which he kepeth in the clouds.
t Meaning of the cloudes, which he calleth the Tabernacle of God.
u Vpon the cloud.
x That men cannot come to the knowledge of the springs thereof.
y He sheweth that the rayne hath double vse: the one that it declareth Gods iudgements, when it doth ouerflowe any places, and the other that it maketh the land fruitefull. z That is, one cloude to dash against another. a The colde vapour sheweth him: that is, the cloude of the hote exhalation, which being taken in the colde cloude mounteth vp toward the place where the fire is, and so anger is ingendred: that is, noyse and thunder clappes.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 Elihu prooueth that the vnsearcheable wisedome of God is manifest by his workes, 4 As by the thunders, 6 The snowe, 9 The whirlewinde, 11 And the raine.

AT this also mine heart is [a] astonied, and is mooued out of his place.
2 Heare the [b] sound of his voyce, and the noise that goeth out of his mouth.
3 He directeth it vnder the whole heauen, and his light vnto the endes of the world.
4 After it a noyse soundeth: hee thundreth with the voyce of his maiestie, and hee will not stay [c] them when his voyce is heard.
5 God thundreth marueilously with his voyce:
he worketh great things, which we know not.
6 For he saith to the snowe, Be thou vpon the earth: [d] likewise to the small rayne and to the great rayne of his power.
7 With the force thereof he [e] shutteth vp eue-ry man, that all men may knowe his worke.
8 Then the beastes goe into the denne, and remaine in their places.
9 The whirlewind commeth out of the South, and the colde from the [f] North winde.

a At the marueiling of the thunders and lightnings whereby he declareth that the faithfull are liuely touched with the maiestie of God, when they behold his workes.
b That is, the thunder, whereby he speaketh to men to waken their dulnesse, and to bring them to the consideration of his workes.
c Meaning the raines & thunders.
d So that neither small raine nor great, snow nor any thing els commeth without Gods appointment. e By raynes and thunders God causeth men to keepe themselues within their houses. f In Ebrewe it is called the scattering winde, Because it driueth away the cloudes and purgeth the ayre.

10 At the breath of God the frost is giuen, and the breadth of the waters g is made narrow.
11 He maketh also the cloudes to h labour, to water the earth, and scattereth the cloude of i his light.
12 And it is turned about by his gouernment, that they may doe whatsoeuer he commaundeth them vpon the whole world: 13 Whether it be for k punishment, or for his land, or of mercie, he causeth it to come.
14 Hearken vnto this, O Iob: stand and consider the wonderous works of God.
15 Diddest thou knowe when God disposed them? and caused the l light of his cloud to shine?
16 Hast thou knowen the m varietie of the cloude, and the wonderous workes of him, that is perfite in knowledge?
17 Or howe thy clothes are n warme, when he maketh the earth quiet through the South winde?
18 Hast thou stretched out the heauens, which are strong, and as a molten o glasse?
19 Tell vs what we shall say vnto him: for we cannot dispose our matter because of p darknesse.
20 Shall it be q tolde him when I speake? or shall man speake when he shalbe r destroyed?
21 And nowe men see not the light, s which shineth in the cloudes, but the winde passeth and clenseth them.
22 The t brightnesse commeth out of the North: the praise thereof is to God, which is terrible.
23 It is the Almightie: we can not finde him out: he is excellent in power and iudgement, and abundant in iustice: he u afflicteth not.
24 Let men therefore feare him: for hee will not regarde any that are wise in their owne conceit.

g That is, it is frozen vp and dried.
h Gather the vapours, and mooue to and fro to water the earth.
i That is, the cloud that hath lightening in it.
k Raine, colde, heate, tempests and such like are sent of God, either to punish man, or to prosper the earth, or to declare his fauour toward man, as Chap. 36.31.
l That is, the lightning to breake foorth in the cloudes?
m Which is sometime changed into raine, or snowe, or haile or such like.
n Why thy clothes shoulde keepe thee warme, when the South winde bloweth, rather then when any other winde bloweth?
o For their cleanenesse.
p That is, our ignorance: signifying that Iob was so presumptuous that he would controll the works of God.
q Hath God need that any shoulde tell him when man murmureth against him? r If God would destroy a man, should he repine? s The cloud stoppeth the shining of the sunne, that man can not see it till the winde haue chased away the cloud: and if man be able to attaine to the knowledge of these things, how much lesse of Gods iudgements? t In Ebrew, golde: meaning faire weather and cleare as golde. u Meaning, without cause.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 God speaketh to Iob, and declareth the weakenesse of man in the consideration of his creatures, by whose excellencie the power, iustice and prouidence of the Creator is knowen.

THen answered the Lord vnto Iob out of the a whirle winde, and said, 2 Who is this that b darkeneth the counsell by words without knowledge?
3 Gird vp now thy loines like a man: I c will demaund of thee and declare thou vnto me.
4 Where wast thou when I layd the d foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast vnder-standing,
5 Who hath layde the measures thereof, if thou knowest, or who hath stretched the line ouer it:
6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof set:
or who layd the corner stone thereof:
7 When the starres of the morning e praysed me together, and all the f children of God reioyced:
8 Or who hath shut vp the Sea with doores, when it issued and came foorth as out of the wombe:

a That his worde might haue greater maiestie, & that Iob might know with whome he had to doe.
b Which by seeking out the secret counsel of God by mans reason, maketh it more obscure and sheweth his owne follie.
c Because he had wished to dispute with God, Chap. 13.3. God reasoneth with him to declare his rashnesse.
d Seeing he could not iudge of those things which were done so long before he was borne, he was not able to comprehende all Gods works: much lesse the secret causes of his iudgements.
e The starres and dumme creatures are said to praise God, because his power, wisdome and goodnesse is manifest and knowen therein. f Meaning, the Angels.

9 When I made the cloudes as a couering thereof, and darkenesse as the g swadling bandes
thereof:
10 When I stablished my commandement vp-on it, and set barres and doores, 11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no farther, and here h shall it stay thy proud waues.
12 Hast thou commanded the i morning since thy dayes? hast thou caused the morning to know his place, 13 That it might take holde of the corners of the earth, and that the wicked might be k shaken out of it?
14 It is turned as clay to fashion, l and all stand vp as a garment.
15 And from the wicked their light shalbe taken away, and the hie arme shalbe broken.
16 Hast thou entred into the bottomes of the sea? or hast thou walked to seeke out the m depth?
17 Haue the gates of death bene opened vnto thee? or hast thou seene the gates of the shadowe of death?
18 Hast thou perceiued the breadth of the earth? tell if thou knowest all this.
19 Where is the way where light dwelleth? & where is the place of darkenesse, 20 That thou n shouldest receiue it in the bounds thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof?
21 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then borne, and because the number of thy dayes is great?
22 Hast thou entred into the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seene the treasures of the haile, 23 Which I haue o hidde against the time of trouble against the day of warre and battell?
24 By what way is the light parted, which scat-tereth the East winde vpon the earth?
25 Who hath diuided the spouts for the raine?
or the way for the lighening of the thunders, 26 To cause it to raine on the earth where no man is, and in the wildernesse where there is no man?
27 To fulfill the wilde and waste place, and to cause the bud of the herbe to spring forth?
28 Who is the father of the raine? or who hath begotten the droppes of the dew?
29 Out of whose wombe came the yce? who hath ingendred the frost of the heauen?
30 The waters are hid p as with a stone: and the face of the depth is frozen.
31 Canst thou restraine the sweete influences of q the Pleiades? or loose the bandes of r Orion?
32 Canst thou bring foorth s Mazzaroth in their time? canst thou also guide t Arcturus with his sonnes?
33 Knowest thou the course of heauen, or canst thou set u the rule thereof in the earth?
34 Canst thou lift vp thy voice to the cloudes that the abundance of water may couer thee?
35 Canst thou sende the lightenings that they may walke, and say vnto thee, Loe, heere we are?
36 Who hath put wisedome in the x reines? or who hath giuen the heart vnderstanding?
37 Who can number clouds by wisedome? or who can cause to cease the y bottels of heauen, 38 When the earth groweth into hardnesse, z and the doores are fast together?

g As though the great sea were but as a litle babe in the hands of God to turne to & fro.
h That is, Gods decree and commandement, as verse 10.
i To wit, to rise, since thou wast borne?
k Who hauing in the night bene giuen to wickednesse, can not abide the light, but hide themselues.
l The earth which seemed in the night to haue no forme, by the rising of the sunne is as it were created anew, and all things therein clad with new beautie.
m If thou art not able to seeke out the depth of the sea, how much lesse art thou able to comprehend the counsell of God?
n That thou mightest appoint it his way and limits.
o To punish mine enemies with them, as Exod. 9.18. Iosh. 10.11.
p The yce couereth it, as though it were paued with stone.
q Which starres arise when the sunne is in Taurus, which is the spring time, and bring flowers.
r Which starre bringeth in winter. s Certaine starres so called: some thinke they were the twelue signes.
t The North starre with those that are about him?
u Canst thou cause the heauenly bodies to haue any power ouer the [illegible] bodies?
x In the [illegible] parts of [illegible]
y That is, [illegible] cloudes [illegible] the water [illegible] as in bottels.
z For when God doeth not open these bottels, the earth commeth as [illegible] [illegible]ce.

CHAP.

CHAP. XXXIX.

The bountie and prouidence of God, which watcheth euen to the yong rauens, giueth man full occasion to put his confidence in God. 37 Iob confesseth and humbleth himselfe.

Wilt [a] thou hunt the pray for the lion? or fill the appetite of the lions whelps, 2 When they couch in their places, and re-maine in the couert to lie in wait?
3 Who prepareth for the rauen his meate, when his birdes [b] crie vnto God, wandering for lacke of meate?
4 Knowest thou the time when the wilde goates bring foorth yoong? or doest thou marke when the [c] hindes doe calue?
5 Canst thou number the moneths that they [d] fulfill? or knowest thou the time when they bring foorth?
6 They bowe themselues: they [e] bruise their yong and cast out their sorowes.
7 Yet their yoong waxe fatte, and growe vp with corne: they goe foorth and returne not vnto
them.
8 Who hath set the wilde asse at libertie? or who hath loosed the bonds of the wilde asse?
9 It is I which haue made the wildernesse his house, and the [f] salt places his dwellings.
10 He derideth the multitude of the citie: he heareth not the crie of the driuer.
11 He seeketh out the mountaine for his pasture, and searcheth after euery greene thing.
12 Will the vnicorne [g] serue thee? or will he tary by thy cribbe?
13 Canst thou binde the vnicorne with his band to labour in the furrow? or will he plow the vallies after thee?
14 Wilt thou trust in him, because his strength is great, and cast off thy labour vnto him?
15 Wilt thou beleeue him, that he will bring home thy seed, and gather it vnto thy barne?
16 Hast thou giuen the pleasant winges vnto the peacockes? or winges and feathers vnto the ostrich?
17 Which leaueth his egges in the earth, and maketh [h] them hote in the dust, 18 And forgetteth that the foote might scatter them, or that the wilde beast might breake them.
19 He sheweth himselfe cruell vnto his yoong ones, as they were not his, and is without feare, as if he trauelled [i] in vaine.
20 For God hath depriued him of [k] wisedome, and hath giuen him no part of vnderstanding.
21 When [l] time is, he mounteth on hie: he mocketh the horse and his rider.
22 Hast thou giuen the horse strength? or co-uered his necke with [m] neying?
23 Hast thou made him afraid as the gras-hopper? his strong neying is fearefull.
24 He [n] diggeth in the valley, and reioyceth in his strength: he goeth foorth to meete the har-nest man.
25 He mocketh at feare, and is not afraid, and turneth not backe from the sword, 26 Though the quiuer rattle against him, the glittering speare and the shield.
27 He [o] swalloweth the ground for fearcenes and rage, and he beleeueth not that it is the noise of the trumpet.
28 He sayth among the trumpets, Ha, ha: he smelleth the battell a farre off, and the noyse of the captaines, and the shouting.
29 Shall the hauke flie by thy wisdome, stretching out his wings toward the [p] South?
30 Doeth the egle mount vp at thy commandement, or make his nest on hie?
31 Shee abideth and remaineth in the rocke, euen vpon the top of the rocke, and the tower.
32 From thence she spieth for meate, and her eyes beholde a farre off.
33 His yoong ones also sucke vp blood: and where the slaine are, there is she.
34 Moreouer the Lord spake vnto Iob, & said, 35 Is this to [q] learne, to striue with the Al-mightie? he that reprooueth God, let him an-swere to it.
36 ¶ Then Iob answered the Lord, saying, 37 Beholde, I am [r] vile: what shall I answere thee? I will lay mine hand vpon my mouth.
38 Once haue I spoken, but I will answere no more, yea twise, but I will proceed no further.

CHAP. XL.

1 Howe weake mans power is, being compared to the workes of God: 10 Whose power appeareth in the creation, and gouerning of the great beasts.

Againe the Lorde answered Iob out of * the whirle winde, and said, 2 Gird vp nowe thy loynes like a man: I will
demaund of thee, and declare thou vnto me.
3 Wilt thou disanull [a] my iudgement? or wilt thou condemne me, that thou maist be iustified?
4 Or hast thou an arme like God? or doest thou thunder with a voyce like him?
5 Decke thy selfe now with [b] maiestie & ex-cellencie, and aray thy selfe with beautie & glorie.
6 Cast abroad the indignation of thy wrath, and beholde euery one that is proude, and abase
him.
7 Looke on euery one that is arrogant, and bring him lowe: and destroy the wicked in their place.
8 Hide them in the dust together, and binde
[c] their faces in a secret place.
9 Then will I confesse vnto thee also, that thy right hand can [d] saue thee.
10 ¶ Behold now [e] Behemoth (whom I made [f] with thee) which eateth [g] grasse as an oxe.
11 Beholde nowe, his strength is in his loynes, and his force is in the nauill of his bellie.
12 When hee taketh pleasure, his taile is like a cedar: the sinewes of his stones are wrapt together.
13 His bones are like staues of brasse, and his small bones like staues of yron.
14 [h] He is the chiefe of the wayes of God: [i] he that made him, will make his sworde to approch vnto him.
15 Surely the mountaines bring him foorth grasse, where all the beasts of the field play.
16 Lieth he vnder the trees in the couert of the reed and fennes?
17 Can the trees couer him with their shadow?
or can the willowes of the riuer compasse him about?
18 Behold, he spoilleth the riuer, [k] and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw vp Iorden into his mouth.
19 He taketh it with his eyes, and thrusteth his nose through whatsoeuer meeteth him.
20 ¶ Canst thou draw out [l] Liuiathan with an hooke, & with a line which thou shalt cast downe vnto his tongue?
21 Canst thou cast an hooke into his nose?

a After he had declared Gods workes in the heauens, he sheweth his maruellous prouidence in earth, euen toward the bruite beastes.
b Reade Psal. 147.9.
c He chiefly maketh mention of wilde goates and hindes because they bring foorth their yong with most difficultie.
d That is, how long they go with yong?
e They bring forth with great difficultie.
f That is, the barren ground where no good fruites grow.
g Is it possible to make the vnicorne tame? signifying that if man cannot rule a creature, that it is much more impossible that he shoulde appoint the wisdome of God, whereby he gouerneth all the world.
h They write that the ostrich couereth her egges in the sand, and because the countrey is hote and the sunne still keepeth them warme, they are hatched.
i If she should take care for them.
k That is, to haue a care, & naturall affection toward his yong.
l When the yong ostrich is growen vp, he out runneth the horse.
m That is, giuen him courage? which is meant by neying & shaking his mane: for with his breath he couereth his necke.
n He beateth with his hoofe.
o He so riddeth the ground, that it seemeth nothing vnder him.
p That is, when colde commeth, flie into the warme countries.
q Is this the way for a man that will learne, to striue with God, which thing he reproueth in Iob.
r Whereby he sheweth that he repented, and desired pardon for his faults.

e This beast is thought to be the elephant, or some other, which is vnknowen.

g This commendeth the prouidence of God toward man: for if he were giuen to deuour as a lion, nothing were able to resist him or content him.
h He is one of the chiefest workes of God among the beasts.

or speake thee faire?
23 Will hee make a couenant with thee? and wilt thou take [n] him for a seruant for euer?
24 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou binde him for thy maides?
25 Shall the companions banket with him?
shall they deuide him among the marchants?
26 Canst thou fill the basket with his skinne?
or the fishpanier with his head?
27 Lay thine hand vpon him: remember [o] the battell, and doe no more so.
28 Beholde, [p] his hope is in vaine: for shall not one perish euen at the sight of him?

m Because he feareth lest thou shouldest take him.
n To doe thy businesse, and be at thy commandement.
o If thou onely consider the danger, thou wilt not medle with him.
p To wit, that trusteth to take him.

CHAP. XLI.

1 By the greatnesse of this monster Leuiathan God sheweth his greatnesse, and his power, which nothing can resist.

NOne is so fearce that dare stirre him vp. Who is he then that can stand [a] before me?
2 Who hath preuented me that I should [b] make an ende? All vnder heauen is mine.
3 I will not keepe silence concerning [c] his partes, nor his power nor his comely proportion.
4 Who can discouer the face [d] of his garment?
or who shall come to him with a double [e] bridle?
5 Who shall [f] open the doores of his face? his teeth are fearefull round about.
6 The maiestie of his scales is like strong shields, and are sure sealed.
7 One is set to another, that no winde can come betweene them.
8 One is ioyned to another: they sticke together, that they cannot be sundered.
9 His niesings [g] make the light to shine, and his eyes are like the eye lids of the morning.
10 Out of his mouth go lampes, and sparkes of fire leape out.
11 Out of his nostrels commeth out smoke, as out of a boyling pot or caldron.
12 His breath maketh the coales burne: for a flame goeth out of his mouth.
13 In his necke remayneth strength, and [h] labour is reiected before his face.
14 The members of his body are ioyned: they are strong in themselues, and cannot be mooued.
15 His heart is as strong as a stone, and as hard as the nether milstone.
16 The mightie are afraid of his maiestie, and for feare they faint in themselues.
17 When the sword doeth touch him, he will not rise vp, nor for the speare, dart nor habergeon.
18 He esteemeth yron as strawe, and brasse as rotten wood.
19 The archer cannot make him flee: the stones of the sling are turned into stubble vnto him.
20 The dartes are counted as strawe: and he laugheth at the shaking of the speare.
21 Sharpe stones [i] are vnder him, and he spreadeth sharpe things vpon the myre.
22 He maketh the depth to [k] boyle like a pot, and maketh the sea like a pot of oyntment.
23 He maketh a path to [l] shine after him, one would thinke the depth as an hoare head.
24 In the earth there is none like him: he is made without feare.
25 He beholdeth [m] all hie things: he is a King ouer all the children of pride.

a If none dare stand against a whale, which is but a creature, who is able to compare with God the Creator?
b Who hath taught me to accomplish my worke?
c The partes, and members of the whale.
d That is, who dare pull off his skinne?
e Who dare put a bridle in his mouth?
g That is, casteth out flames of fire.
h Nothing is painefull or hard vnto him.
i His skinne is so hard that he lyeth with as great ease on the stones as in the myre.
k Either he maketh the sea to seeme as it boyled by his wallowing, or els he spouteth water in such abundance, as it would seeme that the sea boyled.
l That is, a white froth, and shining streame before him.
m He despiseth all other beastes and monsters, and is the prowdest of all others.

CHAP. XLII.

6 The repentance of Iob. 9 Hee prayeth for his friendes. 12 His goods are restored double vnto him. 13 His children, age and death.

THen Iob answered the Lord, and sayd, 2 I knowe that thou canst doe all things, and there is no [a] thought hidde from thee.
3 Who is hee that hideth counsell without [b] knowledge? therefore haue I spoken that I vnderstoode not, euen things too wonderfull for me, [c] and which I knew not.
4 Heare, I beseech thee, and I will speake: I will demaund of thee, [d] and declare thou vnto me.
5 I haue [e] heard of thee by the hearing of the eare, but nowe mine eye seeth thee.
6 Therefore I abhorre my selfe, and repent in dust and ashes.
7 ¶ Now after that the Lord had spoken these wordes vnto Iob, the Lord also said vnto Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, & against thy two friends: for ye haue not spoken of me the thing that is [f] right, like my seruant [g] Iob.
8 Therefore take vnto you nowe seuen bullockes, and seuen rammes, and goe to my seruant Iob, and offer vp for your selues a burnt offering, and my seruant Iob shall [h] pray for you: for I will accept him, least I shoulde put you to shame, because ye haue not spoken of me the thing, which is right, like my seruant Iob.
9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, went, and did according as the Lord had said vnto them, and the Lord accepted Iob.
10 ¶ Then the Lord turned the [i] captiuitie of Iob, when he prayed for his friends: also the Lord gaue Iob twise so much as he had before.
11 Then came vnto him all his [k] brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had bene of his acquaintance before, and did eate bread with him in his house, and had compassion of him, and comforted him for all the euill, that the Lord had brought vpon him, and euery man gaue him a ‖ piece of money, and euery one an earing of golde.
12 So the Lord blessed the last dayes of Iob more then the first: for he had [l] foureteene thousand sheepe, and sixe thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand shee asses.
13 He had also seuen sonnes, & three daughters.
14 And he called the name of one [m] Iemimah, and the name of the second [n] Keziah, and the name of the third [o] Keren-happuch.
15 In all the land were no women founde so faire as the daughters of Iob, and their father gaue them inheritance among their brethren.
16 And after this liued Iob an hundreth and fourtie yeeres, and sawe his sonnes, and his sonnes sonnes, euen foure generations.
17 So Iob died, being old, and full of dayes.

a No thought so secret, but thou doest see it, nor any thing that thou thinkest, but thou canst bring it to passe.
b Is there any but I? for this God layd to his charge, Chap. 38. 2. c I confesse herein mine ignorance, and that I spake I wist not what.
d He sheweth that he will be Gods scholer to learne of him.
e I knewe thee onely before by hearesay: but now thou hast caused me to feele what thou art to me, that I may resigne my selfe ouer vnto thee.
f You tooke in hand an euil cause, in that you condemned him by his outward afflictions and not comforted him with my mercies.
g Who had a good cause, but handeled it euill.
h When you haue reconciled your selues to him for the faults that you haue committed against him, he shall pray for you, and I will heare him.
i He deliuered him out of the affliction wherein he was.
k That is, all his kinred reade Chap. 19. 13.
‖ Or, lambe, or money so marked.
l God made him twise so rich in cattell as he was afore, and gaue him as many children, as he had taken from him.

n As pleasant as cassia, or sweete spice.

THE * PSALMES OF DAVID.

*Or, prayses, according to the Ebrewes: and were chiefly institute to prayse and giue thankes to God for his benefites. They are called the Psalmes or Songs of Dauid, because the most part were made by him.

THE ARGVMENT.

This booke of Psalmes is set forth vnto vs by the holy Ghost to be esteemed as a most precious treasure, wherein all things are conteined that appertaine to true felicitie: aswel in this life present as in the life to come. For the riches of true knowledge, and heauenly wisdome are here set open for vs, to take thereof most abundantly. If we would knowe the great, and hie maiestie of God, here we may see the brightnes thereof shine most clearely. If we would seeke his incomprehensible wisdome, here is the schole of the same profession. If we would comprehend his inestimable bountie, and approche neere thereunto, and fill our hands with that treasure, here we may haue a most liuely, & comfortable taste therof. If we would know wherein standeth our saluation, and how to attaine to life euerlasting, here is Christ our onely redeemer, and mediatour most euidently described. The rich man may learne the true vse of his riches. The poore man may finde full contentation. He that will reioyce, shal knowe the true ioye, and how to keepe measure therein. They that are afflicted and oppressed, shal see wherein standeth their comfort, and how they ought to praise God when he sendeth them deliuerance. The wicked & the persecuters of the children of God shal see how the hand of God is euer against them: and though he suffer them to prosper for a while, yet he brideleth them, in so much as they cannot touch an haire of ones head, except he permit thẽ, and how in the end their destruction is most miserable. Briefely, here we haue most present remedies against all tentations, and troubles of mind and conscience, so that being wel practised herein, we may be assured against all dangers in this life, liue in the true feare, and loue of God, and at length attaine to that incorruptible crowne of glorie, which is laide vp for all them that loue the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ.

PSALME I.

Whether it was Esdras, or any other that gathered the Psalmes into a booke, it seemeth he did set this Psalme first in maner of a preface, to exhort all godly men to studie, and meditate the heauenly wisedome. For the effect hereof is, 1 That they be blessed, which giue themselues wholly all their life to the holy Scriptures. 4 And that the wicked contemners of God, though they seeme for a while happie, yet at length shal come to miserable destruction.

M

BLessed is the man that doth not walke in the a counsell of the wicked, nor stand in the way of sinners, nor sit in the seate of the scornefull:
2 But his delight is in the * Lawe of the Lorde, and in his b Lawe doeth
he meditate day and night.
3 For he shall be like a * tree planted by the riuers of waters, that will bring foorth her fruite in due season: whose leafe shall not fade: so c whatsoeuer he shall doe, shall prosper.
4 d The wicked are not so, but as the chaffe, which the winde driueth away.
5 Therefore the wicked shall not stande in the e iudgement, nor sinners in the assemblie of the righteous.
6 For the Lorde f knoweth the way of the righteous, and the way of the wicked shall perish.

a When a man hath giuen once place to euill counsell, or to his owne concupiscence, he beginneth to forget himselfe in his sinne, and so falleth into contempt of God, which contempt is called the seate of the scorners. *Deu.6.6. iosh.1.8. prou.6.20. b In the holy Scriptures. *Iere.17.8. c Gods children are so moystened euer with his grace, that whatsoeuer commeth vnto them, tendeth to their saluation. d Though the wicked seeme to beare the swinge in this worlde, yet the Lorde driueth them downe that they shall not rise nor stande in the companie of the righteous. e But tremble when they feele Gods wrath. f Doeth approoue and prosper, like as not to knowe, is to reproue and reiect.

PSALME. II.

1 The Prophet Dauid reioyceth that notwithstanding his enemies rage, yet God will continue his kingdome for euer and aduance it euen to the ende of the worlde; 10 And therefore exhorteth Kings and rulers, that they would humbly submit themselues vnder Gods yoke, because it is in vaine to resist God. Herein is figured Christes kingdome.

VVHy doe the a heathen * rage, & the people murmure in vaine?
2 The Kings of the earth band themselues, and the princes are assembled together against the Lord, and against his || Christ.
3 b Let vs breake their brandes, and cast their cordes from vs.
4 * But he that dwelleth in the heauen, shall laugh: the Lorde shall haue them in derision.
5 c Then shall hee speake vnto them in his wrath, & vexe them in his sore displeasure, saying, 6 Euen I haue set my King vpon Zion mine holy mountaine.
7 I will declare the d decree: that is, the Lord hath said vnto me, * Thou art my sonne: this e day haue I begotten thee.
8 Aske of me, and I shall giue thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the f endes of the earth for thy possession.
9 * Thou shalt krush them with a scepter of yron, and breake them in pieces like a potters vessel.
10 g Be wise nowe therefore, ye Kings: be learned ye iudges of the earth.
11 Serue the Lorde in feare, and reioyce in trembling.
12 h Kisse the sonne, least he be angry, and ye i perish in the way, when his wrath shall suddenly burne. blessed are all that trust in him.

a The conspiracie of ẏ Gentiles, the murmuring of the Iewes, & power of Kings, cannot preuaile against Christ. *Act.4.25. || Or, anoynted. b Thus the wicked say, that they will cast off the yoke of God, and of his Christ. *Prouerb.1.26. c Gods plagues will declare that in resisting his Christ, they fought against him. d To shewe that my vocation to the kingdome is of God. *Acts.13.23.33. hebr.1.5. e That is to say, as touching mans knowledge, because it was the first time that Dauid appeared to be elected of God. So is it applied to Christ in his first comming and manifestation to the worlde. f Not onely the Iewes but the Gentiles also. * Reue.2.27. g Hee exhorteth all rulers to repent in time. h In signe of homage. i When the wicked shall say, Peace and rest, seeming yet to be but in the midway of their purposes, then shall destruction suddenly come, 1. Thes.5.3.

PSAL. III.

1 Dauid driuen forth of his kingdome, was greatly tormented in minde for his sinnes against God: 4 And therefore calleth vpon God, and waxeth bolde through his promises against the great raylings and terrours of his enemies, yea, against death it selfe, which he sawe present before his eyes. 7 Finally he reioyceth for the good successe, that God gaue him, and all the Church.

A Psalme of Dauid, when he fled from his sonne Absalom.

LOrde, howe are mine aduersaries a increased?
howe many rise against me?
2 Many say to my soule, There is no helpe for him in God. b Selah.
3 But thou Lorde art a buckler for me: my glory, and the lifter vp of mine head.

a This was a token of his stable faith, that for all his troubles hee had his recourse to God. b Selah here signifieth a lifting vp of the voyce, to cause vs to consider the sentence, as a thing of great importance.

4 I did call vnto the Lord with my voyce, and he heard me out of his holy mountaine. Selah.
5 I layde mee downe and slept, and rose vp againe: for the Lord susteined me.
6 I will not be afraide for c tenne thousand of the people, that should beset me round about.
7 O Lord, arise: helpe mee, my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies vpon the cheeke bone: thou hast broken the teeth of the wicked.
8 d Saluation belongeth vnto the Lord, and thy blessing is vpon thy people. Selah.

c When he considered the trueth of Gods promes, and tried the same, his faith increased marueilously.
d Be the dangers neuer so great or many, yet God hath euer meanes to deliuer his.

PSAL. IIII.

1 When Saul persecuted him, he called vpon God, trusting most assuredly in his promes, and therefore boldly reproueth his enemies, who wilfully resisted his dominion, 7 And finally preferreth the fauour of God before all worldly treasures.

a To him that excelleth on Neginoth. A Psalme of Dauid.

Heare me when I call, b O God of my righte-ousnes: thou hast set me at libertie, when I was c in distresse: haue mercie vpon mee and hearken vnto my prayer.
2 O ye d sonnes of men, how long wil ye turne my glory into shame, e louing vanitie, and seeking lyes? Selah.
3 For be ye sure that the Lord hath chosen to himselfe f a godly man: the Lord will heare when I call vnto him.
4 g Tremble, and sinne not: examine your owne heart vpon your bed, and be h still. Selah.
5 i Offer the sacrifices of righteousnes, and trust in the Lord.
6 Many say, Who will shewe vs any k good?
but Lorde, lift vp the light of thy countenance vp-on vs.
7 Thou hast giuen me more ioy of heart, then they haue had, when their wheate and their wine did abound.
8 I will laye mee downe, and also sleepe in peace: for thou, Lorde, l onely makest mee dwell in safetie.

a Among them that were appointed to sing the Psalmes, and to play on the instruments, one was appointed chiefe to set the tune, and to begin: who had the charge, because he was most excellent, and he began this Psalme on the instrument called Neginoth, or in a tune so called.
b Thou that art the defender of my iust cause.
c Both of minde and body.
d Ye that thinke your selues noble in this world.
e Though your enterprises please you neuer so much, yet God wil bring them to nought.
f A King that walketh in his vocation. g For feare of Gods iudgement. h Cease your rage. i Serue God purely and not with outwarde ceremonies. k The multitude seeke worldly wealth, but Dauid setteth his felicitie in Gods fauour. l This worde in Ebrewe may bee referred to God, as it is here translated, or to Dauid, signifying that he should dwell as ioyfully alone, as if hee had many about him, because the Lord is with him.

PSAL. V.

1 Dauid oppressed with the crueltie of his enemies, and fearing greater dangers, calleth to God for succour, shewing how requisite it is that God shoulde punish the malice of his aduersaries. 7 After being assured of prosperous successe, he conceiueth comfort, 12 Concluding that when God shall deliuer him, others also shalbe partakers of the same mercies.

To him that excelleth vpon ||Nebiloth. A Psalme of Dauid.

|| Or, a musicall instrument or tune.

Heare my wordes, O Lorde: vnderstande my a meditation.
2 Hearken vnto the voyce of my crie, my king and my God: for vnto thee doe I pray.
3 Heare my voyce in the morning, O Lorde: for in the morning will I direct me vnto thee, and I will b waite.
4 For thou art not a God that loueth c wickednes: neither shall euil dwel with thee.
5 d The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: for thou hatest all them that worke iniquitie.
6 Thou shalt destroye them that speake lyes:
the Lorde will abhorre the bloodie man and de-ceitfull.

a That is, my vehement prayer and secret complaint and sighings.
b With patience and trust till I be heard.
c Seeing that God of nature hateth wickednes, hee must needes punish the wicked & saue the godly.
d Which runne most ragingly after their carnal affections.

7 But I e will come into thine house in the multitude of thy mercie: and in thy feare will I worship toward thine holy Temple.
8 Leade me, O Lord, in thy righteousnes, f because of mine enemies: make thy way plaine before my face.
9 For no constancie is in their mouth: within,
they are very corruption: their * throte is an open sepulchre, and they flatter with their tongue.
10 Destroye them, O God: || let them g fall from their counsels: cast them out for the multitude of their iniquities, because they haue rebelled against thee.
11 And h let all them that trust in thee, reioyce and triumph for euer, and couer thou them: and let them, that loue thy Name, reioyce in thee.
12 For thou Lorde wilt || blesse the righteous, and with fauour i wilt compasse him, as with a shielde.

e In the depth of his temtations he putteth his full confidence in God.
f Because thou art iust, therefore leade me out of the dangers of mine enemies.
* Rom. 3.13.
|| Or, cause them to erre.
g Let their deuises come to nought.
h Thy fauour toward me shal confirme the faith of all others.
|| Or, giue good successe.
i So that he shalbe safe from all dangers.

PSAL. VI.

1 When Dauid by his sinnes had prouoked Gods wrath, and nowe felt not onely his hande against him, but also conceiued the horrours of death euerlasting, hee desireth forgiuenesse, 6 Bewayling that if God tooke him away in his indignation, hee shoulde lacke occasion to praise him as he was wont to doe whiles he was among men. 9 Then suddenly feeling Gods mercie, he sharpely rebuketh his enemies which reioyced in his affliction.

To him that excelleth on Neginoth vpon the eight tune. A Psalme of Dauid.

O Lord, * a rebuke mee not in thine anger, neither chastise me in thy wrath.
2 Haue mercie vpon mee, O Lorde, for I am weake: O Lord heale me, for my b bones are vexed.
3 c My soule is also sore troubled: but Lorde how long wilt thou delay?
4 Returne, O Lord: deliuer my soule: saue me for thy mercies sake.
5 For in d death there is no remembrance of thee: in the graue who shall praise thee?
6 I fainted in my mourning: I cause my bed euery night to swimme, and water my couch with my teares.
7 ||Mine eye is dimmed for despight, and sunke in because of all mine enemies.
8 e Away from mee all yee workers of iniquitie: for the Lord hath heard the voyce of my weeping.
9 The Lord hath heard my petition: the Lord will receiue my prayer.
10 All mine enemies shall bee confounded and sore vexed: they shal be turned backe, and put to shame f suddenly.

* Iere. 10.24.
a Though I deserue destruction, yet let thy mercie pitie my frailtie.
b For my whole strength is abated.
c His conscience is also touched with the feare of Gods iudgement.
d He lamenteth that occasion should be taken from him to praise God in the Congregation.
|| Or, mine eye is eaten as it were with wormes.
e God sendeth comfort and boldnes in affliction, that we may triumph ouer our enemies. f When the wicked thinke that the godly shall perish, God deliuereth them suddenly and destroyeth their enemies.

PSAL. VII.

1 Being falsly accused by Chush one of Sauls kinsmen, he calleth to God to be his defender, 3 To whome hee commendeth his innocencie, 9 First shewing that his conscience did not accuse him of any euill towards Saul: 10 Next that it touched Gods glory to award sentence against the wicked. 12 And so entring into the consideration of Gods mercies and promes, hee waxeth bolde and derideth the vaine enterprises of his enemies, 16 Threatning that it shall fall on their owne necke that which they haue purposed for others.

* 2. Sam. 16.7.

O Lorde my God, in thee I put my trust: saue me from all that persecute me, & deliuer me, 2 Least a he deuoure my soule like a lyon, and teare it in pieces, while there is none to helpe.

a He desireth God to deliuer him from the rage of cruel Saul.

3 O Lord

b *Wherewith Chush chargeth mee.
c If I reuerenced not Saul for affinities sake and preserued his life, 1.Sam.26.8,9. d Let me no onely die, but be dishonored for euer.
e In promising me the kingdome.
f Not onely for mine, but for thy Church sake declare thy power.
g As touching my behauiour toward Saul and mine enemies.
h Though they pretend a iust cause against mee, yet God shall iudge their hypocrisie.
i He doeth continually call the wicked to repentance by some signes of his iudgements.
k Except Saul turne his minde, I die: for he hath both men & weapons to destroy me. Thus considering his great danger, he magnifieth Gods grace.
*Isai.59.4. Iob 15.35.
l In keeping faithfully his promes with me.

3 O Lorde my God, if I haue done b this thing, if there be any wickednes in mine handes, 4 c If I haue rewarded euill vnto him that had peace with mee, (yea I haue deliuered him that vexed me without cause) 5 Then let the enemie persecute my soule and take it: yea, let him treade my life downe vp-on the earth, and lay mine d honour in the dust.
Selah.
6 Arise, O Lord, in thy wrath, and lift vp thy selfe against the rage of mine enemies, and awake for mee according to the e iudgement that thou hast appointed.
7 So shall the Congregation of the people compasse thee about: for their sakes therefore f returne on hie.
8 The Lorde shall iudge the people: iudge thou me, O Lorde, according to my g righteous-nesse, and according to mine innocencie, that is in mee.
9 Oh let the malice of the wicked come to an ende: but guide thou the iust: for the righteous God trieth the h hearts and reines.
10 My defence is in God, who preserueth the vpright in heart.
11 God iudgeth the righteous, and him that contemneth God i euery day.
12 Except k he turne, he hath whet his sword:
he hath bent his bowe and made it ready.
13 Hee hath also prepared him deadly weapons: hee will ordeine his arrowes for them that persecute me.
14 *Beholde, hee shall trauaile with wickednes: for he hath conceiued mischiefe, but he shall bring foorth a lye.
15 Hee hath made a pit and digged it, and is fallen into the pit that he made.
16 His mischiefe shall returne vpon his owne head, & his crueltie shall fall vpon his owne pate.
17 I wil prayse the Lord according to his l righ-teousnes, and will sing prayse to the Name of the Lord most high.

P S A L. VIII.

1 The Prophet considering the excellent liberalitie and fatherly prouidence of God towards men, whome he made, as it were a god ouer all his workes, doeth not onely giue great thankes, but is astonished with the admiration of the same, as one nothing able to compasse such great mercies.

¶ To him that excelleth on ‖ Gittith.
A Psalme of Dauid.

‖Or, kinde of instrument, or tune.
‖Or, noble, or marueilous.
a Though the wicked woulde hide Gods praises, yet the very babes are sufficient witnesses of the same.
‖Or, established.
‖Or, confound.
b It had bene sufficient for him to haue set foorth his glory by the heauens, though hee had not come so low as to man, which is but dust.
c Touching his first creation.
d By the temporall giftes of mans creation hee is led to consider the benefites which he hath by his regeneration through Christ.

O Lord our Lord, how ‖ excellent is thy Name in all the worlde! which hast set thy glory aboue the heauens.
2 Out of the mouth a of babes & suckelings hast thou ‖ ordeined strength, because of thine enemies, that thou mightest ‖ still the enemie and the auenger.
3 When I beholde thine heauens, euen the workes of thy fingers, the moone and the starres which thou hast ordeined, 4 What is b man, say I, that thou art mindefull of him? and the sonne of man, that thou visi-test him?
5 For thou hast made him a little lower then c God, and crowned him with glory and worship.
6 Thou hast made him to haue dominion in the workes of thine hands: thou hast put all things vnder his feete:
7 All d sheepe and oxen: yea, and the beastes of the fielde:
8 The foules of the ayre, and the fish of the sea, and that which passeth through the paths of the seas.
9 O Lorde our Lorde, howe excellent is thy Name in all the world!

P S A L. IX.

1 After hee had giuen thankes to God for the sundry victories that he had sent him against his enemies, and also proued by manifolde experience howe ready God was at hand in all his troubles: 14 He being now likewise in danger of new enemies, desireth God to helpe him according to his wont, 17 And to destroy the malicious arrogancie of his aduersaries.

¶ To him that excelleth vpon ‖ Muth Labben.
A Psalme of Dauid.

‖Or, kinde of instrument, or tune: or for the death of Labben or Goliath.
a God is not praised, except the whole glory be giuen to him alone.
b Howsoeuer the enemie seeme for a time to preuaile, yet God preserueth the iust.
c A derision of the enemie, that mindeth nothing but destruction: but the Lord wil deliuer his, and bring him into iudgement.
‖Or, reigne as Iudge.
d Our miseries are meanes to cause vs to feele Gods present care ouer vs.
e Though God reuengeth not suddenly the wrong done to his, yet he suffereth not the wicked vnpunished.
f In the open assemblie of the Church.
g For God ouerthroweth the wicked in their enterprises.
h The mercie of God towarde his Saints must bee declared, and the fall of the wicked must alwayes be considered.
‖Or, this is worthy to be noted.
i God promiseth not to helpe vs before we haue felt the crosse.
k Which they cannot learne without the feare of thy iudgements.

I Will prayse the Lorde with my a whole heart: I will speake of all thy marueilous workes.
2 I will be glad, and reioyce in thee: I will sing prayse to thy Name, O most High, 3 For that mine enemies are turned backe:
they shall fall, and perish at thy presence.
4 For b thou hast maintained my right & my cause: thou art set in the throne, and iudgest right.
5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen: thou hast destroyed the wicked: thou hast put out their name for euer and euer.
6 c O enemie, destructions are come to a perpetual end, and thou hast destroyed the cities: their memoriall is perished with them.
7 But the Lorde ‖ shall sit for euer: hee hath prepared his throne for iudgement.
8 For he shall iudge the worlde in righteousnes, and shall iudge the people with equitie.
9 The Lord also wil be a refuge for the d poore, a refuge in due time, euen in affliction.
10 And they that knowe thy Name, will trust in thee: for thou, Lorde, hast not failed them that seeke thee.
11 Sing prayses to the Lord, which dwelleth in Zion: shewe the people his workes.
12 For e when hee maketh inquisition for blood, he remembreth it, and forgetteth not the complaint of the poore.
13 Haue mercie vpon me, O Lorde: consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate mee, thou that liftest me vp from the gates of death, 14 That I may shew all thy prayses within the f gates of the daughter of Zion, and reioyce in thy saluation.
15 The heathen are g sunken downe in the pit that they made: in the nette that they hid, is their foote taken.
16 h The Lord is knowen by executing iudge-ment: the wicked is snared in the worke of his owne hands. ‖ Higgaion. Selah.
17 The wicked shal turne into hell, and all nations that forget God.
18 For the poore shall not be alway forgotten: the hope i of the afflicted shall not perish for euer.
19 Vp Lord: let not man preuaile: let the heathen be iudged in thy sight.
20 Put them in feare, O Lorde, that the heathen may know that they are but k men. Selah.

P S A L. X.

1 Hee complaineth of the fraude, rapine, tyrannie, and all kindes of wrong, which worldly men vse, assigning the cause thereof, that wicked men, being as it were drunken with worldly prosperitie, and therefore setting apart all feare and reuerence towardes God, thinke they may doe all things without controlling. 15 Therefore he calleth vpon God to sende some remedie against these desperate euils, 16 And at length comforteth himselfe with hope of deliuerance.

WHy standest thou farre off, O Lorde, and hidest thee in [a] due time, euen in affliction?
2 The wicked with pride doeth persecute the poore: let them be taken in the crafts that they haue imagined.
3 For the wicked hath [b] made boast of his owne heartes desire, and the couetous blesseth himselfe: he contemneth the Lord.
4 The wicked is so proude that hee seeketh not for God: hee thinketh alwayes, There is no God.
5 His wayes alway prosper: thy iudgements are hie aboue his sight: therefore ‖ defieth hee all his enemies.
6 He sayth in his heart, I shall ‖ neuer be moued, [c] nor be in danger.
7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceite and fraude: vnder his tongue is mischiefe and iniquitie.
8 [d] He lieth in waite in the villages: in the secret places doeth hee murther the innocent: his eyes are bent against the poore.
9 He lyeth in waite secretly, euen as a lyon in his denne: hee lyeth in waite to spoyle the poore:
he doeth spoyle the poore, when he draweth him into his net.
10 He croucheth and boweth: therefore heapes of the [e] poore doe fall by his might.
11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten, he hideth away his face, and will neuer see.
12 [f] Arise, O Lorde God: lift vp thine hande:
forget not the poore.
13 Wherefore doeth the wicked contemne
God? he saith in his heart, Thou wilt not [g] regard.
14 Yet thou hast seene it: for thou beholdest mischiefe and wrong, that thou mayest [h] take it into thine handes: the poore committeth himselfe vnto thee: for thou art the helper of the fatherlesse.
15 Breake thou the arme of the wicked and malicious: searche his wickednes, and thou shalt finde [i] none.
16 The Lorde is King for euer and euer: the [k] heathen are destroyed foorth of his land.
17 Lorde, thou hast heard the desire of the poore: thou preparest their heart: thou bendest thine eare to them, 18 [l] To iudge the fatherlesse and poore, that earthly man ‖ cause to feare no more.

a So soone as we enter into affliction, wee thinke God should helpe vs, but that is not alwayes his due time.
b The wicked man reioyceth in his owne lust: hee boasteth when he hath that hee would: hee braggeth of his wit and wealth, and blesseth him selfe, and thus blasphemeth the Lord.
‖ Or, snuffeth at.
‖ Or, not be mooued because hee was neuer in euill.
c The euill shall not touch mee, Isa. 28.15. or els he speaketh thus because he neuer felt euill.
d Hee sheweth that the wicked haue many meanes to hide their crueltie, and therefore ought more to be feared.
e By the hypocrisie of them that haue authoritie, the poore are deuoured.
f He calleth to God for helpe, because wickednes is so farre ouergrowen, that God must now helpe or neuer.
g Therefore thou must needes punish this their blasphemie.
h To iudge betweene the right and the wrong.
i For thou hast vtterly destroyed him.
k The hypocrites, or such as liue not after Gods Lawe, shalbe destroyed.
l God helpeth when mans helpe ceaseth. ‖ Or, destroy no more man vpon the earth.

PSAL. XI.

1 This Psalme conteineth two partes. In the first David sheweth howe hard assaultes of tentations hee susteined, and in howe great anguish of minde hee was, when Saul did persecute him. 14 Then next hee reioyceth that God sent him succour in his necessitie, declaring his iustice aswell in gouerning the good, and the wicked men, as the whole worlde.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of David.

IN the Lorde put I my trust: howe say yee then to my soule, [a] Flee to your mountaine as a birde?
2 For loe, the wicked bende their bowe, and make readie their arrowes vpon the string, that they may secretly shoote at them, which are vp-right in heart.
3 For the [b] foundations are cast downe: what hath the [c] righteous done?
4 The Lord is in his holy palace: the Lordes throne is in the heauen: his eyes [d] wil consider: his eye lids will try the children of men.
5 The Lorde will try the righteous: but the wicked and him that loueth iniquitie, doeth his soule hate.
6 Vpon the wicked he shall raine snares, [e] fire, and brimstone, and stormie tempest: this is the [f] portion of their cup.
7 For the righteous Lorde loueth righteousnes: his countenance doeth beholde the iust.

a This is the wicked counsell of his enemies to him and his companions, to driue him from the hope of Gods promes.
b All hope of succour is taken away.
c Yet am I innocent and my cause good.
d Though all things in earth be out of order, yet God will execute iudgement from heauen.
e As in the destruction of Sodom and Gomorah.
f Which they shall drinke euen to the dregs, Ezek. 23.34.

PSAL. XII.

1 The Prophet lamenting the miserable estate of the people, and the decay of all good order, desireth God speedily to sende succour to his children. 7 Then comforting him selfe and others with the assurance of Gods helpe, hee commendeth the constant veritie that God obserueth in keeping his promises.

¶ To him that excelleth vpon the eight tune.
A Psalme of David.

HElpe Lord, for there is not [a] a godly man left:
for the faithfull are fayled from among the
children of men.
2 They speake deceitfully euery one with his neighbour, [b] flattering with their lips, and speake with a double heart.
3 The Lord cut off all flattering lippes, and the tongue that speaketh proude things: 4 Which haue sayde, [c] With our tongue will we preuaile: our lippes are our owne: who is Lord ouer vs?
5 [d] Now for the oppression of the needy, and for the sighes of the poore, I will vp, sayeth the Lord, and will [e] set at libertie him, whom the wic- ked hath snared.
6 The wordes of the Lorde are pure wordes, as the siluer, tried in a fornace of earth, fined seuen folde.
7 Thou wilt keepe [f] them, O Lord: thou wilt preserue him from this generation for euer.
8 The wicked walke on euery side: when they are exalted, [g] it is a shame for the sonnes of men.

a Which dare defend the trueth, and shewe mercie to the oppressed.
b He meaneth the flatterers of the court, which hurt him more with their tongues, then with their weapons.
c They thinke themselues able to perswade whatsoeuer they take in hand.
d The Lorde is mooued with the complaintes of his, and deliuereth in the ende from all dangers.
e Because the Lords worde and promes is true and vnchangeable, he will performe it, and preserue the poore from this wicked generation.
f That is, thine, though he were but one man.
g For they suppresse the godly, and maintaine the wicked.

PSAL. XIII.

1 David as it were ouercome with sundry and newe afflictions, fleeth to God as his onely refuge, 3 And so at the length being encouraged through Gods promises, hee conceiueth most sure confidence against the extreme horrours of death.

¶ To him that excelleth, A Psalme of David.

HOwe long wilt thou forget me, O Lord, [a] for euer? howe long wilt thou hide thy face
from me?
2 How long shall I take [b] counsell within my selfe, hauing wearinesse dayly in mine heart? how long shall mine enemie be exalted aboue me?
3 Beholde, and heare mee, O Lord my God:
lighten mine eyes, that I sleepe not in death:
4 Lest mine enemie say, I haue [c] preuailed against him: and they that afflict me, reioyce when I slide.
5 But I trust in thy [d] mercie: mine heart shall reioyce in thy saluation: I will sing to the Lorde, because he hath [e] delt louingly with me.

a He declareth that his afflictions lasted a long time and that his faith fainted not.
b Changing my purpose as the sicke man doeth his place.
c Which might turne to Gods dishonour, if he did not defend his.
d The mercie of God is the cause of our saluation.
e Both by the benefites past and by others to come.

PSAL. XIIII.

1 Hee describeth the peruerse nature of men, which were so growen to licenciousnesse, that God was brought to vtter contempt. 7 For the which thing, although he was greatly grieued, yet being perswaded that God would sende some present remedie, he comforteth himselfe and others.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of David.

THe * foole hath said in his heart, [a] There is no
God: they haue [b] corrupted, & done an abominable worke: there is none that doeth good.

* Psalme 53.
a He sheweth that the cause of all wickednesse is to forget God.
b There is nothing but disorder and wickednes among them.

2 The

2 The Lord looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men, to see if there were any that would vnderstand, and seeke God.
3 c All are gone out of the way: they are all corrupt: there is none that doeth good, no not one.
4 Doe not all the workes of iniquitie knowe that they eate vp my people, as they eate bread?
they call not vpon the Lord.
5 d There they shall bee taken with feare, because God is in the generation of the iust.
6 You haue made e a mocke at the counsell of the poore, because the Lord is his trust.
7 Oh giue saluation vnto f Israel out of Zion:
when the Lorde turneth the captiuitie of his people, then Iaakob shall reioyce, and Israel shall bee glad.

c David here maketh comparison betweene the faithfull and the reprobate, but S. Paul speaketh the same of al men naturally, Rom. 3.10.
d Where they thinke themselues most sure.
e You mocke them that put their trust in God.
f He prayeth for the whole Church, whom he is assured God will deliuer: for none but he onely can doe it.

¶ Note that of this 14. Psalme, the 5. 6. and 7. verses which are put into the common translation, and may seeme vnto some to bee left out in this, are not in the same Psalme in the Hebrewe text, but are rather put in, more fully to expresse the maners of the wicked: and are gathered out of the 5. 140. and 10. Psalmes, the 59. of the Prophet Isaiah, and the 36. Psalme, and are alleaged by Saint Paul, and placed together in the 3. to the Romanes.

PSAL. XV.

1 This Psalme teacheth on what condition God did chuse the Iewes for his peculiar people, and wherefore hee placed his Temple among them, which was to the intent that they by liuing vprightly and godly, might witnes that they were his speciall and holy people.

¶ A Psalme of Dauid.

Lord, who shall dwell in thy Tabernacle? who shall rest in thine holy Mountaine?
2 Hee that a walketh vprightly and worketh righteousnes, and speaketh the trueth in his heart.
3 He that slandereth not with his tongue, nor doeth euill to his neighbour, nor receiueth a false report against his neighbour.
4 b In whose eyes a vile person is contemned, but hee honoureth them that feare the Lorde: hee that sweareth to his owne hinderance and changeth not.
5 He that c giueth not his money vnto vsurie, nor taketh rewarde against the innocent: hee that doeth these things, d shall neuer be mooued.

a First God requireth vprightnes of life, next doing well to others, and thirdly trueth and simplicitie in our wordes.
b He that flattereth not the vngodly in their wickednes.
c To the hinderance of his neighbour.
d That is, shal not be cast forth of the Church as hypocrites.

PSAL. XVI.

1 Dauid prayeth to God for succour not for his workes, but for his faiths sake, 4 Protesting that hee hateth all idolatrie, taking God onely for his comfort and felicitie, 8 Who suffereth his to lacke nothing.

¶ ‖ Michtam of Dauid.

Preserue mee, O God: for in thee doe I a trust.
2 O my soule, thou hast saide vnto the Lorde, Thou art my Lorde: my b weldoing extendeth not
to thee,
3 But to the Saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent: all my delite is in them.
4 The c sorowes of them, that offer to an other god, shall bee multiplied: d their offerings of blood will I not offer, neither make * mention of their names with my lips.
5 The Lorde is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cuppe: thou shalt mainteine my lot.
6 The e lines are fallen vnto mee in pleasant places: yea, I haue a faire heritage.
7 I will praise the Lord, who hath giuen mee counsell: my f reines also teach me in the nightes.
8 I haue set the Lorde alwayes before me: for hee is at my right hande: therefore I g shall not slide.
9 Wherefore h mine heart is glad and my tongue reioyceth: my flesh also doeth rest in hope.
10 For thou i wilt not leaue my soule in the graue: neither wilt thou suffer thine holy one to see corruption.
11 Thou wilt shewe me the path of life: in thy k presence is the fulnesse of ioye: and at thy right hand there are pleasures for euermore.

‖ Or, a certaine tune.
a He sheweth that we cannot call vpon God, except we trust in him.
b Though we can not enriche God, yet we must bestowe Gods gifts to the vse of his children.
c As griefe of conscience and miserable destruction.
d He would neither by outward profession, nor in heart, nor in mouth consent to their idolatries.
* Exod. 23.13.
e Wherewith my portion is measured.
f God teacheth me continually by secret inspiration.
g The faithfull are sure to perseuere to the end.
h That is, I reioyce bodie in body and in soule.
i This is chiefly meant of Christ, by whose resurrection all his members haue immortalitie.
k Where God fauoureth, there is perfite felicitie.

PSAL. XVII.

1 Here hee complaineth to God of the cruell pride and arrogancie of Saul, and the rest of his enemies, who thus raged without any cause giuen on his part. 6 Therefore he desireth God to reuenge his innocencie, and deliuer him.

¶ The prayer of Dauid.

Heare a the right, O Lorde, consider my crye:
hearken vnto my prayer of lips vnfained.
2 Let my b sentence come forth from thy presence, and let thine eyes beholde equitie.
3 Thou hast c prooued and visited mine heart in the night: thou hast tried me, and foundest nothing: for I was purposed that my d mouth should not offend.
4 Concerning the workes of men, by the e wordes of thy lips I kept mee from the paths of the cruel man.
5 Stay my steps in thy paths, that my feete do not slide.
6 I haue called vpon thee: f surely thou wilt heare mee, O God: incline thine eare to mee, and hearken vnto my wordes.
7 Shew thy marueilous mercies, thou that art the Sauiour of them that trust in thee, from such as g resist thy right hand.
8 Keepe me as the apple of the eye: hide mee vnder the shadow of thy wings, 9 From the wicked that oppresse mee, from mine enemies, which compasse mee rounde about for h my soule.
10 They are inclosed in their owne i fat, and they haue spoken proudly with their mouth.
11 They haue compassed vs nowe in our steps:
they haue set their eyes to bring downe to the ground:
12 Like as a lyon that is greedy of praye, and as it were a lyons whelpe lurking in secret places.
13 Vp Lord, k disappoint him: cast him downe: deliuer my soule from the wicked ‖ with thy
sword,
14 From men by thine l hande, O Lorde, from men ‖ of the worlde, who haue their m portion in this life, whose bellies thou fillest with thine hidde treasure: their children haue ynough, and leaue the rest of their substance for their children.
15 But I will beholde n thy face in righteous-nesse, and when I o awake, I shalbe satisfied with thine image.

a My righteous cause.
b The vengeance that thou shalt shew against mine enemies.
c When thy Spirit examined my conscience.
d I was innocent toward mine enemie both in deede and thought.
e Though the wicked prouoked me to doe euill for euil, yet thy word kept me backe.
f He was assured that God would not refuse his request.
g For all rebell against thee, which trouble thy Church.
h For their crueltie cannot be satisfied but with my death.
i They are puft vp with pride, as the stomacke that is choked with fatte.
k Stop his rage.
‖ Or, which is thy sword.
l By thine heauenly power.
‖ Or whose tyrannie hath to long endured.
m And feele not the smart that Gods children oft times doe.
n This is the full felicitie, comforting against all assaults, to haue the face of God and fauourable countenance opened vnto vs.
o And am deliuered out of my great troubles.

PSAL. XVIII.

1 This Psalme is the first beginning of his gratulation, and thankesgiuing in the entring into his kingdome, wherein hee extolleth and prayseth most highly the marueilous mercies and grace of God, who hath thus preserued and defended him. 32 Also hee setteth foorth the image of Christes kingdome, that the faithfull may bee assured that Christ shall alwayes conquere and ouercome by the vnspeakable power of his Father, though all the whole world should striue thereagainst.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of Dauid the seruant of the Lorde, which spake vnto the Lorde the words of this song (in the day that the Lord deliuered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul) and said,

1 I Will loue thee dearely, O Lord my strength.

2 * a The Lord is my rocke, & my fortresse, and he that deliuereth me, my God and my strẽgth: in him will I trust, my shield, the horne also of my saluation, and my refuge.

3 I will call vpon the Lorde, which is worthie to bee b praised: so shall I bee safe from mine enemies.

4 The c sorowes of death compassed mee, and the floods of wickednes made me afraide.

5 The ‖ sorowes of the graue haue compassed me about: the snares of death ouertooke me.

6 But in my trouble did I call vpon the Lord, and cried vnto my God: he heard my voyce out of his Temple, and my cry did come before him, euen into his eares.

7 d Then the earth trembled, and quaked: the foundations also of the mountaines mooued and shooke, because he was angrie.

8 Smoke went out at his nostrels, and a e consuming fire out of his mouth: coales were kindled thereat.

9 He bowed the heauens also & came downe, and f darkenes was vnder his feete.

10 And he rode vpon g Cherub and did flie, and he came flying vpon the wings of the winde.

11 Hee made darkenesse his h secrete place, and his pauilion rounde about him, euen darkenesse of waters, and cloudes of the aire.

12 At the brightnes of his presence his cloudes passed, hailestones and coles of fire.

13 The Lorde also thundred in the heauen, and the Highest gaue i his voice, hailestones and coales of fire.

14 Then he sent out k his arrowes and scattred them, and hee increased lightnings and destroyed them.

15 And the chanels of waters were seene, and the l foundations of the worlde were discouered at thy rebuking, O Lord, at the blasting of the breath of thy nostrels.

16 Hee hath sent downe from aboue and taken mee: hee hath drawen mee out of many m waters.

17 He hath deliuered me from my n strong enemie, and from them which hate me: for they were o too strong for me.

18 They preuented mee in the day of my calamitie: but the Lord was my stay.

19 Hee brought mee foorth also into a large place: p hee deliuered mee because hee fauoured mee.

20 The Lorde rewarded mee according to my q righteousnes: according to the purenesse of mine handes he recompensed me:

21 Because I kept the wayes of the Lorde, and did not wickedly against my God.

22 For all his Lawes were before mee, and I did not cast away his r commaundements from mee.

23 I was vpright also with him, and haue kept me from my s wickednes.

24 Therefore the Lorde rewarded mee according to my righteousnesse, and according to the purenesse of mine hands in his sight.

25 With the t godly thou wilt shewe thy selfe godly: with the vpright man thou wilt shewe thy selfe vpright.

26 With the pure thou wilt shewe thy selfe pure, and with the frowarde thou wilt shewe thy selfe froward.

27 Thus thou wilt saue the poore people, and wilt u cast downe the proude lookes.

28 Surely thou wilt light my candle: the Lord my God will lighten my darkenes.

29 For by thee I haue x broken through an hoste, and by my God I haue leaped ouer a wall.

30 The way of God is vncorrupt: the y word of the Lord is tried in the fire: he is a shield to all that trust in him.

31 For who is God besides the Lord? and who is mightie saue our God?

32 God girdeth me with strength, and maketh my z way vpright.

33 Hee maketh my feete like hindes feete, and setteth me vpon mine a high places.

34 He teacheth mine handes to fight: so that a bowe of ‖ brasse is broken with mine armes.

35 Thou hast also giuen me the b shielde of thy saluation, and thy right hand hath stayed mee, and thy c louing kindenes hath caused me to increase.

36 Thou hast enlarged my steps vnder me, and mine heeles haue not slid.

37 d I haue pursued mine enemies, and taken them, and haue not turned againe till I had consumed them.

38 I haue wounded them, that they were not able to rise: they are fallen vnder my feete.

39 For thou hast girded mee with strength to battell: them, that rose against mee, thou hast subdued vnder me.

40 And thou hast e giuen mee the neckes of mine enemies, that I might destroye them that hate me.

41 They f cried but there was none to saue them, euen vnto the Lorde, but hee answered them not.

42 Then I did beate them small as the dust before the winde: I did treade them flat as the clay in the streetes.

43 Thou hast deliuered me from the contentions of the people: thou hast made me the head of the g heathen: a people, whom I haue not h knowen, shall serue me.

44 As soone as they heare, they shall obey me: the strangers shall i be in subiection to me.

45 Strangers shall k shrinke away, and feare in their priuie chambers.

46 Let the Lorde liue, and blessed bee my strength, and the God of my saluation bee exalted.

47 It is God that giueth mee power to auenge me, and subdueth the people vnder me.

48 O my deliuerer from mine enemies, euen thou hast set mee vp from them, that rose against mee: thou hast deliuered mee from the l cruell man.

49 Therefore m I will praise thee, O Lorde, among the nations, and will sing vnto thy Name.

50 Great deliuerances giueth he vnto his King, and sheweth mercie to his anoynted, euen to Dauid, and to his n seede for euer.

* 2.Sam.22.1.
a He vseth this diuersitie of names, to shewe that as the wicked haue many meanes to hurt, so God hath many wayes to helpe.
b For none can obteine their requestes of God, that ioyne not his glory with their petition.
c He speaketh of the dangers and malice of his enemies, from the which God had deliuered him.
‖ Or, cords, or, cables.
d A description of the wrath of God against his enemies after he had heard his prayers.
e Hee sheweth howe horrible Gods iudgements shalbe to the wicked.
f Darkenes signifieth the wrath of God, as the cleare light signifieth Gods fauour.
g This is described at large, Psal. 104.
h As a King angrie with the people, wil not shewe himselfe vnto them.
i Thundred, lightned and hailed.
k His lightnings.
l That is, the deepe bottoms were seene, when the red Sea was deuided.
m Out of sundry and great dangers.
n To wit, Saul.
o Therefore God sent me succour.
p The cause of Gods deliuerance is his onely fauour and loue to vs.
q Dauid was sure of his righteous cause and good behauiour towarde Saul and his enemies, and therefore was assured of Gods fauour and deliuerance.
r For all his dangers he exercised himselfe in the Lawe of God.
s I neither gaue place to their wicked tentations, nor to mine owne affections.

t Here he speaketh of God according to our capacitie, who [illegible] and punisheth the wicked, as is said also, Leuit. 26.21, 24.
u When their sinne is come to the full measure.
x He attributeth it to God that he both gaue the victorie in the fielde, and also destroyed the cities of his enemies.
y Be the dangers neuer so many or great, yet Gods promise must take effect.
z He giueth good successe to all mine enterprises.
a As towres and fortes, which he tooke out of the handes of Gods enemies.
‖ Or, steele.
b To defend me from dangers.
c He attributeth the beginning, continuance and increase in well doing onely to Gods fauour.
d Dauid declareth that hee did nothing besides his vocation, but was stirred vp by Gods Spirit to execute his iudgements.
e Thou hast giuen them into mine handes to bee slaine.
f They that reiect the crie of the afflicted, God will also reiect them, when they cry for helpe: for either paine or feare cause those hypocrites to cry.
g Which dwell round about me.
h The kingdome of Christ is in Dauids kingdome prefigured: who by the preaching of his worde bringeth all to his subiection.
i Or, lye: signifying a subiection constrained and not voluntarie.
k Feare shall cause them to be afraide and come foorth of their secret holes and holdes to seeke pardon.
l That is, Saul, who of malice persecuted him. m This prophesie appertaineth to the kingdome of Christ, and vocation of the Gentiles, as Rom. 15.9. n This did not properly appertaine to Salomon, but to Iesus Christ.

PSAL. XIX.

1 To the intent hee might moue the faithfull to a deeper consideration of Gods glorie, hee setteth before their eyes the most exquisite workemanship of the heauens with their proportion, and ornaments; 8 And afterwarde calleth them to the Lawe, wherein God hath reueiled himselfe more familiarly to his chosen people. The which peculiar grace by commending the Lawe he setteth foorth more at large.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of David.

THe * a heauens declare the glory of God, and the firmament sheweth the work of his hands.
2 b Day vnto day vttereth the same, & night vnto night teacheth knowledge.
3 There is no speach nor c language, where their voyce is not heard.
4 Their d line is gone forth through all the earth, & their words into the endes of the world:
in them hath he set a tabernacle for the sunne.
5 Which commeth forth as a bridegrome out of his e chamber, and reioyceth like a mightie man to runne his race.
6 His going out is from the ende of the heauen, and his compasse is vnto the endes of ỳ same, and none is hid from the heate thereof.
7 The f Lawe of the Lorde is perfite, conuer-ting the soule: the testimonie of the Lorde is sure, and giueth wisedome vnto the simple.
8 The statutes of the Lorde are right and re-ioyce the heart: the commandement of the Lord is pure, and giueth light vnto the eyes.
9 The feare of the Lorde is cleane, and indureth for euer: the iudgements of the Lorde are
g trueth: they are righteous h altogether.
10 And more to bee i desired then golde, yea, then much fine golde: sweeter also then honie and the honie combe.
11 Moreouer by them is thy seruant made cir-cumspect, and in keeping of them there is great k reward.
12 Who can vnderstand his l faultes? clense me from secret faultes.
13 Keepe thy seruant also from m presumptuous sinnes: let them not reigne ouer me: n so shall I be vpright, & made cleane frō much wickednes.
14 Let the wordes of my mouth, and the o meditation of mine heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

* Rom. 1. 20.
a He reprocheth vnto man his ingratitude, seeing the heauens, which are dumme creatures, set foorth Gods glorie.
b The continuall successe of the day and the night is sufficient to declare Gods power and goodnesse.
c The heauens are a Scholemaster to all nations, be they neuer so barbarous.
d The heauens are as a line of great capitall letters to shewe vnto vs Gods glorie.
e Or, vaile. The maner was that the bride & bridegrome shoulde stand vnder a vaile together, and after come foorth with great solemnitie and reioycing of the assemblie.
f Though the creatures cannot serue, yet this ought to be sufficient to leade vs vnto him.
g So that all mans inuentions and intentions are lyes.
h Euery one without exception.
i Except Gods worde be esteemed aboue all worldly things, it is contemned.
k For God accepteth our indeuour, though it be farre vnperfite.
l Then there is no rewarde of duetie, but of grace: for where sinne is, there death is the rewarde.
m Which are done purposely and of malice.
n If thou suppresse my wicked affections by thine holy Spirite.
o That I may obey thee in thought, worde and deede.

PSAL. XX.

A prayer of the people vnto God, that it woulde please him to heare their King and receiue his sacrifice, which hee offered before he went to battell against the Ammonites.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of David.

THe a Lorde heare thee in the day of trouble:
the b name of the God of Iaakob defend thee:
2 Send thee helpe from the Sanctuarie, and strengthen thee out of Zion.
3 Let him remember all thine offerings, and c turne thy burnt offerings into asshes. Selah.
4 And graunt thee according to thine heart, and fulfill all thy purpose:
5 That we may reioyce in thy d saluation, and set vp the banner in the Name of our God, when the Lord shall performe all thy petitions.
6 Now e know I that the Lord will helpe his anointed, and will heare him from his f Sanctuarie, by the mightie helpe of his right hand.
7 Some trust in chariots, & some in horses: but we wil remember the Name of the Lord our God.
8 g They are brought downe and fallen, but we are risen, and stand vpright.
9 Saue Lord: h let the King heare vs in the day that we call.

a Hereby Kings are also admonished to cal to God in their affaires.
b The vertue, power and grace of God.
c In token that they are acceptable vnto him.
d Granted to the King in whose wealth our felicitie standeth.
e The Church feeleth that God hath heard their petition.
f As by the visible Sanctuarie Gods familiaritie appeared towar[d] his people, so by the heauenly is meant his power and maiestie.
g The worldlings that put not their only trust in God.
h Let the King be able to deliuer vs by thy strength, when we seeke vnto him for succour.

PSAL. XXI.

1 David in the person of the people praiseth God for the victorie, attributing it to God, and not to the strength of man. Wherein the holy Ghost directeth the faithfull to Christ, who is the perfection of this kingdome.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of David.

THe King shall a reioyce in thy strēgth, O Lord:
yea how greatly shal he reioyce in thy saluatiō!
2 Thou hast giuen him his hearts desire, and hast not denyed him the request of his lips. Selah.
3 For thou b diddest preuent him with liberall blessings, and diddest set a crowne of pure golde vpon his head.
4 c He asked life of thee, and thou gauest him a long life for euer and euer.
5 His glory is great in thy saluation: dignitie and honour hast thou laid vpon him.
6 For thou hast set him as d blessings for euer:
thou hast made him glad with the ioy of thy countenance.
7 Because the King trusteth in the Lord, and in the mercie of the most High, he shall not slide.
8 e Thine hand shall finde out all thine enemies, and thy right hand shall finde out them that hate thee.
9 Thou shalt make them like a fierie ouen in time of thine anger: the Lorde shall destroy them in his f wrath, and the fire shall deuoure them.
10 Their fruite shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seede from the children of men.
11 For they g intended euill against thee, and imagined mischiefe, but they shall not preuaile.
12 Therefore shalt thou put them h apart, and the strings of thy bowe shalt thou make readie against their faces.
13 i Be thou exalted, O Lord, in thy strength:
so will we sing and prayse thy power.

a When he shall ouercome his enemies, and so be assured of his vocation.
b Thou declaredst thy liberall fauour towarde him before he prayed.
c David did not onely obtaine life, but also assurance that his posteritie should reigne for euer.
d Thou hast made him thy blessings to others, and a perpetuall example of thy fauour for euer.
e Here he describeth the power of Christes kingdome against the enemies thereof.
f This teacheth vs patiently to endure the crosse till God destroy the aduersarie.
g They layd as it were their nets to make Gods power to giue place to their wicked enterprises.
h As a marke to shoote at.
i Maintaine thy Church against thine aduersaries, that we may haue ample occasion to prayse thy Name.

PSAL. XXII.

1 David complaineth because hee was brought into such extremities that hee was past all hope, but after he had rehearsed the sorowes and griefes, wherewith he was vexed, 10 Hee recouereth himselfe from the bottomles pit of tentations & groweth in hope. And here vnder his owne person hee setteth forth the figure of Christ, whome he did foresee by the Spirit of prophecie, that he should maruelously, and strangely be deiected, and abased, before his Father shoulde rayse and exalt him againe.

¶ To him that excelleth vpon ‖ Aiieleth Hasshahar. A Psalme of David.

MY a God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me, and art so farre from mine health, and from the wordes of my b roaring?
2 O my God, I crie by day, but thou hearest not, and by night, but ‖ haue no audience.
3 But thou art holy, and doest inhabite the c prayses of Israel.
4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou diddest deliuer them.
5 They called vpon thee, and were deliuered:
they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.
6 But I am a d worme, and not a man: a shame of men, and the contempt of the people.
7 All they that see me, haue me in derision:
they make a mowe and nod the head, saying,

‖ Or, the hinde of the morning, and this was the name of some common song.
a Here appeareth that horrible conflict, which he susteined betweene faith & desperation.
b Being tormented with extreme anguish.
‖ Or, I cease not.
c He meaneth the place of praysing, euen the Tabernacle: or els it is so called because he gaue the people continually occasion to prayse him.
d And seeming most miserable of all creatures, which was ment of Christ. And herein appeareth the vnspeakable loue of God toward man, that he would thus abase his Sonne for our sakes.

He

8 † * He trusted in the Lorde, let him deliuer him : let him saue him, seeing he loueth him.
9 But thou didst draw me out of the e wombe:
thou gauest me hope, euen at my mothers breasts.
10 I was cast vpon thee, euen from ẏ f wombe:
thou art my God from my mothers belly.
11 Be not farre from me, because trouble is neere : for there is none to helpe me.
12 Many yong bulles haue compassed mee:
mightie g bulles of Bashan haue closed me about.
13 They gape vpon me with their mouthes, as a ramping and roaring lyon.
14 I am like h water poured out, and all my bones are out of ioynt : mine heart is like waxe:it is molten in the middes of my bowels.
15 My strength is dryed vp like a potsheard, and my tongue cleaueth to my iawes, and thou
i hast brought me into the dust of death.
16 For dogges haue compassed me, and the as-semblie of the wicked haue inclosed me: they k perced my handes and my feete.
17 I may tell all my bones : yet they beholde, and looke vpon me.
18 They part my garments among them, and cast lottes vpon my vesture.
19 But bee not thou farre off, O Lorde, my strength : hasten to helpe me.
20 Deliuer my soule from the sword : my l desolate soule from the power of the dogge.
21 m Saue me from the lyons mouth, and an-swere me in sauing me from the hornes of the vni-cornes.
22 * I wil declare thy Name vnto my brethren:
in the middes of the Congregation will I praise thee, saying,
23 n Prayse the Lord, ye that feare him: magnifie yee him, all the seede of Iaakob, and feare yee him all the seede of Israel.
24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred ẏ affliction of the o poore: neither hath he hid his face from him, but when he called vnto him, he heard.
25 My prayse shalbe of thee in the great Congregation : my p vowes will I performe before them that feare him.
26 q The poore shall eate and be satisfied: they that seeke after the Lorde, shall prayse him: your heart shall liue for euer.
27 All the endes of the world shall remember themselues, and turne to the Lord: and all the kin-reds of the nations shall worship before thee.
28 For the kingdome is the Lords, and he ruleth among the nations.
29 Al they that be fat r in the earth, shall eate and worship: all they that go downe into the dust, shall bowe before him, s euen he that cannot quicken his owne soule.
30 t Their seede shall serue him: it shalbe counted vnto the Lord for a generation.
31 They shall come, and shall declare his righteousnesse vnto a people that shalbe borne, because he hath u done it.

† Ebr. rolled vpon God.
* Mat. 27. 43.
e Euen from my birth thou hast giuen me occasion to trust in thee.
f For except Gods prouidence preserue the infants, they should perish a thousand times in the mothers wombe.
g He meaneth, that his enemies were so fat, proud and cruell, that they were rather beastes then men.
h Before, he spake of the crueltie of his enemies, and now hee declareth the inward griefes of the minde, so that Christ was tormented both in soule and body.
i Thou hast suffered me to be without al hope of life.
k Thus Dauid complaineth as though he were nailed by his enemies both hands and feete: but this was accomplished in Christ.
l My life that is solitarie, left alone and forsaken of all, Psal. 35. 17. and 25. 16.

n He promiseth to exhort the Church, that they by his example might prayse the Lorde.
o The poore afflicted are comforted by this example of Dauid or Christ.
p Which were sacrifices of thankesgiuing, which they offered by Gods commandement, when they were deliuered out of any great danger.
q He doeth allude still to the sacrifice.
r Though the poore be first named, as verse 26. yet the weldrie are not separated from the grace of Christes kingdome.
s In whome there is no hope that he shall recouer life: so neither poore nor riche, quicke nor dead shalbe reiected from his kingdome.
t Meaning the posteritie, which the Lorde keepeth as a seede to the Church to continue his praise among men. u That is, God hath fulfilled his promes.

Which though it was appointed among the children of Abraham, yet onely they doe enter aright into this Sanctuarie, which are the true worshippers of God, purged from the sinfull filth of this worlde. 7 Finally hee magnifieth Gods grace for the building of the Temple, to the ende hee might stirre vp all the faithfull to the true seruice of God.*

b Though circumcision separate the carnall seede of Iaakob from the Gentiles, yet he that seeketh God, is the true Iaakob, and the very Israelite.
c Dauid desireth the building vp of the Temple, wherein the glorie of God should appeare, and vnder the figure of this temple, hee also prayeth for the spiritual temple, which is eternall, because of the promes which was made to the temple, as it is written, Psal. 132. 14.

11 For thy h Names sake, O Lord, be mercifull vnto mine iniquitie, for it is great.
12 What i man is he that feareth the Lorde?
him will he teache the way that he shall k chuse.
13 His soule shall dwell at l ease, and his seede shall inherite the land.
14 The m secrete of the Lorde is reueiled to them, that feare him: and his couenant to giue them vnderstanding.
15 Mine eyes are euer towarde the Lorde: for he will bring my feete out of the net.
16 Turne thy face vnto me, and haue mercie vpon me: for I am desolate and poore.
17 The sorowes of mine heart n are enlarged:
drawe me out of my troubles.
18 Looke vpon mine affliction and my trauell, and forgiue all my sinnes.
19 Beholde mine o enemies, for they are many,
and they hate me with cruell hatred.
20 Keepe my soule, and deliuer me: let me not be confounded, for I trust in thee.
21 Let p mine vprightnes and equitie preserue me: for mine hope is in thee.
22 Deliuer Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

c Receiue me in the faith of thy promes, that I swarue not on any side.
d Constantly, and against all tentations.
e He confesseth that his manifold sinnes were the cause that his enemies did thus persecute him, desiring that the cause of the euill may be taken away, to the intent that the effect may cease.
f That is, cal them to repentance.
g He wil gouerne and comfort them that are truely humbled for their sinnes.
h And for none other respect.
i Meaning, the nomber is very small.
k He will direct such with his spirite to folowe the right way.
l He shall prosper both in spirituall and corporall things.
m His counsell conteined in his worde, whereby he declareth that he is the protector of the faithfull.
n My griefe is increased because of mine enemies crueltie.
o The greater that his afflictions were, & the more that his enemies increased, the more neere sele he Gods helpe.
p For as much as I haue behaued my selfe vprightly toward mine enemies, let them knowe that thou art the defender of my iust cause.

PSAL. XXVI.

1 David oppressed with many iniuries, finding no helpe in the worlde, calleth for ayde from God: and assured of his integritie towarde Saul, desireth God to bee his iudge, and to defend his innocencie. 6 Finally hee maketh mention of his sacrifice, which he will offer for his deliuerance, and desireth to be in the companie of the faithfull in the Congregation of God, whence he was banished by Saul, promising integritie of life, and open prayses and thankesgiuing.

¶ A Psalme of David.

Iudge me, a O Lorde, for I haue walked in mine innocency: my trust hath bene also in the Lorde:
therefore shall I not slide.
2 Proue me, O Lorde, and trie me: examine my b reines, and mine heart.
3 For thy c louing kindnesse is before mine eyes: therefore haue I walked in thy trueth.
4 I haue not d hanted with vaine persons, neither kept companie with the dissemblers.
5 I haue hated the assemblie of the euill, and haue not companied with the wicked.

a Hee fleeth to God to be the iudge of his iust cause, seeing there is no equitie among men.
b My very affections and inward motions of the heart.
c He sheweth what staied him, that he did not recompense euill for euill.
d Hee declareth that they cannot walke in simplicitie before God, that delite in the companie of the vngodly.

6 I will e wash mine handes in innocencie, O
Lord, and compasse thine altar, 7 That I may declare with the voyce of thankesgiuing, and set foorth all thy wonderous workes.
8 O Lorde, I haue loued the habitation of thine house, and the place where thine honour dwelleth.
9 f Gather not my soule with the sinners, nor my life with the bloodie men:
10 In whose handes is g wickednesse, and their right hand is full of bribes.
11 But I will walke in mine innocencie: re-deeme me therefore, and be mercifull vnto me.
12 My foote standeth in h vprightnesse: I will praise thee, O Lord, in the Congregations.

e I will serue thee with a pure affection, and with the godly that sacrifice vnto thee.
f Destroy me not in the ouerthrowe of the wicked.
g Whose cruell handes doe execute the malicious deuises of their hearts.
h I am preserued from mine enemies by the power of God, and therefore will praise him openly.

PSAL. XXVII.

1 David maketh this Psalme being deliuered from great perils, as appeareth by the prayses and thankesgiuing annexed: 4 Wherein wee may see the constant faith of David against the assaults of all his enemies, 7 And also the ende wherefore he desireth to liue and to be deliuered, onely to worship God in his Congregation.

¶ A Psalme of David.

The Lord is my a light and my saluation, whom shall I feare? the Lorde is the strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraide?
2 When the wicked, euen mine enemies and my foes came vpon me to eate vp my flesh, they stumbled and fell.
3 Though an hoste pitched against me, mine heart should not be afraide: though warre be raised against me, I will trust in b this.
4 c One thing haue I desired of the Lorde, that I will require, euen that I may dwell in the house of the Lorde all the dayes of my life, to beholde the beautie of the Lorde, and to visite his Temple.
5 For in the time of trouble hee shall hide me in his Tabernacle: in the secrete place of his pauilion shall he hide me, and set me vp vpon a rocke.
6 d And nowe shall hee lift vp mine head aboue mine enemies rounde about me: therefore will I offer in his Tabernacle sacrifices of ioy: I will sing and praise the Lord.
7 Hearken vnto my voyce, O Lorde, when I crie: haue mercie also vpon mee and heare mee.
8 When thou saidest, e Seeke ye my face, mine heart answered vnto thee, O Lorde, I will seeke thy face.
9 Hide not therefore thy face from me, nor cast thy seruant away in displeasure: thou hast bene my succour: leaue me not, neither forsake me, O God of my saluation.
10 f Though my father and my mother shoulde forsake mee, yet the Lorde will gather me vp.
11 Teache me thy way, O Lorde, and leade me in a right path, because of mine enemies.
12 Giue me not vnto the g lust of mine aduer-saries: for there are false witnesses risen vp against me, and such as speake cruelly.
13 I should haue fainted, except I had beleeued to see the goodnes of the h Lorde in the land of the liuing.
14 i Hope in the Lorde: be strong, and he shall comfort thine heart, and trust in the Lord.

a Because he was assured of good successe in all his dangers, and that his saluation was surely laide vp in God, he feared not the tyrannie of his enemies.
b That God will deliuer me, & giue my faith the victorie.
c The losse of countrey, wife and all worldly commodities grieue me not in respect of this one thing, that I may not praise thy Name in the middes of the congregation.
d David assured him selfe by the Spirite of prophecie that he shoulde ouercome his enemies, & serue God in his Tabernacle.
e He groundeth vpon Gods promes, and sheweth that he is most willing to obey his commandement.
f He magnifieth Gods loue towardes his, which farre passeth the most tender loue of parents towards their children.
g But either pacifie their wrath, or bridle their rage.
h In this present life before I die, as Isa. 38.11.
i He exhorteth himself to depend on the Lord, seeing he neuer failed in his promes.

PSAL. XXVIII.

1 Being in great feare and heauinesse of heart to see God dishonoured by the wicked, he desireth to be rid of them, 4 And crieth for vengeance against them: and at length assureth him selfe, that God hath heard his prayer. 9 Unto whose tuition he commendeth all the faithfull.

¶ A Psalme of Dauid.

VNto thee, O Lord, doe I crie: O my strength, be not deafe toward me, lest, if thou answere me not, I be a like them that goe downe into the pitte.

2 Heare the voyce of my petitions, when I crie vnto thee, when I holde vp mine handes toward thine b holy Oracle.

3 c Drawe me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquitie: which speake friendly to their neighbours, when malice is in their hearts.

4 d Reward them according to their deedes, and according to the wickednesse of their inuentions: recompense them after the worke of their handes: render them their reward.

5 For they regard not the workes of the Lord, nor the operation of his handes: therefore e breake them downe, and build them not vp.

6 f Praised be the Lord, for he hath heard the voyce of my petitions.

7 The Lorde is my strength and my shielde: mine heart trusted in him, and I was helped: therefore mine heart shall reioyce, and with my song will I praise him.

8 The Lorde is g their strength, and he is the strength of the deliuerances of his anointed.

9 Saue thy people, and blesse thine inheritance: feede them also, and exalt them for euer.

a He counteth himselfe as a dead man, till God shew his fauour toward him, and graunt him his petition.
b He vsed this outward meanes to helpe the weaknesse of his faith: for in that place was the Arke, and there God promised to shewe the tokens of his fauour.
c Destroy not the good with the bad.
d He thus prayeth in respect of Gods glory, and not for his owne cause, being assured that God wold punish the persecuters of his Church.
e Let them be vtterly destroyed, as Malac.1.4.
f Because he felt the assurance of Gods helpe in his heart, his mouth was opened to sing his prayses.
g Meaning, his souldiers, who were as meanes, by whom God declared his power.

PSAL. XXIX.

1 The Prophet exhorteth the princes and rulers of the worlde, (which for the most part thinke there is no God) 3 At the least to feare him for the thunders and tempest, for feare whereof all creatures tremble. 11 And though thereby God threateneth sinners, yet is he alwayes mercifull to his, and moueth them thereby to prayse his Name.

¶ A Psalme of Dauid.

GIue vnto the Lord, ye a sonnes of the mightie: giue vnto the Lord glorie and strength.

2 Giue vnto the Lorde glorie due vnto his Name: worship the Lorde in the glorious Sanctuarie.

3 The b voyce of the Lord is vpon the waters: the God of glorie maketh it to thunder: the Lord is vpon the great waters.

4 The voyce of the Lord is mightie: the voyce of the Lord is glorious.

5 The c voyce of the Lord breaketh the cedars: yea, the Lorde breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

6 He maketh them also to leape like a calfe: Lebanon also and d Shirion like a yong vnicorne.

7 The voyce of the Lord deuideth the e flames of fire.

8 The voyce of the Lorde maketh the wildernesse to tremble: the Lord maketh the wildernesse of f Kadesh to tremble.

9 The voyce of the Lorde maketh the hindes to g calue, and h discouereth the forestes: therefore in his i Temple doth euery man speake of his glory.

10 The Lord sitteth vpon the k flood, and the Lord doeth remaine King for euer.

11 The Lord shall giue strength vnto his people: the Lord shall blesse his people with peace.

a He exhorteth the proud tyrants to humble them selues vnder Gods hand, and not to be inferiour to brute beastes and domme creatures.
b The thunder clappes, that are heard out of the cloudes, ought to make the wicked to tremble for feare of Gods anger.
c That is, the thunderbolt breaketh the most strong trees, & shall men thinke their power to be able to resist God?
d Called also Hermon.
e It causeth the lightnings to shoote and glide.
f In places most desolate, whereas seemeth there is no presence of God.
g For feare maketh them to cast their calues.
h Maketh the trees bare, or pearceth the most secret places.
i Though the wicked are nothing mooued with these sights, yet the faithfull praise God.
k To moderate the rage of the tempest and waters, that they destroy not all.

PSAL. XXX.

1 When Dauid was deliuered from great danger, hee rendred thankes to God, exhorting others to doe the like, and to learne by his example, that God is rather mercifull then seuere and rigorous towardes his children. 7 And also that the fall from prosperitie to aduersitie is sudden. 8 This done, he returneth to prayer, promising to prayse God for euer.

¶ * A Psalme or song of the * dedication of the a house of Dauid.

I Will magnifie thee, O Lorde: b for thou hast exalted me, and hast not made my foes to reioyce ouer me.

2 O Lorde my God, I cried vnto thee, and thou hast c restored me.

3 O Lorde, thou hast brought vp my d soule out of the graue: thou hast reuiued me from them that goe downe into the pit.

4 Sing praises vnto the Lorde, ye e his Saintes, and giue thankes f before the remembrance of his Holinesse.

5 * For he endureth but a while in his anger: but in his fauour is life: weeping may abide at euening, but ioy commeth in the morning.

6 And in my g prosperitie I saide, I shall neuer be moued.

7 For thou Lord of thy goodnes haddest made my h mountaine to stand strong: but thou diddest hide thy face, and I i was troubled.

8 Then cried I vnto thee, O Lord, and prayed to my Lord.

9 What profite is there in my blood, when I goe downe to the pit? shall the dust k giue thankes vnto thee? or shall it declare thy trueth?

10 Heare, O Lorde, and haue mercie vpon me: Lord, be thou mine helper.

11 Thou hast turned my mourning into ioy: thou hast loosed my sacke and girded mee with gladnesse.

12 Therefore shall my l tongue praise thee and not cease: O Lorde my God, I will giue thankes vnto thee for euer.

PSAL. XXXI.

1 Dauid deliuered from some great danger, first rehearseth what meditation hee had by the power of faith, when death was before his eyes, his enemie being ready to take him. 15 Then he affirmeth that the fauour of God is alwayes ready to those that feare him. 20 Finally hee exhorteth all the faithfull to trust in God and to loue him, because he preserueth and strengtheneth them, as they may see by his example.

ther againſt me, and conſulted to take my life.

18 Let the lying lips bee made dumme, which cruelly, proudly and ſpitefully ſpeake againſt the righteous.
19 Howe great is thy goodneſſe, which thou

3 Praise ye the Lord with me, and let vs magnifie his Name together.
4 I sought the Lord, and he heard me: yea, he deliuered me out of all my [c] feare.
5 They [d] shall looke vnto him, and runne to him: and their faces shall not be ashamed, saying, 6 This poore man cried, and the Lorde heard him, and saued him out of all his troubles.
7 The [e] Angel of the Lorde pitcheth round about them, that feare him, and deliuereth them.
8 Taste ye and see, how gratious the Lorde is:
blessed is the man that trusteth in him.
9 Feare the Lord, ye his Saintes: for nothing wanteth to them that feare him.
10 The [f] lyons do lacke and suffer hunger, but they, which seeke the Lord, shall [g] want nothing that is good.
11 Come children, hearken vnto me: I will teach you the [h] feare of the Lord.
12 * What man is he, that desireth life, and loueth long dayes for to [i] see good?
13 Keepe thy tongue from euill, and thy lips, that they speake no guile.

a He promiseth neuer to become vnmindefull of Gods great benefite for his deliuerance.
b They that are beaten downe with the experience of their owne euils.
c Which I conceiued for the dangers wherein I was.
d They shalbe bolde to flee to thee for succour, when they shall see thy mercies toward me.
e Though Gods power be sufficient to gouerne vs, yet for mans infirmitie he appointeth his Angels to watch ouer vs.
f The godly by their patient obedience, profit more then they, which rauine and spoyle.
g If they abide the last tryall. h That is, the true religion and woorshippe of God. * 1.Peter 3.10. i Seeing all men naturally desire felicitie, he wondreth why they cast themselues willingly into miserie.

14 Eschewe euill and doe good: seeke peace and follow after it.
15 The eyes of the Lord are vpon the righteous, and his eares are open vnto their crie.
16 But the [k] face of the Lord is against them that doe euill, to cut off their remembrance from
the earth.
17 The righteous crie, and the Lorde heareth them, and deliuereth them out of all their troubles.
18 The Lorde is neere vnto them that are of a [l] contrite heart, and wil saue such as be afflicted in Spirite.
19 Great are the troubles of the righteous: but the Lord deliuereth him out of them all.
20 [m] He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.
21 But malice shal slay the [n] wicked: and they that hate the righteous, shall perish.
22 The Lord [o] redeemeth the soules of his ser-uants: and none, that trust in him, shall perish.

k The anger of God doeth not onely destroy the wicked, but also abolisheth their name for euer.
l When they seeme to be swallowed vp with afflictions, then God is at hand to deliuer them.
m And as Christ saith, all the haires of his head.
n Their wicked enterprises shall turne to their owne destruction.
o For when they seeme to be ouercome with great dangers and death it selfe, then God sheweth himselfe their redeemer.

PSAL. XXXV.

1 So long as Saul was enemie to Dauid, all that had any authoritie vnder him, to flatter their King (as is the course of the worlde) did also most cruelly persecute Dauid: against whome he prayeth God to pleade and to auenge his cause, 8 That they may be taken in their nets and snares, which they layed for him, that his innocencie may be declared, 27 And that the innocent, which taketh part with him, may reioyce and prayse the Name of the Lorde, that thus deliuereth his seruant. 28 And so he promiseth to speake foorth the iustice of the Lorde, and to magnifie his Name all the dayes of his life.

¶ A Psalme of Dauid.

P Leade thou my [a] cause, O Lorde, with them that striue with me: fight thou against them, that fight against me.
2 [b] Lay hande vpon the shielde and buckler, and stand vp for mine helpe.
3 Bring out also the speare and stop the way against them, that persecute me: say vnto my [c] soule,
I am thy saluation.
4 Let them be confounded and put to shame, that seeke after my soule: let them bee turned backe, and brought to confusion, that imagine mine hurt.
5 Let them be as chaffe before the winde, and let the Angel of the Lord [d] scatter them.
6 Let their way be darke and slippery: and let the Angel of the Lord persecute them.
7 For [e] without cause they haue hid the pit & their net for me: without cause haue they digged a pit for my soule.
8 Let destruction come vpon [f] him at vn-wares, and let his net, that he hath laide priuily, take him: let him fall into [g] the same destruction.
9 Then my soule shalbe ioyfull in the Lorde:
it shall reioyce in his saluation.
10 All my [h] bones shall say, Lorde, who is like vnto thee, which deliuerest the poore from him, that is too strong for him! yea, the poore and him that is in miserie, from him that spoyleth
him!
11 [i] Cruell witnesses did rise vp: they asked of me things that I knew not.
12 They rewarded me euill for good, to [k] haue spoyled my soule.
13 Yet I, when they were sicke, I was clothed with a sacke: I humbled my soule with fasting:

a Hee desireth God to vndertake his cause against them that did persecute him and slander him.
b Albeit God can with his breath destroy all his enemies, yet the holy Ghost attributeth vnto him these outwarde weapons, to assure vs of his present power.
c Assure me against these tentations, that thou art the authour of my saluation.
d Smite them with the spirite of giddinesse that their enterprises may be foolish, and they receiue iust reward.
e Shewing that we may not call God to be a reuenger, but onely for his glorie, and when our cause is iust.
f When he promiseth to himselfe peace.
g Which hee prepared against the children of God.
h He attributeth his deliuerance onely to God, praysing him therefore both in soule and body. i That would not suffer me to purge my selfe. k To haue taken from me all comfort, and brought me into despaire.

and

and [l] my prayer was turned vpon my bosome.
14 I behaued my selfe as to my friend, or as to my brother: I humbled my selfe, mourning as one that bewaileth his mother.
15 But in mine [m] aduersitie they reioyced, and gathered themselues together: the abiects assembled themselues against me, and I knewe not: they tare [n] me and ceased not, 16 With the false skoffers at [o] bankets, gnashing their teeth against me.
17 Lord, how long wilt thou beholde this? de-liuer my soule from their tumult, euen my desolate soule from the lions.
18 So will I giue thee thankes in a great Congregation: I will praise thee among much people.
19 Let not them that are mine enemies, vniustly reioyce ouer mee, neither let them [p] winke with the eye, that hate mee without a cause.
20 For they speake not as friendes: but they imagine deceitfull woordes against the ‖ quiet of the land.
21 And they gaped on mee with their mouthes, saying, Aha, aha, [q] our eye hath seene.
22 Thou hast seene it, O Lorde: keepe not silence: be not farre from me, O Lord.
23 Arise and wake to my iudgement, euen to my cause, my God, and my Lord.
24 Iudge me, O Lorde my God, according to thy [r] righteousnesse, and let them not reioyce ouer
mee.
25 Let them not say in their hearts, [s] O our soule reioyce: neither let them say, We haue de-uoured him.
26 Let them be confounded, and put to shame
[t] together, that reioyce at mine hurt: let them bee clothed [u] with confusion and shame, that lift vp themselues against me.
27 But let them be ioyful and glad, [x] that loue my righteousnesse: yea, let them say alway, Let the Lord be magnified, which loueth the [y] prosperitie of his seruant.
28 And my tongue shall vtter thy righteous-nesse, and thy praise euery day.

l I prayed for them with inwarde affectiõ, as I would haue done for my selfe: or, I declared mine affectiõ with bowing downe mine head.
m When they saw me ready to slip & as one that halted for infirmitie.
n With their railing wordes.
o The worde signifieth cakes: meaning, ỷ the proude courtiers at their deintie feastes scoffe, raile, & conspire his death.
p In token of contempt and mocking.
‖ Or, clefts of the earth: meaning himselfe & others in their miserie.
q They reioyced as though they had now seene Dauid ouerthrowen.
r It is the iustice of God to giue to the oppressers affliction, and to the oppressed aide & reliefe, 2.Thes.1.6.
s Because wee haue that which we sought for, seeing he is destroied.
t That is, at once, were they neuer so many or mightie.
u This prayer shall alwayes be verified against them that persecute the faithfull.
x That at least fauour my right, though they be not able to helpe me.
y Hee exhorteth the Church to praise God for the deliuerance of his seruants, and for the destruction of his aduersaries.

PSAL. XXXVI.

1 The Prophet grieuously vexed by the wicked, doeth complaine of their malicious wickednesse. 6 Then hee turneth to consider the vnspeakeable goodnesse of God towards all creatures: 9 But specially towardes his children, that by the faith thereof he may bee comforted and assured of his deliuerance by this ordinarie course of Gods woorke, 13 Who in the ende destroyeth the wicked and saueth the iust.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of Dauid, the seruant of the Lord.

WIckednes sayth to the wicked man, [a] euen in mine heart, that there is no feare of God before his eyes.
2 For hee [b] flattereth himselfe in his owne eyes, while his iniquitie is foũd worthy to be hated.
3 The wordes of his mouth are iniquitie and [c] deceit: hee hath left off to vnderstande and to doe good.
4 He [d] imagineth mischiefe vpon his bed: he setteth himselfe vpon a way, that is not good, and doeth not abhorre euill.

a I see euidently by his deedes, that sinne pusheth forward the reprobate from wickednes to wickednes, albeit he go about to couer his impietie.
b Though all other detest his vile sinne, yet he himselfe seeth it not.
c The reprobate mocke at wholesome doctrine and put not difference betweene good and euill.
d By describing at large the nature of the reprobate, hee admonisheth the godly to beware of these vices.

5 Thy [e] mercy, O Lord, reacheth vnto the hea-uens, and thy faithfulnesse vnto the cloudes.
6 Thy righteousnesse is like the † mightie moũtaines: thy iudgements are like a great [f] deepe:
thou, Lord, doest saue man and beast.
7 How excellent is thy mercy, O God! therefore the children of men trust vnder the shadowe of thy wings.
8 They shalbe [g] satisfied with the fatnesse of thine house, and thou shalt giue them drinke out of the riuer of thy pleasures.
9 For with thee is the well of life, and in thy light shall we see light.
10 Extend thy louing kindnes vnto them that [h] knowe thee, and thy righteousnesse vnto them that are vpright in heart.
11 Let not ỷ [i] foote of pride come against me, and let not the hand of ỷ wicked men moue me.
12 [k] There they are fallen that worke iniquity:
they are cast downe, and shall not be able to rise.

e Though wickednesse seemeth to ouerflowe all the world, yet by thine heauenly prouidence thou gouernest heauen and earth.
† Ebr. the mountaines of God: for whatsoeuer is excellent, is thus called.
f The depth of thy prouidence gouerneth all things, and dispo-seth them, albeit the wicked seeme to ouerwhelme the worlde.
g Onely Gods children haue ynough of all things both concerning this life and the life to come.
h Hee sheweth who are Gods children, to wit, they that knowe him, and leade their liues vprightly.
i Let not the proude aduance himselfe against me, neither the power of the wicked driue me away.
k That is, in their pride wherein they flatter themselues.

PSAL. XXXVII.

1 This Psalme containeth exhortation and consolation for the weake, that are grieued at the prosperitie of the wicked, and the affliction of the godly. 7 For how prosperously soeuer the wicked doe liue for the time, hee doeth affirme their felicitie to bee vaine and transitorie, because they are not in the fauour of God, but in the ende they are destroyed as his enemies, 11 And how miserably that the righteous seemeth to liue in the worlde, yet his ende is peace, and he is in the fauour of God, he is deliuered from the wicked and preserued.

¶ A Psalme of Dauid.

FRet not [a] thy selfe because of the wicked men, neither be enuious for the euill doers.
2 For they shall soone bee [b] cut downe like grasse, and shall wither as the greene herbe.
3 [c] Trust thou in the Lord & do good: dwell in the land, and thou shalt be fed assuredly.
4 And delite thy selfe in the Lorde, and hee shall giue thee thine hearts desire.
5 [d] Commit thy way vnto the Lord, & trust in him, and he shall bring it to passe.
6 And he shall bring foorth thy righteousnes as the light, & thy [e] iudgement as the noone day.
7 Waite patiently vpon the Lorde and hope in him: fret not thy selfe for him [f] which prospereth in his way: nor for the man that bringeth his enterprises to passe.
8 Cease from anger, and leaue off wrath: fret not thy selfe [g] also to doe euill.
9 For euill doers shalbe cut off, and they that waite vpon the Lord, they shall inherite the land.
10 [h] Therefore yet a litle while, and the wicked shall not appeare, and thou shalt looke after his place, and he shall not be found.
11 But * meeke men shal possesse the earth, and shall haue their delite in the multitude of peace.
12 [i] The wicked practiseth against the iust, and gnasheth his teeth against him.
13 But the Lord shal laugh him to scorne: for he seeth, that his day is comming.
14 The wicked haue drawen their sworde, and haue bent their bowe, to cast downe the poore and needie, and to slay such as be of vpright con-

a He admonisheth vs neither to vexe our selues for the prosperous estate of the wicked, neither to desire to be like them to make our state ỷ better.
b For Gods iudgement cutteth downe their state in a moment.
c To trust in God, and doe according to his will, are sure tokens, that his prouidence will neuer faile vs.
d Be not led by thine owne wisdome, but obey God, and he will finish his worke in thee.
e As the hope of the day light causeth vs not to be offended with the darkenesse of the night: so ought we paciently to trust ỷ God will cleare our cause & restore vs to our right.
f When God suffereth the wicked to prosper, it seemeth to the flesh that he fauoureth their doings, Iob. 21.7.&c.
g Meaning, except he moderate his affections, he shalbe ledde to doe as they doe.
h He correcteth the impaciencie of our nature, which cannot abide till the fulnesse of Gods time be come.
* Matth.5.5.
i The godly are assured that the power and craft of the wickhd shall not preuaile against them, but fall on their owne neckes and therefore ought paciently to abide Gods time, and in the meane while bewaile their sinnes, & offer vp their teares as a sacrifice of their obedience.

uersation.
15 But their sword shall enter into their owne heart, and their bowes shalbe broken.
16 ᵏA small thing vnto the iust man is better, then great riches to the wicked and mightie.
17 For the armes of the wicked shall be broken: but the Lord vpholdeth the iust men.
18 The Lorde ˡ knoweth the dayes of vp-right men, and their inheritance shall be perpetuall.
19 They shall not be confounded in the perilous time, and in the dayes of famine they shal haue ᵐ ynough.
20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the Lorde shall be consumed as the ⁿ fatte of lambes: euen with the smoke shall they consume away.
21 The wicked boroweth and payeth not againe: but the righteous is mercifull, and ᵒ giueth.
22 For such as be blessed of God, shall inherite the lande, and they that be cursed of him, shall be cut off.
23 ᵖ The pathes of man are directed by the Lord: for he loueth his way.
24 Though he ᑫ fall, he shall not be cast off, for the Lord putteth vnder his hand.
25 I haue bene yong, and am olde: yet I sawe neuer the righteous forsaken, nor his ʳ seede begging bread.
26 But he is euer mercifull and lendeth, and his seede enioyeth the blessing.
27 Flee from euill and doe good, and dwell
for euer.
28 For the Lord loueth iudgement, and forsaketh not his Saintes: they shall be preserued for euermore: but the seede of the wicked shall bee
cut off.
29 The righteous men shall inherite the lande, and dwell therein ˢ for euer.
30 The ᵗ mouth of the righteous will speake of wisedome, and his tongue will talke of iudge-ment.
31 For the Lawe of his God is in his heart, and his steppes shall not slide.
32 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.
33 But the Lord wil not leaue him in his hand, nor condemne him, when he is ᵘ iudged.
34 Waite thou on the Lorde, and keepe his way, and he shall exalt thee, that thou shalt inherite the lande: when the wicked men shall perish, thou shalt see.
35 I haue seene the wicked strong, and spreading himselfe like a greene bay tree.
36 Yet he ˣ passed away, and loe, he was gone, and I sought him, but he could not be found.
37 ʸ Marke the vpright man, and beholde the iust: for the end of that man is peace.
38 But the transgressours shall bee destroyed together, and the ende of the wicked shall bee
cut off.
39 But the ᶻ saluation of the righteous men shalbe of the Lord: he shalbe their strength in the time of trouble.
40 For the Lorde shall helpe them, and deliuer them: he shall deliuer them from the wicked, and shall saue them, because they trust in him.

k For they are daily fed as with Manna from heauen, and haue sufficient, when the wicked haue neuer ynough, but euer hunger.
l God knoweth what dangers hang ouer his, and by what meanes to deliuer them.
m For God will giue them contented mindes, and that which shalbe necessarie.
n They shall vanish away suddenly: for they are fed for the day of slaughter.
o God so furnisheth him with his blessing, that he is able to helpe others.
p God prospereth the faithfull, because they walke in his wayes with an vpright conscience.
q When God doeth exercise his faith with diuers tentations.
r Though the iust man die, yet Gods blessings are extended to his posteritie, & though God suffer some iust man to lacke temporal benefits, yet he recompenseth him with spirituall treasures.
s They shall continually be preserued vnder Gods wings, and haue at least inward rest.
t These three points are required of the faithfull, that their talke be godly, that Gods lawe be in their heart, & that their life be vpright.
u For though it be sometime so expedient both for Gods glorie and their saluation, yet he will approoue their cause, and reuenge their wrong.
x So that the prosperitie of the wicked is but as a cloude, which vanisheth away in a moment.
y He exhorteth the faithfull to marke diligently the examples both of Gods mercies, and also of his iudgements.
z Hee sheweth that the patient hope of the godly is neuer in vaine, but in the ende hath good successe, though for a time God prooue them by sundrie tentations.

PSAL. XXXVIII.

1 Dauid lying sicke of some grieuous disease, acknowledgeth him selfe to bee chastised of the Lorde for his sinnes, and therefore prayeth God to turne away his wrath. 5 Hee vttereth the greatnesse of his griefe by many wordes and circumstances, as wounded with the arrowes of Gods ire, forsaken of his friendes, euill intreated of his enemies. 22 But in the ende with firme confidence he commendeth his cause to God, and hopeth for speedie helpe at his hand.

¶ A Psalme of Dauid for ᵃ remembrance.

O Lorde, rebuke me not in thine ᵇ anger, neither chastise me in thy wrath.
2 For thine ᶜ arrowes haue light vpon me, and thine hand lyeth vpon me.
3 There is nothing sound in my flesh, because of thine anger: neither is there rest in my bones because of my ᵈ sinne.
4 For ᵉ mine iniquities are gone ouer mine head, and as a weightie burden they are too heauie for me.
5 My woundes are putrified, and corrupt because of ᶠ my foolishnes.
6 I am bowed, and crooked very sore: I goe ‖ mourning all the day.
7 For my reines are full of burning, and there is nothing sound in my flesh.
8 I am weakened and sore broken: I ᵍ roare for the very griefe of mine heart.
9 Lord, I powre my whole desire before thee, and my sighing is not hid from thee.
10 Mine heart † panteth: my strength faileth me, and the light of mine eyes, euen ʰ they are not mine owne.
11 My louers and my friends stand aside from my plague, and my ⁱ kinsmen stand a farre off.
12 They also, that seeke after my life, laye snares, and they that go about to do me euil, talke wicked things and imagine deceite continually.
13 But I as ᵏ a deafe man heard not, and am as a dumme man, which openeth not his mouth.
14 Thus am I as a man, that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reprooses.
15 For on thee, O Lorde, doe I waite: thou wilt heare me, my Lord, my God.
16 For I said, Heare me, least they reioyce ouer me: for ˡ when my foote slippeth, they extoll themselues against me.
17 Surely I am ready to ᵐ halte, and my sorow is euer before me.
18 When I declare my paine, and am sory for my sinne,
19 Then mine ⁿ enemies are aliue & are mightie, and they that hate me wrongfully are many.
20 They also, that rewarde euill for good, are mine aduersaries, because I followe ᵒ goodnesse.
21 Forsake me not, O Lord: be not thou farre from me, my God.
22 Haste thee to helpe me, O my Lorde, my ᵖ saluation.

a To put himselfe and others in minde of Gods chastisement for sinne.
b He desireth not to be exempted from Gods rod, but that he would so moderate his hand, that hee might be able to beare it.
c Thy sicknes, wherewith thou hast visited me. d Dauid acknowledgeth God to be iust in his punishments, because his sinnes had deserued much more.
e He confesseth his sinnes, Gods iustice, and maketh prayer his refuge.
f That rather gaue place to mine owne lustes, then to the will of God.
‖ Or, blacke, as one that is disfigured and consumed with sicknes.
g This example warneth vs neuer to despaire, be the torment neuer so great: but alwayes to crie vnto God with sure trust for deliuerance.
† Ebr. runneth about, or, is tossed to and fro: meaning, that he was destitute of all helpe and counsell.
h My sight fayleth me for very sorowe.
i Partly for feare and partly for pride they denied all duetie and friendship.
k For I can haue no audience before men, and therefore paciently waite for the helpe of God.

l That is, if they see that thou succour me not in time, they wil mocke and triumph, as though thou hadst forsaken me. m I am without hope to recouer my strength. n In my greatest miserie they most reioyce. o Hee had rather haue the hatred of all the worlde, then to faile in any part of his duetie to Godwarde. p Which art the authour of my saluation: and this declareth that hee prayed with sure hope of deliuerance.

PSAL. XXXIX.

1 Dauid vttereth with what great griefe and bitternesse of minde hee was driuen to these outragious complaintes of his infirmities. 2 For he confesseth that when hee had determined silence, that he brast foorth yet into wordes that hee woulde not, through the greatnesse of his griefe. 4 Then he rehearseth certaine requestes which taste of the infirmitie of man, 8 And mixeth with them many prayers: but all doe shewe a

minde

minde woonderfully troubled, that it may plainely appeare how he did striue mightilie against death and desperation.

¶ To the excellent musician [a] Jeduthun.
A Psalme of Dauid.

I Thought, [b] I will take heede to my wayes, that I sinne not with my tongue: I will keepe my mouth brideled, while the wicked is in my sight.
2 I was dumme & spake nothing: I kept silẽce euen from good, [c] and my sorow was more stirred.
3 Mine heart was hote within me, and while I was musing, the fire kindled, and [d] I spake with my tongue, saying,
4 Lord let me know mine ende, and the measure of my dayes, what it is: let mee knowe howe long I haue to liue.
5 Beholde, thou hast made my dayes as an hand breadth, and mine age as nothing in respect of thee: surely euery man in his best state is altogether [e] vanitie. Selah.
6 Doubtlesse man walketh in a shadowe, and disquieteth himselfe in vaine: he heapeth vp riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.
7 And now Lord, what wait I for? mine hope is euen in thee.
8 Deliuer me from all my transgressions, and make me not a rebuke vnto the [f] foolish.
9 I should haue beene dumme, and not haue opened my mouth, because [g] thou didst it.
10 Take thy plague away from mee: for I am consumed by the stroke of thine hand.
11 When thou wᵗ rebukes doest chastise man for iniquitie, thou as a moth [h] makest his [i] beautie to consume: surely euery man is vanitie. Selah.
12 Heare my prayer, O Lord, & hearken vnto my crie: keepe not silence at my teares, for I am a stranger with thee, & a soiourner as al my fathers.
13 Stay thine anger from me, that I may recouer my strength, [k] before I goe hence and be not.

a This was one of the chiefe singers, 1.Chro.16.41.
b Albeit he had appointed with himselfe patiently to haue taried Gods leasure, yet the vehemencie of his paine caused him to breake his purpose.
c Though when the wicked ruled, he thought to haue kept silence, yet his zeale caused him to change his minde. d He confesseth that he grudged against God, considering the greatnes of his sorowes, and the shortnes of his life.
e Yet Dauid offended in that that he reasoned with God, as though that he were too seuere toward his weake creature.
f Make me not a mocking stocke to the wicked, or wrappe me not vp with the wicked, when they are put to shame.
g Seeing my troubles came of thy prouidẽce, I ought to haue endured them patiently.
h Though thine open plagues light not euermore vpon them, yet thy secret curse continually fretteth them. i The word signifieth all that he desireth, as health, force, strength, beautie, and in whatsoeuer he hath delite, so that the rod of God taketh away all that is desired in this worlde. k For his sorowe caused him to thinke that God would destroy him vtterly: whereby we see how hard it is for the very Saintes to keepe a measure in their words, when death and despaire assaile them.

PSAL. XL.

1 Dauid deliuered from great danger, doeth magnifie and praise the grace of God for his deliuerance, and commendeth his prouidence towardes all mankinde. 5 Then doeth he promise to giue himselfe wholy to Gods seruice, and so declareth how God is truely worshipped. 14 Afterward hee giueth thankes and praiseth God, and hauing complained of his enemies, with good courage he calleth for ayde and succour.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of Dauid.

I Waited [a] patiently for the Lorde, and he inclined vnto me, and heard my cry.
2 Hee brought mee also out of the [b] horrible pit, out of the myrie clay, and set my feete vpon the rocke, and ordered my goings.
3 And he hath put in my mouth [c] a new song of praise vnto our God: many shall see it and feare, and shall trust in the Lord.
4 Blessed is the man that maketh the Lorde his trust, and regardeth [d] not the proude, nor such as turne aside to lies.
5 [e] O Lorde my God, thou hast made thy wonderfull workes so many, that none can count in order to thee thy thoughts toward vs: I would declare, and speake of them, but they are moe then
I am able to expresse.
6 Sacrifice & offering thou didst not desire:
(for [illegible] hast thou prepared) burnt offring and sinne offering hast thou not required.
7 [g] Then said I, Lo, I come: for in the rolle of the booke it is written of me, 8 I desired to doe thy good will, O my God:
yea, thy Law is within mine heart.
9 I haue declared thy righteousnesse in the [h] great Congregation: loe, I will not refraine my lippes: O Lord, thou knowest.
10 I haue not hidde thy righteousnesse within mine heart, but I haue declared thy [i] trueth and thy saluation: I haue not conceiled thy mercy and thy trueth from the great Congregation.
11 Withdrawe not thou thy tender mercie from mee, O Lord: let thy mercie and thy trueth alway preserue me.
12 For innumerable troubles haue compassed mee: my sinnes haue taken such holde vpon me, that I am not able to looke vp: yea, they are moe in number then the haires of mine head: therefore mine heart hath [k] failed me.
13 Let it please thee, O Lorde, to deliuer me:
make haste, O Lord, to helpe me.
14 Let them be [l] confounded & put to shame together, that seeke my soule to destroye it: let them be driuen backward and put to rebuke, that desire mine hurt.
15 Let them be [m] destroyed for a rewarde of their shame, which say vnto me, Aha, aha.
16 Let all them, that seeke thee, reioyce and be glad in thee: and let them, that loue thy saluation, say alway, [n] The Lord be praised.
17 Though I be poore and needie, the Lorde thinketh on me: thou art mine helper and my deliuerer: my God, make no tarying.

a Though God deferred his help, yet he patiẽtly abode, till he was heard.
b He hath deliuered me from most great dangers.
c That is, a speciall occasion to praise him for Gods benefites are so many occasions for vs to praise his Name. d To folow their example, which he must needes doe, that trusteth not onely in the Lord.
e Dauid goeth from one kinde of Gods fauour, to the contemplation of his prouidence ouer all, and confesseth that his counsels towardes vs are farre aboue our capacities: we cannot so much as tell them in order.
f Thou hast opened mine eares to vnderstand the spirituall meaning of the sacrifices: and here Dauid esteemeth the ceremonies of the Law nothing in respect of the spirituall seruice.
g When thou haddest opened mine eares and heart, I was readie to obey thee, being assured that I was written in the booke of thine elect for this end.
h In the Church assembled in the Sanctuarie.
i Dauid here numbreth 3. degrees of our saluation: Gods mercy, whereby he pitieth vs: his righteousnesse, which signifieth his continuall protection, and his trueth, whereby appeareth his constant fauour, so that hereof proceedeth our saluation.
k As touching the iudgement of the flesh, I was vtterly destitute of all counsell: yet faith inwardly mooued mine heart to pray.
l He desireth that Gods mercy may contend for him against the rage of his enemies. m Let the same shame and confusion light vpon them, which they intended to haue brought vpon me. n As the faithfull alwayes praise God for his benefites: so the wicked mocke Gods children in their afflictions.

PSAL. XLI.

1 Dauid being grieuously afflicted, blesseth them, that pitie his case, 9 And complaineth of the treason of his owne friends and familiars as came to passe in Iudas, Joh.13.18. After hee feeling the great mercies of God gently chastising him, and not suffering his enemies to triumph against him, 13 Giueth most heartie thankes vnto God.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of Dauid.

BLessed is he that [a] judgeth wisely of the poore:
the Lord shall deliuer him in ẏ time of trouble.
2 The Lord will keepe him, and preserue him aliue: he shalbe blessed vpon the earth, and thou wilt not deliuer him vnto the will of his enemies.
3 The Lord wil strẽgthen him vpon ẏ [b] bed of sorow: thou hast turned all his [c] bed in his sicknes.
4 Therefore I saide, Lorde haue mercie vpon me: heale my soule, for I haue sinned against thee.
5 Mine enemies [d] speake euill of me, saying,
When shall he die, and his name perish?
6 And if hee come to see mee, hee speaketh [e] lies, but his heart heapeth iniquitie within him, and when he commeth forth, he telleth it.
7 All they ẏ hate me, whisper together against me: euen against me do they imagine mine hurt.
8 [f] A mischiefe is light vpon him, and he that lieth, shall no more rise.
9 Yea, my † familiar friend, whom I trusted, which did eate of my bread, [g] hath lifted vp the heele against me.

a Not condemning him as accursed, whome God doth visit, knowing that there are diuers causes, why God layeth his hand vpon vs, and afterward he restoreth vs.
b When for sorow and griefe of minde he casteth himselfe vpon his bed.
c Thou hast restored him in his sicke bed and sent him comfort.
d That is, curse me, and cannot haue their cruell hate quenched but with my shamefull death.
e For pretending to comfort me, he conspireth my death in his heart, and braggeth thereof. f The enemies thought by his sharpe punishments, that God was become his mortall enemie. † Ebr. the man of my peace. g As Dauid felt this falsehood, and as it was chiefly accomplished in Christ, Iohn 13. 18. so shall his members continually prooue the same.

10 Therefore, O Lord, haue mercy vpon mee, and raise me vp: so I shall reward them.
11 By this I know that thou fauourest me, because mine enemie doth not triumph against me.
12 And as for me, thou vpholdest me[h] in mine integritie, & doest set me before thy[i] face for euer.
13 Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel worlde without end. [k] So be it, euen so be it.

h Meaning, either in prosperitie of life, or in the true feare of God against al tentations.
i Shewing me euident signes of thy fatherly prouidence.
k By this repetition he stirreth vp the faithfull to praise God.

PSAL. XLII.

1 The Prophet grieuously complaineth, that being letted by his persecuters, hee coulde not be present in the Congregation of Gods people, protesting that although he was separated in bodie from them, yet his heart was thitherward affectioned. 7 And last of all he sheweth that he was not so farre ouercome with these sorowes and thoughts, 8 But that he continually put his confidence in the Lord.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme to giue instruction, [a] committed to the sonnes of Korah.

As the Hart brayeth for the riuers of water, so [b] panteth my soule after thee, O God.
2 My soule thirsteth for God, euen for the liuing God: when shall I come and appeare before the presence of God?
3 [c] My teares haue bin my meat day & night, while they daily say vnto me, Where is thy God?
4 When I remembred [d] these things, I pow-red out my very heart, because I had gone with the multitude, and ledde them into the House of God with the voice of singing, and praise, as a multitude that keepeth a feast.
5 Why art thou cast downe, my soule, and vnquiet within me? [e] wait on God: for I will yet giue him thanks for the helpe of his presence.
6 My God, my soule is cast downe within me, [f] because I remember thee, from the land of Ior-den, and Hermonim, and from the mount Mizar.
7 One [g] deepe calleth another deepe by the noise of thy water spoutes: all thy waues and thy floods are gone ouer me.
8 The Lorde [h] will grant his louing kindnesse in the day, & in the night shall I sing of him, euen
a prayer vnto the God of my life.
9 I will say vnto God, which is my rocke, Why hast thou forgotten mee? why goe I mourning,
when the enemie oppresseth me?
10 My [i] bones are cut asunder, while mine enemies reproch me, saying daily vnto me, Where is thy God?
11 [k] Why art thou cast downe, my soule? and why art thou disquieted within me? wait on God:
for I will yet giue him thankes: he is my present helpe, and my God.

a As a treasure to be kept of them, which were of the number of the Leuites.
b By these similitudes of thirst and panting, he sheweth his feruent desire to serue God in his Temple.
c As others take pleasure in eating and drinking, so he was altogether giuen to weeping.
d That is, how I led the people to serue thee in thy Tabernacle, and now seeing my contrary state, I die for sorow.
e Though he susteined grieuous assaults of the flesh to cast him into despaire, yet his faith grounded on Gods accustomed mercies, getteth the victorie.
f That is, when I remember thee in this land of my banishment among the mountaines.
g Afflictions came so thicke vpon me, that I felt my selfe as ouerwhelmed: whereby he sheweth there is no end of our miserie, till God be pacified, and send remedie.
h He assureth himselfe of Gods helpe in time to come.
i That is, I am most grieuously tormented.
k This repetition doth declare that Dauid did not ouercome at once: to teach vs to be constant for as much as God will certainely deliuer his.

PSAL. XLIII.

1 He prayeth to be deliuered from them which conspire against him, that he might ioyfully praise God in his holy Congregation.

Ivdge [a] me, O God, and defend my cause against the vnmercifull [b] people: deliuer mee from the deceitfull and wicked man.
2 For thou art the God of my strength: why hast thou put me away? why goe I so mourning,
when the enemie oppresseth me?
3 Sende thy [c] light and thy trueth: let them leade mee: let them bring mee vnto thine holie Mountaine and to thy Tabernacles.
4 Then [d] will I go vnto the altar of God, euen vnto the God of my ioy & gladnes: and vpon the harpe wil I giue thāks vnto thee, O God, my God.
5 Why art thou cast downe, my soule? and why art thou disquieted within mee? [e] waite on God: for I will yet giue him thanks, he is my present helpe, and my God.

a He desireth God to vndertake his cause against the enemies but chiefly that he would restore him to the Tabernacle.
b That is, the cruell companie of mine enemies.
c To wit, thy fauour, which appeareth by the performance of thy promises.
d He promiseth to offer a solemne sacrifice of thankesgiuing in token of his great deliuerance.
e Whereby he admonisheth the faithfull not to relent, but constantlie to waite on the Lord, though their troubles be long and great.

PSAL. XLIIII.

1 The faithfull remember the great mercie of God toward his people. 9 After, they complaine, because they feele it no more. 17 Also they alleage the couenant made with Abraham, for the keeping whereof they shew what grieuous things they suffered. 23 Finally they pray vnto God not to contemne their affliction, seeing the same redoundeth to the contempt of his honor.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme to giue instruction, committed to the sonnes of Korah.

Wee haue heard with our [a] eares, O God:
our fathers haue tolde vs the workes, that thou hast done in their dayes, in the olde time:
2 Howe thou hast driuen out the [b] heathen with thine hand, & planted [c] them: how thou hast destroyed the [d] people, & caused [e] them to grow.
3 For they inherited not the lande by their owne sworde, neither did their owne arme saue them: but thy right hand, and thine arme and the light of thy countenance, because thou didst [f] fa-uour them.
4 Thou art my King, O God: send helpe vnto [g] Iaakob.
5 [h] Through thee haue wee thrust backe our aduersaries: by thy Name haue we troden downe them that rose vp against vs.
6 For I do not trust in my bowe, neither can my sword saue me.
7 But thou hast saued vs from our aduersaries, and hast put them to confusion that hate vs.
8 Therefore will wee praise God continually, and will confesse thy Name for euer. Selah.
9 But now thou art farre off, and puttest vs to [i] confusion, and goest not forth with our armies.
10 Thou makest vs to turne backe frō the ad-uersary, & they, which hate vs, spoile‖ for thēselues.
11 * Thou giuest vs [k] as sheepe to bee eaten, and doest scatter vs among the nations.
12 Thou sellest thy people [l] without gaine, & doest not increase their price.
13 Thou makest vs a reproche to our neighbours, a iest and a laughing stocke to them that are round about vs.
14 Thou makest vs a prouerbe among the nations, & a nodding of the head among the people.
15 My [m] confusion is daily before me, and the shame of my face hath couered me, 16 For the voice of the slanderer and rebuker, for the enemie and [n] auenger.
17 All this is come vpon vs, yet doe wee not [o] forget thee, neither deale wee falsly concerning thy couenant.
18 Our heart is not turned backe: neither our steps gone out of thy paths, 19 Albeit thou hast smitten vs downe into the place of ‖ dragons, and couered vs with the shadow of death.
20 If wee haue forgotten the Name of our God, and holden vp our hands to a [p] strange god, 21 Shall not God [q] searche this out? for hee knoweth the secrets of the heart.

a This Psalme semeth to haue bene made by some excellent Prophet for the vse of the people, when the Church was in extreme miserie, either at their returne frō Babylon, or vnder Antiochus, or in such like affliction.
b That is, the Canaanites.
c To wit, our fathers.
d Of Canaan.
e That is, our fathers.
f Gods free mercy and loue is the onely fountaine and beginning of the Church, Deu. 4.37.
g Because thou art our King, therefore deliuer thy people from their miserie.
h Because they & their forefathers made both one Church, they apply that to themselues, which before they did attribute to their fathers.
i As they confessed before, that their strēgth came of God, so nowe they acknowledge that this affliction came by his iust iudgement.
‖ Or, at their pleasure.
* Rom. 8.36.
k Knowing God to be authour of this calamitie, they murmure not, but seeke remedy at his handes, who wounded them.
l As slaues which are solde for a low price, neither lookest thou for him that offereth most, but takest the first chapman.
m I dare not lift vp mine head for shame.
n Meaning, the proude and cruell tyrant.
o They boast not of their vertues, but declare that they rest vpon God in the mids of their afflictions: who punished not nowe their sinnes, but by hard afflictions called them to the consideration of the heauenly ioyes.
‖ Or, whales: meaning the bottomlesse seas of tentation: here we see the power of faith, which can be ouercome by no perils.
p They shewe that they honoured God aright, because they trusted in him alone.
q They call God to witnesse that they were vpright to himward.

22 Surely for thy sake r are we slaine continually, & are counted as sheepe for the slaughter.
23 Vp, why sleepest thou, O Lorde? awake, be not farre off for euer.
24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face? and forgettest our miserie and our affliction?
25 For our soule is s beaten downe vnto the dust: our belly cleaueth vnto the ground.
26 Rise vp for our succour, and redeeme vs for thy t mercies sake.

r The faithfull make this their comfort, that the wicked punish them not for their finnes, but for Gods cause, Matt. 5.10.1.Pet.4.14. s There is no hope of recouerie, except thou put to thine hand and rayse vs vp. t Which is the onely and sufficient ransome to deliuer both body and soule from all kinde of slauerie and miserie.

PSAL. XLV.

1 The maiestie of Salomon, his honour, strength, beautie, riches, and power are praysed, and also his mariage with the Egyptian being an heathen woman is blessed, 10 If that she can renounce her people and the loue of her countrey and giue her selfe wholly to her husband. Vnder the which figure the wonderfull maiestie & increase of the kingdome of Christ and the Church his spouse nowe taken of the Gentiles is described.

MIne heart will vtter forth a good matter: I

2 Thou art c fairer then the children of men:
grace is powred in thy lips, because God hath blessed thee for euer.
3 Gird thy sworde vpon thy thigh, O most mightie, to wit, thy worship and thy glory, 4 And prosper with thy glory: d ride vpon teousnes: so thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

5 Thine arrowes are sharpe to pearce the heart

6 Thy e throne, O God, is for euer and euer:
the scepter of thy kingdome is a scepter of righte-ousnesse.
7 Thou louest righteousnes, and hatest wicoynted thee with the oyle of gladnes aboue thy

9 Kings daughters were among thine honorable wiues: vpon thy right hand did stand the h Queene in a vesture of golde of Ophir.
10 i Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and

and thy fathers house.
11 So shal the King haue pleasure in thy beau-tie: for he is thy Lord, and reuerence thou him.
12 And the k daughter of || Tyrus with the rich

13 The Kings daughter is all glorious l within: her clothing is of broydred golde.
14 She shalbe brought vnto the King in raiment of needle worke: the virgins that follow after her, and her companions shall be brought vn-
to thee.
15 With ioy & gladnes shall they be brought,
and shall enter into the Kings palace.
16 In stead of thy fathers shall thy m children be: thou shalt make them princes n through all
the earth.
17 I will make thy o Name to be remembred through all generations: therefore shall the people giue thankes vnto thee world without ende.

a This was a certaine tune or an instrument. b Of that perfite loue that ought to be betweene the husband and the wife. c Salomons beautie and eloquence to winne fauour with his people, and his power to ouercome his enemies, is here described. d He alludeth to them that ride in chariots in their triumphes, shewing that the quiet state of a kingdome standeth in trueth, meekenes and iustice, not in worldly pompe and vanitie. e Vnder this figure of this kingdome of iustice is set forth the euerlasting kingdome of Christ. f Hath established thy kingdome as the figure of Christ, which is the peace and ioy of the Church. g In the which palace the people made thee ioyfull to see them giue thankes and reioyce for thee. h Though he had many kings daughters among his wiues, yet he loued Pharaohs daughter best. i Vnder the figure of Pharaohs daughter he sheweth that the Church must cast off all carnall affections to obey Christ onely. k He signifieth that diuers of them that be rich, shalbe benefactors to the Church, albeit they giue not perfite obedience to the Gospel. || Or, Zor. l There is nothing fained, nor hypocriticall, but she is glorious both within & without: and how be it the Church hath not at all times this outward glory, the fault is to be imputed onely to their owne ingratitude.

m They shall haue greater graces then their fathers. n He signifieth the great compasse of Christs kingdome, which shall be sufficient to enrich all his members. o This must onely be referred to Christ and not to Salomon.

PSAL XLVI.

1 A song of triumph or thankesgiuing for the deliuerance of Ierusalem, after Sennacherib with his armie was driuen away, or some other like sudden & marueilous deliuerance by the mightie hand of God. 8 Whereby the Prophet commending this great benefite, doeth exhort the faithfull to giue them selues wholy into the hand of God, douting nothing but that vnder his protection they shal be safe against all the assaults of their enemies, because this is his delite to asswage the rage of the wicked, when they are most busie against the iust.

is full of righteousnes.
11 Let k mount Zion reioyce, and the daughters of Iudah be glad, because of thy iudgements.
12 l Compasse about Zion, and goe rounde about it, and tell the towres thereof.
13 Marke well the wall thereof: beholde her towres, that ye may tell your posteritie.
14 For this God is our God for euer and euer:
he shall be our guide vnto the death.

a Some put this difference betweene a song, and Psalme, saying that it is called a song, when there is no Instrument, but the voyce: and the Psalme, the contrary. The song of the Psalme is whẽ the instruments begin, and the voyce followeth. The Psalme of the song, the contrary.
b Albeit God shew his wonders through all the world, yet he will be chiefly praysed in his Church.
c Because the worde of saluation came thence to all them that should beleeue.
d Except God were the defence thereof, neither situation nor munition coulde preuaile.
e They conspired and went against Gods people.
f The enemies were afraid at the sight of the citie.
g That is, of Cilicia, or of the sea called Mediterraneum.
h To wit, of our fathers, so haue we prooued: or, God hath performed his promes.
i In all places where thy Name shall be heard of, men shall praise thee, when they heare of thy marueilous workes.
k Let Ierusalem and the cities of Iudea reioyce for thy iust iudgements against thine enemies.
l For in this outward defence and strength Gods blessings did also appeare: but the chiefe is to be referred to Gods fauour and secret defence, who neuer leaueth his.

PSAL. XLIX.

1 The holy Ghost calleth all men to the consideration of mans life, 7 Shewing them not to be most blessed, that are most wealthie, and therefore not to be feared: but contrariwise he lifteth vp our mindes to consider howe all thinges are ruled by Gods prouidence: 14 Who as he iudgeth these worldly misers to euerlasting torments, 15 So doeth hee preserue his and will rewarde them in the day of the resurrection, 2.Thes.1.16.

¶ To him that excelleth, A Psalme commited to the sonnes of Korah.

Heare a this, all ye people: giue eare, all ye that dwell in the world,
2 As well lowe as hie, both rich and poore.
3 My mouth shal speake of wisdome, and the meditation of mine heart is of knowledge.
4 I will incline mine eare to a parable, and vtter my graue matter vpon the harpe.
5 Wherefore should I b feare in the euil dayes, when iniquitie shall compasse me about, as at mine heeles?
6 They trust in their c goods, and boast them selues in the multitude of their riches.
7 Yet a man can by no meanes redeeme his brother: he can not giue his raunsome to God, 8 (So d precious is the redemption of their soules, e and the continuance for euer) 9 That he may liue still for euer, and not see the graue.
10 For he seeth that wise men f die, and also that the ignorant and foolish perish, & leaue their riches for g others.
11 Yet they thinke, their houses, and their habitations shall continue for euer, euen from generation to generation, and || call their lands by their names.
12 But man shall not continue in honour: he is like the h beastes that die.
13 This their way vttereth their foolishnes: yet their posteritie i delight in their talke. Selah.
14 k Like sheepe they lie in graue: l death de-uoureth them, and the righteous shall haue domination ouer them in the m morning: for their beautie shall consume, when they shall goe from their house to graue.
15 But God shall deliuer my soule from the power of the graue: || for he wil receiue me. Selah.
16 Be not thou afraide when one is made rich, and when the glory of his house is increased.
17 * For he shall take nothing away, when he dieth, neither shall his pompe descende after him.
18 For while he liued, † he reioyced himselfe:
and n men will prayse thee, when thou makest much of thy selfe.
19 || o He shal enter into the generation of his fathers, p and they shall not liue for euer.
20 Man is in honour, and q vnderstandeth not:
he is like to beasts that perish.

a He will intreat how God gouerneth the world by his prouidence which cannot be perceiued by the iudgement of the flesh.
b Though wickednes reigne and enemies rage, seeing God will execute his iudgements against the wicked in time conuenient.
c To trust in riches is meere madnes, seeing they can neither restore life nor prolong it.
d That is, so rare, or not to be found, as prophecie was precious in the dayes of Eli, 1.Samuel.3.1.
e Meaning, it is impossible to liue for euer: also that life and death are onely in Gods hands.
f In that that death maketh no difference betweene the persons.
g That is, not to their children, but to strangers. Yet the wicked profit not by these examples, but still dreame an immortalitie in earth.
|| Or, labour that their name may be famous in earth.
h As touching the death of the bodie.
i They speake and doe the same thing that their fathers did.
k As sheepe are gathered into the folde, so shall they be brought to the graue.
l Because they haue no part of life euerlasting.
m Christs comming is as the morning, when the elect shall reigne with Christ their head ouer the wicked.
|| Or, because he hath receiued me.
* Iob.27.19. 1.Tim.6.7.
† Ebr. he blessed his soule.
n The flatterers prayse them that liue in delights and pleasures.
|| Or, his soule.
o And not passe the terme appointed for life.
p Both they and their fathers shall liue here but a while, and at length dye for euer.
q Hee condemneth mans ingratitude, who hauing receiued excellent gifts of God, abuseth them like a beast to his owne condemnation.

PSAL. L.

1 Because the Church is alway full of hypocrites, 8 Which doe imagine that God will be worshipped with outwarde ceremonies onely, without the heart: and especially the Iewes were of this opinion, because of their figures & ceremonies of the law, thinking that their sacrifices were sufficient, 21 Therefore the Prophet doeth reprooue this grosse errour, & pronounceth the Name of God to be blasphemed, where holines is set in ceremonies. 23 For he declareth the worship of God to be spirituall, whereof are two principall partes, inuocation, and thankesgiuing.

¶ A Psalme of a Asaph.

The God of Gods, euen the Lord hath spoken and called the b earth from the rising vp of the sunne vnto the going downe thereof.

a Who was either the author, or a chiefe singer, to whom it was committed.
b To pleade against his dissembling people before heauen and earth.

2 Out

2 Out of Zion, which is the [c] perfection of beautie, hath God shined.
3 Our God shall come and shall not keepe silence: [d] a fire shall deuoure before him, & a mightie tempest shall be mooued round about him.
4 Hee shall call the heauen aboue, and [e] the earth to iudge his people.
5 Gather my [f] Saints together vnto me, those that make a couenant with me with [g] sacrifice.
6 And the heauens shall declare his righte-ousnes: for God is iudge himselfe. Selah.
7 Heare, O my people, and I wil speake: heare, O Israel, and I wil testifie vnto thee: for I am God, euen thy God.
8 I wil not [h] reproue thee for thy sacrifices, or thy burnt offerings, that haue not bene continually
before me.
9 I will take no bullocke out of thine house, nor goates out of thy foldes.
10 [i] For all the beastes of the forest are mine, and the beastes on a thousand mountaines.
11 I knowe all the foules on the mountaines:
and the wilde beastes of the fielde are mine.
12 If I be hungry, I will not tell thee: for the world is mine, and all that therein is.
13 [k] Will I eate the flesh of bulles? or drinke the blood of goates?
14 Offer vnto God prayse, and [l] pay thy vowes vnto the most High, 15 And call vpon me in the day of trouble: so will I deliuer thee, and thou shalt glorifie me.
16 But vnto the wicked said God, [m] What hast thou to doe to declare mine ordinances, that thou shouldest take my couenant in thy mouth, 17 Seeing thou hatest [n] to be reformed, and hast cast my wordes behinde thee?
18 For when thou seest a thiefe, [o] thou runnest with him, & thou art partaker with the adulterers.
19 Thou giuest thy mouth to euill, and with thy tongue thou forgest deceite.
20 Thou [p] sittest, and speakest against thy brother, and slanderest thy mothers sonne.
21 These things hast thou done, and I helde my tongue: therefore thou thoughtest that I was like thee: but I will reproue thee, and [q] set them in order before thee.
22 Oh cōsider this, ye ẏ forget God, least I teare you in pieces, & there be none that can deliuer you.
23 He that offereth [r] prayse, shall glorifie mee:
and to him, that [s] disposeth his way aright, will I [t] shew the saluation of God.

[c] Because God had chosen it to haue his Name there called vpon, and also his image shined there in the doctrine of the lawe.
[d] As when God gaue his Lawe in mount Sinai, he appeared terrible with thunder and tempest, so will he appeare terrible to take a cōut for the keeping thereof.
[e] As witnesses against ẏ hypocrites.
[f] God in respect of his elect, calleth the whole body holy, Saints, and his people.
[g] Which should know that sacrifices are seales of the couenant betwene God and his people and not set religion therein.
[h] For I passe not for sacrifices, except the true vse be there, which is to cōfirme your faith in my promises.
[i] Though he did delite in sacrifice, yet had hee no neede of mans helpe thereunto.
[k] Though mans life for the infirmitie thereof hath neede of foode, yet God, whose life quickeneth all the world, hath no need of such meanes.
[l] Shewe thy selfe mindefull of Gods benefites by thankesgiuing.
[m] Why doest thou faine to be of my people & talkest of my couenāt, seeing thou art but an hypocrite?
[n] And to liue according to my worde.
[o] Hee sheweth what are the fruits of them that contemne Gods worde.
[p] Hee noteth the crueltie of hypocrites, which spare not in their talke or iudgement their owne mothers sonne.
[q] I wil write all thy wicked deedes in a rolle and make thee to reade and acknowledge them whether thou wilt or no.
[r] Vnder the which is conteined faith and inuocation.
[s] As God hath appointed.
[t] That is, declare my selfe to be his Sauiour.

PSAL. LI.

1 When David was rebuked by the Prophet Nathan, for his great offences, hee did not onely acknowledge the same to God with protestation of his naturall corruption and iniquitie, but also left a memoriall thereof to his posteritie. 7 Therefore first hee desireth God to forgiue his sinnes, 10 And to renue in him his holy Spirit, 13 With promes that hee will not bee vnmindefull of those great graces. 18 Finally fearing least God would punish the whole Church for his fault, he requireth that he would rather increase his graces towards the same.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of David, when the Prophet Nathan [a] came vnto him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba.

HAue mercie vpon me, O God, [b] according to thy louing kindnes: according to the multitude of thy compassions put away mine iniquities.
2 Wash me [c] throughly from mine iniquitie, and clense me from my sinne.
3 For I [d] know mine iniquities, and my sinne
is euer before me.
4 Against thee, against thee onely haue I sinned, and done euill in thy sight, that thou mayest be iust when thou [e] speakest, and pure when thou iudgest.
5 Beholde, I was borne in iniquitie, and in sinne hath my mother conceiued me.
6 Beholde, thou [f] louest trueth in the inwarde affections: therefore hast thou taught mee wise-dome in the secret of mine heart.
7 Purge me with *hyssope, & I shalbe cleane:
wash me, and I shalbe whiter then snowe.
8 Make me to heare [g] ioye and gladnes, that the [h] bones, which thou hast broken, may reioyce.
9 Hide thy face from my sinnes, and put away all mine iniquities.
10 [i] Create in mee a cleane heart, O God, and renue a right spirit within me.
11 Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not thine holy Spirit from me.
12 Restore to me the ioy of thy saluation, and stablish me with thy [k] free Spirit.
13 Then shall I teache thy [l] wayes vnto the wicked, and sinners shalbe conuerted vnto thee.
14 Deliuer me from [m] blood, O God, which art the God of my saluation, and my tongue shall sing ioyfully of thy righteousnes.
15 [n] Open thou my lippes, O Lorde, and my mouth shall shewe foorth thy prayse.
16 For thou desirest no sacrifice, though I would giue it: thou delitest not in burnt offering.
17 The sacrifices of God are a [o] contrite spirit:
a contrite and a broken heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.
18 Bee fauourable vnto [p] Zion for thy good pleasure: builde the walles of Ierusalem.
19 Then shalt thou accept ẏ sacrifices of [q] righ-teousnes, euen the burnt offering and oblation:
then shall they offer calues vpon thine altar.

[a] To reproue him because he had cōmitted so horrible sinnes, and lyen in the same without repentance more then a whole yeere.
[b] As his sinnes were manifolde, and great, so hee requireth that God would giue him the feeling of his excellent and abundant mercies.
[c] My sinnes sticke so fast in me, that I haue neede of some singular kinde of washing.
[d] My conscience accuseth me so that I can haue no rest, til I be reconciled.
[e] When thou giuest sentence against sinners, they must needes confesse thee to be iust, & themselues sinners.
[f] He confesseth that God, who loueth purenesse of heart, may iustly destroy man, who of nature is a sinner, much more him whom he had instructed in his heauenly wisdom.
* Leuit. 14. 6.
[g] Hee meaneth Gods comfortable mercies towardes repentant sinners.
[h] By the bones he vnderstandeth all strength of soule and body, which by cares & mourning are cōsumed.
[i] Hee confesseth that when Gods Spirit is colde in vs, to haue it againe reuiued is as a new creation.
[k] Which may assure me that I am drawen out of the slauery of sinne.
[l] He promiseth to endeuour that others by his example may turne to God.
[m] From the murder of Vriah, and the others that were slaine with him, 2. Sam. 11. 17.
[n] By giuing me occasion to prayse thee, when thou shalt forgiue my sinnes.
[o] Which is a wounding of the heart, proceeding of faith, which seeketh vnto God for mercy.
[p] He prayeth for the whole Church, because through his sinne it was in danger of Gods iudgement.
[q] That is, iust and lawfull, applied to their right ende, which is the exercise of faith and repentance.

PSAL. LII.

1 David describeth the arrogant tyrannie of his aduersary Doeg, who by false surmises caused Abimelech with the rest of the Priestes to be slaine. 5 David prophecieth his destruction, 6 And encourageth the faithfull to put their confidence in God, whose iudgements are most sharpe against his aduersaries. 9 And finally he rendreth thankes to God for his deliuerance. In this Psalme is liuely set forth the kingdome of Antichrist.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of David to giue instruction. When Doeg the Edomite came and shewed Saul, and sayd to him, David is come to the house of Abimelech.

WHy boastest thou thy selfe in thy wickednesse, O [a] man of power? the louing kindenesse of God endureth dayly.
2 Thy tongue imagineth [b] mischiefe, and is like a sharpe rasor, that cutteth deceitfully.
3 Thou doest loue euill more then good, and lies more then to speake the † trueth. Selah.
4 Thou louest all wordes that may destroy,
O deceitfull tongue!
5 So shal God [c] destroy thee for euer: he shall

[a] O Doeg, which hast credit with the tyrant Saul, & hast power to murther the Saints of God.
[b] Thy malice moueth thee by craftie flatteries and lies to accuse and destroy the innocents.
[c] Though God forbeare for a time, yet at length hee will recompense thy falsehoode.

take thee and plucke thee out of thy tabernacle, and [d] roote thee out of ỹ land of the liuing. Selah.
6 The [e] righteous also shall see it, [f] and feare, and shall laugh at him, saying, 7 Beholde the man that tooke not God for his strength, but trusted vnto the multitude of his riches, and put his strength ‖ in his malice.
8 But I shall be like a [g] greene oliue tree in the house of God: for I trusted in the mercie of God for euer and euer.
9 I wil alway prayse thee, for that thou hast done [h] this, and I wil ‖ hope in thy Name, because it is good before thy Saints.

d Albeit thou seeme to be neuer so sure setled. e For the eyes of the reprobate are shut vp at Gods iudgements. f With ioyfull reuerence, seeing that hee taketh their part against the wicked. ‖ Or, in his substāce. g He reioyceth to haue a place among the seruants of God, that hee may growe in the knowledge of godlinesse. h Executed this vengeance. ‖ Or, waite vpon thy grace and promise.

PSAL. LIII.

1 He describeth the crooked nature, 4 The crueltie, 5 And punishment of the wicked, when they looke not for it, 6 And desireth the deliuerance of the godly, that they may reioyce together.

¶ To him that excelleth on [a] Mahalath. A Psalme of Dauid to giue instruction.

THe foole hath sayd in his heart, There is [b] no
God. they haue corrupted & done abominable wickednes: there is none that doeth good.
2 God looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men, to see if there were any that would vnderstand, and [c] seeke God.
3 *Euery one is gone backe: they are altogether corrupt: there is none that doeth good, no not one.
4 Doe not the [d] workers of iniquitie knowe
that they eate vp my people as they eate bread?
they call not vpon God.
5 There they were afraide for feare, where no [e] feare was: for God hath scattered the [f] bones of him that besieged thee: thou hast put them to confusion, because God hath cast them off.
6 Oh giue saluation vnto Israel out of Zion:
when God turneth the captiuitie of his people, then Iaakob shall reioyce, and Israel shalbe glad.

a Which was an instrument or kinde of note. b Whereas no regard is had of honestie or dishonestie, of vertue nor of vice, there the Prophet pronounceth that the people haue no God. c Whereby hee condemneth all knowledge & vnderstanding, that tendeth not to seeke God. * Rom.3.10. d Dauid pronounceth Gods vengeance against cruell gouerners, who hauing charge to defend and preserue Gods people, doe most cruelly deuoure them. e When they thought there was none occasion to feare, the sudden vengeance of God lighted vpon them. f Be the enemies power neuer so great, nor the danger so fearefull, yet God deliuereth his in due time.

PSAL. LIIII.

1 Dauid brought into great danger by the reason of the Ziphims, 5 Calleth vpon the Name of God to destroy his enemies, 6 Promising sacrifice and free offerings for so great deliuerance.

¶ To him that excelleth on Neginoth. A Psalme of Dauid, to giue instruction. Whē the Ziphims came and said vnto Saul, * Is not Dauid hid among vs?

SAue mee, O God, [a] by thy Name, and by thy power iudge me.
2 O God, heare my prayer: hearken vnto the wordes of my mouth.
3 For [b] strangers are risen vp against me, and [c] tyrants seeke my soule: they haue not set God before them. Selah.
4 Beholde, God is mine helper: the Lorde is with [d] them that vpholde my soule.
5 Hee shall rewarde euill vnto mine enemies:
Oh cut them off in thy [e] trueth!
6 Then I wil sacrifice [f] freely vnto thee: I wil praise thy Name, O Lord, because it is good.
7 For he hath deliuered me out of al trouble, & mine eye hath [g] seene my desire vpō mine enemies.

* 1.Sam.23.19. a He declareth that when all meanes doe faile, God will deliuer, euen as it were by miracle, them that cal vnto him with an vpright conscience. b To wit, the Ziphims. c Saul and his armie, which were like cruel beastes, and could not be satisfied but by his death. d Be they neuer so fewe, as he was with Ionathan. e According to thy faithfull promes for my defence. f For hypocrites serue God for feare, or vpon conditions. g We may lawfully reioyce for Gods iudgements against the wicked, if our affections be pure.

PSAL. LV.

1 Dauid being in great heauines and distresse complaineth of the crueltie of Saul, 13 and of the falshood of his familiar acquaintance, 17 Vttering most ardent affections to moue the Lord to pitie him. 22 After being assured of deliuerāce, he setteth forth the grace of God as though he had already obtained his request.

¶ To him that excelleth on Neginoth. A Psalme of Dauid to giue instruction.

HEare [a] my prayer, O God, and hide not thy selfe from my supplication.
2 Hearken vnto me, & answere me: I mourne in my prayer, and make a noyse, 3 For the [b] voyce of the enemie, and for the vexation of ỹ wicked, because [c] they haue brought iniquitie vpon me, and furiously hate me.
4 Mine heart trembleth within mee, and the terrours of death are fallen vpon me.
5 Feare and trembling are come vpon mee, and an horrible feare hath [d] couered me.
6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a doue:
then would I [e] flie away and rest.
7 Beholde, I would take my flight farre off, and lodge in the wildernes. Selah.
8 Hee would make haste for my deliuerance [f] from the stormie winde and tempest.
9 Destroy, O Lord, and [g] deuide their tongues:
for I haue seene crueltie and strife in the citie.
10 Day and night they goe about it vpon the walles thereof: both [h] iniquitie and mischiefe are in the middes of it.
11 Wickednes is in the middes thereof: deceit and guile depart not from her streetes.
12 Surely mine [i] enemie did not defame mee:
for I could haue borne it: neither did mine aduer-sarie exalt himselfe against mee: for I would haue hid me from him.
13 But it was thou, O man, euen my [k] companion, my guide and my familiar: 14 Which delited in consulting together, and went into the House of God as companions.
15 Let death cease vpon them: let them [l] goe downe quicke into the graue: for wickednes is in their dwellings, euen in the middes of them.
16 But I will call vnto God, and the Lord wil saue me.
17 Euening and morning, and at noone will I pray, [m] and make a noyse, & he wil heare my voyce.
18 He hath deliuered my soule in peace frō the battel, that was against me: for [n] many were ŵ me.
19 God shall heare and afflict them, euen hee that reigneth of olde, Selah. because they [o] haue no changes, therefore they feare not God.
20 Hee [p] layed his hand vpon such, as be at peace with him, and he brake his couenant.
21 The wordes of his mouth were softer then butter, yet warre was in his heart: his wordes were more gentle then oyle, yet they were swordes.
22 Cast thy ‖ burden vpon the Lorde, and hee shall nourish thee: he will not suffer the righteous to fall for [q] euer.
23 And thou, O God, shalt bring them downe into the pitte of corruption: the bloodie, and de-ceitfull men shall not liue [r] halfe their dayes: but I will trust in thee.

a The [vehemencie] of his prayer declareth the vehemencie of his griefe, insomuch as hee is cōpelled to burst out into cryes. b For the threatnings of Saul and his adherents. c They haue defamed me as a wicked person or they haue imagined my destruction. d There was no part of him that was not astonished with extreme feare. e Feare had driuen him to so great distresse, ỹ he wished to be hid in some wildernes, and to be banished from that kingdome, which God had promised that hee should enioy. f From the cruell rage and tyrannie of Saul. g As in the confusion of Babylon, when ỹ wicked cōspired against God. h All lawes and good orders are broken, and onely vice & dissolution reigneth vnder Saul. i If mine open enemie had sought mine hurt, I could the better haue auoyded him. k Which was not onely ioyned to me in friendship and counsell in worldly matters, but also in religion. l As Korah, Dathan and Abiram. m Which signifieth a feruent mind & sure trust to obteine his petition, which thing made him earnest at all times in prayer. n Euen the Angels of God fought on my side against mine enemies, 2.Kings 6.16. o But their prosperous estate still continueth. p I did not prouoke him, but was at peace with him, yet he made warre against me. ‖ Or, gift: to wit, which thou wouldest that God should giue thee. q Though for their bettering and triall he suffer them to slip for a time. r Though they sometime liue longer, yet their life is cursed of God, vnquiet, and worse then any death.

1 Dauid being brought to Achish the King of Gath, 1.Sam.21. 12. complaineth of his enemies, demaundeth succour, 3 Putteth his trust in God and in his promises, 12 And promiseth to performe his vowes, which hee had taken vpon him, whereof this was the effect to prayse God in his Church.

a Being chased by the furie of his enemies into a strange countrey, hee was as a dumme doue, not seeking reuengeance.

BE mercifull vnto me, O God, for [b] man would swallowe mee vp: he fighteth continually and vexeth me.
2 Mine enemies would dayly swallow me vp:
for many fight against me, O thou most High.
3 When I was afraid, I trusted in thee.
4 I will reioyce in God, because of his [c] word,

7 [f] They thinke they shall escape by iniquitie:
O God, cast these people downe in thine anger.
8 Thou hast counted my wandrings: put my [g] teares into thy bottel: are they not in thy register?
9 When I cry, then mine enemies shall turne backe: this I know, for God is with me.
10 I will reioyce in God because of his worde:
in the Lord wil I reioyce because of his word.
11 In God doe I trust: I wil not be afraid what man can doe vnto me.
12 [h] Thy vowes are vpon mee, O God: I will

20 Praysed be God, which hath not put backe my prayer, nor his mercie from me.

b As the faithfull shall obey God willingly: so the infidels for feare shall dissemble themselues to be subiect. c He toucheth the slouthfull dulnesse of man, who is colde in the consideration of Gods workes. d His prouidence is wonderfull in maintaining their estate. e Hee proueth that God will extend his grace also to the Gentiles, because he punisheth among them such as will not obey his calling. f He signifieth some speciall benefite, that God had shewed to his Church of the Iewes, in deliuering them from some great danger: whereof or of the like he promiseth that the Gentiles shalbe partakers. g The condition of the Church is here described, which is to bee led by Gods prouidence into troubles, to be subiect vnder tyrants, and to enter into manifolde dangers. h The duetie of the faithfull is here described, which are neuer vnmindfull to render God prayse for his benefites. i It is not ynough to haue receiued Gods benefites and to be mindfull thereof, but also we are bounde to make others to profite thereby, and prayse God. k If I delite in wickednesse, God will not heare me: but if I confesse it, hee will receiue me.

PSAL. LXVII.

1 A prayer of the Church to obtaine the fauour of God and to be lightened with his countenance, 2 To the ende that his way and iudgement may bee knowen throughout the earth. 7 And finally is declared the kingdome of God, which shoulde be vniuersally erected at the comming of Christ.

¶ To him that excelleth on Neginoth. A Psalme or song.

GOd bee mercifull vnto vs, and blesse vs, and [a] cause his face to shine among vs. (Selah.)
2 That [b] they may know thy way vpon earth, and thy sauing health among all nations.
3 Let the people prayse thee, O God: let all
the people prayse thee.
4 [c] Let the people bee glad and reioyce: for thou shalt iudge the people righteously, and gouerne the nations vpon the earth. Selah.
5 Let the people prayse thee, O God: let all
the people prayse thee.
6 Then shall [d] the earth bring foorth her increase, and God euen our God shall blesse vs.
7 God shall blesse vs, and all the endes of the earth [e] shall feare him.

a That is, moue our heartes with his holy Spirit, that wee may feele his fauour towarde vs. b That both Iewes and Gentiles may knowe Gods couenant made with them. c By these oft repetitions he sheweth, that the people can neuer reioyce sufficiently, and giue thankes for the great benefites that they shal receiue vnder the kingdome of Christ. d He sheweth that where God fauoureth, there shall bee abundance of all other things. e When they finde his great benefites both spirituall and corporall towardes them.

PSAL. LXVIII.

1 In this Psalme Dauid setteth forth as in a glasse the wonderfull mercies of God toward his people: 3 Who by all meanes and most strange sortes declared himselfe to them. 15 And therefore Gods Church by reason of his promises, graces and victories doeth excell without comparison all worldly things. 34 He exhorteth therefore all men to prayse God for euer.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme or song of Dauid.

GOd [a] will arise, and his enemies shalbe scattered: they also that hate him, shall flee before him.
2 As the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou driue them away: and as waxe melteth before the fire, so shall the wicked perish at the presence of God.
3 [b] But the righteous shalbe glad, and reioyce before God: yea, they shall leape for ioye.
4 Sing vnto God, and sing prayses vnto his name: exalt him that rideth vpon the heauens, in his Name [c] Iah, and reioyce before him.
5 He is a Father of the fatherlesse, & a Iudge of the widowes, euen God in his holy habitation.
6 God [d] maketh the solitarie to dwell in families, and deliuereth them that were prisoners in stocks: but the rebellious shall dwell in a [e] dry land.
7 [f] O God, when thou wentest forth before dernesse, (Selah)

8 The earth shooke, and the heauens dropped at the presence of this God: euen Sinai *was 9 Thou, O God, sendest a gracious raine vp-on thine inheritance, and thou didest refresh it

11 The Lorde gaue matter to the [h] women to 12 Kings of the armies did flee: they did flee, taine of Bashan: it is an high Mountaine, as mount Bashan.

16 [n] Why leape ye, ye high mountaines? as for this Mountaine, God deliteth to dwell in it: yea, the Lord will dwell in it for euer.
17 The charets of God are twentie thousande thousand Angels, and the Lord is among them, as

18 Thou art gone vp on high: thou hast [o] led euen the rebellious hast thou led, that the Lorde God might dwell there.

19 Praysed be the Lorde, euen the God of our saluation, which ladeth vs dayly with benefites Selah.

a The Prophet sheweth that albeit God suffereth the wicked tyrants to oppresse his Church for a time, yet at length he will be reuenged of them. b He sheweth that when God declareth his power against the wicked, that it is for the commoditie and saluation of his Church, which prayse him therefore. c Iah and Iehouah are the names of God, which doe signifie his essence and maiestie incomprehensible, so that hereby is declared, that all idols are but vanities, and that the God of Israel is the onely true God. d He giueth children to them that be childlesse, and increaseth their families. e Which is barren of Gods blessings, which before they had abused. f He teacheth that Gods fauour peculiarly belongeth to his Church, as appeareth by their wonderful deliuerance out of Egypt. g God blessed the land of Canaan because hee had chosen that place for his Church. h The fascion then was that women sang songs after the victorie as Miriam, Deborah, Iudith and others. i The pray was so great, that not only the souldiers, but women also had part thereof. k Though God suffer his Church for a time to lie in blacke darkenesse, yet he will restore it, and make it most shining and white. l In the lande of Canaan, where his Church was. m Zion the Church of God doeth excell all worldly things not in pompe and outward shewe, but by the inwarde grace of God, which there remaineth because of his dwelling there. n Why boast yee of your strength and beautie against this Mountaine of God? o As God ouercame the enemies of his Church, tooke them prisoners, and made them tributaries: so Christ, which is God manifested in flesh, subdued Satan and sinne vnder vs, and gaue vnto his Church most liberall [illegible] of his Spirit, Ephes. 4. 8.

20 This

20 This is our God, euen the God that saueth

21 Surely God will wound the head of his enemies, and the hairie pate of him that walketh in 22 The Lord hath saide, I will bring my people

mies, euen in r it.
24 They haue seene, O God, thy s goings, the ler, and the princes of Iudah with their assemblie, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of blish, O God, that, which thou hast wrought

30 Destroy the company of the spearemen, and the people, that a tread vnder feete pieces of siluer: scatter the people that delite in warre.

31 Then shall the princes come out b of Egypt: Ethiopia shall haste to stretch her hands vnto God.
32 Sing vnto God, O ye kingdomes of the earth: sing praise vnto the Lord, (Selah) 33 To him that rideth vpon the most high hea-uens, which were from the beginning: beholde, he will send out by his c voice a mightie sound.
34 Ascribe the power to God: for his maiestie is vpon Israel, and his strength is in the cloudes.
35 O God, thou art d terrible out of thine holy e places: the God of Israel is hee that giueth strength and power vnto the people: praysed be God.

p In euery danger God hath infinite waies to deliuer his.
q As he deliuered his Church once frõ Og of Bashan, and other tyrants, and from the dangers of the red Sea, so will he still doe as oft as necessitie requireth.
r That is, in the blood of ÿ great slaughter, where dogges shall lappe blood.
s That is, howe thou, which art chiefe King, goest out with thy people to warre, and giuest them the victorie.

PSAL. LXIX.

1 The complaints, prayers, feruent zeale and great anguish of Dauid is set foorth as a figure of Christ and all his members: 21 The malicious crueltie of the enemies, 22 And their punishment also, 26 Where Iudas and such traitours are accursed. 30 He gathereth courage in his affliction, and offereth prayses vnto God, 32 Which are more acceptable then all sacrifices: whereof all the afflicted may take comfort. 35 Finally hee doeth prouoke all creatures to prayses, prophecying of the kingdome of Christ, and the preseruation of the Church, where all the faithfull, 37 And their seede shall dwell for euer.

¶ To him that excelleth vpon a Shoshannim.
A Psalme of Dauid.

SAue me, O God: for the b waters are entred euen to my soule.
2 I sticke fast in the deepe myre, where no c staie is: I am come into deepe waters, and the streames runne ouer me.
3 I am wearie of crying: my throte is drie:
mine d eyes faile, whiles I waite for my God.
4 They that hate me without a cause, are moe then the haires of mine head: they that would destroy me, and are mine enemies e falsly, are mightie, so that I restored that which I f tooke not.
5 O God, thou knowest my g foolishnesse, and my faultes are not hid from thee.
6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lorde God of hostes, be ashamed for h me: let not those that seeke thee, be confounded through me, O God of Israel.
7 For thy sake haue I suffred reproofe: shame hath couered my face.
8 I am become a stranger vnto my brethren, euen an aliant vnto my mothers sonnes.
9 i For the zeale of thine house hath eaten me, and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee, are fallen vpon me.
10 I k wept and my soule fasted, but that was to my reproofe.
11 I put on a sacke also: and I became a pro-uerbe vnto them.
12 They that l sate in the gate, spake of me,
and the drunkardes sang of me.
13 But Lorde, I make my prayer vnto thee in an m acceptable time, euen in the multitude of thy mercie: O God, heare me in the trueth of thy saluation.
14 Deliuer me out of the myre, that I sinke not: let me be deliuered from them that hate me, and out of the deepe n waters.
15 Let not the water flood drowne me, neither let the deepe swallowe me vp: and let not the pit shut her mouth vpon me.
16 Heare me, O Lord, for thy louing kindnes is good: turne vnto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.
17 And o hide not thy face from thy seruant, for I am in trouble: make haste and heare me.
18 Drawe neere vnto my soule and redeeme it:
deliuer me because of mine enemies.
19 Thou hast knowen my reproofe and my shame, and my dishonour: all mine p aduersaries are before thee.
20 Rebuke hath broken mine heart, and I am full of heauinesse, and q I looked for some to haue pitie on me, but there was none: and for comforters, but I found none.
21 For they gaue me gall in my meate, and in my thirst they gaue me vineger to drinke.
22 Let their r table be a snare before them, and their prosperitie their ruine.
23 Let their eyes be blinded that they see not:
and make their s loynes alway to tremble.
24 Powre out thine anger vpon them, and let thy wrathfull displeasure take them.
25 *Let their t habitation be voide, and let none dwell in their tents.
26 For they persecute him, whom thou hast smitten: and they adde vnto the sorrowe of them, whom thou hast wounded.
27 Lay u iniquitie vpon their iniquitie, and a Of Shoshannim, reade Psal. 45.

b Dauid signifieth by the waters, in what great dangers he was, out of the which God did deliuer him.
c No firmitie or stablenesse to settle my feete.
d Though his senses failed him, yet his faith was constant and incouraged him still to pray.
e Condemning me guiltles.
f They iudged me poore innocent as a thiefe, and gaue my goods to others as though I had stolen them.
g Though I be guiltie to thee-ward, yet am I innocent toward them.
h Let not mine euill intreatie of the enemies be an occasion, that the faithfull fall from thee.
i When I sawe thine enemies pretend thy Name onely in mouth, and in their life denie the same, thine holy Spirit thrust me forward, to reprooue them and defend thy glorie.
k My zeale moued me to lament and pray for my saluation.
l The more he sought to winne them to God, the more they were against him both poore and rich.
m Knowing that albeit I suffer now trouble, yet thou hast a time wherein thou hast appointed my deliuerance.
n He sheweth a liuely faith, in that that he assureth him selfe, that God is fauourable to him, when he seemeth to be angrie and at hand, when he seemeth to be farre off.
o Not that hee feared that God would not heare him, but that care made him to thinke that God deferred long.
p Thou seest that I am beset as a sheepe among many wolues.
q He sheweth that it is in vaine to put our trust in men in our great necessities, but that our comfort onely dependeth of God: for man rather increaseth our sorrowes, then diminisheth them, Iohn 19.29.
r Hee desireth God to execute his iudgements against the reprobate, which cannot by any meanes bee turned, Romanes 11.9.
s Take both iudgement and power from them.

t Punish not onely them but their posteritie, which shall bee like vnto them.
u By their continuance and increasing in their sinnes let it be knowen that they bee of the reprobate.

let

let them not come into thy righteousnesse.
28 Let them be put out of the x booke of life, neither let them be written with the righteous.
29 When I am poore and in heauinesse, thine helpe, O God, shall exalt me.
30 I will praise the Name of God with a song, and magnifie him with thankesgiuing.
31 This also shall please the Lord better then a y yong bullocke, that hath hornes and hoofes.
32 The humble shall see this, and they that seeke God, shalbe glad, and your heart shall liue.
33 For the Lord heareth the poore, and despiseth not his z prisoners.
34 Let heauen and earth praise him: the seas and all that moueth in them.
35 For God will saue Zion, and builde the cities of Judah, that men may dwell there and haue it in possession.
36 The a seede also of his seruants shal inherite it: and they that loue his name, shall dwell therein.

x They which seemed by their profession to haue bene writte in thy booke, yet by their fruites proue the contrary, let them be knowen as reprobate.
y There is no sacrifice, which God more esteemeth, then thankesgiuing for his benefites.
z For as he deliuered his seruant Dauid, so will he doe all that are in distresse, and call vpon him.
a Vnder the temporall promes of the land of Canaan be comprehendeth the promes of life euerlasting to the faithfull and their posteritie.

PSAL. LXX.

1 Hee prayeth to be right speedily deliuered. 2 Hee desireth the shame of his enemies, 4 And the ioyfull comfort of all those that seeke the Lord.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of Dauid to put in a remembrance.

haste to helpe me, O Lord.
2 Let them be c confounded & put to shame, that seeke my soule: let them be turned backwarde and put to rebuke, that desire mine hurt.
3 Let them be turned backe for a rewarde of their d shame, which said, Aha, aha.
4 But let all those that seeke thee, be ioyfull and glad in thee, and let all that loue thy saluation, say alwayes, God be praysed.
5 Nowe I am e poore and needie: O God, make haste to me: thou art mine helper, and my deliuerer: O Lord, make no tarying.

a Which might put him in remembrance of his deliuerance.
*Psalm. 40.13.
b He teacheth vs to be earnest in praier though God seeme to staie: for at his time he will heare vs.
c He was assured that the more they raged, the neerer they were to destruction, and he the neerer to his deliuerance.
d Hereby we are taught not to mocke at others in their miserie, lest the same fall on our owne neckes. e Because he had felt Gods helpe before, he groundeth on experience and boldly seeketh vnto him for succour.

PSAL. LXXI.

1 Hee prayeth in faith, established by the worde of the promise, 5 And confirmed by the worke of God from his youth. 10 He complaineth of the crueltie of his enemies, 17 And desireth God to continue his grace toward him, 22 Promising to be mindfull and thankefull for the same.

IN * a thee, O Lorde, I trust: let me neuer be a-

2 Rescue me and deliuer me in thy b righte-ousnes: incline thine eare vnto me and saue me.
3 Be thou my strong rocke whereunto I may alway resort: thou c hast giuen commaundement to saue me: for thou art my rocke, & my fortresse.
4 Deliuer me, O my God, out of the hand d of the wicked: out of the hand of the euill and cruell man.
5 For thou art mine hope, O Lord God, euen
my e trust from my youth.
6 Vpon thee haue I beene stayed from the wombe: thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers bowels: my praise shalbe alwayes of thee.
7 I am become as it were a f monster vnto many: but thou art my sure trust.
8 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise, and with thy glory euery day.
9 Cast me not off in the time of g age: forsake me not when my strength faileth.
10 For mine enemies speake of me, and they that lay waite for my soule, take their counsell together,
11 Saying, h God hath forsaken him: pursue and take him, for there is none to deliuer him.
12 Goe not farre from me, O God: i my God, haste thee to helpe me.
13 Let them be confounded and consumed that are against my soule: let them be couered with re-proofe and confusion, that seeke mine hurt.
14 But I will waite continually, and will praise thee more and more.
15 My mouth shall dayly rehearse thy righte-ousnesse, and thy saluation: k for I knowe not the nomber.
16 I will l goe forward in the strength of the Lord God, and will make mention of thy righte-ousnesse, euen of thine onely.
17 O God, thou hast taught me fro̅ my youth euen vntill nowe: therefore will I tell of thy won-derous workes,
18 m Yea, euen vnto mine olde age and graie head, O God: forsake me not, vntill I haue declared thine arme vnto this generation, and thy power to all them, that shall come.
19 And thy n righteousnes, O God, I will exalt on high: for thou hast done great things: o O God, who is like vnto thee!
20 Which hast shewed me great troubles and p aduersities, but thou wilt returne, and reuiue me, and wilt come againe, and take me vp from the depth of the earth.
21 Thou wilt increase mine honour, & returne and comfort me.
22 Therefore will I prayse thee for thy q faith-fulnesse, O God, vpon instrument and viole: vnto thee will I sing vpon the harpe, O Holy one of Israel.
23 My lippes will reioyce when I sing vnto thee, and my r soule, which thou hast deliuered.
24 My tongue also shall talke of thy righteous-nesse daily: for they are confounded and brought vnto shame, that seeke mine hurt.

*Psalm. 31.1.
a He prayeth to God with full assurance of faith, that he will deliuer him from his aduersaries.
b By declaring thy selfe true of promise.
c Thou hast infinite meanes, and all creatures are at thy commandement: therefore shewe some signe, whereby I shalbe deliuered.
d That is, from Absalom, Ahithophel and that conspiracie.
e Hee strengtheneth his faith by the experience of Gods benefites, who did not onely preserue him in his mothers bellie, but tooke him thence and euer since hath preserued him. f All the worlde wondreth at me because of my miseries, aswell they in authoritie as the common people, yet being assured of thy fauour I remained stedfast.
g Thou that didst helpe me in my youth, when I had more strength, helpe me now so much the more in mine olde age and weakenesse.
h Thus the wicked both blaspheme God, and triumph against his Saintes, as though he had forsaken them, if he suffer them to fall into their hands.
i In calling him his God, he putteth backe the false reportes of the aduersaries, that saide, God had forsaken him.
k Because thy benefites toward me are innumerable, I can not but continually meditate & rehearse them.
l I will remaine stedfast, being vpholden with the power of God.
m He desireth that as he hath begun, he would so continue his benefites, that his liberalitie may haue perfite praise.
n Thy iust performance of thy promise.
o His faith breaketh through all tentations, and by this exclamation he prayseth the power of God.
p As he confesseth that God is the onely autour of his deliuerance, so he acknowledgeth that these euils were sent vnto him by Gods prouidence.
q He confesseth that his long tariance was well recompensed, when God performed his promise.
r For there is no true praysing of God, except it come from the heart: and therefore he promiseth to delite in nothing but wherein God may be glorified.

PSAL. LXXII.

PSAL. LXXIII.

1 The Prophet teacheth by his example that neither the worldlie prosperitie of the vngodly, 14 Nor yet the affliction of the good ought to discourage Gods children: but rather ought to moue vs to consider our Fathers prouidence, and to cause vs to reuerence Gods iudgements, 19 For as much as the wicked vanish away, 24 And the godly enter into life euerlasting, 28 In hope whereof he resigneth himselfe into Gods handes.

¶ A Psalme committed to Asaph.

YEt [a] God is good to Israel: euen, to the pure in heart.
2 As for me, my feete were almost gone: my steps had welneere slipt.
3 For I freated at the foolish, when I saw the prosperitie of the wicked.
4 For there are [b] no bands in their death, but they are lustie and strong.
5 They are not in trouble as other men, neither are they plagued with other men.
6 [c] Therefore pride is as a chaine vnto them,
and crueltie couereth them as a garment.
7 Their eyes stande out for fatnesse: † they haue more then heart can wish.
8 They are licentious, aud speake wickedly of their oppression: they talke presumptuously.
9 They [d] set their mouth against heauen, and their tongue walketh through the earth.
10 Therefore his [e] people turne hither: for waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.
11 And they [f] say, Howe doeth God know it?
or is there knowledge in the most High?
12 Loe, these are the wicked, yet prosper they alway, and increase in riches.
13 Certainely I haue cleansed mine heart in vaine, and washed mine hands in innocencie.
14 For dayly haue I bene punished, and chastened euery morning.
15 If I say, [g] I will iudge thus, beholde the generation of thy children: I haue trespassed.
16 Then thought I to know this, but it was too paineful for me,
17 Vntill I went into the [h] Sanctuary of God:
then vnderstoode I their ende.
18 Surely thou hast set them in slippery places, and castest them downe into desolation.
19 How suddenly are they destroyed, perished and [i] horribly consumed, 20 As a dreame when one awaketh! O Lord, when [k] thou raisest vs vp, thou shalt make their image despised.
21 Certainely mine heart was vexed, and I was pricked in my reines:
22 So foolish was I & ignorant: I was a [l] beast before thee.
23 Yet I was alway [m] with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.
24 Thou wilt guide mee by thy counsell, and afterward receiue me to glory.
25 Whom haue I in [n] heauen but thee? and I haue desired none in the earth with thee.
26 My flesh fayleth and mine heart also: but God is the strength of mine heart, and mine [o] portion for euer.
27 For lo, they that withdraw themselues from thee, shal perish: thou destroyest all them that [p] go a whoring from thee.
28 As for me, it is good for me [q] to draw neere to God: therefore I haue put my trust in the Lord God, that I may declare all thy workes.

a As it were betweene hope and despaire he bursteth foorth into this affection, being assured that God would continue his fauour toward such as were godly in deede, and not hypocrites.
b The wicked in this life liue at pleasure, and are not drawen to death like prisoners: that is, by sicknesse, which is deaths messenger.
c They glorie in their pride, as some doe in their chaines: and in crueltie, as some doe in apparell. † Or, they passe the desires of the heart.
d They blaspheme God and leaue not his power, & raile vpon men, because they esteeme themselues aboue all others.
e Not onely the reprobate, but also the people of God oftentimes fall backe, seeing the prosperous estate of the wicked, and are ouerwhelmed with sorowes, thinking that God considereth not right the state of the godly.
f Thus the flesh moueth euen the godly to dispute with God touching their poore estate and the prosperitie of the wicked.
g If I giue place to this wicked thought, I offend against thy prouidence, seeing thou disposest all things most wisely, and preseruest thy children in their greatest dangers.
h Vntill I entred into thy schoole and learned by thy worde and holy Spirite, that thou orderest all things most wisely, and iustly.
i By thy fearefull iudgement.
k When thou openest our eyes to consider thy heauenly felicitie, we contemne all their vaine pompe.
l For the more that man goeth about by his owne reason to seeke out Gods iudgements, the more doeth he declare himselfe a beast. m By faith I was assured that thy prouidence did watch alwayes ouer me to preserue me. n He sought neither helpe nor comfort of any saue of God onely. o He teacheth vs to deny our selues, to haue God our whole sufficiencie, and onely contentment. p That is, forsake thee to seeke others. q Though all the worlde shrinke from God, yet hee promiseth to trust in him, and to magnifie his workes.

15 Thou brakest vp the fountaine and riuer:

16 The m day is thine, and the night is thine:
thou hast prepared the light and the sunne.
17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth:
thou hast made summer and winter.
18 Remember this, that the enemie hath re-proched the Lorde, and the foolishe people hath blasphemed thy Name.

to the beast, and forget not the Congregation of

c When I see my time (saith God) to helpe your miseries, I will come and set all things in good order.
d Though all things be brought to ruine, yet I can restore and preserue them. e The Prophet warneth the wicked that they woulde not set themselues against Gods people, seeing that God at his time destroyeth them that rule wickedly.
f Gods wrath is compared to a cup of strong and delicate wine, wherewith the wicked are made so drunke, that by drinking till they come to the very dregges, they are vtterly destroyed.

¶ A Psalme to giue a instruction, cōmitted to Asaph.
HEare my b doctrine, O my people: incline your eares vnto the wordes of my mouth.

declare high sentences of olde.
3 Which we haue heard and knowen, & our c fathers haue tolde vs.
4 We will not hide them from their children, but to the generation to come we will shewe the praises of the Lord, his power also, & his wonder-full workes that he hath done:
5 How he established a d testimonie in Iaa-kob, and ordeined a Lawe in Israel, which he commaunded our fathers, that they should teach their children:
6 That the * posteritie might knowe it, and the children, which should be borne, should stand vp, and declare it to their children:
7 That they might f set their hope on God, and not forget the workes of God but keepe his commandements:
8 And not to be as their g fathers, a disobedient and rebellious generation: a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirite was not faithfull vnto God.
9 The children of h Ephraim being armed and shooting with the bowe, turned backe in the day of battell.
10 They kept not the couenant of God, but refused to walke in his Lawe, workes that he had shewed them.

12 He did marueilous things in the sight of their i fathers in the lande of Egypt: euen in the fielde of Zoan.

he made also the waters to stand as an heape.

cloude, and all the night with a light of fire.
15 * He claue the rockes in the wildernes, and rocke, so that he made the waters to descend like the riuers.

17 Yet they k sinned stil against him, and prouoked the Highest in the wildernesse, quiring meate for their lust.

God m prepare a table in the wildernesse?
20 * Behold, he smote the rocke, that the water gushed out, and the streames ouerflowed: can he giue bread also? or prepare flesh for his people?
21 Therefore the Lord heard and was angrie, and the * fire was kindled in Iaakob, & also wrath came vpon Israel,

n trusted not in his helpe.

57 But turned backe & delt ^i^ falsely like their fathers: they turned like a deceitfull bowe.
58 And they ^k^ prouoked him to anger with their high places, and mooued him to wrath with their grauen images.
59 God heard this and was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel, 60 So that he ^l^ forsooke the habitation of Shilo, euen the Tabernacle where hee dwelt among men,
61 And deliuered his ^m^ power into captiuitie, and his beautie into the enemies hand.
62 And hee gaue vp his people to the sworde, and was angrie with his inheritance.
63 The fire ^n^ deuoured their chosen men, and their maides were not ^o^ praised.
64 Their Priestes fell by the sworde, and their ^p^ widowes lamented not.
65 But the Lorde awaked as one out of sleepe, & as a strong man that after his ^q^ wine crieth out, 66 And smote his enemies in the hinder parts,
and put them to a perpetuall shame.
67 Yet he refused the tabernacle of ^r^ Ioseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:
68 But chose the tribe of Iudah, and mount Zion which he loued.
69 And he ^s^ built his Sanctuarie as an high pa- lace, like the earth, which he stablished for euer.
70 He chose Dauid also his seruant, and tooke him from the sheepefolds.
71 Euen from behinde the ewes with yong brought he him to feede his people in Iaakob, and his inheritance in Israel.
72 So ^t^ he fed them according to the simpli-citie of his heart, and guided them by the discretion of his hands.

r Though other were not spared, yet chiefly they suffred, which trusted in their strength against God.
s Thus sinne by continuance maketh men insensible, so that by no plagues they can be amended.
t Such was their hypocrisie, ȳ they sought vnto God for feare of punishment, though in their heart they loued him not.
u Whatsoeuer cōmeth not from the pure fountaine of the heart, is hypocrisie.
x Because hee would euer haue some remnant of a Church to praise his Name in earth, he suffred not their sinnes to ouercome his mercie.
y That is, they tempted him oft times.
z As they all doe that measure the power of God by their capacitie.
a The forgetfulnes of Gods benefites is the roote of rebellion and all vice.
b This woorde signifieth a confused mixture of flies and venemous wormes. Some take it for all sorts of serpents: some for all wilde beastes.
c He repeateth not here all the miracles that God did in Egypt, but certaine which might be sufficient to conuince the people of malice & ingratitude.
d So called, either of the effect: that is, of punishing the wicked: or els because they were wicked spirites, whome God permitted to vexe men.
e The first borne are so called, as Gen. 49.3.
f That is, Egypt: for it was called Mitzraim or Egypt of Mitzraim, that was the sonne of Ham.
g That is, they had none occasion to feare, forasmuch as God destroyed their enemies, and deliuered them safely.
h Meaning Canaan, which God had consecrated to himselfe, and appointed to his people. * Iosh. 11.6. & 13.6. i Nothing more displeaseth God in the children, then when they continue in that wickednesse, which their fathers had begun.
k By seruing God otherwise then he had appointed.

l For their ingratitude he suffered the Philistims to take the Arke, which was ȳ signe of his presence, from among them.
m The Arke is called his power & beautie, because thereby he defended his people, and beautifully appeared vnto them.
n They were suddenly destroyed, 1. Sam. 4. 10.
o They had no marriage songs: that is, they were not married.
p Eyther they were slaine before, or taken prisoners of their enemies, and so were forbidden.
q Because they were drunken in their sinnes, they iudged Gods patience to be a slumbring, as though he were drunken: therefore he answering their beastly iudgements, sayeth, he will awake & take sudden vengeance.
r Shewing that he spared not altogether the Israelites, though hee punished their enemies. s By building the Temple and establishing the kingdome, hee declareth that the signes of his fauour were among them. t Hee sheweth wherein a Kings charge standeth: to wit, to prouide faithfully for his people, to guide them by counsell, and defend them by power.

2 Before Ephraim and Beniamin and Manasseh stirre vp thy strength, and come to helpe vs.

3 [c] Turne vs againe, O God, and cause thy face to shine that we may be saued.

4 O Lord God of hostes, howe long wilt thou be [d] angry against the prayer of thy people?

5 Thou hast fedde them with the bread of teares, and giuen them teares to drinke with great measure.

8 Thou hast brought a [g] vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

PSAL. LXXXIII.

1 The people of Israel pray vnto the Lorde to deliuer them from their enemies both at home and farre off, which imagined nothing but their destruction. 9 And they desire that all such wicked people may, according as God was accustomed, bee stricken with the stormie tempest of Gods wrath, 18 That they may knowe that the Lord is most high vpon the earth.

¶ A song, or Psalme committed to Asaph.

Keepe [a] not thou silence, O God: bee not still, off from being a nation: and let the name of Israel be no more in remembrance.

5 For they haue consulted together [e] in heart, and haue made a league [f] against thee:

lites, Moab and the Agarims:

and like Zalmuna.
12 Which haue said, Let vs take for our possession the [k] habitations of God.
13 O my God, make them like vnto a [l] wheele, and as the stubble before the winde.
14 As the fire burneth the forest, and as the flame setteth the mountaines on fire: 15 So persecute them with thy tempest, and make them afraide with thy storme.
16 Fill their faces with shame, that they may euer: yea, let them be put to shame and perish, art called Iehouah, art alone, euen the most High ouer all the earth.

a This Psalme seemeth to haue bene composed, as a forme of prayer against the dangers that the Church was in in the daies of Iosaphat.
b He calleth them Gods enemies, which are enemies to his Church.
c The elect of God are his secret ones; for he hideth them in the secrete of his tabernacle, and preserueth them from all dangers.
d They were not content to take the Church as prisoner, but sought vtterly to destroy it.
e By all secret meanes.
f They thought to haue subuerted thy counsel, wherein the perpetuitie of the Church was established.
‖ Or, Zor.
g The wickednes of the Ammonites and Moabites is described, in that they prouoked these other nations to fight against the Israelites their brethren.
h By these examples, they were confirmed that God would not suffer his people to be vtterly destroyed, Iudg. 7.21. and 4.15.
i Troden vnder feete as myre. * Iudges 7.25 and 8.21.
k That is, Iudea: for where his Church is, there dwelleth he among them.
l Because the reprobate could by no meanes be amended, he prayeth that they may vtterly be destroyed, be vnstable and ledde with all windes.
m That is, be compelled by thy plagues to cõfesse thy power.
n Though they beleeue not, yet they may proue by experience, that it is in vaine to resist against thy cousel in establishing thy Church.

PSAL. LXXXIIII.

1 Dauid driuen foorth of his countrey, 2 Desireth most ardently to come againe to the tabernacle of the Lorde and the assemblie of the Saintes to prayse God. 4 Pronouncing them blessed that may so doe. 6 Then hee prayseth the courage of the people, that passe through the wildernesse to assemble themselues in Zion. 10 Finally with prayse of this matter and confidence of Gods goodnes he endeth the Psalme.

¶ To him that excelleth vpon Gittith. A Psalme committed to the sonnes of Korah.

per in the House of my God, then to dwell in the Tabernacles of wickednesse.

trusteth in thee.

a Dauid complaineth that he can not haue accesse to the Church of God to make profession of his faith and to profite in religion.
b For none but the Priestes could enter into the Sanctuarie, and the rest of the people into the courtes.
c So that the poore birdes haue more libertie then I. d Who trusteth nothing in himselfe, but in thee onely, and learneth of thee to rule his life.
e That is, of mulberie trees which was a barren place: so that they which passed through, must digge pits for water: signifying that no lets can hinder them that are fully bent to come to Christes Church, neither yet that God will euer faile them.
f They are neuer wearie, but increase in strength and courage till they come to Gods house.
g That is, for Christes sake, whose figure I represent.
h Hee would wish to liue but one day rather in Gods Church, then a thousande among the worldlings.
i But will from time to time increase his blessings towards his more and more.

PSAL. LXXXV.

1 Because God withdrewe not his rods from his Church after their returne from Babylon, first they put him him in minde of their deliuerance, to the intent that hee shoulde not leaue the worke of his grace vnperfite. 5 Next they complaine of their long affliction: 8 And thirdly they reioyce in hope of felicitie promised. 9 For their deliuerance was a figure of Christes kingdome, vnder the which should be perfite felicitie.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme committed to the sonnes of Korah.

Lorde, thou hast bene [a] fauourable vnto thy land: thou hast brought againe the captiuitie of Iaakob.
2 Thou hast forgiuen the iniquitie of thy people, and [b] couered all their sinnes. Selah.
3 Thou hast withdrawen all thine anger, and hast turned backe frõ the [c] fiercenes of thy wrath.
4 Turne vs, O God of our saluation, and release thine anger towards vs.
5 Wilt thou be angry with vs [d] for euer? and wilt thou prolong thy wrath from one generation to another?
6 Wilt thou not turne againe & quicken vs, that thy people may reioyce in thee?
7 Shew vs thy mercy, O Lord, and graunt vs thy [e] saluation.
8 I will hearken what the Lord God will say:
for he will speake [f] peace vnto his people, and to his Saintes, that they turne not againe to folly.
9 Surely his saluation is neere to them that a They confesse that Gods free mercie was the cause of their deliuerance, because he loued the land, which he had chosen.

b Thou hast buried them that they shal not come into iudgement.
c Not onely in withdrawing thy rod, but in forgiuing our sinnes, and in touching our heartes to confesse them.
d As in times past they had felt Gods mercies: so nowe being oppressed by the long continuance of euils, they pray vnto God, that according to his nature he would be mercifull vnto them. e Hee confesseth that our saluation commeth onely of Gods mercie.
f Hee will sende all prosperitie to his Church, when hee hath sufficiently corrected them, also by his punishments the faithfull shal learne to beware that they returne not to like offences.

g Though for a time God thus exerciseth them with his rods, yet vnder the kingdome of Christ they should haue peace & ioy.

PSAL. LXXXVI.

1 Dauid sore afflicted and forsaken of all, prayeth feruently for deliuerance: sometimes rehearsing his miseries, 5 Sometimes the mercies receiued, 11 Desiring also to bee instructed of the Lord, that hee may feare him and glorifie his Name. 14 Hee complaineth also of his aduersaries, and requireth to bee deliuered from them.

A prayer of Dauid.

a Dauid persecuted of Saul, thus prayed, leauing the same to the Church as a monument, how to seeke redresse against their miseries.
b I am not enemie to them, but pitie them, though they be cruel toward me.
c Which was a sure token that hee beleeued that God would deliuer him.
d He doeth confesse that God is good to all, but onely mercifull to poore sinners.
e By crying and calling continually, he sheweth how we may not be weary, though God graunt not forthwith our request, but that we must earnestly and often call vpon him.
f He condemneth all idoles, forasmuch as they can doe no workes to declare that they are gods.
g This prooueth that Dauid prayed in the Name of Christ the Messias, of whose kingdom he doeth here prophecie.
h He confesseth himself ignorāt till God hath taught him, and his heart variable and separate from God, till God ioyne it to him and confirme it in his obedience.
i That is, from most great danger of death; out of the which none, but onely the mightie hande of God, coulde deliuer him.
k Hee sheweth that there can bee no moderation nor equitie, where proude tyrants reigne, and that the lacke of Gods feare is as a priuiledge to all vice and crueltie.
l He boasteth not of his owne vertues, but confesseth that God of his free goodnesse hath euer bene mercifull vnto him and giuen him power against his enemies, as to one of his owne housholde.

INcline a thine eare, O Lord, and heare me: for I am poore and needie.
2 Preserue thou my soule, for I am b mercifull: my God, saue thou thy seruant, that trusteth in thee.
3 Be merciful vnto me, O Lord: for I c cry vpon thee continually.
4 Reioyce the soule of thy seruant: for vnto thee, O Lord, doe I lift vp my soule.
5 For thou, Lorde, art good and d mercifull, and of great kindenesse vnto all them, that call vpon thee.
6 Giue eare, Lord, vnto my prayer, and e hearken to the voyce of my supplication.
7 In the day of my trouble I will call vpon thee: for thou hearest me.
8 Among the gods there is none like thee, O Lorde, and there f is none that can doe like thy workes.
9 All nations, whome thou hast made, shall come and g worship before thee, O Lord, and shall glorifie thy Name.
10 For thou art great and doest wonderous things: thou art God alone.
11 h Teache mee thy way, O Lorde, and I will walke in thy trueth: knit mine heart vnto thee, that I may feare thy Name.
12 I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all mine heart: yea, I wil glorifie thy Name for euer.
13 For great is thy mercie toward me, & thou hast deliuered my soule from i the lowest graue.
14 O God, the proude are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men haue k sought my soule, and haue not set thee before them.
15 But thou, O Lorde, art a pitifull God and mercifull, slowe to anger and great in kindenesse and trueth.
16 Turne vnto mee, and haue mercie vpon me: giue thy strength vnto thy seruant, and saue the l sonne of thine handmayd.
17 Shewe a token of thy goodnes towarde me, that they which hate me, may see it, and be ashamed, because thou, O Lorde, hast holpen mee and comforted me.

PSAL. LXXXVII.

1 The holy Ghost promiseth that the condition of the Church, which was in miserie after the captiuitie of Babylon, should bee restored to great excellencie, 4 So that there shoulde bee nothing more comfortable, then to bee numbred among the members thereof.

A Psalme or song committed to the sonnes of Korah.

GOd layde his a foundations among the holy mountaines.
2 The Lorde loueth the gates of Zion aboue all the habitations of Iaakob.
3 b Glorious things are spoken of thee, O citie of God. Selah.
4 I will make mention of c Rahab and Babel among them that knowe mee: beholde Palestina and Tyrus with Ethiopia, d There is he borne.
5 And of Zion it shall bee sayde, e Many are borne in her: and he, euen the most High shall stablish her.
6 The Lord shall count, when he f writeth the people, He was borne there. Selah.
7 Aswell the singers as the players on instruments shall prayse thee: all my g springs are in thee.

a God did chuse that place among the hilles: to establish Ierusalem and his Temple.
b Though thy glorious estate doe not yet appeare, yet waite with patience and God will accomplish his promes.
c That is, Egypt and these other countreys shall come to the knowledge of God. d It shall be sayd of him, that is regenerate and come to the Church, that hee is as one that was borne in the Church.
e Out of all quarters they shall come into the Church, and bee counted as citizens.
f When hee calleth by his worde them into the Church, whome hee had elected and written in his booke.
g The Prophete setteth his whole affections and comfort in the Church.

PSAL. LXXXVIII.

1 A grieuous complaint of the faithfull, sore afflicted by sickenes, persecutions and aduersitie, 7 Being as it were left of God without any consolation: 13 Yet he calleth on God by faith and striueth against desperation, 18 Complayning himselfe to bee forsaken of all earthly helpe.

*A song or Psalme of * Heman the Ezrahite to giue instruction, committed to the sonnes of Korah for him that excelleth vpon Malath a Leannoth.*

* 1.King.4.31. psal.53.
a That is, to humble. It was the beginning of a song, by the tune whereof this Psalme was song.
b Though many cry in their sorowes, yet they cry not earnestly to God for remedy as he did, whom he confessed to bee the autor of his saluation.
c For he that is dead, is free from all cares and businesse of this life: and thus he saith, because he was vnprofitable for all matters concerning mans life, and as it were cut off from this world.
d That is, from thy prouidence and care, which is meant according to the iudgement of the flesh.
e The stormes of thy wrath haue ouerwhelmed me.
f He attributeth the losse and displeasure of his friends to Gods prouidence, whereby he partly punisheth and partly trieth him.
g I see none ende of my sorowes.
h Mine eyes and face declare my sorowes.
i Hee sheweth that the time is more conuenient for God to helpe, when men call vnto him in their dangers, then to tary till they bee dead, and then rayse them vp againe.
k That is, in the graue, where onely the body lyeth without all sense and remembrance.

OLord God of my saluation, I cry day and night b before thee.
2 Let my prayer enter into thy presence: incline thine eare vnto my cry.
3 For my soule is filled with euils, and my life draweth neere to the graue.
4 I am counted among them that goe downe vnto the pit, and am as a man without strength:
5 c Free among the dead, like the slaine lying in the graue, whome thou remembrest no more, and they are cut off from thine d hand.
6 Thou hast layde mee in the lowest pit, in darkenes, and in the deepe.
7 Thine indignation lyeth vpon me, and thou hast vexed me with all thy e waues. Selah.
8 Thou hast put away mine f acquaintance farre from mee, and made mee to bee abhorred of them: g I am shut vp, and cannot get foorth.
9 h Mine eye is sorowfull through mine affliction: Lorde, I call dayly vpon thee: I stretche out mine handes vnto thee.
10 Wilt thou shewe i a miracle to the dead? or shall the dead rise and praise thee? Selah.
11 Shall thy louing kindenesse bee declared in the graue? or thy faithfulnesse in destruction?
12 Shall thy wonderous workes be knowen in the darke? and thy righteousnes in the lande k of obliuion?
13 But vnto thee haue I cried, O Lorde, and early shall my prayer come before thee.
14 Lorde, why doest thou reiect my soule, and hidest thy face from me?
15 I am afflicted and at the point of death from my youth I suffer thy terrours, doubting of my life.

16 Thine indignations goe ouer mee, and thy feare hath cut me off.

17 They came round about mee dayly like water, and compassed me together.

18 My louers and friendes hast thou put away from me, and mine acquaintance † hid themselues.

l I am euer in great dangers and sorowes, as though my life should vtterly be cut off euery moment.

† Ebr. were in darkenes.

PSAL. LXXXIX.

1 With many wordes doeth the Prophete prayse the goodnesse of God, 23 For his testament and couenant, that hee had made betweene him and his elect by Iesus Christ the sonne of Dauid: 38 Then doeth he complaine of the great ruine, and desolation of the kingdome of Dauid, so that to the outwarde appearance the promes was broken. 46 Finally he prayeth to be deliuered from his afflictions, making mention of the shortnesse of mans life, and confirming himselfe by Gods promises.

I Wil [a] sing the mercies of the Lord for euer: with my mouth will I declare thy trueth from generation to generation.

2 For I [b] said, Mercie shalbe set vp for euer: thy trueth shalt thou [c] stablish in the very heauens.

3 [d] I haue made a couenant with my chosen: I haue sworne to Dauid my seruant,

4 Thy seede will I stablish for euer, and set vp thy throne from generation to generation. Selah.

5 O Lord, euen the [e] heauens shall prayse thy wonderous worke: yea, thy trueth in the [f] Congregation of the Saints.

6 For who is equal to the Lord in the heauen? and who is like the Lorde among the [g] sonnes of the gods?

7 God is very terrible in the assemblie of the [h] Saintes, and to be reuerenced aboue all, that are about him.

8 O Lorde God of hostes, who is like vnto thee, which art a mightie Lorde, and thy trueth is about thee?

9 [i] Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waues thereof arise, thou stillest them.

10 Thou hast beaten downe Rahab as a man slaine: thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy mightie arme.

11 The heauens are thine, the earth also is thine: thou hast layde the foundation of the worlde, and all that therein is.

12 Thou hast created the North and the South: [k] Tabor and Hermon shall reioyce in thy Name.

13 Thou hast a mightie arme: strong is thine hand, and high is thy right hand.

14 [l] Righteousnesse and equitie are the stablishment of thy throne: mercie and trueth goe before thy face.

15 Blessed is the people, that can [m] reioyce in thee: they shall walke in the light of thy [n] countenance, O Lord.

16 They shall reioyce continually in thy Name, and in thy righteousnesse shall they exalt themselues.

17 For thou art the [o] glorie of their strength, and by thy fauour our hornes shalbe exalted.

18 For our [p] shielde appertaineth to the Lorde, and our King to the holy one of Israel.

19 Thou spakest then in a vision vnto [q] thine Holy one, and saydest, I haue layd helpe vpon one that is [r] mightie: I haue exalted one chosen out of the people.

20 I haue founde Dauid my seruant: with mine holy oyle haue I anoynted him.

21 Therefore mine hande shall be established with him, and mine arme shall strengthen him.

22 The enemie shall not oppresse him, neither shall the wicked hurt him.

23 But I will [s] destroy his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him.

24 My trueth also and my [t] mercie shall bee with him, and in my Name shall his [u] horne bee exalted.

25 I wil set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the [x] floods.

26 He shal cry vnto me, Thou art my [y] Father, my God and the rocke of my saluation.

27 Also I will make him my first borne, higher then the Kings of the earth.

28 My mercie will I keepe for him for euermore, and my couenant shall stande fast with him.

29 His seede also will I make to endure [z] for euer, and his throne as the dayes of heauen.

30 But if his children forsake my Lawe, and walke not in my iudgements:

31 * If they breake my statutes, and keepe not my commandements:

32 Then will I visite their transgression with the rod, and their iniquitie with strokes.

33 [a] Yet my louing kindenesse will I not take from him, neither will I falsifie my trueth.

34 My couenant will I not breake, nor [b] alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

35 I haue sworne once by mine holines, † that I will not faile Dauid, saying,

36 His seed shall endure for euer, and his throne shalbe as the sunne before me.

37 Hee shall be established for euermore as the moone, and as a faithfull [c] witnes in the heauen. Selah.

38 But thou hast reiected and abhorred, thou hast bene angry with thine Anoynted.

39 Thou hast [d] broken the couenant of thy seruant, and profaned his [e] crowne, casting it on the ground.

40 Thou hast broken downe al his walles: thou hast layd his fortresses in ruine.

41 All that goe by the way, spoyle him: he is a rebuke vnto his neighbours.

42 Thou hast set vp the right hande of his enemies, and made all his aduersaries to reioyce.

43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sworde, and hast not made him to stande in the battell.

44 Thou hast caused his dignitie to decay, and cast his throne to the ground.

45 The dayes of his [f] youth hast thou shortned, and couered him with shame. Selah.

46 [g] Lord, how long wilt thou hide thy selfe, for euer? shall thy wrath burne like fire?

a Though the horrible confusion of things might cause them to despaire of Gods fauour, yet the manifolde examples of his mercies cause them to trust in God, though to mans iudgement they saw none occasion.
b As he that surely beleeued in heart.
c As thine inuisible heauen is not subiect to any alteration and change: so shall the trueth of thy promes be vnchangeable.
d The Prophet sheweth what was the promes of God, whereon he grounded his faith.
e The Angels shall prayse thy power and faithfulnes in deliuering thy Church.
f That is, in the heauens.
g Meaning, the Angels.
h If the Angels tremble before Gods maiestie and infinite iustice, what earthly creature by oppressing the Church, dare set himselfe against God?
i For as he deliuered the Church by the red Sea, and by destroying Rahab, that is, the Egyptians: so will he alwayes deliuer it, when the dangers be great.
k Tabor is a mountaine Westward from Ierusalem, and Hermon Eastwarde: so the Prophet signifieth that all partes and places of the world shall obey Gods power for the deliuerance of his Church.
l For hereby he iudgeth the worlde and sheweth himselfe a mercifull Father and faithfull protector vnto his.
m Feeling in their conscience that God is their Father.
n They shalbe preserued by thy Fatherly prouidence.
o In that they are preserued and continue, they ought to giue the praise and glory onely to thee.

p In that that our King hath power to defende vs, it is the gift of God.
q To Samuel and to others, to assure that Dauid was thy chosen one.
r Whom I haue both chosen and giuen him strength to execute his office, as vers 21.
s Though there shalbe euermore enemies against Gods kingdome, yet he promiseth to ouercome them.
t I will mercifully performe my promises to him notwithstanding his infirmities and offences.
u His power, glory and estate.
x He shall enioy the land round about.
y His excellent dignitie shall appeare herein that he shalbe named the Sonne of God, and the first borne, wherein he is a figure of Christ.
z Though for the sinnes of the people the state of this kingdome decayed: yet God reserued still a roote, till he had accomplished this promes in Christ.
* 2.Sam.7.14.
a Though the faithfull answere not in all poinst to their profession, yet God will not breake his couenant with them.
b For God in promising hath respect to his mercie and not to mans power in performing.
† Ebr. If I lie vnto Dauid, which is a maner of othe.
c As long as the sunne and moone endure, they shall be witnesses to me of this promes.
d Because of the horrible confusion of things, the Prophet complaineth to God as though he sawe not the performance of his promes. And thus discharging his cares on God, hee resisteth doute and impaciencie.
e By this he meaneth the horrible dissipation and renting of the kingdome, which was vnder Ieroboam: or els by the Spirit of prophecie Ethan speaketh of those great miseries, which came soone afterwards to passe at the captiuitie of Babylon.
f Hee sheweth that the kingdome fell before it came to perfection or was ripe.
g The Prophet in ioyning prayer with his complaint, sheweth that his faith neuer failed.

47 Remember h of what time I am: wherefore shouldest thou create in vaine all the children of men?
48 What man liueth, and shall not see death?
shall hee deliuer his soule from the hand of the graue? Selah.
49 Lord, where are thy former mercies, which thou swarest vnto Dauid in thy trueth?
50 Remember, O Lord, the rebuke of thy ser-uants, which I beare in my i bosome of all the mightie people.
51 For k thine enemies haue reproched thee, O Lord, because they haue reproched the l footesteps of thine Anointed.
52 Praised be the Lord for euermore. So be it, euen so be it.

h Seeing mans life is short, and thou hast created man to bestowe thy benefites vpon him, except thou haste to helpe, death will preuent thee.
i Hee meaneth that Gods enemies did not onely slander him behinde his backe, but also mocked him to his face, and as it were cast their iniuries in his bosome.
k So he calleth them that persecute the Church. l They laugh at vs, which patiently waite for the comming of thy Christ.

PSAL. XC.

1 Moses in his prayer setteth before vs the eternall fauour of God toward his, 3 Who are neither admonished by the breuitie of their life, 7 Nor by his plagues to bee thankefull, 12 Therefore Moses prayeth God to turne their heartes and continue his mercies toward them, and their posteritie for euer.

¶ A prayer of Moses, the a man of God.

LOrd, thou hast bene our b habitation from generation to generation.
2 Before the c mountaines were made, and before thou hadst formed the earth, and the world, euen from euerlasting to euerlasting thou art our
God.
3 Thou d turnest man to destruction: againe thou sayest, Returne, ye sonnes of Adam.
4 e For a thousand yeeres in thy sight are as yesterday when it is past, & as a watch in the night.
5 Thou hast f ouerflowed them: they are as a sleepe: in the morning he groweth like the grasse:
6 In the morning it florisheth and groweth, but in the euening it is cut downe and withereth.
7 For we g are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath we are troubled.
8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, and our secret sinnes in the light of thy countenance.
9 For all our dayes are past in thine anger: we haue h spent our yeeres as a thought.
10 The time of our life is threescore yeeres and ten, and if they be of strength, i fourescore yeeres:
yet their strength is but labour and sorowe: for it is cut off quickly, and we flee away.
11 k Who knoweth the power of thy wrath?
for according to thy feare is thine anger.
12 Teach vs so to nomber our dayes, that we may apply our heartes vnto l wisdome.
13 Returne (O Lorde, m howe long?) and be || pacified toward thy seruants.
14 Fill vs with thy mercie in the morning: so shall we reioyce and be glad all our dayes.
15 Comfort vs according to the dayes that thou hast afflicted vs, and according to the yeeres that we haue seene euill.
16 n Let thy worke be seene towarde thy ser-uants, and thy glory vpon their o children.
17 And let the p beautie of the Lorde our God be vpon vs, & direct thou the worke of our hands vpon vs, euen q direct the worke of our hands.

a Thus the Scripture vseth to call the Prophets.
b Thou hast bene as an house and defence vnto vs in all our troubles & trauels now this foure hundreth yeeres.
c Thou hast chosen vs to be thy people before the foundations of the world were layed.
d Moses by lamenting the frailtie and shortnesse of mans life, moueth God to pitie.
e Though man thinke his life long, which is in deede most short, yea though it were a thousand yeeres: yet in Gods sight it is as nothing, & as the watch that lasteth but three houres.
f Thou takest them away suddenly as with a flood.
g Thou callest vs by thy rods to consider the shortnes of our life, and for our sinnes thou abbridgest our daies.
h Our dayes are not onely short, but miserable, for as much as our sinnes dayly prouoke thy wrath.
i Meaning, according to the common state of life.
k If mans life for the breuitie be miserable, much more if thy wrath lie vpon it, as they which feare thee, only know. l Which is, by considering the shortnesse of our life, and by meditating the heauenly ioyes. m Meaning, wilt thou be angry? || Or, take comfort in thy seruants. n Euen thy mercy, which is thy chiefest worke. o As Gods promises apperteined as well to their posteritie, as to them, so Moses prayeth for the posteritie. p Meaning that it was obscured, when he ceased to doe good to his Church. q For except thou guide vs with thine holy Spirit, our enterprises can haue no good successe.

PSAL. XCI.

1 Here is described in what assurance he liueth that putteth his whole trust in God, and committeth himselfe wholy to his protection in all tentations. 14 A promes of God to those that loue him, knowe him and trust in him, to deliuer them, and giue them immortall glory.

WHo so dwelleth in the a secrete of the most High, shall abide in the shadowe of the Almightie.
2 b I will say vnto the Lorde, O mine hope, and my fortresse: he is my God, in him will I trust.
3 Surely he will deliuer thee from the c snare of the hunter, and from the noysome pestilence.
4 Hee will couer thee vnder his wings, and thou shalt be sure vnder his feathers: his d trueth shall be thy shielde and buckler.
5 e Thou shalt not be afraide of the feare of the night, nor of the arrowe that flyeth by day: 6 Nor of the pestilence that walketh in the darkenesse: nor of the plague that destroyeth at noone day.
7 A thousande shall fall at thy side, and tenne thousand at thy right hand, but it shall not come neere thee.
8 Doubtlesse with thine f eyes shalt thou be-holde and see the reward of the wicked.
9 For thou hast sayd, The Lord is mine hope:
thou hast set the most High for thy refuge.
10 There shall none euill come vnto thee, neither shall any plague come neere thy tabernacle.
11 g For he shall giue his Angels charge ouer thee to keepe thee in all thy wayes.
12 They shall beare thee in their hands, that thou hurt not thy foote against a stone.
13 Thou shalt walke vpon the lyon and aspe:
the h yong lyon and the dragon shalt thou treade vnder feete.
14 i Because he hath loued me, therefore will I deliuer him: I will exalt him because hee hath knowen my Name.
15 He shall call vpon me, and I wil heare him:
I will be with him in trouble: I will deliuer him,
and glorifie him.
16 With k long life wil I satisfie him, and shew him my saluation.

a He that maketh God his defence and trust, shall perceiue his protection to be a most sure safegard.
b Being assured of this protection, he prayeth vnto the Lord.
c That is, Gods helpe is most readie for vs, whether Satan assaile vs secretly, which he calleth a snare, or openly, which is here ment by the pestilence.
d That is, his faithfull keeping of promes to helpe thee in thy necessitie.
e The care that God hath ouer his, is most sufficient to defende them from all dangers.
f The godly shall haue some experience of Gods iudgements against the wicked euen in this life, but fully they shall see it at that day, when all things shall be reueiled.
g God hath not appointed euery man one Angel, but many to be ministers of his prouidence to keepe his and defend them in their vocation, which is the way to walke in without tempting God. h Thou shalt not onely be preserued from all euill, but ouercome it whether it be secret or open. i To assure the faithfull of Gods protection hee bringeth in God to confirme the same. k For he is contented with that life, that God giueth: for by death the shortnesse of this life is recompensed with immortalitie.

PSAL. XCII.

1 This Psalme was made to be sung on the Sabbath, to stirre vp the people to acknowledge God and to prayse him in his workes: the Prophet reioyceth therein. 6 But the wicked is not able to consider that the vngodly, when he is most flourishing, shall most speedily perish. 12 In the ende is described the felicitie of the iust, planted in the house of God to prayse the Lorde.

¶ A Psalme or song for the a Sabbath day.

IT is a good thing to prayse the Lord, and to sing vnto thy Name, O most High, 2 To declare thy louing kindenesse in the b morning, and thy trueth in the night, 3 Vpon an c instrument of tenne strings, and vpon the viole with the song vpon the harpe.
4 For thou, Lord, hast made mee glad by thy d workes, and I will reioyce in the workes of thine handes.
5 O Lord, how glorious are thy workes! and thy thoughtes are very deepe.
6 An e vnwise man knoweth it not, and a a Which teacheth that the vse of the Sabbath standeth in praysing God, and not onely in ceasing from works.

b For Gods mercie and fidelitie in his promises towarde his, binde them to praise him continually both day and night.
c These instruments were then permitted, but at Christes comming abolished. d Hee sheweth what is the vse of the Sabbath day: to wit, to meditate Gods workes. e That is, the wicked consider not Gods workes, nor his iudgements against them, and therefore [illegible]ly perish.

foole doeth not vnderſtand this, 7 (When the wicked growe as the graſſe, and all the workers of wickedneſſe doe flouriſh) that they ſhall be deſtroyed for euer.
8 But thou, O Lord, art f moſt High for euermore.
9 For loe, thine enemies, O Lorde: for loe, thine enemies ſhall periſh: all the workers of iniquitie ſhall be deſtroyed.
10 g But thou ſhalt exalt mine horne, like the vnicornes, and I ſhalbe anoynted with freſh oyle.
11 Mine eye alſo ſhall ſee my deſire againſt mine enemies: and mine eares ſhall heare my wiſh againſt the wicked, that riſe vp againſt me.
12 The righteous ſhall h flouriſh like a palme tree, and ſhall grow like a Cedar in Lebanon.
13 Such as be planted in the houſe of the Lord, ſhall flouriſh in the courtes of our God.
14 They ſhall ſtill bring foorth fruite in their
i age: they ſhall be fat and flouriſhing, 15 To declare that the Lord my rocke is righteous, and that none iniquitie is in him.

f Thy iudgements are moſt conſtant againſt the wicked, and paſſe our reach.
g Thou wilt ſtrengthen them with al power, and bleſſe them with all felicitie.
h Though the faithfull ſeeme to wither and be cut downe by the wicked, yet they ſhall grow againe and flouriſh in the Church of God as the Cedars doe in mount Lebanon.
i The children of God ſhall haue a power aboue nature, and their age ſhal bring foorth moſt freſh fruites.

PSAL. XCIII.

1 Hee prayſeth the power of God in the creation of the worlde, and beateth downe all people which lift them vp againſt his maieſtie, 5 And prouoketh to conſider his promiſes.

THe Lord a reigneth, and is clothed with ma-ieſtie: the Lorde is clothed, and girded with power: the world alſo ſhall be eſtabliſhed, that it cannot be mooued.
2 Thy b throne is eſtabliſhed of olde: thou art from euerlaſting.
3 c The floods haue lifted vp, O Lorde: the floods haue lifted vp their voyce: the floods lift vp their waues.
4 The waues of ye ſea are marueilous through the noyſe of many waters, yet the Lorde on High is more mightie.
5 Thy d teſtimonies are very ſure: holineſſe becommeth thine Houſe, O Lord, for euer.

a As God by his power and wiſdome hath made and gouerneth the world: ſo muſt the ſame be our defence againſt all enemies and dangers.
b Wherein thou ſitteſt and gouerneſt the world.
c Gods power appeareth in ruling the furious waters.
d Beſides Gods power and wiſedome in creating and gouerning, his great mercie alſo appeareth in that hee hath giuen his people his worde and couenant.

PSAL. XCIIII.

1 Hee prayeth vnto God againſt the violence and arrogancie of tyrants, 10 Warning them of Gods iudgements. 12 Then doeth he comfort the afflicted by the good iſſue of their afflictions, as he felt in himſelfe, and did ſee in others, and by the ruine of the wicked, 23 Whom the Lord will deſtroy.

O Lorde God a the auenger, O God the auen-ger, ſhewe thy ſelfe b clearely.
2 Exalt thy ſelfe, O Iudge of the worlde, and render a reward to the proude.
3 Lord how long ſhall the wicked, how long ſhall the wicked c triumph?
4 They prate and ſpeake fiercely: all the workers of iniquitie vaunt themſelues.
5 They d ſmite downe thy people, O Lorde, and trouble thine heritage.
6 They ſlay the widowe and the ſtranger, and murther the fatherleſſe.
7 e Yet they ſay, The Lord ſhall not ſee: neither will the God of Iaakob regard it.
8 Vnderſtand yee vnwiſe among the people:
and ye fooles, when will ye be wiſe?
9 Hee that f planted the eare, ſhall hee not heare? or he that formed the eye, ſhall he not ſee?
10 Or he that chaſtiſeth the g nations, ſhall he not correct? hee that teacheth man knowledge, ſhall he not knowe?
11 The Lord knoweth the thoughtes of man, that they are vanitie.
12 Bleſſed is the man whom thou h chaſtiſeſt,
O Lord, and teacheſt him in thy Lawe, 13 That thou mayeſt giue him reſt from the dayes of euill, whiles the pitte is digged for the wicked.
14 Surely the Lorde will not faile his people, neither will he forſake his inheritance.
15 For i iudgement ſhal returne to iuſtice, and all the vpright in heart ſhall followe after it.
16 Who will riſe vp with me againſt the wicked? or who will take my part againſt the workers of iniquitie?
17 If the Lorde had not k holpen me, my ſoule had almoſt dwelt in ſilence.
18 When I ſaid, l My foote ſlideth, thy mercy, O Lord, ſtayed me.
19 In the multitude of my m thoughts in mine heart, thy comfortes haue reioyced my ſoule.
20 Hath the throne of iniquitie n fellowſhip with thee, which forgeth wrong for a Lawe?
21 They gather them together againſt the ſoule of the righteous, and condemne the innocent blood.
22 But the Lorde is my refuge, and my God is the rocke of mine hope.
23 And hee will recompence them their wickednes, and o deſtroy them in their owne malice:
yea, the Lord our God ſhall deſtroy them.

a Whoſe office it is to take vengeance on the wicked.
b Shewe by effect that thou art Iudge of the worlde to puniſh the wicked.
c That is, bragge of their crueltie and oppreſsion: or eſteeme themſelues aboue all other.
d Seeing the Church was then ſo ſore oppreſſed, it ought not to ſeeme ſtrange to us, if wee ſee it ſo now, and therefore we muſt call to God, to take our cauſe in hand.
e Hee ſheweth that they are deſperate in malice, foraſmuch as they feared not God, but gaue themſelues whaly to doe wickedly.
f He ſheweth that it is impoſsible, but God ſhould heare, ſee and vnderſtand their wickednes.
g If God puniſh whole nations for their ſinnes, it is meere folly for any one man, or els a fewe to thinke that God will ſpare them.
h God hath care ouer his and chaſtiſeth them for their wealth, that they ſhould not periſh for euer with the wicked.
i God will reſtore the ſtate and gouernment of thinges to their right vſe, and then the godly ſhall follow him chearfully.
k Hee complayneth of them, which would not helpe him to reſiſt the enemies: yet was aſſured that Gods helpe woulde not faile.
l When I thought there was no way but death.
m In my trouble and diſtreſſe I euer found thy preſent helpe.
n Though the wicked iudges pretende iuſtice in oppreſsing the Church, yet they haue not that authoritie of God.
o It is a great token of Gods iudgement, when the purpoſe of the wicked is broken, but moſt, when they are deſtroyed in their owne malice.

PSAL. XCV.

1 An earneſt exhortation to prayſe God. 4 For the gouernment of the world, and the election of his Church. 8 An admonition not to followe the rebellion of the olde fathers, that tempted God in the wildernes: 11 For the which they might not enter into the land of promes.

COme, let vs reioyce vnto the Lorde: let vs ſing a aloude vnto the rocke of our ſalua-tion.
2 Let vs come before his face with prayſe: let vs ſing loude vnto him with Pſalmes.
3 For the Lorde is a great God, and a great King aboue all b gods.
4 In whoſe hande are the deepe places of the earth, and the c heightes of the mountaines are his:
5 To whome the Sea belongeth: for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land.
6 Come, let vs d worſhip and fall downe, and kneele before the Lord our maker.
7 For he is our God, and we are the people of his paſture, and the ſheepe of his e hand: to day, if ye will heare his voyce, 8 f Harden not your heart, as ‖ in Meribah, and as in the day of ‖ Maſſah in the wilderneſſe.
9 Where your fathers * tempted me, prooued me, though they had ſeene my worke.
10 Fourtie yeeres haue I contended with this generation, and ſaid, They are a people that g erre
in heart, for they haue not knowen my wayes.
11 Wherefore I ſware in my wrath, ſaying, Surely they ſhall not enter into my h reſt.

a Hee ſheweth that Gods ſeruice ſtandeth not in dead ceremonies, but chiefely in the ſacrifice of praiſe and thankeſgiuing.
b Euen the Angels (who in reſpect of men are thought as gods) are nothing in his ſight: much leſſe the idoles which mans braine inuenteth.
c All things are gouerned by his prouidence.
d By theſe three wordes he ſignifieth one thing: meaning, that they muſt wholy giue themſelues to ſerue God.
e That is, the flocke whome he gouerneth with his owne hand. Hee ſheweth wherein they are Gods flocke: that is, if they heare his voyce.
f By the contemning of Gods worde.
‖ Or, in ſtrife: whereof the place was ſo called.
‖ Or, tentation, reade Exodus 17.7.

PSAL. XCVI.

1 An exhortation both to the Iewes and Gentiles to praise God for his mercie. And this specially ought to bee referred to the kingdome of Christ.

SIng [a] vnto the Lorde a new song: sing vnto the Lord, all the earth.
2 Sing vnto the Lord, and praise his Name: declare his saluation from day to day.
3 Declare his glory among all nations, and his wonders among all people.
4 For the Lord is [b] great and much to be praised: he is to be feared aboue all goods.
5 For all the gods of the people are ‖ idoles:
but the Lord [c] made the heauens.
6 [d] Strength and glory are before him: power and beautie are in his Sanctuarie.
7 Giue vnto the Lord, ye families of the people: giue vnto the Lord glory and [e] power.
8 Giue vnto the Lorde the glory of his Name:
bring [f] an offering, and enter into his courtes.
9 Worship the Lorde in the glorious Sanctuarie: tremble before him all the earth.
10 Say among the [g] nations, The Lord reigneth:
surely the world shalbe stable, and not mooue, and he shall iudge the people [h] in righteousnesse.
11 Let the heauens reioyce, and let the earth be glad: let the sea roare, and all that therein is.
12 Let the field be ioyfull, and all that is in it:
let all the [i] trees of the wood then reioyce 13 Before the Lorde: for he commeth, for hee cometh to iudge the earth: he wil iudge the world with righteousnes, and the people in his trueth.

a The Prophet sheweth that the time shall come, that all nations shall haue occasion to praise the Lord for the reueiling of his Gospel.
b Seeing he will reueile himselfe to all nations contrary to their owne expectation, they ought all to worship him contrary to their owne imaginations, and onely as he hath appointed.
‖ Or, vanities.
c Then the idoles, or whatsoeuer made not the heauens, are not God.
d God cannot be knowen but by his strength and glory: the signes whereof appeare in his Sanctuarie.
e As by experience ye see that it is onely due vnto him.
f By offering vp your selues wholly vnto God, declare that you worship him only.
g He prophecieth that the Gentiles shall be partakers with the Iewes of Gods promes.
h Hee shall regenerate them anew with his Spirit, and restore them to the image of God.
i If the insensible creatures shall haue cause to reioyce, when God appeareth, much more wee, from whom he hath taken malediction and sinne.

PSAL. XCVII.

1 The Prophete exhorteth all to reioyce for the comming of the kingdome of Christ, 7 Dreadfull to the rebels and idolaters, 8 And ioyfull to the iust, whome hee exhorteth to innocencie, 12 To reioycing and thankesgiuing.

THe [a] Lorde reigneth: let the earth reioyce: let the [b] multitude of the yles be glad.
2 [c] Cloudes and darkenes are rounde about him: righteousnesse and iudgement are the foundation of his throne.
3 There shall goe a fire before him, and burne vp his enemies round about.
4 His lightnings gaue light vnto the worlde:
the earth sawe it and was [d] afraide.
5 The mountaines melted like waxe at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the Lorde of the whole earth.
6 The heauens declare his righteousnes, and al
the people see his glory.
7 [e] Confounded be all they that serue grauen images, and that glory in idoles: worship him [f] all ye gods.
8 Zion heard of it, and was glad: and the [g] daughters of Iudah reioyced, because of thy iudgements, O Lord.
9 For thou, Lord, art most High aboue all the earth: thou art much exalted aboue all gods.
10 Ye that [h] loue the Lorde, hate euill: he preserueth the soules of his Saints: he wil deliuer them from the hand of the wicked.
11 [i] Light is sowen for the righteous, and ioye for the vpright in heart.
12 Reioyce ye righteous in the Lorde, and giue thankes for his holy [k] remembrance.

a Hee sheweth that where God reigneth, there is all felicitie, and spiritual ioy.
b For the Gospel shall not be onely preached in Iudea, but through all yles & countreys.
c He is thus described to keepe his enemies in feare, which commonly contemne Gods power.
d This feare bringeth not the wicked to true obedience, but maketh them to runne away from God.
e He signifieth that Gods iudgements are in a readines to destroy the idolaters.
f Let all that which is esteemed in the world, fall downe before him.
g The Iewes shall haue occasion to reioyce that the Gentiles are made partakers with them of Gods fauour.
h Hee requireth two things of his children: the one that they detest vice, the other, that they put their trust in God for their deliuerance.
i Though Gods deliuerance appeare not suddenly, yet it is sowen and layde vp in store for them.
k Be mindfull of his benefits, and onely trust in his defence.

PSAL. XCVIII.

1 An earnest exhortation to all creatures to praise the Lord for his power, mercie and fidelitie in his promes by Christ, 10 By whome he hath communicated his saluation to all nations.

¶ A Psalme.

SIng [a] vnto the Lorde a newe song: for hee hath done marueilous things: * his right hande, and his holy [b] arme haue gotten him the victorie.
2 The Lord declared his [c] saluation: his righte-ousnes hath he reueiled in the sight of the nations.
3 Hee hath [d] remembred his mercie and his trueth towarde the house of Israel: all the endes of the earth haue seene the saluation of our God.
4 All the earth, sing ye loude vnto the Lorde:
crie out and reioyce, and sing praises.
5 Sing praise to the Lord vpon the harpe, euen vpon the harpe with a singing voyce.
6 With [e] shalmes and sound of trumpets sing loude before the Lord the King.
7 Let the sea roare, and all that therein is, the world, and they that dwel therein.
8 Let the floods clap their handes, and let the mountaines reioyce together 9 Before the Lord: for he is come to iudge the earth: with righteousnesse shal he iudge the world, and the people with equitie.

a That is, some song newly made in token of their wonderfull deliuerance by Christ.
* Isai. 59. 16.
b He preserueth his Church miraculously.
c For the deliuerance of his Church.
d God was moued by none other meanes to gather his Church of the Iewes and Gentiles, but because he would performe his promes.
e By this repetition and earnest exhortation to giue praises with instruments, and also of the dumme creatures, he signifieth that the world is neuer able to praise God sufficiently for their deliuerance.

PSAL. XCIX.

1 Hee commendeth the power, equitie, and excellencie of the kingdome of God by Christ ouer the Iewes and Gentiles, 5 And prouoketh them to magnifie the same and to serue the Lorde, 6 Following the exemple of the auncient Fathers, Moses, Aaron, Samuel, who calling vpon God, were heard in their prayers.

THe Lord reigneth, let the [a] people tremble: he sitteth betweene the * Cherubims, let the earth be mooued.
2 The Lord is great in Zion, and hee is high aboue all the people.
3 They shall [b] prayse thy great and fearefull Name (for it is holy) 4 And the Kings power, that loueth iudge-ment; for thou hast prepared equitie: thou hast executed iudgement and iustice in Iaakob.
5 Exalt the Lord our God, and fall downe before his [c] footestoole: for he is holy.
6 Moses and Aaron were among his Priestes, [d] and Samuel among such as call vpon his Name:
these called vpon the Lord, and he heard them.
7 Hee spake vnto them in the cloudie pillar:
they kept his testimonies, and the Lawe that hee gaue them.
8 Thou heardest them, O Lord our God: thou wast a fauourable God vnto them, though thou didst take vengeance for [e] their inuentions.
9 Exalt the Lorde our God, and fall downe before his holy Mountaine: for the Lorde our God is holy.

a When God deliuereth his Church, all the enemies shall haue cause to tremble.
* Exod. 25. 22.
b Though the wicked rage against God, yet the godly shall praise his Name and mightie power.
c That is, before his Temple or Arke, where he promised to heare, when they worshipped him, as nowe he promiseth his spirituall presence, wheresoeuer his Church is assembled.
d Vnder these three he comprehendeth the whole people of Israel, with whome God made his promes.
e For the more liberally that God dealeth with his people, the more doeth he punish them that abuse his benefites.

PSAL. C.

1 Hee exhorteth all to serue the Lorde, 3 Who hath chosen vs and preserued vs, 4 And to enter into his assemblies to praise his Name.

¶ A Psalme of praise.

SIng [a] ye loude vnto the Lord, all the earth.
2 Serue the Lord with gladnesse: come before him with ioyfulnesse.

a He prophecieth that Gods benefite in calling the Gentiles, shall be so great, that they shall haue wonderful occasion to praise his mercie and mercyes.

3 Knowe ye that euen the Lorde is God: hee hath [b] made vs, and not wee our selues: we are his people, and the sheepe of his pasture.
4 [c] Enter into his gates with praise, and into his courts with reioycing: praise him and blesse his Name.
5 For the Lorde is good: his mercie is [d] euerlasting, and his trueth is from generation to generation.

b He chiefly meaneth, touching the spirituall regeneration, whereby we are his sheepe and people. c He sheweth that God will not be worshipped, but by that meanes, which he hath appointed. d He declareth that we ought neuer to be wearie in praysing him, seeing his mercies toward vs last for euer.

PSAL. CI.

1 Dauid describeth what gouernement he will obserue in his house and kingdome. 5 He will punish and correct, by rooting foorth the wicked, 6 And cherishing the godly persons.

¶ A Psalme of Dauid.

I Will [a] sing mercie and iudgement: vnto thee, O Lord, will I sing.
2 I wil doe wisely in the perfite way, [b] til thou commest to me: I will walke in the vprightnes of mine heart in the middes of mine house.
3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes:
I hate [c] the worke of them that fall away: it shall not cleaue vnto me.
4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will know none euill.
5 Him that priuily [d] slandereth his neighbour, will I destroye: him that hath a proude looke and hie heart, I cannot suffer.
6 Mine eyes shalbe vnto the [e] faithfull of the land, that they may dwel with me: he that walketh in a perfite way, he shall serue me.
7 There shall no deceitfull person dwel within mine house: hee that telleth lyes, shall not re-maine in my sight.
8 [f] Betimes wil I destroy all the wicked of the land, that I may cut off all the workers of iniquitie from the Citie of the Lord.

a Dauid considereth what maner of King he would be when God should place him in the throne, promising openly, that he would be mercifull and iust. b Though as yet thou deferrest to place me in the Kingly dignitie, yet will I giue my selfe to wisdome and vprightnesse being a priuate man. c He sheweth that magistrates doe not their dueties, except they be enemies to all vice. d In promising to punish these vices, which are most pernicious in them that are about Kings, hee declareth that hee will punish all. e He sheweth what is the true vse of the sword: to punish the wicked and to maintaine the good. f Magistrates must immediatly punish vice, least it growe to farther inconuenience: and if heathen magistrates are bounde to doe this, howe much more they that haue the charge of the Church of God.

M

PSAL. CII.

1 It seemeth that this prayer was appointed to the faithfull to pray in the captiuitie of Babylon. 16 A consolation for the building of the Church: 18 Whereof followeth the praise of God to bee published vnto all posteritie. 22 The conuersion of the Gentiles, 28 And the stabilitie of the Church.

¶ A prayer [a] of the afflicted, when hee shall bee in distresse, and powre foorth his meditation before the Lord.

O Lord, heare my prayer, and let my [b] cry come vnto thee.
2 Hide not thy face from mee in the time of my trouble: incline thine eares vnto mee: when I call, make haste to heare me.
3 For my dayes are [c] consumed like smoke, and my bones are burnt like an herth.
4 Mine heart is smitten and withereth like grasse, because I forgate [d] to eate my bread.
5 For the voyce of my groning my bones doe cleaue to my skinne.
6 I am like a [e] pelicane of the wildernesse: I am like an owle of the deserts.
7 I watch and am as a sparrow alone vpon the house toppe.
8 Mine enemies reuile me dayly, and they that rage against me, haue [f] sworne against me.
9 Surely I haue [g] eaten asshes as bread, and mingled my drinke with weeping, 10 Because of thine [h] indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast heaued mee vp, and cast mee downe.
11 My dayes are like a shadow that fadeth, and I am withered like grasse.
12 But thou, O Lorde, doest [i] remaine for euer, and thy remembrance from generation to generation.
13 Thou wilt arise and haue mercy vpon Zion:
for the time to haue mercie thereon, for the [k] appointed time is come.
14 For thy seruants delite in the [l] stones thereof, and haue pitie on the dust thereof.
15 Then the heathen shall feare the Name of the Lord, and all the Kings of the earth thy glory, 16 When the Lorde shall builde vp Zion, and shall appeare [m] in his glory, 17 And shall turne vnto the prayer of the desolate, and not despise their prayer.
18 This shall be written for the generation to come: and the people, which shalbe [n] created, shall praise the Lord.
19 For he hath looked downe from the height of his Sanctuarie: out of the heauen did the Lorde beholde the earth, 20 That hee might heare the mourning of the prisoner, and deliuer the [o] children of death: 21 That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Zion, and his praise in Ierusalem, 22 When the people shalbe gathered [p] together, and the kingdomes to serue the Lord.
23 Hee [q] abated my strength in the way, and shortened my dayes.
24 And I said, O my God, take mee not away in the middes of my dayes: thy yeeres endure from generation to generation.
25 Thou hast aforetime layde the foundation of the earth, and the heauens are the worke of thine handes.
26 [r] They shall perish, but thou shalt endure:
euen they all shall waxe olde as doeth a garment:
as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed.
27 But thou art the same, and thy yeeres shall not faile.
28 The children of thy seruants shall continue,
and their seede shall stand [s] fast in thy sight.

a Whereby is signified, that albeit we be in neuer so great miseries, yet there is euer place left for prayer. b He declareth that in our prayer we must liuely feele that, which wee desire and stedfastly beleeue to obteine. c These excessiue kindes of speach shewe how much the affliction of the Church ought to wound the hearts of the godly. d My sorowes were so great, that I passed not for mine ordinarie foode. e Euer mourning and solitarie casting out fearefull cries. f Haue conspired my death.

g I haue not risen out of my mourning to take my refection. h He sheweth that the affliction did not onely thus mooue him, but chiefly the feeling of Gods displeasure. i Howsoeuer we be fraile: yet thy promes is sure and the remembrance thereof shall confirme vs for euer. k That is, the seuentie yeeres, which by the Prophet Ieremie thou diddest appoint, Iere. 29. 12. l The more that the Church is in miserie and desolation, the more ought the faithfull to loue & pitie it. m That is, when hee shall haue drawen his Church out of the darknes of death. n The deliuerance of the Church is a most excellent benefite, and therefore he compareth it to a new creation: for in their banishment the body of the Church seemed to haue bene dead, which by deliuerance was as it were created anewe. o Who now in their banishment could looke for nothing but death. p Hee sheweth that Gods Name is neuer more praysed, then when religion florisheth and the Church increaseth: which thing is chiefly accomplished vnder the kingdome of Christ. q The Church lament that they see not the time of Christ, which was promised, but haue but fewe yeeres and short dayes. r If heauen and earth perish, much more man shall perish: but the Church by reason of Gods promes endureth for euer. s Seeing thou hast chosen thy Church out of the worlde and ioyned it to thee, it cannot but continue for euer: for thou art euerlasting.

PSAL. CIII.

1 Hee prouoketh all to prayse the Lorde, which hath pardoned his sinnes, deliuered him from destruction, and giuen him sufficient of all good things. 10 Then hee addeth the tender mercies of God, which hee sheweth like a most tender Father towardes his children. 14 The frailtie of mans life. 20 An exhortation to man and Angels to praise the Lord.

¶ A Psalme of Dauid.

MY soule, [a] praise thou the Lorde, and all that is within me, praise his holy Name.
2 My soule, praise thou the Lorde, and forget not all his benefites.
3 Which [b] forgiueth all thine iniquitie, and healeth all thine infirmities.
4 Which redeemeth thy life from the [c] graue,
and crowneth thee with mercie and compassions.

a He wakeneth his dulnesse to praise God, shewing that both vnderstanding and affections, minde and heart are too litle to set foorth his praise. b This is the beginning and chiefest of all benefites: remission of sinne. c For before that wee haue remission of our sinnes, we are as dead men in the graue.

5 Which

5 Which satisfieth thy mouth w good things:
and thy d youth is renued like the eagles.
6 The Lord executeth righteousnes & iudge-ment to all that are oppressed.
7 Hee made his wayes knowen vnto e Moses, and his workes vnto the children of Israel.
8 The Lord is full of compassion and mercie, slowe to anger and of great kindnesse.
9 He will not alway f chide, neither keepe his anger for euer.
10 He hath not g dealt with vs after our sinnes, nor rewarded vs according to our iniquities.
11 For as high as the heauen is aboue y earth, so great is his mercie toward them that feare him.
12 As farre as h the East is from the West: so farre hath he remooued our sinnes from vs.
13 As a father hath compassion on his children, so hath the Lorde compassion on them that feare him.
14 For he knoweth whereof we be made: hee remembreth that we are but dust.
15 The dayes of i man are as grasse: as a flowre of the fielde, so florisheth he.
16 For the winde goeth ouer it, and it is gone, and the place thereof shall knowe it no more.
17 But the louing kindnesse of the Lord endu- reth for euer and euer vpon them that feare him, and his k righteousnes vpon childrens children, 18 Vnto them that keepe his l couenant, and thinke vpon his commandements to doe them.
19 The Lord hath prepared his throne in heauen, and his Kingdome ruleth ouer all.
20 Prayse the Lord, ye m his Angels, that excell in strength, that doe his commandement in obey-ing the voyce of his worde.
21 Prayse the Lord, all ye his hostes, ye his ser-uants that doe his pleasure.
22 Prayse the Lord, all ye his works, in all places of his dominion: my soule, prayse thou the Lorde.

d As the eagle, when her beake ouergroweth, sucketh blood, and so is renued in strength, euen so God miraculously giueth strength to his Church aboue all mans expectation.
e As to his chiefe minister and next to his people.
f He sheweth first his seuere iudgement, but so soone as the sinner is humbled, he receiueth him to mercie.
g We haue prooued by continuall experience, that his mercie hath euer preuailed against our offences.
h As great as the world is, so full is it of signes of Gods mercies toward his faithfull when he hath remoued their sinnes.
i He declareth that man hath nothing in himselfe to moue God to mercie, but onely the confession of his infirmitie and miserie.
k His iust and faithfull keeping of his promes.
l To whom hee giueth grace to feare him, and to obey his worde.
m In that that we, which naturally are slowe to prayse God, exhort the Angels, which willingly doe it, we stirre vp our selues to consider our duetie, and awake out of our sluggishnesse.

PSAL. CIIII.

1 An excellent Psalme to prayse God for the creation of the worlde, and the gouernance of the same by his marueilous prouidence, 35 Wherein the Prophet prayeth against the wicked, who are occasion that God diminished his blessings.

MY soule, prayse thou the Lord: O Lorde my God, thou art exceeding great, thou art a clothed with glorie and honour.
2 Which couereth himselfe with light as with a garment, and spreadeth the heauens like a cur-taine.
3 Which layeth the beames of his chambers in the waters, and maketh the cloudes his chariot, and walketh vpon the wings of the winde.
4 Which b maketh his spirits his messengers, and a flaming fire his ministers.
5 He set the earth vpon her foundations, so that it shall neuer moue.
6 Thou coueredst it with the c deepe as with a garment: the d waters woulde stand aboue the mountaines.
7 But at thy rebuke they flee: at the voyce of thy thunder they haste away.
8 And the mountaines ascend, and the valleis descend to the place which thou hast established for them.
9 But thou hast set them a bounde, which they shall not passe: they shall not returne to couer the earth.
10 Hee sendeth the springs into the valleis, which runne betweene the mountaines.
11 They shall giue drinke to all the e beasts of the fielde, and the wilde asses shall quench their thirst.
12 By these f springs shall the foules of the heauen dwell, and sing among the branches.
13 Hee watereth the mountaines from his g chambers, and the earth is filled with the fruite of thy workes.
14 Hee causeth grasse to growe for the cattell, and herbe for the vse of h man, that hee may bring forth bread out of the earth, 15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oyle to make the face to shine, and bread that strengtheneth mans heart.
16 The high trees are satisfied, euen the cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted, 17 That y birdes may make their nestes there:
the storke dwelleth in the firre trees.
18 The high mountaines are for the || goates:
the rockes are a refuge for the conies.
19 He appoynted the i moone for certaine seasons: k the sunne knoweth his going downe.
20 Thou makest darkenesse, and it is night, wherein all the beastes of the forest creepe forth.
21 The lions roare after their praye, and seeke their meate l at God.
22 When the sunne riseth, they retire, and couche in their dennes.
23 m Then goeth man forth to his worke, and to his labour vntill the euening.
24 O Lord, howe n manifolde are thy workes!
in wisdome hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.
25 So is this sea great and wide: for therein are things creeping innumerable, both small beastes and great.
26 There goe the shippes, yea, that ||Liuiathan, whom thou hast made to play therein.
27 o All these waite vpon thee, that thou maiest giue them foode in due season.
28 Thou giuest it to them, and they gather it:
thou openest thine hand, and they are filled with good things.
29 But if thou p hide thy face, they are troubled: if thou take away their breath, they dye and returne to their dust.
30 Againe if thou q send forth thy spirit, they are created, and thou renuest the face of the earth.
31 Glory be to the Lord for euer: let the Lord reioyce in his workes.
32 He looketh on the earth and it trembleth:
he toucheth the mountaines, and they r smoke.
33 I will sing vnto the Lord all my life: I will prayse my God, while I liue.
34 Let my wordes be acceptable vnto him: I will reioyce in the Lord.
35 Let the sinners bee f consumed out of the earth, and the wicked till there be no more: O my soule, prayse thou the Lord. Prayse ye the Lord.

a The Prophet sheweth that wee neede not to enter into the heauens to seeke God, for asmuch as all the order of nature, with the proprietie and placing of the elements, are most liuely mirrours to see his maiestie in.
b As the Prophet here sheweth that all visible powers are readie to serue God: so the Apostle to the Ebre. 1. 7. beholdeth in this glasse howe the very Angels also are obedient to his commaundement.
c Thou makest the sea to be an ornament vnto the earth.
d If by thy power thou diddest not bridle the rage of the waters, it were not possible, but the whole world should be destroyed.
e If God prouide for the very beasts, much more will he extende his prouident care to man.
f There is no part of the worlde so barren, where most euident signes of Gods blessings appeare not.
g From the cloudes.
h He describeth Gods prouident care ouer man, who doeth not onely prouide necessarie things for him, as herbes and other meate: but also things to reioyce and comfort him, as wine and oyle or ointments.
|| Or, does, rots, and such like.
i As to separate the night from the day, and to note dayes, moneths and yeeres.
k That is, by his course, either farre or neere, it noteth sommer, winter and other seasons.
l That is, they onely finde meate according to Gods prouidence, who careth euen for the brute beastes.
m To wit, when the day springeth: for the light is as it were a shielde to defende man against the tyrannie and fiercenesse of beastes.
n He confesseth that no tongue is able to expresse Gods workes, nor minde to comprehend them.
|| Or, whale.
o God is a most nourishing Father, who prouideth for all creatures their dayly foode.
p As by thy presence all things haue life: so, if thou withdrawe thy blessings, they all perish.
q As the death of creatures sheweth that we are nothing of our selues: so their generation declareth that we receiue all things of our Creator.
r Gods mercifull face giueth strength to the earth, but his seuere countenance burneth the mountaines.
f Who infect the worlde, and so cause God that hee cannot reioyce in his workes.

PSAL. CV.

1 Hee prayseth the singular grace of God, who hath of all the people of the worlde chosen a peculiar people to himselfe, and hauing chosen them, neuer ceaseth to doe them good, euen for his promes sake.

PRayse the Lord, and call vpon his Name: [a] declare his workes among the people.
2 Sing vnto him, sing prayse vnto him, and talke of all his wonderous workes.
3 Reioyce in his holy Name: let the heart of them that seeke the Lord, reioyce.
4 Seeke the Lord and his [b] strength: seeke his face continually.
5 Remember his [c] marueilous woorkes, that hee hath done, his wonders and the [d] iudgements of his mouth,
6 Yee seede of Abraham his seruant, ye children of Iaakob, which are his elect.
7 Hee is the Lorde our God: his iudgements are through all the earth.
8 He hath alway remembred his couenant &
promes, that he made to a thousand generations, 9 Euen that which he [e] made with Abraham, and his othe vnto Izhak:
10 And since hath confirmed it to Iaakob for a lawe, and to Israel for an euerlasting couenant, 11 Saying, [f] Vnto thee will I giue the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance.
12 Albeit they were fewe in nomber, yea, very fewe, and strangers in the land, 13 And walked about from nation to nation, from one kingdome to another people, 14 Yet suffered he no man to doe them wrong, but reprooued [g] Kings for their sakes, saying, 15 Touche not mine [h] anointed, and doe my [i] Prophets no harme.
16 Moreouer, he called a famine vpon ẏ land,
and vtterly brake the [k] staffe of bread.
17 But he sent a man before them: Ioseph was solde for a slaue.
18 They helde his feete in the stockes, and he was laide in yrons, 19 Vntill [l] his appointed time came, and the counsell of the Lord had tryed him.
20 The King sent and loosed him: euen the Ruler of the people deliuered him.
21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance,
22 That hee shoulde binde his [m] princes vnto his will, and teach his Ancients wisedome.
23 Then Israel came to Egypt, and Iaakob was a stranger in the land of Ham.
24 And he increased his people exceedingly, and made them stronger then their oppressours.
25 [n] He turned their heart to hate his people, and to deale craftily with his seruants.
26 Then sent he Moses his seruant, and Aaron whome he had chosen.
27 They shewed among them the message of his signes, and wonders in the land of Ham.
28 He sent darkenesse, and made it darke: and they were not [o] disobedient vnto his commission.
29 * Hee turned their waters into blood, and slewe their fish.
30 * Their land brought foorth frogs, euen in their Kings chambers.
31 He [p] spake, and there came swarmes of flies and lice in all their quarters.
32 Hee gaue them [q] haile for raine, and flames of fire in their land.
33 Hee smote their vines also and their figge trees, and brake downe the trees in their coastes.

a For as much as the Israelites were exempted from the common condemnation of the worlde, and were elected to be Gods people, the Prophet willeth them to shewe themselues mindfull by thankesgiuing.
b By the strength and face, he meaneth the Arke where God declared his power and his presence.
c Which he hath wrought in the deliuerance of his people.
d Because his power was thereby as liuely declared, as if he should haue declared it by mouth.
e The promes which God made to Abraham to be his God, and the God of his seede after him, he renued and repeated it againe to his seede after him.
f He sheweth that they should not enioy the land of Canaan by any other meanes, but by reason of his couenant made with their fathers.
g That is, the King of Egypt and the King of Gerar, Gene. 12.17 and 20.3.
h Those whome I haue sanctified to be my people.
i Meaning the old fathers, to whome God shewed him selfe plainely, and who were setters forth of his word.
k Either by sending scarcitie, or by taking away the strength and nourishment thereof.
l So long he suffered aduersitie as God had appointed, and till he had tryed sufficiently his patience.
m That the very princes of the countrey should be at Iosephs commandement and learne wisedome at him.
n So it is in God, either to mooue the heartes of the wicked to loue or to hate Gods children.
o Meaning, Moses and Aaron. *Exod. 7.20. * Exod. 8.6. p So that this vermine came not by fortune, but as God had appointed, and his Prophet Moses spake. q It was strange to see raine in Egypt, much more it was fearefull to see hayle.

34 [r] He spake and the grashoppers came, and caterpillers innumerable, 35 And did eate vp all the grasse in their land, and deuoured the fruite of their ground.
36 * Hee smote also all the first borne in their land, euen the beginning of all their strength.
37 He brought them forth also with siluer and golde, and there was [s] none feeble among their tribes.
38 Egypt was [t] glad at their departing: for the feare of them had fallen vpon them.
39 He spred a cloude to be a couering, and fire to giue light in the night.
40 They [u] asked, and he brought quailes, and he filled them with the bread of heauen.
41 He opened the rocke, and the waters flowed out, and ranne in the drye places like a riuer.
42 For he remembred his holy [x] promes to Abraham his seruant, 43 And he brought forth his people with [y] ioy,
and his chosen with gladnesse, 44 And gaue them the lands of the heathen, and they tooke the labours of the people in possession,
45 That they might [z] keepe his statutes, and obserue his Lawes. Prayse ye the Lord.

r He sheweth that all creatures are armed against man, when God is his enemie: as at his commandement the grashoppers destroyed the lande.
*Exod. 12.29.
s When their enemies felt Gods plagues, his children by his prouidence were exempted.
t For Gods plagues caused them rather to depart with the Israelites, then with their liues.
u Not for necessitie, but for satisfying of their lust.
x Which he confirmeth to the posteritie, in whome after a sort the dead liue and enioy the promises.
y When the Egyptians lamented and were destroyed. z This is the ende, why God preserueth his Church, because they should worship, and call vpon him in this worlde.

PSAL. CVI.

1 The people dispersed vnder Antiochus doe magnifie the goodnesse of God among the iust and repentant: 4 Desiring to bee brought againe into the lande by Gods mercifull visitation. 8 And after the manifolde marueiles of God wrought in their deliuerance foorth of Egypt, and the great ingratitude of the people rehearsed, 47 They doe pray and desire to be gathered from among the heathen, to the intent they may prayse the Name of the God of Israel.

¶ Prayse ye the Lord.

PRayse [a] ye the Lord because he is good, for his
mercie endureth for euer.
2 Who can expresse the noble actes of the Lord, or shewe forth all his prayse?
3 Blessed are they that [b] keepe iudgement, and doe righteousnesse at all times.
4 Remember me, O Lorde, with the [c] fauour of thy people: visite me with thy saluation, 5 That I may see the felicitie of thy chosen, and reioyce in the ioy of thy people, and glorie with thine inheritance.
6 We haue [d] sinned with our fathers: we haue committed iniquitie, and done wickedly.
7 Our fathers vnderstoode not thy wonders in Egypt, neither remembred they the multitude of thy mercies, but rebelled at the Sea, euen at the red Sea.
8 Neuerthelesse he [e] saued them for his Names sake, that he might make his power to be knowen.
9 And he rebuked the red Sea, and it was dry-ed vp, and he led them in the deepe, as in the wil-dernesse.
10 And he saued them from ẏ aduersaries hand, and deliuered them from the hand of the enemie.
11 *And the waters couered their oppressours:
not one of them was left.
12 Then [f] beleeued they his wordes, and sang prayse vnto him.
13 But incontinently they forgate his workes:
they waited not for his [g] counsell.

a The Prophet exhorteth the people to prayse God for his benefites past, that thereby their mindes may be strengthened against all present troubles and despaire.
b He sheweth that it is not ynough to prayse God with mouth, except the whole heart agree thereunto, and all our life be thereunto framed.
c Let the good will that thou bearest to thy people, extend vnto me, that thereby I may be receiued into the nomber of thine.
d By earnest confession aswell of their owne, as of their fathers sinnes, they shewe that they had hope that God according to his promes would pitie them. e The inestimable goodnesse of God appeareth in this, that hee woulde change the order of nature, rather then his people shoulde not be deliuered, although they were wicked. Exod. 14.27. f The wonderfull workes of God caused them to beleeue for a time, and to prayse him. g They would preuent his wisedome and prouidence.

14 But lusted with concupiscence in the wil-dernes,and tempted God in the desert.
15 Then he gaue them their desire: but he sent h leannesse into their soule.
16 They enuied Moses also in the tentes, and Aaron the holy one of the Lord.
17 Therefore the earth opened and i swallowed vp Dathan, and coueted the companie of Abiram.
18 And the fire was kindled in their assembly:
the flame burnt vp the wicked.
19 They made a calfe in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.
20 Thus they turned their k glory into the similitude of a bullocke,that eateth grasse.
21 They forgate God their Sauiour, which had done great things in Egypt, 22 Wonderous workes in the land of Ham, and fearefull things by the red Sea.
23 Therefore he minded to destroy them, had l not Moses his chosen stand in the breach before him to turne away his wrath, least he should destroy them.
24 Also they contemned that m pleasant land,
and beleeued not his worde, 25 But murmured in their tentes, and hearkened not vnto the voyce of the Lord.
26 Therefore n hee lifted vp his hand against them,to destroy them in the wildernesse, 27 And to destroy their seede among the nations,& to scatter them throughout the countries.
28 They ioyned themselues also vnto o Baalpeor,and did eate the offerings of the p dead.
29 Thus they q prouoked him vnto anger with their owne inuentions, and the plague brake in vpon them.
30 But r Phinehas stoode vp, and executed iudgement,and the plague was staied.
31 *And it was f imputed vnto him for righte-ousnesse from generation to generation for euer.
32 They angred him also at the waters of *Meribah, so that t Moses was punished for their sakes,
33 Because they vexed his spirite, so that hee spake vnaduisedly with his lippes.
34 Neither destroyed they the people, as the Lord had commaunded them, 35 But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their workes, 36 And serued their idoles, which were their ruine.
37 Yea, they offered their u sonnes, and their daughters vnto deuils, 38 And shed innocent blood, euen the blood of their sonnes,and of their daughters, whom they offered vnto the idoles of Canaan, and the lande was defiled with blood.
39 Thus were they stained with their owne workes, and went x a whoring with their owne inuentions.
40 Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people, and he abhorred his owne inheritance.
41 And hee gaue them into the hand of the heathen: and they that hated them, were lordes ouer them.
42 Their enemies also oppressed them, & they were humbled vnder their hand.

h The abundance ẏ God gaue them, profited not, but made them pine away,because God cursed it.
i By the greatnes of the punishment the hainous offence may be considered: for they that rise against Gods ministers, rebell against him.
k He sheweth that all idolaters renounce God to be their glorie, when in steade of him they worship any creature,much more wood, stone, metall or caloes.
l If Moses by his intercession had not obtained Gods fauour against their rebellions.
m That is, Canaan,which was as it were an earnest penie of the heauenly inheritance.
n That is, he fware.Sometime also it meaneth to punish.
o Which was the Idole of the Moabites.
p Sacrifices offered to the dead idoles, q Signifying, that whatsoeuer man innenteth of himselfe to serue God by, is detestable and prouoketh his anger.
r When all other neglected Gods glorie, he in his zeale killed the adulterers and preuented Gods wrath.
*Nom.25.12.
f This acte declared his liuely faith, and for his faithes sake was accepted.
*Nom.20.13. psal.95.8.
t If so notable a Prophet of God escape not punishment though others prouoked him to sinne, howe much more shall they be subiect to Gods iudgement, which cause Gods children to sinne?
u Hee sheweth howe monstrous a thing idolatrie is, which can winne vs to thinges abhorring to nature, where as Gods worde cannot obteine most small things. x Then true chastitie is to cleaue wholely and onely vnto God.

43 Many y a time did hee deliuer them, but they prouoked him by their counsels: therefore they were brought downe by their iniquitie.
44 Yet he sawe when they were in affliction, and he heard their crie.
45 And he remembred his couenant towarde them and z repented according to the multitude of his mercies, 46 And gaue them fauour in the sight of all them that led them captiues.
47 Saue vs,O Lorde our God, and a gather vs from among the heathen,that we may praise thine holy Name,and glorie in thy prayse.
48 Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel for euer and euer,and let all the people say, So be it. Praise ye the Lord.

y The Prophet sheweth that neither by menaces, nor promises we can come to God, except we be altogether newly reformed, and that his mercie ouercomer and hide our malice.
z Not that God is changeable in him selfe, but that then he seemeth to vs to repent,when he altereth his punishment, and forgiueth vs.
a Gather thy Church,which is dispersed, and giue vs constancie vnder the crosse, that with one consent we may all prayse thee.

PSAL. CVII.

1 The Prophet exhorteth all those that are redeemed by the Lorde, and gathered vnto him, to giue thankes. 9 For this mercifull prouidence of God, gouerning all things at his good pleasure, 20 Sending good and euill, prosperitie and aduersitie to bring men vnto him. 42 Therefore as the righteous thereat reioyce, so shall the wicked haue their mouthes stopped.

M

PRaise a the Lorde, because he is good: for his mercie endureth for euer.
2 Let them, b which haue bene redeemed of the Lord,shewe how he hath deliuered them from the hand of the oppressour, 3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the East and from the West, from the North and from the || South.
4 When they wandered in the desert and wil-dernesse out of the way, and founde no citie to dwell in,
5 c Both hungrie and thirstie, their soule fainted in them.
6 Then they cryed vnto the Lorde in their trouble,& he deliuered them from their distresse, 7 And led them forth by the right way, that they might goe to a citie of habitation.
8 Let them therefore confesse before the Lord
his louing kindnesse, and his wonderfull workes
before the sonnes of men.
9 For he satisfied the thirstie soule, and filled the hungrie soule with goodnesse.
10 They that dwell in darkenesse and in the shadowe of death, being bounde in miserie and yron,
11 Because they d rebelled against the wordes of the Lorde, and despised the counsell of the most High,
12 When he humbled their heart with heauines, then they fell downe and there was no helper.
13 Then they e cryed vnto the Lorde in their trouble, & he deliuered them from their distresse.
14 He brought them out of darkenes, and out of the shadowe of death, and brake their bandes asunder.
15 Let them therefore cōfesse before the Lord
his louing kindnesse, and his wonderfull workes
before the sonnes of men.
16 For he hath broken the f gates of brasse, and brast the barres of yron asunder.
17 g Fooles by reason of their transgression, a This notable sentence was in the beginning vsed,as the foote or tenour of the song, which was oftentimes repeated.

b As this was true in the Iewes,so is there none of Gods elect, that feele not his helpe in their necessitie.
|| Or, from the sea: meaning the red sea, which is on the South part of the land.
c Hee sheweth that there is none affliction so grieuous, out of the which God will not deliuer his, and also exhorteth them that are deliuered, to be mindefull of so great a benefite. d Then the true way to obey God, is to followe his expresse commandement: also hereby all are exhorted to descende into them selues, forasmuch as none are punished,but for their sinnes.
e Hee sheweth that the cause why God dooth punish vs extremely, is because we can be brought vnto him by none other meanes.
f When there seemeth to man iudgement no recouerie, but all things are brought to despaire, then God chiefely sheweth his mightie powers. g They that haue no feare of God, by his sharpe roddes are brought to call vpon him, and so finde mercie.

and

and because of their iniquities are afflicted.
18 Their soule abhorreth all meate, and they are brought to deaths doore.
19 Then they crie vnto the Lord in their trouble, and he deliuereth them from their distresse.
20 [h] He sendeth his worde and healeth them,
and deliuereth them from their [i] graues.
21 Let them therefore confesse before the Lord his louing kindnesse, and his wonderfull workes before the sonnes of men, 22 And let them offer sacrifices of [k] praise, and declare his workes with reioycing.
23 They that goe downe to the [l] sea in ships, and occupie by the great waters, 24 They see the workes of the Lorde, and his wonders in the deepe.
25 For he commaundeth and raiseth the stormie winde, and it lifteth vp the waues thereof.
26 They mount vp to the heauen, and descend to the deepe, so ẏ their soule [m] melteth for trouble.
27 They are tossed to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and all their [n] cunning is gone.
28 Then they crie vnto the Lord in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresse.
29 He turneth the storme to calme, so that the waues thereof are still.
30 When they are [o] quieted, they are glad, and he bringeth them vnto the hauen, where they would be.
31 Let them therefore confesse before the Lord
his louing kindnesse, and his wonderfull workes
before the sonnes of men.
32 And let them exalt him in the [p] Congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the Elders.
33 He turneth the floodes into a wildernesse, and the springs of waters into drinesse, 34 And a fruitfull land into ‖ barennes for the wickednes of them that dwell therein.
35 Againe he [q] turneth the wildernesse into pooles of water, and the drie lande into water springs.
36 And there he placeth the hungrie, and they build a citie to dwell in, 37 And sowe the fieldes, and plant vineyards, which bring foorth fruitfull [r] increase.
38 For he blesseth them, & they multiplie exceedingly, and he diminisheth not their cattell.
39 [s] Againe men are diminished, and brought lowe by oppresion, euill and sorowe.
40 He powreth [t] contempt vpon princes, & causeth them to erre in desert places out of the way.
41 Yet he raiseth vp the poore out of miserie, and maketh him families like a flocke of sheepe.
42 The [u] righteous shall see it, and reioyce, and all iniquitie shall stoppe her mouth.
43 Who is wise that hee may obserue these things? for they shall vnderstand the louing kind-nesse of the Lord.

h By healing them hee declareth his good will toward them.
i Meaning their diseases, which had almost brought them to the graue and corruption.
k Praise and confession of Gods benefites are the true sacrifices of the godly.
l He sheweth by the sea what care God hath ouer man, for in that that he deliuereth them from the great dangers of the sea, he deliuereth them, as it were from a thousand deathes.
m Their feare and danger is so great.
n When their arte and meanes faile them, they are cōpelled to confesse that onely Gods prouidence doeth preserue them.
o Though before euery drop seemed to fight one against another, yet at his commandement they are as still, as though they were frosen.
p This great benefite ought not onely to be considered particularly, but magnified in all places and assemblies.
‖ Or, saltnesse.
q For the loue that he beareth to his Church he changeth the order of nature for their commoditie.
r Continuall increase and yeerely.
s As God by his prouidence doeth exalt men, so doth he also humble them by afflictions to knowe them selues.
t For their wickednes & tyrannie he causeth the people and subiects to contemne them.
u They, whose faith is lightened by Gods Spirite, shall reioyce to see Gods iudgements against the wicked and vngodly.

PSAL. CVIII.

This Psalme is composed of two other Psalmes before, the seuen and fiftieth and the sixtieth. The matter here conteined is, 1 That Dauid giueth him selfe with heart and voyce to prayse the Lorde, 7 And assureth himselfe of the promes of God concerning his kingdome ouer Israel, and his power against other nations: 11 Who though he seeme to forsake vs for a time, yet he alone will in the ende cast downe our enemies.

¶ A song or Psalme of Dauid.

O God, mine heart is [a] prepared, so is ‖ my tongue: I will sing and giue praise.
2 Awake viole and harpe: I will awake early.
3 I will praise thee, O Lord, among the [b] people, and I will sing vnto thee among the nations.
4 For thy mercy is great aboue the heauens, and thy trueth vnto the cloudes.
5 [c] Exalt thy selfe, O God, aboue the heauens, and let thy glory be vpon all the earth, 6 That thy beloued may be deliuered: [d] helpe with thy right hand and heare me.
7 God hath spoken in his [e] holinesse: therefore I will reioyce, I shall deuide Shechem and measure the valley of Succoth.
8 Gilead shalbe mine, and Manasseh shalbe mine: Ephraim also shalbe the strength of mine head: Iuda is my lawgiuer.
9 * Moab shalbe my washpot: ouer Edom will I cast out my shoe: vpon Palestina wil I triumph.
10 Who will leade me into the strong citie?
who will bring me vnto Edom?
11 [f] Wilt not thou, O God, which haddest forsaken vs, and diddest not goe foorth, O God, with our armies?
12 Giue vs helpe against trouble: for vaine is the helpe of man.
13 Through God we shall doe valiantly: for he shall treade downe our enemies.

a This earnest affection declareth that hee is free from hypocrisie, and that sluggishnesse stayeth him not. ‖ Or, my glory, because it chiefly setteth foorth the glory of God.
b He prophecieth of ẏ calling of the Gentiles: for except they were called, they could not heare the goodnesse of God.
c Let all the world see thy iudgements, in that that thou art God ouer all, and so confesse that thou art glorious.
d When God by his benefites maketh vs partakers of his mercies, he admonisheth vs to be earnest in prayer, to desire him to continue and finish his graces.
e As he hath spoken to Samuel concerning me, so will he shew him selfe constant, and holy in his promes, so that these nations folowing of this Psalme vnto shall be subiect vnto me. Psal. 60.8. f From the sixt verse the last, reade the exposition in the lx. Psalme, and sixt verse.

PSAL. CIX.

1 Dauid being falsly accused by flatterers vnto Saul, prayeth God to helpe him and to destroy his enemies. 8 And vnder them hee speaketh of Iudas the traitour vnto Iesus Christ, and of all the like enemies of the children of God: 27 And desireth so to be deliuered, that his enemies may knowe the worke to be of God. 30 Then doeth hee promise to giue prayses vnto God.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of Dauid.

HOlde not thy tongue, O God of my [a] prayse.
2 For the mouth of the wicked, and the mouth full of deceite are opened vpon me: they haue spoken to me with a lying tongue.
3 They compassed me about also with wordes of hatred, and fought against me without a cause.
4 For my friendship they were mine aduersaries, [b] but I gaue my selfe to prayer.
5 And they haue rewarded me euill for good,
and hatred for my friendship.
6 [c] Set thou the wicked ouer him, and let the aduersarie stand at his right hand.
7 When he shalbe iudged, let him be condemned, and let his [d] prayer be turned into sinne.
8 Let his dayes be fewe, and let another take his [e] charge.
9 Let his children be fatherlesse, and his wife a widowe.
10 Let his children be vagabonds and beg and seeke bread, comming out of their places destroyed.
11 Let [f] the extortioner catch all that he hath,
and let the strangers spoile his labour.
12 Let there be none to extende mercie vnto him: neither let there be any to shewe mercie vp-on his fatherlesse children.
13 Let his posteritie be destroyed, and in the generation following let their name be put out.
14 [g] Let the iniquitie of his fathers be had in remembrance with the Lord: and let not the sinne of his mother be done away.
15 But let them alway be before the Lorde, that he may cut off their memorial from the earth.

a Though all the world condemne me, yet thou wilt approue mine innocencie, and that is a sufficient praise to me.
b To declare that I had none other refuge, but thee, in whom my conscience was at rest.
c Whether it were Doeg or Saul, or some familiar friend that had betraied him, he praieth not of priuate affection, but moued by gods Spirit, that God would take vengeance vpon him.
d As to the elect all things turne to their profite: so to the reprobate euē those things, that are good, turne to their damnation.
e This was chiefly accomplished in Iudas, Actes 1.20.
f He declareth that the curse of God lieth vpon the extortioners, who thinking to enrich their children by their vnlawfull gotten goodes, are by God's iust iudgement depriued of all. g Thus punisheth the Lorde to the thirde and fourth generation the wickednesse of the parents in their wicked children.

26 Because

16 Because h hee remembred not to shew mercie, but persecuted the afflicted and poore man, and the sorowfull hearted to slay him.
17 As he loued cursing, i so shall it come vnto him, and as hee loued not blessing, so shall it bee farre from him.
18 As hee clothed himselfe with cursing like a rayment, so shall it come into his bowels like water, and like oyle into his bones.
19 Let it bee vnto him as a garment to couer him, and for a girdle wherewith hee shalbe alway girded.
20 Let this be the rewarde of mine aduersarie k from the Lord, and of them, that speake euill against my soule.
21 But thou, O Lorde my God, deale with me according vnto thy l Name: deliuer me, (for thy mercie is good)
22 Because I am poore and needie, and mine heart is wounded within me.
23 I depart like the shadowe that declineth, and am shaken off as the m grashopper.
24 My knees are weake through fasting, and my flesh n hath lost all fatnes.
25 I became also a rebuke vnto them: they that looked vpon me, shaked their heads.
26 Helpe me, O Lorde my God: o saue me according to thy mercie.
27 And they shall know, that this is thine hand, and that thou, Lord, hast done it.
28 Though they p curse, yet thou wilt blesse:
they shall arise & be confounded, but thy seruant shall reioyce.
29 Let mine aduersaries be clothed with shame, and let them couer themselues with their confusion, as with a cloke.
30 I will giue thankes vnto the Lorde greatly with my q mouth & praise him among ye multitude.
31 For hee will stand at the right hand of the poore, to saue him from them that woulde r condemne his soule.

h Hee sheweth that God accustometh to plague them after a strange sort that shewe themselues cruell towards other.
i That giueth the Lorde to euery man the thing, wherein he deliteth, that the reprobate cannot accuse God of wrong, when they are giuen vp to their lustes and reprobate mindes.
k For being destitute of mans helpe, he fully trusted in the Lorde, that hee would deliuer him.
l As thou art named mercifull, gracious and long suffering, so shewe thy selfe in effect.
m Meaning, that he hath no staye nor assurance in this worlde.
n For hunger, that came of sorowe, he was leane, and his naturall moisture failed him.
o The more grieuous that Satan assayled him, the more earnest and instant was he in prayer.
p They shal gaine nothing by cursing me.
q Not onely in confessing it secretly in my selfe, but also in declaring it before all the Congregation.
r Hereby he sheweth that he had not to doe with them, that were of litle power, but with the iudges and princes of the worlde.

PSAL. CX.

1 David prophecieth of the power and euerlasting kingdome gi-uen to Christ, 4 And of his Priesthood, which should put an ende to the Priesthood of Leui.

¶ A Psalme of David.

THE a Lord said vnto my Lorde, Sit thou at my right hand, vntill I make thine enemies thy footestoole.
2 The Lorde shall send the rod of thy power out of b Zion: be thou ruler in the middes of thine enemies.
3 Thy people shall come willingly at the time of assembling c thine armie in holy beautie: the youth of thy wombe shalbe as the morning dewe.
4 The Lord sware & will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer after ye order of d Melchi-zedek.
5 The Lorde, that is at thy right hand, shall wound Kings in the day of his wrath.
6 Hee shalbe iudge among the heathen: he shall fill all with dead bodies, and smite the e head ouer great countreis.
7 He shall f drinke of the brooke in the way:
therefore shall he lift vp his head.

a Iesus Christ in the two and twentie of Matth. verse 44. giueth the interpretation hereof, and sheweth that this cannot properly be applied vnto David, but to himselfe.
b And thence it shall stretche through all the world: and this power chiefely standeth in the preaching of his worde.
c By thy word thy people shalbe assembled into thy Church, whose increase shalbe so abundant and wonderful, as the drops of the dewe.
d As Melchi-zedek the figure of Christ was both King and Priest: so the effect cannot be accomplished in any King saue onely in Christ. 1. Chron. 16 21.
e No power shalbe able to resist him.
f Vnder this similitude of a captaine, that is so greedie to destroy his enemies, that he will not scarce drinke by the way, he sheweth howe God will destroy his enemies.

PSAL. CXI.

1 He giueth thankes to the Lord for his mercifull workes toward his Church, 10 And declareth what is true wisedome and right knowledge thereof.

¶ Prayse ye the Lord.

I Will a prayse the Lorde with my whole heart in the assemblie and Congregation of the iust.
2 The workes of the Lorde are b great, and ought to be sought out of al them that loue them.
3 His worke is beautifull and glorious, and his righteousnesse endureth for euer.
4 He hath made his wonderfull workes to be had in remembrance: the Lorde is mercifull and full of compassion.
5 He hath giuen c a ‖ portion vnto them that feare him: he will euer be mindfull of his couenant.
6 He hath shewed to his people the power of his workes in giuing vnto them the heritage of the heathen.
7 The d workes of his handes are trueth and iudgement: all his statutes are true.
8 They are stablished for euer and euer, and are done in trueth and equitie.
9 He sent redemption vnto his people: hee hath commanded his couenant for euer: holy and fearefull is his Name.
10 e The beginning of wisedome is the feare of the Lorde: all they that obserue f them, haue good vnderstanding: his praise endureth for euer.

a The Prophet declareth that he will prayse God both priuately and openly, and that from the heart, as he that consecrateth himselfe wholy and onely vnto God.
b Hee sheweth that Gods workes are a sufficient cause, wherefore we should prayse him, but chiefely his benefites toward his Church.
c God hath giuen to his people all that was necessarie for them, and will doe still euen for his couenants sake: and in this sense the Ebrewe worde is taken, Pro. 30.8. & 31.15. ‖ Or, pray, and foode.
d As God promised to take the care of his Church: so in effect doth he declare himselfe iust and true in the gouernement of the same.
e They only are wise, that feare God, and none haue vnderstanding, but they that obey his word.
f To wit, his commandements, as verse 7.

PSAL. CXII.

1 Hee prayseth the felicitie of them that feare God, 10 And condemneth the cursed state of the contemners of God.

¶ Prayse ye the Lord.

BLessed is the man, that a feareth the Lorde, and deliteth greatly in his commandements.
2 His seede shall be mightie vpon earth: the generation of the righteous shall be blessed.
3 b Riches and treasures shalbe in his house,
and his righteousnesse endureth for euer.
4 Vnto the c righteous ariseth light in darkenes: he is mercifull & ful of copassion & righteous.
5 A good man is merciful and d lendeth, and will measure his affaires by iudgement.
6 Surely hee shall neuer bee moued: but the righteous shalbe had in euerlasting remembrance.
7 He will not bee afraide of euill tidings: for his heart is fixed, and beleeueth in the Lord.
8 His heart is stablished: therefore he will not feare, vntill he see his desire vpon his enemies.
9 He hath e distributed and giuen to ye poore:
his righteousnesse remaineth for euer: his f horne shalbe exalted with glory.
10 The wicked shall see it and bee angrie: hee shall gnash with his teeth, and g consume away: the desire of the wicked shall perish.

a He meaneth that reuerent feare, which is in the children of God, which causeth them to delite onely in the worde of God.
b The godly shall haue abundance and contentment, because their heart is satisfied in God onely.
c The faithfull in all their aduersities knowe that all shall goe well with them: for God will be mercifull and iust.
d He sheweth what is the fruite of mercie: to lend freely and not for gaine, and so to measure his doings, that he may be able to helpe where neede requireth, and not to bestow all on himselfe.
e The godly pinche not nigardly, but distribute liberally, as the necessitie of the poore requireth, and as his power is able.
f His power and prosperous estate.
g The blessings of God vpon his children shall cause the wicked to die for enuie.

PSAL. CXIII.

1 An exhortation to prayse the Lorde for his prouidence, 7 In that that contrary to the course of nature he worketh in his Church.

¶ Prayse ye the Lord.

PRayse, O ye seruants of the Lorde, a prayse the Name of the Lorde.
2 Blessed bee the Name of the Lorde from hencefoorth and for euer.
3 The Lordes Name is praysed from the rising of ye sunne, vnto the going downe of the same.

a By this often repetition he stirreth vp our colde dulnesse to prayse God, seeing his workes are so wonderfull, and that we are created for the same cause.

4 The

4 The Lorde is high aboue all b nations, and his glorie aboue the heauens.
5 Who is like vnto the Lorde our God, that hath his dwelling on high!
6 Who abaseth himselfe to beholde things in the heauen and in the earth!
7 Hee raiseth the needie out of the dust, and lifteth vp the c poore out of the dung, 8 That he may set him with the princes, euen with the princes of his people.
9 He maketh the barren woman to dwel with a familie, and a ioyfull mother of children. Prayse ye the Lord.

b If Gods glorie shine through all the worlde, and therefore of all oughte to be praysed, what great condemnation were it to his people, among whom chiefely it shineth, if they shoulde not earnestly extoll his Name?
c By preferring the poore to high honour, and giuing the baren children, he sheweth that God worketh not onely in his Church by ordinarie meanes, but also by miracles.

PSAL. CXIIII.

1 Howe the Israelites were deliuered foorth of Egypt, and of the wonderfull miracles that GOD wrought at that time. Which put vs in remembrance of Gods great mercy toward his Church, who, when the course of nature fayleth, preserueth his miraculously.

WHen * Israel went out of Egypt, and the house of Iaakob from the a barbarous
people,
2 Iudah was b his sanctification, and Israel his dominion.
3 The Sea sawe it and fled: Iorden was turned backe.
4 The c mountaines leaped like rams, and the hils as lambes.
5 What ailed thee, O Sea, that thou fleddest?
O Iorden, why wast thou turned backe?
6 Yee mountaines why leaped yee like rams, and ye hils as lambes?
7 The d earth trembled at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Iaakob, 8 Which e turneth the rocke into water-pooles, and the flint into a fountaine of water.

* Exod. 13. 3.
a That is, from them that were of a strange language.
b The whole people were witnesses of his holy maiestie, in adopting them, and of his mightie power in deliuering them.
c Seeing that these dead creatures felt Gods power, and after a sort sawe it, much more his people ought to consider it and glorifie him for the same.
d Ought then his people to be insensible, when they see his power and maiestie?
e That is, caused miraculously water to come out of the rocke in most abundance, Exod. 17. 6.

PSAL. CXV.

1 A prayer of the faithfull oppressed by idolatrous tyrants, against whome they desire that God would succour them. 9 Trusting most constantly that God will preserue them in this their neede, seeing that hee hath adopted and receiued them to his fauour, 18 Promising finally that they will not bee vnmindfull of so great a benefite, if it would please God to heare their prayer, and deliuer them by his omnipotent power.

NOt a vnto vs, O Lorde, not vnto vs, but vnto thy Name giue the glorie, for thy louing mermercie and for thy truethes sake.
2 Wherefore shall the heathen say, b Where is nowe their God?
3 But our God is in heauen: he doeth what so euer he c will.
4 Their idoles are d siluer and golde, euen the worke of mens hands.
5 They haue a mouth and speake not: they haue eyes and see not.
6 They haue eares and heare not: they haue noses and smell not:
7 They haue e handes and touche not: they haue feete and walke not: neither make they a sound with their throte.
8 They that make them are f like vnto them:
so are all that trust in them.
9 O Israel, trust thou in the Lorde; for hee is their helpe and their shielde.
10 g O house of Aaron, trust ye in the Lord: for he is their helpe and their shielde.
11 Ye that feare the Lorde, trust in the Lord:
for he is their helper and their shield.
12 The Lord hath bene mindfull of vs: he will blesse, hee h will blesse the house of Israel, he will blesse the house of Aaron.
13 He will blesse them that feare the Lorde, both small and great.
14 The Lorde will increase his graces towarde you, euen toward you and toward your children.
15 Ye are blessed of the Lorde, which i made the heauen and the earth.
16 The k heauens, euen the heauens are the Lords: but he hath giuen the earth to the sonnes of men.
17 The dead prayse not the Lord, neither any that l goe downe into the place of silence.
18 But we will prayse the Lorde from henceforth and for euer. Prayse ye the Lord.

a Because God promised to deliuer them, not for their sakes, but for his name. Isa. 48. 11, therefore they grounde their prayer vpon this promes.
b When the wicked see that God accomplisheth not his promes as they imagine, they thinke there is no God.
c No impedimets can let his worke, but he vseth euen the impediments to serue his will.
d Seeing that neither the matter, nor the forme can condemne the idoles, it followeth that there is nothing, why they shoulde be esteemed.
e Hee sheweth what great vanitie is to aske helpe of them, which not onely haue no helpe in them, but lacke sense and reason.
f As much without sense, as blocks and stones.
g For they were appointed by God as instructers and teachers of faith and religion for others to followe.
h That is, he will continue his graces towards his people.
i And therefore doeth still gouerne and continue all things therein.
k And they declare ynough his sufficiencie, so that the worlde serueth him nothing but to shewe his fatherly care towards men.
l Though the dead set foorth Gods glory, yet he meaneth here, that they prayse him not in his Church and Congregation.

PSAL. CXVI.

1 David being in great danger of Saul in the desert of Maon, perceiuing the great and inestimable loue of God toward him, magnifieth such great mercies, 13 And protesteth that he will be thankefull for the same.

M

I a Loue the Lorde, because he hath heard my voyce and my prayers.
2 For he hath inclined his eare vnto me, when I did call vpon him b in my dayes.
3 When the snares of death cōpassed me, and the griefes of the graue caught me: when I founde trouble and sorowe,
4 Then I called vpon the Name of the Lord, saying, I beseech thee, O Lord, deliuer my soule.
5 The Lorde is c mercifull and righteous, and our God is full of compassion.
6 The Lorde preserueth the simple: I was in miserie and he saued me.
7 Returne vnto thy rest, O d my soule: for the Lord hath bene beneficiall vnto thee.
8 Because thou hast deliuered my soule from death, mine eyes from teares, and my feete from falling.
9 I shall e walke before the Lord in the lande
of the liuing.
10 f I beleeued, therefore did I speake: for I was sore troubled.
11 I said in my g feare, All men are lyers.
12 What shall I render vnto the Lorde for all his benefites toward me?
13 I will h take the cup of saluation, and call vpon the Name of the Lord.
14 I will pay my vowes vnto the Lorde, euen
nowe in the presence of all his people.
15 Precious in the sight of the Lorde is the i death of his Saintes.
16 Beholde, Lord; for I am thy seruant, I am thy seruant, and the sonne of thine handmaide:
thou hast broken my bondes.
17 I will offer to thee a sacrifice of prayse, and will call vpon the Name of the Lord.
18 I will pay my k vowes vnto the Lorde, euen
nowe in the presence of all his people, 19 In the courtes of ye Lords house, euen in the middes of thee, O Ierusalem. Praise ye the Lord.

a He graunteth that no pleasure is so great, as to feele Gods helpe in our necessitie, neither that any thing more stirreth vp our loue towards him.
b That is, in conuenient time to seeke helpe, which was when he was in distresse.
c He sheweth foorth the fruites of his loue in calling vpon him, confessing him to be iust and mercifull, and to helpe them that are destitute of aide and counsell.
d Which was vnquieted before, nowe rest vpon the Lord, for he hath bene beneficiall towardes thee.
e The Lord will preserue me, and saue my life.
f I felt all these things, and therefore was moued by faith to confesse them, 2. Cor. 4. 13.
g In my great distresse I thought God would not regard man, which is but lies and vanitie, yet I ouercame this tentation, and felt the contrarie.
h In the Law they vsed to make a banket, when they gaue solemne thankes to God, and to take the cuppe and drinke in signe of thankesgiuing.
i I perceiue that God hath a care ouer his, so that he both disposeth their death, and taketh an account.
k I will thanke him for his benefites, that is a iust payment, to confesse that we owe all to God.

PSAL. CXVII.

1 He exhorteth the Gentiles to prayse God, because he hath accomplished aswell to them as to the Iewes, the promes of life euerlasting by Iesus Christ.

ALL [a] nations, praise ye the Lord: all ye people, praise him.

2 For his louing kindnes is great toward vs, and the [a] trueth of the Lorde endureth for euer. Praise ye the Lord.

*Rom.15.11.

PSAL. CXVIII.

1 Dauid reiected of Saul and of the people, at the time appointed obteined the kingdome. 4 For the which he biddeth all them, that feare the Lorde, to be thankefull. And, vnder his person in all this was Christ liuely set foorth, who shoulde be of his people reiected.

PRaise [a] ye the Lorde, because he is good: for his mercie endureth for euer.

2 Let Israel now say, That his mercy endureth for euer.

3 Let the house of Aaron nowe say, That his mercy endureth for euer.

4 Let them that feare the Lorde, nowe say, That his mercy endureth for euer.

5 I called vpon the Lord in [b] trouble, & the Lord heard me, and set me at large.

6 The Lorde is with me: therefore I will not feare what [c] man can doe vnto me.

7 The Lorde is with me among them that helpe me: therefore shall I see my desire vpon mine enemies.

8 It is better to trust in the Lord, then to haue confidence [d] in man.

9 It is better to trust in the Lorde, then to haue confidence in princes.

10 All nations haue compassed me: but in the Name of the Lord shall I destroy them.

11 They haue compassed me, yea, they haue compassed me: but in the Name of the Lorde I shall destroy them.

12 They came about me like bees, but they were quenched as a fire of thornes: for in the Name of the Lord I shall destroy them.

13 [e] Thou hast thrust sore at me, that I might fall: but the Lord hath holpen me.

14 The Lord is my strength and [f] song: for he hath bene my deliuerance.

15 The [g] voyce of ioy and deliuerance shall be in the tabernacles of the righteous, saying, The right hand of the Lord hath done valiantly.

16 The right hand of the Lord is exalted: [h] the right hand of the Lord hath done valiantly.

17 I shall not die, but liue, and declare the workes of the Lord.

18 The Lorde hath chastened me sore, but he hath not deliuered me to death.

19 Open ye vnto me the [i] gates of righteousnes, that I may goe into them, & praise the Lord.

20 This is the gate of the Lord: the righteous shall enter into it.

21 I will praise thee: for thou hast heard me, and hast bene my deliuerance.

22 *The stone, which the builders [k] refused, is the head of the corner.

23 This was the Lordes doing, and it is marueilous in our eyes.

24 This is the [l] day, which the Lord hath made: let vs reioyce and be glad in it.

a Because God by creating Dauid King, shewed his mercie toward his afflicted Church, the Prophet doeth not onely himselfe thanke God, but exhorteth all the people to doe the same.

b Wee are here taught, y^e the more that troubles oppresse vs, the more ought we to be instant in prayer.

c Being exalted to this estate, he assured himselfe to haue man euer to be his enemie. Yet he doubted not, but God woulde maintaine him, because he had placed him.

d He sheweth that he had trusted in vaine, if he had put his confidence in man, to haue bene preferred to the kingdome, and therefore he put his trust in God and obteined.

e He noteth Saul his chiefe enemie.

f In that he was deliuered, it came not of himself, nor of the power of man, but onely of Gods fauour, therefore he will praise him.

g He promiseth both to render graces himselfe, and to cause others to doe the same, because that in his person the Church was restored.

h So that all, that are both farre and neere, may see his mightie power.

i He willeth the doores of the Tabernacle to be opened, that he may declare his thankefull minde.

1 The Prophet exhorteth the children of God to frame their liues according to his holy worde. 123 Also hee sheweth wherein the true seruice of God standeth: that is, when we serue him according to his worde, and not after our owne fantasies.

ALEPH.

BLessed are [a] those that are vpright in their way, and walke in the Lawe of the Lord.

2 Blessed are they that keepe his testimonies, and seeke him with their whole heart.

3 Surely they worke [b] none iniquitie, but walke in his wayes.

4 Thou hast commaunded to keepe thy precepts diligently.

5 [c] Oh that my wayes were directed to keepe thy statutes!

6 Then should I not be confounded, when I haue respect vnto all thy commaundements.

7 I will praise thee with an vpright [d] heart, when I shall learne the [e] iudgements of thy righteousnesse.

8 I will keepe thy statutes: forsake mee not [f] ouerlong.

a Here they are not called blessed, which thinke themselues wise in their owne iudgement, nor which imagine to themselues a certaine holinesse, but they whose conuersation is without hypocrisie.

b For they are ruled by Gods Spirite and imbrace no doctrine but his.

c Dauid acknowledgeth his imperfection, desiring God to reforme it, that his life may be conformable to Gods worde. d For true religion standeth in seruing God without hypocrisie. e That is, thy precepts, which conteine perfite righteousnesse. f He refuseth not to be tryed by tentations, but he feareth to faint, if God succour not his infirmitie in time.

BETH.

9 Wherewith shall a [a] yong man redresse his way? in taking heede thereto according to thy worde.

10 With my whole heart haue I sought thee: let me not wander from thy commandements.

11 I haue [b] hid thy promes in mine heart, that I might not sinne against thee.

12 Blessed art thou, O Lorde: teache me thy statutes.

13 With my lippes haue I declared all the iudgements of thy mouth.

14 I haue had as great [c] delight in the way of thy testimonies, as in all riches.

15 I will meditate in thy precepts, and consider thy wayes.

16 I will delite in thy statutes, and I will not forget thy worde.

a Because youth is most giuen to licentiousnesse, he chiefly warneth them to frame their liues betimes to Gods worde.

b If Gods worde be grauen in our hearts, we shall be more able to resist the assaultes of Satan: and therefore the Prophet desireth God to instruct him dayly more and more therein.

c The Prophet doeth not boast of his vertues, but setteth foorth an example for others to followe Gods worde and leaue worldly vanities.

GIMEL.

17 Be beneficiall vnto thy seruant, that I may [a] liue and keepe thy worde.

18 Open mine eyes, that I may see the wonders of thy Lawe.

19 I am a [b] stranger vpon earth: hide not thy commandements from me.

20 Mine heart breaketh for the desire to thy iudgements alway.

a Hee sheweth that we ought not to desire to liue but to serue God, and that we can not serue him aright, except he open our eyes and mindes.

b Seeing mans life in this worlde is but a passage, what shoulde become of him if thy worde were not his guide?

21 Thou ᶜ hast destroyed the proude: cursed are they that doe erre from thy commandements.
22 Remoue from me shame and contempt:
for I haue kept thy testimonies.
23 ᵈ Princes also did sit, and speake against me:
but thy seruant did meditate in thy statutes.
24 Also thy testimonies are my delite, and my counsellers.

c In all ages thou hast plagued all such, which maliciously and contemptuously depart from thy trueth.
d When the powers of the worlde gaue false sentence against me, thy worde was a guide and counsellet to teache me what to doe, and to comfort me.

DALETH.

25 My soule cleaueth to the ᵃ dust: quicken me according to thy worde.
26 I haue ᵇdeclared my wayes, and thou heardest me: teache me thy statutes.
27 Make me to vnderstand the way of thy precepts,
& I will meditate in thy wondrous workes.
28 My soule melteth for heauinesse: raise me vp according vnto thy ᶜ worde.
29 Take from me the ᵈ way of lying, & graunt me graciously thy Lawe.
30 I haue chosen the way of trueth, and thy iudgements haue I laied before me.
31 I haue cleaued to thy testimonies, O Lord:
confound me not.
32 I will runne the way of thy commaundements, when thou ᵉ shalt enlarge mine heart.

a That is, it is almost brought to the graue, & without thy worde I cannot liue.
b I haue confessed mine offences, and nowe depend wholy on thee.
c If God did not mainteine vs by his worde, our life would drop away like water.
d Instruct me in thy word, whereby my minde may be purged from vanitie, and taught to obey thy will.
e By this hee sheweth that wee can neither chuse good, cleaue to Gods worde, nor runne forwarde in his way, except hee make our hearts large to receiue his grace, and willing to obey.

HE.

33 Teach ᵃ me, O Lorde, the way of thy statutes, and I will keepe it vnto the ende.
34 Giue me vnderstanding, and I will keepe thy Law: yea, I will keepe it with my whole ᵇ heart.
35 Direct me in the path of thy commaundements:
for therein is my delite.
36 Incline mine heart vnto thy testimonies, and not to ᶜ couetousnesse.
37 Turne away mine ᵈ eyes from regarding vanitie, and quicken me in thy way.
38 Stablish thy promes to thy seruant, because he feareth thee.
39 Take away ᵉ my rebuke that I feare: for thy iudgements are good.
40 Beholde, I desire thy commaundements:
ᶠ quicken me in thy righteousnesse.

a He sheweth that he cannot followe on to the ende, except God teache him oft times, and leade him forward.
b Not onely in outward conuersation, but also with inward affection.
c Hereby meaning all other vices, because that couetousnes is the roote of all euill.
d Meaning, all his senses.
e Let me not fall to thy dishonour, but let mine heart still delite in thy gracious worde.
f Giue me strength to continue in thy worde euen to the ende.

VAV.

41 And let thy ᵃ louing kindnesse come vnto me, O Lorde, and thy saluation according to thy promesse.
42 So shall I ᵇ make answere vnto my blasphemers:
for I trust in thy word.
43 And take not the worde of trueth vtterly out of my mouth: for I waite for thy iudgements.
44 So shall I alway keepe thy Lawe for euer
and euer.
45 And I will ᶜ walke at libertie: for I seeke thy precepts.
46 I will speake also of thy testimonies before ᵈ Kings, and will not be ashamed.
47 And my delite shalbe in thy commaundements, which I haue loued.
48 Mine handes also will I lift vp vnto thy commaundements, which I haue loued, and I will meditate in thy statutes.

a Hee sheweth that Gods mercie and loue is the first cause of our saluation.
b By trusting in Gods worde he assureth himselfe to be able to confute the slaunders of his aduersaries.
c They, that simplie walke after Gods worde, haue no let [illegible] as they that doe otherwise, are euer in [illegible] and feare. d He sheweth that the children of God ought not to suffer their fathers glorie to be obscured by the vaine pompe of Princes.

ZAIN.

49 Remember ᵃ the promesse made to thy seruant, wherein thou hast caused me to trust.
50 It is my comfort in my trouble: for thy promes hath quickened me.
51 The ᵇ proude haue had me exceedingly in derision: yet haue I not declined from thy Lawe.
52 I remembred thy ᶜ iudgements of olde, O
Lord, and haue bene comforted.
53 ᵈ Feare is come vpon me for the wicked, that forsake thy Lawe.
54 Thy statutes haue beene my songes in the house of my ᵉ pilgrimage.
55 I haue remembred thy Name, O Lorde, in the ᶠ night, and haue kept thy Lawe.
56 ᵍ This I had because I kept thy precepts.

a Though hee feele Gods hand still to lie vpon him, yet he resteth on his promes, and comforteth himselfe therein.
b Meaning, the wicked, which contemne Gods worde, and treade his religion vnder foote.
c That is, the examples, whereby thou declarest thy selfe to be iudge of the world.
d That is, a vehement zeale to thy glory, and indignation against the wicked.
e In the course of this life and sorowfull exile.
f Euen when other sleepe.
g That is, all these benefites.

CHETH.

57 O Lorde, that art my ᵃ portion, I haue determined to keepe thy wordes.
58 I made my supplication in thy presence with my whole heart: be mercifull vnto me according to thy promes.
59 I haue considered my ᵇ wayes, and turned my feete into thy testimonies.
60 I made haste and delayed not to keepe thy commaundements.
61 The bandes of the wicked haue ᶜ robbed me: but I haue not forgotten thy Lawe.
62 At midnight will I rise to giue thankes vnto thee, because of thy righteous iudgements.
63 I am ᵈ companion of all them that feare thee, and keepe thy precepts.
64 The earth, O Lorde, is full of thy mercie:
ᵉ teache me thy statutes.

a I am persuaded that to keepe thy Law is an heritage and great gaine for me.
b He sheweth that none can imbrace the word of God, except he consider his owne imperfections and wants.
c They haue gone about to drawe me into their companie.
d Not onely in mutuall consent, but also with aide and succour.
e For the knowledge of Gods word is a singular token of his fauour.

TETH.

65 O Lorde, thou hast delt ᵃ graciously with thy seruant according vnto thy worde.
66 Teach me good iudgement & knowledge:
for I haue beleeued thy commandements.
67 Before I was ᵇ afflicted, I went astray: but nowe I keepe thy word.
68 Thou art good and gracious: teache me thy statutes.
69 The proud haue imagined a lie against me:
but I will keepe thy precepts with my whole heart.
70 ᶜ Their heart is fatte as grease: but my delite is in thy Lawe.
71 It is ᵈ good for me that I haue beene afflicted, that I may learne thy statutes.
72 The Lawe of thy mouth is better vnto me, then thousands of gold and siluer.

a Hauing proued by experience that God was true in his promesse, he desireth that hee would increase in him knowledge and iudgement.
b So Ieremie sayeth, that before the Lord touched him, hee was like a calfe vntamed: so that the vse of Gods rodde is to call vs home to God.
c Their heart is indurate and hardened, puffed vp with prosperitie and vaine estimation of themselues.
d Hee confesseth that before that hee was chastened, he was rebellious, as man by nature is.

IOD.

73 Thine handes haue ᵃ made me and facioned me: giue me vnderstanding therefore, that I may learne thy commandements.
74 So they that ᵇ feare thee, seeing me shall reioyce, because I haue trusted in thy word.
75 I knowe, O Lorde, that thy iudgements are right, and that thou hast afflicted me † iustly.
76 I pray thee that thy mercie may comfort me according to thy promes vnto thy seruant.
77 Let thy tender mercies come vnto me, that I may ᶜ liue: for thy Lawe is my delite.
78 Let the proude be ashamed: for they haue

a Because God leaueth not his worke, that he hath begun, he desireth a newe grace: that is, that he would continue his mercies.
b When God sheweth his grace toward any, he testifieth to others that he faileth not them that trust in him.
† Ebr. in trueth.
c He declareth, that when he felt not Gods mercies, he was as dead.

dealt wickedly and falsely with me: but I meditate in thy precepts.
79 Let such as feare thee [d] turne vnto me, and they that [e] know thy testimonies.
80 Let mine heart bee vpright in thy statutes, that I be not ashamed.

11 · CAPH.

81 My soule [a] fainteth for thy saluation: yet I wait for thy word.
82 Mine eyes faile for thy promes, saying, when wilt thou comfort me?
83 For I am like a [b] bottle in the smoke: yet doe I not forget thy statutes.
84 Howe many are the [c] dayes of thy seruant?
When wilt thou execute iudgement on them that persecute me?
85 The proude haue [d] digged pittes for mee, which is not after thy Law.
86 All thy commaundements are true: they persecute me falsely: [e] helpe me.
87 They had almost consumed [f] me vpon the earth: but I forsooke not thy precepts.
88 Quicken me according to thy louing kindnes:
so shall I keepe the testimonie of thy mouth.

d That is, be comforted by mine example.
e He sheweth that there can bee no true feare of God without the knowledge of his word.
a Though my strength faile me, yet my soule groneth and fighteth, resting still in thy word.
b Like a skinne bottle or bladder that is parched in the smoke.
c How long wilt thou afflict thy seruant?
d They haue not onely oppressed me violently, but also craftily conspired against me.
e He assureth himselfe, that God will deliuer his and destroy such as vniustly persecute them.
f Finding no helpe in earth, he lifteth vp his eyes to heauen.

12 · LAMED.

89 O Lorde, thy worde endureth for euer in a heauen.
90 Thy trueth is from generation to generation:
thou hast layed the foundation of the earth, and it abideth.
91 They [b] continue euen to this day by thine ordinances: for all are thy seruants.
92 Except thy Law had bin my delite, I should now haue perished in mine affliction.
93 I will neuer forget thy precepts: for by them thou hast quickened me.
94 I am [c] thine, saue me: for I haue sought thy precepts.
95 The wicked haue waited for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies.
96 I [d] haue seene an ende of all perfection: but thy commandement is exceeding large.

a Because none should esteeme Gods word according to the changes of thinges in this worlde, hee sheweth that it abideth in heauen, and therefore is immutable.
b Seeing the earth and all creatures remaine in that estate, wherein thou hast created them, much more thy worde remaineth constant and vnchangeable.
c He proueth by effect, that hee is Gods childe, because he seeketh to vnderstand his word.
d There is nothing so perfect in earth, but it hath an end: onely Gods word lasteth for euer.

13 · MEM.

97 Oh howe loue I thy Law! [a] it is my meditation continually.
98 By thy commandementes thou hast made mee wiser then mine enemies: for they are euer with mee.
99 I haue had more [b] vnderstanding then al my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation.
100 I vnderstoode more then the ancient, because I kept thy precepts.
101 I haue refrained my feet from euery euill way, that I might keepe thy word.
102 I haue not declined from thy iudgements:
for [c] thou didst teach me.
103 Howe sweete are thy promises vnto my mouth! yea, more then hony vnto my mouth.
104 By thy precepts I haue gotten vnderstanding:
therefore I hate all the wayes of falshoode.

a He sheweth that we cannot loue Gods word except we exercise our selues therein and practise it.
b Whosoeuer doth submit himselfe only to Gods worde, shall not onely be safe against the practises of his enemies, but also learne more wisedome, then they that professe it, and are men of experience.
c So then of our selues we can do nothing, but when God doth inwardly instruct vs with his Spirit, we feele his graces sweeter then hony.

14 · NVN.

105 Thy word is a [a] lanterne vnto my feet, and a light vnto my path.
106 I haue [b] sworne and will performe it, that I will keepe thy righteous iudgements.
107 I am very sore afflicted: O Lord, quicken me according to thy word.
108 O Lorde, I beseech thee accept the [c] free offerings of my mouth, and teach mee thy iudgements.
109 My [d] soule is continually in mine hande:
yet doe I not forget thy Law.
110 The wicked haue layed a snare for mee:
but I swarued not from thy precepts.
111 Thy testimonies haue I taken as an [e] heritage for euer: for they are the ioy of mine heart.
112 I haue applied mine heart to fulfill thy statutes alway, euen vnto the end.

a Of our selues we are but darkenes, and cannot see, except we be lightened with Gods word.
b So all the faithfull ought to binde themselues to God by a solemne othe and promes, to stirre vp their zeale to imbrace Gods word.
c That is, my prayers & thanksgiuing, which sacrifice Hosea calleth the calues of the lippes, Chap. 14. vers. 3. d That is, I am in continuall danger of my life.
e I esteemed no worldly things, but made thy word mine inheritance.

15 · SAMECH.

113 I hate [a] vaine inuentions: but thy Lawe doe I loue.
114 Thou art my refuge and shield, and I trust in thy word.
115 [b] Away from me, yee wicked: for I will keepe the commandements of my God.
116 Stablish me according to thy promes, that I may liue, and disappoint me not of mine hope.
117 [c] Stay thou mee, and I shall be safe, and I will delite continually in thy statutes.
118 Thou hast troden downe all them that depart from thy statutes: for their [d] deceit is vaine.
119 Thou hast taken away all the wicked of the earth like [e] drosse: therefore I loue thy testimonies.
120 My flesh [f] trembleth for feare of thee, and I am afraid of thy iudgements.

a Whosoeuer will imbrace Gods word aright, must abhorre all fantasies and imaginations both of himselfe and others.
b And hinder mee not to keepe the Law of the Lord.
c Hee desireth Gods continuall assistance least he should faint in this race, when he had begun.
d The craftie practises of them that contemne thy Lawe, shall bee brought to nought.
e Which infected thy people, as drosse doeth the mettall.
f Thy iudgements do not onely teach me obedience, but cause me to feare, considering mine owne weakenesse, which feare causeth repentance.

16 · AIN.

121 I haue executed iudgement and iustice:
leaue me not to mine oppressours.
122 [a] Answere for thy seruant in that, which is good, and let not the proud oppresse me.
123 Mine eyes haue failed in waiting for thy saluation, and for thy iust promes.
124 Deale with thy [b] seruant according to thy mercie, and teach me thy statutes.
125 I am thy seruant: graunt mee therefore vnderstanding, that I may knowe thy testimonies.
126 It is [c] time for thee Lorde to worke: for they haue destroyed thy Law.
127 Therefore loue I thy commaundementes aboue golde, yea, aboue most fine golde.
128 Therefore I esteeme all thy precepts most iust, and hate all false [d] wayes.

a Put thy selfe betweene mine enemies and me, as if thou were my pledge.
b He boasteth not that hee is Gods seruant, but hereby putteth God in minde, that as he made him his by his grace, so he would continue his fauour toward him.
c The Prophet sheweth that when the wicked haue brought all things to confusion, and Gods word to vtter contempt, then is it Gods time to helpe and send remedie.
d That is, whatsoeuer dissenteth from the puritie of thy word.

17 · PE.

129 Thy testimonies are [a] wonderfull: therefore doth my soule keepe them.
130 The entrance into thy [b] wordes sheweth light, and giueth vnderstanding to the simple.
131 I opened my mouth and [c] panted, because I loued thy commandements.
132 Looke vpon mee and bee mercifull vnto me, as thou vsest to doe vnto those that loue thy Name.
133 Direct my steppes in thy worde, and let none iniquitie haue dominion ouer me.
134 Deliuer mee from the oppression of men, and I will keepe thy precepts.
135 Shew the light of thy countenance vpon thy seruant, and teach me thy statutes.

a Containing high and secret mysteries, so that I am moued with admiration and reuerence.
b The simple idiots, that submit themselues to God, haue their eyes opened, and their mindes illuminated so soone as they begin to reade Gods word.
c My zeale toward thy word was so great.

136 Mine eyes gush d out with riuers of water, because they keepe not thy Lawe.

d Hee sheweth what ought to be the zeale of Gods children, when they see his word contemned.

18 · Tsaddi.

137 Righteous art thou, O Lorde, and iust are thy iudgements.
138 Thou hast commaunded a iustice by thy testimonies and trueth especially.
139 *My zeale hath euen consumed mee: because mine enemies haue forgotten thy words.
140 Thy word is proued b most pure, and thy seruant loueth it.
141 I am c smal and despised: yet do I not forget thy precepts.
142 Thy righteousnesse is an euerlasting righteousnesse, and thy Law is trueth.
143 Trouble and anguish are come vpon me:
yet are thy commandements my delite.
144 The righteousnes of thy testimonies is euerlasting: grant me vnderstanding, and I shall d liue.

a We cannot confesse God to be righteous, except we liue vprightly and truely, as hee hath commanded.
*Psal.69.9. iohn 2.17.
b Golde hath need to be fined, but thy word is perfection it selfe.
c This is the true trial, to praise God in aduersitie.

a He accuseth mans ingratitude, which cannot depend on Gods power.
b He sheweth that Gods prouidence not only watcheth ouer his Church in generall, but also ouer euery member thereof.
c Neither heat nor colde, nor any incommoditie shalbe able to destroy Gods Church, albeit for a time they may molest it.

7 The

d Whatsoeuer thou doest enterprise, shall haue good successe.

7 The Lorde shall preserue thee from all euil: he shall keepe thy soule.

8 The Lorde shall preserue thy [d] going out, and the comming in from henceforth & for euer.

PSAL. CXXII.

1 David reioyceth in the name of the faithfull, that God hath accomplished his promes, and placed his Arke in Zion. 5 For the which he giueth thankes, 8 And prayeth for the prosperitie of the Church.

¶ A song of degrees, or Psalme of Dauid.

1.Chro.29.9.

a He reioyceth that God had appointed a place, where the Arke should still remaine.

b Which were wont to wander to and fro, as the Arke remoued.

c By the artificiall ioyning and beautie of the houses, he meaneth the concorde, and loue that was betweene the citizens.

d All the Tribes according to Gods couenant shall come and pray there.

I [*] [a] Reioyced, when they sayd to me, We wil go into the house of the Lorde.

2 Our [b] feete shall stand in thy gates, O Ierusalem.

3 Ierusalem is builded as a citie, that is [c] compact together in it selfe:

4 Whereunto [d] the Tribes, euen the Tribes of the Lord go vp according to the testimonie to Israel, to prayse the name of the Lorde.

5 For there are thrones set for iudgement, euen the thrones of the house of [e] Dauid.

6 Pray for the peace of Ierusalem: let them prosper that loue thee.

7 Peace bee within thy [f] walles, and prosperitie within thy palaces.

8 For my [g] brethren and neighbours sakes I will wish thee now prosperitie.

9 Because of the House of the Lord our God, I will procure thy wealth.

e In whose house God placed the throne of Iustice, and made it a figure of Christes kingdome. f The fauour of God prosper thee both within and without. g Not onely for mine owne sake, but for all the faithfull.

PSAL. CXXIII.

1 A prayer of the faithfull, which were afflicted either in Babylon or vnder Antiochus by the wicked worldlings and contemners of God.

¶ A song of degrees.

a He compareth the condition of the godly to seruants that are destitute of all helpe, affirming that when all other helpes faile, God is euer at hand and like himselfe.

b He declareth that when the faithfull are so full, that they can no more endure the oppressions, and scornings of the wicked, there is alway helpe aboue, if with hungry desires they call for it.

I Lift vp mine eyes to thee, that dwellest in the heauens.

2 Behold, as the eyes of [a] seruants looke vnto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a mayden vnto the hand of her mistres: so our eyes waite vpon the Lord our God vntil he haue mercie vpon vs.

3 Haue mercie vpon vs, O Lorde, haue mercie vpon vs: for we haue [b] suffered too much contempt.

4 Our soule is filled too full of the mocking of the wealthy, & of the despitefulnes of the proude.

PSAL. CXXIIII.

1 The people of God, escaping a great perill, doe acknowledge themselues to be deliuered, not by their owne force, but by the power of God. 4 They declare the greatnesse of the perill, 6 And prayse the Name of God.

¶ A song of degrees, or Psalme of Dauid.

a He sheweth that God was ready to helpe at neede, and ÿ there was none other way to be saued, but by his onely meanes.

b So vnable were we to resist.

c He vseth most proper similitudes to expresse ÿ great danger that the Church was in, and out of the which God miraculously deliuered them.

IF the Lord had not [a] bene on our side, (may Israel now say)

2 If the Lord had not bene on our side, when men rose vp against vs,

3 They had then swallowed vs vp [b] quicke, when their wrath was kindled against vs,

4 Then the [c] waters had drowned vs, and the streame had gone ouer our soule,

5 Then had the swelling waters gone ouer our soule.

6 Praysed be the Lorde, which hath not giuen vs as a praye vnto their teeth.

7 Our soule is escaped, euen as a bird out of the [d] snare of the foulers: the snare is broken, and we are deliuered.

8 Our helpe is in the Name of the Lorde, which hath made heauen and earth.

d For the wicked did not onely furiously rage against ÿ faithful, but craftily imagined to destroy them.

PSAL. CXXV.

1 He describeth the assurance of the faithfull in their afflictions, 4 And desireth their wealth, 5 And the destruction of the wicked.

¶ A song of degrees.

THey that trust in the Lord, shalbe as mount Zion, which can not be [a] remooued, but remaineth for euer.

2 As the mountaines are about Ierusalem: so is the Lord about his people from henceforth and for euer.

3 For the [b] rod of the wicked shall not rest on the lot of the righteous, least the righteous put forth their hand vnto wickednes.

4 Doe well, O Lord, vnto those that be good and true in their hearts.

5 [c] But these that turne aside by their crooked wayes, them shal ÿ Lord leade with the workers of iniquitie: but peace shalbe vpon Israel.

a Though the world be subiect to mutations, yet the people of God shal stand sure and be defended by Gods prouidence. b Though God suffer his to be vnder the crosse, least they should imbrace wickednes, yet this crosse shall not so rest vpon them, that it should driue them from hope.

c Hee desireth God to purge his Church from hypocrites and such as haue no zeale of the trueth.

PSAL. CXXVI.

1 This Psalme was made after the returne of the people from Babylon, and sheweth that the meane of their deliuerance was wonderfull after the seuentie yeeres of captiuitie forespoken by Ieremie chap.25.12. and 29.10.

¶ A song of degrees, or Psalme of Dauid.

WHen the Lord brought againe ÿ captiuitie of Zion, we were like them ÿ [a] dreame.

2 Then was our mouth [b] filled wth laughter, and our tongue with ioy: then sayd they among the [c] heathen, The Lorde hath done great things for them.

3 The Lorde hath done great thinges for vs, whereof we reioyce.

4 O Lord, bring againe our captiuitie, as the [d] riuers in the South.

5 They that sowe in teares, shall reape in ioy.

6 They went weeping and caryed [e] precious seede: but they shall returne with ioye and bring their sheaues.

a Their deliuerance was as a thing incredible, & therefore took away all excuse of ingratitude. b Hee sheweth how the godly ought to reioyce, when God gathereth his Church or deliuereth it. c If the infidels confesse Gods wonderful worke, the faithfull can neuer shew them selues sufficiently thankefull. d It is no more impossible to God to deliuer his people, then to cause the riuers to runne in the wildernes and barren places. e That is, seede which was scarce and deare: meaning, that they which trusted in Gods promes to returne, had their desire.

PSAL. CXXVII.

1 He sheweth that the whole estate of the world, both domesticall and politicall standeth by Gods meere prouidence & blessing, 3 And that to haue children well nurtred, is an especiall grace and gift of God.

¶ A song of degrees, or Psalme of Salomon.

EXcept the Lord [a] build the house, they labour in vaine that build it: except the Lord keepe the [b] citie, the keeper watcheth in vaine.

2 It is in vaine for [c] you to rise earely, and to lie downe late, and eate the bread [d] of sorow: but he will surely giue [e] rest to his beloued.

3 Beholde, children are the inheritance of the Lord, and the fruite of the wombe his rewarde.

4 As are the arrowes in the hand of the strong man: so are the [f] children of youth.

5 Blessed is the man, that hath his quiuer full of them: for they [g] shall not be ashamed, when they speake with their enemies in the gate.

a That is, gouerne and dispose all things perteining to the familie. b The publique estate of the common wealth. c Which watch and warde, and are also magistrates, and rulers of the citie. d Either that, which is gotten by hard labour, or eaten with griefe of minde. e Not exempting them from labour, but making their labours comfortable, and as it were a rest. f That is, indued with strength and vertues from God: for these are signes of Gods blessings, and not the nomber. g Such children shall be able to stoppe their aduersaries mouthes, when their godly life is maliciously accused before Iudges.

PSAL. CXXVIII.

1 He sheweth that blessednes appertaineth not to all vniuersally, but to them onely that feare the Lorde, and walke in his wayes.

¶ A song of degrees.

BLessed is euery one that feareth the Lorde and walketh in his [a] wayes.
2 When thou eatest the labours of thine
[b] hands, thou shalt be blessed, and it shall be well with thee.
3 Thy wife shalbe as the fruitfull vine on the sides of thine house, and thy [c] children like the oliue plantes round about thy table.
4 Lo, surely thus shall the man be blessed, that feareth the Lord.
5 The Lord out of Zion shall [d] blesse thee, and thou shalt see the wealth of [e] Ierusalem all the dayes of thy life.
6 Yea, thou shalt see thy childrens children, and peace vpon Israel.

a God approoueth not our life except it be reformed, according to his worde.
b The worlde esteemeth them happie, which liue in wealth & idlenes: but the holy Ghost approoueth them best, that liue of the meane profite of their labours.
c Because Gods fauour appeareth in none outward thing, more then in increase of children, he promiseth to enrich the faithful with this gift. d Because of the spirituall blessing, which God hath made to his Church, these temporall things shall be graunted. e For except God blessed his Church publikely, this priuate blessing were nothing.

PSAL. CXXIX.

1 He admonisheth the Church to reioyce though it be afflicted. 4 For by the righteous Lorde it shall be deliuered. 6 And the enemies for all their glorious shewe, shall suddenly be destroyed.

¶ A song of degrees.

THey haue often times afflicted me from my youth (may [a] Israel nowe say) 2 They haue often times afflicted me from my youth: but they could not preuaile against me.
3 The plowers plowed vpon my backe, and made long furrowes.
4 But the [b] righteous Lord hath cut the cords of the wicked.
5 They that hate Zion, shalbe all ashamed and turned backward.
6 [c] They shalbe as the grasse on the house tops, which withereth afore it commeth forth.
7 Whereof the mower filleth not his hand, neither the glainer his lap:
8 [d] Neither they, which go by, say, The blessing of the Lord be vpon you, or, We blesse you in the Name of the Lord.

a The Church nowe afflicted ought to remember, how her condition hath euer bene such from the beginning: to be molested most grieuously by the wicked: yet in time it hath euer bene deliuered.
b Because God is righteous, he can not but plague his aduersaries, and deliuer his, as oxen out of the plough.
c The enemies that lift themselues most high, and as it were approche neere to the sunne, are consumed with the heate of Gods wrath, because they are not grounded in godly humilitie. d That is, the wicked shall perish and none shall passe for them.

PSAL. CXXX.

1 The people of God from their bottomles miseries doe cry vnto God, and are heard. 3 They confesse their sinnes and flee vnto Gods mercie.

¶ A song of degrees.

OVt of the [a] deepe places haue I called vnto thee, O Lord.
2 Lorde, heare my voyce: let thine eares attend to the voyce of my prayers.
3 If thou, O Lord, straightly markest iniquities, O Lord, [b] who shall stand?
4 But mercy is with thee, that thou [c] mayest be feared.
5 I haue waited on the Lorde: my soule hath waited, and I haue trusted in his worde.
6 My soule waiteth on the Lorde more then the morning watch watcheth for the morning.
7 Let Israel waite on the Lorde: for with the Lorde is [d] mercie, and with him is great redemption.
8 And hee shall redeeme Israel from all his in-iquities.

a Being in great distresse & sorow.
b He declareth that we can not be iust before God, but by forgiuenes of sinnes.
c Because of nature thou art mercifull: therefore the faithfull reuerence thee.
d He sheweth to whome the mercie of God doeth apperteine: to Israel, that is, to the Church and not to the reprobate.

PSAL. CXXXI.

1 Dauid charged with ambition and greedy desire to reigne, protesteth his humilitie and modestie before God, and teacheth all men what they should doe.

¶ A song of degrees or Psalme of Dauid.

LOrde, [a] mine heart is not hautie, neither are mine eyes loftie, neither haue I walked in great [b] matters and hid from me.
2 Surely I haue behaued my selfe, like one wained from his mother, and kept silence: I am in my selfe as one that is [c] wained.
3 Let Israel waite on the Lorde from hence-foorth and for euer.

a He setteth forth his great humilitie, as an example to all rulers and gouernours.
b Which passe the measure & limits of his vocation.
c He was voyde of ambition and wicked desires.

M

PSAL. CXXXII.

1 The faithfull grounding on Gods promes made vnto Dauid, desire that he would establish the same, both as touching his posteritie and the buildings of the Temple, to pray there as was forespoken, Deut. 12. 5.

¶ A song of degrees.

LOrd, remember Dauid with all his [a] affliction.
2 Who sware vnto the Lorde, and vowed vnto the mightie God of Iaakob, saying, 3 I [b] will not enter into the Tabernacle of mine house, nor come vpon my pallet or bed, 4 Nor suffer mine eyes to sleepe, nor mine eye lids to slumber.
5 Vntill I finde out a place for the [c] Lorde, an habitation for the mightie God of Iaakob.
6 Lo, we heard of it in [d] Ephrathah, and found it in the fieldes of the forest.
7 We wil enter into his Tabernacles, and worship before his footestoole.
8 Arise, O Lord, to come into thy [e] rest, thou, and the Arke of thy strength.
9 Let thy Priests be clothed with [f] righteous-nesse, and let thy Saints reioyce.
10 For thy [g] seruant Dauids sake refuse not the face of thine Anointed.
11 The Lord hath sworne in trueth vnto Da-uid, and he will not shrinke from it, saying, Of the fruite of thy body will I set vpon thy throne.
12 If thy sonnes keepe my couenant, and my testimonies, that I shall teach them, their sonnes also shall sit vpon thy throne for [h] euer.
13 For the Lord hath chosen Zion, and loued to dwell in it, saying, 14 This is my rest for euer: here will I dwell, for I haue a [i] delight therein.
15 I will surely blesse her vitailes, and will sa-tisfie her poore with bread, 16 And will clothe her Priestes with [k] saluation, and her Saints shall shoute for ioy.
17 There will I make the [l] horne of Dauid to bud: for I haue ordeined a light for mine An-oynted.
18 His enemies will I clothe with shame, but on him his crowne shall florish.

a That is, with howe great difficultie hee came to the Kingdome, and with howe great zeale & care he went about to buide thy Temple.
b Because the chiefe charge of the King was to set forth Gods glory, he sheweth, that he could take no rest, neither would goe about any worldly thing, were it neuer so necessarie, before he had executed his office.
c That is, ẏ Arke, which was a signe of Gods presence.
d The common brute was that the Arke should remaine in Ephrathah: that is, in Beth-lehem a plentifull place but after we perceiued that thou wouldest place it in Ierusalem, which was barren as a forest & compassed about onely with hilles.
e That is, Ierusalem, because that afterward his Arke shoulde remoue to none other place.
f Let the effect of thy grace both appeare in the Priests and in the people.
g As thou first madest promes to Dauid, so continue it to his posteritie, that whatsoeuer they shall aske for their people, it may be graunted. h Because this cannot be accomplished but in Christ, it followeth that the promes was spirituall. i Meaning, for his owne sake, and not for the plentifulnes of the place: for he promiseth to blesse it, declaring before, that it was barren. k That is, with my protection, whereby they shalbe safe. l Though his force for a time seemed to be broken, yet he promiseth to restore it.

PSAL. CXXXIII.

1 This Psalme conteineth the commendation of brotherly amitie among the seruants of God.

¶ A song of degrees or Psalme of Dauid.

BEholde, howe good and howe comely a thing it is, brethren to dwell euen [a] together.

a Because ẏ greatest part were against Dauid, though some fauoured him, yet when he was established King, at length they ioyned all together like brethren: and therefore he sheweth by these similitudes the commoditie of brotherly loue.

2 It is

2 It is like to the precious [b] oyntment vpon the head, that runneth downe vpon the beard, euen vnto Aarons beard, which went downe on the border of his garments:

3 And as the dew of [c] Hermon, which falleth vpon the mountaines of Zion: for [d] there the Lord appointed the blessing and life for euer.

b The oyntment was a figure of the graces, which come from Christ the head vnto his Church.
c By Hermon and Zion he meaneth the plentifull countrey about Ierusalem. d Where there is such concorde.

PSAL. CXXXIIII.

1 Hee exhorteth the Leuites watching in the Temple, to praise the Lord.

A song of degrees.

BEholde, praise ye the Lorde, all ye [a] seruants of the Lord, ye that by night stande in the house of the Lord.

2 Lift vp your [b] hands to the Sanctuarie, and praise the Lord.

3 The Lorde, that hath [c] made heauen and earth, blesse thee out of Zion.

a Ye that are Leuites and chiefly appointed to this office.
b For their charge was not onely to keepe the Temple, but to pray there and to giue God thankes. c And therefore hath all power, blesse thee with his Fatherly loue declared in Zion. Thus the Leuites vsed to praise the Lord, and blesse the people.

PSAL. CXXXV.

1 He exhorteth all the faithfull, of what estate so euer they bee, to praise God for his maruellous workes, 12 And specially for his graces toward his people, wherein he hath declared his maiestie, 15 To the confusion of all Idolators and their idoles.

Praise ye the Lord.

PRaise the Name of the Lorde: ye seruants of the Lord, praise him.

2 Ye that stande in the [a] House of the Lord, and in the [b] courtes of the House of our God.

3 Praise ye the Lord: for the Lorde is good: sing praises vnto his Name: for it is a comely thing.

4 For the Lord hath [c] chosen Iaakob to himselfe, and Israel for his chiefe treasure.

5 For I know that the Lord is great, and that our Lord is aboue all gods.

6 Whatsoeuer pleased the Lorde, that [d] did hee in heauen and in earth, in the sea, and in all the depths.

7 He bringeth vp the cloudes frō the ends of the earth, & maketh the * lightnings with ÿ raine: he draweth foorth the winde out of his treasures.

8 * He smote the first borne of Egypt both of man and beast.

9 He hath sent tokens and wonders into the middes of thee, O Egypt, vpon Pharaoh, and vpon all his seruants.

10 *He smote many nations, and slew mightie Kings:

11 As Sihon King of the Amorites, and Og King of Bashan, & all the kingdomes of Canaan:

12 And [e] gaue their lande for an inheritance, euen an inheritance vnto Israel his people.

13 Thy Name, O Lorde, endureth for euer: O Lorde, thy remembrance is from generation to generation.

14 For the Lord will [f] iudge his people, and be pacified towardes his seruants.

15 The [g] idoles of the heathen are siluer and golde, euen the worke of mens handes.

16 They haue a mouth, and speake not: they haue eyes and see not.

17 They haue eares and heare not, neither is there any breath in their mouth.

18 They that make them, are like vnto them: so are all that trust in them.

19 Praise the Lord, ye house of Israel: praise the Lord, ye house of Aaron.

20 Praise the Lord, ye house of Leui: ye that feare the Lord, praise the Lord.

21 Praised bee the Lorde out of Zion, which dwelleth in Ierusalem. Praise ye the Lord.

a Ye Leuites that are in his Sāctuary.
b Meaning the people: for the people and Leuites had their courtes, which were places of the Temple separate.
c That is, hath freely loued the posteritie of Abraham.
d He ioyneth Gods power with his will, to the intent that wee should not separate them: and hereby he willeth Gods people to depēd on his power, which he confirmeth by examples.
*Iere. 10. 13.
*Exod. 12. 29.
*Nom. 21. 24. 34.
e He sheweth what fruite the godly conceiue of Gods power, whereby they see how he destroyeth his enemies, and deliuereth his people.
f That is, gouerne and defende his people.
g By shewing what punishment God appointeth for the heathen idolaters, he warneth his people to beware the like offence, seeing that idoles haue neither power nor life, and that their deliuerance came not by idoles, but by the mightie power of God.
Reade Psalme 115. verse 4.

PSAL. CXXXVI.

1 A most earnest exhortation to giue thankes vnto God for the creation and gouernance of all thinges, which standeth in confessing that he giueth vs all of his meere liberalitie.

PRaise ye the Lord, because he is good: for his [a] mercie endureth for euer.

2 Praise ye the God of gods: for his mercie endureth for euer.

3 Praise ye the Lord of lordes: for his mercie endureth for euer:

4 Which onely doth great wonders: for his mercie endureth for euer:

5 Which by his wisedome made the heauens: for his mercie endureth for euer:

6 Which hath stretched out the earth vpon the waters: for his [b] mercie endureth for euer:

7 Which made great lightes: for his mercie endureth for euer:

8 As the sunne to rule the day: for his mercie endureth for euer:

9 The moone and the Starres to gouerne the night: for his mercie endureth for euer:

10 Which smote Egypt with their first borne, (for his mercie endureth for euer:)

11 And [c] brought out Israel from among them (for his mercie endureth for euer)

12 With a mightie hande and [d] stretched out arme: for his mercie endureth for euer:

13 Which deuided the red Sea in two partes: for his mercie endureth for euer:

14 And made Israel to passe through the mids of it: for his mercie endureth for euer:

15 And ouerthrewe Pharaoh and his hoste in the red Sea: for his mercie endureth for euer:

16 Which led his people through the [e] wildernes: for his mercie endureth for euer:

17 Which smote great Kings: for his mercie endureth for euer:

18 And slewe [f] mightie Kings: for his mercie endureth for euer:

19 As Sihon King of the Amorites: for his mercie endureth for euer:

20 And Og the King of Bashan: for his mercie endureth for euer:

21 And gaue their land for an heritage: for his mercie endureth for euer:

22 Euen an heritage vnto Israel his seruant: for his mercie endureth for euer:

23 Which remembred vs in our [g] base estate: for his mercie endureth for euer:

24 And hath rescued vs from our oppressours: for his mercie endureth for euer:

25 Which giueth foode to all [h] flesh: for his mercie endureth for euer.

26 [i] Praise ye the God of heauen: for his mercie endureth for euer.

a By this repetition hee sheweth that the least of Gods benefites bind vs to thankesgiuing: but chiefly his mercie, which is principally declared towardes his Church.
b This was a common kinde of thankesgiuing, which the whole people vsed, when they had receiued any benefite of God, as 2. Chr. 7. 6. and 20. 21: meaning that God was not onely mercifull to their fathers, but also continued the same to their posteritie.
c Gods mercifull prouidēce toward man appeareth in all his creatures, but chiefly in that that he deliuered his Church from the thraldome of their enemies.
d In doing such a worke as was neuer done before, nor that any other could doe.
e Where for the space of fourtie yeeres he shewed infinite and most strange wonders.
f Declaring thereby that no power nor authoritie was so deere vnto him, as the loue of his Church.
g In our greatest affliction and slauerie, when we looked for nothing lesse then to haue had any succour.
h Seeing that God prouideth euen for the beasts much more hath he care ouer his.
i Seeing that all ages haue had most plaine testimonies of Gods benefites.

PSAL. CXXXVII.

1 The people of God in their banishment seeing Gods true religion decay, liued in great anguish & sorow of heart: the which griefe the Chaldeans did so litle pitie, 3 That they rather increased the same dayly with taunts, reproches and blasphemies against God. 7 Wherefore the Israelites desire God, first to punish the Edomites, who prouoked the Babylonians against them, 8 And mooued by the Spirit of God, prophecie the destruction of Babylon, where they were handled so tyrannously.

BY the riuers of Babel we [a] sate, and there wee wept, when we remembred Zion.

2 Wee hanged our harpes vpon the willowes a That is, we abode a long time: and albeit that the countrey was pleasant, yet could it not stay our teares, nor turne vs from the true seruice of our God.

in the middes [b] thereof.
3 Then they that ledde vs captiues, [c] required of vs songs and mirth, when wee had hanged vp our harpes, saying, Sing vs one of the songs of Zion.
4 How shall we sing, said we, a song of the Lord in a strange land?
5 [d] If I forget thee, O Ierusalem, let my right hand forget to play.
6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleaue to the roofe of my mouth: yea, if I preferre not Ierusalem to my [e] chiefe ioy.
7 Remember the children of [f] Edom, O Lord, in the [g] day of Ierusalem, which saide, Rase it, rase it to the foundation thereof.
8 O daughter of Babel, worthy to be destroyed, blessed shall he be that rewardeth thee, as thou hast serued vs.
9 [h] Blessed shal he be that taketh and dasheth thy children against the stones.

b To wit, of that countrey.
c The Babylonians spake thus in mocking vs, as though by our silence we should signifie that we hoped no more in God.
d Albeit the faithfull are touched with their particular griefes, yet the common sorowe of the Church is most grieuous vnto them, and is such as they cannot but remember and lament. e The decay of Gods religion in their countrey was so grieuous, that no ioy could make them glad, except it were restored.
f According as Ezekiel 25.13, and Ieremie 49.7. verse prophecied: and Obadiah, verse 10. sheweth that the Edomites, which came of Esau, conspired with the Babylonians against their brethren and kinsefolke.
g When thou didst visite Ierusalem.
h Hee alludeth to Isaiahs prophecie, Chapter 13. and 16. verse, promising good successe to Cyrus and Darius, whome ambition mooued to fight against Babylon: but God vsed them as his rods to punish his enemies.

PSAL. CXXXVIII.

1 Dauid with great courage praiseth the goodnesse of God toward him, the which is so great, 4 That it is knowen to forren Princes, who shall praise the Lord together with him. 6 And he is assured to haue like comfort of God in the time following, as he hath had heretofore.

¶ A Psalme of Dauid.

I Will praise thee with my whole heart: euen before the [a] gods will I praise thee.
2 I will worship toward thine holy [b] Temple and praise thy Name, because of thy louing kinde-nesse and for thy trueth: for thou hast magnified thy name aboue all things by thy word.
3 When I called, then thou heardest me, and hast [c] encreased strength in my soule.
4 All the [d] Kings of the earth shal praise thee, O Lorde: for they haue heard the wordes of thy mouth.
5 And they shall sing of the wayes of the Lord, because the glory of the Lord is great.
6 For the Lord is high: yet he beholdeth the lowly, but the proude he knoweth [e] afarre off.
7 Though I walke in the middes of trouble, yet wilt thou reuiue mee: thou wilt stretch foorth thine hand vpon the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall saue me.
8 The Lord will [f] performe his worke toward me: O Lorde, thy mercie endureth for euer: forsake not the workes of thy handes.

a Euen in the presence of Angels and of them, that haue authoritie among men.
b Both the Temple and ceremoniall seruice at Christes comming were abolished: so that now God wil be worshipped onely in spirite and trueth, Ioh. 4.23.
c Thou hast strengthened mee against mine outward and inward enemies.
d All the world shall confesse that thou hast wonderfully preserued me, and performed thy promise.
e Distance of place cannot hinder God to shew mercie to his, and to iudge the wicked, though they thinke that hee is farre off.
f Though mine enemies rage neuer so much, yet the Lorde, which hath begun his worke in mee, will continue his grace to the ende.

PSAL. CXXXIX.

1 Dauid to clense his heart from all hypocrisie, sheweth that there is nothing so hid, which God seeth not, 13 Which hee confirmeth by the creation of man. 14 After declaring his zeale and feare of God, he protesteth to be enemie to all them that contemne God.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of Dauid.

O Lord, thou hast tried me and knowen me.
2 Thou knowest my [a] sitting and my rising: thou vnderstandest my thought afarre off.
3 Thou [b] compassest my pathes, and my lying downe, and art accustomed to all my wayes.
4 For there is not a word in my [c] tongue, but loe, thou knowest it wholy, O Lord.
5 Thou holdest mee straite behinde and before, and layest thine [d] hand vpon me.
6 Thy knowledge is too wonderfull for mee:
it is so high that I cannot attaine vnto it.
7 Whither shall I goe from thy [e] Spirite? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?
8 If I ascende into heauen, thou art there: if I lye downe in hell, thou art there.
9 Let mee take the winges of the morning, and dwell in the vttermost parts of the sea:
10 Yet thither shall thine [f] hande lead me, and thy right hand holde me.
11 If I say, Yet the darknes shal hide me, euen the night shalbe [g] light about me.
12 Yea, the darkenes hideth not from thee:
but the night shineth as the day: the darkenes and light are both alike.
13 For thou hast [h] possessed my reines: thou hast couered me in my mothers wombe.
14 I will praise thee, for I am [i] fearefully and wonderously made: marueilous are thy workes, and my soule knoweth it well.
15 My bones are not hid from thee, though I was made in a secret place, and facioned [k] beneath in the earth.
16 Thine eyes did see me, when I was without forme: [l] for in thy booke were all things written, which in continuance were facioned, when there was none of them before.
17 Howe [m] deare therefore are thy thoughtes vnto me, O God! how great is ẏ summe of them!
18 If I should count them, they are moe then the sand: when I wake, [n] I am still with thee.
19 Oh that thou wouldest slay, O God, the wicked and bloody men, to whom I say, Depart ye from mee:
20 Which speake wickedly of thee, and being thine enemies are lifted vp in vaine.
21 Doe not I [o] hate them, O Lorde, that hate thee? and doe not I earnestly contend with those that rise vp against thee?
22 I hate them with an vnfained hatred, as they were mine vtter enemies.
23 Trie mee, O God, and know mine heart:
prooue me and know my thoughtes, 24 And consider if there be any [p] way of wickednes in me, and leade me in the [q] way for euer.

a He confesseth that neither our actions, thoughts, or any part of our life can be hid to God, though he seeme to bee farre off.
b So that they are euidently knowen to thee.
c Thou knowest my meaning before I speake.
d Thou so guidest me with thine hand, that I can turne no way, but where thou appointest mee.
e From thy power and knowledge?
f Thy power doth so fast holde mee, that I can escape by no meanes from thee.
g Though darknes be an hinderance to mans sight, yet it seemeth thine eyes as well as the light.
h Thou hast made me in all partes and therefore must needes know me.
i Considering thy wonderfull worke in forming mee, I cannot but praise thee, and feare thy mightie power.
k That is, in my mothers wombe: which he compareth to the inward parts of the earth.
l Seeing that thou didest know me before I was composed of either flesh or bone, much more now must thou know me when thou hast facioned me.
m How ought we to esteeme the excellent declaration of thy wisdome in the creatiō of man?
n I continually see new occasions to meditate in thy wisdome and to praise thee.
o He teacheth vs boldly to cōtemne all the hatred of the wicked, and friendship of the world, when they would let vs to serue God sincerely.
p Or any heinous way or rebellious: meaning, that though he were subiect to sinne, yet was he not giuen to wickednes and to prouoke God by rebellion.
q That is, continue thy fauour towards me to the ende.

PSAL. CXL.

1 Dauid complaineth of the crueltie, falsehoode and iniuries of his enemies. 8 Against the which he praieth vnto the Lord, and assureth himselfe of his helpe and succour. 12 Wherefore he prouoketh the iust to praise the Lord, and to assure themselues of his tuition.

¶ To him that excelleth. A Psalme of Dauid.

DEliuer me, O Lord, from the euill man: preserue me from the [a] cruel man:
2 Which imagine euil things in their [b] heart, and make warre continually.
3 They haue sharpened their tongues like a serpent: [c] adders poyson is vnder their lips. Selah.
4 Keepe [d] mee, O Lord, from the handes of the wicked: preserue mee from the cruell man, which purposeth to cause my steppes to slide.
5 The proude haue layde a snare for me, and spred a nette with cordes in my pathway, and set grennes for me. Selah.
6 Therefore I said vnto the Lorde, Thou art my God: heare, O Lord, the voyce of my praiers.

a Which persecuteth me of malice and without cause.
b That is, by their false cauillations and lies they kindle the hatred of the wicked against mee.
c Hee sheweth what weapons the wicked vse, when power and force faile them.
d Hee declareth what is the remedie of the godly, when they are oppressed by the worldings.

7 O Lord God the strength of my saluation, thou [e] hast couered mine head in the day of battel.

8 Let not the wicked haue his desire, O Lorde: [f] performe not his wicked thought, least they be proude. Selah.

9 As for [g] the chiefe of them, that compasse me about, let the mischiefe of their owne lippes come vpon them.

10 Let coles fal vpon them: let [h] him cast them into the fire, & into the deepe pits, ŷ they rise not.

11 For the backbiter shall not be established vpon the earth: euill shall [i] hunt the cruell man to destruction.

12 I know that the Lord will auenge the afflicted, and iudge the poore.

13 Surely the righteous shal prayse thy Name, and the iust shall [k] dwell in thy presence.

e He calleth to God with liuely faith, being assured of his mercies, because he had beforetime prooued, that God helped him euer in his dangers.
f For it is in Gods hand to ouerthrowe the counsels and enterprises of the wicked.
g It seemeth that he alludeth to Saul.
h To wit, God: for Dauid sawe that they were reprobate, and that there was no hope of repentance in them.
i Gods plagues shall light vpon him in such sort, that he shall not escape.
k That is, shall be defended and preserued by thy fatherly prouidence and care.

PSAL. CXLI.

1 Dauid being grieuously persecuted vnder Saul, onely fleeth vnto God to haue succour, 3 Desiring him to bridle his affections, that he may patiently abide till God take vengeance of his enemies.

¶ A Psalme of Dauid.

O Lord, I [a] call vpon thee: haste thee vnto me: heare my voyce, when I cry vnto thee.

2 Let my prayer be directed in thy sight as incense, and the [b] lifting vp of mine hands as an euening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O Lorde, before my mouth, and keepe the [c] doore of my lips.

4 Incline not mine heart to euill, ŷ I should commit wicked workes with men that worke iniquitie: and let me not eate of their [d] delicates.

5 Let the righteous smite me: for that is a benefite: and let [e] him reprooue me, and it shalbe a precious oyle, that shall not breake mine head: for within a while I shall euen [f] pray in their miseries.

6 When their iudges shall be cast downe in stony places, they shal [g] heare my wordes, for they are sweete.

7 Our bones lye scattered at the [h] graues mouth, as he that heweth wood or diggeth in the earth.

8 But mine eyes looke vnto thee, O Lord God: in thee is my trust: leaue not my soule destitute.

9 Keepe me from the snare, which they haue layde for me, and from the grennes of the workers of iniquitie.

10 Let the wicked fall into [i] his nettes [k] together, whiles I escape.

a Hee sheweth that there is none other refuge in our necessities, but onely to flee vnto God for comfort of soule.
b Hee meaneth his earnest zeale and gesture, which he vsed in prayer: alluding to the sacrifices, which were by Gods commandement offred in ŷ old Law.
c He desireth God to keepe his thoughtes and wayes either from thinking or executing vengeance.
d Let not their prosperitie allure me to be wicked as they are.
e He could abide all corrections, that came of a louing heart.
f By patience I shall see the wicked so sharply handled, that I shal for pitie pray for them.
g The people, which followed their wicked rulers in persecuting the Prophet, shal repent & turne to God, when they see their wicked rulers punished.
h Here appeareth that Dauid was miraculously deliuered out of many deaths, as 2. Chr. 1. 9, 10.
i Into Gods nets, whereby he catcheth the wicked in their owne malice.
k So that none of them escape.

PSAL. CXLII.

1 The Prophet neither astonied with feare, nor caried away with anger, nor forced by desperation, would kill Saul, but with a quiet minde directed his earnest prayer to God, who did preserue him.

¶ A Psalme of Dauid, to giue instruction, and a prayer, when he was in the caue.

I Cryed vnto the Lord with my voyce: with my voyce I [a] prayed vnto the Lord.

2 I powred out my meditation before him, and declared mine affliction in his presence.

a Dauids patience and instant prayer to God condemneth their wicked rage, which in their troubles either despaire and murmure against God, or els seeke to others, then to God, to haue redresse in their miseries.

3 Though my spirit † was in perplexitie in me, yet thou knewest my path: in the way wherein I walked, haue they priuily layde a snare for me.

4 I looked vpon my right hand, and beheld, but there was none that would knowe me: all refuge failed me, and none ‖ cared for my soule.

5 Then cryed I vnto thee, O Lord, and sayde, thou art mine [b] hope, and my portion in the land of the liuing.

6 Hearken vnto my crye, for I am brought very lowe: deliuer me from my persecuters, for they are too strong for me.

7 Bring my soule out of [c] prison, that I may prayse thy Name: then shall the righteous [d] come about me, when thou art beneficiall vnto me.

† Ebr. Was folden or wrapped in mee meaning, as a thing that could haue no issue.
‖ Or, sought for my soule.
b Though all meanes fayled him, yet he knew that God would neuer forsake him.
c For he was on all sides beset with his enemies, as though he had bin in a most straight prison.
d Either to reioyce at my wonderfull deliuerance, or to set a crowne vpon mine head.

PSAL. CXLIII.

1 An earnest prayer for remission of sinnes, acknowledging that the enemies did thus cruelly persecute him by Gods iust iudgements 8 He desireth to be restored to grace, 10 To be gouerned by his holy Spirit, that he may spend the remnant of his life in the true feare and seruice of God.

¶ A Psalme of Dauid.

Heare my prayer, O Lorde, and hearken vnto my supplication: answere me in thy [a] trueth and in thy [b] righteousnes.

2 (And enter not into iudgement with thy seruant: for in thy [c] sight shall none that liueth, be iustified)

3 For the enemie hath persecuted my soule: he hath smitten my life downe to the earth: he hath laide me in the darkenes, as they that haue bene dead [d] long agoe:

4 And my spirit was in perplexitie in me, and mine [e] heart within me was amased.

5 Yet doe I remember the time [f] past: I meditate in all thy workes, yea, I doe meditate in the workes of thine hands.

6 I stretch forth mine hands vnto thee: my soule desireth after thee, as the thirstie land. Selah.

7 Heare me speedily, O Lorde, for my spirit fayleth: hide not thy face from me, els I shall be like vnto them that go downe into the pit.

8 Let mee heare thy louing kindnes in the [g] morning, for in thee is my trust: [h] shew mee the way, that I should walke in, for I lift vp my soule vnto thee.

9 Deliuer me, O Lorde, from mine enemies: for [i] I hid me with thee.

10 [k] Teach me to [l] doe thy will, for thou art my God: let thy good Spirit leade me vnto the land of righteousnesse.

11 Quicken me, O Lord, for thy Names sake, and for thy righteousnesse bring my soule out of trouble.

12 And for thy mercy [m] slay mine enemies, and destroy all them that oppresse my soule: for I am thy [n] seruant.

a That is, as thou hast promised to be faithfull in thy promes to all that trust in thee.
b That is, according to thy free goodnes, whereby thou defendest thine.
c He knew that his afflictions were Gods messengers to call him to repentance for his sinnes, though toward his enemies he was innocent, and that in Gods sight all men are sinners.
d He acknowledgeth that God is the onely and true physicion to heale him: and that he is able to raise him to life, though he were dead long ago, and turned to ashes.
e So that onely by fayth, and by the grace of Gods Spirit he was vpholden.
f To wit, thy great benefites of olde, and the manifold examples of thy fauour toward thine.
g That is, speedily and in due season.
h Let thine holy Spirit counsell me how to come forth of these great cares and troubles.
i I hid my selfe vnder the shadow of thy wings, that I might be defended by thy power.
k He confesseth that both the knowledge and obedience of Gods will commeth by the Spirit of God, who teacheth vs by his worde, giueth vnderstanding by his Spirit, & frameth our hearts by his grace to obey him.
l That is, iustly and aright: for so soone as we decline from Gods will, we fall into errour.
m Which shall be a signe of thy Fatherly kindnes towarde me. n Resigning my selfe wholy vnto thee, and trusting in thy protection.

PSAL. CXLIIII.

1 He prayseth the Lord with great affection and humilitie for his kingdome restored, and for his victories obtained, 5 Demaunding helpe and the destruction of the wicked, 9 Promising to acknowledge the same with songs of prayses, 15 And declareth wherein the felicitie of any people consisteth.

¶ A Psalme of Dauid.

BLessed be the Lorde my strength, which [a] teacheth mine hands to fight, and my fingers to battell.

2 He is my goodnes and my fortresse, my towre and † my deliuerer, my shield, and in him I trust, which subdueth my [b] people vnder me.

3 Lorde, what is man that thou [c] regardest him! or the sonne of man that thou thinkest vpon him!

4 Man is like to vanitie: his dayes are like a shadow, that vanisheth.

5 [d] Bow thine heauens, O Lorde, and come downe: touch the mountaines & they shal smoke.

6 [e] Cast forth the lightning and scatter them: shoote out thine arrowes, and consume them.

7 Send thine hand from aboue: deliuer me, and take me out of the great [f] waters, and from the hand of strangers,

8 Whose mouth talketh vanitie, and their right hand is a right hand [g] of falsehood.

9 I will sing a [h] new song vnto thee, O God, and sing vnto thee vpon a viole, and an instrument of ten strings.

10 It is he that giueth deliuerance vnto Kings, and rescueth Dauid his [i] seruant from the hurtfull sworde.

11 Rescue me, and deliuer me from the hand of strangers, whose mouth talketh vanitie, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehoode:

12 That our [k] sonnes may be as the plantes growing vp in their youth, and our daughters as the corner stones, grauen after the similitude of a palace:

13 That our [l] corners may be full and abounding with diuers sorts, and that our sheepe may bring forth thousands and ten thousand in our streetes:

14 That our [m] oxen may be strong to labour: that there be none inuasion, nor going out, nor no crying in our streetes.

15 Blessed are the people, that be [n] so, yea, blessed are the people, whose God is the Lord.

a Who of a poore shepheard hath made me a valiant warriour & mightie conquerour. † Ebr. my deliuerer vnto me: for the Prophet can not satisfie himselfe with any wordes. b He confesseth that neither by his owne autoritie, power nor policie his kingdome was quiet, but by the secret grace of God. c To giue vnto God iust prayse is to confesse our selues to be vnworthie of so excellent benefites, & that he bestoweth them vpon vs of his free mercie. d Hee desireth God to continue his graces and to send helpe for the present necessitie. e By these maner of speaches hee sheweth that all the lets in the world can not hinder Gods power, which he apprehendeth by faith. f That is, deliuer me from the tumultes of them that should be my people, but are corrupt in their iudgement and enterprises, as though they were strangers. g For though they shake hands, yet they keepe not promes. h That is, a rare and excellent song, as thy great benefites deserue. i Though wicked kings be called Gods seruants, as Cyrus, Isai. 45. 1. forasmuch as hee vseth them to execute iudgements: yet Dauid because of Gods promes, and they, that rule godly, are properly so called, because they serue not their owne affections, but set forth Gods glory. k Hee desireth God to continue his benefites towarde his people, counting the procreation of children and their good education among the chiefest of Gods benefites. l That the very corners of our houses may be full of store for the great abundance of thy blessings. m He attributeth not onely the great commodities, but euen the least also to Gods fauour. n And if God giue not to all his children all these blessings, yet he recompenseth them with better things.

PSAL. CXLV.

This Psalme was composed when the kingdome of Dauid florished. 1 Wherein he describeth the wonderfull prouidence of God, aswell in gouerning man, as in preseruing all the rest of his creatures. 17 He prayseth God for his iustice and mercie, 18 But especially for his louing kindnes towarde those that call vpon him, that feare him, and loue him: 21 For the which he promiseth to prayse him for euer.

¶ A Psalme of Dauid of prayse.

O My God and King, [a] I will extoll thee, and will blesse thy Name for euer and euer.

2 I will blesse thee dayly, and prayse thy Name for euer and euer.

3 [b] Great is the Lord, and most worthy to be praysed, and his greatnes is incomprehensible.

4 Generation shall prayse thy works vnto [c] generation, and declare thy power.

5 I wil meditate of the beautie of thy glorious maiestie, and thy wonderfull workes,

6 And they shall speake of the power of thy [d] fearefull actes, and I will declare thy greatnes.

7 They shall breake out into the mention of thy great goodnes, and shall sing aloude of thy righteousnesse.

8 * The Lord is gracious and [e] mercifull, slow to anger, and of great mercie.

9 The Lord is good to all, and his mercies are ouer all his workes.

10 All thy workes prayse thee, O Lord, and thy Saintes blesse thee.

11 [f] They shewe the glory of thy kingdome, and speake of thy power, 12 To cause his [g] power to be knowen to the sonnes of men, and the glorious renoume of his kingdome.

13 Thy * kingdome is an euerlasting kingdome, and thy dominion endureth throughout all ages.

14 The Lord vpholdeth all [h] that fall, and lifteth vp all that are ready to fall.

15 The eyes of [i] all waite vpon thee, and thou giuest them their meate in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand, and fillest all things liuing of thy good pleasure.

17 The Lord is [k] righteous in all his wayes, and holy in all his workes.

18 The Lord is neere vnto all that call vpon him: yea, to all that call vpon him in [l] trueth.

19 He wil fulfil the [m] desire of them that feare him: he also wil heare their cry, and wil saue them.

20 The Lorde preserueth all them that loue him: but he will destroy all the wicked.

21 My mouth shall speake the prayse of the Lorde, and all [n] flesh shall blesse his holy Name for euer and euer.

a Hee sheweth what sacrifices are pleasant and acceptable vnto God: euen prayse and thankesgiuing, and seeing that God still continueth his benefites towards vs, we ought neuer to be wearie in praysing him for the same. b Hereby he declareth that all power is subiect vnto God, & that no worldly promotion ought to obscure Gods glory. c Forasmuch as the end of mans creation, & of his preseruation in this life is to praise God, therefore he requireth that not only we our selues doe this, but cause all other to doe the same. d Of thy terrible iudgements against the wicked. * Exod. 34. 6. e He describeth after what sort God sheweth him selfe to all his creatures, though our sinnes haue prouoked his vengeance against all: to wit, mercifull, not only in pardoning the sinnes of his elect, but in doing good euen to the reprobate, albeit they cannot feele the sweete comfort of the same. f The prayse of thy glory appeareth in all thy creatures: and though the wicked would obserue the same by their silence, yet the faithfull are euer mindfull of the same. g Hee sheweth that all things are out of order, but onely where God reigneth. * Luke 1. 33. dan. 7. 14. h Who being in miserie and affliction would faint and fall away, if God did not vpholde them, and therefore they ought to reuerence him, that reigneth in heauen, and suffer themselues to be gouerned by him. i To wit, as well of man, as of beast. k He prayseth God, not onely for that he is beneficiall to all his creatures, but also in that he iustly punisheth the wicked, and mercifully examineth his by the crosse, giuing them strength and deliuering them. l Which only appertaineth to the faithfull: & this vertue is contrary to infidelitie, doubting, impatiencie and murmuring. m For they will aske or wish for nothing, but according to his will, 1. Iohn. 5. 14. n That is, all men shall be bound to prayse him.

PSAL. CXLVI.

1 Dauid declareth his great zeale that he hath to prayse God, 3 And teacheth, not to trust in man, but onely in God almightie, 7 Which deliuereth the afflicted, 9 Defendeth the strangers, comforteth the fatherles, and the widowes, 10 And reigneth for euer.

¶ Prayse ye the Lord.

PRayse thou the Lorde, O my [a] soule.

2 I will prayse the Lorde during my life: as long as I haue any being, I wil sing vnto my God.

3 Put not your trust in [b] princes, nor in the sonne of man, for there is none helpe in him.

4 His breath departeth, and he returneth to his earth: then his [c] thoughtes perish.

5 Blessed is he, that hath the God of Iaakob for his helpe, whose hope is in the Lord his God.

6 Which made [d] heauen and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth his fidelitie for euer:

7 Which executeth iustice [e] for the oppressed: which giueth bread to the hungry: the Lord looseth the prisoners.

8 The Lorde giueth sight to the blinde: the a He stirreth vp himselfe & all his affections to prayse God. b That God may haue the whole prayse, wherein he forbiddeth al vaine confidence, shewing that of nature we are more inclined to put our trust in creatures, then in God the Creator. c As their vaine opinions, whereby they flattered themselues, and so imagined wicked enterprises. d He encourageth the godly to trust onely in the Lord, both for that his power is able to deliuer them from all dangers, and for his promes sake his will is most ready to doe it. e Whose faith & patience for a while he trieth, but at length he punisheth the aduersaries, that he may be knowen to be iudge of the world.

Lord rayseth vp the crooked : the Lorde loueth the righteous.
9 The Lord keepeth the g strangers: he relie-ueth the fatherlesse and widow:but he ouerthroweth the way of the wicked.
10 The Lorde shall h reigne for euer : O Zion, thy God endureth from generation to generation.
Prayse ye the Lord.

f Though he visite them by affliction, hunger, imprisonment and such like, yet his fatherly loue and pitie neuer faileth them, yea rather to his these are signes of his loue.
g Meaning all them that are destitute of worldly meanes and succour. h Hee assureth the Church that God reigneth for euer for the preseruation of the same.

PSAL. CXLVII.

1 The Prophet prayseth the bountie, wisedome, power, iustice and prouidence of God vpon all his creatures, 2 But specially vpon his Church, which he gathereth together after their dispersion, 19 Declaring his worde and iudgements so vnto them, as he hath done to none other people.

PRayse ye the Lorde, for it is good to sing vnto our God : for it is a a pleasant thing, and praise is comely.
2 The Lord doth build vp b Ierusalem, and gather together the dispersed of Israel.
3 He healeth those that are c broken in heart, and bindeth vp their sores.
4 Hee d counteth the number of the starres, and calleth them all by their names.
5 Great is our Lord, and great is his power:his wisedome is infinite.
6 The Lord relieueth the meeke, and abaseth the wicked to the e ground.
7 Sing vnto the Lord with prayse : sing vpon
the harpe vnto our God, 8 Which f couereth the heauen with clouds, and prepareth raine for the earth, and maketh the grasse to growe vpon the mountaines: 9 Which giueth to beasts their foode, and to the yong rauens that g crie.
10 He hath not pleasure in the h strength of an horse, neither delighteth he in the legs of man.
11 But the Lorde deliteth in them that feare him, and attend vpon his mercie.
12 Prayse the Lorde, O Ierusalem : prayse thy God, O Zion.
13 For he hath made the barres of thy gates
i strong, and hath blessed thy children within thee.
14 He setteth peace in thy borders, and satisfieth thee with the † floure of wheate.
15 He sendeth foorth his k commaundement vpon earth, and his worde runneth very l swiftly.
16 He giueth snowe like wooll, and scattereth the hoare frost like ashes.
17 He casteth foorth his yce like morsels: who can abide the colde thereof?
18 He sendeth his worde and melteth them:he causeth his winde to blow, and the waters to flow.
19 He sheweth his m word vnto Iaakob, his statutes and his iudgements vnto Israel.
20 He hath not dealt so with euery nation, neither haue they n knowen his iudgements. Prayse ye the Lord.

a He sheweth wherein we ought to exercise our selues continually, and to take our pastime: to wit, in praysing God.
b Because the Lord is the founder of the Church, it cannot be destroyed, though the members thereof be dispersed, and seeme, as it were, for a time to be cut off.
c With affliction, or sorow for sinne.
d Though it seem to man incredible, that God should assemble his Church, being so dispersed, yet nothing can be too hard to him, that can number and name all the starres.
e For the more high that the wicked clime, the greater is their fall in the ende.
f He sheweth by the examples of Gods mightie power, goodnesse and wisedome, that we can neuer want most iust occasion to prayse God.
g For their crying is as it were a confession of their neede, which cannot be relieued, but by God onely: then if God shewe himselfe mindfull of the most contemptible foules, can he suffer them to die with famine, whom hee hath assured of life euerlasting?
h Though to vse lawfull meanes is both profitable and pleaseth God, yet to put our trust in them, is to defraude God of his honour. j He doeth not onely furnish his Church with all things necessary, but preserueth also the same, and maketh it strong against all outwarde force. † Eb. fat. k His secret working in all creatures is as a commaundement to keepe them in order, and to giue them mouing and force. l For immediately and without resisting all things obey him. m As before he calleth Gods secret working in all his creatures his worde : so he meaneth here by his worde, the doctrine of life euerlasting, which he hath left to his Church, as a most precious treasure. n The cause of this difference is Gods free mercie, which hath elected his in his sonne Christ Iesus to saluation : and his iust iudgement, whereby he hath appointed the reprobate to eternall damnation.

PSAL. CXLVIII.

1 He prouoketh all creatures to prayse the Lorde in heauen and earth and all places, 14 Specially his Church, for the power that he hath giuen to the same, after that hee had chosen them and ioyned them vnto him.

¶ Praise ye the Lord.

PRayse ye the Lord from the heauen : prayse ye him in the high places.
2 Prayse ye him, all ye a his Angels: praise him, all his armie.
3 Prayse ye him, b sunne and moone : prayse ye him all bright starres.
4 Prayse ye him, c heauens of heauens, and d waters, that be aboue the heauens.
5 Let them prayse the Name of the Lord : for he commanded, and they were created.
6 And he hath established them for euer and euer : he hath made an ordinance, which shall not passe.
7 Prayse ye the Lord from the earth, ye e dragons and all depths:
8 f Fire and hayle, snowe and vapours, stormie winde, which execute his worde:
9 Mountaines and all hils, fruitfull trees and all cedars:
10 Beasts and all cattell, creeping things and fethered foules:
11 g Kings of the earth and all people, princes and all iudges of the world:
12 Yong men and maidens, also olde men and
children:
13 Let them prayse the Name of the Lord:for his Name onely is to be exalted, and his prayse aboue the earth and the heauens.
14 For he hath exalted the h horne of his people, which is a prayse for all his Saints, euen for the i children of Israel, a people that is neere vnto him.
Prayse ye the Lord.

a Because they are members of the same body, he setteth them before our eyes, which are most willing hereunto, and by their prompt obedience teache vs to doe our duetie.
b In that Gods glory shineth in these insensible creatures, this their beautie is as a continuall praysing of God.
c Not that there are diuers heauens, but because of the spheres and of the situation of the fixed starres and planets, he comprehendeth by this worde the whole heauen.
d That is, the raine, which is in the middle region of the aire, which he here comprehendeth vnder the name of the heauens.
e Meaning, the great and monstrous fishes, as whales and such like. f Which come not by chance or fortune, but by Gods appoynted ordinance. g For the greater giftes that any hath receiued, and the more high that one is preferred, the more bounde is he to prayse God for the same: but neyther high nor lowe condition or degree can be exempted from his duetie. h That is, the dignitie, power and glorie of his Church. i By reason of his couenant made with Abraham.

PSAL. CXLIX.

1 An exhortation to the Church to praise the Lorde for his victorie and conquest, that he giueth his Saints against all mans power.

¶ Praise ye the Lord.

SIng ye vnto the Lorde a a newe song : let his prayse be heard in the Congregation of Saints.
2 Let Israel reioyce in him that b made him, and let ẏ children of Zion reioyce in their c King.
3 Let them prayse his Name with the flute:let them sing prayses vnto him with their timbrel and
harpe.
4 For the Lorde hath pleasure in his people:
he will make the meeke glorious by deliuerance.
5 Let the Saintes be ioyfull with glorie : let them sing loud vpon their d beds.
6 Let the high Actes of GOD bee in their mouth, and a two edged sworde in their hands, 7 e To execute vengeance vpon the heathen, and corrections among the people: 8 To binde f their Kings in chaynes, and their nobles with fetters of yron, 9 That they may execute vpon them the a For his great and manifolde benefites bestowed on his Church.

b In that that they were preferred before al other nations, it was as a newe creation, and therefore Psalm. 95.7. they were called the sheepe of Gods handes.
c For God as he is the Creator of the soule and bodie, so will he that both two serue him, and that his people be continually subiect vnto him, as to their most lawfull King.
d He alludeth to that continuall rest, and quietnesse, which they should haue, if they woulde suffer God to rule them. e This is chiefly accomplished in the kingdome of Christ, when Gods people for iust causes execute Gods iudgements against his enemies : and it giueth no libertie to any to reuenge their priuate iniuries. f Not onely the people, but the Kings that were their enemies should be destroyed.

g Hereby God bindeth the hands and mindes of all his to enterprise no farther then he appointeth.

judgement that is g written: this honour shall be to all his Saintes. Prayse ye the Lord.

PSAL. CL.

1 An exhortation to praise the Lord without cease by all maner of wayes for all his mightie and wonderfull workes.

¶ Prayse ye the Lord.

Prayse ye God in his a Sanctuarie: prayse yee him in the b firmament of his power.
2 Prayse ye him in his mightie Actes: prayse ye him according to his excellent greatnesse.
3 Prayse yee him in the sounde of the c trumpet:
prayse ye him vpon the viole and the
harpe.
4 Prayse ye him with timbrell and flute: praise ye him with virginals and organs.
5 Prayse yee him with sounding cymbales:
prayse ye him with high sounding cymbales.
6 Let euery thing that hath d breath prayse the Lord. Prayse ye the Lord.

a That is, in the heauen.
b For his wonderfull power appeareth in the firmament, which in Ebrew is called a stretching out, or spreading abroade, wherein the mighty worke of God shineth.
c Exhorting the people only to reioyce in praysing God, he maketh mention of those instruments which by Gods commandement were appoynted in the old Lawe, but vnder Christ the vse thereof is abolished in the Church.
d He sheweth that all the order of nature is bound to this duety, and much more Gods children, who ought neuer to cease to prayse him, till they be gathered into that kingdome, which he hath prepared for his, where they shal sing euerlasting prayse.

THE * PROVERBES OF SALOMON.

* This word Prouerbe, or parable signifieth a graue and notable sentence, worthy to be kept in memorie: and is sometime taken in the euill part for a mocke or scoffe.

THE ARGVMENT.

The wonderfull loue of God toward his Church is declared in this booke: forasmuch as the summe and effect of the whole Scriptures is here set foorth in these briefe sentences, which partly containe doctrine, and partly maners, and also exhortations to both. Whereof the nine first Chapters are as a preface ful of graue sentences, and deepe mysteries, to allure the hearts of men to the diligent reading of the parables that follow: which are left as a most precious iewel to the Church, of those three thousand parables mentioned, 1.King.4.32, and were gathered and committed to writing by Salomons seruants and indited by him.

CHAP. I.

1 The power and vse of the word of God. 7 Of the feare of God and knowledge of his worde. 10 Wee may not consent to the entising of sinners. 20 Wisdome complaineth that she is contemned. 24 The punishment of them that contemne her.

The Parables of Salomon the sonne of Dauid King of Israel, 2 To know wisdome, a and instruction, to vnderstand the words
b of knowledge,
3 To receiue c instruction to do wisely, by d iustice and iudgement and equity, 4 To giue vnto the e simple, sharpnes of wit,
and to the childe knowledge and discretion.
5 A wise man shall heare and increase in learning, and a man of f vnderstanding shall attaine vnto wise counsels,
6 To vnderstand a parable, & the interpretation, the words of the wise, and their darke sayings.
7 ¶ * The feare of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge: but fooles despise wisedome and instruction.
8 My sonne, heare thy g fathers instruction, and forsake not thy h mothers teaching.
9 For they shalbe † a comely ornament vnto thine head, and as chaines for thy necke.
10 ¶ My sonne, i if sinners do intise thee, consent thou not.
11 If they say, Come with vs, we will lay waite for k blood, and lie priuily for the innocent without a cause:
12 We wil swallow them vp aliue like a l graue
euen whole, as those that go downe into the pit: 13 We shal find all precious riches, and fill our houses with spoyle:
14 Cast in thy lot among vs: we will all haue one m purse:
15 My sonne, walke not thou in the way with them: refraine thy foote from their n path.
16 For their feete run to euill, and make haste to shed blood.
17 Certainely as without cause the net is spred before the eyes of all that hath wing:
18 So they lay waite for blood and lie priuily for o their liues.
19 Such are the wayes of euery one that is greedie of gaine: he would take away the p life of the owners thereof.
20 ¶ q Wisdome cryeth without: she vttereth her voyce in the r streetes.
21 Shee calleth in the hye streete, among the prease in the entrings of the gates, and vttereth her words in the citie, saying, 22 O ye s foolish, howe long will ye loue foo-lishnes? and the scornefull take their pleasure in scorning, and the fooles hate knowledge?
23 (Turne you at my correction: loe, I will powre out my mind vnto you, and make you vn-derstand my words)
24 Because I haue called, & ye refused: I haue stretched out mine hand, & none would regarde.
25 But yee haue despised all my counsell, and would none of my correction.
26 I will also t laugh at your destruction, and mocke, when your feare commeth.
27 Whē u your feare cōmeth like sudden desolation, & your destruction shall come like a whirle wind: whē affliction & anguish shal come vpō you, 28 Then shall they call vpon me, but I wil not answere: they shall seeke me early, but they shall not x finde me, 29 Because they hated knowledge, and did not chuse the feare of the Lord.
30 They would none of my counsell, but despised all my correction.
31 Therefore shal they eate of y y fruit of their owne way, and be filled with their owne deuises.
32 For z ease slayeth the foolish, and the prosperitie of fooles destroyeth them.
33 But he that obeyeth me, shall dwell safely, and be quiet from feare of euill.

CHAP. II.

1 Wisdome exhorteth to obey her. 5 She teacheth the feare of God. 6 She is giuen of God. 10 She preserueth from wicked ...

a That is, what we ought to know and follow, and what we ought to refuse.
b Meaning, the worde of God wherein is the onely true knowledge.
c To learne to submit our selues to the correction of those that are wise.
d By liuing iustly, and rendring to euery man that which appertayneth vnto him.
e To such as haue not discretion to rule themselues.
f As he sheweth that these parables conteyning the effect of religion as touching maners and doctrine doe appertaine to the simple people: so doeth he declare that the same is also necessary for them that are wise and learned.
* Psal.111.10. Eccles.1.15.
g He speaketh this in the Name of God, which is the vniuersall Father of all creatures, or in the name of the pastor of the Church, who is as a father.
h That is, of the Church, wherein the faithfull are begotten by the incorruptible seede of Gods worde.
† Ebr. increase of grace.
i To wit, the wicked which haue not the feare of God.
k He speaketh not onely of the shedding of blood with hand, but of all crafty practises which tende to the detriment of our neighbour.
l As the graue is neuer satiate, so the auarice of the wicked and their crueltie hath none end.
m He sheweth whereby the wicked are allured to ioyne together, because they haue euery one part of the spoyle of the innocent.
n That is, haue nothing at all to do with them.
o He sheweth that there is no cause to moue these wicked to spoyle the innocent, but their auarice and crueltie.
p Whereby hee concludeth that the couetous man is a murtherer.
q This wisdome is the eternall word of God.
r So that none can pretend ignorance.
s Wisdome reproueth three kinds of men: the foolish or simple which erre of ignorance, and the mockers that cannot suffer to be taught, and the fooles which are drowned in worldly lustes, and hate the knowledge of godlinesse.
t This is spoken according to our capacitie, signifying that the wicked, which mocke and iest at Gods word, shall haue the iust rewarde of their mocking.
u That is, your destruction, which thing you feared.
x Because they sought not with an affection to God, but for ease of their owne griefe.
y Shewing that without faith and obedience, we cannot call vpon God aright.
z They shall feele what commoditie their wicked life shall giue them.
a That is, the prosperity, and idle life, wherein they delite.

MY sonne, if thou wilt receiue my wordes, and [a] hide my commandements within thee, 2 And cause thine eares to hearken vnto wis-dome, and encline [b] thine heart to vnderstanding, 3 (For if thou callest after knowledge, [c] and criest for vnderstanding:
4 If thou seekest her as siluer, & searchest for her as for [d] treasures, 5 Then shalt thou vnderstande the feare of the Lord, and finde the [e] knowledge of God.
6 For the Lorde giueth wisedome, out of his mouth commeth knowledge and vnderstanding.
7 He ‖ preserueth the state of the righteous:
he is a shielde to them that walke vprightly, 8 That they may keepe the wayes of iudge-ment: and he preserueth the way of his Saintes) 9 Then shalt thou vnderstand righteousnesse, and iudgement, and equitie, and euery good path.
10 ¶ When wisdome entreth into thine heart, and knowledge deliteth thy soule, 11 Then shall [f] counsell preserue thee, and vnderstanding shall keepe thee, 12 And deliuer thee from the euill way, and from the man that speaketh froward things, 13 And from them that leaue the [g] wayes of righteousnes to walke in the wayes of darkenesse: 14 Which reioyce in doing euil, and delite [h] in the frowardnesse of the wicked, 15 Whose wayes are crooked and they are lewde in their paths.
16 And it shall deliuer thee from the strange [i] woman, euen from the stranger, which flattereth with her wordes.
17 Which forsaketh the [k] guide of her youth, and forgetteth the [l] couenant of her God.
18 Surely her [m] house tendeth to death, and her paths vnto [n] the dead.
19 All they that goe vnto her, returne not againe, neither take they holde of the wayes of life.
20 Therefore walke thou in the way of good men, and keepe the wayes of the righteous.
21 For the iust shal dwel in the [o] land, and the vpright men shall remaine in it.
22 But the wicked shalbe cut off from ÿ earth, and the transgressours shalbe rooted out of it.

a That is, keepe them in thine heart.
b If thou giue thy selfe to the true knowledge of God without hypocrisie.
c Meaning, that we must seeke the knowledge of God with care and diligence.
d Shewing that no labour must be spared.
e This (sayth he) is the true wisedome, to knowe and feare God.
‖ Or, hideth the saluation.
f The worde of God shall teache thee and counsell thee how to gouerne thy selfe.
g That is, the worde of God, which is the onely light, to followe their owne fantasies which are darkenesse.
h When they see any giuen to euill as they are.
i Meaning, that wisdome, which is the worde of God, shall preserue vs from all vices: naming this vice of whoredome whereunto man is most prone.
k That is, her husband, which is her head and guide to gouerne her, from whom she ought not to depart, but remaine in his subiection.
l Which is ÿ promes made in mariage.
m Her acquaintance with her familiars and them that haunt her. n To them that are dead in body and soule. o They shall enioy the temporall and spirituall promises of God, as the wicked shalbe voyde of them.

CHAP. III.

1 The word of God giueth life. 5 Trust in God. 7 Feare him. 9 Honour him. 11 Suffer his correction. 22 To them that followe the word of God, all things shall succeede well.

MY sonne, forget not thou my Lawe, but let thine heart [*] keepe my commandements.
2 For they shall increase the length of thy
[a] dayes and the yeeres of life, and thy prosperitie.
3 Let not [b] mercie and trueth forsake thee:
binde them on thy [c] necke, and write them vpon
the table of thine [d] heart.
4 So shalt thou finde fauour and good vnder-standing in the sight of GOD and man.
5 ¶ Trust in the Lorde with all thine heart, and leane not vnto thine owne wisedome.
6 In all thy wayes acknowledge him, and hee shall direct thy wayes.
7 ¶ Be not wise in thine owne eyes: but feare the Lord, and depart from euill.
8 So health shalbe vnto thy [e] nauel, and mar-rowe vnto thy bones.
9 [f] Honour the Lorde with thy riches, and with the first fruites of all thine increase.
10 So shall thy barnes bee filled with abundance, and thy presses shall [g] burst with newe wine.
11 ¶ My sonne, refuse not the chastening of the Lord, neither be grieued with his correction.
12 [*] For the Lorde correcteth him, whome he loueth, euen as the father doeth the childe in whom he deliteth.
13 Blessed is the man that findeth wisedome, and the man that getteth vnderstanding.
14 For the marchandise thereof is better then the marchandise of siluer, and the gaine thereof is better then golde.
15 It is more precious then pearles: and all things that thou canst desire, are not to be compared vnto her.
16 Length of dayes is in her right hand, [h] and in her left hand riches and glory.
17 Her wayes are wayes of pleasure, and all her pathes prosperitie.
18 She is a tree [i] of life to them that lay holde on her, and blessed is he that retaineth her.
19 The Lorde by wisedome hath layde the [k] foundation of the earth, and hath stablished the heauens through vnderstanding.
20 By his knowledge the depthes are broken vp, and the cloudes drop downe the dewe.
21 My sonne, let not these things depart from thine eyes, but obserue wisdome, and counsell.
22 So they shalbe life to thy soule, and grace vnto thy ‖ necke.
23 Then shalt thou walke safely by thy way:
and thy foote shall not stumble.
24 If thou sleepest, thou shalt not bee afraide:
and when thou sleepest, thy sleepe shalbe sweete.
25 Thou shalt not feare for any sudden feare, neither for the [l] destruction of the wicked, when it commeth.
26 For the Lorde shall be for thine assurance, and shall preserue thy foote from taking.
27 ¶ Withhold not the good from [m] the owners thereof, though there be power in thine hand to doe it.
28 Say not vnto thy neighbour, Go and come againe, and to morow wil I giue thee, if thou now haue it.
29 ¶ Intend none hurt against thy neighbour, seeing he doeth dwell [n] without feare by thee.
30 ¶ Striue not with a man causelesse, when he hath done thee no harme.
31 ¶ Bee not [o] enuious for the wicked man, neither chuse any of his wayes.
32 For the frowarde is abomination vnto the Lord: but his [p] secret is with the righteous.
33 The curse of the Lorde is in the house of the wicked: but he blesseth the habitation of the righteous.
34 With the scornefull [q] he scorneth, but hee giueth grace vnto the humble.
35 The wise shall inherite glorie: but fooles dishonour, though they be exalted.

[*] Deu. 8. 1. & 30. 16.
a Long life is the blessing of God which he giueth to his, so farre forth as it is expedient for them.
b By mercy and trueth, he meaneth the commandements of the first and second table: or els the mercy & faithfulnes ÿ we ought to vse toward our neighbours.
c Keepe them as a most precious iewell.
d Haue them euer in remembrance.
e By this part he comprehendeth the whole body, and by health he meaneth all the benefites promised in the Lawe both, corporall and spirituall.

f As was commaunded in the Lawe, Exod. 23. 19. Deut. 26. 2, and by this they acknowledged that God was the giuer of all things, and that they were ready to bestowe all at his commaundement.
g For to the faithful distributer God giueth in greater abundance.
[*] Heb. 12. 5. reu. 3. 19.
h Meaning, that he that seeketh wisdome, that is, suffereth himselfe to be gouerned by the word of God, shall haue all prosperitie both corporall and spirituall.
i Which bringeth foorth such fruite that they that eate thereof, haue life: and he alludeth to the tree of life in paradise.
k Hereby hee sheweth that this wisdome, whereof hee speaketh, is euerlasting, because it was before all creatures, & that all things, euen the whole worlde were made by it.
‖ Or, throate, reade Chap. 1. 9.
l For when God destroyeth the wicked, he will saue his, as he did Lot in Sodom.
m Not onely from them [illegible] n That is, putteth his trust in thee.
o Desire not to be like vnto him.
p That is, his couenant and fatherly affection which is hid and secret from the worlde.
q He will shewe by his plagues, that their scornes shall turne to their owne destruction, as Chap. 1. 26.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Wisdome and her fruites ought to be searched. 14 The way of the wicked must be refused. 20 By the worde of God the heart, eyes and course of life must be guided.

HEare, O ye children, the instruction of a [a] father, and giue eare to learne vnderstanding.

a He speaketh this in the person of a preacher and minister which is as a father vnto the people, reade Chapter 1. 8.

2 For

2 For I doe giue you a good doctrine: there- fore forsake ye not my lawe.
3 For I was my fathers sonne, tender and deare in the sight of my mother, 4 When he [b] taught me, and saide vnto mee, Let thine heart holde fast my woordes: keepe my commandements, and thou shalt liue.
5 Get wisdome: get vnderstāding: forget not,
neither decline from the wordes of my mouth.
6 Forsake her not, and shee shall keepe thee:
loue her and she shall preserue thee.
7 [c] Wisedome is the beginning: get wisdome therefore: and aboue all thy possession get vnderstanding.
8 Exalt her, and she shall exalt thee: she shall bring thee to honour, if thou embrace her.
9 She shal giue a comely ornamēt vnto thine head, yea, she shall giue thee a crowne of glorie.
10 ¶ Heare, my sonne, & receiue my wordes, and the yeeres of thy life shalbe many.
11 I haue [d] taught thee in ẏ way of wisdome, and led thee in the pathes of righteousnesse.
12 When thou goest, thy gate shall not be [e] strait, and when thou runnest, thou shalt not fall.
13 Take holde of instruction, and leaue not:
keepe her, for she is thy life.
14 ¶ Enter not into the way of the wicked, and walke not in the way of euill men.
15 Auoide it, and goe not by it: turne from it, and passe by.
16 For they cannot [f] sleepe, except they haue done euill, and their sleepe departeth except they cause some to fall.
17 For they eate the bread of [g] wickednesse, and drinke the wine of violence.
18 But the way of the righteous shineth as the light, that [h] shineth more and more vnto the perfite day.
19 The way of the wicked is as the darkenesse:
they knowe not wherein they shall fall.
20 ¶ My sonne, hearken vnto my wordes, incline thine eare vnto my sayings.
21 Let them not depart from thine eyes, but keepe them in the middes of thine heart.
22 For they are life vnto those that find them,
and health vnto all their [i] flesh.
23 Keepe thine heart with all diligence: for thereout commeth [k] life.
24 Put away from thee a froward mouth, and put wicked lippes farre from thee.
25 Let thine eyes beholde the right, and let thine eye liddes direct thy way before thee.
26 [l] Ponder the path of thy feete, and let all thy waies be ordred aright.
27 Turne not to the right hande, nor to the left, but remooue thy foote from euill.

b Meaning, Dauid his father.
c He sheweth that we must first begin at Gods woorde, if so be we will that other things prosper with vs, contrary to the iudgement of ẏ worlde, which make it their last studie, or els, care not for it at all.
d Salomon declareth what care his father had to bring him vp in the true feare of God: for this was Dauids protestation.
e Thou shalt walke at libertie without offence.
f Meaning, that to doe euill is more proper & naturall to the wicked, then to sleepe, eate or drinke.
g Gotten by wicked meanes & cruell oppression.
h Signifying, that the godly increase dayly in knowledge and perfection, till they come to full perfection, which is, when they shall be ioyned to their head in the heauens.
i That is, they shall haue health of body: vnder the which al other blessings promised in the law are conteined.
k For as the heart is either pure or corrupt, so is the whole course of mans life.
l Keepe a measure in all thy doings.

CHAP. V.

3 Whoredome forbidden. 9 And prodigalitie. 15 He willeth a man to liue on his labours and to helpe others. 18 To loue his wife. 22 The wicked taken in their owne wickednesse.

MY sonne, hearken vnto my wisedome, and incline thine eare vnto my ‖ knowledge, 2 That thou mayest regarde counsell, and thy lippes obserue knowledge.
3 For the lippes [a] of a strange woman drop as an honie combe, and her mouth is more soft then [b] oyle.
4 But the end of her is bitter as wormewood, and sharpe as a two edged sworde.
5 Her [c] feete goe downe to death, and her steps take holde on hell.
6 She weigheth not the way of life: her paths are [d] moueable: thou canst not knowe them.
7 Heare yee me now therefore, O children, and depart not from the wordes of my mouth.
8 Keepe thy way farre from her, and come not neere the doore of her house, 9 Least thou giue thine [e] honor vnto others, and thy yeeres to the cruell:
10 Lest the stranger should be filled with thy strength, and thy [f] labours bee in the house of a stranger,
11 And thou mourne at thine end, (when thou hast consumed thy flesh and thy body) 12 And say, How haue I hated instruction, and mine heart despised correction!
13 And haue not obeyed the voyce of them that taught mee, nor inclined mine eare to them that instructed me!
14 I was almost brought into all euil in ẏ mids
of the Congregation and [g] assemblie.
15 ¶ Drinke the water of [h] thy cisterne, and of the riuers out of the middes of thine owne well.
16 Let thy fountaines flow foorth, and the riuers of waters in the streetes.
17 But let them be thine, euen [i] thine onely, and not the strangers with thee.
18 Let thy [k] fountaine be blessed, and reioyce with the wife of thy [l] youth.
19 Let her be as the louing hinde and pleasant roe: let her brests satisfie thee at all times, and de-lite in her loue continually.
20 For why shouldest thou ‖ delite, my sonne, in a strange woman, or embrace the bosome of a stranger?
21 For the waies of man are before the [m] eyes of the Lord, and he pondereth all his pathes.
22 His owne iniquities shall take the wicked himselfe, and he shall be holden with the cordes of his owne sinne.
23 He shall [n] die for faute of instruction, and shall goe astray through his great follie.

‖ Or, vnderstanding.
a That is, an harlot which giueth her selfe to another then to her husbande.
b By oyle and honie he meaneth flattering & craftie intisements.
c All her doings leade to destructiō.
d Shee hath euer new meanes to allure to wickednes.
e That is, thy strength & goods to her that will haue no pitie vpon thee: as is read of Samson, and the prodigall sonne.
f The goods gotten by thy trauell.
g Although I was faithfully instructed in ẏ truth, yet had I almost fallen to vtter shame and destruction, notwithstanding my good bringing vp in the assemblie of the godly.
h He teacheth vs sobrietie, exhorting vs to liue of our owne labours and to be beneficiall to the godly that want.
i Distribute them not to the wicked and infidels, but reserue them for thy selfe, thy familie and them that are of ẏ housholde of faith.
k Thy children which shall come of thee in great abundance, shewing that God blesseth marriage, and curseth whoredome.
l Which thou diddest marrie in thy youth.
‖ Or goe astray with a stranger?
m He declareth that except man doe ioyne to his wife both in heart and in outwarde conuersation, that hee shall not escape the iudgements of God.
n Because hee will not giue eare to Gods woorde and be admonished.

CHAP. VI.

1 Instruction for sureties. 6 The slouthfull and sluggish is stirred to worke. 12 Hee describeth the nature of the wicked. 16 The things that God hateth. 20 To obserue the woords of God. 24 To flee adulterie.

MY sonne, if thou be suretie for thy neighbour, and hast striken hands with the stranger, 2 Thou art [a] snared with the wordes of thy mouth: thou art euen taken with the woordes of thine owne mouth.
3 Doe this now, my sonne, and deliuer thy selfe: seeing thou art come into the hand of thy neighbour, goe, and humble thy selfe, and sollicite thy friends.
4 Giue no sleepe to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.
5 Deliuer thy selfe as a doe from the hande of the hunter, and as a birde from the hande of the fouler.
6 ¶ Goe to [b] the pismire, O sluggarde: be-holde her wayes, and be wise.
7 For shee hauing no guide, gouernour, nor ruler,
8 Prepareth her meate in the sommer, & ga-thereth her foode in haruest.
9 How long wilt thou sleepe, O sluggarde?
when

a He forbiddeth vs not to become suretie one for an other, according to the rule of charitie, but that wee cōsider for whom and after what sort, so that the creditour may not be defrauded.
b If the word of God cannot instruct thee, yet learne at the litle pismire to labour for thy selfe and not to burden others.

when wilt thou arise out of thy sleepe?
10 * Yet a litle sleepe, a litle slumber, c a litle folding of the hands to sleepe, 11 Therefore thy pouertie commeth as one that d trauaileth by the way, and thy necessitie like e an armed man.
12 The vnthriftie man f and the wicked man walketh with a froward mouth.
13 He maketh a signe with his eyes: he † signifieth with his feet: he g instructeth with his fingers.
14 Lewde things are in his heart: he imagineth euill at all times, and raiseth vp contentions.
15 Therefore shall his destruction come speedily: hee shall be destroyed suddenly without recouerie.
16 ¶ These sixe things doeth the Lorde hate:
yea, his soule abhorreth seuen: 17 The hautie eyes, a lying tongue, and the hands that shed innocent blood, 18 An heart that imagineth wicked enterprises, h feete that be swift in running to mischiefe, 19 A false witnesse that speaketh lyes, and him that raiseth vp contentions among || brethren.
20 ¶ My sonne, keepe thy fathers commandement, and forsake not thy mothers instruction.
21 Binde them alway vpon thine i heart, and tye them about thy necke.
22 It shal leade thee, when thou walkest: it shal watch for thee when thou sleepest, and when thou wakest, it shall talke with thee.
23 For the k commandement is a lanterne, and instruction a light: and l corrections for instruction are the way of life, 24 To keepe thee from the wicked woman, &
from the flattery of ye tongue of a strange woman.
25 Desire not her beautie in thine heart, neyther let her take thee with her m eye lids.
26 For because of the whorish woman a man is brought to a morsell of bread, and a woman will hunt for the precious life of a man.
27 n Can a man take fire in his bosome, and his clothes not be burnt?
28 Or can a man go vpon coales, and his feete not be burnt?
29 So he that goeth in to his neighbours wife, shall not be innocent, whosoeuer toucheth her.
30 Men do not o despise a thiefe, when he stealeth, to satisfie his p soule, because he is hungry.
31 But if he be founde, he shall restore seuen folde, or he shal giue all the substance of his house.
32 But he that committeth adultery with a woman, he † is destitute of vnderstanding: hee that doeth it, destroyeth his owne soule.
33 He shall finde q a wounde and dishonour, and his reproch shall neuer be put away.
34 For ielousie is the rage of a man: therefore he will not r spare in the day of vengeance.
35 He cannot beare the sight of any raunsome:
neither wil he consent, though thou augment the giftes.

* Chap.24.33.
c He expresseth liuely the nature of the sluggards, which though they sleepe neuer so long, yet haue neuer ynough, but euer seeke occasions thereunto.
d That is, suddenly, and when thou lookest not for it.
e It shall come in such sort as thou art not able to resist it.
f He sheweth to what inconuenience the idle persons and sluggards come, by calling them vnthriftie or the men of Belial, and slanderous.
† Ebr. speaketh.
g Thus all his gesture tendeth to wickednesse.
h Meaning, the raging affections, which cary a man away in such sort that he cannot tell what he doeth.
|| Or, neighbours.
i Reade Chap.3.3.
k By the commandement he meaneth the worde of God: and by the instruction, the preaching and declaration of the same, which is committed to the Church.
l And reprehensions when the worde is preached bring vs to life.
m With her wanton lookes and gesture.
n Meaning, that shee will neuer cease, till she haue brought thee to beggerie, and then seeke thy destruction.
o He approoueth not theft, but sheweth that it is not so abominable as whoredome, forasmuch as theft might be redeemed: but adulterie was a perpetuall infamie, and death by the lawe of God.
p Meaning for very necessitie.
† Ebr. faileth in heart. q That is, death appointed by the Law. r He sheweth that man by nature seeketh his death, that hath abused his wife, & so concludeth that neither Gods Law nor the Law of nature admitteth any raunsome for the adulterie.

CHAP. VII.

1 An exhortation to wisedome and to the worde of God, 5 Which will preserue vs from the harlot, 6 Whose maners are described.

MY sonne, keepe my wordes, and hide my com-mandements with thee.
2 Keepe my commandements, and thou shalt liue, and mine instruction as the a apple of thine eyes.
3 Binde them vpon thy fingers, and write them vpon the table of thine heart.
4 Say vnto wisedome, thou art my sister: and call vnderstanding thy kinswoman, 5 That they may keepe thee from the strange woman, euen from the stranger that is smooth in her wordes.
6 ¶ b As I was in the window of mine house,
I looked through my windowe, 7 And I sawe among the fooles, and considered among the children a young man destitute of vnderstanding,
8 Who passed through the streete by her corner, and went toward her house, 9 In the twilight in the euening, when the night began to be c blacke and darke.
10 And behold, there met him a woman with an harlots || behauiour, and || subtill in heart.
11 (She d is babling and loud: whose feete can not abide in her house.
12 Nowe she is without, nowe in the streetes, and lyeth in waite at euery corner) 13 So she caught him & kissed him and † with an impudent face said vnto him, 14 I haue e peace offerings: this f day haue I payed my vowes.
15 Therefore came I forth to meete thee, that I might seeke thy face: and I haue found thee.
16 I haue deckt my bed with ornaments, || carpets and laces of Egypt.
17 I haue perfumed my bedde with myrrhe, aloes, and cynamom.
18 Come, let vs take our fill of loue vntill the morning: let vs take our pleasure in daliance.
19 For mine husband is not at home: hee is gone a iourney farre off.
20 He hath taken † with him a bagge of siluer, and will come home at the day appoynted.
21 Thus with her great craft she caused him to yeelde, and with her flattering lips she entised him.
22 And he followed her straight wayes, as an g oxe that goeth to the slaughter, and h as a foole to the stockes for correction, 23 Till a dart strike through his liuer, as a bird hasteth to the snare, not knowing that † he is in danger.
24 ¶ Heare me now therefore, O children, and hearken to the wordes of my mouth.
25 Let not thine heart decline to her wayes:
wander thou not in her paths.
26 For shee hath caused many to fall downe wounded, & the i strong men are all slaine by her.
27 Her house is the way * vnto ye graue, which goeth downe to the chambers of death.

a By this diuersitie of wordes he meaneth that no thing ought to be so deare vnto vs, as the worde of God, nor that we looke on any thing more, nor minde any thing so much.
b Salomon vseth this parable to declare their folly, that suffer themselues to be abused by harlots.
c He sheweth that there was almost none so impudent, but they were afraide to be seene, & also their owne consciences did accuse them, which caused them to seeke the night to couer their filthinesse.
|| Or, garment.
|| Or, hid.
d He describeth certaine conditions, which are peculiar to harlots.
† Ebr. she strengthened her face.
e Because that in peace offerings a portion returned to them that offered, she sheweth him that she hath meate at home to make good cheere with: or els she woulde vse some cloke of holinesse till she had gotten him in her snares.
f Which declareth that harlots outwardly will seeme holy and religious: both because they may the better deceiue others, and also thinking by obseruing of ceremonies and offerings to make satisfaction for their faults.
|| Or, carued works.
† Ebr. in his hand.
g Which thinking he goeth to the pasture, goeth willingly to his owne destruction.
h Which goeth cheerefully, not knowing that he shalbe chastised. † Ebr. it is for his life. i Neither wit nor strength can deliuer them that fall into the hands of the harlot. * Chap.2.18.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Wisedome declareth her excellencie, 11 Riches, 15 Power, 22 Eternitie, 32 She exhorteth all to loue and follow her.

DOeth * not a wisedome crie? and vnderstanding vtter her voyce?
2 Shee standeth in the top of the high places by the way in the place of the paths.
3 She cryeth besides b the gates before the ci-tie at the entrie of the doores, 4 O men, I call vnto you, and vtter my voyce to the children of men.

* Chap.1.20.
a Salomon declareth that man is cause of his owne perdition, and that he can pretend no ignorance, forasmuch as God calleth to all men by his wordes, and by his workes to followe vertue and to flee from vice.
b Where the people did most resort, and which was the place of iustice.

5 O ye foolish men, vnderstande wisedome, and ye, O fooles, be wise in heart.
6 Giue eare, for I will speake of excellent things, and the opening of my lippes shall teache things that be right.
7 For my mouth shall speake the trueth, and my lippes abhorre wickednesse.
8 All the wordes of my mouth are righteous:
there is no lewdenesse, nor frowardnesse in them.
9 They are all [c] plaine to him that wil vnderstande, and streight to them that woulde finde knowledge.
10 Receiue mine instruction, and not siluer, and knowledge rather then fine golde.
11 For wisdome is better then precious stones:
and all pleasures are not to be compared vnto her.
12 I wisedome dwel with [d] prudence, and I find forth knowledge and counsels.
13 The feare of the Lorde is to hate [e] euill, as pride, and arrogancie, and the euill way: and a mouth that speaketh lewde things, I doe hate.
14 I haue counsell and wisedome: I am vnder-standing, and I haue strength.
15 By me, Kings [f] reigne, and princes decree iustice.
16 By me princes rule, and the nobles, and all the iudges of the earth.
17 I loue them that loue me: and they that seeke me [g] earely, shall finde me.
18 Riches and honour are with me: [h] euen durable riches and righteousnesse.
19 My fruite is better then gold, euen then fine golde, and my reuenues better then fine siluer.
20 I cause to walke in the way of righteousnes, and in the middes of the paths of [i] iudgement, 21 That I may cause them that loue me, to inherite substance, and I will fill their treasures.
22 The Lord hath possessed me in the beginning of his way: I was [k] before his workes of olde.
23 I was set vp from euerlasting, from the beginning and before the earth.
24 When there were no depths, was I begotten, when there were no fountaines abounding with water.
25 Before the mountaines were setled: and before the hilles, was I begotten.
26 He had not yet made the earth, nor the open places, nor the height of the dust in the worlde.
27 When he prepared the heauens, I was [l] there, when he set the compasse vpon the deepe.
28 When hee established the cloudes aboue, when he confirmed the fountaines of the deepe, 29 When he gaue his decree to the Sea, that the waters shoulde not passe his commaunde-ment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth,
30 Then [m] was I with him as a nourisher, and I was dayly his delight reioycing alway before
him,
31 And tooke my [n] solace in the compasse of [o] his earth: and my delite is with the children of men.
32 Therefore nowe hearken, O children, vnto me: for blessed are they that keepe my wayes.
33 Heare instruction, and be ye wise, and rec Meaning, that the worde of God is easie vnto all, that haue a desire vnto it, and which are not blinded by the prince of this worlde.

d That is, except a man haue wisedome, which is the true knowledge of God, he can neither be prudent nor good counseller.
e So that he that doeth not hate euill, feareth not God.
f Whereby he declareth that honors, dignitie or riches come not of mans wisedome or industrie, but by the prouidence of God.
g That is, study the word of God diligently, and with a desire to profite.
h Signifying, that he chiefly meaneth the spirituall treasures and heauenly riches.
i For there can be no true iustice or iudgement, which is not directed by this wisedome.
k He declareth hereby the diuinitie and eternitie of this wisedome, which he magnifieth and prayseth through this booke: meaning thereby the eternall sonne of God Iesus Christ our Sauiour, whome Saint Iohn calleth the worde that was in the beginning, Ioh. 1. 1.
l He declareth the eternitie of the Sonne of God, which is meant by this worde Wisedome, who was before all time, and euer present with the Father.
m Some reade a chiefe worker: signifying that this Wisedome, euen Christ Iesus, was equall with God his father, and [illegible] preserueth and [illegible] worketh with him, as Ioh. 5. 17.
n Whereby is declared that the worke of the creation was no paine, but a solace vnto the wisedome of God.
o By earth he meaneth man, which is the worke of God in whome wisedome tooke pleasure: in so much as for mans sake the Diuine wisedome tooke mans nature, and dwelt among vs, and filled vs with vnspeakeable treasures: and this is that solace and pastime whereof is here spoken.

fuse it not: blessed is the man that heareth mee, watching dayly at my gates, & giuing attendance at the postes of my doores.
34 For he that findeth me, findeth life, and shal obteine fauour of the Lord.
35 But he that sinneth against me hurteth his owne soule: and all that hate me, loue death.

CHAP. IX.

1 Wisedome calleth all to her feast. 7 The scorner will not bee corrected. 10 The feare of God. 13 The conditions of the harlot.

WIsedome hath built her [a] house, and hewen out her [b] seuen pillars.
2 Shee hath killed her vitailes, drawen her wine, and [c] prepared her table.
3 She hath sent foorth her [d] maidens and cryeth vpon the highest places of the citie, saying, 4 Who so is [e] simple, let him come hither, and to him that is destitute of wisedome, she saith, 5 Come, and eate of my [f] meate, and drinke of the wine that I haue drawen.
6 Forsake your way, yee foolish, and yee shall liue: and walke in the way of vnderstanding.
7 He that reprouth a scorner, purchaseth to himselfe shame: and he that rebuketh the wicked, getteth himselfe a [g] blot.
8 Rebuke not a [h] scorner, least hee hate thee:
but rebuke a wise man, and he will loue thee.
9 Giue admonition to the wise, and he will bee the wiser: teache a righteous man, and he wil increase in learning.
10 The beginning of wisedome is the feare of the Lorde, and the knowledge of holy thinges, is [i] vnderstanding.
11 For thy daies shalbe multiplied by me, and the yeeres of thy life shalbe augmented.
12 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for [k] thy selfe, and if thou bee a scorner, thou alone shalt suffer.
13 ¶ A [l] foolish woman is troublesome: she is ignorant, and knoweth nothing.
14 But she sitteth at the doore of her house on a seate in the hie places of the citie, 15 To call them that passe by the way, that go right on their way, saying, 16 Who so is simple, let him come hither, and to him that is destitute of wisedome, shee sayeth also,
17 Stollen waters are sweete, and hid bread is pleasant.
18 But he knoweth not, that y dead are there, and that her ghests are in the depth of hell.

a Christ hath prepared him a Church.
b That is, many chiefe staies and principall partes of his Church, as were the Patriarkes, Prophets, Apostles, Pastors, and Doctors.
c He compareth wisedome with great princes that keepe open house for all that come.
d Meaning true preachers, which are not infected with mans wisedome.
e He that knoweth his owne ignorance, and is voyde of malice.
f By the meate and drinke, is meant the worde of God and the ministration of the sacraments, wherby God nourisheth his seruants in his house, which is the Church.
g For the wicked will contemne him and labour to defame him.
h Meaning, them that are incorrigible, which Christ calleth dogges and swine: or he speaketh this in comparison, not that the wicked should not be rebuked, but he sheweth their malice, and the small hope of profite.
i Hee sheweth what true vnderstanding is, to knowe the will of God in his worde, which is meant by holy things. k Thou shalt haue the chiefe profite and commoditie thereof. l By the foolish woman, some vnderstand, the wicked preachers, who counterfaite the worde of God, as appeareth verse 16, which were the wordes of the true preachers, as verse 4: but their doctrine is but as stollen waters: meaning that they are but mens traditions, which are more pleasant to the flesh then the worde of God: and therefore they themselues boast thereof.

CHAP. X.

In this Chapter and all that followe vnto the thirtieth, the wise man exhorteth by diuers sentences, which hee calleth Parables, to followe vertue, and flee vice: and also sheweth what profite commeth of wisedome, and what hinderance proceedeth of foolishnes.

THE PARABLES OF SALOMON.

A Wise * sonne maketh a gladde father: but a foolish sonne is an heauinesse to his mother. * Chap. 15. 20.
2 The treasures of [a] wickednesse profite nothing: but righteousnesse deliuereth from death.
3 The

a That is, wickedly gotten.

b Though he suffer the iust to want for a time, yet he will send him comfort in due season.
|| Or, deceitfull.

3 The Lord will b not famish the soule of the righteous: but hee casteth away the substance of the wicked.
4 A || slouthfull hand maketh poore: but the hand of the diligent maketh riche.
5 He that gathereth in sommer, is the sonne of wisedome: but he that sleepeth in haruest, is the sonne of confusion.
6 Blessings are vpon the head of the righteous:
but iniquitie shall couer the mouth of c the wicked.
7 The memoriall of the iust shalbe blessed: but the name of the wicked shall d rotte.
8 The wise in heart will receiue commandements:
but the foolish in † talke shalbe beaten.
9 He that walketh vprightly, walketh || boldely:
but he ÿ peruerteth his wayes, shalbe knowen.
10 He that e winketh with the eye, worketh sorowe, & he ÿ is f foolish in talke, shalbe beaten.
11 The mouth of a righteous man is a welspring of life: but iniquitie couereth the mouth of
the wicked.
12 Hatred stirreth vp contentions: * but loue couereth all trespasses.
13 In the lippes of him that hath vnderstanding wisdome is founde, and g a rod shalbe for the backe of him that is destitute of wisedome.
14 Wise men lay vp knowledge: but ÿ mouth of the foole is a present destruction.
15 The riche mans goods are his h strong citie:
but the feare of the needie is their pouertie.
16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life:
but the reuenues of the wicked to sinne.
17 He that regardeth instruction, is in the way of life: but he that refuseth correction, goeth out of the way.
18 He that dissembleth hatred with lying lips, and he that inuenteth slaunder, is a foole.
19 In many wordes there cannot want iniquitie:
but he that refraineth his lippes, is wise.
20 The tongue of the iust man is as fined siluer:
but the heart of the wicked is litle worth.
21 The lippes of the righteous doe i feede many:
but fooles shall die for want of wisedome.
22 The blessing of the Lorde, it maketh riche, and he doeth adde k no sorowes with it.
23 It is as a pastime to a foole to doe wickedly:
but wisedome is vnderstanding to a man.
24 That which the wicked feareth, shall come vpon him: but God will graunt the desire of the righteous.
25 As the whirlewinde passeth, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is as an euerlasting foundation.
26 As vineger is to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the slouthful to them that l send him.
27 The feare of the Lord increaseth the dayes:
but the yeeres of the wicked m shalbe diminished.
28 The patient abiding of the righteous shall be gladnesse: but the hope of the wicked shall perish.
29 The way of the Lord is strength to the vpright man: but feare shall be for the workers of iniquitie.
30 The righteous shall n neuer be remooued: but the wicked shall not dwell in the land.
31 The mouth of the iust shall be fruitfull in wisedome: but the tongue of the froward shall be cut out.
32 The lippes of the righteous knowe what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaketh froward things.

c When their wickednesse shall be discouered, they shall be as dumme, and not know what to say.
d Shalbe vile and abhorred both of God and man, contrary to their owne expectation, which thinke to make their name immortall.
† Ebr. lippes.
|| Or, surely.
e He that beareth a faire countenãce, and imagineth mischiefe in his heart, as Chap. 6. 13.
f For the corruption of his heart is knowen by his talke.
* 1. Cor. 13. 4. 1. pet. 4. 8.
g That is, God wil make him out to punish him.
h And so maketh him bolde to doe euill, whereas pouertie bridleth the poore from many euill things.
i For they speake trueth and edifie many by exhortations, admonitions and counsell.
k Meaning that all worldly things bring care, and sorowe, whereas they that feele the blessings of God, haue none.
l He is but a trouble and griefe to him that setteth him about any businesse.

THe prophecie which ẏ man spake vnto Ithiel,

2 Surely I am more c foolish then any man, and haue not the vnderstanding of a man in me.
3 For I haue not learned wisedome, nor atteined to the knowledge of holy things.
4 Who hath ascended vp to d heauen, and descended? Who hath gathered the winde in his fist?
Who hath bound the waters in a garment ? Who hath established all the endes of the world? What is his name, and what is his sonnes name, if thou canst tell?
5 * Euery worde of God is pure: he is a shield to those that trust in him.
6 * Put nothing vnto his wordes, least hee re-proue thee, and thou be found a lyar.

me them not before I die.
8 Remooue farre from mee vanitie and lyes: giue me not pouertie, nor riches : feede me with foode conuenient for me, is the Lorde? and least I be poore and steale, and take the Name of my God in vaine, ther, and doeth not blesse their mother.

and their eye liddes are lifted vp.

afflicted out of the earth, and the poore from among men.

that cannot bee satisfied with water, and the fire that sayeth not, It is ynough.

seth the instruction of his mother, let ẏ rauens i of a serpent vpon a stone, the way of a ship in ẏ mids of the sea, and the way of a man with a maide, man: she eateth and k wipeth her mouth, and saith, I haue not committed iniquitie.

foure it cannot susteine it selfe.

when he is filled with meate, 23 For the hatefull woman, when she is married, & for a handmaid that is m heire to her mistres.
24 These be foure smal things in the earth, yet they are n wise, and full of wisedome.
25 The pismires a people not strong, yet prepare they their meate in sommer: 26 The conies a people not mighty, yet make their houses in the rocke: 27 The grashopper hath no King, yet go they forth all by bandes:
28 The spider taketh holde o with her hands, and is in Kings palaces.
29 There be three thinges that order well their going : yea, foure are comely in going, 30 A lion which is strong among beastes, and turneth not at the sight of any :
31 A lusty grayhound, and a goate, and a King against whom there is no rising vp.
32 If thou hast bene foolish in lifting thy selfe vp, and if thou hast thought wickedly, lay thine hand p vpon thy mouth.
33 When one churneth milke, hee bringeth foorth butter : and he that wringeth his nose, causeth blood to come out : so he that forceth wrath, bringeth foorth strife.

h The leach hath two forkes in her tongue, which here he calleth her two daughters, whereby she sucketh the blood, and is neuer saciate: euen so are the couetous extortioners insatiable.

ECCLESIASTES, OR THE PREACHER.

THE ARGVMENT.

Salomon as a Preacher & one that desired to instruct all in the way of saluatiō, describeth the deceiueable vanities of this worlde: that man shoulde not be addicted to any thing vnder the sunne, but rather inflamed with the desire of the heauenly life: therefore he confuteth their opinions, which set their felicitie, either in knowledge, or in pleasures, or in dignitie and riches, shewing that mans true felicitie consisteth in that that he is vnited with God, and shal enioy his presence: so that al other things must be reiected, saue in as much as they further vs to atteine to this heauenly treasure, which is sure and permanent, and cannot be founde in any other saue in God alone,

CHAP. I.

2 All things in this worlde are full of vanitie, and of none endurance. 13 All mans wisedome is but follie and griefe.

THe wordes of the [a] Preacher, the sonne of Dauid King in Ierusalem.
2 [b] Vanitie of vanities, saith the Preacher: vanitie of vanities, all is vanitie.
3 What remaineth vnto man in all his [c] trauaile, which he suffereth vnder ẏ sunne?
4 One generation passeth, and another generation succeedeth: but the earth remaineth for [d] euer.
5 The sunne riseth, and ẏ sunne goeth down, and draweth to his place, where he riseth.
6 The [e] winde goeth towarde the South, and compasseth toward the North: the winde goeth round about, and returneth by his circuites.
7 * All the riuers go into the sea, yet the sea is not full: for the riuers go vnto the place, [f] whence they returne, and goe.
8 All things are full of labour: man cannot vtter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the eare filled with hearing.
9 [g] What is it that hath bene? that that shal-be: and what is that hath bene done? that which shalbe done: and there is no newe thing vnder
the sunne.
10 Is there any thing, whereof one may say, Beholde this, it is newe? it hath bene already in the olde time that was before vs.
11 There is no memorie of the former, neither shall there be a remembraunce of the latter that shalbe, with them that shal come after.
12 ¶ [h] I the Preacher haue bene King ouer Israel in Ierusalem.
13 And I haue giuen mine heart to search and finde out wisedome by al things that are done vnder the heauen: (this sore trauaile hath GOD giuen to the sonnes of men, [i] to humble them thereby.)
14 I haue considered all the workes that are done vnder the sunne, and beholde, all is vanitie, and vexation of the spirite.
15 That which is [k] crooked, can none make straight: & that which faileth cannot be nombred.
16 I thought in mine heart, and said, Behold, I am become great, and excell in wisedome all them that haue bene before me in Ierusalem: and mine heart hath seene much wisedome and knowledge.
17 And I gaue mine heart to knowe wisedome and knowledge, [l] madnes and foolishnes: I knew also that this is a vexation of the spirit.
18 For in the multitude of wisedome is much [m] griefe: and hee that increaseth knowledge, increaseth sorowe.

a Salomon is here called a Preacher, or one that assembleth the people, because hee teacheth the true knowledge of God, and how men ought to passe their life in this transitorie worlde.
b He condemneth the opinions of all men that set felicitie in any thing, but in God alone, seeing that in this worlde all things are as vanitie and nothing.
c Salomon doeth not condemne mans labour or diligence, but sheweth that there is no full contentation in any thing vnder the heauen, nor in any creature, forasmuch as all things are transitorie.
d One man dieth after another, and the earth remaineth longest, euen to the last day, which yet is subiect to corruption. e By the sunne, winde, and riuers he sheweth that the greatest labour and longest hath an ende, and therefore there can bee no felicitie in this worlde. * Ecclus. 40.11. f The sea which compasseth all the earth, filleth the veines thereof, the which powre out springs and riuers into the sea againe, g He speaketh of times and seasons, and things done in them, which as they haue bene in times past, so come they to passe againe.

h He proueth that if any could haue attained to felicitie in this world by labour and studie, he chiefly should haue obteined it, because he had giftes and aides of God thereunto aboue all other.
i Man of nature hath a desire to knowe, and yet is not able to come to the perfection of knowledge, which is the punishment of sinne, to humble man, and to teache him to depend onely vpon God.
k Man is not able by all his diligence to cause things to go otherwise then they doe: neither can he nomber the faultes that are committed, much lesse remedie thē.
l That is, vayne things, which serued vnto pleasure, wherein was no commoditie, but griefe and trouble of conscience. m Wisdome and knowledge cannot be come by without great paine of body and minde: for when a man hath attained to the highest, yet is his minde neuer fully content; therefore in this worlde is no true felicitie.

CHAP.

CHAP. II.

Pleasures, sumptuous buildings, richesse and possessions are but vanitie. 14 The wise and the foole haue both one ende touching the bodily death.

I Saide in mine heart, Goe to now, I will prooue [a] thee with ioy: therefore take thou pleasure in pleasant things: and beholde, this also is vanitie.

2 I saide of laughter, Thou art mad: and of ioy, What is this that thou doest?

3 I sought in mine heart † to giue my selfe to wine, and to leade mine heart in [b] wisedome, and to take holde of follie, till I might see where is that goodnesse of the children of men, which they † enioy vnder the sunne: the whole nomber of the dayes of their life.

4 I haue made my great workes: I haue built me houses: I haue planted me vineyardes.

5 I haue made mee gardens and † orchards, and planted in them trees of all fruite.

6 I haue made me cisternes of water, to water therewith the woods that growe with trees.

7 I haue gotten seruants and maides, and had children borne in the [c] house: also I had great possession of beeues and sheepe aboue all that were before me in Ierusalem.

8 I haue gathered vnto mee also siluer and gold, and the chiefe treasures of Kings & prouinces: I haue prouided me men singers and women singers, and the [d] delites of the sonnes of men, as a woman [e] taken captiue, & women taken captiues.

9 And I was great, & increased aboue all that were before me in Ierusalem: also my wisedome [f] remained with me.

10 And whatsoeuer mine eyes desired, I withheld it not from them: I withdrew not mine heart from any ioy: for mine heart reioyced in all my labour: & this was my [g] portion of all my trauaile.

11 Then I looked on all my workes that mine hands had wrought, and on the trauaile that I had laboured to doe: and beholde, all is vanitie and vexation of the spirit: and there is no profite vnder the sunne.

12 ¶ And I turned to beholde [h] wisdome, and madnes and follie: (for who is the man that ‖ will come after the King in things, which men now haue done?)

13 Then I saw that there is profite in wisdome, more then in follie: as the light is more excellent then darkenesse.

14 * For the wise mans [i] eyes are in his head, but the foole walketh in darknes: yet I know also that the same [k] condition falleth to them all.

15 Then I thought in mine heart, It befalleth vnto me, as it befalleth to ŷ foole. Why therefore doe I then labour to be more wise? And I saide in mine heart, that this also is vanitie.

16 For there shalbe no remembrance of the wise, nor of the foole [l] for euer: for that that now is, in the dayes to come shall all be forgotten. And [m] how dyeth the wise man, as doeth the foole?

17 Therefore I hated life: for the worke that is wrought vnder the sunne is grieuous vnto me: for all is vanitie, and vexation of the spirit.

18 I hated also all my labour, wherein I had trauailed vnder the sunne, which I shall leaue to the man that shalbe after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shalbe wise or foolish? yet shall he haue rule ouer all my labour, wherein I haue trauailed, and wherein I haue shewed my selfe wise vnder the sunne. This is also vanitie.

20 Therefore I went about to make mine heart [n] abhorre all the labour, wherein I had trauailed vnder the sunne.

21 For there is a man whose trauaile is in wisdome, and in knowledge and in equitie: yet to a man that hath not trauailed herein, shal he [o] giue his portion: this also is vanitie and a great griefe.

22 For what hath man of all his trauaile and griefe of his heart, wherein he hath trauailed vnder the sunne?

23 For all his dayes are sorowes, and his trauaile griefe: his heart also taketh not rest in the night: which also is vanitie.

24 There is no profit to man: but ŷ he eate, and drinke, & [p] delight his soule with the profit of his labour: I saw also this, ŷ it was of the hand of God.

25 For who could eate, and who could haste to [q] outward things more then I?

26 Surely to a man that is good in his sight, God giueth wisdome, and knowledge, and ioy: but to the sinner he giueth paine, to gather, and to heape to giue to him that is good before God: this is also vanitie, and vexation of the spirit.

a Salomon maketh this discourse with himselfe, as though he would trye whether there were contentation in ease & pleasures.
† Ebr. drawe my flesh to wine.
b Albeit I gaue my selfe to pleasures, yet I thought to keepe wisdome and the feare of God in mine heart, and gouerne mine affaires by the same.
† Ebr. doe.
c Meaning, of the seruants or slaues, which hee had bought: so the children borne in their seruitude, were the masters.
d That is, whatsoeuer men take pleasure in.
e Which were the most beautifull of them that were taken in warre, as Iudges 5.30. Some vnderstad by these wordes, no women but instruments of musicke.
f For all this God did not take his gift of wisedome from me.
g This was the fruite of all my labour, a certaine pleasure mixt with care, which he calleth vanitie in the next verse.
h I bethought wt my selfe whether it were better to followe wisdome, or mine owne affections and pleasures, which hee calleth madnes.
‖ Or, compare with the King.
* Prouerb. 17.24.
i He foreseeth things, which the foole cannot for lacke of wisdome.
k For both die and are forgotten, as verse 16, or they both alike haue prosperitie or aduersitie.
l Meaning, in this worlde.
m He wondereth that men forget a wise man, being dead, assoone as they doe a foole.
n That I might seeke the true felicitie which is in God.
o Among other griefes that was not the least, to leaue that which he had gotten by great trauaile, to one that had taken no paine therefore, and whome he knew not whether hee were a wise man or a foole.
p When man hath all laboured, hee can get no more then foode, and refreshing, yet hee confesseth also that this commeth of Gods blessing, as Chap 3.13.
q Meaning, to pleasures.

CHAP. III.

1 All things haue their time. 14 The workes of God are perfite, and cause vs to feare him. 17 God shall iudge both the iust, and vniust.

TO all things there is an [a] appointed time, and a time to euery purpose vnder the heauen.

2 A time to bee borne, and a time to die: a time to plant, and a time to plucke vp that which is planted.

3 A time to slay, and a time to heale: a time to breake downe, and a time to builde.

4 A time to weepe, and a time to laugh: a time to mourne, and a time to dance.

5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones: a time to embrace, and a time to be farre from embracing.

6 A time to seeke, and a time to lose: a time to keepe, and a time to cast away.

7 A time to rent, and a time to sowe: a time to keepe silence, and a time to speake.

8 A time to loue, and a time to hate: a time of warre, and a time of peace.

9 What profite hath hee that worketh of the thing wherein he trauaileth?

10 I haue seene the trauaile that God hath giuen to ŷ sonnes of men [b] to humble them thereby.

11 He hath made euery thing beautifull in his time: also hee hath set the [c] worlde in their heart, yet can not man finde out the worke that God hath wrought frō the beginning euen to the end.

12 I know that there is nothing good in them, but to reioyce, and to doe good in his life.

13 And also that euery man eateth and drinketh, and seeth the commoditie of all his labour, this is the [d] gift of God.

14 I knowe that whatsoeuer God shall doe, it shalbe for [e] euer: to it can no man adde, and from it can none diminish: for God hath done it, that they should feare before him.

15 What is that that hath bene? that is now: and that that shalbe, hath now bene: for God [f] requireth that which is past.

16 And moreouer I haue seene vnder the sunne the place of iudgement, where was wickednesse, and the place of iustice where was iniquitie.

17 I thought in mine heart, God will iudge the iust a He speaketh of this diuersitie of time for two causes, first to declare that there is no thing in this world perpetual: next, to teach vs not to be grieued, if we haue not all things at once according to our desires, neither enioye them so long as we would wish.

b Reade Chap. 1.13.
c God hath giuen man a desire, and affection to seeke out the things of this world, and to labour therein.
d Reade Chap. 2. 24. and these places declare that we should do al things with sobrietie, and in the feare of God, forasmuch as he giueth not his gifts to the intent that they should be abused.
e That is, man shal neuer be able to let Gods worke, but as he hath determined, so it shal come to passe.
f God onely causeth that, which is past, to returne.

iust and the wicked: for time is g there for euery purpose and for euery worke.
18 I considered in mine heart the state of the children of men that God had h purged them: yet to see to, they are in themselues as beastes.
19 For the condition of the children of men, and the condition of beasts are euen as one i condition vnto them. As the one dyeth, so dyeth the other: for they haue all one breath, and there is no excellency of man aboue ye beast: for all is vanitie.
20 All goe to one place, & all was of the dust, and all shall returne to the dust.
21 Who k knoweth whether the spirit of man ascend vpward, and the spirit of the beast descend downeward to the earth?
22 Therefore I see that there is nothing better then that a man shoulde l reioyce in his affaires, because that is his portion. For who shal bring him to see what shalbe after him?

g Meaning, wt God, howsoeuer man neglect his duetie.
h And made them pure in their first creation.
i Man is not able by his reason, and iudgement to put difference betweene man and beast, as touching those things wherunto both are subiect: for the eye cannot iudge any otherwise of a man being dead, then of a beast, which is dead: yet by the worde of God and faith wee easily knowe the diuersitie, as verse 21.
k Meaning, that reason cannot comprehend that which faith beleeueth herein.
l By the often repetition of this sentence, as Chap. 2.24. and Chap. 3.12,22. Chap. 5.17. and Chap. 8.15. hee declareth that man by reason can comprehende nothing better in this life then to vse the giftes of God soberly and comfortably: for to knowe farther is a speciall gift of God reueiled by his Spirit.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The innocents are oppressed. 4 Mens labours are full of abuse and vanitie. 9 Mans societie is necessarie. 13 A yong man poore, and wise, is to be preferred to an olde King that is a foole.

SO a I turned and considered all the oppressions that are wrought vnder the sunne, and be-holde the teares of the oppressed, and none com-forteth them: and lo, the strength is of the hand of them ye oppresse them, & none comforteth them.
2 Wherefore I praysed the b dead which now are dead, aboue the liuing, which are yet aliue.
3 And I count him c better then them both, which hath not yet bin: for he hath not seene the euill workes which are wrought vnder the sunne.
4 Also I behelde all trauaile, & all d perfection of works ye this is the enuie of a man against his neighbour: this also is vanitie & vexation of spirit.
5 The foole foldeth his hands, and e eateth vp his owne flesh.
6 Better is an handfull with quietnesse, then two handfuls with labour and vexation of spirit.
7 Againe I returned, and sawe vanitie vnder
the sunne.
8 There is one alone, & there is not a second, which hath neither sonne nor brother, yet is there none ende of all his trauaile, neither can his eye be satisfied with riches: neither doeth hee thinke, For whome doe I trauaile and defraude my soule of pleasure? this also is vanitie, and this is an euill trauaile.
9 f Two are better then one: for they haue better wages for their labour.
10 For if they fal, the one wil lift vp his felow:
but wo vnto him that is alone: for he falleth, and there is not a second to lift him vp.
11 Also if two sleepe together, then shall they haue heate: but to one how should there be heate?
12 And if one ouercome him, two shall stand against him: and a threefolde g coard is not easily broken.
13 Better is a poore and wise childe, then an olde and foolish King, which will no more be admonished.
14 For out of the h prison he commeth foorth to reigne: when as he that is i borne in his kingdome, is made poore.
15 I behelde all the liuing, which walke vnder the sunne, k with the second childe, which shall stand vp in his place.
16 There is none l ende of all the people, nor of all that were before them, and they that come after, shall not reioyce in him: surely this is also vanitie and vexation of spirit.
17 Take heede to thy m foote when thou entrest into the House of God, and be more neere to heare then to giue the sacrifice of n fooles: for they knowe not that they doe euill.

a He maketh here another discourse with himselfe concerning the tyrannie of them that oppressed the poore.
b Because they are no more subiect to these oppressions.
c He speaketh according to the iudgement of the flesh, which cannot abide to feele, or see troubles.
d The more perfite that the worke is, the more is it enuied of the wicked.
e For idlenesse he is compelled to destroy himselfe.
f Forasmuch as when man is alone, he can neither helpe himselfe nor others, hee sheweth that men ought to liue in mutuall societie, to the intent they may be profitable one to another, and that their things may increase.
g By this prouerbe he declareth how necessarie it is, that men should liue in societie.
h That is, from a poore, and base estate, or out of trouble, and prison, as Ioseph did, Gen. 41.14.
i Meaning, that is borne a King.
k Which followe & flatter the kings sonne, or him that shall succeede, to enter into credite with them in hope of gaine.
l They neuer cease by all meanes to creepe into fauour: but when they obteine not their griedy desires, they thinke themselues abused, as other haue bene in time past, and so care no more for him.
m That is, with what affection thou commest to heare the woorde of God.
n Meaning, of the wicked, which thinke to please God with ceremonies, and haue neither faith nor repentance.

CHAP. V.

1 Not to speake lightly, chiefly in Gods matters. 9 The couetous can neuer haue ynough. 11 The labourers sleepe is sweete. 14 Man when he dyeth, taketh nothing with him. 18 To liue ioyfully, and with a contented minde, is the gift of God.

BE not a rash with thy mouth, nor let thine heart be hastie to vtter a thing before God: for God is in the heauens, and thou art on the earth:
therefore let thy wordes be b fewe.
2 For as a dreame commeth by the multitude of businesse: so the voyce of a foole is in the multitude of wordes.
3 * When thou hast vowed a vowe to God, deferre not to pay it: for he deliteth not in fooles:
pay therefore that thou hast c vowed.
4 It is better that thou shouldest not vowe, then that thou shouldest vowe and not pay it.
5 Suffer not thy mouth to make thy d flesh to sinne: neither say before the e Angel, that this is ignorance: wherefore shall God be angrie by thy voyce, and destroy the worke of thine hands?
6 For in the multitude of dreames, and vanities are also many wordes: but feare thou God.
7 If in a countrey thou seest the oppression of the poore, and the defrauding of iudgement and iustice, be not astonied at the matter: for hee that is f higher then the highest, regardeth, & there be higher then they.
8 And the g abundance of the earth is ouer all: the King h also consisteth by the fielde that is tilled.
9 He that loueth siluer, shall not be satisfied with siluer, and he that loueth riches, shalbe without the fruite thereof: this also is vanitie.
10 When goods increase, they are increased that eate them: and what good commeth to the owners thereof, but the beholding thereof with their eyes?
11 The sleepe of him that traueileth, is sweete, whether he eate litle or much: but the i sacietie of the riche will not suffer him to sleepe.
12 There is an euil sickenesse that I haue seene vnder the sunne: to wit, riches k reserued to the owners thereof for their euill.
13 And these riches perish by euill trauell, and he begetteth a sonne, and in his l hand is nothing.
14 * As he came foorth of his mothers belly, he shall returne naked to goe as he came, and shall beare away nothing of his labour, which hee hath caused to passe by his hand.
15 And this also is an euill sickenes that in all pointes as he came, so shall he goe, and what profit hath he that he hath traueiled for the m winde?
16 Also all his dayes he eateth in n darkenesse a Either in vowing or in praying: meaning, that we should vse all reuerence to Godwarde.

b He heareth thee not for thy many wordes sake, or often repetitions, but considereth thy faith, and feruent minde.
* Deut. 23,21.
c He speaketh of vowes, which are approued by Gods word and serue to his glory.
d Cause not thy selfe to sinne by vowing rashly as they doe which make a vowe to liue vnmarried, and such like.
e That is, before Gods messenger, when he shall examine thy doings as though thy ignorance should be a iust excuse.
f Meaning, that God will redresse these things, and therefore we must depend vpon him.
g The reuenues of the earth are to be preferred aboue all things which apperteine to this life.
h Kings and Princes cannot mainteine their estate without tillage, which thing commendeth the excellencie of tillage.
i That is, his great abundance of riches, or the surfeiting, which commeth by his great feeding.
k When couetous men heape vp riches, which turne to their destruction.
l Hee doeth not enioye his fathers riches. * Job 1.21. wisdome 7.6. 1. timoth. 6.7. m Meaning, in vaine, and without profit. n In affliction, and griefe of minde.

with much griefe, and in his sorowe and anger.
17 Beholde then, what I haue seene good, that it is comely to º eate, and to drinke, and to take pleasure in all his labour, wherein he trauaileth vnder the sunne, the whole nomber of the dayes of his life, which God giueth him: for this is his portion.
18 Also to euery man to whome God hath gi-uen riches and treasures, and giueth him power to eate thereof, and to take his part, and to enioy his labour: this is the gift of God.
19 Surely hee will not much remember the dayes of his ᵖ life, because God answereth to the ioy of his heart.

o Reade ver.[illegible]

p He will take no great thought for the paines that he hath indured in time past.

CHAP. VI.

The miserable estate of him to whome God hath giuen riches, and not the grace to vse them.

There is an euill, which I sawe vnder the sunne, and it is much among men:
2 A man to whom God hath giuen riches and treasures and honour, and he wanteth nothing for his soule of all that it desireth: but ᵃ God giueth him not power to eate thereof, but a strange man shall eate it vp: this is vanitie, and this is an euill sicknesse.
3 If a man beget an hundreth children and liue many yeeres, and the dayes of his yeeres bee multiplied, and his soule bee not ᵇ satisfied with good things, and he bee not ᶜ buried, I say that an vn-timely fruite is better then he.
4 For ᵈ hee commeth into vanitie and goeth into darkenesse: and his name shall be couered with darkenesse.
5 Also he hath not seene ẏ sunne, nor knowen it: therefore this hath more rest then the other.
6 And if hee had liued a thousand yeeres twise tolde, and had seene no good, shall not all goe to one place?
7 All the labour of man is for his mouth: yet the ᵉ soule is not filled.
8 For what hath the wise man more then the foole? what hath the poore that ᶠ knoweth how to walke before the liuing?
9 The ᵍ sight of the eye is better then to walke
in ẏ lustes: this also is vanitie, & vexation of spirit.
10 What is that that hath bene? the name thereof is nowe named: and it is knowen that it is man: and he cannot striue with him that is ʰ stronger then he.

a He sheweth that it is the plague of God when the riche man hath not a liberall heart to vse his riches.
b If he can neuer haue ynough.
c As we see often times, that the couetous man either falleth into crimes that deserue death, or is murthered or drowned or hangeth himselfe or such like, and so lacketh the honor of buriall, which is the last office of humanitie.
d Meaning, the vntimely fruite whose life did neither profite or hurt any.
e His desire and affection.
f That knoweth to vse his goods well in the iudgement of men.
g To be content with that which God hath giuen, is better then to followe the desires that neuer can be satisfied.
h Meaning, God who will make him to feele that he is mortall.

CHAP. VII.

Diuers precepts to followe that which is good, and to auoyde the contrary.

Surely there be many things that increase vani-
tie: and what auaileth it man?
2 For who knoweth what is ᵃ good for man in the life and in the nomber of the dayes of the life of his vanitie, seeing he maketh them as a *shadowe? For who can shewe vnto man what shall be after him vnder the sunne?
3 * A good name is better then a good oynt-ment, and the day of ᵇ death, then the day that one is borne.
4 It is better to goe to the house of ᶜ mourning, then to goe to the house of feasting, because this is the ende of all men: and the liuing shall lay it to his heart.
5 Anger is better then laughter: for by a sad looke the heart is made better.
6 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning: but the heart of fooles is in the house of mirth.

a There is no state, wherein man can liue to haue perfite quietnesse in this life.
*Iob.14.2. psal.144.4.
*Prou.22.1.
b He speaketh thus after the iudgement of the flesh, which thinketh death to be the ende of all euils: or else, because that this corporall death is the entring into life euerlasting.
c Where we may see the hand of God, and learne to examine our liues.

7 Better it is to heare ẏ rebuke of a wise man, then that a man should heare the song of fooles.
8 For like the noyse of the ᵈ thornes vnder the pot, so is the laughter of the foole: this also is vanitie.
9 Surely oppression maketh a wise man ᵉ mad:
and the reward destroyeth the heart.
10 The ᶠ ende of a thing is better then the beginning thereof, and the pacient in spirit is better then the proude in spirit.
11 Be not thou of an hastie spirit to be angry:
for anger resteth in the bosome of fooles.
12 Say not thou, Why is it that the former dayes were better then these? for thou doest not enquire ᵍ wisely of this thing.
13 Wisedome is good with an ʰ inheritance, and excellent to them that see the sunne.
14 For man shall rest in the shadowe of wise-dome, and in the shadowe of siluer: but the excellencie of the knowledge of wisedome giueth life to the possessers thereof.
15 Beholde the worke of God: for who can make * straight that which he hath made crooked?
16 In the day of wealth bee of good comfort, and in the day of affliction ⁱ consider: God also hath made this contrary to that, to the intent that man shoulde finde ᵏ nothing after him.
17 I haue seene all things in the dayes of my vanitie: there is a iust man that perisheth in his ˡ iustice, and there is a wicked man that continu-eth long in his malice.
18 Be not thou iust ᵐ ouermuch, neither make thy selfe ouerwise: wherefore shouldest thou bee desolate?
19 Be not thou wicked ⁿ ouermuch, neither be thou foolish: wherefore shouldest thou perish not in thy time?
20 It is good that thou lay hold on º this: but yet withdrawe not thine hand from ᵖ that: for he that feareth God, shall come forth of them all.
21 Wisedome shall strengthen the wise man more then ten mightie princes that are in the citie.
22 * Surely there is no man iust in the earth, that doeth good and sinneth not.
23 Giue not thine ᵠ heart also to all ẏ wordes that men speake, lest thou doe heare thy seruant cursing thee.
24 For often times also thine heart knoweth that thou likewise hast ‖ cursed others.
25 All this haue I prooued by wisedome: I thought I will be wise, but it went farre from me.
26 It is farre off, what may ʳ it be? and it is a profound deepenesse, who can finde it?
27 I haue compassed about, both I and mine heart to knowe and to enquire and to search wise-dome, and reason, and to knowe the wickednesse of follie, and the foolishnesse of madnesse, 28 And I finde more bitter then death the woman whose heart is as nettes and snares, and her handes as bands: he that is good before God, shal-be deliuered from her, but the sinner shall be taken by her.
29 Beholde, sayth the Preacher, this haue I found, seeking one by one to ſ finde the count: 30 And yet my soule seeketh, but I finde it not: I haue found one man of a thousande: but a woman among them all haue I not founde.
31 Onely loe, this haue I founde, that God hath made man righteous: but they haue sought many ᵗ inuentions.

CHAP.

d Which crakle for a while and profite nothing.
e A man that is esteemed wise, when he falleth to oppression, becommeth like a beast.
f He noteth their lightnes which enterprise a thing, and suddenly leaue it off againe.
g Murmure not against God when he sendeth aduersities for mans sinnes.
h He answereth to them that esteeme not wisedome, except riches be ioyned therewith, shewing that both are the giftes of God, but that wisedome is farre more excellent, and may be without riches.
*Chap.1.15.
i Consider wherefore God doeth send it, and what may comfort thee.
k That man should be able to controle nothing in his workes.
l Meaning, that cruell tyrants put the godly to death and let the wicked goe free.
m Boast not too much of thine owne iustice and wisedome.
n Tarie not long when thou art admonished to come out of the way of wickednesse.
o To wit, on these admonitions that goe before.
p Consider what desolation and destruction shall come, if thou doe not obey them.
*1.King.8.46. 2.chro.6.36. prou.20.9. 1.iohn.1.8.
q Credite them not, neither care for them.
‖ Or, spoken euill of others.
r Meaning, wisedome.
ſ That is, to come to a conclusion.
t And so are cause of their owne destruction.

CHAP. VIII.

2 To obey Princes and Magistrates. 17 The workes of God passe mans knowledge.

Who is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? the wise-dome of a man doth make his [a] face to shine: and the [b] strength of his face shalbe changed.
2 I aduertise thee to take heede to ÿ [c] mouth of the King, and to the worde of the othe of God.
3 [d] Haste not to goe forth of his sight: stand not in an euill thing: for he will doe whatsoeuer pleaseth him.
4 Where the word of ÿ King is, there is power, and who shall say vnto him, What doest thou?
5 He that keepeth the commandement, shall knowe none euill thing, and the heart of the wise shall knowe the [e] time and iudgement.
6 For to euery purpose there is a time and iudgement, because the [f] miserie of man is great vpon him.
7 For he knoweth not that which shalbe: for who can tell him when it shalbe?
8 Man is not lorde [g] ouer the spirit to retaine the spirite: neither hath hee power in the day of death, nor deliuerance in the battell, neither shall wickednesse deliuer the possessers thereof.
9 All this haue I seene, and haue giuen mine heart to euery worke, which is wrought vnder the sunne, and I sawe a time that man ruleth ouer man to his owne [h] hurt.
10 And likewise I sawe the wicked buried, and [i] they returned, and they that came from the holy [k] place, were yet forgotten in the citie where they had done right: this also is vanitie.
11 Because sentence against an euill worke is not [l] executed speedily, therefore the heart of the children of men is fully set in them to doe euill.
12 Though a sinner doe euill an hundreth times, and God prolongeth his dayes, yet I knowe that it shalbe well with them that feare the Lord, and doe reuerence before him.
13 But it shall not be well to the wicked, neither shall he prolong his dayes: he shalbe like a shadowe, because he feareth not before God.
14 There is a vanitie, which is done vpon the earth, that there bee righteous men to whome it commeth according to the [m] work of the wicked:
and there bee wicked men to whome it commeth according to the worke of the iust: I thought also that this is vanitie.
15 And I praysed ioy: for there is no goodnesse to man vnder the sunne, saue [n] to eate and to drinke and to reioyce: for this is adioyned to his labour, the dayes of his life that God hath gi-uen him vnder the sunne.
16 When I applied mine heart to knowe wise-dome, and to beholde the busines that is done on earth, that neither day nor night the eyes of man take sleepe, 17 Then I beheld the whole worke of God, that man cannot finde out the worke ÿ is wrought vnder the sunne: for the which man laboureth to seeke it, and cannot finde it: yea, and though the wise man thinke to knowe it, he cannot finde it.

a That is, doeth get him fauour and prosperitie.
b Whereas before he was proud and arrogant, he shall become humble and meeke.
c That is, that thou obey the King, and keepe the othe that thou hast made for the same cause. d Withdrawe not thy selfe lightly from the obedience of thy prince.
e That is, when time is to obey, and howe farre he should obey.
f Man of himselfe is miserable, and therefore ought to doe nothing to increase the same, but to worke al things by wisedome and counsell.
g Man hath no power to saue his owne life, and therefore must not rashly cast him selfe into danger.
h As commeth oft times to tyrants, and wicked rulers.
i That is, others as wicked as they.
k They that feared God, and worshipped him according as hee had appointed.
l Where iustice is delayed, there sinne reigneth.
m Which are punished as though they were wicked, as Chap. 7.17.
n Reade Chap. 3.12.

CHAP. IX.

1 By no outward thing can man knowe whome God loueth or hateth. 12 No man knoweth his ende. 16 Wisedome excelleth strength.

I Haue surely giuen mine heart to all this, and to declare all this, that the iust, and the wise, and their workes are in the hand of God: and no man knoweth eyther loue or [a] hatred of all that is before them.
2 All things come alike to all: and the same condition is to the iust and to the wicked, to the good and to the pure, and to the polluted, and to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner, he that sweareth, as he that feareth an othe.
3 This is euill among all that is done vnder the sunne, that there is one [b] condition to all, and also the heart of the sonnes of men is full of euill, and madnes is in their heartes whiles they liue, and after that, they goe to the dead.
4 Surely whosoeuer is ioyned to all the liuing, there is hope: for it is better to a [c] liuing dog, then to a dead lyon.
5 For the liuing knowe that they shall dye, but the dead knowe nothing at all: neither haue they any more a rewarde: for their remembrance is forgotten.
6 Also their loue, and their hatred, and their enuie is now perished, and they haue no more portion for euer, in all that is done vnder the sunne.
7 Goe, eate thy bread with ioy, & drinke thy wine with a cheerefull heart: for God nowe [d] ac-cepteth thy workes.
8 At all times let thy garments be [e] white, and let not oyle be lacking vpon thine head.
9 † *Reioyce with the wife whom thou hast loued all the dayes of the life of thy vanitie, which God hath giuen thee vnder the sunne all the dayes of thy vanitie: for this is thy portion in the life, and in thy trauaile wherein thou labourest vnder
the sunne.
10 All that thine hande shall finde to doe, doe it with all thy power: for there is neither worke nor inuention, nor knowledge, nor wisedome in the graue whither thou goest.
11 I returned, and I sawe vnder the sunne that the race is not to the swift, nor the battell to the strong, nor yet bread to the wise, nor also riches to men of vnderstanding, neither yet fauour to men of knowledge: but time and [f] chance commeth to them all.
12 For neither doth man knowe his [g] time, but as the fishes which are taken in an euill net, and as the birdes that are caught in the snare: so are the children of men snared in the euill time when it falleth vpon them suddenly.
13 I haue also seene this wisedome vnder the sunne, and it is great vnto me.
14 A litle citie and fewe men in it, and a great King came against it, and compassed it about, and builded fortes against it.
15 And there was founde therein a poore and wise man, and hee deliuered the citie by his wise-dome: but none remembred this poore man.
16 Then said I, Better is wisdome then stregth:
yet the wisedome of the poore is despised, and his wordes are not heard.
17 The wordes of the wise are more heard in quietnesse, then the crye of him that ruleth among fooles.
18 Better is wisedome then weapons of warre:
but one sinner destroyeth much good.

a Meaning, what things he ought to chuse or refuse, or man knoweth not by these outwarde things, that is, by prosperitie or aduersitie, whō God doeth fauour or hate: for he sendeth them aswell to the wicked as to the godly.
b In outwarde things, as riches and pouertie, sicknesse and health, there is no difference betweene the godly and the wicked: but the difference is that the godly are assured by faith of Gods fauour and assistance.
c He noteth the Epicures, and carnall men, which made their bellie their god, and had no pleasure but in this life, wishing rather to be an abiect, and vile person in this life, then a man of authoritie, and so to die, which is meant by the dog and lyon.
d They flatter themselues to be in Gods fauour, because they haue all things in abundance.
e Reioyce, be merie, and spare for no cost, thus spake the wicked belly gods.
† Ebr. regarde the life.
* Chap. 5.18.
f Thus the worldlings say to proue that all things are lawfull for them, and attribute that to chance and fortune, which is done by the prouidence of God.
g That is, he doeth not foresee what shall come.

CHAP. X.

1 The difference of foolishnesse and wisedome. 11 A slanderer is like a serpent that cannot be charmed. 16 Of foolish Kings, and drunken princes, 17 And of good Kings and princes.

Dead

DEad flies cause to stinke, and putrifie the ointment of the apoticarie: so doeth a litle follie him that is in estimation for wisedome, and for glorie.
2 The heart of a [a] wise man is at his right hand: but the heart of a foole is at his left hand.
3 And also when the foole goeth by the way, his heart faileth, and he [b] telleth vnto all that he is a foole.
4 If the [c] spirite of him that ruleth, rise vp against thee, leaue not thy place: for gentlenes pacifieth great sinnes.
5 There is an euill that I haue seene vnder the sunne, as an [d] error that proceedeth from the face of him that ruleth.
6 Follie is set in great excellencie, and the [e] riche set in the lowe place.
7 I haue seene seruants on horses, and princes walking as seruants on the ground.
8 * He that diggeth a pit, shal fall into it, and he that breaketh ẏ hedge, a serpent shall bite him.
9 He that remoueth stones, shall hurt himselfe thereby, and he that cutteth wood, shall be in danger thereby.
10 If the yron be blunt, and one hath not whet the edge, he must then put to more [f] strength: but the excellencie to direct a thing is wisedome.
11 If the serpent bite, when he is not charmed:
no better is a babbler.
12 The words of the mouth of a wise man haue grace: but the lippes of a foole deuoure himselfe.
13 The beginning of the wordes of his mouth is foolishnesse, and the latter ende of his mouth is wicked madnesse.
14 For the foole multiplieth wordes, saying, Man knoweth not what shall be: and who can tell him what shall be after him?
15 The labour of the foolish doeth wearie him:
for he knoweth not to goe into the [g] citie.
16 Woe to thee, O lande, when thy King is a [h] childe, and thy princes [i] eate in the morning.
17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy King is the sonne [k] of nobles, and thy princes eate in time, for strength and not for drunkennesse.
18 By slouthfulnesse the roofe of the house goeth to decay, and by the idlenesse of the handes the house droppeth through.
19 They prepare bread for laughter, and wine comforteth the liuing, but siluer answereth to all.
20 Curse not the King, no not in thy thought, neither curse the rich in thy bed chamber: for the [l] foule of the heauen shall carie the voyce, & that which hath wings, shall declare the matter.

a So that he doeth all things well and iustly, where as the foole doeth the contrarie.
b By his doings he bewraieth himself.
c If thy superiour be angry w thee, be thou discreete, and not mooued.
d Meaning, that it is an euill thing when they that are in autoritie, faile, and doe not their duetie.
e They that are rich in wisedome and vertue.
* Psal.7.16. prou.26.27. eccle.27.26.
f Without wisedome whatsoeuer a man taketh in hand, turneth to his owne hurt.
g The ignorance and beastlinesse of the wicked is such, that they knowe not common things, and yet will they discusse hie matters.
h That is, without wisdome and counsell.
i Are giuen to their lustes and pleasures.
k Meaning when he is noble for vertue and wisedome and with the gifts of God.
l Thou canst not worke euill so secretly, but it shall be knowen.

CHAP. XI.

1 To be liberall to the poore. 4 Not to doubt of Gods prouidence. 8 All worldly prosperitie is but vanitie. 9 God will iudge all.

CAst thy bread vpon the [a] waters: for after many dayes thou shalt finde it.
2 Giue a portion to seuen, & also to eight: for thou knowest not what euill shalbe vpon ẏ earth.
3 If the [b] clouds be full, they will powre forth raine vpon the earth: and if the [c] tree doe fall toward the South, or toward the North, in the place that the tree falleth, there it shalbe.
4 He that obserueth the [d] winde, shal not sow, and he that regardeth the cloudes, shall not reape.
5 As thou knowest not which is ẏ way of the spirit, nor howe the bones doe growe in the wombe of her that is with childe; so thou knowest not the worke of God that worketh all.
6 In the morning sowe thy seede, and in the euening let not thine hand [e] rest: for thou know-est not whether shall prosper, this or [f] that, or whether both shall be a like good.
7 Surely the light is a pleasant thing: and it is a good thing to the eyes to see the sunne.
8 Though a man liue many yeeres, and in them all he reioyce, yet he shall remember the dayes of [g] darkenesse, because they are many, all that commeth is vanitie.
9 [h] Reioyce, O yong man, in thy youth, and let thine heart cheere thee in the dayes of thy youth: and walke in the wayes of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but knowe that for all these things, God will bring thee to iudgement.
10 Therefore take away [i] griefe out of thine heart, and cause euill [k] to depart from thy flesh: for childehood and youth are vanitie.

a That is, be liberall to the poore, & though it seeme to be as a thing ventred on the sea, yet it shall bring thee profite.
b As the cloudes that are ful, powre out raine, so the rich that haue abundance, must distribute it liberallie.
c He exhorteth to be liberall while we liue: for after there is no power.
d Hee that feareth inconueniences, when necessitie requireth, shall neuer doe his duetie.
e Be not wearie of well doing.
f That is, which of thy workes are most agreeable to God.
g That is, of affliction & trouble.
h Hee derideth them that set their delite in worldly pleasures, as though God would not call them to an account.
i To wit, anger, and enuie.
k Meaning, carnal lustes whereunto youth is giuen.

CHAP. XII.

1 To thinke on God in youth, and not to deferre till age. 7 The soule returneth to God. 11 Wisedome is the gift of God, and consisteth in fearing him and keeping his commandements.

REmember nowe thy Creator in the dayes of thy youth, whiles the euill dayes come not, nor the yeeres approche, wherein thou shalt say, I haue no pleasure in them:
2 Whiles the sunne is not darke, nor the light, nor the moone, nor the starres, nor the [a] cloudes returne after the raine:
3 When the [b] keepers of the house shal tremble, and the [c] strong men shall bow themselues, and the [d] grinders shall cease, because they are few, and they waxe darke that [e] looke out by the windowes: 4 And the [f] doores shall be shut without by the base sound of the [g] grinding, and he shall rise vp at the voyce of the [h] birde: and all the [i] daughters of singing shall be abased.
5 Also they shalbe afraide of the [k] hie thing, and feare shalbe in [l] the way, and the almond tree shall [m] flourish, and the [n] grassehopper shall be a burden, and concupiscence shall be driuen away:
for man goeth to the house of his age, and the mourners goe about in the streete.
6 Whiles the [o] siluer coarde is not lengthened, nor the golden [p] ewer broken, nor the [q] pitcher broken at the [r] well, nor the [s] wheele broken at the [t] cisterne:
7 And dust returne to the earth as it was, and the [u] spirite returne to God that gaue it.
8 Vanitie of vanities, saieth the Preacher, all is vanitie.
9 And the more wise the preacher was, the more he taught the people knowledge, and caused them to heare, and searched foorth, and prepared many parables.
10 The Preacher sought to finde out pleasant wordes, and an vpright writing, euen the wordes of trueth.
11 The wordes of the wise are like goades, and like nailes [x] fastened by the masters of the assemblies, which are giuen by one [y] pastour.
12 And of other things beside these, my sonne, take thou heede: for there is none ende in making a Before thou come to a continuall miserie: for when the cloudes remaine after the raine, mans griefe is increased.

b The handes, which keepe the body.
c The legges.
d The teeth.
e The eyes.
f The lippes, or mouth.
g When the chawes shall scarse open and not be able to chewe no more.
h He shall not be able to sleepe.
i That is, the winde pipes, or the eares shall be deafe and not able to heare singing.
k To climbe hie because of their weakenes, or they stoupe downe, as though they were afraied least any thing should hit them.
l They shall tremble as they goe, as though they were afraide.
m Their head shalbe as white as the blossomes of almond tree.
n They shall be able to beare nothing.
o Meaning, the marowe of the backe bone and the sinewes.
p The litle skin that couereth the braine, which is in colour like golde.
q That is, the veines.
r Meaning the liuer.
s Which is the head.
t That is, the heart, out of the which the head draweth the powers of life.
u The soule incontinently either goeth to ioy or torment, and sleepeth not not as the wicked imagine.
x Which are well applied by the ministers, whom he calleth masters.
y That is, by God.

many

many [z] bookes, and much reading is a wearines of the flesh.

13 Let vs heare the ende of all: feare God and keepe his commaundements: for this is the whole dutie of man.

14 For God will bring euery worke vnto iudgement, with euery secret thing, whether it be good or euill.

z These things cannot be comprehended in bookes or learned by studie, but God must instruct thy heart that thou mayest onely knowe that wisedome is the true felicitie, and the way thereunto is to feare God.

AN †EXCELLENT SONG
WHICH WAS SALOMONS.

† Ebr. a song of songs: so called because it is the chiefest of those 1005 which Salomon made, as is mentioned, 1 King. 4.32.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN this Song, Salomon by most sweete and comfortable allegories and parables describeth the perfite loue of Jesus Christ, the true Salomon and King of peace, and the faithfull soule or his Church, which hee hath sanctified and appointed to be his spouse, holy, chaste and without reprehension. So that here is declared the singular loue of the bridegrome towarde the bride, and his great and excellent benefites, wherewith hee doth enriche her of his pure bountie and grace without any of her deseruings. Also the earnest affection of the Church which is inflamed with the loue of Christ, desiring to be more and more ioyned to him in loue, and not to be forsaken for any spot or blemish that is in her.

CHAP. I.

1 The familiar talke and mysticall communication of the spirituall loue betweene Iesus Christ and his Church. 5 The domesticall enemies that persecute the Church.

LEt [a] him kisse me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy loue is better then wine.

2 Because of the [b] sauour of thy good ointments, thy name is as an ointment powred out: therefore the [c] virgins loue thee.

3 [d] Drawe me: wee will runne after thee: the King hath brought me into his [e] chambers: we will reioyce and be glad in thee: we will remember thy loue more then wine: the righteous doe loue thee.

4 I am [f] blacke, O daughters of Ierusalem, but comely, as the tentes of [g] Kedar, and as the [h] curtaines of Salomon.

5 Regard ye me not because I am [i] blacke: for the [k] sunne hath looked vpon me. The [l] sonnes of my mother were angry against me: they made me the keeper of the vines: but I [m] kept not mine owne vine.

6 Shewe me, [n] O thou, whom my soule loueth, where thou feedest, where thou liest at noone: for why should I be as she that turneth aside to the flockes of [o] thy companions?

7 [p] If thou knowe not, O thou the fairest among women, get thee foorth by the steps of the flocke, and feede thy kiddes by the tents of the shepheards.

8 I haue compared thee, O my loue, to the troupe of horses in the [q] charets of Pharaoh.

9 Thy cheekes are comely with rowes of stones, and thy necke with chaines.

10 We will make thee borders of golde with studs of siluer.

11 [r] Whiles the King was at his repast, my spikenard gaue the smell thereof.

12 My welbeloued is as a bundle of myrrhe vnto me: he shall lie betweene my [s] breasts.

13 My welbeloued is as a cluster of camphire vnto me in the vines of Engedi.

14 My loue, beholde, thou art [t] faire: beholde, thou art faire: thine eyes are like the doues.

15 My welbeloued, beholde, thou art faire: and pleasant: also our [u] bed is greene.

16 The beames of our house are cedars, our rafters are of firre.

a This is spoken in the person of the Church, or of the faithfull soule inflamed with the desire of Christ, whom she loueth.
b The feeling of thy great benefites.
c They that are pure in heart and conuersation.
d The faithfull confesse that they cannot come to Christ except they be drawen.
e Meaning, the secret ioy that is not knowen to the world.
f The Church confesseth her spots and sinne, but hath confidence in the fauour of Christ.
g Kedar was Ishmaels sonne, of whom came the Arabians that dwelt in tents.
h Which within were all set with precious stones and iewels.
i Consider not the Church by the outwarde appearance.
k The corruption of nature through sinne and afflictions.
l Mine owne brethren, which should haue most fauoured me.
m She confesseth her owne negligence.
n The spouse feeling her fault, fleeth to her husband onely for succour.
o Whom thou hast called to the dignitie of pastours, and they set foorth their owne dreames in stead of thy doctrine.
p Christ speaketh to his Church, bidding them that are ignorant, to go to the pastors to learne.
q For thy spirituall beauty & excellencie there was no worldly treasure to be compared vnto thee.
r The Church reioyceth that she is admitted to the company of Christ.
s Hee shall be most deare vnto me. t Christ accepteth his Church & commendeth her beautie.
u That is, the heart of the faithfull wherein Christ dwelleth by his Spirit.

CHAP. II.

3 The Church desireth to rest vnder the shadowe of Christ. 8 She heareth his voyce. 14 She is compared to the doue. 15 And the enemies to the foxes.

IAm the rose of the fielde, and the lilie of the valleys.

2 Like a lilie among the thornes, so is my [a] loue among the daughters.

3 [b] Like the apple tree among the trees of the forest, so is my welbeloued among the sonnes of men: vnder his shadowe had I delite, & sate downe: and his fruite was sweete vnto my mouth.

4 He brought me into the wine cellar, and loue was his banner ouer me.

5 Stay me with flagons, and comfort me with apples: for I am sicke of loue.

6 His left hand is vnder mine head, and his right hand doeth imbrace me.

7 [c] I charge you, O daughters of Ierusalem, by the roes and by the hindes of the fielde, that ye stirre not vp, nor waken my loue, vntill she please.

8 [d] It is the voyce of my welbeloued: beholde, he commeth leaping by the mountaines, and skipping by the hilles.

9 My welbeloued is like a roe, or a yong hart: loe, he [e] standeth behinde our wall, looking forth of the windowes, shewing himselfe through the [f] grates.

10 My welbeloued spake and said vnto me, Arise, my loue, my faire one, and come thy way.

11 For beholde, [g] winter is past: the raine is changed, and is gone away.

12 The flowers appeare in the earth: the time of the singing of birdes is come, and the voyce of the turtle is heard in our land.

13 The figtree hath brought foorth her yong figges: and the vines with their small grapes haue cast a sauour: arise my loue, my faire one, and come away.

14 My doue, that art in the [h] holes of ẏ rocke, in the secret places of the staires, shewe me thy sight, let me heare thy voyce: for thy voyce is sweete, and thy sight comely.

15 Take vs the foxes, the [i] little foxes, which destroy the vines: for our vines haue small grapes.

16 My welbeloued is mine, and I am his: hee feedeth among the lilies, 17 Vntil the day breake, and the shadowes flee away: returne, my welbeloued, and be like a [k] roe, or a yong hart vpon the mountaines of Bether.

a Thus Christ preferreth his Church aboue all other things.
b The spouse testifieth her great desire towarde her husbande, but her strength faileth her, and therefore she desireth to be comforted, and felt it.
c Christ chargeth them which haue to doe in the Church, as it were by a solemne othe, that they trouble not the quietnesse thereof.
d This is spoken of Christ, who tooke vpon him our nature to come to helpe his Church.
e Forasmuch as his diuinitie was hidde vnder the cloke of our flesh.
f So that we can not haue ful knowledge of him in this life.
g That is, sinne and errour is driuen backe by the cōming of Christ, which is here described by the spring time, when all things florish.
h Thou that art ashamed of thy sinnes, come and shewe thy selfe vnto me.
i Suppresse the heretiques whiles they are yong, that is, whē they begin to shewe their malice & destroy the vine of the Lord.
k The Church desireth Christ to be most readie to helpe her in all dangers.

CHAP.

CHAP. III.

1 The Church desireth to bee ioyned inseparably to Christ her husband. 6 Her deliuerance out of the wildernes.

IN my bed by [a] night I sought him that my soule loued: I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise therefore nowe, and goe about in the citie, by the streetes and by the open places, and will [b] seeke him that my soule loueth: I sought him, but I found him not.

3 The [c] watchmen that went about the citie, found mee: to whom I said, Haue you seene him, whom my soule loueth?

a The Church by night, that is, in troubles seeketh to Christ, but is not incōtinently heard.
b Shewing that although we be not heard at the first, yet we must still continue in prayer til we feele comfort.
c Which declareth, that we must seeke vnto all, of whom we hope to haue any succour.

4 When I had past a litle from them, then I found him whom my soule loued: I tooke holde on him and left him not, till I had brought him vnto my mothers house into the chamber of her that conceiued me.

5 [d] I charge you, O daughters of Ierusalem, by the roes and by the hindes of the fielde, that ye stirre not vp, nor waken my loue vntill she please.

d Reade Chap. 2. 7.

6 Who is shee that commeth vp out of the [e] wildernes like pillars of smoke perfumed with myrrhe and incense, and with all the † spices of the marchant?

7 Beholde his [f] bed, which is Salomons: threescore strong men are round about it, of the valiant men of Israel.

e This is referred to the Church of Israel, which was led by the wildernes fourtie yeeres.
† Ebr. powder.
f By the bed is ment the Temple, which Salomon made.

8 They all handle the sworde, and are expert in warre, euery one hath his sword vpon his thigh for the feare [g] by night.

9 King Salomon made himselfe a ‖ palace of the trees of Lebanon.

10 Hee made the pillars thereof of siluer, and the pauement thereof of gold, the hangings thereof of purple, whose middes was paued with the loue of the daughters of Ierusalem.

11 Come forth, ye [h] daughters of Zion, and behold the King Salomon with the [i] crowne, wherewith his mother crowned him in ye day of his mariage, and in the day of the gladnes of his heart.

g He alludeth to the watch, which kept the Temple.
‖ Or, charet.
h All ye, that are of the nomber of the faithfull.
i Christ become man was crowned by the loue of God with the glorious crowne of his diuinitie.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The praises of the Church. 7 Shee is without blemish in his sight. 9 The loue of Christ towardes her.

BEholde, thou art [a] faire, my loue: behold, thou art faire: thine eyes are like the doues: among thy lockes * thine hayre is like the [b] flocke of goates, which looke downe from the mountaine of Gilead.

a Because Christ delighteth in his Church, he commendeth all that is in her.
* Chap. 6. 4.
b He hath respect to the multitude of the faithfull which are many in nomber.

2 Thy teeth are like a flocke of sheepe in good order, which go vp from the washing: which euery one bring out twinnes, and none is barren among them.

3 Thy lippes are like a threede of scarlet, and thy talke is comely: thy temples are within thy lockes as a piece of a pomegranate.

4 Thy necke is as the tower of Dauid built for defence: a thousand shieldes hang therein, and all the targates of the strong men.

5 Thy two [c] breastes are as two young roes that are twinnes, feeding among the lilies.

c Wherein are knowledge, and zeale, two precious iewels.

6 Vntill the day breake, and the shadowes flie away, I will go into the mountaine of myrrhe and to the mountaine of incense.

7 Thou art all faire, my loue, and there is no spot in thee.

8 [d] Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, euen with me from Lebanon, and looke from the toppe of Amanah, from the toppe of Shenir, and Hermon, from the dennes of the lyons, and from the mountaines of the leopards.

d Christ promiseth his Church to call his faithfull from all the corners of the world.

9 My [e] sister, my spouse, thou hast wounded mine heart: thou hast wounded mine heart with one of thine [f] eyes, and with a chaine of thy neck.

10 My sister, my spouse, how faire is thy loue? how much better is thy loue then wine? and the sauour of thine oyntments then all spices?

11 Thy [g] lippes, my spouse, droppe as honie combes: honie and milke are vnder thy tongue, and the sauour of thy garmentes is as the sauour of Lebanon.

e Christ calleth his Church sister, in respect that he had taken the flesh of man.
f In that he made his Church beautifull and rich, he loued his gifts in her.
g Because of thy confession and thankesgiuing.

12 My sister my spouse is as a garden inclosed, as a spring shut vp, and a fountaine sealed vp.

13 Thy plantes are as an orchard of pomegranates with sweete fruites, as camphire, spikenarde, 14 Euen spikenarde, and saffron, calamus, and cynamon with all the trees of incense, myrrhe and aloes, with all the chiefe spices.

15 [h] O fountaine of the gardens, O well of liuing waters, and the springs of Lebanon.

16 Arise, O [i] North, and come O South, and blowe on my garden that the spices thereof may flow out: let my welbeloued come to his garden, and eate his pleasant fruite.

h The Church confesseth that all her glory, & beautie commeth of Christ, who is the true fountaine of all grace.
i She desireth Christ to comfort her, and to powre the graces of his Spirit vpon her, which Spirit is ment by the North and South winde.

CHAP. V.

1 Christ calleth his Church to the participation of all his treasures. 2 She heareth his voyce. 3 She confesseth her nakednes. 10 She praiseth Christ her husband.

I Am come into my [a] garden, my sister, my spouse: I gathered my myrrhe with my spice: I ate mine hony combe with mine hony, I dranke my wine with my milke: eate, O friends, drinke, and make you mery, O welbeloued.

2 [b] I sleepe, but mine heart waketh, it is the voyce of my welbeloued that knocketh, saying, Open vnto mee, my sister, my loue, my doue, my vndefiled: for mine head is full of dewe, and my lockes with the droppes of the [c] night.

3 I haue put off my [d] coate, how shall I put it on? I haue washed my feete, how shall I defile them?

4 My welbeloued put in his hand by the hole of the doore, and † mine heart was affectioned toward him.

5 I rose vp to open to my welbeloued, and mine hands did drop downe myrrhe, and my [e] fingers pure myrrhe vpon the handels of the barre.

6 I opened to my welbeloued: but my welbeloued was gone, and past: mine heart was gone when he did speake: I sought him, but I could not finde him: I called him, but hee answered mee not.

7 The [f] watchmen that were about the citie, found mee: they smote me and wounded me: the watchmen of the walles tooke away my vaile from me.

8 I charge you, [g] O daughters of Ierusalem, if you finde my welbeloued, that you tell him that I am sicke of loue.

9 [h] O the fairest among women, what is thy welbeloued more then other welbeloued? what is thy welbeloued more then another louer, that thou doest so charge vs?

10 My welbeloued is white and ruddie, the chiefest of ten thousand.

11 His [i] head is as fine golde, his lockes curled, and blacke as a rauen.

12 His eyes are like doues vpon the riuers of waters, which are washt with milke, and remaine by the full vessels.

13 His cheekes are as a bedde of spices, and as sweete a The garden signifieth the kingdome of Christ where he prepareth the banket for his elect.

b The spouse saith that she is troubled with the cares of worldly things, which is ment by sleeping.
c Declaring the long pacience of the Lord toward sinners.
d The spouse confesseth her nakednes, and that of her selfe she hath nothing: or seeing that she is once made cleane, she promiseth not to defile her selfe againe.
† Ebr. my bowels were mooued towards him.
e The spouse which should be anointed of Christ, shall not finde him if she thinke to anoynt him with her good workes.
f These are the false teachers, which wound the conscience with their traditions.
g She asketh of them which are godly (forasmuch as the law & saluation should come out of Zion and Ierusalem) that they would direct her to Christ.
h Thus say they of Ierusalem.
i She describeth Christ to be of perfit beauty, and comelinesse.

sweete flowers, and his lippes like lilies dropping downe pure myrrhe.
† Ebr. Tarshish.
14 His hands as rings of gold set with the † chrysolite, his belly like white yuorie couered with saphirs.
15 His legges are as pillars of marble, set vpon sockets of fine golde: his countenance as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.
16 His mouth is as sweete thinges, and hee is wholy delectable: this is my welbeloued, and this is my louer, O daughters of Ierusalem.
17 k O the fairest among women, whither is thy welbeloued gone? whither is thy welbeloued turned aside, that we may seeke him with thee?

k Hearing of the excellencie of Christ the faithfull desire to knowe how to finde him.

CHAP. VI.

2 The Church assureth her selfe of the loue of Christ. 3 The praises of the Church. 8 She is but one and vndefiled.

MY welbeloued is gone downe into his a garden to the beds of spices, to feede in the gardens, and to gather lilies.
2 I am my welbelоueds, and my welbeloued is mine, who feedeth among the lilies.
3 Thou art beautifull my loue, as b Tirzah, comly as Ierusalem, terrible as an army with banners.
4 c Turne away thine eyes from me: for they ouercome mee: * thine heart is like a flocke of goates, which looke downe from Gilead.
5 Thy teeth are like a flocke of sheepe, which goe vp from the washing, which euery one bring out twinnes, and none is barren among them.
6 Thy temples are within thy locks as a piece of a pomegranate.
7 There are d threescore Queenes and fourescore concubines, & of the damsels without nūber.
8 But my doue is alone, and my vndefiled, she is the onely daughter of her mother, and shee is deare to her that bare her: the daughters haue seene her & coūted her blessed: euen the Queenes and the concubines, and they haue praised her.
9 e Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, faire as the moone, pure as the sunne, terrible as an armie with banners!
10 I went downe to the garden of nuttes, to see the fruites of the valley, to see if the vine budded, and if the pomegranates flourished.
11 g I knew nothing, my soule set me h as the charets of my noble people.
12 Returne, returne, O i Shulamite, returne returne that we may behold thee. What shal you see in the Shulamite, but as the company of an armie?

a That is, is conuersant here in earth among men.
b Which was a faire and strong citie, 1.King.14.17.
c This declareth the exceeding loue of Christ toward his Church.
* Chap. 4.1.
d Meaning, that the giftes are infinite which Christ giueth to his Church: or that his faithful are many in nomber.
e Hee sheweth that the beginning of the Church was small, but that it grew vp to a great multitude.
f He went downe into the Synagogue to see what fruites came of the Lawe, and the Prophets.
g I found nothing but rebellion.
h I ranne as swift as the nobles of my people in their charets.
i O yee people of Ierusalem: for Ierusalem was called Shalem, which signifieth peace.

CHAP. VII.

1 The beautie of the Church in all her members. 10 She is assured of Christes loue towards her.

HOw beautifull are thy a goinges with shooes, O princes daughter! the ioynts of thy thighs are like iewels: the worke of the hande of a cunning workeman.
2 Thy nauel is as a round cuppe that wanteth not licour: thy belly is as an heape of wheat com-passed about with lilies.
3 b Thy two breastes are as two yoong roes that are twinnes.
4 Thy necke is like a towre of yuorie: thine eyes are like the fishe pooles in Heshbon by the gate of Bath-rabbim: thy nose is as the towre of Lebanon, that looketh toward Damascus.
5 Thine head vpon thee is as skarlet, and the bush of thine head like purple: the King is tied c in the ‖ rafters.
6 How faire art thou, and howe pleasant art thou, O my loue, in pleasures!

a Hee describeth the comely beauty of the Church in euery part, which is to be vnderstand spiritually.
b Reade Chap. 4.5.
c He deliteth to come nere thee and to be in thy companie.
‖ Or, galeries.

7 This thy stature is like a palme tree, and thy brests like clusters.
8 I saide, I will goe vp into the palme tree, I will take holde of her boughes: thy breastes shall nowe be like the clusters of the vine: and the sauour of thy nose like apples, 9 And the roufe of thy mouth like good wine, which goeth straight to my welbeloued, and causeth the lips of the ancient to speake.
10 d I am my welbelоueds, and his desire is toward me.
11 Come, my welbeloued, let vs go foorth into the field: let vs remaine in the villages.
12 Let vs get vp early to the vines, let vs see if the e vine florish, whether it hath budded the small grape, or whether the pomegranates florish: there will I giue thee my loue.
13 The mandrakes haue giuen a smell, and in our gates are all sweete things, new and olde: my welbeloued, I haue kept them for thee.

d This the spouse speaketh.
e If the people that are called to Christ, bring forth any fruite.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The Church will be taught by Christ. 3 Shee is vpholden by him. 6 The vehement loue wherewith Christ loueth her. 11 She is the vine that bringeth forth fruit to the Spirituall Salomon, which is Iesus Christ.

OH a that thou werest as my brother that sucked the brests of my mother: I would finde thee without, I would kisse thee, then they should not despise ‖ thee.
2 I will leade thee and bring thee into my mothers house: there thou shalt teach mee: and I will cause thee to drinke spiced wine, and newe wine of the pomegranate.
3 b His left hand shalbe vnder mine head, and his right hand shall embrace me.
4 c I charge you, O daughters of Ierusalē, that you stir not vp, nor wake my loue, vntil she please.
5 (Who is this that commeth vp out of the wildernesse, leaning vpon her welbeloued?) I ray-sed thee vp vnder an apple tree: there thy mother conceiued thee: there she cōceiued that bare thee.
6 d Set mee as a seale on thine heart, and as a signet vpō thine arme: for loue is strong as death:
ielousie is cruell as the graue: the coles thereof are fierie coles, and a vehement flame.
7 Much water cannot quench loue, neither can the floods drowne it: If a man should giue all the substance of his house for loue, they woulde greatly contemne it.
8 e Wee haue a litle sister, and shee hath no breastes: what shall we do for our sister when she shalbe spoken for?
9 f If shee be a wall, we will builde vpon her a siluer palace: and if she be a doore, we will keepe her in with bords of cedar.
10 g I am a wall, and my breasts are as towres:
then was I in his eyes as one that findeth peace.
11 h Salomon had a vine in Baal-hamon: hee gaue the vineyarde vnto keepers: euery one bringeth for ẏ fruite thereof a thousand pieces of siluer.
12 But my vineyarde which is mine, is before me: to thee, O Salomon apperteineth a thousande pieces of siluer, & two hūdreth to them that keepe
the fruite thereof.
13 O thou that dwellest in the i gardens, the companions hearken vnto thy voyce: cause me to heare it.
14 O my welbeloued, k flee away, & be like vnto the roe, or to the yoong hart vpon the moun-taines of spices.

‖ Or, me.
b Reade Chap. 2.6.
c Reade Chap. 3.5.
d The spouse desireth Christ to be ioyned in perpetuall loue with him.
e The Iewish Church speaketh this of the Church of the Gentiles.
f If she be sure & fast, she is meete for the husband to dwell in.
g The Church promiseth fidelitie and constancie.
h This is the vineyard of the Lord hired out, Matth. 21.33.
i Christ dwelleth in his Church, whose voice the faithfull heare.
k The Church desireth Christ that if he depart from them, yet that he would haste to helpe them in their troubles.

ISAIAH.

THE ARGVMENT.

GOd, according to his promes, Deut.18.15. that he would neuer leaue his Church destitute of a Prophet, hath from time to time accomplished the same: whose office was not onely to declare vnto the people the things to come, whereof they had a special reuelation, but also to interprete & declare the Lawe, and to apply particularly the doctrine, contained briefly therein, to the vtilitie & profit of those, to whom they thought it chiefly to appertaine, and as the time and state of things required. And principally in the declaration of the Lawe they had respect to three things, which were the ground of their doctrine: First to the doctrine contained briefly in the two tables: secondly to the promises and threatnings of the Law: and thirdly, to the couenant of grace and reconciliation, grounded vpon our Sauiour Iesus Christ, who is the ende of the Law. Whereunto they neither added nor diminished, but faithfully expounded the sense and meaning thereof. And according as God gaue them vnderstanding of thinges, they applied the promises particularly for the comfort of the Church and the members thereof, and also denounced the menaces against the enemies of the same: not for any care or regarde to the enemies, but to assure the Church of their safegard by the destruction of their enemies. And as touching the doctrine of reconciliation, they haue more cleerely intreated it then Moses, and set forth more liuely Iesus Christ, in whome this couenant of reconciliation was made. In all these things Isaiah did excel all the Prophets, and was most diligent to set out the same, with most vehement admonitions, reprehensions, and consolations: euer applying the doctrine, as he sawe that the disease of the people required. He declareth also many notable prophecies which he had receiued of God, as touching the promes of the Messiah, his office, and his kingdom. Also of the fauour of God toward his Church, the vocatiō of the Gentiles, & their vnion with the Iewes. VVhich are as most principal points contained in this booke, and a gathering of his sermons that he preached. VVhich after certaine dayes that they had stand vpon the Temple doore (for the maner of the Prophets was to set vp the summe of their doctrine for certaine dayes that the people might the better marke it, as Isa.8.1. and Habak.2.2.) the Priests tooke it downe and reserued it among the registers: and so by Gods prouidence these bookes were preserued as a monument to the Church for euer. As touching his person and time, he was of the Kings stocke (for Amoz his father was brother to Azariah King of Iudah, as the best writers agree) and prophecied more then 64. yeeres from the time of Vzziah vnto the reigne of Manasseh, whose father in lawe he was (as the Ebrewes write) and of whome he was put to death. And in reading of the Prophets, this one thing among other is to be obserued, that they speake of things to come as though they were now past, because of the certaintie thereof, and that they could not but come to passe, because God had ordeined thē in his secret counsel, and so reueiled them to his Prophets.

CHAP. I.

1 Isaiah reproueth the Iewes of their ingratitude and stubbernesse, that neither for benefits nor punishment would amend. 11 He sheweth why their sacrifices are reiected, and wherein Gods true seruice standeth. 24 He prophecieth of the destruction of Ierusalem, 25 And of the restitution thereof.

A [a] Vision of Isaiah, the sonne of Amoz, which he sawe [b] concerning Iudah and Ierusalem: in the dayes of [c] Vzziah, Iotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah Kings of Iudah.
2 Heare, O [d] heauens, and hearken, O earth: for the Lorde hath sayde, I haue nourished and brought vp [e] children, but they haue rebelled against me.
3 The [f] oxe knoweth his owner, and the asse his masters crib: but Israel hath not knowen: my people hath not vnderstand.
4 Ah, sinfull nation, a people laden with iniquitie: a [g] seede of the wicked, corrupt children: they haue forsaken the Lord: they haue prouoked the [h] holy one of Israel to anger: they are gone backewarde.
5 Wherefore shoulde ye be [i] smitten any more? for ye fall away more and more: the whole [k] head is sicke, and the whole heart is heauie.
6 From the [l] sole of the foote vnto the head, there is nothing whole therein, but wounds, and swelling, and sores full of corruption: they haue not bene wrapped, [m] nor bound vp, nor mollified with oyle.
7 Your land is waste: your cities are burnt with fire: strangers deuoure your lande in your presence, and it is desolate like the ouerthrowe [n] of strangers.
8 And the daughter of [o] Zion shall remaine like a cotage in a vineyeard, like a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, and like a besieged citie.
9 Except the Lorde of hostes [p] had reserued vnto vs, euen a small remnant: we should haue bene [q] as Sodom, and should haue bene like vnto Gomorah.
10 Heare the worde of the Lorde, O [r] princes of Sodom: hearken vnto the Law of our God, O people of Gomorah.
11 What haue I to doe with the multitude of your sacrifices, sayth the Lorde? I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, & of the fat of fed beasts: and I [s] desire not the blood of bullockes, nor of lambs, nor of goates.
12 When ye come to appeare before me, who

a That is, a reuelation or prophecie, which was one of the two meanes, whereby God declared himselfe to his seruants in olde time, as Nom.12.6. and therefore the Prophets were called Seers, 1.Sam.9.9.
b Isaiah was chiefly sent to Iudah and Ierusalem, but not onely: for in this booke are prophecies concerning other nations also.
c Called also Azariah, 2.King.15.1. of these Kings reade. 2 Kings from Chap.14. vnto Chap.21. and 2. Chron. from Chap 25. vnto Chap.33.
d Because men were obstinate and insensible, he calleth to the dumme creatures, which were more prompt to obey Gods worde, as Deut.32.1.
e He declareth his great mercey toward the Iewes, forasmuch as he chose them aboue all other nations to be his people and children, as Deut.10.15.
f The most brute and dull beastes doe more acknowledge their duetie towarde their masters, then my people doe toward me, of whome they haue receiued benefites without comparison.
g They were not onely wicked, as were their fathers, but vtterly corrupt, and by their euill example infected others.
h That is, him that sanctifieth Israel.
i What auaileth it to seeke to amende you by punishment, seeing the more I correct you, the more ye rebell?
k By naming the chiefe partes of the body, hee signifieth, that there was no part of the whole bodie of the Iewes free from his rods.
l Euery part of the body, aswell the least as the chiefest was plagued.
m Their plagues were so grieuous that they were incurable, and yet they would not repent.
n Meaning of them that dwell farre off, which, because they looke for no aduantage of that which remaineth, destroy all before them.
o That is, Ierusalem.
p Because that he will euer haue a Church to call vpon his Name.
q That is, all destroyed.
r Ye that for your vices deserued all to bee destroyed as they of Sodom, sine that God of his mercie reserued a little noumber, Lamen 3.22.
s Although God commaunded these sacrifices for a time, as aydes and exercises of their faith: yet because the people had not faith nor repentance, God detesteth them, Psalme 50, 13. Ieremie 6.20, Amos 5.21. Micah 6.7.

t Without faith and repentance.
u Your sacrifices offered in the newe moones and feasts: he condemneth hereby hypocrites, which thinke to please God with ceremonies, and they themselues are voyde of fayth and mercie.
x Hee sheweth that where men be giuen to auarice, deceite, crueltie and extortion, which is meant by blood, there God will shew his anger, and not accept them, though they seeme neuer so holy, as Chap. 58.3.
y By this outward washing, he meaneth the spirituall: exhorting the Iewes to repent and amend their liues.
z This kinde of reasoning, by the second table, the Scriptures vse in many places against the hypocrites, who pretende most holinesse and religion in worde, but when their charitie and loue towarde their brethren should appeare, they declare that they haue neither faith nor religion.
a To know if I doe accuse you without cause.
b Least sinners should pretende any rigour on Gods part, he onely willeth them to be pure in heart, and he will forgiue all their sinnes, were they neuer so many or great.
c Hee sheweth that whatsoeuer aduersitie man indureth, it ought to be attributed to his owne incredulitie and disobedience.

required this of your hands to tread in my courts?
13 Bring no mo oblations, t in vaine: incense is an abomination vnto me: I can not suffer your newe moones, nor Sabbaths, nor solemne dayes (it is iniquitie) nor solemne assemblies.
14 My soule hateth your u newe moones and your appointed feastes: they are a burden vnto me: I am weary to beare them.
15 And when you shall stretch out your hands,
I will hide mine eyes from you: and though ye make many prayers, I will not heare: for your hands are full x of blood.
16 y Wash you, make you cleane: take away the euill of your workes from before mine eyes:
cease to doe euill.
17 Learne to z doe well: seeke iudgement, re-lieue the oppressed: iudge the fatherlesse and defend the widowe.
18 Come nowe, a and let vs reason together, sayth the Lord: though your sinnes were as crimsin, they shall be made b white as snowe: though they were red like skarlet, they shall be as wooll: 19 If ye c consent and obey, ye shall eate the good things of the land.
20 But if ye refuse and be rebellious, ye shalbe deuoured with the sword: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.
21 Howe is the d faithfull citie become an harlot? it was ful of iudgement, and iustice lodged therein, but now e they are murtherers.
22 Thy f siluer is become drosse: thy wine is mixt with water.
23 Thy Princes are rebellious and companions of g theeues: euery one loueth giftes, and fol-loweth after rewardes: they iudge not the fatherlesse, neither doeth the widowes cause come before them.
24 Therefore sayth the Lorde God of hostes, the h mightie one of Israel, Ah, I will i ease me of mine aduersaries, & auenge me of mine enemies.
25 Then I will turne mine hand vpon thee, and burne out thy drosse, till it k be pure, and take away all thy tinne.
26 l And I will restore thy iudges as at the first,
and thy counsellers as at the beginning: afterward shalt thou be called a citie of righteousnes, and a faithfull citie.
27 Zion shalbe redeemed in iudgement, and they that returne in her, in m iustice.
28 And the n destruction of the transgressers and of the sinners shalbe together: and they that forsake the Lord, shalbe consumed.
29 For they shalbe confounded for the o okes, which ye haue desired, and ye shall be ashamed of the gardens, that ye haue chosen.
30 For ye shalbe as an oke, whose leafe fadeth:
and as a garden that hath no water.
31 And the strong shalbe as p towe, and the maker thereof, as a sparke: and they shall both burne together, and none shall quench them. q

p The false god, wherein ye put your confidence, shalbe consumed as easily, as a piece of towe.

CHAP. II.

1 The Church shall be restored by Christ, and the Gentiles called.
6 The punishment of the rebellious and obstinate.

THe worde that Isaiah the sonne of Amoz sawe vpon Iudah and Ierusalem.
2 *It a shall be in the last dayes, that the mountaine of the house of the Lorde shalbe prepared in the top of the mountaines, and b shall be exalted aboue the hilles, and all nations shall c flowe vnto it.
3 And many people shall go, and say, Come, and let vs go vp to d the mountaine of the Lorde, to the house of the God of Iaakob, and hee will teach vs his wayes, and we will walke in his paths:
for the * e Lawe shall go foorth of Zion, and the worde of the Lorde from f Ierusalem, 4 And g hee shall iudge among the nations, and h rebuke many people: they shall i breake their swordes also into mattocks, and their speares into siethes: nation shall not lift vp a sworde against nation, neither shall they learne k to fight any more.
5 O house of Iaakob, come ye, and let vs
l walke in the Lawe of the Lorde.
6 Surely thou m hast forsaken thy people, the house of Iaakob, because they are n full of the East maners, and are sorcerers as the Philistims, o and abound with strange children.
7 Their land also was full of p siluer & golde, and there was none ende of their treasures: and their land was full of horses, and their charets were infinite,
8 Their land also was full of idoles: they worshipped the worke of their owne hands, which their owne fingers haue made.
9 And a man bowed himselfe, and a man
q humbled himselfe: therefore r spare them not.
10 Enter into the rocke, and hide thee in the dust from before the feare of the Lord, and from the glory of his maiestie.
11 The hie looke of man shall be humbled, and the loftinesse of men shalbe abased, and the Lord onely shall be exalted in s that day.
12 For the day of the Lorde of hostes is vpon all the proude and hautie, and vpon all that is exalted: and it shall be made lowe.
13 Euen vpon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are hie & exalted, & vpon all the okes of Bashan, 14 And vpon all the hie t mountaines, and vp-on all the hilles that are lifted vp, 15 And vpon euery hie tower, and vpon euery strong wall,

*Micah 4.1.

b In an euident place to be seene and discerned.
c When the kingdome of Christ shalbe enlarged by the preaching of the doctrine. Here also is declared the zeale of the children of God, when they are called.
d Alluding to mount Zion, where the visible Church then was.
*Micah 4.2.
e Meaning the whole doctrine of saluation.
f This was accomplished, when the Gospel was first preached in Ierusalem, & from thence went thorow all the world.
g The Lord, which is Christ, shall haue all power giuen him.
h That they may acknowledge their sinnes and turne to him.
i He sheweth the fruite of the peace, which the Gospel should bring: to wit, that men should doe good one to another, where as before they were enemies.
k Hee speaketh not against the vse of weapons and lawfull warre, but sheweth how the hearts of the godly shalbe affected one toward another: which peace and loue doeth begin and growe in this life, but shalbe perfited, when we are ioyned with our head Christ Iesus.

ence. d That is, Ierusalem, which had promised fidelitie vnto me, as a wife to her husband. e Giuen to couetousnesse and extortion, which he signified before by blood, vers. 15. f Whatsoeuer was pure in thee before, is now corrupt, though thou haue an outward shew. g That is, they mainteine the wicked & the extortioners, & not onely doe not punish them, but are themselues such. h When God will shew himselfe mercifull to his Church, he calleth himselfe, The holy one of Israel: but when he hath to doe with his enemies, he is called Mightie, as against whome no power is able to resist. i I will take vengeance of mine aduersaries the Iewes, & so satisfie my desire by punishing them. Which thing yet he doeth with a griefe because of his couenant. k Least the faithfull among them should be ouercome with this threatning, he addeth this consolation. l It is onely the worke of God to purifie the heart of man, which thing he doeth because of his promes, made concerning the saluation of his Church. m By iustice, is meant Gods faithfull promes which is the cause of the deliuerance of his Church. n The wicked shall not be partakers of Gods promes, Psal. 92.9. o That is, the trees and pleasant places, where ye commit idolatrie, which was forbidden, Deut. 16.21.

l Seeing the Gentiles will be so ready, make you haste and shewe them the way to worship God. m The Prophet seeing the small hope, that the Iewes would conuert, complaineth to God, as though he had vtterly forsaken them for their sinnes. n Full of the corruptions that reigned chiefly in the East partes. o They altogether giue themselues to the facions of other nations. p The Prophet first condemned their superstition and idolatrie: next their couetousnes, and thirdly their vaine trust in worldly meanes. q He noteth the nature of the idolaters, which are neuer satisfied in their superstitions. r Thus the Prophet spake, being inflamed with the zeale of Gods glory, and that he might feare them with Gods iudgement. s Meaning, as soone as God shall beginne to execute his iudgements. t By hie trees and mountaines are meant them that are proude and loftie, and thinke them selues most strong in this world. u He condemneth their vaine confidence, which they had in strong holds, and in their rich marchandise, which brought in vaine pleasures, wherewith their mindes became effeminate.

17 And the hautinesse of men shalbe brought low,and the loftinesse of men shalbe abased, and the Lord shall onely be exalted in that day.
18 And the idoles wil he vtterly destroy.
19 Then they shall goe * into the holes of the rockes,& into the caues of the earth, from before the feare of the Lorde, and from the glory of his maiestie,when he shall arise to destroy the earth.
20 At that day shall man cast away his siluer idoles, & his golden idoles (which they had made themselues to worship them) x to the mowles and to the backes, 21 To goe into the holes of the rockes,and into the toppes of the ragged rockes from before the feare of the Lorde, and from the glory of his maiestie,when he shall rise to destroy the earth.
22 Cease you from the man whose y breath is in his nostrels: for wherein is he to be esteemed?

* Hoshe 10.8. luke 23.30. reuel.6.16. and 9.6.

x They shall cast them into most vile and filthy places,when they perceiue that they are not able to helpe them.

y Cast off your vaine confidence of man,whose life is so fraile, that if his nose be stopped,he is dead,and consider that you haue to doe with God,

CHAP. III.

1 For the sinne of the people God will take away the wise men, and giue them foolish princes. 14 The couetousnesse of the gouernours. 16 The pride of the women.

FOr lo,the Lorde God of hostes will take away from Ierusalem and from Iudah the stay a and the strength: euen all the staye of bread, and all the stay of water,
2 The strong man,& the man of warre, b the iudge and the prophet, the prudent and the aged, 3 The captaine of fiftie,and the honourable, and the counseller, and the cunning artificer, and c the eloquent man.
4 And I will appoint d children to bee their princes, and babes shall rule ouer them.
5 The people shalbe e oppressed one of another,and euery one by his neighbour: the children shall presume against the ancient, and the vile against the honourable.
6 When euery one shall f take holde of his brother of the house of his father, and say, Thou hast clothing: thou shalt be our prince, and let this fall be vnder thine hand:
7 In that day he shall g sweare, saying, I cannot bee an helper: for there is no bread in mine house, nor clothing: therefore make me no prince of the people.
8 Doubtlesse Ierusalem is fallen, and Iudah is fallen downe, because their tongue & workes are against the Lord,to prouoke the eyes of his glory.
9 The h triall of their countenance testifieth against them,yea, they declare their sinnes,as Sodom,they hide them not.Wo be vnto their soules:
for they haue rewarded euill vnto themselues.
10 i Say ye, Surely it shalbe well with the iust:
for they shal eate the fruite of their workes.
11 Woe be to the wicked, it shalbe euill with him: for the reward of his hands shalbe giuen him.
12 k Children are extorcioners of my people, and women haue rule ouer them: O my people, they that leade thee,cause thee to erre,and destroy the way of thy paths.
13 The Lorde standeth vp to pleade, yea, hee standeth to iudge the people.
14 The Lord shall enter into iudgement with the l Ancients of his people & the princes thereof:

a Because they trusted in their abundance & prosperitie,he sheweth that they should be taken from them.

b The temporall gouernour and the minister.

c By these he meaneth that God would take away euery thing that was in any estimation,and wherein they had any occasion to vaunt themselues.

d Not onely in age,but in wit, maners,knowledge and strength.

e For lacke of good regiment and order.

f He sheweth that this plague shalbe so horrible,that contrary to the common maner of men, which by nature are ambitious, none shalbe found able or willing to be their gouernour.

g Feare shall restraine him to forsweare himselfe, then to take such a dangerous charge vpon him.

h When God shal examine their deedes whereupon they now set an impudent face,he shall finde the marke of their impietie in their forehead.

i Be ye that are godly assured that God will defende you in the middes of these troubles. k Because the wicked people were more addict to their princes, then to the commaundements of God, he sheweth that he would giue them such princes, by whome they should haue no helpe, but that should bee manifest tokens of his wrath,because they should be fooles & effeminate. l Meaning, that the rulers and gouernours had destroyed his Church,& not preserued it,according to their duetie.

for ye haue eaten vp the vineyards: the spoyle of the poore is in your houses.
15 What haue ye to do,that ye beate my people to pieces, m and grinde the faces of the poore, saith the Lord, euen the Lord of hostes?
16 The Lord also saith, n Because the daughters of Zion are hautie,and walke with o stretched out neckes, and with p wandring eyes, walking and q minsing as they goe, and making a r tinkeling with their feete,
17 Therefore shall the Lorde make the heads of the daughters of Zion balde, and the Lord shall discouer their secret partes.
18 In that day shall the Lorde take away the ornament of the slippers, and the calles, and the round tyres,
19 The sweete balles, and the bracelets, and the bonnets,
20 The tyres of the head, and the sloppes, and the head bands,and the tablets, and the eareings, 21 The rings and the mufflers, 22 The costly apparell and the vailes, and the wimples,and the crisping pinnes, 23 And the glasses and the fine linnen,and the hoodes and the s launes.
24 And in steade of sweete sauour, there shall be stinke,and in steade of a girdle, a rent, and in steade of dressing of the haire, baldnesse, and in steade of a stomacher, a girding of sackecloth,and burning in steade of beautie.
25 Thy men t shall fall by the sworde, and thy strength in the battell.
26 Then shall her gates mourne and lament, and she,being desolate,shall sit vpon the ground.

m That is, yee shewe all crueltie against them.

n He menaceth the people,because of the arrogancie and pride of their women, which gaue themselues to all wantonnesse and dissolution.

o Which declared their pride.

p As a signe,that they were not chaste.

q Which [illegible] their wa[illegible].

r They [illegible] then in slippers that did creake or had litle plates sowed vpon them, which tinkled as they went.

s In rehearsing all these things particularly,he sheweth the lightnesse, and vanitie of such as cannot be content with comely apparell according to their degree.

t Meaning, that God wil not only punish the women, but their husbandes,which haue suffered this dissolutenesse, and also the common weale, which hath not remedied it.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The small remnant of men after the destruction of Ierusalem. 2 The graces of God vpon them that remaine.

ANd in that day shall a seuen women take hold of one man, saying, Wee wil eate our owne bread,and we wil weare our owne garments: onely b let vs be called by thy name, and take away our c reproche.
2 In that day shall the d budde of the Lorde bee beautifull and glorious, and the fruite of the earth shall be excellent and pleasant for them that are escaped of Israel.
3 Then hee that shalbe left in Zion, and hee that shall remaine in Ierusalem, shalbe called holy, and euery one shalbe e written among the liuing in Ierusalem,
4 When the Lorde shall wash the filthines of the daughters of Zion, and purge the f blood of Ierusalem out of the middes thereof by the spirite of g iudgement,and by the spirit of burning.
5 And the Lord shal create vpon euery place of mount Zion, and vpon the assemblies thereof, h a cloude and smoke by day,and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for vpon all the i glory shall be a defence.
6 And a couering shalbe for a shadowe in the day for the heate, and a place of refuge and a co-uert for the storme k and for the raine.

a When God shal execute this vengeance, there shall not be one man founde to be the head to many women,and they contrary to womanly shamefastnesse,shall seeke vnto men,and offer them selues to any condition.

b Be thou our husband, and let vs be called thy wiues.

c For so they thought it to bee without an head and husband.

d He comforteth the Church in this desolation,which shall spring vp like a bud, signifying that Gods graces should be as plentifull toward the faithful, as though they sprang out of the earth,as Chap. 45.8. Some by the budde of the Lorde meane Christ. e Hee alludeth to the booke of life,whereof reade Exod 32.32, meaning Gods secret counsell,wherein his elect are predestinate to life euerlasting. f That is, the crueltie, extortion, auarice, and all wickednesse. g When things shalbe redressed that were amisse. h Hee alludeth to the pillar of the cloude, Exod.13.21,meaning,that Gods fauour and protection should appeare in euery place. i The faithfull are called the glory of God, because his image, and tokens of his grace shine in them. k God promiseth to be the defence of his Church against all troubles and dangers.

CHAP. V.

1 Vnder the similitude of the vine hee describeth the state of the people. 8 Of their auarice. 11 Their drunkennesse. 13 Of their captiuitie.

NOwe will [a] I sing to my [b] beloued a song of my beloued to his vineyarde, * My beloued had a [c] vineyarde in a very fruitefull hill, 2 And hee hedged it, and gathered out the stones of it, and he planted it with the best plants, [d] and he built a towre in the middes thereof, and made a wine presse therein: then he looked that it should bring foorth grapes: but it brought [e] forth wilde grapes.
3 Now therefore, O inhabitants of Ierusalem and men of Iudah, iudge, I pray you, [f] betweene me, and my vineyarde.
4 What could I haue done any more to my vineyarde that I haue not done vnto it? why haue I looked that it should bring foorth grapes, and it bringeth foorth wilde grapes?
5 And nowe I wil tell you what I will doe to my vineyarde: I [g] wil take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten vp: I will breake the wall thereof, and it shalbe troden downe:
6 And I wil lay it waste: it shall not be cut, nor digged, but briers, and thornes shall growe vp:
I wil also commaund the cloudes that they raine
no raine vpon it.
7 ¶ Surely the vineyard of the Lord of hostes is the house of Israel, and the men of Iudah are his pleasant plant, and he looked for [h] iudgement, but beholde oppression: for righteousnesse, but be-holde [i] a crying.
8 Woe vnto them that ioyne house to house, and laye fielde to fielde, till there bee no [k] place, that ye may be placed by your selues in the mids
of the earth.
9 This is in mine [l] eares, saith the Lorde of hostes. Surely many houses shalbe desolate, euen great and faire without inhabitant.
10 For ten acres of vines shal yelde one [m] bath, and the seede of an [n] homer shal yelde an [o] ephah.
11 ¶ Wo vnto them, that [p] rise vp early to followe drunkennes, and to them that continue vntill [q] night, till the wine doe inflame them.
12 And the harpe and viole, timbrel, and pipe, and wine are in their feastes: but they regard not the [r] worke of the Lorde, neither consider the worke of his handes.
13 Therefore my people [s] is gone into captiui-tie, because they had [t] no knowledge, and the glorie thereof are men famished, and the multitude thereof is dried vp with thirst.
14 Therefore [u] hel hath inlarged it selfe, & hath opened his mouth, without measure, and their glorie, and their multitude, and their pompe, and hee that reioyceth among them, shal descend into it.
15 And man shalbe brought downe, and man shalbe humbled, euen the eyes of the proude shall be humbled.
16 And the Lorde of hostes shalbe exalted in iudgement, and the holy God shalbe sanctified in iustice.
17 Then shall [x] the lambes feede after their maner, and the strangers shall eate the desolate places of the fat.
18 ¶ Woe vnto them, that draw iniquitie with [y] cordes of vanitie, and sinne, as with cart ropes:
19 Which say, [z] Let him make speede: let him hasten his worke, that we may see it: and let the counsell of the holy one of Israel draw neere and come, that we may know it.
20 Woe vnto them that speake good of euill, [a] and euil of good, which put darkenes for light, and light for darkenes, that put bitter for sweete,
and sweete for sowre.
21 Woe vnto them that are [b] wise in their owne eyes, and prudent in their owne sight.
22 Wo vnto them that are [c] mightie to drinke wine, and to them that are strong to powre in strong drinke:
23 Which iustifie the wicked for a rewarde, and take away the righteousnesse of the righteous from him.
24 Therefore as the flame of fire deuoureth the stubble, and as the chaffe is consumed of the flame:
so their [d] roote shalbe as rottennesse, and their bud shall rise vp like dust, because they haue cast off the Lawe of the Lord of hostes, and contemned the worde of the holy one of Israel.
25 Therefore is the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people, and hee hath stretched out his [e] hand vpon them, and hath smitten them that the mountaines did tremble: and their carkases were torne in the middes of the streetes, and for all this his wrath was not turned away, but his hande was stretched out still.
26 And hee wil lift vp a signe [f] vnto the nations a farre, and wil hisse vnto them from the ende of the earth: and beholde, they shall come hastily with speede.
27 None shall [g] faint nor fall among them:
none shall slumber nor sleepe, neither shall the girdle of his loynes be loosed, nor [h] the latchet of his shooes be broken:
28 Whose arrowes shalbe sharpe, and all his bowes bent: his horse hoofes shalbe thought like flint, and his wheeles like a whirlewinde.
29 His roaring shalbe like a lyon, and hee shall roare like lyons whelpes: they shal [i] roare, and lay holde of the praye: they shall take it away, and none shall deliuer it.
30 And in that day they shal roare vpon them, as the roaring of the sea: and if [k] they looke vnto the earth, beholde darkenesse, and sorowe, and the light shalbe darkened in their [l] skie.

CHAP. VI.

1 Isaiah sheweth his vocation by the vision of the diuine maiestie. 9 He sheweth the obstinacie of the people. 11 The destruction of the land. 13 The remnant reserued.

IN the yeere of the death of King Vzziah, [a] I saw also the Lord sitting vpon an [b] high throne, and lifted vp, and the lower [c] partes thereof filled the Temple.
2 The [d] Seraphims stoode vpon it: euery one had sixe wings: with twaine he couered his [e] face, and with twaine hee couered his [f] feete, and with twaine he did [g] flie.

a The Prophet by this song doeth set before the peoples eyes their ingratitude, and Gods mercie.
b That is, to God.
* Ier. 2. 21. mat. 21. 33.
c Meaning, that he had planted his Church in a place most plentiful and abundant.
d He spared no diligence nor cost.
e In the seuenth verse he declareth what they were.
f He maketh them iudges in their owne cause, for as much as it was euident that they were the cause of their owne ruine.
g I will take no more care for it: meaning that hee would take from them his word and ministers, and all other comfortes, and send them contrary plagues.
h Iudgement and righteousnes are true fruites of the feare of God, and therefore in the cruell oppressers there is no religion.
i Of them that are oppressed.
k To wit, for the poore to dwell in.
l I haue heard the complaint and cry of the poore.
m Which conteineth about tenne pottels: so that euery acre should but yelde one pottel.
n Which conteineth an hundreth pottels.
o An Ephah conteineth ten pottels, and is in dry things as much as bath is in licours.
p That spare no paine nor diligẽce to folow their lustes.
q Which are neuer weary of their rioting and excessiue pleasures: but vse all meanes to prouoke to the same.
r They regard not the prouident care of God ouer them, not for what ende he hath created them.
s That is, shall certainely go: for so the Prophets vse to speake, as though the thing which shall come to passe, were done already.
t Because they would not obey the worde of God.
u Meaning, the graue shal swalow vp them that shal die for hũger & thirst, and yet for all this great destruction it shall neuer be saciate.
x God comforteth the poore lambes of his Church, which had bin strãgers in other cõtreys, promising that they should dwell in those places againe, whereof they had bin depriued by the fat and cruel tyrants.

y Which vse all allurements, occasions, and excuses to harden their cõscience in sinne.
z Hee sheweth what are the wordes of the wicked, when they are menaced with Gods iudgements, 2. Peter 3. 4.
a Which are not ashamed of sinne, nor care for honestie, but are growen to a desperate impietie.
b Which are contemners of all doctrine and admonition.
c Which are neuer wearie, but shewe their strength, and bragge in gluttony and drunkennes.
d Both they and their posteritie, so that nothing shall be left.
e Hee sheweth that God had so sore punished this people, that the dumme creatures, if they had bene so plagued, woulde haue bene more sensible, and therefore his plagues must continue, till they beginne to feele them.
f He wil make the Babylonians to come against them at his becke, and to fight vnder his standerd.
g They shall be prompt, and lustie to execute Gods vengeance.
h The enemie shall haue none impediment.
i Whereby is declared the crueltie of the enemie.
k The Iewes shall finde no succour. l In the land of Iudah.

a God sheweth not himselfe to man in his maiestie, but according as mans capacitie is able to comprehend him: that is, by visible signes, as Iohn Baptist sawe the holy Ghost in the forme of a doue.
b As a Iudge ready to giue sentence.
c Of his garment, or of his throne.
d They were Angels, so called, because they were of a fierie colour, to signifie that they burnt in the loue of God, or were light as fire to execute his will.
e Signifying, that they were not able to endure the brightnesse of Gods glorie.
f Whereby was declared that man was not able to see the brightnesse of God in them.
g Which thing declareth the prompt obedience of the Angels to execute Gods commaundement.

3 And

3 And one cryed to another, and sayd, h Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hostes: the whole i world is full of his glory.
4 And the lintels of the doore cheekes k moued at the voyce of him that cryed, and the house was filled with smoke.
5 Then I sayd, l Wo is me: for I am vndone, because I am a man of polluted lips, & I dwell in the middes of a people of polluted lips: for mine eyes haue seene the King and Lord of hostes.
6 Then flewe one of the Seraphims vnto me with an hote cole in his hand, which he had taken from the m altar with the tongs:
7 And he touched my mouth, and sayd, Loe, this hath touched thy lips, & thine iniquitie shall be taken away, and thy n sinne shalbe purged.
8 Also I heard the voyce of the Lorde, saying, Whome shall I send? and who shall goe for vs?
Then I sayde, Here am I, send me.
9 And he sayd, Goe, and say vnto this people, o Ye shall heare in deede, but ye shall not vnder-stand: ye shall plainely see, and not perceiue.
10 Make the heart of this people fatte, make their eares heauy, and shut their eyes, lest they see with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and vn-derstand with their hearts, and conuert, and he heale them.
11 Then said I, Lorde, p howe long? And he answered, Vntil the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man: and the land be vtterly desolate, 12 And the Lord haue remoued men farre away, and there be a great desolation in the mids of
the land.
13 But yet in it shalbe q a tenth, and shall returne, and shalbe eaten vp as an elme r or an oke, which haue a substance in them, when they cast their leaues: so the holy seede shall be the substance thereof.

h This oft repetition signifieth, that the holy Angels can not satisfie them selues in praysing God, to teach vs that in all our liues we should giue our selues to the continuall prayse of God.
i His glory doeth not onely appeare in the heauens, but through all the world, and therefore all creatures are bound to praise him.
k Which things were to confirme the Prophet, that it was not the voyce of man: and by the smoke was signified the blindnesse that shoulde come vpon the Iewes.
l He speaketh this for two causes: the one, because hee that was a mortal creature, & therefore had more neede to glorifie God then the Angels, did it not: and the other, because the more neere that man approched to God, the more doeth he knowe his owne sinne and corruption.
m Of the burnt offerings, where the fire neuer went out. n This declareth that man cannot render true obedience to God, till he haue purged vs. o Whereby is declared that for the malice of man God will not immediatly take away his worde, but he will cause it to be preached to their condemnation, when as they will not learne thereby to obey his will, and be saued: hereby he exhorteth the ministers to doe their duetie, and answereth to the wicked murmurers, that through their owne malice their heart is hardened, Mat.13.14. actes 28.26. rom.11.8. p As he was moued with the zeale of Gods glory, so was he touched with a charitable affection towarde the people. q Meaning, the tenth part: or as some write, it was reueiled to Isaiah for the confirmation of his prophecie, that ten Kings should come before their captiuitie, as were from Vzziah to Zedekiah. r For the fewnesse they shall seeme to be eaten vp: yet they shall after florish as a tree, which in winter looseth his leaues, and seemeth to be dead, yet in sommer is fresh, and greene.

CHAP. VII.

1 Ierusalem besieged. 4 Isaiah comforteth the King. 14 Christ is promised.

AND in the dayes of * Ahaz, the sonne of Io-tham, the sonne of Vzziah king of Iudah, Rezin the King of || Aram a came vp, and Pekah the sonne of Remaliah King of Israel, to Ierusalem to fight against it, but he could not ouercome it.
2 And it was tolde the house of b Dauid, saying, Aram is ioyned with c Ephraim: therefore his heart was d moued, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest are moued by the winde.
3 ¶ Then sayde the Lorde vnto Isaiah, Goe foorth nowe to meete Ahaz (thou and e Shear-iashub thy sonne) at the ende of the conduit of the vpper poole, in the path of the fullers fielde, 4 And say vnto him, Take heede, and be still:
feare not, neither be faint hearted for the two tailes of these smoking f firebrands, for the furious wrath of Rezin and of Aram, and of Remaliahs sonne:
5 Because Aram hath taken wicked counsell against thee, and Ephraim, and Remaliahs sonne,
saying,
6 Let vs goe vp against Iudah, and let vs waken them vp, and make a breach therein for vs, and set a King in the mids thereof, euen the sonne of g Tabeal.
7 Thus sayth the Lorde God, It shall not stand, neither shall it be.
8 For the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin: and within fiue and h threescore yeere, Ephraim shalbe destroyed from being a people.
9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliahs sonne. If ye beleeue not, surely ye shall not be established.
10 ¶ And the Lorde spake againe vnto Ahaz,
saying,
11 Aske i a signe for thee of the Lorde thy God: aske it, either in the depth beneath or in the height aboue.
12 But Ahaz sayde, I will not aske, neither wil
I k tempt the Lord.
13 Then he sayde, Heare you now, O house of Dauid, is it a small thing for you to grieue l men, that ye will also grieue my God?
14 Therefore the Lorde m himselfe will giue you a signe. Beholde, the virgine shall conceiue and beare a sonne, and she shal call his name || Im-manu-el.
15 n Butter and hony shall he eate, till he haue knowledge to refuse the euill, and to chuse the good.
16 For afore the o childe shall haue knowledge to eschew the euill, and to chuse the good, the land, that thou abhorrest, shalbe forsaken of both her Kings.
17 The Lord shall bring vpon thee, and vp-on thy people, and vpon thy fathers house (the dayes that are not come from the day that p Ephraim departed from Iudah) euen the King of q Asshur.
18 And in that day shall the Lorde hisse for the r flie that is at the vttermost part of the floods of Egypt, and for the bee which is in the lande
of Asshur,
19 And they shall come and shall light all in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rockes, and vpon all thorny places, and vpon all bushy s places.
20 In that day shall the Lorde shaue with a rasor that is hired, euen by them beyond the Riuer, by the King of Asshur, the head and the haire of the t feete, and it shall consume the beard.
21 And in the same day shall a man u nourish a yong kowe, and two sheepe.
22 And for the x abundance of milke, that they shall giue, hee shall eate butter: for butter and hony shall euery one eate, which is left within
the land.

* 2.King.16.5.
|| Or Syria.
a To wit, the second time: for in the first battell Ahaz was ouercome.
b Meaning, the Kings house.
c That is, Israel, because that Tribe was the greatest, Gene.48.19.
d For feare.
e That is to say, the rest shall returne, which name Isaiah gaue his sonne, to signifie that the rest of the people should returne out of their captiuitie. f Which haue but a litle smoke and shall quickly be quenched.
g Which was an Israelite, and as seemeth, enemy to the house of Dauid.
h Counting from the fine and twentieth yeere of the reigne of Vzziah, at what time Amos prophecied this thing, and now Isaiah confirmeth that the Israelites should be led into perpetuall captiuitie, which thing came to passe within twentie yeere after that Isaiah did this message.
i For the confirmation of this thing, that thine enemies shall be destroyed and thou preserued.
k Not to beleeue Gods worde without a signe, is to tempt God: but to refuse a signe when God offereth it for the ayde and helpe of our infirmitie, is to rebell against him.
l You thinke you haue to doe with men, when ye contemne Gods messengers: but it is God against whome you bend your selues.
m Forasmuch as thou art vnworthy, the Lord for his owne promes sake will giue a signe, which shall be that Christ the Sauiour of his Church and the effect of all signes and miracles shall be reueiled.
|| Or, God with vs, which name can agree to none, but to him that is both God and man.
n Meaning, that Christ is not onely God, but man also, because he shalbe nourished as other men, vntill the age of discretion.
o Not meaning Christ, but any childe: for before a childe can come to the yeeres of discretion, the Kings of Samaria & Syria shalbe destroyed. p Since the time that the twelue Tribes rebelled vnder Roboam. q In whome thou hast put thy trust. r Meaning, the Egyptians: for by reason the countrey is hote and moyste, it is full of flies, as Assyria is full of bees. s Signifying, that no place shall be free from them. t That is, that which is from the belly downeward: meaning, that he would destroy both great and small. u He that before had a great number of cattel, shalbe content with one kowe and two sheepe. x The number of men shall be so small, that a fewe beastes shall be able to nourish all abundantly.

23 And at the same day euery place, wherein shalbe a thousand vines, shalbe at a thousand pieces of siluer: so it shalbe for the briers and for the thornes.
24 With arrowes and with y bowe shall one come thither: because all the land shall be briers and thornes.
25 But on z all the mountaines, which shalbe digged with the mattocke, there shall not come thither the feare of briers and thornes: but they shalbe for the sending out of bullocks, and for the treading of sheepe.

y As they that goe to seeke wilde beasts among the bushes.
z The mountaines contrary to their wont, shal be tilled by such as shall flee to them for succour.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The captiuitie of Israel and Judah by the Assyrians. 6 The infidelitie of the Iewes. 9 The destruction of the Assyrians. 14 Christ the stone of stumbling to the wicked. 19 The word of God must be inquired at.

Moreouer, the Lord sayd vnto me, Take thee a a great roll, and write in it b with a mans penne, Make speede to the spoyle: haste to the praye.
2 Then I tooke vnto me c faithfull witnesses to recorde, Vriah the Priest, and Zechariah the sonne of Ieberechiah.
3 After, I came vnto the d Prophetesse, which conceiued, and bare a sonne. Then sayde the Lord to me, Call his name, || Maher-shalal-hash-baz.
4 For before the e childe shall haue knowledge to crye, My father, & my mother, f he shal take away the riches of Damascus and the spoyle of Samaria, before the king of Asshur.
5 ¶ And the Lord spake yet againe vnto me,
saying,
6 Because this people hath refused the waters of g Shiloah that runne softly, and reioyce with Rezin, and the sonne of Remaliah, 7 Nowe therefore, beholde, the Lorde bringeth vp vpon them the waters of h the Riuer mightie and great, euen the King of Asshur with all his glory, and he shall come vp vpon all their riuers, and goe ouer all their banks, 8 And shall breake into Iudah, and shal ouerflowe and passe through, and shall come vp to the i necke, and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O k Immanu-el.
9 Gather together on heapes, O ye l people, and ye shalbe broken in pieces, and hearken all ye of farre countreys: gird your selues, and you shalbe broken in pieces: gird your selues, and you shalbe broken in pieces.
10 Take counsell together, yet it shall be brought to nought: pronounce a decree, yet shal it not stand: for God is with vs.
11 For the Lorde spake thus to me in taking m of mine hand, and taught me, that I should not walke in the way of this people, saying, 12 Say ye not, A n confederacie to all them, to whome this people sayth a confederacie, neither feare you o their feare, nor be afrayd of them.
13 p Sanctifie the Lord of hostes, and let him be your feare, and let him be your dread, 14 And he shalbe as a q Sanctuarie: but as a stumbling stone, and as a rocke to fall vpon, to both the houses of Israel, and as a snare and as a net to the inhabitants of Ierusalem.
15 And many among them shall stumble, and shall fall and shalbe broken and shalbe snared and shalbe taken.
16 r Binde vp the testimonie: seale vp the Law among my disciples.
17 Therefore I will waite vpon the Lord that hath hid his face from the house of Iaakob, and I will looke for him.
18 Beholde, I and the s children whome the Lorde hath giuen me, are as signes and as wonders in Israel, t by the Lord of hostes, which dwel leth in mount Zion.
19 And when they shal say vnto you, Enquire at them that haue a spirit of diuination, and at the soothsayers, which whisper and murmure, u Should not a people enquire at their God? from the x liuing to the dead?
20 To the y Law, and to the testimonie, if they speake not according to this worde: it is because there is no z light in them.
21 Then he that is afflicted and famished, shall go to and fro in a it: and when he shalbe hungry, he shall euen fret himselfe, b and curse his King and his gods, and shall looke vpward.
22 And when he shall looke to the earth, be-holde trouble, and c darkenes, vexation and anguish, and he is driuen to darkenes.

a That thou mayest write in great letters to the intent it may be more easily read.
b Meaning, after the common facion, because all men might reade it.
c Because the thing was of great importance hee tooke these two witnesses, which were of credit with the people, when he set this vp vpon the doore of the temple, albeit Vriah was a flattering hypocrite, 2.King.16.11.
d Meaning, to his wife, and this was done in a vision.
|| Or, make speede to the spoyle: haste to the praye.
e Before any child be able to speake.
f That is, the army of Assyria.
g Which was a fountaine at the foote of mount Zion, out of the which ran a small riuer through the citie: meaning, that they of Iudah, distrusting their owne power, which was small, desired such power and riches as they sawe in Syria and Israel.
h That is, the Assyrians, which dwell beyond Euphrates.
i It shall be ready to drowne them.
k He speaketh this to Messiah, or Christ, in whome the faithfull were comforted, and who would not suffer his Church to be destroyed vtterly.
l To wit, ye that are enemies to the Church, as the Assyrians, Egyptians, Syrians, &c. m To encourage me that I should not shrinke for the infidelitie of this people, and so neglect mine office.
n Consent not yee that are godly, to the league and friendship that this people seeke with strangers and idolaters.
o Meaning, that they should not feare the thing that they feared, which haue no hope in God.
p In putting your trust onely in him, in calling vpon him in aduersitie, patiently looking for his helpe, & fearing to do any thing contrary to his will.
q He will defend you which are his elect, & reiect al ẏ rest, which is ment of Christ, against whō the Iewes should stumble & fal, Luke.2.34.rom.9.33.1.pet.2.7.8.

r Though all forsake me, yet ye that are mine, keepe my wordes sure sealed in your hearts.
s Meaning, them that were willing to heare and obey the word of God, whome the world hated, as though they were monsters and not worthy to liue.
t This was a consolation in their troubles, knowing that nothing could come vnto them, but by the will of the Lord.
u Answere the wicked thus, Should not Gods people seeke succour only at him?
x That is, wil they refuse to be taught of the Prophets, who is the mouth of God, and seeke helpe at the dead, which is the illusion of Satan?
y Seeke remedie in the word of God where his will is declared.
z They haue no knowledge, but are blinde leaders of the blinde.
a That is, in Iudah, where they should haue had rest, if they had not thus grieuously offended God.
b In whome after they put their trust.
c They shall thinke that heauen and earth and all creatures are bent against them to trouble them.

CHAP. IX.

1 The vocation of the Gentiles. 6 A prophecie of Christ. 14 The destruction of the ten Tribes for their pride and contempt of God.

Yet a the darkenes shal not be according to the affliction, b that it had when at the first hee touched lightly the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, nor afterward when he was more grie-uous by the way of the sea beyond Iorden in Ga-lile of c the Gentiles.
2 The people that d walked in darkenes, haue seene a great e light: they that dwelled in the land of the shadowe of death, vpon them hath the f light shined.
3 Thou hast g multiplied the nation, and not increased their ioye: they haue reioyced before thee according to the ioye in haruest, and as men reioyce when they deuide a spoyle.
4 For the h yoke of their burthen, and the staffe of their shoulder and the rod of their op-pressour hast thou brokē, as in the day of Midian.
5 Surely euery battell of the warriour is with noyse, and with tumbling of garments in blood:
but this shall be i with burning and deuouring
of fire.
6 For vnto vs a childe is borne, and vnto vs a a He comforteth the Church againe after these great threatnings, promising to restore them to great glory in Messiah.

b Wherewith Israel was punished, first by Tiglath-pileser, which was a light scourge in respect of that which they suffered afterward by Shalmaneser, who caried the Israelites away captiues.
c Where as the Iewes and Gentiles dwelt together by reason of those twentie cities, which Salomon gaue to Hiram.
d Which were captiue in Babylon: and the Prophet speaketh of that thing which should come to passe three score yeeres after, as though it were nowe done.
e Meaning, the comfort of their deliuerance.
f This captiuitie & deliuerance were figures of our captiuitie by sinne, & of our deliuerance by Christ through the preaching of ẏ Gospel, Mat.4.15.16.
g Their number was greater when they went into captiuitie then when they returned, but their ioye was greater at their returne. Hag.2.10.
h Thou gauest them perfite ioy, by deliuering them and by destroying the tyrants that had kept them in cruel bondage, as thou didst deliuer them by Gidion frō the Midianites, Iud.7.22.
i He speaketh of the deliuerance of his Church, which he hath deliuered miraculously from his enemies, but specially by the comming of Christ, of whome he prophecieth in the next verse.

his shoulder, and he shall call his name Wonder-full, Counseller, The mightie God, The euerlasting k Father, The prince of peace, 7 The increase of his gouernement and peace shall haue none end: he shall sit vpon the throne of Dauid, and vpon his kingdome, to order it, and to stablish it with iudgement & with iustice, from henceforth, euen for euer: l the zeale of the Lorde of hostes will performe this.
8 ¶ The Lord hath sent a worde into Iaakob, and it hath lighted vpon m Israel.
9 And all the people shall knowe, euen Ephraim, and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride and presumption of the heart, 10 The n brickes are fallen, but we wil builde it with hewen stones: the wilde figge trees are cut downe, but we will change them into cedars.
11 Neuerthelesse the Lord will raise vp the ad-uersaries of o [illegible] against him, and ioyne his enemies together.
12 Aram before & the Philistims behind, and they shal deuoure Israel with open mouth: yet for all this his wrath is not turned away, but his hande is stretched out still.
13 For the people turneth not vnto him that smiteth them, neither doe they seeke the Lord of hostes.
14 Therefore wil the Lorde cut off from Israel head and taile, branche and rush in one day.
15 The ancient and the honorable man, he is the head: and the prophet which teacheth lies, he is the tayle.
16 For the leaders of the people cause them to erre: and they that are led by them, are deuoured.
17 Therefore shal the Lord haue no pleasure in their yong men, neyther will he haue compassion of their fatherlesse and of their widowes: for euery one is an hypocrite and wicked, and euery mouth speaketh folly: yet for all this his wrath is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
18 For wickednesse p burneth as a fire: it de-uoureth the briers and the thornes and will kindle in the thicke places of the forest: and they shall mount vp like the lifting vp of smoke.
19 By the wrath of the Lorde of hostes shal the land be darkened, and the people shall bee as the meate of the fire: no man shal q spare his brother.
20 And he shall snatch at the right hand, and be hungrie: and he shal eate on the left hand, and shall not be satisfied: euery one shal eate the r flesh of his owne arme.
21 Manasseh, Ephraim: and Ephraim Manasseh, and they both shalbe against Iudah: yet for all this his wrath is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

CHAP. X.

1 Of wicked lawmakers. 5 God will punish his people by the Assyrians and after destroy them. 21 The remnant of Israel shalbe saued.

WO vnto them that decree wicked decrees, and a write grieuous things, 2 To keepe backe the poore from iudgement, and to take away the iudgement of the poore of my people, that widowes may bee their pray, and that they may spoyle the fatherlesse.
3 What will ye do now in the day of visitation, & of destruction, which shal come from b farre?
to whom will ye flee for helpe? and where will ye leaue your c glorie?

4 d Without mee euery one shall fall among them that are bound, and they shall fall downe among the slaine: yet for all this his wrath is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
5 ¶ O e Asshur, the rodde of my wrath: and the staffe in their hands is mine indignation.
6 I will sende f him to a dissembling nation, and I will giue him a charge against the people of my wrath to take the spoyle and to take the pray, and to tread them vnder feete like the mire in the streete.
7 But he thinketh not so, neyther doeth his heart esteeme it so: but hee imagineth to destroy and to cut off not a few nations.
8 For he saith, Are not my princes altogether Kings?
9 Is not Calno as g Carchemish? Is not Hamath like Arpad? Is not Samaria as Damascus?
10 Like as mine hande hath founde the king-domes of the idoles, seeing their idoles were aboue Ierusalem, and aboue Samaria: 11 Shall not I, as I haue done to Samaria, and to the idoles thereof, so do to Ierusalem and to the idoles thereof?
12 ¶ But when the Lorde hath accomplished h all his worke vpon mount Zion and Ierusalem, I wil visit the fruit of the proude heart i of the King of Asshur, and his glorious and proud lookes, 13 Because he said, By the power of mine own hand haue I done it, and by my wisedome, because I am wise: therefore I haue remoued the borders of the people, and haue spoiled their treasures, and haue pulled downe the inhabitants like a valiant man.
14 And mine hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people, and as one that gathereth egges that are left, so haue I gathered all the earth: and there was none to moue the wing or to open the mouth, or to whisper.
15 Shal the k axe boast it selfe against him that heweth therewith? or shall the sawe exalt it selfe against him that moueth it? as if the rod shoulde lift vp it selfe against him that taketh it vp, or the staffe should exalt it selfe, as it were no wood.
16 Therfore shal the Lord God of hostes sende among his fatte men, leannes, and vnder his glorie he shal kindle a burning, like the burning of fire.
17 And the light of Israel shalbe as a l fire, and the Holy one thereof as a flame, and it shal burne, and deuoure m his thornes and his briers in one day.
18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful fields both soule n and flesh: and he shalbe as the o fainting of a standard bearer.
19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shalbe fewe, that a child may tell them.
20 ¶ And at that day shal the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Iacob, stay no more vpon him that smote them, but shall p stay vpon ẏ Lord, the Holy one of Israel in truth.
21 The remnant shal returne, euen the remnant of Iaakob vnto the mighty God.
22 For though thy people, O Israel, be as the sand of the sea, yet shall the remnant of them returne. The consumption q decreed shall ouerflow with righteousnesse.
23 For the Lord God of hostes shal make the consumption, euen r determined, in the middes of all the land.

24 Therefore

k The autour of eternitie, and by whom the Church and euery member thereof shalbe preserued for euer and haue immortall life.
l His singular loue and care for his elect.
m This is another prophesie against them of Samaria, which were mockers and contemners of Gods promises & menaces.
n We were but weake, when the enemie ouercame vs, but wee will make our selues so strong, that we wil neither care for our enemies, nor feare Gods threatnings.
o Rezin King of Syria, who was in league with Israel, was slaine by the Assyrians, after whose death, Aram, that is, the Syrians were against Israel, which on the other side were assayled by the Philistims.
p Wickednesse as a bellowes kindleth the fire of Gods wrath, which consumeth all his obstinate enemies.
q Though there were no forein enemie, yet they shall destroy one another.
r Their greedines shalbe insatiable, so that one brother shall eate vp another, as though he shoulde eate his owne flesh.
a Which write and pronounce a wicked sentence to oppresse the poore: meaning that the wicked magistrates, which were the chiefe cause of mischiefe, should be first punished.
b To wit, from Assyria.
c Your riches & autoritie, ẏ they may be safe, & that ye may receiue them againe.
d Because they haue forsaken me, some shall goe into captiuitie, and the rest shalbe slaine.
e God calleth for the Assyrians to be the executioners of his vengeance.
f That is, the Assyrians against the Iewes, which are but hypocrites: and in this sixt and seuenth verse is declared the difference of the worke of God, and of the wicked in one very thing and acte: for Gods intention is to chastise them for their amendement, and the Assyrians purpose is to destroy them to enriche themselues: thus in respect of Gods iustice, it is Gods worke, but in respect of their owne malice it is the worke of the deuill.
g Seeing that I haue ouercome, aswell one citie as another, so that none coulde resist, shall Ierusalem be able to escape mine hands?
h When he hath sufficiently chastised his people (for he beginneth at his owne house) then will he burne the roddes.
i Meaning of Saneherib.
k Here we see that no creature is able to doe any thing, but as God appointeth him, and that they are all but his instruments to doe his worke, though the intentions be diuers, as verse 6.
l Meaning that God is a light to comfort his people and a fire to burne his enemies.
m That is, the Assyrians.
n To wit, body and soule vtterly.
o When the battell is lost, and the standerd taken.
p This is the ende of Gods plagues towards his, to bring them to him and to forsake all trust in others.
q This final number, which seemed to be consumed, and yet according to Gods decree is saued, shalbe sufficient to fill all the worlde with righteousnesse.
r God will destroy this land as he hath determined, and after leaue a small portion.

24 Therfore thus saith the Lord God of hostes, O my people, that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of Asshur: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shal lift vp his staffe against thee after the maner of [s] Egypt.
25 But yet a very litle time, and the wrath shal be consumed, and mine anger in their destruction.
26 And þ Lord of hostes shal raise vp a scourge for him, according to the plague of [t] Midian in the rocke Oreb: and as his staffe was vpon the [u] Sea, so he will lift it vp after the maner of Egypt.
27 And at that day shall his burden be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy necke: and the yoke shalbe destroyed because of [x] the anoynting.
28 He is come [y] to Aiath: he is passed into Mi-gron: at Michmash shall he lay vp his armour.
29 They haue gone ouer the foorde: they lodged in the lodging at Geba: Ramah is afraid: Gibeah of Saul is fled away.
30 Lift vp thy voyce, O daughter Gallim, cause Laish to heare, O poore Anathoth.
31 Madmenah is remoued: the inhabitants of Gebim haue gathered themselues together.
32 Yet there is a time that he wil stay at Nob:
he shall lift vp his hand toward the mount of the daughter Zion, the hill of Ierusalem.
33 Behold, the Lord God of hostes shal cut off the [z] bough with feare, and they of high stature shalbe cut off, and the hie shalbe humbled.
34 And he shall cut away the thicke places of the forest with yron, and Lebanon shall haue a mightie fall.

s As the Egyptians did punish thee.
t Reade Chap. 9.4.
u When the Israelites passed through by the lifting vp of Moses rod, and the enemies were drowned, Exod. 14.28.
x Because of the promes made to that kingdome, whereby Christes kingdome was prefigured.
y He describeth by what way the Assyrians shoulde come against Ierusalem, to confirme the faithful, when it should come to passe, that as their plague was come, so should they be deliuered.
z Feare and destruction shall come vpon Iudah: for the princes and the people shall all be led away captiues.

CHAP. XI.

1 Christ borne of the roote of Ishai. 8 His vertues & kingdome. 6 The fruites of the Gospel. 10 The calling of the Gentiles.

BVt there shall come a [a] rodde foorth of the stocke of Ishai, and a graffe shall grow out of his rootes.
2 And the Spirit of the Lorde shall rest vpon him: the Spirite of wisedome and vnderstanding, the Spirite of counsell and strength, the Spirite of knowledge, and of the feare of the Lord, 3 And shall make him prudent in the feare of the Lord: for he shal not iudge after the sight of his eyes, neither reproue by the hearing of his eares, 4 But with righteousnesse shall hee iudge the poore, and with equitie shall he reproue for the meeke of the earth: and he shall [b] smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lippes shal he slay the wicked.
5 And iustice shalbe the girdle of his loynes, and faithfulnesse the girdle of his reines.
6 The [c] wolfe also shall dwel with the lambe, and the leopard shal lie with the kid, and the calfe, and the lyon, and the fat beast together, and a litle childe shal leade them.
7 And the kowe and the beare shall feede:
their young ones shall lie together: and the lion shall eate strawe like the bullocke.
8 And the sucking childe shall play vpon the hole of the aspe, and the wained child shall put his hand vpon the cockatrice hole.
9 Then shall none hurt nor destroy in all the mountaine of mine holines: for the earth shalbe full of the knowledge of the Lord, as [d] the waters that couer the sea.
10 And in that day the roote of Ishai, which shall stande vp for a signe vnto the [e] people, the nations shall seeke vnto it, and his [f] rest shall bee glorious.
11 And in the same day shall the Lord stretche out his hand [g] againe the seconde time, to possesse the remnant of his people, (which shalbe left) of Asshur, and of Egypt, & of Pathros, and of Ethiopia, and of Elam, and of Shinear, and of Hamath, and of the yles of the sea.
12 And hee shall set vp a signe to the nations, and assemble the dispersed of Israel, and gather the scattered of Iudah from the foure corners of the world.
13 The hatred also of Ephraim shall depart, and the aduersaries of Iudah shalbe cut off: Ephraim shal not enuie [h] Iudah, neither shal Iudah vexe Ephraim:
14 But they shal flee vpon the shoulders of the Philistims toward the West: they shal spoile them of the East together: Edom and Moab shall be the stretching out of their hands, and the children of Ammon in their obedience.
15 The Lorde also shal vtterly destroy the [i] tongue of the Egyptians sea, and with his mighty wind shal lift vp his hand [k] ouer the riuer, and shal smite him in his seuen streames, and cause men to walke therein with shooes.
16 And there shalbe a path to the remnant of his people, which are left of Asshur, like as it was vnto Israel in the day that he came vp out of the land of Egypt.

a Because the captiuitie of Babylon, was a figure of the spirituall captiuitie vnder sinne, he sheweth that our true deliuerance must come by Christ; for as Dauid came out of Ishai a man without dignitie: so Christ should come of a poore carpenters house as out of a dead stocke, Chap. 53.2.
b All these properties can agree to none but onely vnto Christ: for it is he that toucheth the hearts of the faithfull and mortifieth their concupiscences: and to the wicked he is the sauour of death, and to them that shall perish: so that all the world shall be smitten with this rodde, which is his word.
c Men because of their wicked affections are named by the names of beastes, wherein the like affections reigne: but Christ by his Spirit shall reforme them, and woorke in them such mutuall charitie, that they shall be like lambes, fauouring and louing one another, and cast off all their cruell affections, Chap. 65.25.
d It shalbe in as great abundance as the waters in the sea.
e He prophecieth of the calling of the Gentiles.
f That is, the Church, which he also calleth his rest, Psal. 132.14.
g For God hath deliuered his people out of Egypt, and now promiseth to deliuer them out of their enemies hands, as from the Parthians, Persians, Caldeans and them of Antiochia, among whom they were dispersed: and this is chiefly meant of Christ, who calleth his people being dispersed through all the world.
h Here he describeth the concord that shalbe in his Church, and their victorie against their enemies.
i Meaning a corner of the sea, that entreth into the land, and hath the forme of a tongue.
k To wit, Nilus, the great riuer of Egypt, which entreth into the sea with seuen streames.

CHAP. XII.

A thankesgiuing of the faithfull for the mercies of God.

ANd thou [a] shalt say in that day, O Lord, I wil prayse thee: though thou wast angrie with me, thy wrath is turned away, and thou comfortest me.
2 Behold, God is my [b] saluation: I will trust, & wil not feare: for the Lord God is *my strength and song: he also is become my saluation.
3 Therefore with ioy shal yee [c] drawe waters out of the welles of saluation.
4 And ye shal say in that day, *Prayse the Lord: call vpon his Name: declare his workes among the people: make mention of them, for his Name is exalted.
5 Sing vnto the Lorde, for he hath done excellent things: this is knowen in all the world.
6 Crie out, and shoute, [d] O inhabitant of Zion: for great is the holy one of Israel in the midst of thee.

a He sheweth howe the Church shall prayse God, when they are deliuered from their captiuitie.
b Our saluation standeth onely in God, who giueth vs an assured confidence, constancie, and occasion to praise him for the same.
* Exod. 15.2. psal. 118.14.
c The graces of God shalbe so abundant, that ye may receiue them in as great plentie, as waters out of a fountaine that is full.
* 1. Chro. 16.8.
d Ye that are of the Church.

CHAP. XIII.

The Medes and Persians shall destroy Babylon.

THe [a] burden of Babel, which Isaiah the sonne of Amoz did see.
2 Lift vp a standard vpon the hie mountaine:
lift vp the voyce vnto them: wagge the [b] hande,
that they may goe into the gates of the nobles.
3 I haue commanded them, that I haue [c] san-ctified: and I haue called the mighty to my wrath, and them that reioyce in my [d] glory.

a That is, the great calamitie, which was prophecied to come on Babel, as a most grieuous burden, which they were not able to beare. In these twelue chapters following, he speaketh of the plagues, wherewith God woulde smite these strange nations, (whom they knewe) to declare that God chastised the Israelites as his children, and these other as his enemies; and so that if God spare not these that are ignorant, that they must not thinke strange, if he punish them, which haue knowledge of his Law, and keepe it not.
b To wit, the Medes and the Persians.
c That is, prepared and appoynted to execute my iudgements.
d Which willingly go about to the worke whereunto I appoynt them, but howe the wicked doe the, reade chap. 10.6.

4 The

4 The noyse of a multitude is in the moun-taines, like a great people: a tumultuous voyce of the kingdomes of the nations gathered together:
the Lorde of hostes nombreth the hoste of the battell.
5 They come from a farre countrey, from the end of the heauen: euen the Lord with the e weapons of his wrath to destroy the whole land.
6 Howle f you, for the day of the Lorde is at hande: it shall come as a destroyer from the Al-mightie.
7 Therefore shall all hands be weakened, and all mens hearts shall melt, 8 And they shalbe afraide: anguish and sorow shall take them, and they shal haue paine, as a woman that trauaileth: euery one shalbe amased at his neighbour, and their faces shalbe like g flames
of fire.
9 Beholde, the day of the Lorde commeth, cruell, with wrath and fierce anger to lay the land waste: and he shall destroy the sinners out of it.
10 For the h starres of heauen and the planets thereof shall not giue their light: the sonne shalbe darkened in his going foorth, and the moone shall not cause her light to shine.
11 And I will visite the wickednesse vpon the i worlde, and their iniquitie vpon the wicked, and I wil cause the arrogancie of the k proud to cease, and will cast downe the pride of tyrants.
12 I will make a l man more precious then fine golde, euen a man aboue the wedge of golde of Ophir.
13 Therefore I will shake the heauen, and the earth shall remooue out of her place in the wrath of the Lorde of hostes, and in the day of his fierce anger.
14 And m it shall be as a chased doe, and as a sheepe that no man taketh vp. euery man shall turne to his owne people, and flee eche one to his owne lande.
15 Euery one that is founde, shall be striken through: and whosoeuer ioyneth himselfe, shal fall by the sworde.
16 * Their n children also shall be broken in pieces before their eyes: their houses shalbe spoy-led, and their wiues rauished.
17 Beholde, I will stirre vp the Medes against them, which shall not regarde siluer, nor be desirous of golde.
18 With bowes also shall they destroy ye children, and shal haue no compassion vpon the fruite of the wombe, and their eyes shall not spare the children.
19 And Babel the glorie of kingdomes, the beautie and pride of the Chaldeans, shall be as the destruction of God * in Sodom and Gomorah.
20 It shall not be inhabited for euer, neither shall it be dwelled in from generation to generation: neither shall the o Arabian pitch his tents there, neyther shall the shepheardes make their foldes there.
21 But p Zijm shal lodge there, and their houses shal be ful of Ohim: Ostriches shal dwel there, and the Satyrs shall dance there.
22 And Iim shall crie in their palaces, and dragons in their pleasant palaces: and the time thereof is readie to come, and the dayes thereof shall not be prolonged.

e The army of the Medes & the Persians against Babylō. f Ye Babylonians.
g The Babylonians anger, & griefe shalbe so much, that their faces shal burne as fire.
h They that are ouercome, shall thinke that all the powers of heauen & earth are against them, Ezek. 32.7. Ioel 3.15. Matth. 24.29.
i Here compareth Babylon to the whole worlde, because they so esteemed themselues by reason of their great empire.
k He noteth the principall vice, whereunto they are most giuen, as are all that abound in wealth.
l He noteth the great slaughter yt shall be, seing the enemie shall neither for golde, or siluer spare a mans life, as vers. 17.
m Meaning, the power of Babylon with their hired souldiers.
* Psal. 137.9.
n This was not accomplished when Cyrus tooke Babylon, but after the death of Alexander the great.
* Gen. 19.24. iere. 50.40.
o Who vseth to goe from countrey to countrey to finde pasture for their beastes, but there shall they finde none.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The returne of the people from captiuitie. 4 The derision of the King of Babylon. 11 The death of the King. 29 The destruction of the Philistims.

FOr a the Lord wil haue compassion of Iaakob, and will yet chuse Israel, and cause them to rest in their owne lande: and the stranger b shal ioyne him selfe vnto them, and they shall cleaue to the house of Iaakob.
2 And the people shall receiue them & bring them to their owne place, and the house of Israel shall possesse them in the lande of the Lorde, for c seruants & handmaids: and they shall take them prisoners, whose captiues they were, and haue rule ouer their oppressours.
3 ¶ And in that day when the Lord shall giue thee rest from thy sorrowe, and from thy feare, and from the sore bōdage, wherein thou diddest serue, 4 Then shalt thou take vp this prouerbe against the King of Babel, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased? & the gold thirsty Babel rested?
5 The Lorde hath broken the rodde of the wicked, and the scepter of the rulers:
6 Which smote the people in anger with a continuall plague, and ruled the nations in wrath:
if any were persecuted, he did d not let.
7 The whole worlde is at e rest and is quiet:
they sing for ioy.
8 Also the firre trees reioyced of thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laide downe, no hewer came vp against vs.
9 Hell beneath is mooued for thee to f meete thee at thy comming, raysing vp the dead for thee, euen all the princes of the earth, and hath raised from their thrones all the Kings of the nations.
10 All they shall crie, and say vnto thee, Art thou become weake also as we? art thou become like vnto vs?
11 Thy pompe is brought downe to the graue,
and the sound of thy violes: the worme g is spred vnder thee, and the wormes couer thee.
12 How art thou fallen from heauen, O h Lucifer, sonne of the morning? and cutte downe to the grounde, which didest cast lottes vpon the nations?
13 Yet thou saydest in thine heart, I will as-cende into heauen, and exalt my throne aboue beside the starres of God: I will sitte also vpon the mount of the Congregation in the sides of the i North.
14 I will ascend aboue ye height of the cloudes, and I will be like the most high.
15 But thou shalt bee brought downe to the graue, to the sides of the pit.
16 They that see thee, shall k looke vpon thee and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, and that did shake the kingdomes?
17 He made the worlde as a wildernesse, and destroyed the cities thereof, and opened not l the house of his prisoners.
18 All the Kings of the nations, euen they all sleepe in glorie, euery one in his owne house.
19 But thou art m cast out of thy graue like an abominable branch: like the raiment of those that are slaine, and thrust thorow with a sworde, which goe downe to the stones of the pit, as a carkeise troden vnder feete.
20 Thou shalt not be ioyned with them in the a Hee sheweth why God wil haste to destroy his enemies: to wit, because he will deliuer his Church.

b Meaning, that the Gentiles shall be ioyned with the Church and worship God.
c Signifying that the Iewes should be superiours to the Gentiles, and that they should bee brought vnder the seruice of Christ by the preaching of the Apostles, whereby all are brought to ye subiection of Christ, 2. Cor. 10.5.
d That is, he suffred all violence & iniuries to be done.
e Meaning, that when tyrantes reigne, there can be no rest nor quietnesse, and also how detestable a thing tyrannie is, seeing the insensible creatures haue occasion to reioyce at their destruction.
f As though they feared lest thou shouldest trouble the dead as thou didest the liuing: and here he derideth the proud tyrannie of the wicked, which knowe not that all creatures with their destruction that they may reioyce.

h Thou that thoughtest thy selfe most glorious, and as it were placed in the heauen: for the morning starre that goeth before the sunne, is called Lucifer, to whome Nebuchad-nezzar is compared.

graue, because thou hast destroyed thine owne lande, and slaine thy people: the seede of the wicked shall not be renoumed for euer.
21 [a] Prepare a slaughter for his children, for the iniquitie of their fathers: let them not rise vp nor possesse the land, nor fill the face of the world with enemies.
22 ¶ For I will rise vp against them (sayth the Lorde of hostes) and will cut off from Babel the name and the remnant and the sonne, and the nephew, sayth the Lord:
23 And I wil make it a possession to the ‖hedgehogge, and pooles of water, and I will sweepe it with the besome of destruction, sayeth the Lorde of hostes.
24 The Lorde of hostes hath sworne, saying, Surely like as I haue purposed, so shall it come to passe, and as I haue consulted, it shall stand: 25 [o] That I will breake to pieces Asshur in my land, and vpon my mountaines will I treade him vnder foote: so that his yoke shall depart from [p] them, and his burden shall be taken from off their shoulder.
26 This is the counsell that is consulted vpon the whole worlde, and this is the hande stretched out ouer all the nations, 27 Because the Lorde of hostes hath determined it, and who shall disanull it? and his hande is stretched out, and who shall turne it away?
28 ¶ In the yeere that King Ahaz dyed, was this [q] burden.
29 Reioyce not, (thou whole [r] Palestina) because the rod of him that did beat thee, is broken: for out of the serpents roote shal come forth a cockatrise, & the fruit thereof shalbe a fiery flying serpent.
30 For the [s] first borne of the poore shall be fed, and the needie shall lie downe in safetie: and I will kill thy roote with famine, and [t] it shal slay thy remnant.
31 Howle, O gate, crie, O citie: thou whole lande of Palestina art dissolued, for there shall come from the [u] North a smoke, and none shalbe alone, [x] at his time appointed.
32 What shall then one answere the messengers of the Gentiles? That the Lorde hath stablished [z] Zion, and the poore of his people shall trust in it.

a He calleth to the Medes & Persians and all those that should execute Gods vengeance.

o As I haue begun to destroy the Assyrians in Senacherib, so will I continue, and destroy them whaly, when I shall deliuer you from Babylon.
p From the Iewes.
q Reade Chap. 13.1.
r He willeth the Philistims not to reioyce because the Iewes are diminished in their power: for their strength shall be greater then euer it was.
s The Israelites, which were brought to most extreme miserie.
t To wit, my people.
u That is, from the Iewes, or Assyrians: for they were both North from Palestina.
x But they shall be all readie, and ioyne together.
y Which shall come to enquire of the state of the Church.
z They shall answere, that the Lord doeth defend his Church, and them that ioyne themselues thereunto.

CHAP. XV.

A prophecie against Moab.

THE [a] burden of Moab. Surely [b] Ar of Moab was destroied, & brought to silēce in a night:
surely Kir of Moab was destroyed, and brought to silence in a night.
2 [c] He shal goe vp to the temple, & to Dibon to the hie places to weepe: for [d] Nebo & for Me-deba shall Moab howle: vpon all [e] their heades shalbe baldnesse, and euery beard shauen.
3 In their streetes shall they bee girded with sackecloth: on the toppes of their houses, and in their streetes euery one shall howle, and come downe with weeping.
4 And Heshbon shall crie, and Elealeh: their voyce shall bee heard vnto Iahaz: therefore the warriers of Moab shall showte: the soule of euery one shall lament in himselfe.
5 Mine [f] heart shall crie for Moab: his fugitiues shal flee vnto Zoar, [g] an heiffer of three yere olde: for they shall goe vp with weeping by the mounting vp of Luhith: and by the way of Horo-naim they [h] shall raise vp a crie of destruction.
6 For the waters of Nimrim shal be dried vp:
therefore the grasse is withered, the herbes consumed, and there was no greene herbe.
7 Therefore what euery man hath left, and their substance shall they beare to the [i] brooke of the willowes.
8 For the crie went round about the borders of Moab: and the howling thereof vnto Eglaim, and the skriking thereof vnto Beer Elim, 9 Because the waters of Dimon shall be full [k] of blood: for I will bring more vpon Dimon, euen lyons [l] vpon him that escapeth of Moab, and to the remnant of the land.

a Read chap. 13.1.
b The chiefe citie, whereby the whole countrey was meant.
c The Moabites shall flee to their idoles for succour, but it shall be too late.
d Which were cities of Moab.
e For as in the West partes the people vsed to let their haire growe long, when they mourned, so in the East partes they cut it off.
f The Prophet speaketh this in the person of the Moabites, or as one that felt the great iudgement of God that should come vpon them.
g Meaning, that it was a citie that euer liued in pleasure, and neuer felt sorowe.

h He describeth the miserable dissipation and flight of the Moabites.
i To hide themselues, and their goods there.
k Of them that are slaine.
l So that by no meanes they should escape the hand of God: thus wil God punish the enemies of his Church.

CHAP. XVI.

The causes wherefore the Moabites are destroyed.

SEnde [a] yee a lambe to the ruler of the worlde from the rocke of the wildernesse, vnto the mountaine of the daughter Zion.
2 For it shall be as a birde that [b] flieth, and a nest forsaken: the daughters of Moab shall be at the foordes of Arnon.
3 Gather a cōsel, execute iudgement: [c] make thy shadow as the night in the midday: hide them that are chased out: bewray not him that is fled.
4 Let my banished dwell with thee: Moab be thou their couert from the face of the destroyer:
for the extortioner [d] shall ende: the destroyer shalbe consumed, and the oppressour shall cease out of the land.
5 And in mercy shall the throne be prepared, [e] and hee shall sit vpon it in stedfastnesse, in the tabernacle of Dauid, iudging, and seeking iudge-ment, and hasting iustice.
6 We haue heard of the pride of Moab, (he is very proud) euen his pride, and his arrogancie, and his indignation, but his [f] lyes shall not be so.
7 Therefore shall Moab howle vnto Moab:
euery one shall howle: for the foundations of Kirhareseth shal ye mourne, yet they shalbe [g] striken.
8 For the vineyards of Heshbon are cut downe, and the vine of Sibmah: [h] the lordes of the heathen haue broken the principal vines thereof: they are come vnto [i] Iazzer: they wandred in the wil-dernesse: her goodly branches stretched out them selues, and went ouer the sea.
9 Therefore will [k] I weepe with the weeping of Iazzer, & of the vine of Sibmah, O Heshbon: and Elealeh, I will make thee drunke with my teares, because vpon thy sommer fruits, and vpon thy haruest [l] a showting is fallen.
10 And gladnesse is taken away, and ioy out of the plentifull fielde: and in the vineyardes shall be no singing nor showting for ioy: the treader shall not tread wine in the wine presses: I haue caused the reioycing to cease.
11 Wherefore, my [m] bowels shall sounde like an harpe for Moab, and mine inwarde partes for Ker-haresh.
12 And when it shall appeare that Moab shall be wearie of his hie places, then shall he come to his [n] temple to pray, but he shall not preuaile.
13 This is the word that the Lord hath spoken against Moab since that time.
14 And now the Lorde hath spoken, saying, a That is, offer a sacrifice: whereby he derideth their long delay, which would not repent when the Lorde called them, shewing them that it is now too late, seeing the vengeance of God is vpon them.

b There is no remedie, but you must flie.
c Hee sheweth what Moab should haue done, when Israel their neighbour was in affliction, to whome because they would giue no shadowe nor comfort, they are now left comfortlesse.
d The Assyrians shall oppresse the Israelites, but for a while.
e Meaning Christ.
f Their vaine confidence, and proud bragges shall deceiue them, as Iere. 48.2.
g For all your mourning, yet the citie shalbe destroied, euen vnto the foundations.
h That is, the Assyrians, and other enemies.
i Meaning, that the countrey of Moab was now destroyed and all the precious things thereof were caried into the borders, yea into other countries, and ouer the sea.
k He sheweth that their plague was so great, that it would haue moued any man to lament with them, as Psal. 142.4.
l The enemies are come vpon thee, and shoute for ioy, when they carie thy commodities from thee, as Ierem. 48.33.
m For very sorowe and compassion.
n They shall vse all meanes to seeke helpe of their idoles and all in vaine: for Chemosh their great god shall not bee able to helpe them.

[o] In three yeeres, as the yeeres of a [p] hireling, and the glorie of Moab shall be contemned in all the great multitude, and the remnant shalbe very smal and feeble.

o He appoynted a certaine time to punish the enemies in.
p Who will obserue iustly the time, for the which he is hired, and serue no longer, but will euer long for it.

CHAP. XVII.

1 A prophecie of the destruction of Damascus and Ephraim. 7 Calamitie mooueth to repentance.

THe [a] burden of [b] Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a citie, for it shal be a ruinous heape.
2 The cities of [c] Aroer shall be forsaken: they shalbe for the flockes: for they shall lye there, and none shall make them afraide.
3 The munition also shall cease from [d] Ephraim, and the kingdome from Damascus, and the remnant of Aram shall be as the [e] glory of the children of Israel, saith the Lord of hostes.
4 And in that day the glorie of [f] Iaakob shal be impouerished, and the fatnes of his flesh shalbe made leane.
5 And it shalbe as when the haruest man ga-thereth [g] the corne, and reapeth the eares with his arme, and he shal be as hee that gathereth the eares in the valley of [h] Rephaim.
6 Yet a gathering of grapes shall [i] be left in it, as the shaking of an oliue tree, two or three beries are in the top of the vpmost boughs, & foure or fiue in the hie branches of the fruite thereof, saieth the Lord God of Israel.
7 At that day shal a man looke to his [k] maker, and his eies shal looke to the holy one of Israel.
8 And hee shall not looke to the altars, the workes of his owne hands, neither shall he looke to those things, which his own fingers haue made, as groues and images.
9 In that day shall the cities of their strength be as the forsaking of boughes & branches, which [l] they did forsake, because of the children of Israel, and there shall be desolation.
10 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy saluation, and hast not remembred the God of thy strength, therefore shalt thou set pleasant plants, and shalt graffe strange [m] vine branches: 11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to growe, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seede to florish: but the haruest shall bee gone in the day [n] of possession, and there shall be desperate sorrowe.
12 [o] Ah, the multitude of many people, they shal make a sounde like the noise of the sea: for the noyse of the people shall make a sounde like the noyse of mightie waters.
13 The people shal make a sounde like the noyse of many waters: but God shal [p] rebuke them, and they shal flee farre off, and shalbe chased as the chaffe of the mountaines before the winde, and as a rolling thing before the whirlewinde.
14 And loe, in the euening there is [q] trouble:
but afore the morning it is gone. This is the portion of them that spoyle vs, and the lot of them that robbe vs.

a Reade Chap. 13.1.
b The chiefe city of Syria.
c It was a countrey of Syria by the riuer Arnon.
d It seemeth that the Prophet would comfort the Church in declaring the destruction of these two Kings, of Syria and Israel, when as they had conspired the ouerthrowe of Iudah.
e The ten Tribes gloried in their multitude, and alliance with other nations: therefore he saith that they shalbe brought downe and the Syrians also.
f Meaning, of the ten tribes, which boast themselues of their nobility, prosperitie, strength and multitude.
g As the abundance of corne doeth not feare the haruest men that shoulde cut it downe: no more shal the multitude of Israel make the enemies to shrink, whom God shall appoint to destroy them.
h Which valley was plentifull and fertile.
i Because God would haue his couenant stable, he promiseth to reserue some of this people, and to bring them to repentance.
k Hee sheweth that Gods corrections euer bring forth some fruite, and cause his to turne from their sinnes, to humble themselues to him.
l As the Canaanites left their cities, when God did place the Israelites there, so the cities of Israel shall no more be able to defend their inhabitants, then bushes, when God shall send the enemie to plague them. m Which are excellent, & brought out of other countreis. n As the Lord threatneth the wicked in his Law, Leuit. 26. 16. o The Prophet lamenteth, considering the horrible plague that was prepared against Israel by the Assyrians, which were infinite in number, and gathered of many nations. p He addeth this for the consolation of the faithfull, which were in Israel. q He compareth the enemies the Assyrians to a tempest, which riseth ouer night, and in the morning is gone.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Of the enemies of the Church. 7 And of the vocation of the Gentiles.

OH, the [a] lande shadowing with wings, which is beyond the riuers of Ethiopia, 2 Sending ambassadours by the Sea, euen in vessels of [b] reedes vpon the waters, saying, [c] Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation that is scattered abroade, and spoyled, vnto a terrible [d] people from their beginning euen hitherto: a nation by little and litle, euen troden vnder foote, whose land the [e] floods haue spoyled.
3 Al ye the inhabitants of ỹ world and dwellers in the earth, shall see when [f] hee setteth vp a signe in the mountains, and when he bloweth the trumpe, ye shal heare.
4 For so the Lord saide vnto me, I will [g] rest and beholde in my tabernacle, as [h] the heate drying vp the rayne, and as a cloude of dewe in the heate of haruest.
5 For afore the haruest when the floure is finished, and the fruite is riping in the floure, then he shal cut downe the branches with hookes, and shal take away, and cut off the boughes: 6 They shall be left together vnto the foules of the mountaines, & to the [i] beastes of the earth:
for the foule shal summer vpon it, and euery beast of the earth shal winter vpon it.
7 At that time shall a [k] present bee brought vnto the Lord of hostes, (a people that is scattered abroade, and spoyled, & of a terrible people from their beginning hitherto, a nation, by litle and litle euen troden vnder foote, whose land the riuers haue spoyled) to the place of the Name of the Lord of hostes, euen the mount Zion.

a Hee meaneth ỹ part of Ethiopia, which lieth towarde the Sea, which was so full of ships, that the sayles (which he compareth to wings) seemed to shadow the sea.
b Which in those countreyes were great: insomuch as they made ships of them for swiftnesse.
c This may be taken that they sent other to comfort the Iewes, and to promise them helpe against their enemies, and so the Lord did threaten to take away their strength that the Iewes should not trust therein: or that they did sollicite the Egyptians, and promised them ayde to goe against Iudah.
d To wit, the Iewes, who because of Gods plagues made all other nations afraide of the like, as God threatned, Deut. 28. 37.
e Meaning, the Assyrians, as chap 8. 7. f When the Lord prepareth to fight against the Ethiopians. g I will stay a while from punishing the wicked. h Which two seasons are most profitable for the riping of fruites: whereby he meaneth, that he will seeme to fauour them, & giue them abundance for a time, but he will suddenly cut them off. i Not onely men shall contemne them, but the bruite beastes. k Meaning, that God will pitie his Church, and recciue that litle remnant as an offering vnto himselfe.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The destruction of the Egyptians by the Assyrians. 18 Of their conuersion to the Lord.

THe [a] burden of Egypt. Beholde, the Lord [b] rideth vpon a swift cloude, and shall come into Egypt, and the idoles of Egypt shall be moued at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the middes of her.
2 And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: so euery one shal [c] fight against his brother, and euery one against his neighbour, citie against citie, and kingdome against kingdome.
3 And the [d] spirite of Egypt shal fayle in the middes of her, and I wil destroy their counsel, and they shal seeke at the idoles, and at the sorcerers, and at them that haue spirits of diuination, and at the southsayers.
4 And I wil deliuer the Egyptians into the hand of the cruell Lords, and a mightie King shal rule ouer them, saith the Lord God of hostes.
5 Then the waters of the sea shal [e] faile, and the riuers shalbe dryed vp, and wasted.
6 And the riuers [f] shal go farre away: the riuers of defence shalbe emptied and dried vp: the reedes and flagges shalbe cut downe.

a Reade chap. 13.1.
b Because the Egyptians trusted in the defence of their countrey, in the multitude of their idoles, and in the valiantnesse of their men, the Lord sheweth that he will come ouer all their munitions in a swift cloude, and that their idoles shall tremble at his comming, and that mens hearts shall faint.
c As he caused the Ammonites, Moabites, and Idumeans to kill one another, when they came to destroy the Church of God. 2. Chron. 20. 22, chap. 49. 26.
d Meaning, their pollicie, and wisedome. e Hee sheweth that the Sea and Nilus their great riuer, whereby they thought themselues most sure, shoulde not bee able to defende them from his anger, but that he would sende the Assyrians among them, that shoulde keepe them vnder as slaues. f For Nilus ranne into the Sea by seuen streames, as though they were so many riuers.

7 The

7 The grasse in the riuer, and at the g head of the riuers,and all that groweth by the riuer shall wither,and be driuen away,and be no more.
8 The fishers also shal b mourne, and all they that cast angle into the riuer,shal lament,and they that spred their net vpon the waters, shalbe weakened.
9 Moreouer,they that worke in flaxe of diuers sortes, shalbe confounded, and they that weaue nettes.
10 For their nettes shalbe broken,and al they,
that make pondes,shalbe heauy in heart.
11 Surely the princes of i Zoan are fooles: the counsell of the wise counsellers of Pharaoh is become foolish: how say ye vnto Pharaoh, I k am the sonne of the wise? I am the sonne of the ancient Kings?
12 Where are nowe thy wise men, that they may tell thee, or may knowe what the Lorde of hostes hath determined against Egypt?
13 The princes of Zoan are become fooles: the princes of l Noph are deceiued,they haue deceiued Egypt,euen the m corners of the tribes thereof.
14 The Lorde hath mingled among them the spirite n of errours: and they haue caused Egypt to erre in euery worke thereof, as a drunken man erreth in his vomite.
15 Neither shal there be any worke in Egypt, which the head may o doe,nor the taile,the branch nor the rush.
16 In that day shall Egypt be like vnto women: for it shalbe afraide and feare because of the mouing of the hand of the Lorde of hostes, which he shaketh ouer it.
17 And the land of Iudah shal be a feare p vnto Egypt: euery one that maketh mention of it, shalbe afraid thereat,because of the counsel of the Lord of hostes,which he hath determined vpon it.
18 In that day shal fiue cities in the lande of Egypt q speake the language of Canaan,and shall r sweare by the Lord of hostes: one shal be called the citie of s destruction.
19 In that day shall the altar of the Lord be in the mids of the land of Egypt,and t a pillar by the border thereof vnto the Lord.
20 And it shalbe for a signe and for a witnesse vnto the Lord of hostes in the land of Egypt: for they shall crie vnto the Lorde, because of the oppressers, and he shal send them u a Sauiour and a great man,and shal deliuer them.
21 And the Lord shalbe known of the Egyptians,and the Egyptians shal know the Lord in that day,and do x sacrifice and oblation,and shal vowe vowes vnto the Lord,and performe them.
22 So the Lord shal smite Egypt,he shall smite and heale it: for he shal returne vnto the Lord, &
he shal be intreated of them and shal heale them.
23 In that day shal there be a path from y Egypt to Asshur,and Asshur shal come into Egypt, and Egypt into Asshur:so the Egyptians shal worship with Asshur.
24 In that day shal Israel be the third with Egypt and Asshur, euen a blessing in the middes of
the land.

g The Ebrewe worde is mouth, whereby they meane the spring, out of the which the water gusheth as out of a mouth.
h The Scriptures vse to describe the destruction of a countrey by taking away of the commodities thereof, as by vines, flesh, fish, and such other thinges, whereby countries are enriched.
i Called also Tanes, a famous citie vpon Nilus.
k He noteth the flatterers of Pharaoh: who perswaded the King that he was wise, and noble and that his house was most ancient, and so he flattered himselfe, saying, I am wise.
l Or Memphis, others Alexandria, and now called the great Caira.
m The principal vpholders thereof are the chiefest cause of their destruction.
n For the spirite of wisedome he hath made them drunken and giddie with the spirit of errour.
o Neither ẏ great nor the small, the strong nor the weake.
p Considering that through their occasion the Iewes made not God their defence but put their trust in them, and were therefore nowe punished, they shal feare least the like light vpon them.
q Shall make one confession of faith with the people of God: by the speach of Canaan, meaning, the language, wherein God was then serued.
r Shall renounce their superstitions, and protest to serue God aright.
s Meaning of sixe cities fiue shoulde serue God, and the sixt remaine in their wickednesse: and so of the sixt part there should be but one lost.
t There shalbe euident signes and tokens, that Gods religion is there: which maner of speech is taken of the Patriarkes, and ancient times, when God had not as yet appointed the place, and full manner howe he would be worshipped.
u This declareth that this prophecie should be accomplished in the time of Christ.
x By these ceremonies he comprehendeth the spiritual seruice vnder Christ.
y By these two nations, which were then chiefe enemies of ẏ Church, he sheweth ẏ the Gentiles, & the Iewes should be ioyned together in one faith & religion, & should be all one fold vnder Christ their shepheard.

25 For the Lord of hostes shal blesse it,saying, Blessed be my people Egypt and Asshur,the worke of mine hands,and Israel mine inheritance.

CHAP. XX.

1 The three yeeres captiuitie of Egypt and Ethiopia described by the three yeeres going naked of Isaiah.

IN the yeere that a Tartan came to b Ashdod, (when c Sargon King of Asshur sent him) and had fought against Ashdod,and taken it, 2 At the same time spake the Lord by the hand of Isaiah the sonne of Amoz,saying, Go,and loose the d sackecloth from thy loynes, and put of thy shooe from thy foote. And he did so, walking naked and barefoote.
3 And the Lord sayde, Like as my seruant Isaiah hath walked naked,& barefoote three yeeres, as a signe and wonder vpon Egypt, and Ethiopia, 4 So shall the King of Asshur take away the captiuitie of Egypt,and the captiuitie of Ethiopia, both yong men and old men, naked and barefoot, with their buttockes vncouered, to the shame of Egypt.
5 And they shal feare,and be ashamed of e Ethiopia their expectation,& of Egypt f their glory.
6 Then shal the inhabitant of this g yle say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation,whither we fledde for helpe to be deliuered from the King of Asshur,and howe shal we be deliuered?

CHAP. XXI.

1 Of the destruction of Babylon by the Persians and Medes. 11 The ruine of Idumea, 13 And of Arabia.

THe burden of a the desert Sea. As the whirle-windes in the South vse to passe from the wil-dernesse,so shal it b come from the horrible land.
2 A grieuous vision was shewed vnto me,The c transgressour against a transgressour, and the destroyer against a destroyer. Go vp d Elam, besiege Media: I haue caused all the mourning e thereof to cease.
3 Therefore are my f loynes filled with sorow:
sorowes haue taken me as the sorowes of a woman that trauaileth: I was bowed downe when I heard it,and I was amased when I saw it.
4 Mine heart failed: fearefulnesse troubled me:
the night g of my pleasures hath hee turned into feare vnto me.
5 Prepare thou the table: watch in the watch towre: eate,drinke: h arise,ye princes, anoynt the shield.
6 For thus hath the i Lord said vnto me, Go, set a watchman,to tel what he seeth.
7 And hee sawe a charet with two horsemen:
k a charet of an asse, and a charet of a camel: and he hearkened and tooke diligent heede.
8 And he cryed, A l lyon: my lorde, I stande continually vpon the watch towre in the day time, and I am set in my watch euery night:
9 And beholde, this mans charet commeth with two horsemen. And m he answered and sayd, * Babel is fallen: it is fallen,and al the images of her gods hath he broken vnto the ground.
10 O n my threshing, and the † corne of my floore. That which I haue heard of the Lorde of hostes,the God of Israel, haue I shewed vnto you.
11 ¶ The burden of o Dumah. He calleth vnto a Who was captaine of Saneherib, 2.King.18.17.

b A citie of the Philistims. c The Ebrewes write that Saneherib was so called.
d Which signifieth that the Prophet did lament the miserie that he sawe prepared, before the three yeeres, that hee went naked and barefooted.
e In whose ayde they trusted.
f Of whom they boasted, & gloried.
g Meaning, Iudea, which was compassed about with their enemies, as an yle with waters.
a On the sea side betweene Iudea, and Caldea, was a wildernes, whereby he meaneth Caldea.
b That is, the ruine of Babylon by the Medes, and Persians.
c The Assyrians, & Caldeans, which had destroyed other nations, shall be ouercome of the Medes & Persians, and this he prophecied an hundreth yere before it came to passe. d By Elam, hee meaneth the Persians.
e Because they shall finde no succour, they shall mourne no more, or, I haue caused them to cease mourning, whom Babylon had afflicted.
f This the Prophet speaketh in the person of the Babylonians.
g He prophecieth the death of Belshazzar, as Dan.5.30, who in the mids of his pleasures was destroyed.
h Whiles they are eating and drinking, they shalbe commanded to run to their weapons.
i To wit, in a vision by the spirit of prophecie.
k Meaning, charets of men of warre, & others that caried the baggage.
l Meaning Darius, which ouercame Babylon.
m The watchman, whom Isaiah set vp, told him who came toward Babylon, and the Angel declared that it should bee destroyed: all this was done in a vision.
* Iere.51.8. reuel.14.8.
n Meaning, Babylon.
† Eb. sonne.
o Which was a citie of the Ishmaelites, and was so named of Dumah, Gene.25.14.

me out of p Seir, Watchman, what was in ŷ night?
Watchman, what was in the night?
12 The watchman sayd, The q morning commeth, and also the night. If yee will aske, enquire: returne and come.
13 ¶ The burden against Arabia. In r the forest of Arabia shall ye tarie all night, euen in the wayes of Dedanim.
14 O inhabitants of the lande of Tema, bring foorth s water to meete the thirstie, and preuent him that fleeth with his bread.
15 For they flee from the drawen swords, euen from the drawen sword, and from the bent bowe, and from the grieuousnesse of warre.
16 For thus hath the Lorde sayde vnto me, Yet a yeere t according to the yeeres of an u hireling, and all the glorie of Kedar shall faile.
17 And the residue of the nomber of ŷ strong archers of the sonnes of x Kedar shall be fewe: for the Lord God of Israel hath spoken it.

p A mountaine of the Idumeans.
q He describeth the vnquietnesse of the people of Dumah, who were night and day in feare of their enemies, and euer ran to and fro to enquire newes.
r For feare, the Arabians shall flee into the wooddes, and he appoynteth what way they shall take.
s Signifying that for feare they shall not tarie to eate or drinke.
t He appoynteth them respit for one yere only, and then they should be destroyed.
u Reade Chap. 16.14. x Which was the name of a people of Arabia: and by the horrible destruction of all these nations, hee teacheth the Iewes that there is no place for refuge or to escape Gods wrath, but onely to remaine in his Church, and to liue in his feare.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Hee prophecieth of the destruction of Ierusalem by Nebuchad-nezzar. 15 A threatning against Shebna. 20 To whose office Eliakim is preferred.

THe burden of the a valley of vision. What b aileth thee now that thou art wholy gone vp vnto the house toppes?
2 Thou that art full of c noise, a citie full of brute, a ioyous citie: thy slaine men shall not bee slaine d with sworde, nor die in battell.
3 All thy princes shall flee together from the bowe: they shalbe e bound: all that shall be found in thee, shall be bound together, which haue fled from f farre.
4 Therefore said I, Turne away from me: I wil weepe g bitterly: labour not to comfort mee for the destruction of the daughter of my people.
5 For it is a day of trouble, and of ruine, and of perplexitie by the Lorde God of hostes in the valley of vision, breaking downe the citie: and a h crying vnto the mountaines.
6 ¶ And Elam i bare the quiuer in a mans charet ŵ horsemen, and Kir vncouered the shield.
7 And thy chiefe valleis were full of charets, and the horsemen set themselues in aray against
the gate.
8 And hee discouered the k couering of Iudah: and thou didest looke in that day to the armour of the house of the forest.
9 And yee haue seene l the breaches of the ci-tie of Dauid: for they were many, and ye gathered the waters of the lower poole.
10 And yee nombred the houses m of Ierusalem, and the houses haue yee broken downe to fortifie the wall, 11 And haue also made a ditche betweene the two walles, for the n waters of the olde poole, and haue not looked vnto the maker o thereof, neither had respect vnto him that formed it of olde.

a Meaning, Iudea, which was compassed about with mountaines, and was called the valley of visions, because of the Prophets, which were alwayes there, whom they named Seers.
b He speaketh to Ierusalem, whose inhabitants were fled vp to ŷ house toppes for feare of their enemies.
c Which wast wont to be full of people and ioy.
d But for hunger.
e And led into captiuitie. f Which haue fled from other places to Ierusalem for succour.
g Hee sheweth what is the duetie of the godly, when Gods plagues hāg ouer the Church, & specially of the ministers, Iere. 9.1.
h That is, the shoute of the enemies, whom God had appointed to destroy the citie.
i He putteth them in minde how God deliuered them once from Saneherib, who brought the Persians & Cyrenians with him, that they might by returning to God auoyde that great plague which they should els suffer by Nebuchad nezzar. k The secret place where the armour was: to wit, in the house of the forest, 1 King. 7.2. l Ye fortified the ruinous places, which were neglected in time of peace: meaning, the whole citie and the citie of Dauid which was within the compasse of the other. m Either to pull downe such as might hurt, or els to know what men they were able to make. n To prouide if neede should be of water. o To God that made Ierusalem: that is, they trusted more in these worldly meanes then in God.

12 And in that day did the Lord God of hosts call vnto weeping and mourning, and to baldnes and girding with sackecloth.
13 And behold, ioy and gladnes, slaying oxen and killing sheepe, eating flesh, & drinking wine, p eating and drinking: for to morow we shall die.
14 And it was declared in the eares of the Lord of hostes. Surely this iniquitie shall not be purged from you, til ye die, saith the Lord God of hostes.
15 Thus saith the Lorde God of hostes, Goe, get thee to that q treasurer, to Shebna, the steward of the house, and say, 16 What hast thou to doe here? and whome hast thou r here? that thou shouldest here hewe thee out a sepulchre, as he that heweth out his sepulchre in an hie place, or that graueth an habitation s for him selfe in a rocke?
17 Behold, the Lord wil carie thee away with a great captiuitie, and will surely couer thee.
18 He wil surely rolle and turne thee like a ball in a large countrey: there shalt thou die, and there the charets of thy glory shalbe the t shame of thy lordes house.
19 And I will driue thee from thy station, and out of thy dwelling will he destroy thee.
20 And in that day will I u call my seruant Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah, 21 And with thy garments will I clothe him, and with thy girdle will I strengthen him: thy power also will I commit into his hande, and hee shalbe a father of the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and of the house of Iudah.
22 And the x key of the house of Dauid wil I lay vpon his shoulder: so hee shall open, and no mā shal shut: & he shal shut, & no man shal open.
23 And I will fasten him as a y naile in a sure place, and he shall be for the throne of glory to his fathers house.
24 And they shall hang vpon him all the glorie of his fathers house, euen of the nephewes and posteritie z all small vessels, from the vessels of the cuppes, euen to all the instruments of musike.
25 In that day, sayeth the Lord of hostes, shall the a naile, that is fastened in the sure place, depart and shall be broken, and fall: and the burden, that was vpon it, shall be cut off: for the Lorde hath spoken it.

p In steade of repentance ye were ioyfull and made great cheere, contemning the admonitions of the Prophets, saying, Let vs eate and drink: for our Prophets say, that we shal die to morow.
q Because the Ebrew word doeth also signifie one that doeth nourish and cherish, there are of the learned that thinke, that this wicked man did nourish secret friendship with the Assyrians & Egyptians, to betray the church, and to prouide for himselfe against all dangers: in the meane season he packt craftily and gate of the best offices into his hand vnder Hezekiah, euer aspiring to the highest.
r Meaning, that he was a stranger and came vp of nothing.
s Whereas hee thought to make his name immortal by his famous sepulchre, hee died most miserably among ŷ Assyrians.
t Signifying that whatsoeuer dignitie the wicked attaine vnto, at length it wil turne to the shame of those Princes, by whome they are preferred.
u To be steward againe, out of the which office he had bene put by ŷ craft of Shebna.
x I will commit vnto him the full charge and gouernement of the Kings house. y I will establish him and confirme him in his office: of this phrase reade Ezra 9.9. z Meaning, that both small and great that shall come of Eliakim, shall haue prayse and glorie by his faithfull officer. a Hee meaneth Shebna, who in mans iudgement shoulde neuer haue fallen.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 A prophesie against Tyrus. 17 A promise that it shall be restored.

THe a burden of Tyrus. Howle, ye shippes of b Tarshish: for c it is destroyed, so that there is none house: none shall come from the lande of d Chittim: it is e reuciled vnto them.
2 Be still, yee that dwell in the yles: the marchantes of Zidon, and such as passe ouer the sea, haue f replenished thee.
3 The g seede of Nilus growing by the abundance of waters, and the haruest of the riuer was her reuenues, and she was a marte of the nations.
4 Be ashamed, thou Zidon: for the h sea hath spoken, euen the strength of the sea, saying, I haue not i trauailed, nor brought forth children, neither

b Yee of Cilicia that come thither for marchandise.
c Tyrus is destroyed by Nebuchad nezzar.
d By Chittim they meant all the yles and countreis Westward from Palestina.
e All men know of this destruction.
f Haue haunted thee, and enriched thee.
g Meaning, the corne of Egypt, which was fedde by the ouerflowing of Nilus.
h That is, Tyrus, which was the chiefe port of the Sea. i I haue no people left in me, and am as a barren woman that neuer had childe.

nourished

nourished yong men, nor brought vp virgins.
5 When the same commeth to the Egyptians, they shall be [k] sorie, concerning the rumour of Tyrus.
6 Goe you ouer to [l] Tarshish: howle, yee that dwell in the yles.
7 Is not this that your glorious citie? her an-tiquitie is of ancient dayes: her owne feete shall leade her afarre off to be a soiourner.
8 Who hath decreed this against Tyrus (that [m] crowneth men) whose marchantes are princes?
whose chapmen are the nobles of the worlde?
9 The Lorde of hostes hath decreed this, to staine the pride of all glorie, and to bring to contempt all them that be glorious in the earth.
10 Passe through thy lande like a flood to the [n] daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength.
11 He stretched out his hand vpon the sea: he shooke the kingdomes: the Lorde hath giuen a commaundement concerning the place of marchandise, to destroy the power thereof.
12 And he saide, Thou shalt no more reioyce when thou art oppressed: [o] O virgin [p] daughter of Zidon: rise vp, goe ouer vnto Chittim: yet there thou shalt haue no rest.
13 Behold the land of the Caldeans: this was no people: [q] Asshur founded it by the inhabitantes of the wildernesse: they set vp the towers thereof: they raised the palaces thereof and hee [r] brought it to ruine.
14 Howle yee shippes of Tarshish, for your [s] strength is destroyed.
15 And in that day shall Tyrus bee forgotten seuentie yeeres, (according to the yeeres of one King) at the ende of [t] seuentie yeeres shall Tyrus [u] sing as an harlot.
16 Take an harpe and go about the citie: (thou harlot thou hast bene forgotten) [x] make sweete melodie, sing moe songs that thou mayest be re-membred.
17 And at the ende of seuentie yeeres shall the Lorde visite Tyrus, and shee shall returne to her [y] wages, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdomes of the earth, that are in the world.
18 Yet her occupying and her wages shall be [z] holy vnto the Lorde: it shall not be laied vp nor kept in store, but her marchandise shalbe for them that dwell before the Lorde, to eate sufficiently,
and to haue durable clothing.

CHAP. XXIIII.

A prophesie of the curse of God for the sinnes of the people.
13 A remnant reserued shall prayse the Lord.

BEholde, the Lorde maketh the [a] earth emp-tie, and he maketh it waste: hee turneth it vp-side downe, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.
2 And there shalbe like people, like [b] Priest, and like seruant, like master, like maide, like mistresse, like bier, like seller, like lender, like borower, like giuer, like taker to vsurie.
3 The earth shalbe cleane emptied, and vtterly spoiled: for the Lord hath spoken this worde.
4 The earth lamenteth and fadeth away: the world is feeble and decaied: the proude people of the earth are weakened.
5 The earth [c] also deceiueth, because of the inhabitantes thereof: for they transgressed the lawes: they changed the ordinances, and brake the euerlasting couenant.
6 Therefore hath the [d] curse deuoured the earth, and the inhabitantes thereof are desolate.
Wherefore the inhabitants of the land are [e] burned vp, and fewe men are left.
7 The wine faileth, the vine hath no might:
all that were of merie heart, doe mourne.
8 The mirth of tabrets ceaseth: the noyse of them that reioyce, endeth: the ioye of the harpe ceaseth.
9 They shall not drinke wine with mirth:
strong drinke shalbe bitter to them that drinke it.
10 The citie of [f] vanitie is broken downe: eue-ry house is shut vp, that no man may come in.
11 There is a crying for wine in the streetes: all ioy is darkened: the [g] mirth of the world is gone away.
12 In the cities is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.
13 ¶ Surely thus shall it bee in the middes of the earth, among the people, [h] as the shaking of an oliue tree, and as the grapes when the vintage is ended.
14 They shall lift vp their voyce: they shall shout for the magnificence of the Lord: they shall reioyce from [i] the sea.
15 Wherefore praise yee the Lord in the val-leis, euen the Name of the Lorde God of Israel, in the yles of the sea.
16 From the vttermost part of the earth wee haue heard praises, euen glorie to the [k] iust, and I said, [l] My leannesse, my leannesse, woe is me: the transgressours haue offended: yea, the transgressours haue grieuously offended.
17 Feare, and the pit, and the snare are vpon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.
18 And hee that fleeth from the noyse of the feare, shall fall into the pit: and he that commeth vp out of the pit, shalbe taken in the snare: for the [m] windowes from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth doe shake.
19 The earth is vtterly broken downe: the earth is cleane dissolued: the earth is mooued exceedingly.
20 The earth shall reele to and fro like a drunken man, and shall be remooued like a tent, and the iniquitie thereof shall be heauie vpon it: so that it shall fall, and rise no more.
21 ¶ And in that day shall the Lorde [n] visite the hoste aboue that is on hie, euen the Kings of the world that are vpon the earth.
22 And they shalbe gathered together, as the prisoners in the pit: and they shalbe shut vp in the prison, and after many dayes shall they be [o] visited.
23 [p] Then the moone shalbe abashed, and the sunne ashamed, when the Lorde of hostes shall reigne in mount Zion and in Ierusalem: and glory shalbe before his ancient men.

k Because these two countreis were ioyned in league together.
l Tyrus willeth other marchants to goe to Cilicia, and to come no more there.
m Who maketh her marchants like Princes.
n Thy strength will no more serue thee: therefore flee to other countreis for succour.
o For Tyrus was neuer touched nor afflicted before.
p Because Tyrus was built by them of Zidon.
q The Caldeans which dwelt in tentes in the wildernesse, were gathered by the Assyrians into cities.
r The people of the Caldeans destroyed the Assyrians: whereby the Prophet meaneth, that seeing ye Caldeans were able to ouercome the Assyrians, which were so great a nation, much more shall these two nations of Caldea and Assyria be able to ouerthrow Tyrus.
s That is, Tyrus by whom ye are enriched.
t Tyrus shall lye desolate seuentie yeeres, which he calleth the reigne of one King or a mans age.
u Shall vse all craft and subtiltie to entise men againe to her.
x She shall labour by al meanes to recouer her first credit, as an harlot when she is long forgotten, seeketh by all meanes to entertain her louers.
y Though shee haue bene chastised of the Lorde, yet shee shall returne to her olde wicked practises, and for gaine shall giue her selfe to all mens lustes like an harlot.
z He sheweth that God yet by the preaching of the Gospell will call Tyrus to repentance, and turne her heart from auarice and filthie gaine vnto the true worshipping of God and liberalitie toward his Saintes.

a This prophesie is as a conclusion of that which hath bene threatned to the Iewes & other nations from the 13. chap. and therefore by the earth he meaneth those lands, which were before named.
b Because this was a name of dignitie, it was also applyed to them, which were not of Aarons familie, and so signifieth also a man of dignitie, as 2. Sam. 8. 18. & 20. 25. 1. chro. 18. 17. and by these woordes the Prophet signifieth an horrible confusion, where there shalbe neither religion, order nor policie, Hosea 4. 9.
c That is, rendreth not her fruite for the sinne of the people, whom the earth deceiued of their nouriture, because they deceiued God of his honour.
d Written in the Law, as Leuit. 26. 14. deut. 28. 16. thus the Prophets vsed to apply particularly the menaces, and promises which are generall in the lawe.
e With heate and drought, or els, that they were consumed with ye fire of Gods wrath.
f Which as it was without order, so now should it be brought to desolation and confusion and this was not onely meant of Ierusalem, but of all the other wicked cities.
g Because they did not vse Gods benefites aright, their pleasures shoulde faile, and they fall to mourning.
h He comforteth the faithfull, declaring that in this great desolation the Lord will assemble his Church, which shall prayse his Name, as Chap. 10. 22.
i From the vtmost coasts of ye world, where the Gospell shalbe preached, as verse 16.
k Meaning, to God, who will publish his gospel through all the worlde.
l I am consumed with care, considering the affliction of the Church, both by forreine enemies, and domesticall. Some reade, my secret, my secret, that is it was reueiled to the Prophet, that ye good should be preserued and the wicked destroyed.
m Meaning, that Gods wrath and vengeance should be ouer and vnder them: so that they should not escape no more then they did at Noahs flood.
n There is no power so high or mightie, but God will visite him with his roddes.
o Not with his roddes, as verse 21. but shall be comforted.
p When God shall restore his Church, the glorie thereof shall so shine and his ministers (which are called his ancient men) that the sunne and the moone shalbe darke in comparison thereof.

CHAP.

CHAP. XXV.

A thankesgiuing to God in that that he sheweth himselfe iudge of the world, by punishing the wicked and maintaining the godly.

O Lord, thou [a] art my God: I will exalt thee, I will prayse thy Name: for thou hast done wonderfull things, according to the counsels of old, with a stable trueth.

2 For thou hast made of a [b] citie an heape, of a strong citie, a ruine: euen the palace [c] of strangers of a citie, it shall neuer be built.

3 Therefore shall the [d] mightie people giue glory vnto thee: the citie of the strong nations shall feare thee.

4 For thou hast bene a strength vnto the poore, euen a strength to the needie in his trouble, a refuge against the tempest, a shadow against the heate: for the blast [e] of the mightie is like a storme against the wall.

5 Thou shalt bring downe the noyse of the strangers, [f] as the heate in a drie place: he wil bring downe the song of the mightie, as [g] the heate in the shadowe of a cloude.

6 And in this [h] mountaine shall the Lorde of hostes make vnto all people a feast of fat things, euen a feast of fined wines, and of fat things full of marow, of wines fined and purified.

7 And he will destroy in this mountaine [i] the couering that couereth all people, and the vaile that is spread vpon all nations.

8 He wil destroy death for euer: and the Lord God wil [k] wipe away the teares from all faces, and the rebuke of his people will hee take away out of all the earth: for the Lord hath spoken it.

9 And in that day shall men say, Loe, this is our God: we haue waited for him, and he will saue vs. This is the Lorde, we haue waited for him: we wil reioyce and be ioyfull in his saluation.

10 For in this mountaine shal the hand of the Lord rest, and [l] Moab shalbe threshed vnder him, euen as strawe is threshed in [m] Madmenah.

11 And hee shall stretch out his hand in the middes of them (as he that swimmeth, stretcheth them out to swimme) and with the strength of his handes shall he bring downe their pride.

12 The defence also of the height of thy walles shall he bring downe and lay lowe, and cast them to the ground, euen vnto the dust.

a Thus the Prophet giueth thankes to God, because hee will bring vnder subiection these nations by his corrections, & make them of his Church which before were his enemies. b Not only of Ierusalem, but also of these other cities, which haue bene thine enemies. c That is, a place where as all vagabondes may liue without danger, and as it were, at ease, as in a palace. d The arrogant and proude, which before would not know thee, shal by thy corrections feare and glorifie thee. e The rage of the wicked is furious, till God breake the force thereof. f Meaning, that as the heate is abated by the raine, so shal God bring downe the rage of the wicked. g As a cloude shadoweth from the heate of the sunne, so shal God aswage the reioycing of the wicked against the godly. h To wit, in Zion, whereby he meaneth his Church, which should vnder Christ be assembled of the Iewes & the Gentiles, and is here described vnder y figure of a costly banket, as Matth. 22. 2. i Meaning, that ignorance and blindenesse, whereby we are kept backe from Christ. k Hee will take away all occasions of sorowe and fill his with perfite ioye, Reuelat. 7. 17. and 21. 4. l By Moab are meant all the enemies of his Church. m There were two cities of this name: one in Iudah, 1. Chron. 2. 49. and an other in the land of Moab, Ieremie 48. 2. which seemeth to haue bene a plentifull place of corne. Chapter 10. 31.

CHAP. XXVI.

A song of the faithfull, wherein is declared, in what consisteth the saluation of the Church, and wherein they ought to trust.

IN that day shall [a] this song be sung in the land of Iudah, We haue a strong citie: [b] saluation shal God set for walles and bulwarkes.

2 [c] Open ye the gates that the righteous nation, which keepeth the trueth, may enter in.

3 By an assured [d] purpose wilt thou preserue perfite peace, because they trusted in thee.

4 Trust in the Lord for euer: for in the Lord God is strength for euermore.

5 For hee will bring downe them that dwell on hie: [e] the hie citie he will abase: euen vnto the ground wil he cast it downe, & bring it vnto dust.

6 The foote shall treade it downe, euen the feete of the [f] poore, and the steppes of the needie.

7 The way of the iust is righteousnesse: thou wilt make equall the righteous path of the iust.

8 Also we, O Lorde, haue waited for thee in the way of thy [g] iudgements: the desire of our soule is to thy Name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 With my soule haue I desired thee in the night, and with my spirit within mee will I seeke thee in the morning: for seeing thy iudgements are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world shall learne [h] righteousnesse.

10 Let mercie [i] be shewed to the wicked, yet hee will not learne righteousnesse: in the land of vprightnesse wil he doe wickedly, and will not beholde the maiestie of the Lord.

11 O Lorde, they will not beholde thine hie hand: but they shall see it, and bee confounded with [k] the zeale of the people, and the fire of thine [l] enemies shall deuoure them.

12 Lord, vnto vs thou wilt ordeine peace: for thou also hast wrought all our workes for vs.

13 O Lord our God, other [m] lords beside thee, haue ruled vs, but we will remember thee onely, and thy Name.

14 The [n] dead shall not liue, neither shall the dead arise, because thou hast visited and scattered them, and destroyed all their memorie.

15 Thou hast increased [o] the nation, O Lord: thou hast increased the nation: thou art made glorious: thou hast enlarged all the coastes of the earth.

16 Lorde, in trouble haue they [p] visited thee: they powred out a prayer when thy chastening was vpon them.

17 Like as a woman with childe, that draweth neere to the trauaile, is in sorow, and cryeth in her paines, so haue we bene in thy [q] sight, O Lord.

18 We haue cōceiued, we haue borne in paine, as though we should haue brought forth [r] winde: there was no helpe in the earth, neither did the inhabitants of [s] the world fall.

19 ¶ [t] Thy dead men shall liue: euen with my body shall they rise. Awake, and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy [u] dewe is as the dew of herbes, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 Come, my people: [x] enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doores after thee: hide thy selfe for a very litle while, vntill the indignation passe ouer.

21 For lo, the Lord commeth out of his place, to visite the iniquitie of the inhabitants of the earth vpon them: and the earth shall disclose her [y] blood, and shall no more hide her slaine.

a This song was made to cōfort the faithfull, when their captiuitie should come, assuring them also of their deliuerance, for the which they should sing this song. b Gods protectiō and defence shalbe sufficient for vs. c He assureth the godly to returne after the captiuitie to Ierusalem. d Thou hast decreed, and thy purpose cānot be changed. e There is no power so hie, that can let God, when he wil deliuer his. f God will set the poore afflicted ouer the power of the wicked. g We haue constantly abid in the aduersities wherewith thou hast afflicted vs. h Meaning that by afflictions men shall learne to feare God. i The wicked though God shew them euident signes of his grace, shalbe neuer the better. k Through enuie and indignation against thy people. l The fire and vengeance, wherewith thou doest destroy thine enemies. m The Babylonians, which haue not gouerned according to thy worde. n Meaning, that the reprobate, euen in this life shall haue the beginning of euerlasting death. o To wit, the companie of the faithfull by the calling of the Gentiles. p That is, the faithfull by thy rods were moued to pray vnto thee for deliuerance. q To wit, in extreme sorowe. r Our sorowes had none end, neither did we enioy the comfort, that we looked for. s The wicked and [illegible] without religion were not destroyed. t Hee comforteth the faithfull in their afflictions, shewing them that euen in death they shall haue life: and that they should [illegible] certainly rise [illegible] glorie the contrary should come to the wicked, [illegible] u As herbes, [illegible] in winter, flourish againe by the raine in the spring time: so they that lie in the [illegible] shall rise vp to ioy when they feele the dewe of Gods grace. x He exhorteth the faithfull to be patient in their afflictions, and to waite vpon Gods worke. y The earth shall vomit and cast out the innocent blood, which it hath drunke, that it may cry for vengeance against the wicked.

CHAP. XXVII.

A prophecie against the kingdome of Satan, 2 And of the ioye of the Church for their deliuerance.

IN that [a] day the Lorde with his sore and great and mightie [b] sword shall visite Liuiathan, that pearcing serpent, euen Liuiathan, that crooked serpent, and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day sing of the vineyarde [c] of red wine.

3 I the Lorde doe keepe it: I will water it euery moment: least any assaile it, I will keepe it night and day.

a At the time appointed. b That is, by his mightie power & by his worde. Hee prophecieth here of the destruction of Satan & his kingdome vnder the name of Liuiathan, Assur and Egypt. c Meaning, of the best wine, which this vineyarde, that is, the Church, [illegible] bring foorth [illegible] agreeable to the Lorde.

d Therefore hee will destroy the kingdome of Satan,because he loueth his Church for his owne mercies sake, and can not be angry with it,but wisheth that he may powre his anger vpon the wicked infidels, whom he meaneth by bryers and thornes.
e He marueileth, that Israel will not come by gentlenesse,except God make them to feele his rods,and so bring them vnto him.
f Though I afflict and diminish my people for a time, yet shall the roote spring againe and bring foorth in great abundance.
g He sheweth that God punisheth his in mercie,and his enemies in iustice.
h That is, thou wilt not destroy the roote of thy Church though the branches thereof seeme to perish by the sharpe winde of affliction.
i He sheweth that there is no true repentance,not full reconciliation to God,till the heart be purged from all idolatrie, and the monuments thereof destroyed.

4 Anger [d] is not in mee: who would set the briers & the thornes against me in battel? I would go through them,I would burne them together.
5 Or will he [e] feele my strength, that he may make peace with me, and be at one with me?
6 [f] Hereafter, Iaakob shall take roote: Israel shall florish and growe, and the world shall be filled with fruite.
7 Hath hee smitten [g] him as hee smote those that smote him? or is hee slaine according to the slaughter of them that were slaine by him?
8 In [h] measure in the branches thereof wilt thou contende with it, when he bloweth with his rough winde in the day of the East winde.
9 By this therefore shall the iniquitie of Iaakob be purged,and this is all the [i] fruit,the taking away of his sinne: whē he shall make all the stones of the altars, as chalke stones broken in pieces, that the groues and images may not stand vp.
10 Yet the [k] defenced citie shalbe desolate,and the habitation shalbe forsaken, and left like a wildernes. There shall the calfe feede, and there shall he lie, and consume the branches thereof.
11 When the boughes of it are drie, they shall be broken: the [l] women come, and set them on fire: for it is a people of none vnderstāding: therefore he that made them, shall not haue compassion of them, and hee that formed them, shall haue no mercy on them.
12 And in that day shal the Lord thresh from the chanell of the [m] Riuer vnto the riuer of Egypt, and ye shalbe gathered, one by one, O children of Israel.
13 In that day also shall the great trumpe be [n] blowen,and they shall come, which perished in the land of Asshur: and they that were chased into the land of Egypt, and they shall worship the Lord in the holy Mount at Ierusalem.

k Notwithstanding his fauour that hee will shewe them after, yet Ierusalem shall be destroyed, and grasse for cattell shall growe in it. l God shall not haue neede of mightie enemies: for the very women shall doe it, to their great shame. m Hee shall destroy all from Euphrates to Nilus: for some fled towarde Egypt, thinking to haue escaped. n In the time of Cyrus, by whome they should be deliuered: but this was chiefely accomplished vnder Christ.

CHAP. XXVIII.

Against the pride and drunkennes of Israel. 9 The vntowardnesse of them that should learne the worde of God. 24 God doeth all things in time and place.

a Meaning, the proude kingdome of the Israelites, which were drunken with worldly prosperitie.
b Because the Israelites for ẏ most part dwelt in plentifull valleys, hee meaneth hereby the valley of them, that had abūdance of worldly prosperitie, and were, as it were crowned therewith,as with garlands.
c He seemeth to meane the Assyrians,by whome the tenne tribes were caried away.
d Which is not of long continuance, but is soone ripe, and first eaten.

WOe to the [a] crowne of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim: for his glorious beautie shall be a fading flowre, which is vpon the head of the [b] valley of them that be fat, and are ouercome with wine.
2 Beholde, the Lorde hath a mightie and [c] strong hoste, like a tempest of haile, and a whirlewinde that ouerthroweth, like a tempest of mightie waters that querflowe, which throwe to the ground mightily.
3 They shall be troden vnder foote, euen the crowne & the pride of the drunkards of Ephraim.
4 For his glorious beautie shall be a fading flowre, which is vpon the head of the valley of them that be fatte, and as [d] the hastie fruite afore summer, which when hee that looketh vpon it, seeth it, while it is in his hand, he eateth it.
5 In that day shall the Lord of hostes be for a crowne of glory, and for a diademe of beautie vnto the [e] residue of his people:
6 And for a spirite of iudgement to him that sitteth in iudgement, and for [f] strength vnto them that turne away the battell to the gate.
7 But [g] they haue erred because of wine, and are out of the way by strong drinke: the priest and the prophet haue erred by strong drinke: they are swallowed vp with wine: they haue gone astraye through strong drinke: they faile in vision: they stumble in iudgement.
8 For all their tables are full of filthie vomiting: no place is cleane.
9 [h] Whome shall he teache knowledge? and whome shall hee make to vnderstande the things that he heareth? them that are weyned from the milke, and drawen from the breastes.
10 For [i] precept must be vpon precept, precept vpon precept, line vnto line, line vnto line, there a litle, and there a litle.
11 For with a stammering [k] tongue and with a strange language shall he speake vnto this people.
12 Vnto whome [l] he sayde, [m] This is the rest:
[n] giue rest to him that is weary: and this is the refreshing, but they would not heare.
13 Therefore shall the worde of the [o] Lord be vnto them precept vpon precept, precept vpō precept, line vnto line, line vnto line, there a litle and there a litle, that they may goe, and fall backward, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.
14 Wherefore, heare the worde of the Lorde, ye scornefull men that rule this people, which is at Ierusalem.
15 Because ye haue said, We haue made a [p] couenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement: though a scourge runne ouer, and passe through, it shal not come at vs: for we haue made [q] falshood our refuge, & vnder vanitie are we hid, 16 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold,
I will lay in Zion a stone, a [r] tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation. Hee that beleeueth, [s] shall not make haste.
17 Iudgement also will I lay to the rule, and [t] righteousnesse to the balance, and the [u] haile shal sweepe away the vaine confidence, and the waters shall ouerflowe [x] the secret place.
18 And your couenant with death shalbe disanulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand: when a scourge shall runne ouer and passe through, then shall ye be trode downe by it.
19 When it passeth ouer, it shall take you away: for it shall passe through euery morning in the day, and in the night, and there shall be onely [y] feare to make you to vnderstand the hearing.
20 For the bed is [z] streight that it can not suffice, and the couering narowe that one can not wrappe himselfe.
21 For the Lord shall stand as in mount [a] Perazim: hee shall be wroth as in the valley [b] of Gibeon, that he may doe his worke, his strāge worke, and bring to passe his acte, his strange acte.
22 Nowe therefore be no mockers, least your bondes increase: for I haue heard of the Lorde of hostes a consumption, euen determined vpon the whole earth.
23 Hearken ye, and heare my voyce: hearken ye, and heare my speach.

e Signifying, that the faithfull, which put not their trust in any worldly prosperitie, but made God their glory, shalbe preserued.

f He will giue counsel to the gouernour,& strength to the captaine, to driue the enemies in at their owne gates.
g Meaning, the hypocrites, which were among them, and were altogether corrupt in life & doctrine, which is here ment by drunkennes and vomiting.
h For there was none that was able to vnderstand any good doctrine: but were foolish, and as vnmeete as yong babes.
i They must haue one thing ofttimes tolde.
k Let one teache what he can, yet they shall no more vnderstand him, then if he spake in a strāge language.
l That is, the Prophet whome God should sende.
m This is the doctrine, whereupon ye ought to stay and rest.
n Shewe to them that are weary and haue neede of rest, what is the true rest.
o Because they will not receiue the word of God whē it is offred, it commeth of their own malice, if after their hearts be so hardened, that they care not for it, as before Chap. 6. 9.
p They thought they had shiftes to auoyde Gods iudgements, and that they could escape though all other perished.
q Though ẏ Prophets condemned their idoles, and vaine trust, of falshode, and vanitie, yet the wicked thought in themselues that they would trust in these things.
r That is, Christ by whome all the building must be tried, & vpholden, Psal. 118. 22. mat. 21. 42 act. 4. 11. rom. 9. 33. 1. pet. 2. 6.
s He shalbe quiet, & seeke none other remedies, but be content with Christ. t In the restitution of his Church, iudgement, and iustice shall reigne. u Gods corrections and affliction. x Affliction shall discouer their vaine confidence, which they kept secret to themselues. y Terrour and destruction shall make you to learne that, which exhortations and gentlenesse could not bring you vnto. z Your affliction shalbe so sore, that you are not able to endure it. a When Dauid ouercame the Philistims, 2. Sam. 5. 20. 1. Chron. 14. 11. b Where Iosua discomfited fiue Kings of the Amorites, Iosua 10. 12.

24 Doeth

24 Doeth the plowe man plowe all the day, to sowe? doeth hee open, and breake the clots of his ground?
25 When he hath made it [c] plaine, will he not then sowe the fitches, and sowe cummin, and cast in wheat by measure, and the appointed barly and rye in their place?
26 For his God doeth instruct him to haue discretion, and doeth teach him.
27 For fitches shall not bee threshed with a threshing instrument, neither shall a cart wheele be turned about vpon the cummin: but the fitches are beaten out with a staffe, and cummin with a rodde.
28 Bread corne when it is threshed, hee doeth not alway thresh it, neither doeth the wheele of his cart still make a noyse, neither will he breake it with the teeth thereof.
29 This also commeth from the Lord of hostes, which is wonderfull in counsell, and excellent in workes.

c As the plowe man hath his appointed time, and diuers instruments for his labour, so hath the Lord for his vengeance: for he punisheth some at one time, and some at another, some after one sort, and some after another, so that his chosen seede is beaten, and tried, but not broken, as are the wicked.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 A prophecie against Ierusalem. 13 The vengeance of God on them that follow the traditions of men.

AH [a] altar, altar of the citie that Dauid dwelt in:
adde yeere vnto yeere: [b] let them kil lambs.
2 But I will bring the altar into distresse, and there shalbe heauines and sorowe, and it shall bee vnto me like [c] an altar.
3 And I will besiege thee as a circle, and fight against thee on a mount, and will cast vp ramparts against thee.
4 So shalt thou bee humbled, and shalt speake out of the [d] ground, and thy speach shalbe as out of the dust: thy voyce also shall bee out of the ground like him that hath a spirite of diuination, and thy talking shall whisper out of the dust.
5 Moreouer, the multitude of thy [e] strangers shalbe like small dust, and the multitude of strong men shalbe as chaffe that passeth away, and it shall be in a moment, euen suddenly.
6 Thou shalt be visited of the Lorde of hostes with thunder, and shaking, and a great noyse, a whirlewinde, and a tempest, and a flame of a de-uouring fire.
7 And the [f] multitude of all the nations that fight against the altar, shalbe as a dreame or vision by night: euen all they that make the warre against it, and strong holdes against it, and lay siege vnto it.
8 And it shalbe like as an hungry man dreameth, and beholde, [g] he eateth: and when he awaketh, his soule is emptie: or like as a thirstie man dreameth, and loe, hee is drinking, and when he awaketh, beholde, he is faint, and his soule longeth:
so shall the multitude of all nations be that fight against mount Zion.
9 [h] Stay your selues, and wonder: they are blinde, and make you blinde: they are drunken, but not with wine: they stagger, but not by strong drinke.
10 For the Lorde hath couered you with a spirit of slumber, and hath shutte vp your eyes: the Prophet, and your chiefe Seers hath he couered.
11 And the vision of them all is become vnto you, as the wordes of a booke that is sealed vp, which they deliuer to one that can reade, saying, Reade this, I pray thee. Then shall hee say, I can [i] not: for it is sealed.

a The Ebrewe word Ariel signifieth the Lyon of God, and signifieth the Altar, because the Altar seemed to deuoure the sacrifice that was offred to God, as Ezek. 43. 16.
b Your vaine confidence in your sacrifices shall not last long.
c Your citie shall be full of blood, as an altar whereon they sacrifice.
d Thy speach shall be no more so loftie, but abased, and low as the very charmers which are in low places, and whisper so that their voyce can scarse be heard.
e Thine hired souldiers, in whom thou trustest, shall be destroyed, as dust or chaffe in a whirlewinde.
f The enemies that I will bring to destroy thee, and that which thou makest thy vaine trust, shall come at vnwares, euen as a dreame in the night. Some reade, as if this were a comfort to the Church for the destruction of their enemies.
g That is, he thinketh y he eateth.
h Muse hereon as long as ye list, yet shall ye finde nothing but occasion to be astonied: for your Prophets are blinde, and therefore cannot direct you.
i Meaning, that it is all alike either to reade, or not to reade, except God open the heart to vnderstand.

12 And the booke is giuen vnto him that can not reade, saying, Reade this, I pray thee. And hee shall say, I cannot reade.
13 Therefore the Lorde said, Because this people [k] come neere vnto mee with their mouth, and honour mee with their lippes, but haue remooued their heart farre from me, and their [l] feare toward me was taught by the precept of men, 14 Therefore beholde, I wil againe doe a mar-ueilous worke in this people, euen a marueilous worke, and a wonder: for the wisedome of their wise men shall [m] perish, and the vnderstanding of their prudent men shalbe hid.
15 Woe vnto them that [n] seeke deepe to hide their counsell from the Lorde: for their workes are in darkenes, and they say, Who seeth vs? and who knoweth vs?
16 Your turning of deuises shall it not be esteemed [o] as the potters clay? for shall the worke say of him that made it, Hee made me not? or the thing formed, say of him that facioned it, Hee had none vnderstanding?
17 Is it not yet but a litle while, and Lebanon shall be [p] turned into Carmel? and Carmel shalbe counted as a forest?
18 And in that day shall the deafe heare the wordes of the booke, and the eyes of the blinde shall see out of obscuritie, and out of darkenesse.
19 The meeke in the Lorde shall receiue ioy againe, and the poore men shall reioyce in the holy
one of Israel.
20 For the cruel man shall cease, & the scornefull shall be consumed: and all that hasted to iniquitie, shalbe cut off:
21 Which made a man to sinne in the [q] word, and tooke him in a snare: which reproued them in the gate, and made the iust to fall without cause.
22 Therefore thus saith the Lorde vnto the house of Iaakob, euen hee that redeemed Abraham, Iaakob shall not now be confounded, neither now shall his face be pale.
23 But when he seeth his children, the worke of mine handes, in the mids of him, they shal sanctifie
my Name, and sanctifie the holy one of Iaakob, and shall feare the God of Israel.
24 Then they that erred in spirite, [r] shall haue vnderstanding, and they that murmured, shall learne doctrine.

k Because they are hypocrites and not sincere in heart, as Matt. 15. 8.
l That is, their religion was learned by mans doctrine, and not by my word.
m Meaning, that where as God is not worshipped according to his worde, both magistrates and ministers are but fooles, and without vnderstanding.
n This is spoken of them, which in heart despised Gods worde, and mocked at the admonitions, but outwardly bare a good face.
o For all your craft, saith the Lord, you cannot be able to escape mine handes no more then the clay, that is in the potters hands, hath power to deliuer it selfe.
p Shall there not be a change of all things? and Carmel, that is a plentifull place in respect of that it shall be then, may be taken as a forest, as Chap. 32. 15. and thus he speaketh to comfort the faithfull.
q They that went about to find fault with the Prophets wordes, and would not abide admonitions, but would intangle them and bring them into danger.
r Signifying, that except God giue vnderstanding, and knowledge, man cannot but still erre, and murmure against him.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Hee reprooueth the Iewes which in their aduersitie vsed their owne counsels, 2 and sought helpe of the Egyptians, 10 Despising the Prophetes. 16 Therefore hee sheweth what destruction shall come vpon them, 18 But offereth mercie to the repentant.

WOe to the [a] rebellious children, sayeth the Lorde, that take counsell, but not of mee, and [b] couer with a couering, but not by my spirite, that they may lay sinne vpon sinne:
2 Which walke foorth to goe downe into Egypt (and haue not asked at my mouth) to strengthen themselues with the strength of Pharaoh, and trust in the shadow of Egypt.
3 But the strength of Pharaoh shall bee your shame, and the trust in the shadowe of Egypt your confusion.
4 For his [c] princes were at Zoan, and his Ambassadours came vnto Hanes.
5 They shalbe all ashamed of the people that cannot profit them, nor helpe nor do them good, but shalbe a shame and also a reproche.

a Who contrary to their promes, take not me for their protectour, and contrary to my commandement, seeke helpe at strangers.
b They seeke shiftes to cloke their doings and not godly meanes.
c The chiefe of Israel went into Egypt in Ambassie to seeke helpe, and abode at these cities.

6 ¶ The [d] burden of the beastes of the South, in a land of trouble and anguish, from whence shall come the young and olde lyon, the viper and fierie flying serpent against them that shall beare their riches vpon the shoulders of the coltes, and their treasures vpon the bounches of the camels, to a people that cannot profite.
7 For the Egyptians are vanitie, and they shall helpe in vaine. Therefore haue I cried vnto [e] her,
Their strength [f] is to sit still.
8 Now goe, and write [g] it before them in a table, and note it in a booke that it may bee for the [h] last day for euer and euer:
9 That it is a rebellious people, lying children, and children that would not [i] heare the lawe of the Lord.
10 Which say vnto the Seers, See not: and to the Prophets, Prophecie not vnto vs right things:
but speake flattering thinges vnto vs: prophecie [k] errours.
11 Depart out of the way: goe aside out of the path: cause the holy one of Israel to cease from vs.
12 Therefore thus saith the holy one of Israel, Because you haue cast off this worde, and trust in [l] violence, and wickednes, and stay thereupon, 13 Therefore this iniquitie shalbe vnto you as a breache that falleth, or a swelling in an hie wall, whose breaking commeth suddenly in a moment.
14 And the breaking thereof is like the breaking of a potters pot, which is broken without pi-tie, and in the breaking thereof is not founde [m] a sheard to take fire out of the hearth, or to take water out of the pit.
15 For thus saide the [n] Lorde God, the Holy one of Israel, In rest and quietnesse shall ye be saued: in quietnes and in confidence shall bee your strength, but ye would not.
16 For ye haue saide, No, but wee will flee away vpon [o] horses. Therefore shall ye flee. We will ride vpon the swiftest. Therefore shall your persecuters be swifter.
17 A thousand as one shall flee at the rebuke of one: at the rebuke of fiue shal ye flee, till ye be left as a ship maste vpon the [p] toppe of a mountaine, and as a beaken vpon an hill.
18 Yet therefore will the Lord waite, that hee may haue [q] mercie vpon you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may haue compassion vpon you: for the Lord is the God of [r] iudgement. Blessed are all they that waite for him.
19 Surely a people shall dwell in Zion, and in Ierusalem: thou shalt weepe no more: hee wil cer-tainely haue mercy vpon thee at the voyce of thy cry: when he heareth thee, he wil answere thee.
20 And when the Lorde hath giuen you the bread of aduersitie, and the water of affliction, thy raine shall be no more kept backe, but thine eyes shall see thy || raine.
21 And thine eares shall heare a word behinde thee, saying, This is the way, [s] walke ye in it, when thou turnest to the right hand, and when thou tur-nest to the left.
22 And yee shall [t] pollute the couering of the images of siluer, and the riche ornament of thine images of golde, and cast them away as a men-struous cloth, and thou shalt say vnto it, [u] Get thee hence.

d That is, a heauie sentence or prophecie against the beasts that caried their treasures into Egypt, by the wildernes, which was South from Iudah: signifying that if the beastes should not be spared, that men should be punished much more grieuously.
e To wit, to Ierusalem.
f And not to come to and fro to seeke helpe.
g That is, this prophecie.
h That it may bee a witnes against them for all posteritie.
i Hee sheweth what was the cause of their destruction, & bringeth also all miserie to man: to wit, because they would not heare the word of God, but delited to be flattered, and led in errour.
k Threaten vs not by the worde of God, nor be so rigorous, nor talke vnto vs in the Name of the Lord, as Iere. 11.21.
l Meaning, in their stubburnes against God and the admonitions of his Prophets.
m Signifying, that the destruction of the wicked shalbe without recouerie.
n Oft times by his Prophets he put you in remembrance of this, that you should onely depend on him.
o We wil trust to escape by our horses.
p Whereas al the trees are cut down saue two or three to make mastes.
q He commendeth the great mercies of God, who with patience waiteth to call sinners to repentance.
r Not only in punishing, but in vsing moderation in the same, as Iere. 10.24. and 30.11.
|| Or, instructour.
s God shal direct all thy wayes, and appoint thee howe to goe either hither or thither.
t Ye shal cast away your idoles, which you haue made of golde, and siluer, with all that belongeth vnto them, as a most filthy thing, and polluted.
u Shewing that there can be no true repentance except both in heart and deede we showe our selues enemies to idolatrie.

23 Then shall hee giue raine vnto thy seede, when thou shalt sow the ground, and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shalbe fat and as oyle:
in that day shall thy cattel be fed in large pastures.
24 The oxen also and the young asses, that till the ground, shall eate cleane prouender, which is winowed with the shoouel and with the fanne.
24 And vpon euery hie [x] mountaine, and vpon euery hie hill shall there be riuers and streames of waters, in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers shall fall.
25 Moreouer, the light of the moone shall bee as the light of the [y] sunne, and the light of the sunne shalbe seuen folde, and like the light of seuen dayes in the day that the Lorde shall binde vp the breach of his people, and heale the stroke of their wound.
27 Beholde, [z] the Name of the Lord commeth from farre, his face is burning, and the burden thereof is heauie: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue is as a deuouring fire.
28 And his spirite is as a riuer that ouerfloweth vp to the necke: it deuideth asunder, to fanne the nations with the fanne of [a] vanitie, and there shall be a bridle to cause them to erre in the chawes of the people.
29 But there shal be a song vnto you as in the [b] night, when a solemne feast is kept: and glad-nesse of heart, as hee that commeth with a pipe to goe vnto the mount of the Lorde, to the mightie
one of Israel.
30 And the Lord shall cause his glorious voyce to be heard, and shal declare the lighting downe of his arme with the anger of his countenance, and flame of a deuouring fire, with scattering and tempest, and hailestones.
31 For with the voyce of the Lord shall Asshur be destroyed, which smote with the [c] rod.
32 And in euery place that the staffe shal passe, it shall [d] cleaue fast, which the Lord shall lay vpon him with [e] tabrets and harpes: and with battels, and lifting vp of hands shall he fight [f] against it.
33 For [g] Tophet is prepared of olde: it is euen prepared for the [h] King: hee hath made it [i] deepe and large: the burning thereof is fire and much wood: the breath of the Lord, like a riuer of brimstone, doeth kindle it.

x By these diuers maners of speach he sheweth that the felicitie of the Church shalbe so great, that none is able sufficiently to expresse it.
y When the Church shalbe restored, the glory thereof shal passe seuen times the brightnes of the sunne: for by the sunne and moone, which are two excellent creatures, he sheweth what shalbe the glory of the children of God in the kingdome of Christ.
z This threatning is against the Assyrians, the chiefe enemies of the people of God.
a To driue thee to nothing: and thus God consumeth the wicked by that meanes, whereby he clenseth his.
b Ye shal reioyce at the destruction of your enemies, as they that sing for ioy of the solempe feast, which began in the euening.
c Gods plague.
d It shal destroy.
e With ioy and assurance of the victorie.
f Against Babel: meaning the Assyrians and Babylonians.
g Here it is taken for hel, where the wicked are tormented, reade 2. King. 23.10.
h So that their state or degree cannot exempt the wicked.
i By these figuratiue speaches he declareth the condition of the wicked after this life.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Hee curseth them that forsake God, and seeke for the helpe of men.

WOe vnto them that [a] goe downe into Egypt for helpe, and staye vpon horses, and trust in charets, because they are many, and in horsmen, because they be very strong: but they looke not vnto the holy one of Israel, nor [b] seeke vnto
the Lord.
2 But he yet is [c] wisest: therefore he wil bring euil, and not turne backe his word, but he wil arise against the house of the wicked, and against the helpe of them that worke vanitie.
3 Nowe the Egyptians are men, and not God, and their horses flesh and not spirite: and when the Lorde shall stretch out his hande, the [d] helper

a There were two speciall causes, why the Israelites should not ioyne amitie with the Egyptians: first, because the Lorde had commanded them neuer to returne thither, Deut. 17.16. and 28.68. least they should forget the benefite of their redemption: and secondly, least they should be corrupted with the superstition and idolatrie of the Egyptians, and so forsake God, Iere. 2.18.
b Meaning that they forsake the Lorde, that put their trust in worldly things: for they cannot trust in both.
c And knoweth their craftie enterprises, and wil bring all to nought.
d Meaning, both the Egyptians and the Israelites.

shall fall, and hee that is holpen shall fall, and they shall altogether faile.

4 For thus hath the Lord spoken vnto me, As the lyon or lyons whelpe roareth vpon his praye, against whom if a multitude of shepheards be called, he will not be afraide at their voyce, neither wil humble him selfe at their noyse: so shall the Lord of hostes come e downe to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 As birds that flie, so shal the Lord of hostes defend Ierusalem by defending and deliuering, by passing through and preseruing it.

6 O ye children of Israel, turne againe, in as much as ye are f sunken deepe in rebellion.

7 For in that day euery man shall g cast out his idoles of siluer, and his idoles of golde, which your handes haue made you, euen a sinne.

8 h Then shall Asshur fall by the sworde, not of man, neither shall the sworde of man deuoure him, and hee shall flee from the sworde, and his yong men shall faint.

9 And he shal goe for feare to his i towre, and his princes shall be afraide of the standart, sayeth the Lord, whose k fire is in Zion, and his fornace in Ierusalem.

e He sheweth the louers that if they would put their trust in him, he is so able, that none can resist his power: and so carefull ouer them, as a birde ouer her yong, which euer flyeth about the for their defence: which similitude the Scripture vseth in diuers places, as Deut.32, 11. matt.23.37.
f Hee toucheth their conscience that they might earnestly feele their grieuous sinnes, and so truely repent, for as much as now they are almost drowned and past recouerie.
g By these fruites your repentance shalbe knowen, as Chap.2.18.
h When your repentance appeareth.
i This was accomplished soone after when Saneherib's armie was discomfited, and he fled to his castell in Nineueh for succour. k To destroy his enemies.

CHAP. XXXII.

The conditions of good rulers and officers described by the gouernement of Hezekiah, who was the figure of Christ.

BEholde, a a King shall reigne in iustice, and the princes shall rule b in iudgement.

2 And that man shall bee as an hiding place from the winde, and as a refuge for the tempest: as riuers of water in a drie place, and as the shadow of a great rocke in c a weary land.

3 The eyes of the d seeing shal not be shut, and the eares of them that heare, shall hearken.

4 And the heart of the foolish shall vnderstand knowledge, and the tongue of the stutters shalbe ready to speake distinctly.

5 A e nigard shall no more be called liberall, nor the churle riche.

6 But the nigarde will speake of nigardnesse, and his heart wil worke iniquitie, and doe wickedly, and speake falsely against the Lorde, to make emptie the hungrie soule, and to cause the drinke of the thirstie to faile.

7 For the weapons of the churle are wicked: hee deuiseth wicked counsels, to vndoe the poore with lying wordes: and to speake against the poore in iudgement.

8 But the liberall man will deuise of liberall things, and he wil continue his liberalitie.

9 ¶ Rise vp, ye women that are at ease: heare my voyce, ye f carelesse daughters: hearken to my wordes.

10 Yee women, that are carelesse, shall be in feare g aboue a yeere in dayes: h for the vintage shall faile, and the gatherings shal come no more.

11 Yee women, that are at ease, be astonied: feare, O yee carelesse women: put off the clothes: make bare, and girde sackcloth vpon the loynes.

12 Men shall lament for the i teates, euen for the pleasant fieldes, and for the fruitfull vine.

13 Vpon the lande of my people shall growe thornes and briers: yea, vpon all the houses of ioye in the citie of reioycing.

14 Because the palace shalbe forsaken, and the noise of the citie shalbe left: the towre and fortresse shalbe dennes for euer, and the delite of wilde asses, and a pasture for flockes, 15 Vntill the k Spirit be powred vpon vs from aboue, and the wildernes become a fruitfull fielde, and the l plenteous fielde be counted as a forest.

16 And iudgement shal dwel in the desert, and iustice shal remaine in the fruitfull fielde.

17 And the worke of iustice shalbe peace, euen the worke of iustice and quietnesse, and assurance for euer.

18 And my people shal dwell in the tabernacle of peace, and in sure dwellings, and in safe resting places.

19 When it haileth, it shall fall on the forest, and the m citie shalbe set in the lowe place.

20 Blessed are yee n that sowe vpon all waters, and o driue thither the feete of the oxe & the asse.

a This prophecie is of Hezekiah, who was a figure of Christ, & therefore it ought chiefly to be referred to him.
b By iudgement and iustice is ment an vpright gouernment, both in policie and religion.
c Where men are weary with trauelling for lacke of water.
d He promiseth to giue the true light, which is the pure doctrine of Gods word, and vnderstanding, and zeale of the same, are contrary to the threatnings against the wicked, Chap.6.9. and 29.10.
e Vice shall no more be called vertue, nor vertue esteemed by power and riches.
f He prophecieth of such calamitie to come, that they will not spare the women & childrē, and therefore willeth them to take heede and prouide.
g Meaning, that the affliction should continue long, and when one yeere were past, yet they should looke for new plagues. h God will take from you the meanes and occasions, which made you to contemne him: to wit, abundance of worldly goods. i By the teates is meant the plentifull fieldes, whereby men are nourished, as children with the teate: or, the mothers for sorowe, and heauinesse shall lacke milke.

Or, multitude.
k That is, when the Church shalbe restored: thus the Prophets after they haue denounced Gods iudgements against the wicked, vse to comfort the godly, least they should faint.
l The field which is nowe fruitfull, shalbe but as a barren forest in comparison of that it shalbe then, as Chap.29.17. which shalbe fulfilled in Christes time, for then they that were before as the barren wildernes, being regenerate, shalbe fruitfull, and they that had some beginning of godlines, shal bring forth fruits in such abundance, that their former life shal seeme but as a wildernes, where no fruits were. m They shall not neede to build it in hie places for feare of the enemie: for God will defend it, and turne away the stormes from hurting of their commodities. n That is, vpon fat ground and wel watered, which bringeth forth in abundance: or in places which before were couered with waters, & now made dry for your vses. o The fieldes shalbe so ranke, that they shall send out their cattel to eate vp the first crop, which abundance shalbe signes of Gods fauour and loue towards them.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 The destruction of them by whom God hath punished his Church.

WOe to thee that a spoylest, and wast not spoyled: and doest wickedly, and they did not wickedly against thee: when thou shalt b cease to spoyle, thou shalt be spoyled: when thou shalt make an ende of doing wickedly, c they shal doe wickedly against thee.

2 d O Lorde, haue mercie vpon vs, wee haue waited for thee: be thou, which wast e their arme in the morning, our helpe also in time of trouble.

3 At the noise of the tumult, the f people fled: at thine g exalting the nations were scattered.

4 And your spoyle shalbe gathered like the gathering of h caterpillers: and i he shal go against him like the leaping of grashoppers.

5 The Lorde is exalted: for hee dwelleth on hie: he hath filled Zion with iudgement & iustice.

6 And there shall be stabilitie of k thy times, strength, saluation, wisdome and knowledge: for the feare of the Lord shalbe his treasure.

7 Behold, l their messengers shal cry without, and the m ambassadours of peace shal weepe bitterly.

8 The n pathes are waste: the way fayring man ceaseth: hee hath broken the couenant: hee hath contemned the cities: he regarded no man.

9 The earth mourneth & fainteth: Lebanon is ashamed, and hewen downe: o Sharon is like a wildernes, and Bashan is shaken and Carmel.

10 Now wil I p arise, sayth the Lord: now will I be exalted, now wil I lift vp my selfe.

11 q Ye shall conceiue chaffe, and bring forth stubble: the fire of your breath shall deuoure you.

12 And the people shall be as the burning of a Meaning the enemies of the Church, as were the Caldeans, and Assyrians, but chiefly of Saneherib, but not onely.

b When thine appointed time shall come that God shall take away thy power, and that which thou hast wrongfully gotten, shalbe giuen to others, as Amos 5.11.
c The Caldeans shal do like to the Assyrians, as the Assyrians did to Israel: & the Medes, and Persians shall doe the same to the Caldeans.
d He declareth hereby what is the chiefe refuge of the faithfull when troubles come, to pray and seeke helpe of God.
e Which helpedst our fathers so soone as they called vpon thee.
f That is, the Assyrians shal be slaine by the Angel, or the Caldeans by the Medes and Persians.

g When thou, O Lorde, diddest lift vp thine arme to punish thine enemies. h Yee that as caterpillers destroyed with your number the whole worlde, shall haue no strength to resist your enemies the Caldeans, but shalbe gathered on an heape and destroyed. i Meaning the Medes and Persians against the Caldeans. k That is, in the dayes of Hezekiah. l Sent from Saneherib. m Whom they of Ierusalem sent to intreate of peace. n These are the wordes of the Ambassadours, when they returne from Saneherib. o Which was a plentifull countrey, he meaneth that Saneherib would destroy all. p To helpe and deliuer my Church. q This is spoken against the enemies, who thought all was their owne, but he sheweth that their enterprise shalbe in vaine, and that the fire, which they had kindled for others, should consume them.

lime: and as the thornes cut vp, shal they be burnt
in the fire.
13 Heare, yee that are r farre off, what I haue done, and ye that are neere, know my power.
14 The s sinners in Zion are afraide: a feare is come vpon the hypocrites: who among vs shall dwell with the deuouring fire? who among vs shal dwell with the euerlasting burnings?
15 Hee that walketh in iustice, and speaketh righteous things, refusing gaine of oppression, shaking his handes from taking of gifts, stopping his eares from hearing of blood, and shutting his eyes from seeing euill, 16 He shal dwell on t hie: his defence shall be the munitions of rockes: bread shall be giuen him, and his waters shalbe sure.
17 Thine eyes shall u see the King in his glory:
they shall beholde the land x farre off.
18 Thine heart y shall meditate feare, Where is the scribe? where is the receiuer? where is hee that counted the towres?
19 Thou shalt not see a fierce people, a people of a darke speache, that thou canst not perceiue, and of a stammering tongue that thou canst not vnderstande.
20 Looke vpon Zion the citie of our solemne feastes: thine eyes shall see Ierusalem a quiet habitation, a Tabernacle that cannot be remooued:
and the stakes thereof can neuer bee taken away, neither shall any of the cordes thereof be broken.
21 For surely there the mightie Lorde will be vnto vs, as a place z of floods and broade riuers, whereby shall passe no shippe with oares, neither shall great shippe passe thereby.
22 For the Lord is our Iudge, the Lorde is our lawe giuer: the Lord is our King, he wil saue vs.
23 Thy a cordes are loosed: they could not wel strengthen their maste, neither coulde they spread the sayle: then shall the b praye be deuided for a great spoyle: yea, the lame shal take away the pray.
24 And none inhabitant shall say, I am sicke:
the people that dwell therein, shal haue their iniquitie forgiuen.

q His vengeance shalbe so great that all the world shall talke thereof.
r Which doe not beleeue the words of the Prophet and the assurance of their deliuerance.
t Meaning, that God wil be a sure defence to al them that liue according to his worde.
u They shall see Hezekiah deliuered from his enemies & restored to honour and glory.
x They shalbe no more shut in as they were of Saneherib, but go where it pleaseth them.
y Before that this libertie commeth, thou shalt thinke that thou art in great danger: for the enemie shal so sharply assaile you, that one shall cry, Where is ẏ clarke that writeth the names of them that are taxed? another, Where is the receiuer? another shall cry for him that valueth the riche houses, but God will deliuer you from this feare.
z Let vs be content with this smal riuer of Shiloah, and not desire the great streames and riuers, wherby the enemies may bring in shippes and destroye vs.
a He derideth the Assyrians and enemies of the Church, declaring their destruction as they that perish by shipwracke. b He comforteth the Church, and sheweth that they shalbe enriched with all benefites both of body and soule.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

1 He sheweth that God punisheth the wicked for the loue that he beareth toward his Church.

COme neere, ye a nations and heare, and hearken, ye people: let the earth heare and all that is therein, the world & all that proceedeth thereof.
2 For the indignation of the Lord is vpon all nations, and his wrath vpon all their armies: hee hath b destroyed them and deliuered them to the slaughter.
3 And their slaine shalbe cast out, and their stincke shall come vp out of their bodies, and the mountaines shalbe melted with their blood.
4 And all the hoste of heauen c shalbe dissol-ued, and the heauens shalbe folden like a booke:
and all their hostes shall fall as the leafe falleth from the vine, and as it falleth from the figtree.
5 For my sworde shalbe d drunken in the heauen: beholde, it shall come downe vpon Edom, euen vpon the people of e my curse to iudgement.
6 The sworde of the Lord is filled with blood:
it is made fat with the fat & with the blood of the f lambes & the goates, with the fat of the kidneis of the rams: for the Lord hath a sacrifice in g Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
7 And the h vnicorne shall come downe with them and the heiffers with the bulles, and their land shall be drunken with blood, and their dust made fat with fatnesse.
8 For it is the day of the Lordes vengeance, and the yeere of recompence for the iudgement of Zion.
9 And the riuers thereof shall be turned into pitche, and the dust thereof into i brimstone, and the land thereof shalbe burning pitch.
10 It shal not be quenched night nor day: the smoke thereof shall goe vp euermore: it shall be desolate from generation to generation: none shall passe through it for euer.
11 But the pelicane k and the hedgehog shall possesse it, and the great owle, and the rauen shall dwell in it, and he shal stretch out vpon it the line of l vanitie, and the stones of emptinesse.
12 m The nobles thereof shal call to the kingdome, and there shalbe none, and all the princes thereof shalbe as nothing.
13 And it shall bring foorth thornes in the palaces thereof, nettles and thistles in the strong holdes thereof, and it shalbe an habitation for dragons, and a court for ostriches.
14 There shal n meete also Ziim and Iim, and the Satyre shall cry to his fellow, and the stricheowle shall rest there, and shal finde for her selfe a quiet dwelling.
15 There o shall the owle make her nest, and laye, and hatche, and gather them vnder her shadowe: there shal the vultures also bee gathered, euery one with her make.
16 Seeke in the p booke of the Lord, and reade:
none of q these shall faile, none shall want her make: for r his mouth hath commaunded, and his very Spirit hath gathered them.
17 And he hath cast the s lot for them, and his hand hath deuided vnto them by line: they shall possesse it for euer: from generation to generation shall they dwell in it.

a He prophecieth of the destruction of the Edomites, and other nations which were enemies to the Church.
b God hath determined in his counsel, and hath giuen sentence for their destruction.
c He speaketh this in respect of mans iudgement, who in great feare & horrible troubles thinketh that heauen and earth perisheth.
d I haue determined in my secret counsell and in the heauens to destroy them till my sworde be wearie with shedding blood. e They had an opinion of holinesse because they came of the Patriarke Izhak, but in effect were accursed of God, and enemies vnto his Church as the Papists are.
f That is, both of yong and old, poore and riche of his enemies.
g That famous citie shalbe consumed as a sacrifice burnt to ashes.
h The mighty and rich shalbe aswell destroyed as the inferiours.
i He alludeth to the destruction of Sodom & Gomorah, Gen. 19.24.
k Reade Chap. 13. 21. and Zepha. 2.14.
l In vaine shall any man go about to build it againe.
m Meaning, there shalbe neither order nor policie, nor state of common weale.
n Reade Chap. 13.21.
o Signifying, that Idumea should be an horrible desolation and barren wildernes.
p That is, in the Lawe where such curses are threatned against the wicked.
q To wit, beastes and foules.
r That is, the mouth of ẏ Lord. s He hath giuen the beastes and foules Idumea for an inheritance.

CHAP. XXXV.

1 The great ioye of them that beleeue in Christ. 3 Their office which preach the Gospel. 8 The fruites that follow thereof.

THe a desert and the wildernes shall reioyce:
and the waste ground shalbe glad and florish as the rose.
2 It shal florish abundantly and shal greatly reioyce also and ioye: the glory of Lebanon shall be giuen vnto it: the beautie of b Carmel, and of Sharon, they shal c see the glory of the Lorde, and the excellencie of our God.
3 d Strengthen the weake handes, and comfort the feeble knees.
4 Say vnto them that are fearefull, Be you strong, feare not: beholde, your God commeth with e vengeance: euen God with a recompense, he wil come and saue you.
5 Then shal the eyes of the f blinde be lightened, and the eares of the deafe be opened.
6 Then shal ẏ lame man leape as an hart, and the dumme mans tongue shal sing: for in the g wil-dernes shal waters breake out, & riuers in ẏ desert.

a He prophecieth of the ful restauration of the Church both of the Iewes and Gentiles vnder Christ, which shalbe fully accomplished at the last day: albeit as yet it is compared to a desert and wildernesse.
b The Church which was before compared to a barren wildernes, shal by Christ be made most plenteous and beautifull.
c He sheweth that the presence of God is the cause that the Church doeth bring foorth fruite and florish. d He willeth all to encourage one another, and specially the ministers to exhort and strengthen the weake, that they may patiently abide the comming of God, which is at hand. e To destroy your enemies. f When the knowledge of Christ is reueiled. g They that were barren and destitute of the graces of God, shall haue them giuen by Christ.

7 And the dry ground shall be as a poole, and the thirstie as springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where they lay, shall be a place for reedes and rushes.
8 And there shall be a path and a way, and the way shalbe called [h] holy: the polluted shall not passe by it: for [i] he shalbe with them, and walke
in the way, and the fooles shall not erre.
9 There shall be [k] no lyon, nor noysome beastes shall ascend by it, neither shall they be found there, that the redeemed may walke.
10 Therefore the [l] redeemed of the Lord shall returne and come to Zion with prayse: and euerlasting ioye shall bee vpon ther heads: they shall obteine ioye and gladnesse, and sorow and mourning shall flee away.

h It shalbe for the Saints of God and not for the wicked.
i God shall leade and guide them, alluding to the bringing forth of Egypt.
k As he threatned to the wicked to be destroyed hereby, Chap. 30.6.
l Whom the Lord shall deliuer from the captiuitie of Babylon.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 Sanecherib sendeth Rabshakeh to besiege Jerusalem. 15 His blasphemies against God.

NOwe [a] in the [b] fourteenth yeere of King Hezekiah, Sanecherib King of Asshur came vp against al the strong cities of Iudah, & tooke them.
2 And the King of Asshur sent Rabshakeh from Lachish toward Ierusalem vnto King Hezekiah, with a great hoste, & he stood by y^e conduite of the vpper poole in the path of the fullers fielde.
3 Then came foorth vnto him Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah the [c] steward of the house, and Shebna [d] the chanceller, and Ioah the sonne of Asaph the recorder.
4 And [e] Rabshakeh sayde vnto them, Tell you Hezekiah, I pray you, Thus sayth the great King, the King of Asshur, What confidence is this, wherein thou trustest?
5 I say, [f] Surely I haue eloquence, but counsell and strength are for the warre: on whom then doest thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?
6 Loe, thou trustest in this broken staffe of reede on Egypt, whereupon if a man leane, it will goe into his hand, and pearce it: so is [g] Pharaoh King of Egypt, vnto all that trust in him.
7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the Lorde our God: Is not that he, whose hie places & whose altars Hezekiah tooke downe, & said to Iudah & to Ierusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?
8 Nowe therefore giue hostages to my Lorde the King of Asshur, and I will giue thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders vpon them.
9 For howe canst thou ‖ despise any captaine of the [h] least of my lordes seruants? and put thy trust on Egypt for charets and for horsemen?
10 And am I now come vp without the Lord to this land to destroy it? The Lord sayd vnto me, [i] Goe vp against this land and destroy it.
11 ¶ Then said Eliakim, and Shebna and Ioah vnto Rabshakeh, [k] Speake, I pray thee, to thy ser-uants in the Aramites language, (for we vnder-stand it) & talke not with vs in the Iewes tongue, in the audience of the people that are on the wall.
12 Then said Rabshakeh, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee to speake these wordes, and not to the men that sit on the wall?
that they may eate their owne doung, and drinke their owne † pisse with you?
13 So Rabshakeh stood, & cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes language, and sayd, Heare the wordes of the great King, of the King of Asshur, 14 Thus saith the King, Let not Hezekiah de-ceiue you: for he shal not be able to deliuer you.
15 Neither let Hezekiah make you to trust in the Lord, saying, The Lorde will surely deliuer vs:
this citie shall not be giuen ouer into the hand of the King of Asshur.
16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus sayth the King of Asshur, Make [l] appointment with me, and come out to me, that euery man may eate of his owne vine, & euery man of his owne fig tree, and drinke euery man the water of his owne well, 17 Till I come and bring you to a land like your owne land, euen a land of wheate, and wine, a land of bread and vineyardes, 18 Least Hezekiah deceiue you, saying, The Lord will deliuer vs. Hath any of the gods of the nations deliuered his land out of the hand of the King of Asshur?
19 Where is the god of [m] Hamath, and of Arpad? where is the god of Sepharuaim? or howe haue they deliuered Samaria out of mine hand?
20 Who is hee among all the gods of these lands, that hath deliuered their countrey out of mine hand, that the Lorde should deliuer Ierusalem out of mine hand?
21 Then they [n] kept silence, and answered him not a worde: for the Kings commandement was, saying, Answere him not.
22 Then came Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah the steward of the house, and Shebna the chanceller, and Ioah the sonne of Asaph the recorder, vnto Hezekiah with rent clothes, and tolde him the wordes of Rabshakeh.

a This historie is rehearsed, because it is as a seale and confirmation of the doctrine afore, both for the threatnings and promises: to wit, that God would suffer his Church to be afflicted, but at length would send deliuerance.
b When he had abolished superstition, and idolatrie, and restored religion, yet God would exercise his Church to trie their faith and patience.
c For he was now restored to his office, as Isaiah had prophecied, Chap. 22.20.
d This declareth that there were fewe godly to be found in the Kings house, when hee was driuen to send this wicked man in such a weightie matter.
e Saneherib's chiefe captaine.
f Hee speaketh this in the person of Hezekiah falsly charging him, that he put his trust in his wit and eloquence, whereas his onely confidence was in the Lorde.
g Satan laboured to pull the godly King from one vaine confidence to another: to wit, from trust in the Egyptians, whose power was weake and would deceiue them, to yeelde himselfe to the Assyrians, and so not to hope for any helpe of God.
‖ Or, turne backe.
h He reprocheth to Hezekiah his small power, which is not able to resist one of Saneheribs least captaines.
i Thus the wicked to deceiue vs, will pretend the Name of the Lorde: but we must trie the spirits, whether they be of God or no.
k They were afraide, least by his wordes hee should haue stirred the people against the King, and also pretended to growe to some appointment with him.
† Ebr. the water of their feete.
l The Ebrewe worde signifieth blessing: whereby this wicked captaine would haue perswaded the people, that their condition should be better vnder Saneherib then vnder Hezekiah.
m That is, of Antiochia in Syria, of the which these two other cities also were: whereby we see howe euery towne had his peculiar idoles, and how the wicked make God an idole, because they do not vnderstand that God maketh them his scourge, and punisheth cities for sinne.
n Not that they did not shewe by euident signes that they did detest his blasphemie: for they had now rent their clothes, but they knew it was in vaine to vse long reasoning with this infidel, whose rage they should haue so much more prouoked.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 Hezekiah asketh counsell of Isaiah, who promiseth him the victorie. 10 The blasphemie of Saneherib. 16 Hezekiahs prayer. 36 The armie of Saneherib is slaine of the Angel. 38 And he himselfe of his owne sonnes.

ANd * when the King Hezekiah heard it, he [a] rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth and came into the House of the Lord.
2 And he sent Eliakim the stewarde of the house, and Shebna the chanceller, with the Elders of the Priestes, clothed in sackcloth vnto [b] Isaiah the Prophet, the sonne of Amoz.
3 And he sayd vnto him, Thus sayth Hezekiah, This day is a day of tribulation and of rebuke and blasphemie: for the children are come to the [c] birth, and there is no strength to bring foorth.
4 If so be the Lorde thy God hath [d] heard the wordes of Rabshakeh, whome the King of Asshur his master hath sent to raile on the liuing God, and to reproch him with wordes which the Lord thy God hath heard, then [e] lift thou vp thy prayer for the remnant that are left.
5 So the seruants of the King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
6 And Isaiah saide vnto them, Thus say vnto your master, Thus sayth the Lorde, Be not afraid of the wordes that thou hast heard, wherewith the seruants of the king of Asshur haue blas-phemed me.

* 2. Kings. 19.1.
a In signe of griefe and repentance.
b To haue comfort of him by the word of God, that his faith might be confirmed and so his prayer be more earnest: teaching hereby that in all dangers these two are the onely remedies, to seeke vnto God and his ministers.
c We are in as great sorowe as a woman that trauaileth of childe, and can not be deliuered.
d That is, will declare by effect that hee hath heard it: for when God deferreth to punish, it seemeth to the flesh, that hee knoweth not the same, or heareth not the cause.
e Declaring that the ministers office doeth not onely stande in comforting by the worde, but also in praying for the people.

7 Beholde, I will send a blast vpon him, and he shall heare a [f] noyse, and returne to his owne land, and I will cause him to fall by the sworde in his owne land.
8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the King of Asshur fighting against [g] Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.
9 He heard also men say of Tirhakah, King of Ethiopia, Beholde, he is come out to fight against thee: and when he heard it, he sent other messengers to Hezekiah, saying, 10 Thus shall ye speake to Hezekiah King of Iudah, saying, Let not thy God [h] deceiue thee, in whom thou trustest, saying, Ierusalem shal not be giuen into the hand of the King of Asshur.
11 Beholde, thou hast heard what the Kings of Asshur haue done to all lands in destroying them, and shalt thou be deliuered?
12 Haue the gods of the nations deliuered them, which my fathers haue destroyed? as [i] Gozan, and [k] Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden, which were at Telassar?
13 Where is the King of Hamath, and the King of Arpad, and the King of the citie of Se-pharuaim, Hena, and Iuah?
14 ¶ So Hezekiah receiued the letter of the hand of the messengers and reade it, and he went vp into the House of the Lorde, and Hezekiah spread it before the Lorde.
15 And Hezekiah prayed vnto the Lorde,
saying,
16 O Lorde of hostes, God of Israel, which [l] dwellest betweene the Cherubims, thou art very God alone ouer all the kingdomes of the earth:
thou hast made the heauen and the earth.
17 Encline thine eare, O Lord, and heare: open thine eyes, O Lorde, and see, and heare all the wordes of Saneherib, who hath sent to blaspheme the liuing God.
18 Trueth it is, O Lord, that the Kings of Asshur haue destroyed all lands, & [m] their countrey, 19 And haue cast their gods in ye fire: for they were no gods, but the worke of mans hands, euen
wood or stone: therefore they destroyed them.
20 Nowe therefore, O Lorde our God, saue thou vs out of his hand, that [n] all the kingdomes of the earth may knowe, that thou onely art
the Lorde.
21 ¶ Then Isaiah the sonne of Amoz sent vnto Hezekiah, saying, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Because thou hast prayed vnto me, concerning Saneherib king of Asshur, 22 This is the worde that the Lorde hath spoken against him, the [o] virgine, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, & laughed thee to scorne:
the daughter of Ierusalem hath shaken her head at thee.
23 Whome hast thou railed on and blasphe-med? and against whome hast thou exalted thy voyce, & lifted vp thine eyes on hie? euen against the [p] holy one of Israel.
24 By thy seruants hast thou railed on the Lord, and sayd, By the multitude of my charets I am come vp to the top of the mountaines to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut downe the hie cedars thereof, and the faire firre trees thereof, and I will goe vp to the heightes of his top and to the forest of his fruitfull places.
25 I haue digged [q] and drunke the waters, and with the plant of my feete haue I dryed all the riuers closed in.
26 Hast thou not heard howe I haue of olde time made it, [r] and haue formed it long ago? and should I now bring it, that it should be destroyed, and layde on ruinous heapes, as cities defensed?
27 Whose inhabitants † haue small power, and are afraid & confounded? they are like the grasse of the field & greene herbe, or grasse on the house tops, or corne blasted [s] afore it be growen.
28 But I know thy dwelling, and thy [t] going out, and thy comming in, and thy fury against me.
29 Because thou ragest against me, and thy tumult is come vnto mine eares, therefore will I put mine [u] hooke in thy nostrels, and my bridle in thy lips, and will bring thee backe againe the same way thou [x] camest.
30 And this shalbe a [y] signe vnto thee, O Hezekiah, Thou shalt eate this yeere such as groweth of it selfe: and the [z] second yeere, such thinges as growe without sowing: and in the third yeere, sowe ye and reape, and plant vineyards, and eate
the fruite thereof.
31 And [a] the remnant that is escaped of the house of Iudah, shall againe take roote downward and beare fruite vpward.
32 For out of Ierusalem shall goe a remnant,
and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeale of the Lord of hostes shall doe this.
33 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde, concerning the King of Asshur, He shall not enter into this citie, nor shoote an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a mount against it.
34 By the same way that he came, he shall returne, and not come into this citie, saith the Lord.
35 For I will defend this citie to saue it, for mine owne sake, and for my seruant [b] Dauids sake.
36 ¶ *Then the Angel of the Lorde went out, and smote in the campe of Asshur an hundreth, fourescore, and fiue thousand: so when they arose early in the morning, beholde, they were all dead corpses.
37 So Saneherib king of Asshur departed, and went away and returned and dwelt at [c] Nineueh.
38 And as he was in the temple worshipping of Nisroch his god, Adramelech and Sharezer his sonnes * slewe him with the sword, and they escaped into the land of || Ararat: and [d] Esarhaddon
his sonne reigned in his steade.

f Of the Egyptians and Ethiopians, that shal come and fight against him.
g Which was a citie toward Egypt, thinking thereby to haue stayed the force of his enemies.
h Thus God would haue him to vtter a most horrible blasphemie before his destruction: as to call the authour of all trueth, a deceiuer: some gather hereby that Shebnah had disclosed vnto Saneherib the answere that Isaiah sent to the King.
i Which was a citie of the Medes.
k Called also Charre a citie in Mesopotamia, whence Abraham came after his fathers death.
l He groundeth his prayer on Gods promes, who promised to heare them from betweene the Cherubims.
m Meaning, the ten tribes.
n He declareth for what cause he prayed, that they might be deliuered: to wit, that God might be glorified thereby through all the world.
o Whom God had chosen to himselfe, as a chaste virgin, and ouer whom he had care to preserue her from the lustes of the tyrant, as a father would haue ouer his daughter.
p Declaring hereby that they that are enemies to Gods Church, fight against him whose quarel his Church onely mainteineth.
q He boasteth of his policie, in that that he can finde meanes to nourish his army: and of his power, in that that his army is so great that it is able to drie vp whole riuers, and to destroy the waters, which the Iewes had closed in.
r Signifying that God made not his Church to destroy it, but to preserue it: and therefore he sayth that he formed it of olde, euen in his eternal counsell, which cannot be changed.
† Ebr. are short in hand. s Hee sheweth that the state and power of most florishig cities endureth but a moment in respect of the Church, which shall remaine for euer, because God is the mainteiner thereof.
t Meaning, his counsels and enterprises.
u Because Saneherib shewed himselfe as a deuouring fish and furious beast, he vseth these similitudes, to teach howe he will take him and guide him.
x Thou shalt lose thy labour.
y God giueth signes after two sortes: some goe before the thing, as the signes that Moses wrought in Egypt, which were for the confirmation of their faith: and some go after the thing, as the sacrifice, which they were commanded to make three dayes after their departure: & these latter are to keepe the benefites of God in our remembrance, of the which sort this here is.
z Hee promiseth that for two yeeres the ground of it selfe shoulde feede them.
a They whome God had deliuered out of the handes of the Assyrians, shall prosper: and this properly belongeth to the Church.

1 Hezekiah is sicke. 5 He is restored to health by the Lorde, and liueth fifteene yeeres after. 10 Hee giueth thankes for his benefite.

1 ABout * that [a] time was Hezekiah sicke vnto the death, and the Prophet Isaiah sonne of Amoz came vnto him, and sayd vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord, Put thine house in an order, for thou shalt dye, and not liue.

wall, and prayed to the Lord,

a Soone after that the Assyrians were slaine: so that God will haue the exercise of his children continuall, that they may learne onely to depend vpon God and aspire to the heauens.
b For his heart was touched with feare of Gods iudgement, seeing he had appointed him to die, so quickly after his deliuerance from so great calamitie, as one vnworthy to remaine in that estate, & also forseeing the great change, that should come in the Church, forasmuch as he left no sonne to reigne after him: for as yet Manasseh was not borne: and when he reigned, we see what a tyrant he was.

3 And

3 And sayd, I beseech thee, Lorde, remember nowe howe I haue walked before thee in trueth, and with a perfite heart, and haue done that which is good in thy sight: and Hezekiah wept sore.
4 ¶ Then came the worde of the Lorde to Isaiah, saying,
5 Goe, and say vnto Hezekiah, Thus saith the Lord God of Dauid thy father, I haue hearde thy prayer, and seene thy teares: beholde, I will adde vnto thy dayes fifteene yeeres.
6 And I will deliuer thee [c] out of the hand of the King of Asshur, and this city: for I wil defende this citie.
7 And [d] this signe shalt thou haue of the Lord, that the Lord wil do this thing that he hath spokē.
8 Beholde, I wil bring againe the shadowe of the degrees (whereby it is gone downe in the diall of Ahaz by the [f] sunne) ten degrees backward: so the sunne returned by ten degrees, by the which degrees it was gone downe.

sickenesse.
10 I saide in the [g] cutting off of my dayes, I shal goe to the gates of the graue: I am depriued of the residue of my yeeres.
11 I said, [h] I shall not see the Lorde, euen the Lord in the land of the liuing: I shal see man no more among the inhabitants of the world.
12 Mine habitation is departed, and is remoued from me, like a shepheards tent: I [i] haue cut off like a weauer my life: he wil cut mee off from the height: from day [k] to night, thou wilt make an end of me.
13 I reckoned [l] to the morning: but he brake all my bones, like a lyon: from day to night wilt thou make an end of me.
14 Like a crane or a swallow, so did I [m] chatter:
I did mourne as a doue: mine eyes were lift vp on high: O Lord, [n] it hath oppressed me, comfort me.
15 What shal I say? [o] for he hath said it to me and he hath done it: I shal walke [p] weakly all my yeeres in the bitternes of my soule.
16 O Lord, [q] to them that ouerliue them, and to all that are in them, the life of my spirite shalbe knowen, that thou causest me to [r] sleepe and hast giuen life to me.
17 Beholde, for [s] felicitie I had bitter griefe, but it was thy pleasure to deliuer my soule from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast al my [t] sinnes behind thy backe.
18 For [u] the graue cannot confesse thee: death cannot prayse thee: they that goe downe into the pit, cannot hope for thy trueth.
19 But the liuing, the liuing, he shal confesse thee, as I doe this day: the father to the [x] children shal declare thy trueth.
20 The Lord was readie to saue me: therefore

c He doth not onely promise to prolong his life, but to giue him rest and quietnesse from the Assyrians, who might haue renued their armie to reuenge their former discomfiture.

h I shall no more praise the Lord here in this Temple among the faithfull: thus God suffereth his dearest children to want his consolation for a time, that his grace afterward may the more appeare whē they feele their owne weakenesse.
i By my sinne I haue prouoked God to take my life from me.
k That is, in one day, or shortly.
l Ouernight I thought that I should liue till morning, but my pangs in the night perswaded me the contrary: he sheweth the horrour that the faithfull haue when they apprehend Gods iudgement against sinne.
m I was so oppreßt with sorow, that I was not able to vtter my wordes, but onely to grone and sigh.

we wil sing my song, all the daies of [y] our life in 21 Then said Isaiah, Take a lumpe of drie figs

CHAP. XXXIX.

Hezekiah is reproued because hee shewed his treasures vnto the ambassadours of Babylon.

AT [*] the same time, [a] Merodach Baladan, the sonne of Baladan, King of Babel, sent [b] letters, and a present to Hezekiah: for he had hearde that he had bene sicke, and was recouered.
2 And Hezekiah was [c] glad of them, and shewed them the house of the treasures, the siluer, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his kingdome that Hezekiah shewed them not.
3 Then came Isaiah the Prophet vnto King Hezekiah, & said vnto him, What said these men?
and from whence came they to thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a farre countrey vnto me from Babel.
4 Then saide he, What haue [d] they seene in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house haue they seene: there is nothing among my treasures, that I haue not shewed
them.
5 And Isaiah sayde to Hezekiah, Heare the word of the Lord of hostes, 6 Beholde, the dayes come, that all that is in thine house, and which thy fathers haue laide vp in store vntil this day, shal be [e] caried to Babel: nothing shalbe left, saith the Lord.
7 And of thy sonnes, that shall proceede out of thee, and which thou shalt beget, shall they take away, and they shal be [f] eunuches in the palace of the King of Babel.
8 [g] Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, The worde of the Lord is good, which thou hast spoken: and he saide, Yet let there be peace, and trueth in my dayes.

CHAP. XL.

1 Remission of sinnes by Christ. 3 The comming of Iohn Baptist. 18 The Prophet reprooueth the idolaters and them that trust not in the Lord.

COmfort [a] ye, comfort ye my people, wil your God say.
2 Speake comfortably to Ierusalem, & cry vnto her, that her [b] warfare is accomplished, that her iniquitie is pardoned: for she hath receiued of the Lords hand [c] double for all her sinnes.
3 A [d] voyce cryeth in the [e] wildernesse, [f] Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make streight in the desert a path for our God.
4 Euery valley shalbe exalted, and euery [g] mountaine and hill shall be made lowe: and the crooked shalbe streight, & the rough places plain.
5 And the glory of the Lord shalbe reueiled, and all [h] flesh shal see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

a This is a consolation for the Church, assuring them that they shall be neuer destitute of prophets, whereby he exhorteth the true ministers of God that then were, & those also that should come after him, to comfort the poore afflicted, and to assure them of their deliuerance both of body and soule.
b The time of her affliction.

n To wit, sorow and griefe both of body and mind. o God hath declared by his Prophet that I shal die, and therefore I will yeeld vnto him. p I shall haue no release, but continuall sorowes whiles I liue. q They that shall ouerliue the men that are now aliue, and all they that are in these yeeres shall acknowledge this benefite. r That after that thou hadst condemned me to death, thou restoredst me to life. s Whereas I thought to haue liued in rest and ease being deliuered from mine enemie, I had griefe vpon griefe. t He esteemeth more the remission of his sinnes, and Gods fauour then a thousand liues. u For as much as God hath placed man in this world to glorifie him, the godly take it as a signe of his wrath when their dayes were shortened, either because that they seemed vnworthy for their sinnes to liue longer in his seruice, or for their zeale to Gods glory, seeing that there are so few in earth that do regard it, as Psal. 6.5. and 115.17. x All posteritie shal acknowledge, and the fathers according to their duety toward their children shal instruct them in thy graces, and mercies toward me.

c Meaning, sufficient, as chap. 61.7. and full correction, or double grace, whereas she deserued double punishment. d To wit, of the Prophets. e That is, in Babylon & other places, where they were kept in captiuity, and misery. f Meaning Cyrus & Darius which should deliuer Gods people out of captiuity, and make them a ready way to Ierusalem: & this was fully accomplished, when Iohn the Baptist brought tidings of Iesus Christes comming, who was the true deliuerer of his Church from sinne and Satan, Matth. 3.3. g Whatsoeuer may let or hinder this deliuerance, shal be remoued. h This miracle shalbe so great, that it shalbe knowen through all the world.

6 A ⁱ voyce saide, Crie. And he saide, What shall I crie? All flesh is grasse, and all the ᵏ grace thereof is as the floure of the fielde.
7 The grasse withereth, the floure fadeth, because the ˡ Spirite of the Lorde bloweth vpon it:
surely the people is grasse.
8 The grasse withereth, the floure fadeth: but the ᵐ word of our God shal stand for euer.
9 ¶ O Zion, that bringest good tydings, get thee vp into the hie ⁿ mountaine: O Ierusalem, that bringest good tydings, lift vp thy voyce with strength: lift it vp, be not afraide: say vnto the cities of Iudah, Behold ᵒ your God.
10 Beholde, the Lorde God will come with power, and ᵖ his arme shall rule for him: beholde, his reward is with him, and his worke before him.
11 He shall feede his flocke like a shepheard:
he shall gather the lambes with his arme, and cary them in his bosome, and shal guide them w ᑫ yong.
12 Who hath measured the waters in his ʳ fist?
and counted heauen with the spanne, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure? and weighed the mountaines in a weight, and the hils in a balance?
13 Who hath instructed the spirit of the Lord?
or was ſ his counseller or taught him?
14 Of whom tooke he counsell, and who instructed him and taught him in the way of judgement? or taught him knowledge, and shewed vnto him the way of vnderstanding?
15 Beholde, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the dust of the balance:
behold, he taketh away the yles as a litle dust.
16 And Lebanon is not sufficient for fire, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offring.
17 All nations before him are as ᵗ nothing, and they are counted to him, lesse then nothing, and vanitie.
18 To whom then ᵘ wil ye liken God? or what similitude wil ye set vp vnto him?
19 The workeman melteth an image, or the goldsmith beateth it out in gold, or the goldsmith maketh siluer plates.
20 Doeth not ˣ the poore chuse out a tree that will not rot, for an oblation? he seeketh also vnto him a cunning workeman, to prepare an image, that shall not be moued.
21 Know ye nothing? haue ye not heard ʸ it?
hath it not bene tolde you from the beginning?
haue ye not vnderstand it by the ᶻ foundation of
the earth?
22 He sitteth vpon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grashoppers, hee stretcheth out the heauens, as a curtaine, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in.
23 Hee bringeth the princes to nothing, and maketh the iudges of the earth, as vanitie, 24 As though they were not planted, as though they were not sowen, as though their stocke tooke no roote in the earth: for he did euen ᵃ blow vp-on them, and they withered, and the whirlewinde will take them away as stubble.
25 To whome nowe will yee liken me, that I should be like him, saith the Holy one?
26 Lift vp your eyes on hie, and beholde who hath created these things, and bringeth ᵇ out their armies by number, and calleth them all by names?
by the greatnes of his power and mighty strength nothing faileth.
27 Why sayest thou, O Iaakob, and speakest O Israel, ᶜ My way is hid from the Lorde, and my judgement is passed ouer of my God?
28 Knowest thou not? or hast thou not heard, that the euerlasting God, the Lorde hath created the ᵈ endes of the earth? he neither fainteth, nor is wearie: there is no searching of his ᵉ vnderstanding.
29 But he giueth strength vnto him that fainteth, and vnto him that hath no strength, he en-creaseth power.
30 ᶠ Euen the yong men shall faint, and bee
wearie, and the yong men shal stumble and fall.
31 But they that waite vpon the Lord, shall renue their strength: they shall lift vp the wings, as the eagles: they shall runne, and not be weary, and they shall walke and not faint.

CHAP. XLI.

1 Gods mercie in chusing his people. 6 Their idolatry. 27 De-liuerance promised to Zion.

KEepe ᵃ silence before me, O ylandes, and let the people ᵇ renue their strength: let thē come neere, and let them speake: let vs come together into iudgement.
2 Who raised vp ᶜ iustice from the East, and called him to his foote? and gaue the nations before him, and subdued the Kings? hee gaue them as dust to his sword, and as scattered stubble vnto his bowe.
3 He pursued them, and passed safely by the way that he had not gone with his feete.
4 Who hath wrought and done it? he that calleth the ᵈ generations from the beginning. I the Lord am the ᵉ first, and with the last I am the same.
5 The yles saw it, and did ᶠ feare, and the ends of the earth were abashed, drew neere, and ᵍ came.
6 Euery man helped his neighbour, and saide to his brother, ʰ Be strong.
7 So the workeman comforted the founder, and he that smote with ÿ hammer, him that smote by course, saying, It is ready for the sodering, and he fastened it with nayles, that it shoulde not be moued.
8 ¶ But thou, Israel, art my ⁱ seruant, and thou Iaakob, whom I haue chosen, the seede of Abraham my friend.
9 For I haue taken thee from the ends of the earth, and called thee before the chiefe thereof, and saide vnto thee, Thou art my seruant: I haue chosen thee, and not cast thee away.
10 Feare thou not, for I am with thee: be not afraide, for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee, and helpe thee, and will susteine thee with the ᵏ right hand of my iustice.
11 Beholde, all they that prouoke thee, shalbe ashamed, and confounded: they shalbe as nothing, and they that striue with thee, shal perish.
12 Thou shalt seeke them and shalt not ˡ finde them: to wit, the men of thy strife, for they shall be as nothing, and the men that warre against thee, as a thing of nought.
13 For I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying vnto thee, Feare not, I wil helpe thee.
14 Feare not, thou ᵐ worme, Iaakob, and yee

i The voyce of God, which spake to the Prophet Isaiah.
k Meaning, all mans wisedome and naturall powers, Iames 1.10, 1.pet.1.24.
l The Spirit of God shal discouer the vanitie in all that seeme to haue any excellencie of themselues.
m Though considering the frailtie of mans nature many of the Iewes should perish, and so not be partakers of this deliuerance, yet Gods promes should be fulfilled, and they that remained, should feele the fruite thereof.
n To publish this benefite through all the world.
o He sheweth at one worde the perfection of all mans felicitie, which is to haue Gods presence.
p His power shall be sufficient without helpe of any other, and shall haue all meanes in himselfe to bring his will to passe.
q He shall shew his care and fauour ouer them that are weake and tender.
r Declaring that as God onely hath all power, so doth he vse the same for the defence and maintenance of his Church.
ſ Hee sheweth Gods infinite wisdome for the same end and purpose.
t He speaketh all this to the intent that they should neither feare man, nor put their trust in any, saue onely in God.
u Hereby he armeth them against the idolatry, wherewith they should be tempted in Babylon.
x He sheweth the rage of the idolaters, seeing that the poore that haue not to suffice their owne necessities, wil defraude themselues to serue their idoles.
y Haue ye not the worde of God, which plainely condemneth idolatrie?
z Can you not learne by the visible creatures whome God hath made to serue your vse, that you shoulde not serue them nor worship them?
a So that his power appeareth in euery place wheresoeuer we turne our eyes.
b Who hath set in order the infinite number of the starres.

c He rebuketh the Iewes, because they did not rest on the prouidence of God, but thought that he had forsaken them in their troubles.
d And therefore all power is in his hand to deliuer when his time commeth.
e Shewing that man must patiently abide, and not curiously seeke out the cause of Gods delay in our afflictions.
f They that trust in their owne vertue, and doe not acknowledge that all commeth of God.

a God, as though he pleaded his cause with all nations, requireth silence that he may be heard in his right.
b That is, gather all their power and supports.
c Who called Abraham (who was the paterne of Gods iustice in deliuering his Church) from the idolatrie of the Caldeans to goe to and fro at his commandement, and placed him in the land of Canaan?
d Who hath created man and mainteined his succession.
e Though the world set vp neuer so many gods, yet they diminish nothing of my glory: for I am all one, vnchangeable, which haue euer bene, and shalbe for euer.
f Considering mine excellent workes among my people.
g They assembled themselues, and conspired against me to mainteine their idolatrie.
h He noteth the obstinacie of the idolaters to mainteine their superstitions.
i And therefore oughtest not to pollute thy selfe with the superstition of the Gentiles.

k That is, by the force of my promes, in the performance whereof I wil shew my selfe faithful and iust. l Because they shalbe destroyed. m Thus he calleth them, because they were contemned of all the worlde, and that they considering their owne poore estate, should seeke vnto him for helpe.

men

men of Israel: I will helpe thee, sayth the Lord and thy redeemer the holy one of Israel.
15 Behold, I will make thee a roller, & a new threshing instrument hauing teeth: thou shalt thresh the [n] mountaines, and bring them to pou-der, and shalt make the hilles as chaffe.
16 Thou shalt fanne them, and the winde shall carie them away, and the whirlewind shall scatter them: and thou shalt reioyce in the Lord, & shalt glory in the holy one of Israel.
17 When [o] the poore and the needie seeke water, & there is none (their tongue faileth for thirst:
I the Lorde will heare them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them) 18 I will open riuers in the toppes of the hils, and fountaines in the middes of the valleis: I will make the wildernesse as a poole of water, and the waste [p] land as springs of water.
19 I will set in the wildernesse the cedar, the Shittah tree, and the mirre tree, and the pine tree, and I will set in the wildernesse the firre tree, the elme and the boxe tree together.
20 Therefore let them see and knowe, and let them consider and vnderstande together that the hand of the Lord hath done this, and the holy one of Israel [q] hath created it.
21 [r] Stand to your cause, saith the Lord: bring forth your strong reasons, saith ẏ King of Iaakob.
22 Let them bring foorth, and let them tell vs what shall come: let them shew the former things what they be, that wee may consider them, and knowe the later ende of them: eyther declare vs things for to come.
23 Shewe the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that you are gods: yea, doe good or doe euill, that we may declare it, and be-holde it together.
24 Beholde, ye are of no value, and your making is of nought: man hath [s] chosen an abomination by them.
25 ¶ I haue raised vp [t] from the North, and he shal come: from the East sunne shal [u] he call vpon my Name, & shal come vpon [x] princes as vpō clay, and as the potter treadeth myre vnder the foote.
26 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may knowe? or before time, that we may say, He is righteous? Surely there is none ẏ sheweth: surely there is none that declareth: surely there is none that heareth [y] your wordes.
27 I am the first, that saith to Zion, Beholde, beholde [z] them: and I will giue to Ierusalem [a] one that shall bring good tidings.
28 But when [b] I beholde, there was none, and when I inquired of them, there was no counsellor, and when I demaunded of them, they answered not a worde.
29 Beholde, they are all vanitie: their worke is of nothing, their images are winde and confusion.

a To wit, a continual succession of Prophets and ministers. b When I looked whether the idoles could doe these things, I founde that they had neither wisdome nor power to doe any thing: therefore he concludeth that all are wicked, that trust in such vanitie.

CHAP. XLII.

1 The obedience and humilitie of Christ. 8 Why hee was sent into the worlde. 11 The vocation of the Gentiles.

Beholde, [a] my seruant: [b] I will stay vpon him:
mine elect, in whom my soule [c] delighteth: I haue put my Spirit vpō him: he shall bring forth [d] iudgment to the Gentiles.
2 He shall not [e] crie, nor lift vp, nor cause his voice to be heard in the streete.
3 A [f] bruised reede shall hee not breake, and the smoking [g] flaxe shall he not quench: hee shall bring foorth iudgement in [h] trueth.
4 He shall not faile nor be discouraged till he haue [i] set iudgement in the earth: and the [k] yles shall waite for his lawe.
5 Thus saith God the Lorde (he that created the heauens and spred them abroad: he that stretched foorth the earth, and the buddes thereof: he that giueth breath vnto the people vpon it, and spirit to them that walke therein) 6 I the Lorde haue called thee in [l] righteous-nesse, and wil hold [m] thine hand, and I will keepe thee, and giue thee for a [n] couenant of the people, and for a light of the Gentiles, 7 That thou maist open the eyes of the blind, and bring out the prisoners from the prison: and them that sitte in darkenesse, out of the prison house.
8 I am the Lorde, this is my Name, and my [o] glory wil I not giue to another, neither my praise to grauen images.
9 Beholde, the former things are [p] come to passe, and new things doe I declare: before they come foorth, I tell you of them.
10 Sing vnto the Lorde a new song, and his prayse from the ende of the earth: yee that goe downe to the sea, and all that is therein: the yles and the inhabitants thereof.
11 Let the wildernesse and the cities thereof lift vp their voyce, the townes that [q] Kedar doeth inhabite: let the inhabitants of the rocks sing: let them shoute from the toppe of the mountaines.
12 Let them giue glorie vnto the Lorde, and declare his praise in the ylands.
13 The Lord shal go forth as a [r] gyant: he shal stirre vp his courage like a man of warre: he shall shoute and crie, and shall preuaile against his enemies.
14 I haue a long time holden my peace: I haue bene still and refrained my selfe: now will I crie like a [s] trauailing woman: I will destroy and deuoure at once.
15 I will make waste mountaines, and hilles, and drie vp all their herbes, and I will make the floods ylands, and I will drie vp the pooles.
16 ¶ And I will bring the [t] blinde by a way, that they knew not, and leade them by paths that they haue not knowen: I will make darkenesse light before them, and crooked things straight.
These things will I doe vnto them, and not forsake them.
17 They shall be turned backe: they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in grauen images, and say to the molten images, Yee are our gods.
18 ¶ Heare, ye deafe: and yee blinde, regarde, that ye may see.
19 Who is blinde but my [u] seruant? or deafe as my [x] messenger, that I sent? who is blinde as the [y] perfite, and blinde as the Lords seruant?
20 Seeing many things, but thou keepest them not? opening the eares, but he heareth not?

a The Prophets vse to make mention of Christ, after ẏ they haue declared any great promes, because he is ẏ foundation wherupō all ẏ promises are made & ratified. b For I haue committed all my power to him, as to a most faithfull steward. Some reade, I will establish him to wit, his office, by giuing him the fulnes of my Spirit. c He onely is acceptable vnto me and they that come vnto me by him: for there is no other meanes of reconciliation, Matt. 3,17. & 17,5. ephes. 1,6.

that desireth to be deliuered when she is in trauell. t That is, my poore people, which are in perplexitie and care. u To wit, Israel, which shoulde haue most light because of my Lawe. x The Priest to whome my worde is committed, which shoulde not onely heare it himselfe, but cause others to heare it. y As the Priests and Prophets that should be lights to others.

n I will make thee able to destroy all thine enemies, be they neuer so mightie: and this chiefly is referred to the kingdome of Christ.
o That is, they that shalbe afflicted in the captiuitie of Babylon.
p God will rather change the order of nature, then they shoulde want any thing, that crie to him by true faith in their miseries: declaring to them hereby ẏ they shall lacke nothing by the way, whē they returne from Babylon.
q That is, hath appointed & determined that it shall come so to passe.
r He biddeth the idolaters to proue their religion, and to bring foorth their idoles, ẏ they may be tried whether they know all things, and can doe all things: which if they cannot do, he concludeth that they are no gods, but vile idoles.
s So that a man cannot make an idole, but he must doe ẏ which God detesteth, & abhorreth: for he chuseth his owne deuises, and forsaketh ẏ Lords.
t Meaning the Chaldeans.
u That is, Cyrus, who shall doe all things in my name, & by my direction: whereby he meaneth ẏ both their captiuitie, and deliuerance shall be ordered by Gods prouidence & appointment.
x Both of ẏ Chaldeans and others.
y Meaning, that none of the Gentiles gods can worke any of these things.
z That is, the Israelites, which returne from ẏ captiuitie.
a That is, Christ, who in respect of his manhoode is called here seruant.

d He shall declare himselfe gouernour ouer the Gentiles, and call them by his woorde, and rule them by his Spirit.
e His comming shall not be with pompe and noise, as earthly princes.
f Hee will not hurt the weake & feeble, but support and comfort them.
g Meaning the weeke of a lampe, or candle which is almost out, but hee will cherish it and snoffe it, that it may shine brighter.
h Although hee fauour the weake, yet will hee not spare the wicked, but will iudge them according to trueth and equitie.
i Till hee haue set all things in good order.
k The Gentiles shall be desirous to receiue his doctrine.
l Meaning, vnto a lawfull and iust vocation.
m To assist and guide thee.
n As him, by whome the promise, made to all nations in Abraham, shall be fulfilled.
o I will not suffer my glorie to be diminished: which I should doe, if I were not faithfull in performing the same, and the idoles thereby would extolle their idoles aboue me.
p As in time past I haue bene true in my promises, so will I be in time to come.
q Meaning the Arabians, vnder whome he comprehendeth all the people of the East.
r Hee sheweth the zeale of the Lord and his power in the conseruation of his Church.
s I will haste to execute my vengeance, which I haue so long deferred, as a woman

21 The Lorde is willing for his righteousnesse sake that he may magnifie the Lawe,and exalt it.
22 But this people is [z] robbed & spoyled,and shalbe all snared in dungeons,and they shalbe hid in prison houses: they shall be for a pray,and none shall deliuer: a spoile,and none shal say, [a] Restore.
23 Who among you shall hearken to this,and take heede,and heare for [b] afterwardes?
24 Who gaue Iaakob for a spoyle, and Israel to the robbers? Did not ÿ Lorde,because we haue sinned against him? for they woulde not walke in his wayes,neither be obedient vnto his Lawe.
25 Therefore hee hath powred vpon him his fierce wrath,and the strength of battell: and it set him on fire round about,and he knewe not,and it burned him vp,yet he considered not.

z Because they wil not acknowledge this benefit of the Lord, who is ready to deliuer them,he suffereth them to be spoyled of their enemies through their owne faute and incredulitie.
a There shall be none to succour them,or to wil the enemie to restore that, which hee hath spoiled.
b Meaning,Gods wrath.

CHAP. XLIII.

1 The Lorde comforteth his people. He promiseth deliuerance to the Jewes. 11 There is no God but one alone.

BVt now thus sayeth the Lorde, [a] that created thee, O Iaakob: and hee that formed thee,O Israel, [b] Feare not: for I haue redeemed thee: I haue called thee by thy name,thou art mine.
2 When thou passest through the [c] waters, I wil be with thee,& through the floods, that they doe not ouerflowe thee. When thou walkest through the very fire, thou shalt not bee burnt, neither shall the flame kindle vpon thee.
3 For I am the Lorde thy God, the holy one of Israel,thy Sauiour: I gaue [d] Egypt for thy ransome,Ethiopia,and Seba for thee.
4 Because thou wast precious in my sight,and thou wast honourable,and I loued thee,therefore will I giue [e] man for thee, and people for thy sake.
5 Feare not, for I am with thee: I will bring thy seede from the [f] East, and gather thee from the West.
6 I will say to the North, Giue: and to the South, Keepe not backe: bring my sonnes from farre,& my daughters from the ends of the earth.
7 Euery one shall be called by my [g] Name: for I created him for my glorie, formed him and made him.
8 I will bring foorth the blinde people, and they shall haue eyes,and the deafe, and they shall haue eares.
9 Let all the nations be gathered [h] together, & let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this and shewe vs former things? let them bring foorth their [i] witnesses, that they may be iustified: but let them [k] heare, & say, It is truth.
10 You [l] are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my [m] seruant, whom I haue chosen: therefore ye shall knowe and beleeue me and yee shall vnder-stand that I am: before me there was no God formed,neither shall there be after me.
11 I, euen I am the Lord,and beside me there is no Sauiour.
12 I haue declared, and I haue saued, and I haue shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore you are my witnesses, saith the Lord,that I am God.
13 Yea, before the day was,I am,and there is none that can deliuer out of mine hand: I will doe it,and who shall let it?

a After these threatnings he promiseth deliuerãce to his Church,because he hath regenerate them, adopted them,and called them.
b When thou seest dangers & conspiracies on all sides, remember this benefite and the loue of thy God,and it shall encourage thee.
c By water and fire,he meaneth all kinde of troubles and perils.
d I turned Sanecheribs power against these countreis,& made them to suffer that affliction which thou shouldest haue done,and so were as the paiment of thy ransome,chap. 37.9.
e I will not spare any mã,rather then thou shouldest perish: for God more esteemeth one of his faithfull,then all the wicked in the worlde.
f He prophecieth of their deliuerãce from the captiuitie of Babylon,and so of the calling of the vniuersall Church, alluding to that which is written Deut.30.3.
g Meaning,that he could not be vnmindfull of them, except he would neglect his owne Name and glorie.
h Signifying,that no power can resist him in doing this miraculous worke,nor al their idoles are able to doe the like, as Chap.41.21.
i To [illegible] that the things which are spoken of them, are true.
k Shewing, that the malice of the wicked hindreth them in the knowledge of the trueth, because they will not heare when God speaketh by his worde.
l The Prophets and people to whom I haue giuen my Lawe.
m Meaning specially Christ,and by him all the faithfull.

14 Thus sayeth the Lorde your redeemer, the holy one of Israel, For your sake I haue sent to Babel, and [n] brought it downe: they are all fugitiues,and the Caldeans crie in [o] the shippes.
15 I am the Lorde your holy one, the creator of Israel,your King.
16 Thus sayth the Lorde which maketh a way in [p] the Sea,and a path in the mighty [q] waters.
17 When hee [r] bringeth out the [s] charet and horse, the armie and the power lie together, and shal not rise:they are extinct,& quenched as towe.
18 Remember yee not the former things,neither regard the things of olde.
19 Behold,I do a new thing: now shal it come forth: shall you not knowe it? I will euen make a way in the [t] desert,and floods in the wildernesse.
20 The wilde [u] beastes shall honour mee, the dragons and the ostriches,because I gaue water in the desert, and floods in the wildernesse to giue drinke to my people,euen to mine elect.
21 This people haue I formed for my selfe:
they shall shewe forth my prayse.
22 And thou hast not [x] called vpon mee, O Iaakob,but thou hast [y] wearied me,O Israel.
23 Thou [z] hast not brought me the sheepe of thy burnt offrings,neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I haue not caused thee to serue with an offring,nor wearied thee with incense.
24 Thou broughtest mee no sweete [a] sauour with money, neither hast thou made mee drunke with the fatte of thy sacrifices,but thou hast made me to [b] serue with thy sinnes, and wearied mee with thine iniquities.
25 I, euen I am he that putteth away thine ini-quities for mine owne sake, and will not remember thy sinnes.
26 Put me in [c] remembrance: let vs be iudged together: count thou that thou maiest be iustified.
27 Thy [d] first father hath sinned,and thy [e] teachers haue transgressed against me.
28 Therefore I haue [f] prophaned the rulers of the Sanctuarie,and haue made Iaakob a curse,and Israel a reproche.

n By Darius and Cyrus.
o They shall crie when they would escape by water, seeing that the course of Euphrates is turned another way by the enemie.
p When he deliuered Israel from Pharaoh,Exod.14.22.
q When the Israelites passed through Iorden,Iosh.3.17.
r When he deliuered his people out of Egypt.
s Pharaoh and his mightie armie.
t Meaning that their deliuerance out of Babylon should be more famous then that from Egypt was, Iere.23.7.hag.2.10. 2.cor.5.17.reuel.21.5,7.
u They shal haue such abundance of all things as they returne home,euẽ in the drie and barren places, that the very beastes shall feele my benefites,and shal acknowledge them: much more men ought to be thankful for the same.
x Thou hast not worshipped me as thou oughtest to haue done.
y Because thou hast not willingly receiued ÿ which I did commaund thee, thou didst grieue me. Whereby hee sheweth that his mercies were the onely cause of their deliuerance, forasmuch as they had deserued the contrary.
z Meaning, in true faith and obedience.
a Ether for the composition of the sweete oyntment, Exod.30.34. or for the sweete incense,Exod.30.7.
b Thou hast made mee to beare an heauie burden by thy sinnes.
c If I forget any thing that may make for thy iustification, put me in remembrance and speake for thy selfe.
d Thine ancesters.
e Thy Priests and thy Prophets.
f That is, reiected, abhorred and destroyed them in the wildernesse, and at other times.

CHAP. XLIIII.

5 The Lorde promiseth comfort, and that he will assemble his Church of diuers nations. 9 The vanitie of idoles. 17 The beastlinesse of idolaters.

YEt now heare,O Iaakob my seruant, and Israel,whom I haue chosen.
2 Thus sayeth the Lorde,that made thee, and formed [a] thee from the wombe:he will helpe thee.
Feare not,O Iaakob,my seruant, and thou righteous, [b] whome I haue chosen.
3 For I will powre water vpon the [c] thirstie, and floods vpon the drie grounde: I will powre my Spirit vpon thy seede, and my blessing vpon thy buddes.
4 And they [d] shal grow as among the grasse, and as the willowes by the riuers of waters.
5 One shall say, I am the Lordes: another a He created and chose thee from the beginning of his owne mercie, and before thou couldest merite any thing.

b Whome God accepteth as righteous: or which hadest occasion thereunto because of the Law,and of thine holy vocation.

c Because man of him selfe is as the drie and barren lande, hee promiseth to moysten him with the waters of his holy Spirite, Ioel 2.28. iohn 7.38. actes 2.17.
d That is, thy children and posteritie shall increase wonderfully after their deliuerance from Babylon.

e shalbe

e shalbe called by the name of Iaakob: and another shall subscribe with his hande vnto the Lord, and name himselfe by the name of Israel.
6 Thus saith the Lord the King of Israel and his redeemer, the Lorde of hostes, f I am the first, and I am the last, and without me is there no God.
7 And who is like mee, that shall g call and shall declare it, and set h it in order before me, since I appointed the i ancient people? and what is at hand, and what things are to come? let k them shewe vnto them.
8 Feare ye not, neither be afraide: haue not I tolde thee of olde, and haue declared it? l you are euen my witnesses, whether there be a God beside me, and that there is no God that I knowe not.
9 All they that make an image, are vanitie, and m their delectable things shall nothing pro-fite: & they are their owne witnesses, n ÿ they see not nor know: therefore they shalbe confounded.
10 Who hath made o a god, or molten an image, that is p profitable for nothing?
11 Beholde, all that are of the q felowship thereof, shall be confounded: for the workemen themselues are men: let them all be gathered together, and r stand vp, yet they shall feare, and be confounded together.
12 The smith taketh an instrument, and worketh in the coles, and facioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his armes: yea, he is an s hungred, and his strength faileth: hee drinketh no water, and is faint.
13 The carpenter stretcheth out a line: he facioneth it with a red thread, he planeth it, and hee purtreyeth it with the compasse, and maketh it after the figure of a man, and according to the beau-tie of a man that it may remaine in t an house.
14 He will hewe him downe cedars, and take the pine tree and the oke, and taketh courage among the trees of the forest: hee planteth a firre tree, and the raine doeth nourish it.
15 And man burneth thereof: for hee will take thereof and u warme himselfe: he also kindleth it & baketh bread, yet he maketh a god, & worshippeth it: he maketh it an idole and boweth vnto it.
16 Hee burneth the halfe thereof euen in the fire, and vpon the halfe thereof he x eateth flesh:
he rosteth the roste and is satisfied: also he warmeth himselfe and sayth, Aha, I am warme, I haue bene at the fire.
17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, euen his idole: he boweth vnto it, and worshippeth and prayeth vnto it, and sayeth, Deliuer me:
for thou art my god.
18 They haue not knowen, nor vnderstand:
y for God hath shut their eyes that they cannot see,
and their heartes, that they cannot vnderstand.
19 And none † considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor vnderstanding to say, I haue burnt halfe of it, euen in the fire, and haue baked bread also vpon the coles thereof: I haue rosted flesh, and eaten it, and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I bowe to the stocke of a tree?
20 He feedeth z of ashes: a seduced heart hath deceiued him, that he cannot deliuer his soule, nor say, Is there not a lye in my right hand?
21 a Remember these (O Iaakob and Israel) for thou art my seruant: I haue formed thee: thou art my seruant: O Israel forget me not.
22 I haue put away thy transgressions like a cloude, and thy sinnes, as a mist: turne vnto me, for I haue redeemed thee.
23 b Reioyce, ye heauens: for the Lorde hath done it: shoute, ye lower partes of the earth: brast foorth into prayses, yee mountaines, O forest and euery tree therein: for the Lorde hath redeemed Iaakob and will be glorified in Israel.
24 Thus sayeth the Lord thy redeemer and he that formed thee from the wombe, I am the Lord, that made all things, that spred out the heauens alone, and stretched out the earth by my selfe.
25 I destroy the c tokens of ÿ southsayers, and make them that coniecture, fooles, and turne the wise men backwarde, and make their knowledge foolishnesse.
26 ¶ Hee confirmeth the word of his d seruant and performeth the counsell of his messengers, saying to Ierusalem, Thou shalt bee inhabited: and to the cities of Iudah, Yee shall bee built vp, and I will repayre the decayed places thereof.
27 He saith to the e deepe, Be drye and I will drye vp thy floods.
28 Hee saith to f Cyrus, Thou art my shep-heard: and hee shall performe all my desire: saying also to Ierusalem, Thou shalt be built: and to the Temple, Thy foundation shall be surely layed.

CHAP. XLV.

1 The deliuerance of the people by Cyrus. 9 God is iust in all his workes. 20 The calling of the Gentiles.

THus sayeth the Lord vnto a Cyrus his b anointed, whose right hand I haue holden to c subdue nations before him: therefore will I weaken the loynes of Kings and open the doores before him, and the gates shall not be shut.
2 I will goe before thee and make the d crooked streight: I will breake the brasen doores, and burst the yron barres.
3 And I will giue thee the treasures of darke-nesse, and the things hid in secret places, that thou maist e know that I am the Lorde which call thee by thy name, euen the God of Israel.
4 For Iaakob my seruants f sake, and Israel mine elect, I will euen call thee by thy name and name thee, though thou hast not knowen me.
5 I am the Lorde and there is none other:
there is no God besides me: I g girded thee though thou hast not knowen me, 6 That they may knowe from the rising of the sunne, and from the West, that there is none besides me. I am the Lord, and there is none other.
7 I forme the light and create darkenes: I e By this diuersitie of speache hee meaneth one thing: that is, that the people shalbe holy and receiue the true religion of God, as Psalm. 87.5.

f I am alwayes like my selfe, that is, mercifull toward my Church, and most able to maintaine it, as chap. 41.4. and 48. 12. reuel. 1.17. and 22.13.
g And appoint them that shall deliuer the Church.
h That is, declare vnto me howe I ought to proceede herein.
i God calleth the Israelites ancient, because he preferred them to all other in his eternall election.
k Meaning, their idoles.
l Reade chap. 43.10.
m Whatsoeuer they bestowe vpon their idoles to make them to seeme glorious.
n That is, the idolaters seeing their idoles blind, must needes bee witnesses of their owne blindnesse, and seeing that they are not able to helpe them, must confesse ... haue no power.
o Meaning, that whatsoeuer is made by the hand of man, if it be esteemed as God, is most detestable. p Whereby appeareth their blasphemie, which call images the bookes of the laitie, seeing that they are not onely here called vnprofitable, but chap. 41.24. abominable: and Ieremie calleth them the workes of errours, Ierem. 10.15. Habakkuk, a lying teacher, 2.18.
q That is, which by any way consent either to the making or worshipping.
r Signifying, that the multitude shall not then saue the idolaters, when God will take vengeance, although they excuse themselues thereby among men.
s He describeth the raging affection of the idolaters, which forget their owne necessities to set foorth their deuotion towarde their idoles.
t To place it in some Temple.
u He setteth foorth the obstinacie and malice of the idolaters, which though they see by dayly experience that their idoles are no better then the rest of the matter whereof they are made, yet they abuse the one part and make a god of the other, as the Papistes make their cake god, and the rest of their idoles.
x That is, he either maketh a table or trenchers.
y The Prophet giueth here an answere to all them that wonder howe it is possible that any shoulde bee so blinde to commit such abomination, saying, that God hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heartes.
† Ebr. turneth.

z He is abused as one that woulde eate ashes thinking to satisfie his hunger.
a Shewing that mans heart is most inclined to idolatrie, and therefore he warneth his people by these examples, that they shoulde not cleaue to any but to the liuing God when they should be among the idolaters.
b He sheweth that the worke of the Lord toward his people shall be so great, that the insensible creatures shalbe moued therewith.
c He armeth them against the southsayers of Babylon, which would haue borne them in hand, that they knewe by the starres that God would not deliuer them, and that Babylon shoulde stand.
d Of Isaiah and the rest of his Prophets, which did assure the Church of Gods fauour and deliuerance.
e He sheweth that Gods worke shoulde bee no lesse notable in this their deliuerance, then when hee brought them out of Egypt through the Sea.
f To assure them of their deliuerance, he nameth the person by whome it shoulde be, more then an hundreth yeere before he was borne.

a To assure the Iewes of their deliuerance against the great tentations that they shoulde abide, he nameth the person & the meanes.
b Because Cyrus should execute the office of a deliuerer, God called him his anointed for a time, but after another sort then he called Dauid.
c To guide him in the deliuerance of my people.
d I will take away all impediments and lets.
e Not that Cyrus did know God to worship him aright, but he had a certaine particular knowledge, as ... that ... men may ... power, and so was compelled to deliuer Gods people.
f Not for any thing that is in thee, or for thy worthines.
g I haue giuen thee strength, power and authoritie.
h I send peace and warre, prosperitie and aduersitie, as Amos 3.6.

make peace and create euill: I the Lorde doe all these things.
8 Ye heauens, send the dewe from aboue, and let the cloudes droppe downe [i] righteousnesse: let the earth open, and let saluation and iustice growe foorth: let it bring them foorth together: I the Lord haue [k] created him.
9 [l] Woe be vnto him that striueth with his maker, the potsherd with the potsherds of the earth: shall the clay say to him that facioneth it, What makest thou? or thy worke, [m] It hath none hands?
10 Woe vnto him that sayeth to his father, What hast thou begotten? or to his mother, What hast thou brought foorth?
11 Thus saith the Lord, the holy one of Israel, and his maker, Aske me [n] of things to come concerning my sonnes, and concerning the workes of mine hands: commande you me.
12 I haue made the earth, and created man vpon it: I, whose hands haue spred out the hea-uens, I haue euen commanded all their [o] armie.
13 I haue raised [p] him vp in righteousnesse, and I will direct all his wayes: he shall build my citie, and hee shall let goe my captiues, not for [q] price nor rewarde, saith the Lord of hostes.
14 Thus saith the Lorde, The labour of [r] Egypt, and the marchandise of Ethiopia, and of the Sabeans, men of stature shall come vnto thee, and they shall be [s] thine: they shall followe thee, and shall goe in chaines: they shall fall downe before thee, and make supplication vnto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee, and there is none other God besides.
15 Verely thou, O God, [t] hidest thy selfe, O God, the Sauiour of Israel.
16 All they shalbe ashamed and also confounded: they shall go to confusion together, that are the makers of images.
17 But Israel shall be saued in the Lorde, with an euerlasting saluation: yee shall not be ashamed nor confounded worlde without ende.
18 For thus saith the Lorde (that created heauen, God himselfe, that formed the earth, & made it: he that prepared it, hee created it not in vaine:
he formed it to be [u] inhabited) I am the Lord, and there is none other.
19 I haue not spoken in secrete, neither [x] in a place of darkenes in the earth: I saide not in vaine vnto the seede of Iaakob, Seeke you me: I the Lord doe speake righteousnesse, and declare righteous things.
20 Assemble your selues, & come: drawe neere together, [y] yee abiect of the Gentiles: they haue no knowledge, that set vp the wood of their idole, and pray vnto a god, that cannot saue
them.
21 Tell ye and bring them, and let them take counsel together, who hath declared this from the beginning? or hath tolde it of olde? Haue not I the Lord? and there is none other God beside me, a iust God, and a Sauiour: there is none beside me.
22 Looke vnto me, and ye shall be saued: all [z] the endes of the earth shall be saued: for I am God, and there is none other.
23 I haue sworne by my selfe: the worde is gone out of my mouth in [a] righteousnesse, and shall not returne, That euery [b] knee shall bowe vnto me, and euery tongue shall sweare by me.
24 Surely [c] hee shall say, In the Lorde haue I righteousnesse and strength: hee shall come vnto him, and all that [d] prouoke him, shal be ashamed.
25 The whole seede of Israel shall be iustified, and glorie in the Lord.

CHAP. XLVI.

1 The destruction of Babylon and of their idoles. 3 He calleth the Iewes to the consideration of his workes.

Bel is bowed downe: [a] Nebo is fallen: their idoles were vpon the [b] beastes, and vpon the cattell: they which did beare you, were laden with a wearie burden.
2 [c] They are bowed downe, and fallen together: for they coulde not rid them of the burden, and their [d] soule is gone into captiuitie.
3 Heare ye me, O house of Iaakob, & all that remaine of the house of Israel, which are [e] borne of me from the wombe, and brought vp of me from the birth.
4 Therefore vnto olde age, I the same, euen
I will beare you vntill the hoare heares: I haue made you: I will also beare you, and I will cary you [f] and I will deliuer you.
5 ¶ To whom will ye make me like or make me equall, or [g] copare me, y I should be like him?
6 They drawe gold out of the bagge & weigh siluer in the balance, and hire a goldsmith to make a god of it, and they bowe downe, and worship it.
7 They beare it vpon the shoulders: they ca-rie him and set him in his place: so doeth he stand, and cannot remoue from his place. Though one crie vnto him, yet can he not answere, nor deliuer him out of his tribulation.
8 Remember this, and be ashamed: bring it againe [h] to minde, O you transgressers.
9 Remember the former things of old: for I am God and there is none other God, and there is nothing like me,
10 Which declare the last thing from the beginning: and from of olde, the things that were not done, saying, My counsell shall stand, and I will doe whatsoeuer I will.
11 I call a [i] birde from the East, and the man of my [k] counsell from farre: as I haue spoken, so will I bring it to passe: I haue purposed it, and I will doe it.
12 Heare mee, ye stubburne hearted, that are farre from [l] iustice.
13 I bring [m] neere my iustice: it shall not bee farre off, and my saluation shall not tarie: for I wil giue saluation in Zion, and my glory vnto Israel.

CHAP. XLVII.

The destruction of Babylon and the causes wherefore.

Come downe and sit in the dust: O [a] virgine, daughter Babel, sit on the ground: there is no
b throne,

---

i He comforteth the Iewes, as if he would say, Though when ye looke to the heauens and earth for succour, yee see nothing nowe but signes of Gods wrath, yet I will cause them to bring foorth most certaine tokens of your deliuerance, and of the performance of my promes, which is meant by righteousnesse.
k I haue appointed Cyrus to this vse and purpose.
l Hereby hee brideleth their impacienceie, which in aduersitie and trouble murmure against God and will not tarie his pleasure: willing that man shoulde matche with his like and not contend against God.
m That is, it is not perfitely made.
n In steade of murmuring, humble your selues, and aske what ye will for the consolation of my children, and you shall be sure of it, as ye are of these things which are at your commaundement. Some reade it with an interrogation and make it the application of the similitude.
o That is, the starres.
p To wit, Cyrus, that I may shewe by him the faithfulnesse of my promes in deliuering my people.
q Meaning, freely and without ransome or any grieuous condition.
r These people were tributaries to the Persians, and so King Artahshashte gaue this money toward the building of the Temple, Ezra.7.21.
s Whereas tofore they were thine enemies, they shall nowe honour thee, and thou shalt rule them: which was accomplished in the time of Christ. t Hereby he exhorteth the Iewes to patience, though their deliuerance be deferred for a time: shewing that they shoulde not repent their long patience, but the wicked and idolaters shall bee destroyed. u To wit, of man, but chiefely of his Church. x As do the false gods, which giue vncertaine answeres. y All ye idolaters, which though you seeme to haue neuer so much worldly dignitie, yet in Gods sight you are vile and abiect.

z He calleth the idolaters to repentance, willing them to looke vnto him with the eye of faith.
a That is, that the thing, which I haue promised, shalbe faithfully performed.
b The knowledge of God and the true worshipping shall be through all the worlde, Rom.14.11. Phil.2.10. whereby he signifieth that we must not onely serue God in heart, but declare the same also by outwarde profession. c Meaning, the faithfull shall feele and confesse this. d All the contemners of God.

a These were the chiefe idoles of Babylon.
b Because they were of golde and siluer, the Medes and Persians caried them away.
c The beasts that caried the idoles, fell downe vnder their burden.
d He derideth the idoles, which had neither soule nor sense.
e He sheweth the difference betweene the idoles and the true God: for they must bee caried of others, but God himselfe carieth his, as Deu. 32.11.
f Seeing I haue begotten you, I will nourish and preserue you for euer.
g The people of God, seeing their owne calamitie and the florishing estate of the Babylonians, should be tempted to thinke that their God was not so mightie as the Idoles of their enemies: therefore he describeth the originall of al the idoles, to make them to be abhorred of all men: shewing that the most that can be spoken in their commendation, is but to proue the vile, Baruc 6.25.
h Become wise, meaning that all idolaters are without wit or sense, like mad men. i That is, Cyrus, which shall come as swift as a bird and fight against Babylon. k Him by whome I haue appointed to execute that, which I haue determined. l Which by your incredulitie would let the performance of my promes. m Hee sheweth that mans incredulitie cannot abolish the promes of God, Rom.3.3.

a Which hast liued in wealth, and wantonnesse, and hast not yet beene ouercome by any enemie.

b throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, Tender and delicate.
2 Take the mill stones, and c grinde meale:
loose thy lockes: d make bare the feete: vncouer
the legge, and passe through the floods.
3 Thy filthinesse shall be discouered, and thy shame shall be seene: I will take vengeance, and I will not meete thee as a e man.
4 f Our redeemer, the Lorde of hostes is his Name, the holy one of Israel.
5 g Sit still, and get thee into darkenesse, O daughter of ẏ Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, The ladie of kingdomes.
6 I was wroth with my people: I haue polluted mine inheritance, and giuen them into thine hand: thou diddest shew them no h mercy, but thou diddest lay thy very heauy yoke vpon the ancient.
7 And thou saidest, I shall be a ladie for euer, so ẏ thou diddest not set thy mind to these things, neither diddest thou remember ẏ latter end therof.
8 Therefore nowe heare, thou that art giuen to pleasures, and dwellest carelesse, Shee sayeth in her heart, I am, and none els: I shall not sit as a widowe, neither shall knowe the losse of children.
9 But these two things shall come to thee suddenly on one day, the losse of children and widow-hoode: they shall come vpon thee in their i perfection, for the multitude of thy diuinations, and for the great abundance of thine inchanters.
10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickednesse: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy k wisdome and thy knowledge, they haue caused thee to rebell, & thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none els.
11 Therefore shall euill come vpon thee, and thou shalt not knowe the morning thereof: destruction shall fall vpon thee, which thou shalt not be able to put away: destruction shall come vpon thee suddenly, or thou beware.
12 Stand now among thine inchanters, and in the multitude of thy southsayers (with whom thou hast l wearied thy selfe from thy youth) if so be thou maiest haue profite, or if so be thou maist haue strength.
13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels: let now the astrologers, the starre gasers, and prognosticatours stand vp, and saue thee from these things, that shall come vpon thee.
14 Beholde, they shall be as stubble: the fire shall burne them: they shall not deliuer their owne liues from the power of the flame: there shalbe no coles m to warme at, nor light to sit by.
15 Thus shall they serue thee, with whom thou hast wearied thee, euen thy marchants from thy youth: euery one shall wander to his owne n quarter: none shall saue thee.

CHAP. XLVIII.

1 The hypocrisie of the Jewes is reproued. 11 The Lord alone will be worshipped. 20 Of their deliuerance out of Babylon.

HEare ye this, O house of Iaakob, which are a called by the name of Israel, and are come out of b the waters of Iudah: which sweare by the Name of the Lord, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in trueth, nor in righteousnes.
2 For they are called of the holy citie, & staie themselues c vpon the God of Israel, whose Name is the Lord of hostes.
3 I haue declared ẏ former things of olde, and they went out of my mouth, & I shewed d them:
I did them suddenly, and they came to passe.

b The gouernement shalbe taken from thee.
c Thou shalt be brought to most vile seruitude: for to turne the mill was the office of slaues.
d The things wherein she setteth her greatest pride, shalbe made vile, euen from the head to the foote.
e I will vse no humanitie nor pitie toward thee.
f The Israelites shall confesse, that the Lord doth this for his Churches sake.
g For very shame, and hide thy selfe.
h They abused Gods iudgements, thinking that he punished the Israelites, because he would vtterly cast them off, & therefore in steade of pitying their miserie, thou diddest increase it.
i So that thy punishment shall be so great, as it possible to be imagined.
k Thou diddest thinke that thine owne wisedome and policie would haue saued thee.
l Hee derideth their vaine confidence, that put their trust in any thing but in God, condemning also such vaine sciences, which serue to no vse, but to delude the people, and to bring them from depending onely on God.
m They shall vtterly perish, and no part of them remaine.
n They shall flee euery one to that place, which he thought by his speculations to be most sure: but that shall deceiue them.

a He detecteth their hypocrisie which vaunted themselues to be Israelites & were not so in deede.
b Meaning, the fountaine and spring.
c They make a showe, as though they would haue none other God.
d He sheweth that they could not accuse him in any thing, for as much as hee had performed whatsoeuer hee had promised.

4 Because I knewe, that e thou art obstinate, & thy necke is an yron sinew, & thy brow brasse, 5 Therefore I haue declared it to thee of old:
before it came to passe, I shewed f it thee, lest thou shouldest say, Mine idole hath done them, and my carued image, and my molten image hath commanded them.
6 Thou hast heard, behold all this, & will not ye g declare it? I haue shewed thee newe things, euen now, & hid things, which thou knewest not.
7 They are created nowe, and not of old, and euen before this thou heardest them not, lest thou shouldest say, Beholde, I h knewe them.
8 Yet thou heardest them not, neither diddest know them, neither yet was thine eare opened of olde: for I knewe that thou wouldest grieuously transgresse: therefore haue I called thee a trans-gressour from the i wombe.
9 For my Names sake will I deferre my wrath, and for my praise wil I restraine it from thee, k that I cut thee not off.
10 Behold, I haue fined thee, but l not as siluer:
I haue m chosen thee in the fornace of affliction.
11 For mine owne sake, for mine owne sake will I doe it: for howe should my Name n be polluted? o surely I wil not giue my glory vnto another.
12 Heare me, O Iaakob and Israel, my called,
p I am, I am the first, and I am the last.
13 Surely mine hand hath laide the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heauens: when I cal them, q they stand vp together.
14 All you, assemble your selues, and heare:
which among them hath declared these things?
The Lord hath loued r him: he will doe his will in Babel, and his arme shalbe against the Chaldeans.
15 I, euen I haue spoken it, and I haue called him: I haue brought him, and his way shal prosper.
16 Come neere vnto me: heare ye this: I haue not spoken it in secret from the s beginning: from the time that the thing was, I was there, and nowe the Lord God and his Spirit hath t sent me.
17 Thus saith the Lord thy redeemer, the Holy one of Israel, I am the Lorde thy God, which teach thee u to profite, and lead thee by the way, that thou shouldest goe.
18 Oh that thou haddest hearkened to my commaundements! then had thy prosperitie bene as the flood, and thy righteousnesse as the waues of the sea.
19 Thy seede also had beene as the sande, and the fruite of thy body like the grauell thereof: his x name should not haue bene cut off nor destroyed
before me.
20 y Goe yee out of Babel: flee yee from the Chaldeans, with a voyce of ioy: tel and declare this:
shewe it foorth to the ende of the earth: say ye,
The Lord hath redeemed his seruant Iaakob.
21 And they z were not thirstie: he led them through the wildernesse: he caused the waters to flowe out of the rocke for them: for he claue the rocke, and the water gushed out.
22 There is no a peace, sayeth the Lorde, vnto
the wicked.

CHAP. XLIX.

1 The Lorde exhorteth all nations to beleeue his promisse.

a Christ

e I haue done for thee more then I promised, that thy stubbernesse and impudencie might haue beene ouercome.
f How thou shouldest be deliuered out of Babylon.
g Will ye not acknowledge this my benefite and declare it vnto others?
h Shewing that mans arrogancie is the cause why God doeth not declare all things at once, lest they should attribute this knowledge to their owne wisdome.
i From the time that I brought thee out of Egypt: for that deliuerance was as the birth of ẏ Church.
k As it was my free mercie that I did chuse thee: so is it my free mercie that must saue thee.
l For I had respect to thy weakenesse and infirmitie: for in siluer there is some purenes, but in vs there is nothing but drosse.
m I tooke thee out of the fornace where thou shouldest haue beene consumed.
n God ioyneth the saluation of his w his owne honour: so that they can not perish, but his glory should be diminished, as Deut. 32.27.
o Reade Chap. 42.8.
p Read Chap. 41.4.
q To obey me, and to doe whatsoeuer I command them.
r Meaning, Cyrus, whom he had chosen to destroy Babylon.
s Since the time that I declared my selfe to your fathers.
t Thus the Prophet speaketh for himselfe, and to assure them of these things.
u What things shall do thee good.
x That is, the prosperous estate of Israel. y After that hee had forewarned them of their captiuitie, and of the cause thereof, hee sheweth them the great ioy, that shall come of their deliuerance. z Hee sheweth that it shall be as easie to deliuer them, as he did their fathers out of Egypt. a Thus he speaketh that the wicked hypocrites shoulde not abuse Gods promes, in whome was neither faith nor repentance, as Chapter 57.21.

6 Christ is the saluation of all that beleeue, and will deliuer them from the tyrannie of their enemies.

HEare ye me, O yles, and hearken, ye people from farre. The Lorde hath called [a] me from [b] the wombe, and made mention of my name from my mothers bellie.
2 And he hath made my mouth like a sharpe [c] sworde: vnder the shadowe of his hand hath he [d] hid me, and made me a chosen shaft, and hid me in his quiuer,
3 And said vnto me, Thou art my seruant, [e] Israel, for I will be glorious in thee.
4 And I said, I haue [f] laboured in vaine: I haue spent my strength in vaine and for nothing: but my iudgement is with the Lorde, and my worke with my God.
5 And nowe saieth the Lorde, that formed me from the wombe to bee his seruaunt, that I may bring Iaakob againe to him (though Israel be not gathered, [g] yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the Lord: and my God shall be my strength) 6 And hee saide, It is a small thing that thou shouldest be my seruant, to raise vp the tribes of Iaakob, and to restore the desolations of Israel: I will also giue [h] thee for a light of the Gentiles, that thou maiest be my saluation vnto the ende of the worlde.
7 Thus sayeth the Lorde the redeemer of Israel, and his Holie one, to him that is despised in soule, to a nation that is abhorred, to a [i] seruaunt of rulers, Kings shall see, and [k] arise, and princes shall worship, because of the Lord, that is faithful:
and the Holy one of Israel, which hath chosen thee.
8 Thus saieth the Lorde, [l] In an acceptable time haue I heard thee, and in a day of saluation haue I helped thee: and I will preserue thee, and will giue [m] thee for a couenant of the people, that thou mayest raise vp the [n] earth, and obtaine the inheritance of the desolate heritages:
9 That thou mayest say to the [o] prisoners,
Goe foorth: and to them that are in darkenesse, Shewe your selues: they shall feede in the wayes, and their [p] pastures shall be in all the toppes of the hilles.
10 They shall not be hungrie, neither shall they be thirstie, neither shall the heate smite them, nor the sunne: for he that hath compassion [q] on them, shall leade them: euen to the springs of waters shal he driue them.
11 And I will make all my mountaines, as a way, and my paths shalbe exalted.
12 Beholde, these shall come from farre: and loe, these from the North and from the West, and these from the land of [r] Sinim.
13 Reioyce, O [ſ] heauens: and be ioyfull, O earth: brast foorth into praise, O mountaines: for God hath comforted his people, and will haue mercie vpon his afflicted.
14 But Zion saide, The Lorde hath [t] forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.
15 Can a woman forget her childe, & not haue compassion on the sonne of her wombe? though they should forget, yet will I not forget thee.
16 Behold, I haue grauen thee vpon the palme [illegible] in my sight.
17 Thy builders make [x] haste: thy destroyers and they that made thee waste, are departed from thee.
18 Lift vp thine eies round about and beholde:
all these gather themselues together and come to thee: as I liue, saith the Lorde, thou shalt surely [z] put them all vpon thee as a garment, and gird thy selfe with them like a bride.
19 For thy desolations, and thy waste places, and thy land destroyed, shall surely be now narow for them that shall dwell in it, and they that did deuoure thee, shalbe farre away.
20 The children of thy barennesse shall say againe in thine eares, The place is straict for me:
giue place to me that I may dwell.
21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I am barren and desolate, a captiue and a wanderer to and fro? and who hath nourished them? beholde, I was left alone: whence are these?
22 Thus saieth the Lord God, Beholde, I will lift vp mine hand to the [a] Gentiles, and set vp my standart to the people, and they shall bring thy sonnes in their armes: and thy daughters shall be caried vpon their shoulders.
23 And Kings [b] shall be thy nourcing fathers, and Queenes shalbe thy nources: they shall worship thee with their faces towarde the earth, and licke vp the [c] dust of thy feete: and thou shalt knowe that I am the Lorde: for they shall not be ashamed that waite for me.
24 Shall the pray be [d] taken from the mightie? or the iust captiuitie deliuered?
25 But thus saieth the Lorde, [e] euen the capti-uitie of the mightie shall be taken away: and the pray of the tyrant shal be deliuered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will saue thy children, 26 And will feede them that spoile thee, with [f] their owne flesh, and they shall be drunken with their owne blood, as with sweete wine: and all flesh shall knowe that I the Lorde am thy sauiour and thy redeemer, the mightie one of Iaakob.

a This is spoken in the person of Christ to assure the faithful, that these promises should come to passe: for they were al made in him, and in him should be performed.
b This is meant of the time that Christ should be manifested to the world, as Psal.2.7.
c By the sworde and shaft, he signifieth the vertue & efficacie of Christes doctrine.
d God hath taken me to his protection and defence: this chiefly is meant of Christ, & may also be applied to the ministers of his word.
e By Israel is meant Christ, and all the body of the faithful, as the members & their head.
f Thus Christ in his members complaineth, that his labour, and preaching take none effect, yet hee is contented that his doings are approued of God.
g Though the Iewes refuse my doctrine, yet God will approue my ministerie.
h To declare my Gospel to the Gentiles, Chap.42.6. acts.13.47. luk.2.32.
i Meaning, the Iewes whom tyrants kept in bondage.
k The benefite of their deliuerance shalbe so great, that great & small shall acknowledge it, and reuerence God for it.
l Thus he speaketh of his Church, when he would shew his mercy toward it, 2.Cor.6.2. m Meaning, Christ alone.
n Signifying, that before Christ renue the earth by his worde, there is nothing but confusion & disorder.
o To them that are in the prison of sinne, and death.
p Being in Christs protection they shalbe safe against all dangers, & free from the feare of the enemies.
q Meaning, that there shoulde be nothing in their way from Babylon, that shoulde hinder or hurt them: but this is accomplished spiritually.
r Meaning, the South countrey, so that Christ shall deliuer his from all the partes of the worlde.
ſ Reade Chap.44.23.
t Hee obiecteth what the faithfull might say in their long affliction, and answereth the same to comfort them, with a most proper similitude, and full of consolation.

u Because I would not forget thee.
x Meaning, the good order of policie & discipline.
y I haue a continuall care to build thee vp againe, and to destroy thine enemies.
z Hee sheweth what are the ornaments of the Church: to haue many children, which are assembled by the worde of God and gouerned by his Spirit.
a He sheweth that Christ will not onely gather this great number of the Iewes, but also of the Gentiles.
b Meaning that Kings shalbe conuerted to the Gospel and bestowe their power, and authoritie for the preseruation of the Church.
c Being ioyned with the Church they shall humble themselues to Christ their head, and giue him all honour.
d He maketh this as an obiection, as though the Caldeans were strong, and had them in iust possession.
e This is the answere to their obiection, that none is stronger then the Lord, neither hath a more iust title vnto them.
f I will cause them to destroy one another, as Iudg.7.22. 2.Chronicles 20.22. Chapter 19.2.

CHAP. L.

1 The Iewes forsaken for a time. 2 Yet the power of God is not diminished. 5 Christes obedience and victorie.

THus saieth the Lorde, Where is that [a] bill of your mothers diuorcement, [b] whom I haue cast off? or who is the creditour [c] to whom I solde you? Beholde, for your iniquities are yee solde, and because of your transgressions is your mother forsaken.
2 Wherefore [d] came I, and there was no man?
I called, and none answered: is mine hand so [e] shortened, that it cannot helpe? or haue I no power to deliuer? Beholde, at my rebuke I drie vp the Sea:
I make the floods desert: their fish rotteth for want of water, and dieth for thirst.
3 I clothe the heauens with darkenesse, and make a [f] sacke their couering.
4 The Lorde God hath giuen [g] me a tongue of the learned, that I shoulde knowe to minister a word in time to him that is [h] weary: he will raise a Meaning, that he had not forsaken her, but through her owne occasion, as Hosea 2.2. b Which should declare that I haue cut her off: meaning, that they could shewe none.

c Signifying that he sold them not for any dette or pouertie, but that they solde themselues to serue to buy their owne lustes & pleasures.
d He came by his prophets and ministers, but they would not beleeue their doctrine and conuert.
e Am I not able to helpe you, as I haue holpen your fathers of olde, when I dried vp the red Sea, and killed the fish in the riuers, and also afterwarde in Iorden?
f As I did in Egypt in token of my displeasure, Exodus 10.21.
g The Prophet doeth represent here the person and charge of them that are iustly called to the ministerie of Gods worde.
h To him that is oppressed by affliction and miserie.

me

me vp in the [illegible] he wil waken mine eare to [illegible] learned.
5 The Lord God hath opened mine eare and I was not rebellious, neither turned I backe.
6 I gaue my backe vnto the [k] smiters, and my cheekes to the nippers: I hidde not my face from shame and spitting.
7 For the Lord God will helpe me, therefore shall I not bee confounded: therefore haue I set my face like a flint, and I knowe that I shal not be ashamed.
8 Hee is neere that iustifieth mee: who will contend with me? Let vs stande together: who is mine aduersarie? let him come neere to me.
9 Beholde, the Lord God wil helpe me: who is he that can condemne me? loe, they shall waxe olde as a garment: the mothe shal eate them vp.
10 [l] Who is among you that feareth the Lord?
let him heare the voyce of his seruant: hee that walketh in darkenesse, and hath no light, let him trust in the Name of the Lorde, and stay vpon his God.
11 Beholde, all you kindle [m] a fire, and are compassed about with sparkes: walke in the light of your fire, and in the sparkes that yee haue kindled. This shall yee haue of mine hand: ye shall lye downe in sorowe.

CHAP. LI.

1 To trust in God alone by Abrahams example. 7 Not to feare men. 17 The great affliction of Ierusalem, and her deliuerance.

HEare me, ye [a] that followe after righteousnes, and ye that seeke the Lorde: looke vnto the [b] rocke, whence ye are hewen, and to the hole of the pit, whence ye are digged.
2 Consider Abraham your father, and Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.
3 Surely the Lord shal comfort Zion: he shall comfort all her desolations, and he shal make her desert [c] like Eden, and her wildernes like the garden of the Lord: ioye and gladnesse shalbe found therein: prayse, and the voyce of singing.
4 Hearken ye vnto me, my people, and giue eare vnto me, O my people: for a [d] Lawe shal pro-ceede from me, and I wil bring foorth my iudge-ment for the light of the people.
5 My [e] righteousnesse is neere: my saluation goeth foorth, and mine [f] armes shall iudge the people: the yles shal waite for me, and shall trust vnto mine arme.
6 Lift vp your eyes to the heauens, and looke vpon the earth beneath: for the [g] heauens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall waxe olde like a garment, and they that dwell therein, shall perish in like maner: but my saluation shall be for euer, and my righteousnesse shall not bee abolished.
7 Hearken vnto me, ye that know righteous-nesse, the people in whose heart is my Lawe. Feare ye not the reproche of men, neither be ye afraide of their rebukes.
8 For the mothe shal eate them vp like a garment, and the worme shall eate them like wooll:
but my righteousnesse shalbe for euer, and my sal-uation from generation to generation.
9 Rise vp, rise vp, and put on strength, O arme of the Lord: rise vp as [h] in the olde time in the generations of the worlde. Art not thou the same, that hath cutte [i] Rahab, and wounded the [k] dragon?

[i] As they that are taught, and made meete by him.
[k] I did not shrinke from God for any persecution or calamitie. Whereby he sheweth, that the true ministers of God can looke for none other recompence of the wicked but after this sort, and also what is their comfort.
[l] Shewing that it is a rare thing that any should obey aright Gods true ministers, though they labour to bring them from hell to heauen.
[m] You haue sought consolation by your owne deuises, and haue refused the light and consolation, which God hath offered: therefore ye shall remaine in sorowe, and not be comforted.

[a] He comforteth the Church, that they should not be discouraged for their small nomber.
[b] That is, to Abraham, of whome ye were begotten, and to Sarah, of whome ye were borne.
[c] As plentifull as Paradise, Gen. 2. 3.
[d] I will rule, and gouerne my Church by my word, & doctrine.
[e] The time that I wil accomplish my promes.
[f] My power, and strength.
[g] He forewarneth them of the horrible changes and mutations of all things, and how he wil preserue his Church in the midst of all these dangers.
[h] He putteth them in remembrance of his great benefite for their deliuerance out of Egypt, that thereby they might learne to trust in him constantly.
[i] Meaning Egypt, Psalme 87. 4.
[k] To wit, Pharaoh, Ezek. 29. 3.

10 Art not thou the same, which hath dried the Sea, euen the waters of the great deepe, making the depth of the Sea a way for the redeemed to passe ouer?
11 Therefore the redeemed of the Lord shall [l] returne, and come with ioye vnto Zion, and euerlasting ioye shalbe vpon their head: they shall obteine ioye, and gladnesse: and sorow and mourning shall flee away.
12 I, euen I am he, that comfort you. Who art thou, that thou shouldest feare a mortall man, and the sonne of man, which shalbe made as grasse?
13 And forgettest the Lorde thy maker, that hath spred out the heauens, and layde the foundations of the earth? and hast feared continually all the day, because of the rage of the oppressour, which is ready to destroy? Where is now the rage of the oppressour?
14 The captiue [m] hasteneth to be loosed, and that hee should not die in the pitte, nor that his bread should faile.
15 And I am the Lorde thy God that deuided the Sea, when his waues roared: the Lord of hostes is his Name.
16 And I haue put my wordes in thy [n] mouth, and haue defended thee in the shadowe of mine hand, that I may plant the [o] heauens, and lay the foundation of the earth, and say vnto Zion, Thou art my people.
17 Awake, awake, and stand vp, O Ierusalem, which hast drunke at the hande of the Lorde the [p] cup of his wrath: thou hast drunken the dregges of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.
18 There is none to guide her among all the sonnes, whome she hath brought foorth: there is none that taketh her by the hand of all the sonnes that she hath brought vp.
19 These two [q] things are come vnto thee:
who wil lament thee? desolation and destruction and famine, and the sworde: by whome shall I comfort thee?
20 Thy sonnes haue fainted, and lye at the head of all the streetes as a wilde bull in a nette, and are full of the wrath of the Lorde, and rebuke of thy God.
21 Therefore heare nowe this, thou miserable and drunken, but [r] not with wine.
22 Thus saith thy Lorde God, euen God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Beholde, I haue taken out of thine hande the cuppe of trembling, euen the dregges of the cuppe of my wrath: thou shalt drinke it no more.
23 But I will put it into their hand that spoyle thee: which haue said to thy soule, Bowe downe, that wee may goe ouer, and thou hast layde thy bodie as the grounde, and as the streete to them that went ouer.

CHAP. LII.

1 A consolation to the people of God. 7 Of the messengers thereof.

ARise, arise: put on thy strength, O Zion: put on the garments of thy beautie, O Ierusalem, the holy citie: for henceforth there shall no [a] more come into thee the vncircumcised and the vncleane.
2 Shake thy selfe from the [b] dust: arise, and sit downe, O Ierusalem: loose the bandes of thy necke, O thou captiue daughter, Zion.
3 For thus sayth the Lorde, Yee were solde

[l] From Babylon.
[m] He comforteth them by the short time of their banishment; for in seuenty yeres they were restored, and the greatest empire of the world destroyed.
[n] Meaning of Isaiah, and of all true ministers, who are defended by his protection.
[o] That all things may be restored in heauen and earth, Ephes. 1. 10.
[p] Thou hast been iustly punished and sufficiently as Chap. 40. 2. & this punishment in the elect is by measure, and according as God giueth grace to beare it: but in the reprobate it is the iust vengeance of God to driue them to an insensiblenesse and madnes, as Ier. 25. 15, 16.
[q] Whereof the one is outward, as of the things that come to the bodie, as warre and famine; and the other is inward, and perteineth to the minde: that is, to be without comfort: therefore he sayth, how shall thou be comforted?
[r] But with trouble and feare.
[a] No wicked tyrant, which shall subuert Gods true religion, and oppresse the consciences.
[b] Put off the garments of sorow & heauines, & put on the apparel of ioye and gladnes.

for e nought: therefore shall it be redeemed without money.

4 For thus saith the Lorde God, My people went d downe afore time into Egypt to soiourne there, and Ashur e oppressed them without cause.

5 Nowe therefore what haue I here, saith the Lorde, that my people is taken away for nought, & they that rule ouer them, make them to howle, saith the Lorde? and my Name all the day continually is f blasphemed?

6 Therefore my people shal know my Name: therefore they shall know in that day, that I am he that doe speake: beholde, it is I.

7 How g beautifull vpon the mountaines are the feete of him, that declareth and publisheth peace? that declareth good tidings, and publisheth saluation, saying vnto Zion, thy God reigneth?

8 h The voyce of thy watchmen shalbe heard: they shall lift vp their voyce, and shoute together: for they shall see eye to eye, when the Lord shall bring againe Zion.

9 O ye desolate places of Ierusalem, bee glad and reioyce together: for the Lord hath comforted his people: he hath redeemed Ierusalem.

10 The Lord hath made i bare his holy arme in the sight of all the Gentiles, and all the endes of the earth shall see the saluation of our God.

11 k Depart, depart ye: goe ye out from thence and touche no vncleane thing: goe out of the middes of her: be ye cleane, that l beare the vessels of the Lord.

12 For ye shall not goe out m with haste, nor depart by fleeing away: but the Lorde will goe before you, and the God of Israel will gather you together.

13 Beholde, my n seruant shall prosper: he shal be exalted and extolled, and be very hie.

14 As many were astonied at thee (his visage was so o deformed of men, and his forme of the sonnes of men) so p shall he sprinkle many nations: the Kings shall shut their q mouthes at him: for that which had not bene tolde them, shall they see, and that which they had not heard, shall they r vnderstande.

c The Babylonians payde nothing to me for you: therefore I will take you againe without ransome.
d When Iaakob went thither in time of famine.
e The Egyptians might pretende some cause to oppresse my people because they went thither and remained among them, but the Assyrians haue no title to excuse their tyrannie by: and therefore will I punish them more then I did the Egyptians.
f To wit, by the wicked, which thinke that I haue no power to deliuer them.
g Signifying, that the ioy and good tidings of their deliuerance should make their affliction in the meane time more easie: but this is chiefly meant of the spirituall ioy, as Nahum 1.15. rom. 10.15.
h The Prophets which are thy watchmen shall publish this thy deliuerance: this was begun vnder Zerubbabel, Ezra and Nehemiah, but was accomplished vnder Christ.
i As ready to smite his enemies and to deliuer his people.
k He warneth the faithfull not to pollute them selues with the superstitions of the Babylonians, as Chapter 48.20. 2.Cor.6.17.
l For the time is at hand, that the Priestes and Leuites chiefely (and so by them all the people which shalbe as Leuites in this office) shal carie home the vessels of the Temple which Nebuchadnezzar had taken away.
m As your fathers did out of Egypt.
n Meaning, Christ, by whom our spirituall deliuerance should be wrought, whereof this was a figure.
o In the corrupt iudgement of man, Christ in his person was not esteemed.
p He shall spread his worde through many nations.
q In signe of reuerence, and as being astonished at his excellencie.
r By the preaching of the Gospel.

CHAP. LIII.

1 Of Christ and his kingdome, whose worde fewe will beleeue. 6 All men are sinners. 11 Christ is our righteousnesse, 12 And is dead for our sinnes.

WHo a will beleeue our report? and to whom is the b arme of the Lord reueiled?

2 But hee shall growe vp before him as a branche, and as a c roote out of a dry d grounde: he hath neither forme nor beautie: when we shall see him, there shall be no forme that wee should desire him.

3 He is despised and rejected of men: he is a man full of sorowes and hath experience of e infirmities: we hidde as it were our faces from him: he was despised and we esteemed him not.

4 Surely he [illegible] infirmities, and caried f our sorowes: [illegible] iudge him, as g plagued, and smitten of God, and humbled.

5 But hee was wounded for our transgressions, hee was broken for our iniquities: the h chastisement of our peace was vpon him, and with his stripes we are healed.

6 All wee like sheepe haue gone astraye: we haue turned euery one to his owne way, and the Lord hath layed vpon him the i iniquitie of vs all.

7 Hee was oppressed and he was afflicted, yet did he not k open his mouth: he is brought as a sheepe to the slaughter, and as a sheepe before her shearer is dumme, so he openeth not his mouth.

7 Hee was taken out from l prison, and from iudgement: m and who shall declare his age? for he was cut out of the lande of the liuing: for the transgression of my people was he plagued.

9 n And he made his graue with the wicked, and with the riche in his death, though hee had done no wickednesse, neither was any deceite in his mouth.

10 Yet the Lord would breake him, and make him subiect to infirmities: when o hee shall make his soule an offering for sinne, he shall see his seede and shall prolong his dayes, and the will of the Lord shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the p trauaile of his soule, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my q righteous seruant iustifie many: for hee shall beare their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I giue him a portion with the great, and he shall deuide the spoyle with the strong, because hee r hath powred out his soule vnto death: and he was counted with the transgressers, & he bare the sinne s of many, and prayed for the trespassers.

a The Prophet sheweth that very fewe shall receiue this their preaching of Christ, and of their deliuerance by him, Iohn 12.38. rom.10.16.
b Meaning, that none can beleeue, but whose hearts God toucheth with the vertue of his holy Spirit.
c The beginning of Christes kingdome shalbe small and contemptible in the sight of man, but it shall growe wonderfully, and flourish before God.
d Reade Chap. 11.1.
e Which was by Gods singular prouidence for the comfort of sinners, Ebrewes 4.15.
f That is, the punishment due to our sinnes: for the which hee hath both suffered, and made satisfaction, Matth.8.17. 1.pet.2.24.
g Wee iudged euil, thinking that he was punished for his owne sinnes, and not for ours.
h He was chastised for our reconciliation, 1.Corin.15.3.
i Meaning, the punishment of our iniquitie, and not the fault it selfe.
k But willingly, and patiently obeyed his fathers appointment, Mat.26.63. Act.8.32.
l From the crosse, and graue after that he was condemned.
m Though he died for sinne, yet after his resurrection he shall liue for euer: and this his death is to restore life to his members, Rom.6.9.
n God the Father deliuered him into the hands of the wicked, and to the powers of the world to doe with him what they would.
o Christ by offering vp himselfe shall giue life to his Church, & so cause them to liue with him for euer.
p That is, the fruite and effect of his labour, which is the saluation of his Church.
q Christ shall iustifie by faith through his worde, whereas Moses could not iustifie by the Law.
r Because he humbled him selfe, therefore he shalbe exalted to glory, Phil.2.7,&c. to verse 12.
s That is, of all that beleeue in him.

CHAP. LIIII.

1 Moe of the Gentiles shall beleeue the Gospell then of the Iewes. 7 God leaueth his for a time, to whome afterwarde he sheweth mercie.

REioyce, O a barren that diddest not beare: breake foorth into ioy and reioyce, thou that diddest not trauaile with childe: for the b desolate hath moe children then the married wife, sayeth the Lorde.

2 c Enlarge the place of thy tents, & let them spread out the curtaines of thine habitations: spare not, stretch out thy cords & make fast thy stakes.

3 For thou shalt increase on the right hande and on the left, and thy seede shall possesse the Gentiles, and dwell in the desolate cities.

4 Feare not: for thou shalt not be ashamed, neither shalt thou be confounded: for thou shalt not bee put to shame: yea, thou shalt forget the shame of thy d youth, and shalt not remember the reproch of thy e widowhoode any more.

5 For he that f made thee, is thine husband (whose Name is the Lorde of hostes) and thy redeemer the Holy one of Israel, shall be called the

a After that he hath declared the death of Christ, he speaketh to the Church, because it should feele the fruit of the same, & calleth her barren, because that in the captiuitie she was as a widowe without hope to haue any children.
b The Church in this her affliction and captiuitie shal bring foorth moe childre then when she was at libertie: or this may be spoken by admiration, considering the great nomber that should come of her. Her deliuerance vnder Cyrus was as her childehoode, and therefore this was accomplished, when she came to her age, which was vnder the Gospel.
c Signifying, that for the great nomber of children, that God should giue her, she should seeme to want roome to lodge them.
d The afflictions which thou suffredst at the beginning.
e When as thou wast refused for thy sinnes, Chap. 50.1.
f That did regenerate thee by his holy Spirit.

God of the whole g world.
6 For the Lord hath called thee, being as a woman forsaken, and afflicted in spirite, and as a h yong wife when thou wast refused, sayth thy God.
7 For a litle while haue I forsaken thee, but with great compassion will I gather thee.
8 For a moment, in mine anger, I hid my face from thee for a litle season, but with euerlasting mercy haue I had compassion on thee, sayth the Lord thy redeemer.
9 For this is vnto me as the i waters of Noah:
for as I haue sworne that the waters of Noah should no more goe ouer the earth, so haue I sworne that I would not be angrie with thee, nor rebuke thee.
10 For the mountaines shall remoue and the hilles shall fall downe: but my mercy shall not depart from thee, neither shall the couenant of my peace fall away, sayth the Lord, he hath compassion on thee.
11 O thou afflicted and tossed with tempest, that hast no comfort, beholde, I wil lay thy stones with k the carbuncle, and lay thy foundation with saphirs,
12 And I will make thy windowes of || emeraudes, and thy gates shining stones, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.
13 And all thy children shalbe l taught of the Lord, and much peace shalbe to thy children.
14 In m righteousnesse shalt thou be established, and be farre from oppression: for thou shalt not feare it: and from feare: for it shall not come neere thee.
15 Beholde, the enemie shall gather himselfe, but without n me: whosoeuer shall gather himselfe in thee, o against thee, shall fall.
16 Behold, I haue created the p smith that bloweth the coales in the fire, and him that bringeth forth an instrument for his worke, & I haue created the destroyer to destroy.
17 But all the weapons that are made against thee, shall not prosper: and euery tongue that shall rise against thee in iudgement, thou shalt condemne. This is the heritage of the Lords ser-uants, and their righteousnesse is of me, sayth
the Lorde.

g His glory shall shine through the whole worlde, which seemed before to be shut vp in Iudea.
h As a wife which was forsaken in thy youth.
i As sure as the promes that I made to Noah, that the waters should no more ouerflowe the earth.
k Hereby he declareth the excellent estate of the Church vnder Christ.
|| Or, iasper, or pearle.
l By the hearing of his worde and inward mouing of his Spirit.
m In stabilitie and firenes so that it shall stand for euer.
n And therefore shall not preuaile.
o Meaning, the domesticall enemies of y Church as are the hypocrites.
p Signifying here by that man can doe nothing, but so farre as God giueth power: for seeing that all are his creatures, he must needes gouerne and guide them.

CHAP. LV.

1 An exhortation to come to Christ. 8 Gods counsels are not as mans. 12 The ioy of the faithfull.

HO, euery one that a thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and ye that haue b no siluer, come, bye and eate: come, I say, bye c wine and milke without siluer and without money.
2 Wherefore doe ye lay out siluer and not for bread? d and your labour without being satisfied?
hearken diligently vnto me, and eate that which is good, and let your soule delite in e fatnes.
3 Encline your eares, and come vnto me:
heare, and your soule shal liue, and I will make an euerlasting couenant with you, euen the f sure mercies of Dauid.
4 Beholde, I gaue g him for a witnes to the people, for a prince and a master vnto the people.

a Christ by proposing his graces and giftes to his Church exempteth the hypocrites which are full with their imagined workes, and the Epicures, which are full with their worldly lustes and so thirst not after these waters.
b Signifying, that Gods benefits can not be bought for money.

c By waters, wine, milke and bread, he meaneth all things necessarie to the spirituall life, as these are necessarie to this corporall life. d Hee reproueth their ingratitude which refuse those things that God offereth willingly, and in the meane time spare neither cost nor labour to obteine those, which are nothing profitable. e You shalbe fed abundantly. f The same couenant, which through my mercie, I ratified and confirmed to Dauid, that it should be eternall, 2.Sam. 7.15. actes 13.34. g Meaning, Christ, of whome Dauid was a figure.

5 Beholde, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, h and a nation that knew not thee, shall runne vnto thee, because of the Lorde thy God, and the holy one of Israel: for hee hath glorified thee.
6 Seeke ye the Lord while he may i be found:
call ye vpon him while he is neere.
7 Let the wicked k forsake his wayes, and the vnrighteous his owne imaginations, and returne vnto the Lord, and he will haue mercie vp-on him: and to our God, for he is very ready to forgiue.
8 For my l thoughtes are not your thoughts, neither are your wayes my wayes, sayth the Lord.
9 For as the heauens are higher then the earth, so are my wayes higher then your wayes, and my thoughtes aboue your thoughts.
10 Surely as the raine commeth downe and the snow from heauen, and returneth not thither but watereth the earth and maketh it to bring forth and bud, that it may giue seede to the sower, and bread vnto him that eateth, 11 So shall my m worde be, that goeth out of my mouth: it shall not returne vnto me voyde, but it shall accomplish that which I will, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.
12 Therefore ye shall go out with ioy, and be led forth with peace: the n mountaines and the hilles shall breake foorth before you into ioye, and all the trees of the fielde shall clap their
handes.
13 For thornes there shal grew firre trees: for nettles shall growe the myrrhe tree, and it shalbe to the Lord o for a name, and for an euerlasting p signe that shall not be taken away.

h To wit, the Gentiles, which before thou diddest not receiue to be thy people.
i When he offereth himselfe by y preaching of his word.
k Hereby he sheweth that repentance must be ioyned with faith, & how we cannot call vpon God aright, except the fruites of our fayth appeare.
l Although you are not soone reconciled one to an other and iudge mee by your selues, yet I am most easie to be reconciled, yea I offer my mercies to you.
m If these small things haue their effect, as dayly experience sheweth, much more shall my promes which I haue made and confirmed, bring to passe the thing which I haue spoken for your deliuerance.
n Reade Chap. 44.23 and 49.13.
o To set foorth his glory.
p Of Gods deliuerance, and that he will neuer forsake his Church.

CHAP. LVI.

1 An exhortation to iudgement and iustice. 10 Against shepheards that deuoure their flocke.

THus saith the Lorde, a Keepe iudgement and doe iustice: for my saluation is at hand to come, and my b righteousnes to be reueiled.
2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the sonne of man which layeth holde on it: hee that keepeth the c Sabbath and polluteth it not,
and keepeth his hand from doing any euill.
3 And let not the sonne of the stranger, which d is ioyned to the Lorde, speake and say, The Lord hath surely separate me from his people: neither let the Eunuch say, Beholde, I am a drye tree.
4 For thus sayth the Lord vnto the Eunuches, that keepe my Sabbaths, and chuse the thing that pleaseth me, and take holde of my couenant, 5 Euen vnto them will I giue in mine e House and within my walles, a place and a f name better then of the sonnes and of the daughters: I will giue them an euerlasting name, that shall not be put out.
6 Also the strangers that cleaue vnto the Lord, to serue him, and to loue the Name of the Lorde, and to be his seruants: euery one that keepeth the Sabbath, and polluteth it not and imbraceth my couenant,
7 Them will I bring also to mine holy moun-taine, and make them ioyfull in mine House of prayer: their burnt g offerings and their sacrifices shalbe accepted vpon mine altar: for mine

a God sheweth what he requireth of them after that he hath deliuered them: to wit, the workes of charitie whereby true faith is declared.
b Which I will declare towarde you and power into your hearts by my Spirit.
c Vnder the Sabbath he comprehendeth y whole seruice of God and true religion.
d Let none thinke himselfe vnmeete to receiue the graces of the Lorde, for the Lord will take away all impediments, and will forsake none which will keepe his true religion and beleeue in him.
e Meaning, in his Church.
f They shall be called after my people and be of the same religion, yea, vnder Christ the dignitie of the faithfull shall be greater then the Iewes were at that time. g Hereby he meaneth the spirituall seruice of God, [illegible] whome the faithfull offer continuall thankesgiuing, yea themselues and all that they haue as a [illegible] and acceptable sacrifice.

House shall be called an house of prayer for [h] all people.
8 The Lord God sayth, which gathereth the scattered of Israel, Yet wil I gather to them those that are to be gathered to them.
9 All ye [i] beastes of the fielde, come to deuoure, euen all ye beastes of the forest.
10 Their [k] watchmen are all blinde: they haue no knowledge: they are all dumme dogs: they can not barke: they lye and sleepe and delight in sleeping.
11 And these griedy dogs can neuer haue ynough: and these shepheards cannot vnderstand:
for they all looke to their owne way, euery one for his aduantage, and for his owne purpose.
12 Come, I will bring wine, and we wil fill our selues with strong drinke, and to [l] morowe shalbe as this day, and much more abundant.

h Not onely for the Iewes but for all others, Matth. 21.13.
i Meaning the enemies of the Church, as the Babylonians, Assyrians, &c. thus he speaketh to feare the hypocrites and to assure the faithfull, that when this commeth, they may know it was tolde them before.
k He sheweth that this affliction shall come through the fault of the gouernours, Prophets and pastours, whose ignorance, negligence, auarice and obstinacie prouoked Gods wrath against them.
l We are well yet, and to morowe shall be better: therefore let vs not feare the plagues before they come: thus the wicked contemned the admonitions and exhortations which were made them in the Name of God.

CHAP. LVII.

1 God taketh away the good, that he should not see the horrible plagues to come. 3 Of the wicked idolaters, 9 And their vaine confidence.

The righteous perisheth, and no man considereth it in heart: and mercifull men are taken away, and no man vnderstandeth that the righteous is taken away [a] from the euill to come.
2 [b] Peace shall come: they shall rest in their beds, euery one that walketh before him.
3 But you [c] witches children, come hither, the seede of the adulterer and of the whore.
4 On whome haue ye iested? vpon whome haue ye gaped and thrust out your tongue? are not ye rebellious children, and a false seede?
5 Inflamed with idoles vnder euery greene tree? and sacrificing the [d] children in the valleys vnder the tops of the rockes?
6 Thy portion is in the smooth stones [e] of the riuer: they, they are thy lot: euen to them hast thou powred a drinke offering: thou hast offered a sacrifice. Should I delite in [f] these?
7 Thou hast made thy [g] bed vpon a very hie mountaine: thou wentest vp thither, euen thither wentest thou to offer sacrifice.
8 Behinde the [h] doores also and postes hast thou set vp thy remembrance: for thou hast discouered thy selfe to another then me, and wentest vp, and diddest [i] enlarge thy bed, and make a couenant betweene thee & them, and louedst their bed in euery place where thou sawest it.
9 Thou wentest [k] to the Kings with oyle, and diddest increase thine oyntments and sende thy messengers farre off, and diddest humble thy selfe vnto hell.
10 Thou wearieddst thy selfe in thy manifolde iourneys, yet saydest thou not, [l] There is no hope:
thou [m] hast found life by thine hand, therefore thou wast not grieued.
11 And whome diddest thou reuerence or feare, seeing thou hast [n] lyed vnto me, and hast not remembred me, neither set thy minde thereon? is it not because I holde my peace, & that of long [o] time? therefore thou fearest not me.
12 I wil declare thy [p] righteousnes and thy workes, and they shall not profite thee.
13 When thou cryest, let them that thou hast gathered together deliuer thee: but the winde shall [q] take them all away: vanitie shal pull them away: but he that trusteth in me, shall inherite the lande, and shall possesse mine holy Mountaine.
14 [r] And he shall say, Cast vp, cast vp: prepare the way: take vp the stumbling blocks out of the way of my people.
15 For thus sayth he that is hie and excellent, he that inhabiteth the eternitie, whose Name is the holy one, I dwell in the high and holy place: with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirite to reuiue the spirite of the humble, and to giue life to them that are of a contrite heart.
16 For I will not contende for euer, neither will I be alwayes wroth, [s] for the spirite should faile before me: and I haue made the breath.
17 For his wicked [t] couetousnesse I am angry with him, and haue smitten him: I hid mee and was angry, yet he went away, and turned after the way of his owne heart.
18 I haue seene his wayes, and will [u] heale him:
I wil leade him also, & restore comfort vnto him,
and to those that lament him.
19 I create the [x] fruite of the lips, to be peace:
peace vnto them that are [y] farre off, and to them that are neere, sayth the Lorde: for I will heale him.
20 But the wicked are like the raging sea, that can [z] not rest, whose waters cast vp myre and dirt.
21 There is no peace, sayth my God, to the wicked.

a From the plague that is at hand, and also because God will punish the wicked.
b The soule of the righteous shal be in ioy & their body shall rest in the graue vnto the time of the resurrection, because they walked before the Lord.
c He threatneth the wicked hypocrites, who vnder the pretence of the name of Gods people derided Gods word & his promises: boasting openly that they were the children of Abraham, but because they were not faithfull and obedient as Abraham was, he called them bastards, and the children of sorcerers, which forsooke God and fled to wicked meanes for succour.
d Reade Leuit. 18. 21. 2. king. 23. 10.
e Meaning, euery place was polluted with their idolatrie: or euery faire stone that they found, they made an idole of it.
f In the sacrifices which you, offring before these idoles, thought you did serue God.
g To wit, thine altars, in an open place like an impudent harlot that careth not for the sight of her husband.
h In steade of setting vp the worde of God in the open places or the postes and doores to haue it in remembrance, Deut. 6. 9. & 27. 1. thou hast set vp signes and markes of thine idolatrie in euery place.
i That is, diddest increase thine idolatrie more and more.
k Thou diddest seeke the fauour of the Assyrians by giftes and presents, to helpe thee against the Egyptians: and when they failed, thou soughtest to the Babylonians, and more and more diddest torment thy selfe.

n Broken promes with me.
o Meaning that the wicked abuse Gods lenitie and growe to farther wickednes.
p That is, thy naughtines, idolatries and impieties: which the wicked call Gods seruice: thus he derideth their obstinacie.
q Meaning, the Assyrians and other, whose helpe they looked for.
r God shall say to Darius and Cyrus.
s I will not vse my power against fraile man whose life is but a blast.
t That is, for the vices and faultes of the people, which is meant here by couetousnesse.
u Though they were obstinate, yet I did not withdraw my mercy from them.
x That is, I frame the speach and wordes of my messengers which shall bring peace.
y As wel to him that is in captiuitie as to him that remaineth at home.
z Their euill conscience doeth euer torment them, and therefore they can neuer haue rest, reade Chap. 48. 22.

CHAP. LVIII.

1 The office of Gods ministers. 2 The workes of the hypocrites. 6 The fast of the faithfull. 13 Of the true Sabbath.

Crye [a] aloude, spare not: lift vp thy voyce like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and to the house of Iaakob, their sinnes.
2 Yet they [b] seeke me dayly, and will knowe my wayes, euen as a nation that did righteously, and had not forsaken the statutes of their God:
they aske of me the ordinances of iustice: they will drawe neere vnto God, saying, 3 [c] Wherefore haue we fasted, and thou seest it not? we haue punished our selues, and thou regardest it not. Beholde, in the day of your fast you will seeke [d] your will, and require all your dettes.
4 Beholde, ye fast to strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickednesse: ye shall not fast as ye doe to day, to make your voyce to be [e] heard aboue.
5 Is it such a fast that I haue chosen, that a man should afflict his soule for a day, and to bowe

a The Lord thus speaketh to the Prophet, willing him to vse all diligence and seueritie to rebuke the hypocrites.
b They will seeme to worship me and haue outward holinesse.
c Hee setteth forth the malice and disdaine of the hypocrites which grudge against God, if their workes be not accepted.
d Thus he conuinceth the hypocrites by the second table and their duetie toward their neighbour that they haue neither faith nor religion.
e So long as you vse contention and oppression, your fasting and prayer shall not be heard.

downe

downe his head, as a bull rush, and to lie downe in sackecloth and ashes? wilt thou call this a fasting, or an acceptable day to the Lord?

6 Is not this the fasting, that I haue chosen, to loose the bands of wickednesse, to take off the heauie burdens, and to let the oppressed goe free, and that ye breake euery [f] yoke?

7 Is it not to deale thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poore that wander, vnto thine house? when thou seest the naked, that thou couer him, and hide not thy selfe from [g] thine owne flesh?

8 Then shall thy [h] light breake foorth as the morning, and thine health shall grow speedily: thy [i] righteousnes shall goe before thee, and the glorie of the Lord shall embrace thee.

9 Then shalt thou call, and the Lorde shall answere: thou shalt cry and hee shall say, Here I am: if thou take away from the mids of thee the yoke, the putting foorth of the [k] finger, and wicked speaking:

10 If thou [l] powre out thy soule to the hungry, and refresh the troubled soule: then shall thy light spring out in the [m] darkenes, and thy darkenes shalbe as the noone day.

11 And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfie thy soule in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watred garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters faile not.

12 And they shalbe of thee, that shall builde the olde [n] waste places: thou shalt raise vp the foundations for many generations, and thou shalt be called the repairer of the breach and the restorer of the pathes to dwell in.

13 If thou [o] turne away thy foote from the Sabbath, from doing thy will on mine holy day, and call the Sabbath a delite, to consecrate it, as glorious to the Lorde, and shalt honour him, not doing thine owne wayes, nor seeking thine owne will, nor speaking a vaine worde,

14 Then shalt thou delite in the Lord, & I will cause thee to mount vpon the hie places of the earth, and feede thee with the heritage of Iaakob thy father: for the mouth of ye Lord hath spoken it.

f That you leaue off all your extortions.
g For in him thou seest thy selfe as in a glasse.
h That is, the prosperous estate, wherewith God will blesse thee.
i The testimonie of thy goodnesse shall appeare before God & man.
k Whereby is ment all maner of iniurie.
l That is, haue compassion on their miseries.
m Thine aduersitie shalbe turned into prosperitie.
n Signifying, that of the Iewes should come such, as should build againe the ruines of Ierusalem and Iudea: but chiefly this is ment of the spirituall Ierusalem, whose builders were the Apostles.
o If thou refraine thy selfe from thy wicked workes.

CHAP. LIX.

1 The wicked perish through their owne iniquities. 12 The confession of sinnes. 16 God alone will preserue his Church, though all men faile.

BEholde, * the Lordes hand is not shortened, that it can not saue: neither is his eare heauie,
that it cannot heare.

2 But * your iniquities haue separated betweene you and your God, and your sinnes haue hidde his face from you, that he will not heare.

3 For your handes are defiled with [a] blood, and your fingers with iniquitie: your lips haue spoken lies & your tongue hath murmured iniquitie.

4 No man calleth for iustice: no man [b] contendeth for trueth: they trust in vanitie, & speake vaine things: they conceiue mischiefe, and [c] bring foorth iniquitie.

5 They hatch cockatrice [d] egges, and weaue the spiders [e] webbe: he that eateth of their egges, dieth, and that which is trode vpon, breaketh out into a serpent.

6 Their webbes shall be no garment, neither shall they couer themselues with their labours: for their workes are workes of iniquitie, & the worke of crueltie is in their handes.

7 Their feete runne to euill, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are wicked thoughts: desolation and destruction is in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not, & there is none iniquitie in their goings: they haue made them crooked paths: whosoeuer goeth therein, shall not knowe peace.

9 Therefore is [f] iudgement farre from vs, neither doeth [g] iustice come neere vnto vs: we waite for light, but loe, it is darkenes: for brightnes, but we walke in darkenesse.

10 Wee grope for the wall like the [h] blinde, and we grope as one without eyes: we stumble at the noone day as in the twilight: we are in solitarie places, as dead men.

11 We roare all like [i] beares, and mourne like doues: wee looke for equitie, but there is none:
for health, but it is farre from vs.

12 For our trespasses are many before thee, and our [k] sinnes testifie against vs: for our trespasses are with vs, and we knowe our iniquities

13 In trespassing and lying against the Lorde, and wee haue departed away from our God, and haue spoken of crueltie and rebellion, conceiuing and vttering out of the heart false [l] matters.

14 Therefore [m] iudgement is turned backe-warde, and iustice standeth farre off: for trueth is fallen in the streete, and equitie cannot enter.

15 Yea, trueth faileth, and hee that refraineth from euill, maketh himselfe [n] a praye: and when the Lorde sawe it, it displeased him, that there was no iudgement.

16 And when he sawe that there was no man, hee wondered that none woulde offer him selfe.
[o] Therefore his arme did [p] saue it, and his righte-ousnes it selfe did sustaine it.

17 For he put on righteousnes, as an haberge-on, and an [q] helmet of saluation vpon his head, and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeale as a cloke.

18 As to make recompence, as to requite the furie of the aduersaries with a recompence to his enemies: he wil fully repaire the [r] ylands.

19 So shall they feare the Name of the Lorde from the West, and his glory from the rising of the sunne: for the enemie shal [s] come like a flood:
but the Spirit of the Lord shall chase him away.

20 And the Redeemer shall come vnto Zion, and vnto [t] them that turne from iniquitie in Iaa-kob, saith the Lord.

21 And I will make this my couenant with them, sayth the Lord, My Spirit that is vpon thee, and my wordes, which I haue put in thy mouth, [u] shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seede, nor out of the mouth of the seede of thy seede, saith the Lord, from hence-foorth euen for euer.

q Signifying, that God hath all meanes at hand to deliuer his Church, and to punish their enemies.
r To wit, your enemies, which dwell in diuers places, and beyonde the sea. s Hee sheweth that there shalbe great afflictions in the Church, but God will euer deliuer his.
t Whereby hee declareth that the true deliuerance from sinne and Satan belongeth to none, but to the children of God, whome he iustifieth.
u Because the doctrine is made profitable by the vertue of the spirite, hee ioyneth the one with the other, and promiseth to giue them both to his Church for euer.

CHAP. LX.

3 The Gentiles shall come to the knowledge of the Gospell. 8 They shall come to the Church in abundance. 16 They shall haue abundance, though they suffer for a time.

ARise, O Ierusalem: be bright, for thy [a] light is come, and the glorie of the Lorde is risen vpon thee.

2 For beholde, darkenesse shall couer the [b] earth, and grosse darkenesse the people: but the b Signifying, that all men are in darkenesse till God giue them the light of his Spirit, and that this light shineth to none but to those that are in his Church.

Lord shall arise vpon thee, and his glory shall be seene vpon thee.
3 And the Gentiles shall walke in c thy light, and Kings at the brightnes of thy rising vp.
4 Lift vp thine eyes round about, & beholde:
all d these are gathered, and come to thee: thy sonnes shall come from farre, and thy daughters shalbe nourished at thy side.
5 Then thou shalt see and shine: thine heart shall be astonied e and enlarged, because the multitude of the sea shalbe conuerted vnto thee, and the riches of the Gentiles shall come vnto thee.
6 The f multitude of camels shall couer thee, and the dromedaries of Midian and of Ephah: all they of Sheba shall come: they shall bring golde and incense, and shewe foorth the prayses of the Lorde.
7 All the sheepe of g Kedar shall be gathered vnto thee: the rammes of Nebaioth shall serue thee: they shall come vp to bee accepted vpon mine h altar: and I wil beautifie the house of my glorie.
8 Who are these i that flee like a cloude, and as the doues to their windowes?
9 Surely the yles shall waite for mee, and the shippes k of Tarshish, as at the beginning, that they may bring thy sonnes from farre, and their siluer, and their golde with them, vnto the Name of the Lord thy God, and to the Holy one of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.
10 And the sonnes of strangers shall builde vp thy walles, and their l Kings shall minister vnto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my mercie I had compassion on thee.
11 Therefore thy gates shalbe open continually: neither day nor night shall they be shutte, that men may bring vnto thee the riches of the Gentiles, and that their Kings may be brought.
12 For the nation and the m kingdome, that will not serue thee, shall perish: and those nations shalbe vtterly destroyed.
13 The n glory of Lebanon shall come vnto thee, the firre tree, the elme and the boxe tree together, to beautifie the place of my Sanctuarie: for
I will glorifie the place of my o feete.
14 The sonnes also of them that afflicted thee, shall come and bowe vnto thee: and all they that despised thee, shall fall p downe at the soules of thy feete: and they shall call thee, The citie of the Lord, Zion of the Holy one of Israel.
15 Where as thou hast bene forsaken and hated, so that no man went by thee, I wil make thee an eternall glory, and a ioye from generation to generation.
16 Thou shalt also sucke ẏ milke of the Gentiles, and shalt sucke the q breastes of Kings: and thou shalt know, that I the Lord am thy Sauiour, and thy Redeemer, the mightie one of Iaakob.
17 For brasse will I bring golde, and for yron will I bring siluer, and for wood brasse, and for stones yron. I will also make thy gouernement r peace, and thine exactours righteousnesse.
18 Violence shall no more be heard of in thy land, neither desolation, nor destruction within thy borders: but thou shalt s call saluation, thy walles, and prayse, thy gates.
19 Thou shalt haue no more sunne to shine by day, neither shall the brightnesse of the t moone shine vnto thee: for the Lord shalbe thine euerlasting light, and thy God, thy glory.
20 Thy sunne shall neuer goe downe, neither shall thy moone be hid: for the Lord shalbe thine euerlasting light, and the dayes of thy sorowe shalbe ended.
21 Thy people also shalbe all righteous: they shall possesse the land for euer, the u graffe of my planting shalbe the worke of mine handes, that I may be glorified.
22 A litle one shall become as a x thousande, and a small one as a strong nation: I the Lord wil hasten it in due time.

CHAP. LXI.

1 He prophecieth that Christ shalbe anointed and sent to preach.
10 The ioy of the faithfull.

1 THe * Spirit of the Lorde God is a vpon mee, therefore hath the Lorde anoynted mee: hee hath sent mee to preache good tidings vnto the poore, to binde vp the b broken hearted, to preach libertie to the c captiues, and to them that are bound, the opening of the prison, 2 To preache the d acceptable yeere of the Lorde, and the day of e vengeance of our God, to comfort all that mourne, 3 To appoint vnto them that mourne in Zion, and to giue vnto them beautie for f ashes, the oyle of ioye for mourning, the garment of glad-nesse for the spirit of heauinesse, that they might be called g trees of righteousnesse, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.
4 And they shall builde the olde waste places, and raise vp the former desolations, and they shall repaire the cities that were desolate and wast through many h generations.
5 And the strangers shall i stande and feede your sheepe, and the sonnes of the strangers shall be your plowmen and dressers of your vines.
6 But ye shalbe named k the Priestes of the Lord, and men shal say vnto you, The ministers of our God: Ye shall eate the l riches of the Gentiles, and shalbe exalted with their glory.
7 For your shame you shall receiue m double, and for confusion n they shall reioyce in o their portion: for in their lande they shall possesse the p double: euerlasting ioy shalbe vnto them.
8 For I the Lorde loue iudgement and hate q robberie for burnt offering, and I wil direct their worke in trueth, and will make an euerlasting couenant with them.
9 And r their seede shall be knowen among the Gentiles, and their buddes among the people.
All that see them, shall know them, that they are the seede which the Lord hath blessed.
10 s I will greatly reioyce in the Lord, and my soule shall be ioyfull in my God: for hee hath clothed me with the garments of saluation, and coue-red mee with the robe of righteousnes: hee hath decked me like a bridegrome, and as a bride tireth her selfe with her iewels.
11 For as the earth bringeth foorth her bud, and as the garden causeth to growe that which is sowen in it: so the Lord God will cause righteousnes to grow and prayse before all the heathen.

c Meaning, that Iudea should beas the morning starre, and that the Gentiles should receiue light of her.
d An innumerable nomber from all countries, as chap. 49.18.
e For ioy, as the heart is drawen in for sorowe.
f Meaning, that euery one shall honour the Lorde with that, wherewith he is able: signifying, that there is no true seruing of God, except wee offer our selues to serue his glory, and all that wee haue.
g That is, the Arabians, that haue great abundance of cattell.
h Because the altar was a figure of Christ, Ebr. 13.10. he sheweth that nothing can be acceptable to him, which is not offered to him by this altar, who was both the offering and the altar it selfe.
i Shewing what great nomber shall come to the Church, and with what great diligence and zeale.
k The Gentiles that are now enemies, shall become friends and setters foorth of the Church.
l Meaning, Cyrus and his successors: but chiefly this is accomplished in them that serue Christ being conuerted by his Gospell.
m Hee sheweth that God hath giuen all power and authoritie here in earth for the vse of his Church: and that they which wil not serue and profite the same, shalbe destroyed.
n There is nothing so excellent which shall not serue the necessitie of the Church.
o Signifying, that Gods maiestie is not included in the Temple, which is but the place for his feete, that wee may learne to rise vp to the heauens.
p To worship their head Christ by obeying his doctrine.
q Both hie and low shall be ready to helpe and foorder thee.
r Thy gouernours shall loue thee and seeke thy wealth and prosperitie.
s Meaning, not a temporall felicitie, but a spirituall, which is fulfilled in Christes kingdome.

t Signifying, that al worldly meanes shal cease, and that Christ shalbe all in all, as Reuel. 21.23. and 22.5.
u The children of the Church.
x Meaning, that the Church should be miraculously multiplied.
* Luke 4.18.
a This appertaineth to all the Prophetes and ministers of God, but chiefly to Christ, of whose abundant graces euery one receiueth according as it pleaseth him to distribute.
b To them that are liuely touched with the feeling of their sinnes.
c Which are in the bondage of sinne.
d The time when it pleased God to shew his good fauour to man, which S. Paul calleth the fulnes of time, Gal. 4.4.
e For when God deliuereth his Church, he punisheth his enemies.
f Which was the signe of mourning.
g Trees that bring forth good fruit, as Math. 3.8.
h That is, for a long time.
i They shalbe ready to serue you in all your necessities.
k This is accomplished in the time of Christ, by whome all the faithfull are made Priestes and kings, 1. Peter 2.9. reuel. 1.6. and 5.10.
l Reade Chap. 60. 11.16.
m Abundant recompence, as this worde is vsed, Chap. 40.2. n That is, the Iewes.
o To wit, of the Gentiles.
p Where as the Gentiles had dominion ouer the Iewes in time past, now they shal haue double authoritie ouer them and possesse twise so much.
q I will not receiue their offring, which are extortioners, deceiuers, hypocrites, or that depriue me of my glory.
r That is, of the Church.
s He sheweth what shall be the affection, when they feele their deliuerance.

CHAP. LXII.

1 The great desire that the Prophets haue had for Christs comming. 6 The diligence of the Pastours to preach.

FOr Zions sake I will not ᵃ holde my tongue, and for Ierusalems sake I wil not rest, vntil the righteousnes thereof breake foorth as the ᵇ light, and saluation thereof as a burning lampe.

2 And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousnesse, and all Kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by ᶜ a new name, which the mouth of the Lord shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be a ᵈ crowne of glory in the hand of the Lord, and a royall diademe in the hand of thy God.

4 It shall no more be sayd vnto thee, ᵉ Forsaken, neither shal it be sayd any more to thy land, Desolate, but thou shalt be called ‖ Hephzi-bah, and thy land ‖ Beulah: for the Lorde deliteth in thee, and thy land shall haue an ᶠ husband.

5 For as a young man marieth a virgine, so shall thy sonnes ᵍ marry thee: and as a bridegrome is glad of the bride, so shall thy God reioyce ouer thee.

6 I haue set ʰ watchmen vpon thy walles, O Ierusalem, which all the day & all the night continually shall not cease: ⁱ ye that are mindfull of the Lord, keepe not silence,

7 And giue him no rest, till hee repaire and vntill hee set vp Ierusalem the ᵏ prayse of the worlde.

8 The Lorde hath sworne by his right hand and by his strong arme, Surely I wil no more giue thy corne to be meate for thine enemies, & surely the sonnes of the strangers shall not drinke thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured.

9 But they that haue gathered it, shall eate it, and prayse the Lorde, and the gatherers thereof shall drinke it in the courtes of my Sanctuarie, 10 ˡ Go through, go through the gates: prepare you the way for the people: cast vp, cast vp the way, and gather out the stones, and set vp a standart for the people.

11 Beholde, the Lorde hath proclaimed vnto the endes of the world: ᵐ tell the daughter Zion, Beholde, thy Sauiour commeth: beholde, his wages is with him, and ⁿ his worke is before him.

12 And they shall call them, The holy people, the redeemed of the Lord, and thou shalt be named, A ᵒ citie sought out and not forsaken.

a The Prophet sayth that he wil neuer cease to declare vnto the people the good tidings of their deliuerance.
b Till they haue full deliuerance: and this the Prophet speaketh to incourage all other ministers to ẏ setting forth of Gods mercies towarde his Church.
c Thou shalt haue a more excellent fame then thou hast had hitherto.
d He shal esteeme thee as deare and precious, as a King doeth his crowne.
e Thou shalt no more be contemned as a woman forsaken of her husband.
‖ Or, my delite in her.
‖ Or, married.
f That it may be replenished with children.
g Forasmuch as they confesse one faith and religion with thee, they are in the same bond of mariage with thee, and they are called the children of the Church, inasmuch as Christ maketh her plentifull to bring forth children vnto him.
h Prophets, pastours, and ministers.
i He exhorteth the ministers neuer to cease to call vpon God by prayer for the deliuerance of his Church, and to teach others to doe the same.
k For the restauration whereof all the world shall prayse him.
l Signifying the great number that should come to the Church, and what meanes hee woulde prepare for the restitution of the same, as Chap. 57. 14.
m Ye Prophets and ministers shewe the people of this their deliuerance: which was chiefly meant of our saluation by Christ, Zach. 9. 9. mat. 21. 5.

o That is, one ouer whome God hath had a singular care to recouer her when she was lost.

CHAP. LXIII.

1 God shall destroy his enemies for his Churches sake. 7 Gods benefites towards his Church.

VVHo is this that commeth ᵃ from Edom, with red garments from Bozrah? hee is glorious in his apparel and walketh in his great strength: ᵇ I speake in righteousnesse, and am mightie to saue.

2 ᶜ Wherefore is thine apparel red, and thy garments like him that treadeth in ẏ wine presse?

3 I haue troden the wine presse alone, and of all people there was none with mee: for I will treade them in mine anger, and tread them vnder foote in my wrath, and their blood shalbe sprinkled vpon my garments, and I will staine all my raiment.

4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the ᵈ yeere of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to helpe, and I wondered that there was none to vphold: therefore mine owne ᵉ arme helped me, and my wrath it selfe sustained me.

6 Therefore I will treade downe the people in my wrath, and make them ᶠ drunken in mine indignation, and will bring downe their strength to the earth.

7 I will ᵍ remember the mercies of the Lorde and the prayses of the Lorde according vnto all that the Lorde hath giuen vs, and for the great goodnesse toward the house of Israel, which hee hath giuen them according to his tender loue, and according to his great mercies.

8 For he saide, Surely they are my ʰ people, children that wil not lie: so he was their Sauiour.

9 In all their troubles he was ⁱ troubled, and the Angel ᵏ of his presence saued them: in his loue and in his mercie he redeemed them, and he bare them and caried them alwayes continually.

10 But they rebelled and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore was hee turned to be their enemie and he fought against them.

11 Then he ˡ remembred the olde time of Moses and his people, saying, Where is hee that brought them vp out of the Sea with the ᵐ shepheard of his sheepe? where is he that put his holy Spirit within ⁿ him?

12 He led them by the right hand of Moses with his owne glorious arme, deuiding the water before them, to make himselfe an euerlasting Name.

13 Hee led them through the deepe, as an ᵒ horse in the wildernesse, that they should not stumble.

14 As the beast goeth downe into the valley, the Spirite of the Lorde gaue them rest: so didest thou leade thy people, to make thy selfe a glorious Name.

15 ᵖ Looke downe from heauen, and beholde from the dwelling place of thine holines, and of thy glory. Where is thy ᵠ zeale and thy strength, the multitude of thy mercies, and of thy compassions? they are restrained from ʳ me.

16 Doubtles thou art our Father: though ˢ Abraham be ignorant of vs, and Israel knowe vs not, yet thou, O Lord, art our Father, and our redeemer: thy Name is for euer.

17 O Lorde, why hast ᵗ thou made vs to erre from thy wayes? and hardened our heart from thy feare? Returne for thy ᵘ seruants sake, and for the tribes of thine inheritance.

a This prophecie is against the Idumeans, and enemies which persecuted the Church, on whome God will take vengeance, and is here set forth all bloody after that hee hath destroyed them in Bozrah, the chiefe citie of the Idumeans: for these were the greatest enemies, and vnder the title of circumcision and the kinred of Abraham claimed to themselues the chiefe religion, and hated the true worshippers, Psalme 137. 7.
b God answered them that asked this question, Who is this? &c. and sayth, Ye see nowe performed in deede the vengeance which my Prophets threatned.
c Another question to the which the Lorde answereth.
d Shewing, that when God punisheth his enemies, it is for the profite and deliuerance of his Church.
e God sheweth that he hath no neede of mans helpe for the deliuerance of his, and though men refuse to doe their duetie through negligence, and ingratitude, yet he himselfe will deliuer his Church, and punish the enemies, Reade Chap. 59. 16.
f I will so astonish them and make them so giddy, that they shall not knowe, which way to goe.
g The Prophet speaketh this to moue the people to remember Gods benefites in times past, that they may be confirmed in their troubles.
h For I did chuse them to be mine, that they should be holy, and not deceiue mine expectation.
i He bare their afflictions & griefes as though they had bene his owne.
k Which was a witnes of Gods presence: and this may be referred to Christ, to whome belongeth the office of saluation.
l That is, the people of Israel being afflicted, called to remembrance Gods benefites, which he had bestowed vpon their fathers in times past.
m Meaning, Moses.
n That is, in Moses, that he might well gouerne the people: some referre this giuing of the Spirit to the people.
o Peaceably and gently, as an horse is led to his pasture.
p Hauing declared Gods benefites shewed to their forefathers, he turneth himselfe to God by prayer, desiring him to continue the same graces toward them.
q Thy great affection which thou barest towardes vs.
r Meaning, from the whole body of the Church.
s Though Abraham would refuse vs to be his children, yet thou wilt not refuse to be our father.
t By taking away thy holy Spirit from vs, by whome we were gouerned, and so for our ingratitude diddest deliuer vs vp to our owne concupiscence, and diddest punish sinne by sinne according to thy iust iudgement.
u Meaning, for the couenant sake made to Abraham, Izhak and Iaakob his seruants.

sessed it, but a little [x] while: for our aduersaries haue troden downe thy Sanctuarie.
19 We haue bene as they, ouer whome thou neuer barest rule, and vpon whom thy Name was not called.

x That is, in respect of the promes, which is perpetuall: albeit they had now possessed the land of Canaan, a thousand and foure hundreth yeeres: and thus they lament, to moue God rather to remember his couenant then to punish their sinnes.

CHAP. LXIIII.

1 The Prophet prayeth for the sinnes of the people. 6 Mans righteousnesse is like a filthie cloth.

OH, that thou wouldest [a] breake the heauens, and come downe, and that the mountaines might melt at thy presence!
2 As the melting fire burned, as the fire caused [b] the waters to boyle, (that thou mightest declare thy Name to thy aduersaries the people did tremble at thy presence.
3 When thou diddest terrible things, which we looked not for, thou camest downe, and the mountaines melted at thy presence.
4 For since the beginning of the world they haue not [c] heard nor vnderstande with the eare, neither hath ye eye seene another God beside thee, which doeth so to him that waiteth for him.
5 Thou diddest meete him, [d] that reioyced in thee, and did iustly: they remembred thee in thy [e] wayes: behold, thou art angry, for we haue sinned: yet in [f] them is continuance, and we [g] shal be saued.
6 But we haue all bene as an vncleane thing, and all our [h] righteousnes is as filthie cloutes, and we all doe fade like a leafe, and our iniquities like the winde haue taken vs away.
7 And there is none that calleth vpon thy Name, neither that stirreth vp himselfe to take holde of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from vs, and hast consumed vs because of our iniquities.
8 But now, O Lord, thou art our Father: we are the [i] clay, and thou art our potter, and we all are the worke of thine hands.
9 Be not angry, O Lorde, [k] aboue measure, neither remember iniquitie for euer: lo, we beseech thee beholde, we are all thy people.
10 [l] Thine holy cities lye waste: Zion is a wil-dernes, and Ierusalem a desart.
11 The House of our Sanctuarie & of our glorie, [m] where our fathers praysed thee, is burnt vp with fire, and all our pleasant things are wasted.
12 Wilt thou holde thy selfe still [n] at these things, O Lorde? wilt thou holde thy peace and afflict vs aboue measure?

a The Prophet continueth his prayer, desiring God to declare his loue toward his Church by miracles, and mightie power, as he did in mount Sinai. b Meaning, the raine, haile, fire, thunder, and lightnings. c Saint Paul vseth the same kinde of admiration, 1.Cor. 2.9 marueiling at Gods great benefite shewed to his Church by the preaching of the Gospel. d Thou shewedst fauour toward our fathers, when they trusted in thee, and walked after thy commandements. e They considered thy great mercies. f That is, in thy mercies, which he calleth the wayes of the Lord. g Thou wilt haue pitie vpon vs. h We are iustly punished and brought into captiuitie, because we haue prouoked thee to anger, and though we would excuse our selues, yet our righteousnes, and best vertues are before thee as vile clouts, or, (as some reade) like the menstruous clothes of a woman.
i Albeit, O Lord, by thy iust iudgement thou mayest vtterly destroy vs, as the potter may his pot, yet we appeale to thy mercies, whereby it hath pleased thee to adopt vs to be thy children. k For so the flesh iudgeth when God doeth not immediatly send succour. l Which were dedicate to thy seruice and to call vpon thy Name. m Wherein we reioyced and worshipped thee. n That is, at the contempt of thine owne glory? though our sinnes haue deserued this, yet thou wilt not suffer thy glory thus to be diminished.

CHAP. LXV.

1 The vocation of the Gentiles and the reiection of the Iewes. 13 The ioy of the elect and the punishment of the wicked.

I Haue bene sought of them that [a] asked not: I was found of them that sought me not: I said, Beholde me, beholde me, vnto a nation that called not vpon my Name.
2 I haue [b] spred out mine handes all the day vnto a rebellious people, which walked in a way that was not good, euen after their owne [c] imaginations.
3 A people that prouoked me euer vnto my face: that sacrificeth in [d] gardens, and burneth incense vpon [e] brickes.
4 Which remaine among the [f] graues, and lodge in the desarts, which eate [g] swines flesh, and the broth of things polluted are in their vessels.
5 Which say, [h] Stand apart, come not neere to me: for I am holier then thou: these are a smoke in my wrath & a fire that [i] burneth all the day.
6 Beholde, it is [k] written before me: I will not keepe silence, but will render it and recompense it into their bosome.
7 Your iniquities and the iniquities of your fathers shalbe [l] together (saith the Lorde) which haue burnt incense vpon the mountaines, & blas-phemed me vpon the hilles: therefore will I measure their olde worke into their bosome.
8 Thus sayth the Lorde, As the wine is found in the cluster, and one sayth, destroy it not, for a [m] blessing is in it, so will I doe for my seruants sakes, that I may not destroy them whole.
9 But I will bring a seede out of Iaakob, and out of Iudah, that shall inherit my mountaine: and mine elect shall inherit it, and my seruants shall dwell there.
10 And Sharon [n] shalbe a sheepefolde, and the valley of Achor shalbe a resting place for the cattell of my people, that haue sought me.
11 But yee are they that haue forsaken the Lord and forgotten mine holy Mountaine, and haue prepared a table for the [o] multitude, and furnish the drinke offerings vnto the number.
12 Therefore wil I [p] number you to the sword, and all you shal bowe downe to the slaughter, because I called, and ye did not answere: I [q] spake, and ye heard not, but did euil in my sight, and did chuse that thing which I would not.
13 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, Be-holde, my seruants shall [r] eate, and ye shalbe hun-grie: behold, my seruants shal drinke, and ye shal be thirstie: beholde, my seruants shal reioyce, and ye shalbe ashamed.
14 Beholde, my seruants shal sing for ioye of heart, and ye shal crye for sorow of heart, and shall howle for vexation of minde.
15 And ye shall leaue your name as a curse vnto my [s] chosen: for the Lorde God shall slay you and call his seruants by [t] another name.
16 He that shal blesse in the [u] earth, shall blesse himselfe in the true God, and he that sweareth in the earth, shall sweare by the true God: for the former [x] troubles are forgotten, and shall surely hide themselues from mine eyes.
17 For lo, I will create ye newe heauens and a newe earth: and the former shall not be remem-bred nor come into minde.
18 But be you glad and reioyce for euer in the things that I shall create: for beholde, I will create Ierusalem, as a reioycing and her people as a ioye,
19 And I will reioyce in Ierusalem, and ioye in my people, and the voyce of weeping shall be a Meaning, the Gentiles which knewe not God, should seeke after him when he had moued their hearts with his holy Spirit, Rom.10.20. b He sheweth the cause of the reiection of the Iewes, because they woulde not obey him for any admonition of his Prophets, by whome hee called them continually and stretched out his hand to drawe them.

c He sheweth that to delite in our owne fantasies, is the declining from God & the beginning of all superstition & idolatrie. d Which were dedicate to idoles. e Meaning their altars, which hee thus nameth by contempt. f To consult with spirits and to coniure deuils, which was forbidden, Deut.18.11. g Which was contrary to Gods commandement, Leuit. 11.7. deut. 14.8. h He sheweth that hypocrisie is euer ioyned with pride and contempt of other. i Their punishment shall neuer haue end. k So that the remembrance thereof can not be forgotten. l Shalbe both punished together: & this declareth how the children are punished for their fathers faultes: to wit, when the same faultes or like are found in them. m That is, it is profitable: meaning, that God will not destroy the faythfull branches of his vineyard, when he destroyeth the rotten stockes, that is, the hypocrites. n Which was a plentifull place in Iudea to feede sheepe, as Achor was for cattell. o By the multitude and number he meaneth their innumerable idols, of whome they thought they could neuer haue inough. p Seeing you can not number your gods, I will number you with the sword. q By my Prophets, whome ye would not obey. r By these wordes, Eate and drinke, he meaneth the blessed life of the faithfull, which haue alwayes consolation, & full contentment of all thinges in their God, though sometimes they lacke these corporall things. s Meaning, that he would call the Gentiles, who should abhorre euen the very name of ye Iewes for their infidelities sake. t Then by the name of the Iewes. u By blessing and by swearing is meant the praysing of God for his benefits, and the true worshipping of him, which shall not be onely in Iudea, but through all the world. x I will no more suffer my Church to be desolate as in times past. y I will so alter and change the state of my Church, that it shall seeme to dwell in a newe world.

no more heard in her,nor the voyce of crying.
20 There shall be no more there a childe of yeeres,nor an olde man that hath z not filled his dayes:for he that shall be an hundreth yeeres old, shall dye as a yong man:but the sinner being a an hundreth yeeres olde shall be accursed.
21 And they shall b build houses and inhabite them,and they shall plant vineyards,and eate the fruite of them.
22 They shal not build,and another inhabite:
they shall not plant,and another eate: for as the dayes of the tree are the dayes of my people, and mine elect shall inioye in olde age the worke of their handes.
23 They shall not labour in vaine, nor bring forth in feare: for they are the seede of the blessed of the Lord,and their buds with them.
24 Yea,before they call, I will answere, and whiles they speake,I will heare.
25 The c wolfe and the lambe shall feede together,and the lyon shall eate strawe like the bullocke: and to the serpent dust shall be his meate.
They shall no more hurt nor destroy in all mine holy Mountaine,saith the Lord.

z Meaning,in this wonderfull restauration of the Church,there should be no weakenesse of youth,nor infirmities of age,but all should be fresh, and florishing: and this is accomplished in the heauenly Ierusalem, when all sinnes shall cease,and the teares shall be wiped away.
a Whereby he sheweth that the infidels and vnrepentant sinners haue no part of this benediction.
b He proposeth to the faithfull the blessings which are conteined in the Lawe,and so vnder temporall things comprehendeth the spirituall promises.
c Read Chap.11,6.

CHAP. LXVI.

1 God dwelleth not in temples made with handes. 3 He despiseth sacrifices done without mercie and faith. 5 God comforteth them that are troubled for his sake. 19 The vocation of the Gentiles. 23 The perpetuall Sabbath. 24 The punishment of the wicked is euerlasting.

THus saith the Lorde, * The a heauen is my throne,and the earth is my footestoole:where is that house that ye will builde vnto me? and where is that place of my rest?
2 For all these things hath mine hand made,
b and all these things haue bene,sayth the Lorde:
and to him will I looke,euen to him that is poore, and of c a contrite spirite and trembleth at my wordes.
3 He that killeth a bullocke,is as if he d slewe a man: he that sacrificeth a sheepe,as if he cut off a dogges necke: he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swines blood: he that remembreth incense,as if he blessed an idole: yea, they haue chosen their owne wayes,and their soule deliteth in their abominations.
4 Therefore will I e chuse out their delusions,and I will bring their feare vpon them, because I called,and none woulde answere: I spake and they would not heare: but they did euill in my sight,and chose the things which I would not.
5 Heare the worde of the Lorde, all ye that tremble at his f worde, Your brethren that hated you,and cast you out for my Names sake,said,Let the Lord be glorified:but he shall appeare to your ioy,and they shall be ashamed.
6 g A voyce soundeth from the citie, euen a voyce from the Temple,the voyce of the Lorde, that recompenseth his enemies fully.
7 Before h she trauailed,she brought foorth:

* Acts 7,48,49.
a My maiestie is so great that it filleth both heauen and earth,and therefore cannot be included in a temple like an idole: condemning hereby their vaine confidence, which trusted in the Temple and sacrifices.
b Seeing that both the Temple and the things therein with the sacrifices were made and done by his appointment,he sheweth that he hath no neede thereof,and that he can bee without them, Psalm.50,10.
c To him that is humble and pure in heart, which receiueth my doctrine with reuerence and feare.
d Because the Iewes thought themselues holy by offering of their sacrifices, and in the meane season had neither faith nor repentance, God sheweth that he doeth no lesse detest these ceremonies,then he doth the sacrifices of the heathen, who offered men,dogges,and swine to their idoles,which things were expressely forbidden in the lawe. e I will discouer their wickednesse & hypocrisie, wherewith they thinke to blinde mine eyes, to all the worlde. f He incourageth the faithfull by promising to destroy their enemies which pretended to bee as brethren,but were hypocrites,and hated them that feared God. g The enemies shall shortly heare a more terrible voyce, euen fire and slaughter, seeing they woulde not heare the gentle voyce of the Prophetes which called them to repentance. h Meaning, that the restauration of the Church shoulde be so sodaine and contrary to all mens opinions: as when a woman is deliuered before shee looked for it,and that without paine in trauaile.

and before her paine came, she was deliuered of a man childe.
8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seene such things? shall y earth be brought forth in one i day? or shall a nation be borne at once?
for assoone as Zion trauailed, she brought foorth her children.
9 Shall I k cause to trauaile, and not bring forth? shall I cause to bring forth, and shall be barren,saith thy God?
10 Reioyce ye with Ierusalem,and be gladde with her,all ye that loue her: reioyce for ioy with her,all ye that mourne for her, 11 That ye may sucke l and be satisfied with the brests of her consolation: that ye may milke out and be delited with y brightnes of her glorie.
12 For thus saith the Lord, Beholde,I will extend m peace ouer her like a flood,and the glorie of the n Gentiles like a flowing streame:then shal ye sucke,ye shall be o borne vpon her sides, and be ioyfull vpon her knees.
13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you,and ye shall be comforted in Ierusalem.
14 And when yee see this,your hearts shal re-ioyce, and your p bones shall flourish like an herbe:and the hand of the Lord shall be knowen among his seruants,and his indignation against his enemies.
15 For beholde,the Lord will come with fire, and his charets like a whirlewinde, that he may q recompence his anger with wrath,& his indignation with the flame of fire.
16 For the Lord will iudge with fire, and with his sworde all flesh,and the slaine of the Lorde shalbe many.
17 They that sanctifie r themselues, and purifie themselues in the gardens behinde one tree in the middes eating s swines flesh,and such abomination,euen the mouse,shall be consumed together,sayeth the Lord.
18 For I will visite their works, and their imaginations: for it shall come that I will gather all nations, and tongues, and they shall come, and see my t glorie.
19 And I will set a u signe among them, and will send those that x escape of them,vnto the nations of y Tarshish, z Pul,and a Lud, and to them that drawe the b bowe, to c Tubal and d Iauan, yles a farre off,that haue not heard my fame,neither haue seene my glorie,and e they shall declare my glorie among the Gentiles.
20 And they shall bring al your f brethren for an offering vnto the Lord out of all nations,vpon g horses,and in charets,and in horselitters,and vp-on mules,and swift beastes,to Ierusalem mine holy Mountaine,saith the Lord,as the children of Ifrael, offer in a cleane vessell in the House of the Lorde.
21 And I will take of them for h Priestes, and for Leuites,saith the Lord.

i This shall passe the capacitie of man to see such a multitude that shall come vp at once,meaning vnder the preaching of the Gospel, whereof they that come vp out of Babylon,were a figure.
k Declaring hereby,that as by his power and prouidence woman trauaileth and is deliuered:so hath he power to bring forth his Church at his time appointed.
l That ye may reioyce for all the benefits that God bestoweth vpon his Church.
m I will giue her felicitie,and prosperitie in great abundance.
n Reade Chap. 60.16.
o Ye shall be cherished as her dearely beloued children.
p Ye shall haue newe strength and newe beautie.
q This vengeance God beganne to execute at the destruction of Babylon,and hath euer continued it against the enemies of his Church and will doe till the last day,which shalbe the accomplishment thereof.
r Meaning,the hypocrites.
s Whereby are meant them that did maliciously transgresse the Lawe,by eating beastes forbidden, euen to the mouse which nature abhorreth.
t The Gentiles shall be partakers of that glorie, which before I shewed to the Iewes.
u I will make these that I chose, that they perish not with the rest of the infidels: whereby hee alludeth to the marking of the postes of his people,whom he preserued,Exod 12,7. x I will scatter the rest of the Iewes,which escape destruction,into diuers nations. y That is, Cicilia. z Meaning Affrica. a To wit, Lydia, or Asia minor. b Signifying, the Parthians. c Italie. d Grecia. e Meaning, the Apostles, disciples, and others which hee did first chose of the Iewes to preache vnto the Gentiles. f That is,the Gentiles,which by faith shall be made the children of Abraham, as you are. g Whereby hee meaneth that no necessarie meanes shall want, when God shall call the Gentiles to the knowledge of the Gospel. h To wit, of the Gentiles,as he did Luke,Timothie,and Titus first,and others after to preach his worde.

22 For

Hereby he signifieth the kingdome of Christ wherein his church shall be renued, and whereas before there were appointed seasons to sacrifice: in this there shall be one continuall Sabbath, so that all times and seasons shall be meete.

22 For as the newe [i] heauens, and the newe earth which I wil make, shall remaine before me, saith the Lord, so shall your seede and your name continue.
23 And from moneth to moneth, and from Sabbath to Sabbath shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the Lord.
24 And they shall goe forth, and looke vpon the [k] carkases of the men that haue transgressed against me: for their [l] worme shall not die, neyther shall their fire be quenched, and they shalbe an abhorring [m] vnto all flesh.

k As he that declared the felicitie that shalbe within the Church for the comfort of the godly, so doeth hee shewe what horrible calamitie shall come to the wicked, that are out of the Church. l Meaning, a continuall torment of conscience, which shall euer gnawe them and neuer suffer them to bee at rest, Marke 9.44. m This is the iust recompence for the wicked, which contemning God and his worde, shall be by Gods iudgement abhorred of all his creatures.

IEREMIAH.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Prophet Ieremiah borne in the citie of Anathoth in the countrey of Beniamin, was the sonne of Hilkiah, whom some thinke to be he that found out the booke of the Lawe, and gaue it to Iosiah. This Prophet had excellent gifts of God, & most euident reuelations of prophesie, so that by the cõmandement of the Lord he began very yong to prophesie, that is, in the thirteenth yere of Iosiah, & continued eighteene yere vnder the saide King, and three moneths vnder Iehoahaz, and vnder Iehoiakim eleuen yeeres, and three moneths vnder Iehoiachin, and vnder Zedekiah eleuen yeeres: vnto the time that they were caried away into Babylon. So that this time amounteth to aboue fourty yere, besides the time that he prophecied after the captiuitie. In this booke he declareth with teares, & lamentation the destruction of Ierusalem, and the captiuitie of the people, for their idolatrie, couetousnes, subtiltie, cruelty, excesse, rebellion & contempt of Gods word, and for the consolation of the Church, reueileth the iust time of their deliuerance. And here chiefly are to be considered three things. First the rebellion of the wicked, which waxe more stubburne and obstinate, when the Prophets do admonish them most plainely of their destruction. Next how the Prophets & ministers of God ought not to be discouraged in their vocation, though they be persecuted and rigorously handled of the wicked for Gods cause. And thirdly though God shew his iust iudgement against the wicked, yet will he euer shewe himselfe a preseruer of his Church, and when all meanes seeme to mans iudgement to be abolished, then will he declare himselfe victorious in preseruing his.

CHAP. I.

1 In what time Ieremiah prophesied. 6 He acknowledgeth his imperfection, and is strengthened of the Lorde. 11 The Lorde sheweth him the destruction of Ierusalem. 17 He commaundeth him to preach his word without feare.

THe [a] wordes of Ieremiah the sonne of [b] Hilkiah one of the Priests that were at [c] Anathoth in the lande of Beniamin.
2 To whom the [d] worde of the Lorde came in the dayes of Iosiah the sonne of Amon King of Iudah in the thirteenth yeere of his reigne:
3 And also in the dayes of Iehoiakim the [e] sonne of Iosiah King of Iudah vnto the ende of the eleuenth yeere of Zedekiah, the sonne of Iosi-ah King of Iudah, euen vnto the carrying away of Ierusalem captiue in the fift [f] moneth.
4 Then the word of the Lord came vnto me,
saying,
5 Before I [g] formed thee in the wombe, I knew thee, and before thou camest out of the wombe, I sanctified thee, and ordeined thee to be a Prophet vnto the [h] nations.
6 Then said I, [i] Oh, Lord God, behold, I can not speake, for I am a childe, 7 But the Lord said vnto me, Say not, I am a childe: for thou shalt goe to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoeuer I command thee, shalt thou speake.
8 Be not afraide of their faces: for I am with thee to deliuer thee, saith the Lord.
9 Then the Lorde stretched out his hand and [k] touched my mouth, and the Lord said vnto me, Behold, I haue put my words in thy mouth.
10 Beholde, this day haue I set thee ouer the [l] nations and ouer the kingdomes to plucke vp, and to roote out, and to destroy and throw down,
to builde, and to plant.
11 After this the worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying, Ieremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a [m] rod of an almond tree.
12 Then sayde the Lorde vnto me, Thou hast seene aright: for I will hasten my worde to per-forme it.
13 Againe the worde of the Lorde came vnto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I saide, I see a seething [n] pot looking out of the North.
14 Then saide the Lorde vnto me, Out of the [o] North shall a plague be spred vpon all the inhabitants of the land.
15 For loe, I will call all the families of the kingdomes of the North, saith the Lord, and they shall come, and euery one shal set his throne in the entring of the gates of Ierusalem, and on all the walles thereof round about, and in all the cities of Iudah.
16 And I will declare vnto them my [p] iudge-ments touching all the wickednesse of them that haue forsaken me, and haue burnt incense vnto other gods, and worshipped the works of their owne
handes.
17 Thou therefore trusse vp thy loynes, and arise and speake vnto them all that I commaunde

a That is, the sermons & prophesies. b Which is thought to be he that founde the booke of the Law vnder King Iosiah, 2.King.22.8. c This was a citie about three miles distant from Ierusalem, and belonged to the Priestes the sonnes of Aaron, Iosh.21.18. d This is spoken to confirme his vocation and office: forasmuch as he did not presume of himselfe to preache, and prophesie, but was called thereunto by God. e Meaning the nephewe of Iosiah: for Iehoahaz was his father, who reigned but three moneths, and therefore is not mentioned, no more is Ioachin that raigned no longer. f Of the eleuenth yeere of Zedekiah, who was also called Mattaniah, and at this time the Iewes were caried away into Babylon by Nebuchad nezzar. g The scripture vseth this maner of speach to declare, that God hath appointed his ministers to their offices before they were borne, as Isa.49.1. gal 1.15. h For Ieremiah did not onely prophesie against the Iewes, but also against the Egyptians, Babylonians, Moabites, and other nations. i Considering the great iudgements of God, which according to his threatnings should come vpon the world, he was moued with a certeine compassion on the one side to pitie them that should thus perish, and on the other side by the infirmitie of mans nature, knowing how hard a thing it was to enterprise such a charge, as Isa.6.11. Exod.3.11 and 4.1.

k Which declareth, that God maketh them meete, and assureth them, whom he calleth to set forth his glorie: giuing them all meanes necessarie for the same, Exod.4.12. Isa.6.7. l He sheweth what is the autoritie of gods true ministers, which by his word haue power to beate downe whatsoeuer lifteth it selfe vp against God: and to plant and assure the humble, and such as giue them selues to the obedience of Gods worde, 2.Corinth.10.4. ebre.4.12. and these are the keyes which Christ hath left to loose and bind, Mat.18 18. m He ioyneth the signe with the worde for a more ample confirmation: signifying by the rod of the almond tree, which first buddeth, the haste is comming of the Babylonians against the Iewes. n Signifying, that the Caldeans, and Assyrians should be as a pot to seethe the Iewes, which boyled in their pleasures and lusts. o Syria and Assyria were Northward in respect of Ierusalem, which were the Caldeans dominion. p I will giue them charge and power to execute my vengeance against the idolaters, which haue forsaken me for their idoles.

thee: be not afraide of their faces, lest I q destroy thee before them.

18 For I, beholde, I this day haue made thee a defenced citie, and an r yron pillar and walles of brasse against the whole land, against the Kings of Iudah, and against the princes thereof, against the Priestes thereof and against the people of the lande.

19 For they shall fight against thee, but they shall not preuaile against thee: for I am with thee to deliuer thee, sayth the Lord.

q Which declareth that Gods vengeance is prepared against them, which dare not execute their duetie faithfully, either for feare of man, or for any other cause, 1.Cor.9.16.
r Signifying on the one part, that the more that Satan, and the world rage against Gods ministers, the more present will he be to helpe them, Iosh.1.5. hebr.13.5. and on the other part, that they are vtterly vnmeete to serue God, and his Church, which are afraide, and doe not resist wickednesse, whatsoeuer danger depende thereon, Isa.50.7. Ezek 3.8.

CHAP. II.

2 God rehearseth his benefites done vnto the Iewes. 8 Against the Priests and false Prophets. 12 The Iewes are destroyed, because they forsake God.

Moreouer, the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Goe, and crie in the eares of Ierusalem, saying, Thus sayeth the Lord, I remember thee, with the a kindnesse of thy youth and the loue of thy marriage, when thou wentest after me in the wildernesse b in a land that was not sowen.

3 Israel was as a thing c halowed vnto the Lord, and his first fruits: all they d that eat it, shall offend: euil shal come vpon them, saith the Lord.

4 Heare ye the word of the Lord, O house of Iaakob, and all the families of the house of Israel.

5 Thus sayth the Lord, What iniquitie haue your fathers founde in mee, that they are gone e farre from mee, and haue walked after vanitie, and are become f vaine?

6 For they saide not, Where is the Lord that brought vs vp out of the land of Egypt? that led vs through the wildernesse, through a desert, and waste land, through a drie land, and g by the shadow of death, by a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 And I brought you into a plentifull countrey, to eat the fruit thereof, and the commodities of the same: but when yee entred, ye defiled h my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, i Where is the Lord? and they that should minister the k Lawe, knewe me not: the l pastours also offended against me, and the Prophets prophecied in m Baal, and went after things that did not profite.

9 Wherefore I will yet n pleade with you, saith the Lorde, and I will pleade with your childrens children.

10 For goe yee to the yles of o Chittim, & beholde, and sende vnto p Kedar, and take diligent heede, and see whether there be such things.

11 Hath any nation changed their gods, which yet are no gods? but my people haue chāged their q glorie, for that which doeth not r profite.

12 O ye s heauens, be astonied at this: bee afraid and vtterly confounded, saith the Lord.

13 For my people haue committed two euils: they haue forsaken mee t the fountaine of liuing waters, to digge them pittes, euen broken pittes, that can hold no water.

14 Is Israel a u seruant, or is hee borne in the house? why then is he spoiled?

15 The x lions roared vpon him & yelled, and they haue made his land waste: his cities are burnt without y an inhabitant.

16 Also the children of z Noph and Tahapanes haue a broken thine head.

17 Hast not thou procured this vnto thy selfe, because thou hast forsaken the Lorde thy God, when he b led thee by the way?

18 And what hast thou now to do in the way of c Egypt? to drinke the water of Nilus? or what makest thou in the way of Asshur? to drinke the water of the d Riuer?

19 Thine owne wickednes shall e correct thee, and thy turnings backe shal reprooue thee: know therefore and beholde, that it is an euill thing, and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, and that my feare is not in thee, sayeth the Lorde God of hostes.

20 For of olde time I haue broken thy yoke, and burst thy bondes, and thou saidest, f I will no more transgresse, but like an harlot thou runnest about vpon all hie hilles, and vnder all greene trees.

21 Yet I had planted thee, a noble vine, whose † plants were all naturall: how then art thou turned vnto me into the plants of a strange vine?

22 Though thou wash thee with g nitre, and take thee much sope, yet thine iniquitie is marked before me, sayth the Lord God.

23 Howe canst thou say, I am not polluted, neither haue I h followed Baalim? beholde thy waies in the valley, & know, what thou hast done: thou art like a swift i dromedarie, that runneth by his wayes:

24 And as a wilde k asse, vsed to the wildernesse, that snuffeth vp the winde by occasion at her pleasure: who can turne her backe? all they that seeke her, will not wearie themselues, but wil finde her in her l moneth.

25 Keepe thou thy feete from m barenesse, and thy throte from thirst: but thou saidest desperately, No, for I haue loued strangers, and them will I followe.

26 As the n theefe is ashamed, when he is foūd, so is the house of Israel ashamed, they, their kings, their princes and their Priests, and their Prophets, 27 Saying to a tree, Thou art my o father, and to a stone, Thou hast begotten me: for they haue turned their back vnto me, & not their face: but in the time of their troble they wil say, Arise, & help vs.

28 But where are thy gods, that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can helpe thee a According to that grace, and fauour, which I shewed thee from the beginning, when I did first chuse thee to be my people, and married thee to my selfe, Ezek.16.8.

b When I had deliuered thee out of Egypt.
c Chosen aboue all other to serue the Lord only, and the first offered to the Lorde of all other nations.
d Whosoeuer did chalenge this people, or els did annoy them, was punished.
e That is, fallen to most vile idolatrie.
f Altogether giuen to vanitie, and are become blinde and insensible as the idoles, that they serue.
g Where for lacke of all things necessarie for life, ye coulde looke for nothing euery houre but present death.
h By your idolatrie, and wicked maners, Psal.78.58. and 106.38.
i They taught not the people to seeke after God.
k As the Scribes, which should haue expounded the Law to the people.
l Meaning, the princes and ministers: signifying that all estates were corrupt.
m That is, spake vaine things, and brought the people from the true worship of God to serue idoles: for by Baal, which was the chiefe idole of the Moabites, are meant all idoles.
n Signifying that he would not as he might, straightway condemne them, but sheweth them by euident examples their great ingratitude, that they might be ashamed, and repent.
o Meaning, the Grecians and Italians.
p Vnto Arabia.
q That is, God which is their glory, and who maketh them glorious aboue all other people: reprooning the Iewes, that they were lesse diligent to serue the true God, then were the idolaters to honour their vanities.
r Meaning, the idoles, which were their destruction, Psal.106.36.
s Hee sheweth, that the insensible creatures abhorre this vile ingratitude, and as it were, tremble for feare of Gods great iudgements against the same.
t Signifying, that when men forsake Gods woorde, which is the fountaine of life, they reiect God himselfe, and so fall to their owne inuentions, and vaine confidence, and procure to themselues destruction, Iona 2.8. zecha.10.2.
u Haue I ordered them like seruantes, and not like dearely beloued children? Exo.4.22. therefore it is their fault onely, if the enemie spoile them.
x The Babylonians, Caldeans, and Assyrians.
y Not one shall be left to dwel there.
z That is, the Egyptians: for these were two great cities in Egypt.
a Haue grieuously vexed thee at sundry times.
b Shewing, that God would haue still led them aright, if they would haue followed him.
c To seeke helpe of man, as though God were not able ynough to defende thee, which is to drinke of the puddles, and to leaue the fountaine, reade Isa.31.1.
d To wit, Euphrates.
e Meaning, that the wicked are insensible till the punishment for their sinne waketh them, as vers.26. Isa.3.9.
f When I deliuered thee out of Egypt, Exod.19.8. Deut.5.27. Iosh.24.16. ez.10.12. ne.8.6.
† Ebr. seede most all true.
g Though thou vse all the purifications and ceremonies of the Lawe, thou canst not escape punishment, except thou turne to mee by faith, and repentance.
h Meaning, that hypocrites denie that they worship the idoles, but that they honour God in them, and therefore they call their doings Gods seruice.
i He compareth the idolaters to these beasts, because they neuer cease running to and fro: for both valleis and hilles are full of their idolatrie.
k He compareth the idolaters to a wilde asse: for she can neuer be tamed, nor yet wearied: for as she runneth, shee can take her winde at euery occasion.
l That is, when she is with foale, and therefore the hunters waite their time: so though thou canst not be turned backe now from thine idolatrie, yet when thine iniquitie shal be at the full, God will meete with thee.
m Hereby hee warneth them that they should not goe into strange countreis to seeke helpe: for they shoulde but spend their labour, and hurt themselues, which is here meant by the bare foote and thirst, Isa.57.10.
n As a theefe will not acknowledge his fault, till hee be taken with the deede, and ready to be punished, so they will not confesse their idolatrie, till the plagues due to the same light vpon them.
o Meaning, that idolaters spoyle God of his honour: and whereas he hath taught to call him the father of all flesh, they attribute this title to their idoles.

in the time of thy trouble: for according p to the nomber of thy cities, are thy gods, O Iudah.
29 Wherefore will q ye pleade with me? ye all haue rebelled against me, sayth the Lord.
30 I haue smitten your children in vaine, they receiued no correction: your r owne sworde hath deuoured your Prophets like a destroying lyon.
31 O generation, take heede to the worde of the Lord: haue I bene as a s wildernesse vnto Israel? or a lande of darkenesse? Wherefore sayeth my people then, We are lordes, t we will come no more vnto thee?
32 Can a maid forget her ornament, or a bride her attire? yet my people haue forgotten me, daies without number.
33 Why doest thou prepare thy way, to u seeke amitie? euen therefore will I teach thee, that thy waies are wickednesse.
34 Also in thy x wings is founde the blood of the soules of ye poore innocents: I haue not found it in holes, but vpon all these places.
35 Yet thou saiest, Because I am giltlesse, surely his wrath shall turne from me: beholde, I will enter with thee into iudgement, because thou saiest,
I haue not sinned.
36 Why runnest thou about so much to change thy wayes? for thou shalt be confounded of Egypt, y as thou art confounded of Asshur.
37 For thou shalt goe forth from thence, and thine hands vpon z thine head, because the Lorde hath reiected thy confidence, and thou shalt not prosper thereby.

p Thou thoughtest that thy gods of blocks & stones could haue holpen thee, because they were many in number and present in euery place: but now let vs see whether either the multitude, or their presence can deliuer thee from my plague, Chap. 11.13.
q As though I did you iniurie in punishing you, seeing that your faultes are so euident.
r That is, you haue killed your Prophets, that exhorted you to repentance, as Zechariah, Isaiah, &c.
s Haue I not giuen them abundance of all things?
t But will trust in our owne power and policie.
u With strangers.
x The Prophets & the faithfull are slaine in euery corner of your countrey.
y For the Assyrians had taken away ye ten tribes out of Israel, & destroyed Iudah, euen vnto Ierusalem: and the Egyptians slewe Iosiah and vexed the Iewes in sundry sortes.
z In signe of lamentation, as 2.Sam.13.19.

CHAP. III.

God calleth his people vnto repentance. 14 Hee promiseth the restitution of his Church. 20 He reprooueth Iudah and Israel, comparing them to a woman disobedient to her husband.

THey a say, If a man put away his wife, and she goe from him, and become another mans, shall hee returne againe vnto her? shall not this land b be polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many c louers: yet d turne againe to me, sayeth the Lord.
2 Lift vp thine eyes vnto the hie places, and beholde, where thou hast not played the harlot:
thou hast sit waiting for them in the waies, as the e Arabian in the wildernesse: and thou hast polluted the lande with thy whoredomes, and with thy malice.
3 Therefore the showres haue bene restrained, and the f latter raine came not, and thou haddest a g whores forehead: thou wouldest not bee ashamed.
4 Diddest thou not stil crie h vnto me, Thou art my father, and the guide of my youth?
5 Wil he keepe his anger for euer? will he re-serue it to the ende? thus hast thou spoken, but thou doest euill, euen more and more.
6 The Lord saide also vnto me, in the dayes of Iosiah the King, Hast thou seene what this rebell i Israel hath done? for she hath gone vp vpon eue-ry high mountaine, and vnder euery greene tree, and there plaied the harlot.
7 And I sayde, when shee had done all this, Turne thou vnto me: but she returned not, as her rebellious sister Iudah sawe.
8 When I sawe, howe that by all occasions rebellious Israel had plaied the harlot, I cast k her away, and gaue her a bill of diuorcement: yet her rebellious sister Iudah was not afraide, but shee went also, and plaied the harlot.
9 So that for the l lightnesse of her whoredome shee hath euen defiled the lande: for shee hath committed fornication with stones and stockes.
10 Neuerthelesse for all this, her rebellious sister Iudah hath not returned vnto me with m her whole heart, but fainedly, saith the Lord.
11 And the Lord said vnto me, The rebellious Israel hath n iustified her selfe more then the rebellious Iudah.
12 Goe and crie these woordes towarde o the North and say, Thou disobedient Israel, returne, sayeth the Lorde, and I will not let my wrath fall vpon you: for I am mercifull, saith the Lorde, and I will not alway keepe mine anger.
13 But knowe thine iniquitie: for thou hast rebelled against the Lord thy God, & hast p scattered thy wayes to the strange gods vnder euery greene tree, but yee would not obey my voyce, saith the Lord.
14 O yee disobedient children, turne againe, sayeth the Lorde, for I am your Lorde, and I will take you one of a citie and two of a tribe and will bring you to Zion, 15 And I will bring you pastours according to mine heart, which shal feede you with knowledge and vnderstanding.
16 Moreouer, when yee be increased and multiplied in the land, in those daies, saieth the Lorde, they shall say no more, The q Arke of the couenant of the Lorde: for it shall come no more to minde, neither shall they remember it, neither shall they visite it, for that shalbe no more done.
17 At that time they shall call Ierusalem, r The throne of the Lorde, & all the nations shall be gathered vnto it, euen to the Name of the Lorde in Ierusalem: and thence foorth they shall follow no more the hardnesse of their wicked heart.
18 In those daies ye house of Iudah shall walke with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the lande of the s North, into the lande, that I haue giuen for an inheritance vnto your fathers.
19 But I saide, How did I take thee for children and giue thee a pleasant lande, euen the glorious heritage of the armies of the heathen, and saide, Thou shalt call me, saying, My father, and shalt not turne from me?
20 But as a woman rebelleth against her t husband: so haue ye rebelled against me, O house of Israel, saith the Lord.
21 u A voice was heard vpon the hie places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they haue peruerted their way, and forgotten the Lord their God.
22 O yee disobedient children, returne and I wil heale your rebellions. x Behold, we come vnto thee, for thou art the Lord our God.
23 Truely the hope of the hilles is but vaine, nor the multitude of mountaines: but in the Lorde our God is the health of Israel.
24 For confusion hath deuoured our y fathers labour, from our youth their sheepe, and their bullockes, their sonnes and their daughters.
25 Wee lie downe in our confusion, and our c That is, with idoles, and with them, whom thou hast put thy confidence in.

d And I will not cast thee off, but receiue thee, according to my mercie.
e Which dwelleth in tentes and waiteth for them that passe by to spoyle them.
f As God threatned by his Lawe, Deut. 28.24.
g Thou wouldest neuer be ashamed of thine actes and repent: and this impudencie is common to idolaters, which will not giue off, though they be neuer so manifestly conuicted.
h He sheweth that the wicked in their miseries will crie vnto God and vse outwarde prayer as the godly doe, but because they turne not from their euill, they are not heard, Isa. 58.3,4.
i Meaning, the ten tribes.

k And gaue her vnto the hands of the Assyrians.
l The Ebrewe worde may either signifie lightnesse and wantonnes, or noise and brute.
m Iudah fained for a time that she did returne, as vnder Iosiah and other good Kings, but shee was neuer truely touched, or wholly reformed, as appeared when occasion was offred by any wicked prince.
n Israel hath not declared her selfe so wicked as Iudah, which yet hath had more admonitions and examples to call her to repentance.
o Whereas the Israelites were now kept in captiuitie by the Assyrians, to whome he promiseth mercie, if they will repent.
p There was no way, which thou diddest not haunt to seeke after the idoles, and to trot a pilgrimage.
q This is to be vnderstand of the comming of Christ: for then they shall not seeke the Lorde by ceremonies, and all figures shall cease.
r Meaning the Church, where the Lorde will be present to the worldes ende, Matt. 28.20.
s Where they are now in captiuitie.
t The Ebrewe worde signifieth a friende or companion, and here may be taken for a husbande, as it is vsed also, Hosea 3.1.
u Signifying, that God, whome they had forsaken, woulde bring their enemies vpon them, who should leade them captiue and make them to crie and lament.
x This is spoken in the person of Israel to the shame of Iudah, which staied so long to turne vnto God.
y For their idolatrie Gods vengeance hath light vpon them and theirs.

shame

shame couereth vs: [z] for we haue sinned against the Lord our God, we and our fathers from our youth, euen vnto this day, and haue not obeyed the voyce of the Lord our God.

z They iustifie not themselues, or say that they would followe their fathers, but condemne their wicked doings and desire forgiuenes of the same, 1.Ezra.9.7.21 Psal.106.6.Isa.64.6.

CHAP. IIII.

1 True repentance. 4 Hee exhorteth to the circumcision of the heart. 5 The destruction of Iudah is prophecied, for the malice of their hearts. 19 The Prophet lamenteth it.

O Israel, if thou returne, [a] returne vnto me, saith the Lorde: and if thou put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remoue.
2 And thou shalt [b] sweare, The Lord liueth in trueth, in iudgement, and in righteousnesse, and the nations shall be blessed in him, and shal glorie in him.
3 For thus saith the Lorde to the men of Iudah, and to Ierusalem,
4 Breake vp [c] your fallowe ground, and sowe not among the thornes: bee circumcised to the Lord, & take away the foreskinnes of your hearts, ye men of Iudah, and inhabitants of Ierusalem, lest my wrath come foorth like fire, and burne, that none can quench it, because of the wickednes of your inuentions.
5 [d] Declare in Iudah, and shew forth in Ierusalem, and say, Blowe the trumpet in the land, cry,
and gather together, and say, Assemble your selues,
and let vs go into strong cities.
6 Set vp the standart in Zion: [e] prepare to flee, and stay not: for I will bring a plague from the North, and a great destruction.
7 The [f] lyon is come vp from his denne, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is departed, and gone forth of his place to lay thy lande waste, and thy cities shalbe destroyed without an inhabitant.
8 Wherefore girde you with sackecloth: lament, and howle, for the fierce wrath of the Lord is not turned backe from vs.
9 And in that day, saieth the Lorde, the heart of the King shal perish, and the heart of the princes and the Priestes shall be astonished, and the [g] Prophets shal wonder.
10 Then saide I, Ah, Lord God, surely thou hast [h] deceiued this people and Ierusalem, saying, Yee shall haue peace, and the sword pereeth vnto the heart.
11 At that time shall it be saide to this people and to Ierusalem, A drie [i] winde in the hie places of the wildernes commeth toward the daughter of my people, but neither [k] to fanne nor to clense.
12 A mightie winde shall come vnto me from those places, and nowe will I also giue sentence
vpon them.
13 Beholde, he shall come vp as the [l] cloudes, and his charets shalbe as a tempest: his horses are lighter then eagles. [m] Woe vnto vs, for we are destroyed.
14 O Ierusalem, wash thine heart from wickednes, that thou mayest be saued: how long shal thy wicked thoughts remaine within thee?
15 For a voyce declareth from [n] Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount [o] Ephraim.

a That is, wholy, and without hypocrisie, Ioel 2.12. not dissembling to turne and serue God as they doe which serue him by halues, as Hose.7.16.
b Thou shalt detest the name of Idoles, Psal.16.4. and shalt with reuerence sweare by the liuing God, when thine othe may aduance Gods glory, and profite others: and here, by swearing he meaneth the true religion of God.
c He willeth them to plucke vp the impiety and wicked affection and worldly respects out of their heart, that the true seede of Gods worde may be sowen therein, Hos.10.12. and this is the true circumcision of the heart, Deut.10.16. rom.2.29. col.2.11.
d He warneth them of the great dangers that shall come vpon them by the Caldeans, except they repent and turne to the Lord.
e He speaketh this to admonish them of the great danger when euery man shall prepare to saue himselfe, but it shal be too late, 2.King.25.4.
f Meaning, Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babylon, 2.King.24.1.
g That is, the false prophets which still prophecied peace and security.
h By the false prophets, which promised peace and tranquilitie: and thus thou hast punished their rebellious stubbernesse by causing them to hearken vnto lies which would not beleeue thy trueth, 1.King.22.23. Ezek.14.9. 2 Thess.2.11. i The Northwinde whereby he meaneth Nebuchadnezzar. k But to cary away both corne and chaffe. l Meaning, that Nebuchadnezzar shoulde come as suddenly, as a cloude that is caried with the winde. m This is spoken in the person of all the people, who in their affliction should cry thus. n Which was a citie in the vtmost border of Israel Northward toward Babylon. o Which was in the mid way betweene Dan and Ierusalem.

16 Make ye mention of the heathen, and publish in Ierusalem, Beholde, the skoutes come from a farre countrey, and crie out against the cities of Iudah.
17 They haue compassed her about as the watchmen of the [p] fielde, because it hath prouoked me vnto wrath, saith the Lord.
18 Thy wayes and thine inuentions haue procured thee these thinges, such is thy wickednesse:
therefore it shall be bitter, therefore it shall perce vnto thine heart.
19 My bely, [q] my bely, I am pained, euen at the very heart: mine heart is troubled within me:
I cannot bee still: for my soule hath heard the sounde of the trumpet, and the alarme of the battell.
20 Destruction vpon destruction is cryed, for the whole lande is wasted: suddenly are my [r] tents destroyed, and my curtaines in a moment.
21 Howe long shall I see the standert, and heare the sound of the trumpet?
22 For my people is foolish, they haue not knowen me: they are foolish children, and haue none vnderstanding: [s] they are wise to doe euill, but to doe well they haue no knowledge.
23 I haue looked vpon the earth, and lo, it was without forme and [t] voyde: and to the heauens, and they had no light.
24 I behelde the mountaines, and loe, they trembled, and all the hilles shooke.
25 I behelde, and loe, there was no man, and all the birdes of the heauen were departed.
26 I behelde, and loe, the fruitfull place was a wildernesse, and all the cities thereof were broken downe at the presence of the Lorde, and by his fierce wrath.
27 For thus hath the Lorde saide, The whole lande shalbe desolate: yet wil I [u] not make a full ende.
28 Therefore shall the earth mourne, and the heauens aboue shall be darkened, because I haue pronounced it: I haue thought it, and will not repent, neither wil I turne backe from it.
29 The whole citie shall flee, for the noyse of the horsemen and bowe men: they shall goe into thickets, and clime vp vpon the rockes: euery city shalbe forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.
30 And when thou shalt be destroyed, what wilt thou doe? Though thou [x] clothest thy selfe with skarlet, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of golde, though thou paintest thy face with colours, yet shalt thou trimme thy selfe in vayne: for thy louers will abhorre thee and seeke thy life.
31 For I haue heard a noyse as of a woman trauailing, or as one labouring of her first child, euen the voyce of the daughter Zion that sigheth and stretcheth out her handes: [y] woe is me nowe: for my soule fainteth because of the murtherers.

p Which keepe the fruits so straitly, that nothing can come in nor out: so should the Babylonians compasse Iudah.
q He sheweth that the true ministers are liuely touched with the calamities of the Church, so that all the partes of their body feele the griefe of their heart, albeit with zeale to Gods glory they pronounce his iudgements against the people.
r Meaning, the cities, which were as easily cast downe as a tent. s Their wisedome and policie tend to their owne destruction, and pulleth them from God.
t By these maner of speeches hee sheweth the horrible destruction that should come vpon the land, and also condemneth the obstinacie of the people, who repent not at the feare of these terrible tydings, seeing that the insensible creatures are moued therewith, as if the order of nature should be changed, Isa.13.10. and 24.23. Eze.32.7. Ioel 2.31. & 3.15.
u But for his mercies sake hee will reserue himselfe a residue to be his Church, and to prayse him in earth, Isai.1.9.
x Neither thy ceremonies nor riche giftes shal deliuer thee.
y As the Prophets were moued to pitie the destruction of their people, so they declared it to the people to moue them to repentance, Isai.22.4. chap.9.1.

CHAP. V.

1 In Iudah no righteous man is founde neither among the people nor the rulers. 15 Wherefore Iuda is destroyed of the Caldeans.

RVnne to and fro by the streetes of Ierusalem, and beholde nowe, and knowe, and inquire in the open places thereof, if ye can finde a man, or if there be any that executeth iudgement, and seeketh the trueth, and I wil spare [a] it.
2 For though they say, The [b] Lord liueth, yet doe they sweare falsely.

a That is, the city.
b Though they pretend religion and holinesse, yet all is but hypocrisie: for vnder this kinde of swearing is conteined the true religion.

3 O Lord,

3 O Lord, are not thine eies vpō the c truth?
thou hast d striken them, but they haue not sorowed: thou hast consumed them, but they haue refused to receiue correction: they haue made their faces harder then a stone, and haue refused to returne.
4 Therfore I said, Surely they are poore, they are foolish, for they know not the way of the Lord, nor the iudgement of their God.
5 I will get me vnto the e great men, and will speake vnto them: for they haue knowen the way of the Lord, and the iudgement of their God: but these haue altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bondes.
6 Wherfore f a lyon out of the forest shal slay them, and a wolfe of the wildernesse shall destroy them: a leopard shal watch ouer their cities: euery one that goeth out thence, shalbe torne in pieces, because their trespasses are many, and their rebellions are increased.
7 How should I spare thee for this? thy children haue forsaken me, and g sworne by them that are no gods: though I fed them to the full, yet they committed adulterie, and assembled themselues by companies in the horlots houses.
8 They rose vp in the morning like fed horses: for euery man * neyed after his neighbours wife.
9 Shall I not visite for these things, sayth the Lorde? Shall not my soule be auenged on such a nation as this?
10 h Clime vp vpon their walles, and destroy them, but make not a full ende: i take away their batilments, for they are not the Lords.
11 For the house of Israel, and the house of Iudah haue grieuously trespassed against me, saith the Lord.
12 They haue k denied the Lorde, and saide, It is not he, neither shall the plague come vpon vs, neither shall we see sword nor famine.
13 And the Prophets shalbe as l wind, and the worde is m not in them: thus shall it come vnto
them.
14 Wherefore thus sayeth the Lorde God of hostes, Because ye speake such wordes, Behold, I will put my wordes into n thy mouth, like a fire, and this people shall be as wood, and it shall deuoure them.
15 Loe, I will bring a nation vpon you o from farre, O house of Israel, saith the Lord, which is a mightie nation, and an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither vnder-standest what they say.
16 Whose quiuer is as an p open sepulchre: they are all very strong.
17 And they shall eate thine haruest and thy bread: they shal deuoure thy sonnes & thy daughters: they shal eate vp thy sheep and thy bullocks:
they shall eate thy vines and thy figge trees: they shall destroy with the sworde thy fensed cities, wherein thou didst trust.
18 Neuertheles, at those daies, saith the Lorde,
I will not make a full end of q you.
19 And when * ye shal say, Wherfore doeth the Lord our God do these things vnto vs? then shalt r thou answere them, Like as ye haue forsaken me and serued strange gods in your land, so shall yee serue strangers in a land that is not yours.
20 Declare this in the house of Iaakob, and publish it in Iudah, saying, 21 Heare nowe this, O foolish people, and † without vnderstanding, which haue * eyes and see not, which haue eares and heare not.
22 Feare ye not me, saith the Lord? or will ye not be afraide at my presence, which haue placed the sand for the * bounds of the sea by the perpetuall decree that it cannot passe it, and though the waues thereof rage, yet can they not preuaile, though they roare, yet can they not passe ouer it?
23 But this people hath an vnfaithfull and rebellious heart: they are departed and gone.
24 For they say not in their heart, Let vs nowe feare the Lorde our God, that giueth rayne both earely and late in due season: hee re-serueth vnto vs the appoynted weekes of the haruest.
25 Yet your s iniquities haue turned away these things, and your sinnes haue hindred good thinges from you.
26 For among my people are founde wicked persons, that lay wayte as he that setteth snares:
they haue made a pit, to catch men.
27 As a cage is full of birdes, so are their houses full of deceite: thereby they are become great and waxen rich.
28 They are waxen fat and shining: they doe ouerpasse the deeds of the wicked: * they execute no iudgement, no not the iudgement of the fatherlesse: yet they t prosper, though they execute no iudgement for the poore.
29 Shall I not visite for these things, sayth the Lord? or shal not my soule be auenged on such a nation as this?
30 An horrible and filthie thing is committed in the land.
31 The u Prophets prophesie lies, & the Priests ‖ receiue giftes in their handes, and my people de-lite therein. What will ye then doe in the ende thereof?

CHAP. VI.

1 The comming of the Assyrians and Caldeans. 16 He exhor-teth the Iewes to repentance.

O Ye children of a Beniamin, prepare to flee out of the middes of Ierusalem, and blow the trumpet in b Tekoa: set vp a standart vpon c Beth-haccerem: for a plague appeareth out of the North and great destruction.
2 I haue compared the daughter of Zion to d a beautiful and dainty woman.
3 The Pastors with their flocks shal come vnto her: they shall pitch their tents round about by her, and euery one shall feede in his place.
4 f Prepare warre against her: arise, and let vs goe vp toward the South: wo vnto vs: for the day declineth, and the shadowes of the euening are stretched out.
5 Arise, and let vs goe vp by night, and destroy her palaces.
6 For thus hath the Lord of hostes said, Hewe downe wood, and cast a mount against Ierusalem:
this citie must be visited: all oppression is in the mids of it.
7 As the fountaine casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her malice: g cruelty and spoyle is continually heard in her before with sorowe and strokes.
8 Be thou instructed, O h Ierusalem, lest my soule depart from thee, lest I make thee desolate

c Doest not thou loue vprightnesse and faithfull dealing?
d Thou hast oft times punished them, but all is in vaine, Isa. 9. 13.
e He speaketh this to the reproch of them, which should gouerne and teach others, and yet are farther out of the way then the simple people.
f Meaning, Nebuchadnezzar and his armie.

n Meaning, Ieremiah.

p Who shall kill many with their arrowes.

t They feele not the plague of God for it.
u Meaning, that there coulde be nothing but disorder, where the ministers were wicked persons and corrupt.

a He speaketh to them chiefly because they should take heede by the example of their brethren, the other halfe of their tribe, which were nowe caried away prisoners.

d I haue intreated her gently, and giuen her abundance of all things.
e She shall be so destroyed, that the sheepe may bee fed in her.
f He speaketh this in the person of the Babylonians, which complaine that the time faylleth them before they haue brought their enterprises to passe. g He sheweth the cause why it shoulde be destroyed, and how it commeth of themselues. h He warneth them to amend by his correction and to turne to him by repentance.

as a land, that none inhabiteth.

9 Thus sayeth the Lorde of hostes, They shall gather as a vine, the residue of Israel: turne [i] backe thine hand as the grape gatherer into the baskets.

i Hee exhorteth the Babylonians to be diligent to search out all and to leaue none.

10 Vnto whome shall I speake, and admonish that they may heare? beholde, their eares are [k] vncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: beholde, the worde of the Lord is vnto them as a reproche: they haue no delite in it.

k They delite to heare vaine things & to shut vp their eares to true doctrine.

11 Therefore I am full of the wrath of the Lorde: I am weary with holding it: [l] I will powre it out vpon the [m] children in the streete, and likewise vpon the assembly of the yong men: for the husbande shall euen bee taken with the wife, and the aged with him that is full of dayes.

l As the Lord had giuẽ him his word to be as a fire of his indignation to burne the wicked, Chap.5.14. so hee kindleth it now when he seeth that all remedies are past.

m None shall be spared.

12 And their houses with their lands, & wiues also shalbe turned vnto strangers: for I wil stretch out mine hand vpon the inhabitants of the land, sayeth the Lorde.

13 For from the least of them, euen vnto the greatest of them, euery one is giuen vnto couetousnesse, and from the Prophet euen vnto the Priest, they all deale falsely.

14 They haue healed also ẏ hurt of ẏ daughter of my people with sweete woordes, saying, [n] Peace, peace, when there is no peace.

n When the people began to feare Gods iudgements, the false Prophets comforted them by flatterings, shewing that God would send peace and not warre.

15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not ashamed, no neither coulde they haue any shame: therefore they shall fall among the † slaine: when I shall visite them, they shalbe cast downe, sayth the Lord.

† Ebr. them that fal.

16 Thus sayeth the Lorde, Stand in the wayes and beholde, and aske for the [o] olde way, which is the good way, and walke therein, and yee shall finde rest for your soules: but they sayde, We wil not walke therein.

o Wherein the patriarkes and Prophets walked, directed by the word of God: signifying that there is no true way, but that which God prescribeth.

17 Also I set [p] watchmen ouer you, which said, Take heede to the sound of the trumpet: but they said, We will not take heede.

p Prophets which should warne you of the dangers that were at hand.

18 Heare therefore, yee [q] Gentiles, and thou Congregation knowe, what is among them.

q God taketh all the world to witnes and the insensible creatures of the ingratitude of the Iewes.

19 Heare, O earth, beholde, I will cause a plague to come vpon this people, euen the fruite of their owne imaginations: because they haue not taken heede vnto my words, nor to my Law, but cast it off.

20 To what purpose bringest thou me [r] incense from Sheba, and sweete calamus from a farre countrey? Your burnt offrings are not pleasant, nor your sacrifices sweete vnto me.

r Read Isa.1.11. and Amos 5.21.

21 Therefore thus sayeth the Lorde, Beholde, I will lay stumbling blockes before this people, and the fathers and the sonnes together shall fall vpon them: the neighbour and his friende shall perish.

22 Thus sayeth the Lorde, Beholde, a people commeth from the [s] North countrey, and a great nation shall arise from the sides of the earth.

s From Babylon by Dan, which was North from Ierusalem.

23 With bowe and shield shal they be weaponed: they are cruell and will haue no compassion: their voyce roareth like the sea, and they ride vpon horses, well appointed, like men of warre against thee, O daughter Zion.

24 We haue heard their fame, and our handes waxe [t] feeble: sorrowe is come vpon vs, as the sorrowe of a woman in trauaile.

t For feare of the enemie: he speaketh this in the person of the Iewes.

25 Goe not foorth into the fielde, nor walke by the way: for the sword of the enemie and feare is on euery side.

26 O daughter of my people, girde thee with sackecloth, and wallowe thy selfe in the ashes: make lamentation, and bitter mourning as for thine onely sonne: for the destroyer shall suddenly come vpon vs.

27 I haue set [u] thee for a defence and fortresse among my people, that thou mayest knowe and trie their wayes.

u Meaning, Ieremiah, whom God had appointed to trie out the godly from the wicked as a founder doeth the pure metall from the drosse.

28 They are all rebellious traitours, walking craftily: they are brasse, and yron, they all are destroyers.

29 The [x] bellowes are burnt: the leade is consumed in the fire: the founder melteth in vaine: for the wicked are not taken away.

x All the paine and labour that hath beene taken with them, is lost.

30 They shall call them reprobate siluer, because the Lord hath reiected them.

CHAP. VII.

2 Ieremiah is commaunded to shewe vnto the people the worde of God, which trusteth in the outwarde seruice of the Temple. 13 The euils that shall come to the Iewes, for the despising of their Prophets. 21 Sacrifices doeth not the Lord chiefly require of the Iewes, but that they should obey his worde.

The woordes that came to Ieremiah from the Lorde, saying,

2 Stande in the gate of the Lordes house and crie this woorde there, and say, Heare the woorde of the Lord, all ye of Iudah that enter in at these gates to worship the Lorde.

3 Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, the God of Israel, * Amend your waies and your workes, and I will let you dwell in this place.

* Chap.26.13.

4 Trust not in [a] lying woordes, saying, The Temple of the Lorde, the Temple of the Lorde: this is the Temple of the Lord.

a Beleeue not the false Prophets, which say that for the Temples sake, and the sacrifices there, the Lord will preserue you, and so nourish you in your sinne and vaine confidence.

5 For if you amende and redresse your wayes and your woorkes: if you execute iudgement betweene a man and his neighbour,

6 And oppresse not the stranger, the fatherlesse and the widow, and shed no innocent blood in this place, neither walke after other gods to your destruction,

7 Then [b] will I let you dwell in this place in the lande that I gaue vnto your fathers, for euer and euer.

b God sheweth on what condition he made his promes to this Temple: that they should be an holy people vnto him as hee would be a faithfull God to them.

8 Beholde, you trust in lying woordes, that cannot profite.

9 Will you steale, murder, and commit adulterie, and sweare falsely and burne incense vnto Baal, and walke after other gods whome yee knowe not?

10 And come and stande before me in this House, whereupon my Name is called, and say, Wee are deliuered, though we haue done all these abominations?

11 Is this House become [c] a denne of theeues, whereupon my Name is called before your eyes? Beholde, euen I see it, sayth the Lord.

c As theeues hid in holes and dennes thinke themselues safe, so when you are in my Temple, you thinke to be couered with the holinesse therof, & that I can not see your wickednesse, Matt 21.13.

12 But goe yee now vnto my place which was in Shilo, [d] where I set my Name at the beginning, and beholde, what I did to it for the wickednesse of my people Israel.

d Because they depended so much on the Temple, which was for his promes, that hee would be present and defend them where ẏ Arke was, he sendeth them to Gods iudgements against Shilo, where the Arke had remained about 300. yeeres, and after was taken, the Priestes slaine and the people miserably discomfited, 1.Sam. 4.11. chap.26.6.

13 Therefore nowe because yee haue done all these woorkes, sayeth the Lorde, (and I [e] rose vp earely and spake vnto you: but when I spake, yee would not heare me, neither when I called, would [f] yee answere)

e That is, I neuer ceased to warne you as Isa 65.2 prouer.1.23. f He sheweth what is the onely remedie to redresse our faultes: to suffer God to leade vs into the way, and to obey his calling, Isa 66.4.

14 There-

14 Therefore wil I do vnto this House,whereupon my Name is called,wherein also yee trust, euen vnto the place that I gaue to you & to your fathers,as I haue done vnto Shilo.
15 And I will cast g you out of my sight, as I haue cast out all your brethren, euen the whole seede of Ephraim.
16 Therfore thou shalt not h pray for this people, neither lift vp crie or prayer for them,neither intreate me,for I will not heare thee.
17 Seest thou not what they doe in the cities of Iudah and in the streetes of Ierusalem?
18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knede the dough to make cakes to i the Queene of heauen and to powre out drinke offerings vnto other gods, that they may prouoke me vnto anger.
19 Doe they prouoke me to anger, sayeth the Lorde, and not themselues to the confusion of their owne faces?
20 Therefore thus sayeth the Lorde God, Be-holde, mine anger and my wrath shall be powred vpon this place, vpon man and vpon beast, and vpon the tree of the fielde, and vpon the fruite of the grounde, and it shall burne and not bee quenched.
21 Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes,the God of Israel, Put your burnt offerings vnto your sacrifices,and eate the flesh.
22 For k I spake not vnto your fathers, nor commaunded them, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offrings and sacrifices.
23 But this thing commanded I them,saying, Obey my voyce, and I will be your God, and yee shalbe my people: and walke yee in all the wayes which I haue commaunded you, that it may be well vnto you.
24 But they would not obey, nor incline their eare, but went after the counsels and the stubber-nesse of their wicked heart, and went backewarde and not forwarde.
25 Since the day that your fathers came vp out of the lande of Egypt,vnto l this day, I haue euen sent vnto you all my seruants the Prophets, m rising vp earely euery day,and sending them.
26 Yet would they not heare me nor encline their eare, but hardened their necke & did worse then their fathers.
27 Therefore shalt thou speake all these words vnto them, but they n will not heare thee: thou shalt also crie vnto them, but they will not an-swere thee.
28 But thou shalt say vnto them, This is a nation that heareth not the voice of the Lorde their God, nor receiueth discipline: trueth is perished, and is cleane gone out of their mouth.
29 Cut off thine o haire,O Ierusalem,and cast it away, and take vp a complaint on the hie places: for the Lorde hath reiected and forsaken the generation of his p wrath.
30 For the children of Iudah haue done euill in my sight,sayth the Lorde: they haue set their abominations in the House, whereupon my Name is called,to pollute it.
31 And they haue built the hie place of q Topheth, which is in the valley of Ben-Hinnom to burne their sonnes & their daughters in the fire, which I r commaunded them not, neither came it in mine heart.

g I will send you into captiuitie as I haue done Ephraim,that is the ten tribes.

h To assure them that God had determined with himselfe to punish their wickednesse, he sheweth that the prayer of the godly can nothing auayle them, whiles they remaine in their obstinacie against God,and will not vse the meanes that he vseth to call them to repentance,Chap.11.14. and 14.11.

i That is,they sacrifice to ye sunne, moone and starres, which they called the Queene of heauen,Chap.44.17. 2.king.23.5.

k Shewing that it was not his chiefe purpose & intent, that they should offer sacrifices: but that they shoulde regarde,wherefore they were ordeined: to wit,to be ioyned to ye word as seales and confirmations of remission of sinnes in Christ: for without the word they were vaine and vnprofitable.

l Which was about fourteene hundreth yeeres.

m Read vers.13.

n Whereby hee sheweth that the pastours ought not to leaue their flockes in their obstinacie: for the Lorde will vse the meanes of his seruants to make the wicked more fautie and to proone his.

o In signe of mourning,as Iob 1.20. micah 1.6.

p Against whom hee had iust occasion to powre out his wrath.

q Of Topheth read 2.King.23.10.

r But commanded the contrary, as Leuit.18.21.& 20.3. deut.18.10.

32 Therefore beholde, the dayes come, sayeth the Lord,that it shall no more be called Topheth, nor the valley of Ben-Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: for they shall burie in Topheth til there be no place.
33 And ye carkeises of this people shalbe meate for the foules of the heauen and for the beastes of the earth,and none shall fray them away.
34 * Then I will cause to cease from the cities of Iudah and from the streetes of Ierusalem the voice of mirth & the voice of gladnesse, the voice of the bridegrome and the voice of the bride: for the lande shalbe desolate.

* Ezek.26.13.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The destruction of the Iewes. 4 The Lord mooneth the people to amendment. 10 Hee reprehendeth the lying doctrine and the couetousnesse of the Prophets and Priests.

AT that time, sayeth the Lord,they shall bring out the bones of the Kings of Iudah,and the bones of their princes, & the bones of the Priests and the bones of the Prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Ierusalem out of their a graues.
2 And they shal spread them before the sunne and the moone,and all the host of heauen, whom they haue loued, and whome they haue serued, and whome they haue followed,and whome they haue sought, and whome they haue worshipped:
they shall not be gathered nor be buried,but shall be as doung vpon the earth.
3 And death shall bee desired b rather then life of all the residue that remayneth of this wicked familie, which remaine in all the places where I haue scattered them,sayeth the Lord of hostes.
4 Thou shalt say vnto them also, Thus sayeth the Lorde, Shall they c fall and not arise? shall he turne away and not turne againe?
5 Wherefore is this people of Ierusalem turned backe by a perpetuall rebellion? they gaue themselues to deceit,and would not returne.
6 I hearkened and heard, but none spake aright: no man repented him of his wickednesse, saying, What haue I done? euery d one turned to their race,as the horse rusheth into the battell.
7 Euen the storke in the aire knoweth her appointed times, and the turtle and the crane and the swallowe obserue the time of their comming, but my people knoweth not the e iudgement of
the Lorde.
8 How doe yee say, Wee are wise, and the Lawe f of the Lorde is with vs? Loe, certeinly in vaine made he it, the penne of the scribes is in vaine.
9 The g wise men are ashamed: they are afraid and taken. loe,they haue reiected the word of the Lord,and what wisedome is in them?
10 Therefore will I giue their wiues vnto others, and their fieldes to them that shall possesse them: * for euery one from the least euen vnto the greatest is giuen to couetousnesse, and from the Prophet euen vnto the Priest, euery one dealeth falsely.
11 For they haue healed ye hurt of the daughter of my people with sweete woordes, saying, h Peace,peace,when there is no peace.
12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not ashamed, neither could they haue any shame: therefore shall they fall among the slaine: when I shall visite them, they shall be cast downe, sayeth
the Lord.

a The enemie for griedinesse of gaine shall rifle your graues,and lay you before those idoles,which in your life you worshipped,to see if they can helpe you.

b Because of the afflictions ye they shall feele through Gods iudgements.

c Is there no hope that they will returne?

d They are full of hypocrisie,and euery one followeth his owne fantasie without any consideration.

e Hee accuseth them in that that they are more ignorant of Gods iudgements then these birdes are of their appoynted seasons to discerne the cold,and heat, as Isa.1.3.

f The Lawe doeth not profite you, neither neede it to haue bene written for ought that you haue learned by it.

g They that seeme wise,may be ashamed of their ignorance: for all wisdome consisteth in Gods worde.

* Isa.56.11.chap.5.31.& 6.13.

h Read chap.6.14.

13 I will

13 I wil surely consume them, sayth the Lord:
there shalbe no grapes on the vine, nor figges on the figtree, and the leafe shal fade, and things that I haue giuen them, shall depart from them.
14 Why doe we stay? i assemble your selues, and let vs enter into the strong cities, and let vs be quiet there: for the Lord our God hath put vs to silence and giuen vs water with k gall to drinke, because we haue sinned against the Lord.
15 *We looked for peace, but no good came,
and for a time of health, and behold troubles.
16 The neying of his horses was heard from l Dan, the whole land trembled at the noyse of the neying of his strong horses: for they are come, and haue deuoured the land with all that is in it,
the citie, and those that dwell therein.
17 For beholde, I will m sende serpents, and cockatrices among you, which will not be charmed, and they shall sting you, sayth the Lord.
18 I would haue n comforted my selfe against sorowe, but mine heart is heauie in me.
19 Behold, the voyce of the cry of the daughter of my people for feare of them of a farre countrey, Is not the Lord in Zion? is not her king in her? Why o haue they prouoked mee to anger with their grauen images, and with the vanities of a strange god?
20 The p haruest is past, the sommer is ended, and we are not holpen.
21 I am q sore vexed for the hurt of ẏ daughter of my people: I am heauie, and astonishment hath taken me.
22 Is there no balme r at Gilead? is there no Physition there? Why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recouered?

i He speaketh in the person of the people, who when the enemie commeth, will runne about to hide themselues, and acknowledge that it is Gods hand.
k That is, hath brought vs into extreme affliction, and thus they shal not attribute this plague to fortune, but to Gods iust iudgement, Chap. 9.15. & 23.15.
* Chap. 14.19.
l Reade Chap. 4.15.
m God threatneth to send the Babylonians among them, who shall vtterly destroy them in such sort as by no meanes they shall escape.
n Reade Chap. 4.19.
o Thus the Lord speaketh.
p The people wonder that they haue so long time looked for succour in vaine.
q The Prophet speaketh this.
r Meaning that no mans helpe or meanes could saue them: for in Gilead was precious balme, Chap 46.11. or els deriding ẏ vaine confidence of the people who looked for helpe at their Priestes, who should haue bene the Physitians of their soules, and dwelt at Gilead, Hose. 6.8.

CHAP. IX.

1 The complaint of the Prophet for the malice of the people. 24 In the knowledge of God ought we onely to reioyce. 26 The vncircumcision of the heart.

OH, that mine head were full of a water and mine eyes a fountaine of teares, that I might weepe day and night for the slaine of the daughter of my people.
2 Oh, that I had in the wildernes a b cottage of wayfaring men, that I might leaue my people, and goe from them: for they be all c adulterers & an assembly of rebels, 3 And they bende their tongues like their bowes for d lyes: but they haue not courage for the trueth vpon the earth: for they proceede from euill to worse, and they haue not knowen mee, sayth the Lord.
4 Let euery one take heede of his neighbour, and trust you not in any e brother: for euery brother will vse deceite, and euery friend will deale deceitfully,
5 And euery one will deceiue his friende, and will not speake the trueth: for they f haue taught their tongue to speake lies, and take great paynes to doe wickedly.
6 Thine habitation is in the middes of deceiuers: g because of their deceit they refuse to know me, sayth the Lord.

a The Prophet sheweth the great compassion that he had toward this people, seeing that he coulde neuer sufficiently lament the destruction that he sawe to hang ouer them. Which is a special note to discerne the true pastours from the hirelings, Reade Chap. 4.19.
b Hee sheweth that this were more quietnesse and greater safetie for him to dwell among the wilde beasts then among the wicked people, saue that God hath inioyned him this charge.
c Vtterly turned from God.
d To belye and slander their neighbours.
e Meaning, that all were corrupt & none could find an honest man.
f They haue so practised deceite, that they can not forsake it.
g They had rather forsake God, then leaue their wicked trade.

7 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, Behold, I wil h melt them, & trie them: for what should I els doe for the daughter of my people?
8 Their tongue * is an arowe shot out, and speaketh deceite: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in his heart hee layeth waite for him.
9 Shall I not visit them for these things, saith the Lorde? or shall not my soule be auenged on such a nation as this?
10 Vpon the i mountaines will I take vp a weeping and a lamentation, and vpon the fayre places of the wildernes a mourning, because they are burnt vp: so that none can passe through them, neither can men heare the voyce of the flocke: both the foule of the aire, and the beast are fled away and gone.
11 And I wil make Ierusalem an heape, and a den of dragons, & I will make the cities of Iudah waste, without an inhabitant.
12 Who is k wise, to vnderstand this? and to whome the mouth of the Lorde hath spoken, euen he shal declare it. Why doeth the land perish, and is burnt vp like a wildernesse, that none passeth through?
13 And the Lorde sayeth, Because they haue forsaken my Lawe, which I set before them, and haue not obeyed my voyce, neither walked thereafter,
14 But haue walked after the stubbernesse of their owne heart, and after Baalims, which l their fathers taught them,
15 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde of hostes,
the God of Israel, Beholde, I wil feede this people with wormewood, and giue them waters of gall m to drinke:
16 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers haue know-en, and I wil send a sword after them, till I haue consumed them.
17 Thus sayeth the Lorde of hostes, Take heede, and call for n the mourning women, that they may come, and send for skilfull women that they may come,
18 And let them make haste, & let them take vp a lamentation for vs, that our eyes may cast out teares and our eye liddes gush out of water.
19 For a lamentable noyse is heard out of Zion, Howe are we destroyed, and vtterly confounded, for we haue forsaken the land, and our dwellings o haue cast vs out.
20 Therefore heare the worde of the Lord, O ye women, and let your eares regard the words of his mouth, & p teach your daughters to mourne, and euery one her neighbour to lament.
21 For death is come vp into our q windowes, and is entred into our palaces, to destroy the children without, and the yong men in the streetes.
22 Speake, Thus sayth the Lorde, The carkei-ses of men shall lye, euen as the doung vpon the fielde, and as the handfull after the mower, and none shall gather them.
23 Thus saith the Lord, Let not the r wise man glory in his wisedome, nor the strong man glorie in his strength, neither the riche man glory in his riches.
24 But let him that glorieth, glorie in this,
that he vnderstandeth, and knoweth me: for I am the Lorde, which f shewe mercie, iudgement, and

h With the fire of affliction.
* Psal. 28.3. and 120.4.
i Signifying that al the places about Ierusalem should be destroyed.
k Meaning, that they are all without sense and vnderstanding, & that God hath takẽ his spirit from them.
l He sheweth that the children can not excuse themselues by their fathers: for both father, and childe if they be wicked, shall perish.
m Reade Cha 8.14.
n Seeing you can not lament your owne finnes, call for those foolish women, whom of a superstition you haue to lament for the dead, that they by their fayned teares may prouoke you to some sorow.
o As though they were wearie of vs, because of our iniquities, Leu. 18.28. and 20.22.
p He derideth the superstition of the women, which made an arte of mourning, and taught to weepe with fained teares.
q Signifying, that there is no meanes to deliuer the wicked from Gods iudgements: but when they thinke to be most sure & most farre off then are they soonest taken, r Forasmuch as none can saue him selfe by his owne labour or any worldly meanes, he sheweth that it is in vaine to put our trust therein, but that we trust in the Lord, and reioyce in him, who only can deliuer vs, 1. Cor. 1.31. 2 cor. 10.17.
f These three points are necessary to know aright: his mercy wherein consisteth our saluation: his iudgement, which he executeth continually against ẏ wicked: & his iustice, whereby he defendeth, & maintaineth the faithfull.

righteousnes in the earth: for in these things I delite, sayth the Lord.

25 Beholde, the dayes come, sayth the Lord, that I will visite all them, which are [t] circumcised with the vncircumcised:

26 Egypt and Iudah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all the vtmost corners of them that dwell in the wildernesse: for all these nations are vncircumcised, & al the house of Israel are vncircumcised in the heart.

t Meaning both Iewes & Gentiles, as in the next verse he sheweth the cause, reade Chap. 44.

CHAP. X.

2 The constellations of the starres are not to be feared. 5 The weakenesse of idoles, and of the power of God. 21 Their Pastours are become brute beastes.

Heare ye the worde of the Lord that hee speaketh vnto you, O house of Israel.

2 Thus saith the Lorde, Learne not the way of the heathen, & be not afraid for the [a] signes of heauen, though the heathen be afraid of such.

3 For the [b] customes of the people are vaine: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest (which is the worke of the handes of the carpenter) with the axe,

4 And another decketh it [c] with siluer, and with golde: they fasten it with nailes, and hammers, that it fall not.

5 The idoles stande vp as the palme tree, but speake not: they are borne because they cannot go: feare them not, for they cannot doe euill, neither can they doe good.

6 There is none like vnto thee, O Lorde: [d] thou art great, and thy Name is great in power.

7 Who would not feare thee, O King of nations? for to thee appertaineth the dominion: for among all the wise men of the Gentiles, and in all their kingdomes there is none like thee.

8 But altogether they dote, and are foolish: for the stocke is a [e] doctrine of vanitie.

9 Siluer plates are brought from Tarshish, & golde [f] from Vphaz, for the worke of the workeman, and the handes of the founder: the blewe silke, and the purple is their clothing: all these things are made by cunning men.

10 But the Lord is the God of trueth: he is the liuing God, and an euerlasting King: at his anger the earth shall tremble, and the nations cannot abide his wrath.

11 (Thus shall you say vnto them, The gods [g] that haue not made the heauens and the earth, shall perish from the earth, and from vnder these heauens)

12 He hath made the earth by his power, and established the world by his wisdome, and hath stretched out the heauen by his discretion.

13 Hee giueth by his voyce the multitude of waters in the heauen, and he causeth the cloudes to ascend from the endes of the earth: he turneth lightnings to rayne, and bringeth forth the winde out of his treasures.

14 Euery man is a [h] beast by his owne knowledge: euery founder is confounded by the grauen image: for his melting is but falshood, and there is no breath therein.

15 They are vanitie, and the worke of errours: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

16 The [i] portion of Iaakob is not like them: for he is the maker of all things, and Israel is the rodde of his inheritance: the Lorde of hostes is his Name.

17 ¶ [k] Gather vp thy wares out of the land, O thou that dwellest in the strong place.

18 For thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, at this time I will throwe as with a sling the inhabitants of the land, and will trouble them, and they shall finde it so.

19 Wo is me for my destruction, and my grieuous plague: but I thought, Yet it [l] is my sorowe, and I will beare it.

20 [m] My tabernacle is destroyed, and all my coardes are broken: my children are gone from me, and are not: there is none to spread out my tent any more, and to set vp my curtaines.

21 For the Pastours [n] are become beasts, and haue not sought the Lorde: therefore haue they none vnderstanding: and all the flockes of their pastures are scattered.

22 Beholde, the noyse of the brute is come, & a great commotion out of the [o] North countrey to make the cities of Iudah desolate, and a denne of dragons.

23 O Lord, I knowe, that [p] the way of man is not in himselfe, neither is it in man to walke and to direct his steps.

24 O Lorde, correct mee, but with [q] iudgement, not in thine anger, least thou bring me to nothing.

25 Powre out [r] thy wrath vpon the heathen, that knowe thee not, and vpon the families that call not on thy Name: for they haue eaten vp Iaakob and deuoured him & consumed him, & haue made his habitation desolate.

a God forbiddeth his people to giue credite or feare the constellations and coniunctions of starres and planets, which haue no power of themselues, but are gouerned by him, and their secrete motions and influences are not knowen to man, and therefore there can be no certaine iudgement thereof, Deut. 18.9.

b Meaning not onely in the obseruation of the stars, but their Lawes and ceremonies whereby they confirme their idolatrie, which is forbidden, Deut. 12. 30.

c The Prophets vse thus plainely and simply to set forth the vile absurditie of the idolaters, that men might learne to be ashamed of that, whereunto their corrupt nature is most subiect, reade Isa. 44.12.

d Hee teacheth the people to lift vp their eyes to God, who hath all power, and therefore ought onely to be feared: and herein he sheweth them not only the euill that they ought to eschewe, but the good which they ought to folowe, Reue. 15.4.

e Because the people thought that to haue images, was a meane to serue God, and to bring them to the knowledge of him, he sheweth that nothing more displeaseth God, nor bringeth man into greater errours and ignorance of God: and therefore he calleth them the doctrine of vanitie, the worke of errors, verse 15. & Habak. 2.18. calleth them the teachers of lyes: contrary to that wicked opinion, that they are the bookes of the lay people. f Whereas they found the best gold: shewing that they thought nothing too deare for their idols: some reade Ophir, as 1. Kin. 9.28. g This declareth, that all that hath bene in this Chapter spoken of idoles, was to arme the Iewes when they should be in Caldea among the idolaters, and nowe with one sentence he instructeth them both howe to protest their owne religion against the idolaters, and how to answere them to their shame which should exhort them to idolatrie, and therefore he writeth this sentence in the Caldeans tongue for a memorial, whereas all the rest of his writing is Ebrew.

h The more that man thinketh to do any thing well by his owne wisdome, and not as God instructeth him, the more doth he proue himselfe to be a vile beast.

i By these words, Portion & rod, he signifieth their inheritāce: meaning, y God should be al sufficient for them: & that their felicitie cōsisted in him alone, & therefore they ought to renounce all other helpes, & succours as of idoles, &c. Deu 32.9. psa. 16.5.

k The Prophet willeth the Iewes to prepare themselues to this captiuitie, shewing that it was now at hand, that they should feele the things, whereof he had tolde them.

l It is my iust plague, and therefore I will take it patiently: whereby hee teacheth the people how to behaue themselues toward God.

m Hee sheweth howe Ierusalem shall lament.

p Hee speaketh this because that Nebuchad-nezzar purposed to haue made warre against the Moabites and Ammonites, but hearing of Zedekiahs rebellion, he turned his power to goe against Ierusalem, Ezek. 21.21. therefore the Prophet sayeth, that this was the Lordes direction. q Considering that God had reueiled vnto him the certitude of their captiuitie, Chap. 7.16. he onely prayeth, that hee would punish them with mercy, which Isaiah calleth, in measure, Chap. 27.8. measuring his rods by their infirmitie, 1. Cor. 10.13. for here by iudgement is meant not onely the punishment, but also the mercifull moderation of the same, as Chap. 30.11. r Forasmuch as God cannot onely be knowen and glorified by his mercie, that hee vseth towarde his Church, but also by his iustice in punishing his enemies, hee prayeth that his glory may fully appeare both in the one and the other, Psal. 79.6.

CHAP. XI.

3 A curse of them that obey not the worde of Gods couenant. 10 The people of Iudah, following the steppes of their fathers, worship strange gods. 15 The Lorde forbiddeth Ieremiah to pray for them.

The worde that came to Ieremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 Heare ye the wordes of this couenant, and speake vnto the men of Iudah, and to the inhabitants of Ierusalem,

3 And say thou vnto them, Thus sayeth the Lord God of Israel, [a] Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the wordes of this couenant,

4 Which I commaunded vnto your fathers, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the yron fornace, saying, Obey my voyce, and doe according to all these things, which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God, a He calleth the Iewes to the consideration of Gods mercies, who freely chose thē, made a couenāt of eternall felicitie with them, and how hee euer performed it on his behalfe, and howe they euer shewed thēselues rebellious and ingrate towarde him & brake it on their part, & so are subiect to the curse of the Lawe, Deut. 27.26.

5 That

5 That I may confirme the othe, that I haue sworne vnto your fathers, to giue them a lande, which floweth with milke and hony, as appeareth this day. Then answered [b] I and sayde, So be it, O Lord.

b Thus he speaketh in the person of the people, which agreed to the couenant.

6 Then the Lord saide vnto me, Cry all these words in the cities of Iudah, and in the streetes of Ierusalem, saying, Heare yee the words of this couenant, and doe them.

7 For I haue protested vnto your fathers, whẽ I brought them vp out of the land of Egypt vnto this day, [c] rising earely and protesting, saying, Obey my voyce.

c Reade Chap.7. 13.

8 Neuerthelesse they woulde not obey, nor encline their eare: but euery one walked in the stubbernesse of his wicked [d] heart: therefore I will bring vpon them all the [e] wordes of this couenant, which I commanded them to doe, but they did it not.

d According to his owne fantasie, and not as my word appoynted him.

e Meaning, the menaces and curses conteyned in the Lawe, Leuit. 26.14. deut.28. 16.

9 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, A [f] conspiracie is found among the men of Iudah, and among the inhabitants of Ierusalem.

f That is, a generall consent to rebell against me.

10 They are turned backe to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to heare my wordes: and they went after other gods to serue them: thus the house of Israel, & the house of Iudah haue broken my couenant, which I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus sayth the Lord, Beholde, I will bring a plague vpon them, which they shall not be able to escape, and though they crye vnto me, [g] I will not heare them.

g Because they will not pray with true faith and repentance, but for the smart & griefe, which they feele, Prou.1.28.

12 Then shall the cities of Iudah, and the inhabitants of Ierusalem goe, and crie vnto the gods vnto whome they offer incense, but they shall not bee able to helpe them in time of their trouble.

13 [h] For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Iudah, and according to the number of the streetes of Ierusalem haue yee set vp altars of confusion, euen altars to burne incense vnto Baal.

h Reade Chap.2. 28.

14 Therfore thou shalt not pray [i] for this people, neither lift vp a crie, or prayer for them: for when they cry vnto mee in their trouble, I will not heare them.

i Reade Chap.7. 16.and 14 11.

15 What shoulde my [k] beloued tarie in mine house, seeing they haue committed abomination with many? and the holy flesh [l] goeth away from thee: yet when thou doest euill, thou reioycest.

k My people of Israel whome I haue hitherto so greatly loued.

l Meaning, that they offer not in the Temple to God, but vpon the altars of Baal and the idoles, and so reioyced in their wickednesse.

16 The Lorde called thy name, A greene oliue tree, faire, and of goodly fruite: but with [m] noyse and great tumult he hath set fire vpon it, and the branches of it are broken.

m Of the Babylonians and Caldeans.

17 For the Lorde of hostes that planted thee, hath pronounced a plague against thee, for the wickednes of the house of Israel, and of the house of Iudah, which they haue done against themselues to prouoke me to anger in offering incense vnto Baal.

18 And the Lorde hath taught me, and I knowe it, euen then thou shewedst mee [n] their practises.

n Which went about priuily to conspire my death.

19 But I was like a lambe, or a bullocke, that is brought to the slaughter, and I knewe not that they had deuised thus against me, saying, Let vs [o] destroy the tree with the fruite thereof, and cut him out of the lande of the liuing, that his name may be no more in memory.

o Let vs destroy the Prophet and his doctrine. Some reade, let vs corrupt his meat with wood, meaning, poyson.

20 But O Lord of hostes, that iudgest righteously, and triest the reines and the heart, let me see thy [p] vengeance on them: for vnto thee haue I opened my cause.

p Thus he spake, not for hatred, but being moued with the Spirit of God, he desireth the aduancement of Gods glory and the verifying of his word, which is by the destruction of his enemies.

21 The Lorde therefore speaketh thus of the men of [q] Anathoth, (that seeke thy life, and say, [r] Prophecie not in the Name of the Lorde, that thou die not by our handes)

22 Thus therefore sayth the Lorde of hostes, Beholde, I will visite them: the yong men shall die by the sword: their sonnes and their daughters shall die by famine, 23 And none of them shall remaine: for I wil bring a plague vpon the men of Anathoth, euen the yeere of their visitation.

q To wit, both the Priests and the rest of the people: for this towne was the Priestes and they dwelt in it, reade Chap.1.1. r Not that they coulde not abide to heare God named: (for herein they woulde shewe them selues most holy) but because they coulde not abide to be sharpely reproued, and therefore desired to be flattered, Isa.30.10. and to be maintained in their pleasures, Mich.2.11. and not to heare vice condemned, Amos 7.13.

CHAP. XII.

1 The Prophet merueileth at the prosperitie of the wicked, although he confesse God to be righteous. 7 The Iewes are forsaken of the Lord. 10 He speaketh against pastors and preachers, that seduce the people. 14 The Lorde threatneth destruction vnto the nations, that troubled Iudah.

O Lorde, if I dispute with thee, thou art [a] righteous: yet let mee talke with thee of thy iudgements: wherefore doeth the way of the wicked [b] prosper? why are all they in wealth that rebelliously transgresse?

a The Prophet confesseth God to be iust in all his doings, although man be not able to giue reason of all his acts.

b This question hath bene alway a great tentation to the godly, to see the wicked enemies of God in prosperitie, and his deare children in aduersitie, as Iob.21.7. psalm. 37.1 and 73.3. Habac. 1.3.

2 Thou hast planted them, and they haue taken roote: they grow, and bring forth fruite: thou art neere in their mouth, and farre from their [c] reines.

c They professe God in mouth, but denie him in heart, which is here meant by the reines, Isa.29.13 matth.15 8.

3 But thou, Lord, knowest me: thou hast seene me, and tried mine heart towarde thee: pull them out like sheepe for the slaughter, and [d] prepare them for the day of slaughter.

d The Ebrewe word is, sanctifie them, meaning, that God would be sanctified in the destruction of the wicked, to whom God for a while giueth prosperitie, that afterwarde they shoulde the more feele his heauie iudgement when they lacke their riches, which were a signe of his mercy.

4 Howe long shall the lande mourne, and the herbes of euery fielde wither, for the wickednesse of them that dwell therein? the beastes are consumed and the birdes, because they sayd, [e] He will not see our last ende.

5 If thou hast runne with the [f] footemen, and they haue wearied thee, then howe canst thou match thy selfe with horses? and if thou thoughtest thy selfe safe in a peaceable lande, what wilt thou doe in the swelling of Iorden?

6 For euen thy brethren, and the house of thy father, euen they haue delt vnfaithfully with thee, and they haue cryed out altogether vpon thee: but beleeue them not, though they speake faire to thee.

7 I haue forsaken [g] mine house: I haue left mine heritage: I haue giuen the dearely beloued of my soule into the hands of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is vnto mee, as a [h] lion in the forest: it crieth out against mee, therefore haue I hated it.

9 Shall mine heritage bee vnto mee, as a bird

e Abusing Gods lenitie and his promises, they flattered them selues as though God woulde euer be mercifull, and not vtterly destroy them: therefore they hardened them selues in sinne, till at length the beastes and insensible creatures felt the punishment of their stubburne rebellion against God. f Some thinke that GOD reprooueth Ieremiah in this, that hee woulde reason with him, saying, that if he were not able to match with men, that hee were farre vnable to dispute with God. Others, by the foote men, meane them of Anathoth, and by the horsmen them of Ierusalem, which shoulde trouble the Prophet worse then his owne countrie men did. g God willeth the Prophet to denounce his iudgements against Ierusalem, notwithstanding that they shall both by threatnings and flatteries labour to put him to silence. h Ever ramping and raging against me and my Prophets.

[l] of diuers colours? are not the birdes about her, saying, Come, assemble all ȳ beastes of the fielde, come to eate her?

10 Many pastors haue destroyed my [k] vineyarde, and troden my portion vnder foote: of my pleasant portion they haue made a desolate wildernesse.

11 They haue layde it waste, and it, being waste, mourneth vnto me: and the whole lande lyeth waste, because no man setteth his minde on [l] it.

12 The destroyers are come vpon all the high places in the wildernesse: for the sworde of the Lord shal deuoure from the one ende of the land, euen to the other ende of the lande: no flesh shall haue peace.

13 [m] They haue sowen wheate, and reaped thornes: they were [n] sicke, and had no profite: and they were ashamed of [o] your fruites, because of the fierce wrath of the Lorde.

14 Thus sayth the Lorde against all mine euill [p] neighbours, that touch the inheritance, which I haue caused my people Israel to inherite, Beholde, I will plucke them out of their lande, and plucke out the house of Iudah from among them.

15 And after that I haue plucked them out, I [q] will returne, and haue compassion on them, and will bring againe euery man to his heritage, and euery man to his land.

16 And if they will learne the [r] wayes of my people, to sweare by my Name, ([s] The Lorde liueth, as they taught my people to sweare by Baal) then shall they be built [t] in the middes of my people.

17 But if they will not obey, then will I vtterly plucke vp, and destroy that nation, sayeth the Lord.

l In steade of bearing my linerie and wearing onely my colours, they haue chaūged and diuersitie of colours of their idoles and superstitions: therefore their enemies, as thicke as the foules of the aire shall come about them to destroy them.
k He propheciеth of the destruction of Ierusalem by the captaines of Nebuchad-nezzar, whome he calleth pastors.
l Because no man regardeth my worde, or the plagues that I haue sent vpon the land.
m To wit, the Prophets.
n They lamented the sinnes of the people.
o For in steade of amendement, you grewe worse and worse, as Gods plagues testified.

CHAP. XIII.

The destruction of the Iewes is prefigured. 11 Why Israel was receiued to be the people of God, and why they were forsaken. 15 He exhorteth them to repentance.

Thus sayth the Lorde vnto mee, Goe, and buy thee a linen girdle, & put it vpon thy loynes, and put it not in water.

2 So I bought the girdle according to the commaundement of the Lord, and put it vpon my loynes.

3 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast bought, which is vpon thy loynes, and arise, goe towarde [a] Perath, and hide it there in the cleft of the rocke.

5 So I went, and hid it by Perath, as the Lord had commanded me.

6 And after many dayes, the Lorde sayde vnto mee, Arise, goe towarde Perath, and take the girdle from thence, which I commaunded thee to hide there.

7 Then went I to Perath, and digged, & tooke the girdle from the place where I had hid it, and behold, the girdle was corrupt, and was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

9 Thus sayth the Lord, After this maner will I destroy the pride of Iudah, and the great pride of Ierusalem.

10 This wicked people haue refused to heare my word, and walke after ȳ stubbernesse of their owne heart, and walke after other gods to serue them, and to worship them: therefore they shalbe as this girdle, which is profitable to nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaueth to the loynes of a man, so haue I tied to me the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Iudah, saith the Lorde, that they might bee my people: that they might haue a name and prayse, and glory, but they would not heare.

12 Therefore thou shalt saye vnto them this word, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Euery [b] bottell shalbe filled with wine, and they shal say vnto thee, Doe we not knowe that euery bottell shalbe filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say vnto them, Thus saith the Lorde, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, euen the Kings that sit vpon the throne of Dauid, and the Priestes and the Prophets and all the inhabitantes of Ierusalem with drunkennesse.

14 And I [c] wil dash them one against another, euen the fathers and the sonnes together, sayeth the Lord: I will not spare, I will not pitie nor haue compassion, but destroy them.

15 Heare and giue eare, be not proude: for the Lord hath spoken it.

16 Giue glory to the Lorde your God before he bring [d] darknes, and or euer your feete stumble in the darke mountaines, and whiles you look for [e] light, he turne it into the shadowe of death and make it as darkenesse.

17 But if ye will not heare this, my soule shall [f] weepe in secrete for your pride, and mine eye shall weepe and drop downe teares, because the Lords flocke is caried away captiue.

18 Say vnto the [g] King and to the Queene, Humble your selues, sit downe, for the crowne of your glorye shall come downe from your heads.

19 The cities of [h] the South shall be shut vp, and no man shall open them: all Iudah shall be caried away captiue: it shall be wholy caried away captiue.

20 Lift vp your eyes and beholde them that come frō the North: where is the [i] flocke that was giuen thee, euen thy beautifull flocke?

21 What wilt thou saye, when hee shal visite thee? (for thou hast [k] taught them to be captaines and as chiefe ouer thee) shall not sorow take thee as a woman in trauaile?

22 And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things vpon me? For the multitude of thine iniquities are thy skirts [l] discouered and thy heeles made bare.

23 Can the blacke More change his skin? or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to doe euill.

24 Therefore will I scatter them, as the stubble that is taken away with the South winde.

25 This is thy portion, and ȳ part of thy measures from me, sayth the Lorde, because thou hast forgotten me and trusted in lyes.

26 Therefore I haue also discouered thy skirts vpon thy face, [m] that thy shame may appeare.

27 I haue seene thine adulteries, and thy [n] neiings, the filthinesse of thy whoredome on the hils in a Because this riuer Perath or Euphrates was farre from Ierusalem, it is euident, that this was a vision, whereby was signified that the Iewes shoulde passe ouer Euphrates to be captiues in Babylon, and there for length of time shoulde seeme to be rotten, although they were ioyned to the Lorde before as a girdle about a man.

b Euery one of you shalbe filled with spirituall drunkennes, and be without all knowledge to seeke howe to helpe your selues.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Of the dearth that shoulde come. 7 The prayer of the people asking mercie of the Lorde. 10 The vnfaithfull people are not heard. 12 Of prayer, fasting, and of false prophets that seduce the people.

THe worde of the Lord that came vnto Ieremiah, concerning the a || dearth.
2 Iudah hath mourned, and the gates thereof are desolate, they haue bene b brought to heaui-nesse vnto the grounde, and the cry of Ierusalem goeth vp.
3 And their nobles haue sent their inferiours to the water, who came to the welles, and founde no water: they returned with their vessels emptie:
they were ashamed and confounded, and c couered their heads.
4 For the grounde was destroyed, because there was no rayne in the earth: the plowmen were ashamed, and couered their heads.
5 Yea, the hinde also calued in the fielde, and forsooke d it, because there was no grasse.
6 And the wilde asses did stande in the high places, & drew in their winde like e dragons: their eyes did faile, because there was no grasse.
7 f O Lorde, though our iniquities testifie against vs, deale with vs according to thy Name: for our rebellions are many, we sinned against thee.
8 O the hope of Israel, the sauiour thereof in the time of trouble, why art thou as a g strãger in ẏ land, as one that passeth by to tary for a night?
9 Why art thou as a man astonied, and as h a strong man that cannot helpe? yet thou, O Lord, art in the middes of vs, and thy Name is called vpon vs: forsake vs not.
10 Thus sayth the Lord vnto this people, Thus haue they delited to wander: they haue not refrained their feete, therefore the Lorde hath no delight in them: but he will now remember their iniquitie, and visite their sinnes.
11 Then sayd the Lord vnto me, i Thou shalt not pray to doe this people good.
12 When they fast, I will not heare their cry, and when they offer burnt offering, and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sworde, and by the famine and by the pestilence.
13 Then answered I, Ah Lorde God, beholde, the k prophets say vnto them, Ye shall not see the sworde, neither shall famine come vpon you, but I wil giue you assured peace in this place.
14 Then the Lord said vnto me, The prophets prophecie lyes in my Name: * I haue not sent them, neither did I commaund them, neither spake
I vnto them, but they prophecie vnto you a false vision, and diuination, and vanitie, and deceitful-nesse of their owne heart.
15 Therefore thus sayth the Lord, Concerning the prophets that prophecie in my Name, whom I haue not sent, yet they say, Sworde and famine shall not be in this land, by sword and famine shal those prophets be consumed.
16 And the people to whome these prophets doe prophecie, shalbe cast out in the streetes of Ierusalem, because of the famine, & the sword, and there shall be none to bury them, both they, and their wiues, and their sonnes, and their daughters:
for I wil powre their wickednes vpon them.

o There is no place so hie nor low, whereas the markes & signes of thine idolatrie appeare not.

a Which came for lacke of raine, as verse 4.
|| Or, restreint.
b The word signifieth to be made blacke, & so is here taken for extreme sorow.
c To wit, with ashes in token of sorowe.
d Meaning, that the brute beasts for drought were compelled to forsake their yong, contrary to nature, & to go seeke water, which they could not finde.
e Which are so hote of nature, that they cannot be cooled with drinking of water, but still gape for the aire to refresh them.
f He sheweth the only way to remedie Gods plagues, which is by vnfained confession of our sinnes, & returning to him by repentance.
g That taketh no care for vs.
h As one that hath strength to helpe, and yet is afraide to put to his hand.
i Reade Chap. 7. 16 & 11.14.
k He pitieth the people, & accuseth the false prophets, which deceiued them: but the Lord answered, that both the prophets, which deceiued, & the people, which suffered themselues to be seduced, shall perish, Chap. 23. 15 & 27. 8, 9 and 29. 8.
* Chap. 23. 21 and 27. 10, 15. & 29. 9.

17 Therefore thou shalt say this worde vnto them, Let mine eyes drop downe l teares night & day without ceasing: for the virgine daughter of my people is destroyed with a great destruction, and with a sore grieuous plague.
18 For if I go into the field, beholde the slaine with the sworde: and if I enter into the citie, behold them that are sicke for hunger also: moreo-uer the Prophet also & the Priest goe a wandring m into a land that they know not.
19 Hast thou vtterly reiected n Iudah, or hath thy soule abhorred Zion? why hast thou smitten vs, that we cannot be healed? Wee looked for peace, and there is no good, and for the time of health, and behold trouble.
20 We o acknowledge, O Lorde, our wickednesse and the iniquitie of our fathers: for we haue sinned against thee.
21 Doe not abhorre vs: for thy Names sake cast not downe the throne of thy glory: remember and breake not thy couenant with vs.
22 Are there any among the p vanities of the Gentiles, that can giue raine? or can the heauens giue showres? is it not thou, O Lorde our God?
therefore we will waite vpon thee: for thou hast made all these things.

l The false prophets promised peace, & assurance, but Ieremiah calleth to teares, and repentance for their affliction, which is at hand, as Chap. 9. 1. Lamen. 1. 16. and 2. 18.
m Both hie and lowe shalbe led captiues into Babylon.
n Though the Prophet knewe that God had cast off the multitude, which were hypocrites, and bastarde children, yet hee was assured that for his promes sake he woulde haue stil a Church, for the which hee prayeth.
o He teacheth the Church a forme of prayer to humble themselues to God by true repentance, which is the onely meane to auoyd this famine, which was the beginning of Gods plagues. p Meaning, their idoles, reade Chap. 10. 15.

CHAP. XV.

1 The Lord would heare no prayer for the Iewes, 3 But threatneth to destroy them with foure plagues.

THen sayd the Lord vnto me, a Though Moses and Samuel stoode before mee, yet mine affection could not be towarde this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them depart.
2 And if they say vnto thee, Whither shal we depart? then tell them, Thus saith the Lord, * Such as are appointed to death, vnto death: and such as are for the sworde, to the sworde: and such as are for the famine, to the famine: and such as are for the captiuitie, to the captiuitie.
3 And I wil appoint ouer them foure kindes, sayth the Lord, the sworde to slay, and the b dogs to teare in pieces, and the foules of the heauen, and the beastes of the earth to deuoure, and to destroy.
4 I will c scatter them also in all kingdomes of the earth, d because of Manasseh the sonne of Hezekiah King of Iudah, for that which he did in Ierusalem.
5 Who shall then haue pitie vpon thee, O Ie-rusalem? or who shalbe sorie for thee? or who shal goe to pray for thy peace?
6 Thou hast forsaken me, sayth the Lord, and gone backward: therefore will I stretch out mine hand against thee, and destroy thee: for I e am weary with repenting.
7 And I wil scatter them with the fanne f in the gates of the earth: I haue wasted, and destroyed my people, yet they would not returne from their wayes.
8 Their widowes are g increased by mee aboue the sand of the sea: I haue brought vpon them, and against the || assembly of the yong men a destroyer at noone day: I haue caused him to fall
vpon them, and the citie suddenly, and || speedily.
9 Shee that hath borne h seuen, hath bene made weake: her heart hath failed: the sunne hath failed i her, whiles it was day: she hath bene confounded, and ashamed, and the residue of them a Meaning, that if there were any man liuing moued with so great zeale toward the people, as were these two, yet that he would not grant this request, forasmuch as he had determined the contrary, Ezek. 14. 14.

* Zech. 11. 9.
b The dogges, birdes and beastes should deuoure them that were slaine.
c The word signifieth to runne to & fro for feare & vnquietnes of cõscience, as did Kain.
d Not that the people was punished for the Kings sinne onely, but for their owne sinnes also, because they consented to his wickednes, 2 King. 21. 9.
e That is, I will not call backe my plagues, or spare thee any more.
f Meaning, the cities.
g Because I had slaine their husbandes.
|| Or, mother.
|| Or, fearfully.
h She that had many, lost all her children.
i She was destroyed in the mids of her prosperitie.

will I deliuer vnto the sword before their enemies,
saith the Lord.
10 ¶ [k] Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me, a contentious man, and a man that striueth with the whole earth: I haue neither [l] lent on vsurie, nor men haue lent vnto me on vsurie:
yet euery one doeth curse me.
11 The Lord said, [m] Surely thy remnant shall haue wealth: surely I will cause thine enemie to intreate thee in the time of trouble, & in the time of affliction.
12 Shall the [n] yron breake the yron, and the brasse that commeth from the North?
13 Thy substance and thy treasures will I giue to be spoyled without ‖ gaine, and that for all thy sinnes euen in all thy borders.
14 And I will make thee to go with thine enemies into a land that thou knowest not: for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burne you.
15 O Lord, thou knowest, remember me, and visite me, & reuenge me of my [o] persecuters: take me not away in the continuance of thine anger:
know that for thy sake I haue suffered rebuke.
16 Thy wordes were founde by me, and I did [p] eate them, and thy worde was vnto me the ioy and reioycing of mine heart: for thy Name is called vpon me, O Lord God of hosts.
17 I sate not in the assembly of the mockers, neither did I reioyce, but sate alone [q] because of thy plague: for thou hast filled me with indignation.
18 Why is mine heauines continuall? and my plague desperate and cannot be healed? why art thou vnto me [r] as a liar, and as waters that faile?
19 Therefore thus saith the Lord, If thou [s] returne, then will I bring thee againe, and thou shalt stand before me: and if thou take away the [t] precious from the vile, thou shalt be [u] according to my worde: let them returne [x] vnto thee, but returne not thou vnto them.
20 And I will make thee vnto this people a strong brasen wal, & they shall fight against thee, but they shal not [y] preuaile against thee: for I am with thee to saue thee & to deliuer thee, saith the Lord.
21 And I will deliuer thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeeme thee out of the hand of the tyrants.

k These are the prophets words, complaining of the obstinacie of the people, & that he was reserued to so wicked a time: wherein also he sheweth what is the condition of Gods ministers. to wit, to haue all the world against them, though they giue none occasion.
l Which is an occasion of contention and hatred.
m In this perplexitie the Lord comforted me, and said that my last dayes should be quiet: and by the enemie he meaneth here, Nebuzardan the captaine of Nebuchadnezzar, who gaue Ieremiah the choise either to remaine in his countrey, or to goe whither he would: or by the enemy he meaneth the Iewes, which should afterward know Ieremiahs fidelitie, and therefore fauour him.
n As for the people, though they seemed strong as yron, yet should they not be able to resist the hard yron of Babylon, but should be led captiues.
‖ Or, ransome.
o He speaketh not this for desire of reuengeance, but wishing that God would deliuer his Church of them whom he knew to be hardened, and incorrigible.
p I receiued them with as great ioy as he, that is affamished, eateth meate.
q I had nothing a doe with the wicked contemners of thy word, but lamented bitterly for thy plagues: shewing what the faithfull should do when they see tokens of Gods anger.
r And hast not assisted me according to thy promise? wherein appeareth, that in the Saints of God is imperfection of faith, which through impatiencie is oft times assailed, as Chap 20.7.
s If thou forget these carnall considerations, & faithfully execute thy charge.
t That is, seeke to winne the good from the bad.
u To wit, as my mouth hath pronounced, Chap. 1.18. & as here followeth, ver. 20.
x Conforme not thy selfe to their wickednesse, but let them followe thy godly example.
y I will arme thee with an inuincible strength & constancie, so that all the powers of the world shall not ouercome thee.

CHAP. XVI.

2 The Lord forbidding Ieremiah to marrie, sheweth him what should be the afflictions vpon Iudah. 13 The captiuitie of Babylon. 15 Their deliuerance. 19 The calling of the Gentiles.

The worde of the Lorde came also vnto mee,
saying,
2 Thou shalt not take [a] thee a wife, nor haue sonnes nor daughters in this place.
3 For thus sayeth the Lorde concerning the sonnes, and concerning the daughters that are borne in this place, and concerning their mothers that beare them, & concerning their fathers, that beget them in this land, 4 They shall die of deathes and diseases: they shall not be lamented, neither shal they be buried, but they shalbe as dung vpon the earth, and they shalbe consumed by the sword, & by famine, and their carkeises shall be meate for the foules of the heauen, and for the beasts of the earth.
5 For thus saith the Lord, [b] Enter not into the house of mourning, neither goe to lament, nor be moued for them: for I haue taken my peace from this people, saith the Lord, euen mercy & compassion.
6 Both the great, and the small shal die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them [c] nor cut themselues, nor make themselues balde for them.
7 They shall not stretch out the hands for them in the mourning to comfort them for the dead, neither shall they giue them the [d] cup of consolation to drinke for their father or for their mother.
8 Thou shalt not also goe into the house of feasting to sit with them to eate and to drinke.
9 For thus sayth the Lord of hostes, the God of Israel, Beholde, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, euen in your dayes the voyce of myrth, and the voice of gladnesse, the voice of the bridegrome and the voice of the bride.
10 And when thou shalt shewe this people all these words, and they shall say vnto thee, *Wherefore hath the Lorde pronounced all this great plague against vs? or what is [e] our iniquitie? and what is our sinne that we haue committed against the Lord our God?
11 Then shalt thou say vnto them, Because your fathers haue forsaken me, sayth the Lord, & haue walked after other gods, and haue serued them, and worshipped them, & haue forsaken me, and haue not kept my Law, 12 (*And ye haue done woorse then your fathers: for beholde, you walke euery one after the stubbernesse of his wicked heart, and will not heare me)
13 Therefore will I driue you out of this land into a lande that ye knowe not, neither you, nor your fathers, & there shall ye serue other gods day and night: for I will shew you no grace.
14 *Behold therfore, saith the Lord, the dayes come that it shall no more be sayde, The Lord li-ueth, which brought vp the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, 15 But the Lorde liueth, that brought vp the children of Israel [f] from the lande of the North, and from all the landes where hee had scattered them, and I will bring them againe into their land that I gaue vnto their fathers.
16 Beholde, saith the Lord, I will send out many [g] fishers, and they shall fish them, and after, will I send out many hunters, and they shall hunt them from euery mountaine and from euery hill, and out of the caues of the rocks.
17 For mine eyes are vpon all their wayes, they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquitie hid from mine eyes.
18 And first I will recompense their iniquitie and their sinne double, because they haue defiled my lande, and haue filled mine inheritance with their filthie [k] carions and their abominations.
19 O Lord, thou art my [i] force, & my strength & my refuge in the day of affliction: the Gentiles shal come vnto thee from the ends of the world, & shal say, Surely our fathers haue inherited lies,
and vanitie, wherein was no profite.
30 Shall a man make gods vnto himselfe, and they are no gods?

a Meaning, that the affliction should be so horrible in Ierusalem, that wife and children shoulde but increase his sorow.
b Signifying that the affliction should be so great, that one should not haue leisure to comfort another.
c That is, should not rent their clothes in signe of mourning.
d For in these great extremities all consolation & comfort shalbe in vaine.
*Chap. 5.19.
e Because the wicked are alwayes rebellious & dissemble their owne sinnes, and murmure against Gods iudgements as though he had no iust cause to punish them, he sheweth him what to answere.
*Chap. 7.26.
*Chap. 23.7.
f Signifying the benefite of their deliuerance out of Babylon should be so great, that it shoulde abolish the remembrance of their deliuerance from Egypt: but he hath here chiefly respect to the spirituall deliuerance vnder Christ.
g By the fishers & hunters are meant the Babylonians & Caldeans, who should destroy them in such sort, that if they escaped the one, the other should take them.
h That is, their sonnes and daughters, which they offred to Molech.
i He wondereth at the great mercy of God in this deliuerance, which shal not onely extend to the Iewes, but also to the Gentiles.
k Our fathers were most vile idolaters: therefore it commeth onely of Gods mercie, that he performeth his promes, and hath not vtterly cast vs off.

21 Beholde, therefore I will this once [l] teach them: I will shewe them mine hande and my power, and they shall know that my Name is the Lord.

l They shall once againe feele my power, and mercie for their deliuerance, that they may learne to worship me.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The frowardnesse of the Jewes. 5 Cursed bee those that put their confidence in man. 9 Mans heart is wicked. 10 God is the searcher of the heart. 13 The liuing waters are forsaken. 21 The right keeping of the Sabbath commanded.

The sinne of Iudah is [a] written with a pen of yron, and with the poynt of a dyamonde, and grauen vpon the [b] table of their heart, and vpon the hornes of your [c] altars.

2 [d] They remember their altars as their children, with their groues by the greene trees vpon the hilles.

3 [e] O my mountaine in the fielde, I will giue thy substance, and all thy treasures to be spoyled, for the sinne of thy high places throughout all thy borders.

4 And thou shalt rest, [f] and in thee shalbe a rest from thine heritage that I gaue thee, and I will cause thee to serue thine enemies in the land, which thou knowest not: for yee haue kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burne for euer.

5 ¶ Thus sayth the Lord, [g] Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arme, and withdraweth his heart from the Lord.

6 For he shall be like the heath in the wildernesse, and shall not see when any good commeth, but shall inhabite the parched places in the wildernesse, in a salt land, and not inhabited.

7 Blessed be the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is.

8 [h] For he shall bee as a tree that is planted by the water, which spreadeth out her rootes by the riuer, and shall not feele when the heate commeth, but her leafe shall be greene, and shall not care for the yeere of drought, neither shall cease from yeelding fruit.

9 [i] The heart is deceitfull and wicked aboue all things, who can knowe it?

10 I the Lord search the heart, and try ẏ reines, euen to giue euery man according to his wayes, and according to the fruite of his workes.

11 [k] As the Partriche gathereth the yong, which she hath not brought forth: so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leaue them in the middes of his dayes, and at his ende shall bee a foole.

12 As a glorious throne [l] exalted frō the beginning, so is the place of our Sanctuarie.

13 O Lorde, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee, shall be confounded: they that depart from thee, shalbe written [m] in the earth, because they haue forsaken the Lord, the fountaine of liuing waters.

14 Heale me, O Lorde, and I shall bee whole: [n] saue me, and I shall bee saued: for thou art my prayse.

15 Behold, [o] they say vnto me, Where is the word of the Lord? let it come nowe.

16 But [p] I haue not thrust in my selfe for a pastour after thee, neither haue I desired the day of miserie, thou knowest: that which came out of my lips, was right before thee.

17 Be not [q] terrible vnto mee: thou art mine hope in the day of aduersitie.

18 Let them be confounded, that persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be afraide, but let not me be afraide: bring vpon them the day of aduersitie, [r] and destroy them with double destruction.

19 Thus hath the Lord said vnto me, Goe and stande in the [s] gate of the children of the people, whereby the Kings of Iudah come in, and by the which they goe out, & in all ẏ gates of Ierusalem, 20 And say vnto them, Heare the word of the Lord, ye Kings of Iudah, and all Iudah, and all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, ẏ enter in by the gates.

21 Thus sayth the Lord, Take heede to your soules, and beare no burden in the [t] Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Ierusalem.

22 Neither cary foorth burdens out of your houses in the Sabbath day: neither doe yee any worke, but sanctifie the Sabbath, as I commanded your fathers.

23 But they obeyed not, neither inclined their eares, but made their neckes stiffe and would not heare, nor receiue correction.

24 Neuerthelesse if ye will heare me, sayth the Lorde, and beare no burden through the gates of the citie in the Sabbath day, but sanctifie ẏ Sabbath day, so that ye doe no worke therein,

25 Then shall the Kings and the princes enter in at the gates of this citie, and shal sit * vpon the throne of Dauid, and shall ride vpon charets, and vpon horses, both they and their princes, the men of Iudah, and the inhabitants of Ierusalem: and this citie shall remaine for euer.

26 And they shall come frō the cities of Iudah, and from about Ierusalem, and from the land of Beniamin, and from the plaine, and from the mountaines, and from ẏ South, which shall bring burnt offrings, and sacrifices, and meate offrings, and incense, and shall bring sacrifice of prayse into the house of the Lord.

27 But if ye will not heare me to sanctifie the Sabbath day, and not to beare a burden nor to go through the gates of Ierusalem in the Sabbath day, then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall deuoure the palaces of Ierusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 God sheweth by the example of a potter, that it is in his power to destroy the despisers of his worde. 18 The conspiracie of the Iewes against Ieremiah. 19 His prayer against his aduersaries.

The worde which came to Ieremiah from the Lorde, saying,

2 Arise, and goe downe into the potters house, and there shall I shewe thee my wordes.

3 Then I went downe to the potters house, & beholde, he wrought a worke on the wheeles.

4 And the vessell that he made of [a] clay, was broken in the hand of the potter: so he returned, and made it another vessell, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the Lorde came vnto me, saying, a The remembrance of their contempt of God can not passe, albeit for a time he deferre the punishment, for it shall be manifest to men and Angels.

b In steade of the Lawe of God, they haue written idolatrie and all abominations in their heart.
c Your sinnes appeare in all the altars that you haue errected to idoles.
d Some reade, So that their children remember their altars, that is, followe their fathers wickednesse.
e Zion that was my mountaine shall nowe be left as a waste fielde.
f Because thou wouldest not giue the lande rest at such times, dayes, and yeeres as I appoynted, thou shalt hereafter be caryed away, and it shall rest for lacke of labourers.
g The Iewes were giuen to worldly policies, & thought to make themselues strong by the friendshippe of the Egyptians, Isa.31.3 and strangers, and in the meane season did not depende on God, and therefore he denounceth Gods plagues against them, shewing that they preferre corruptible man to God, which is immortall, Isa 2.22. Chap.48.6,7.
h Reade Psal. 1.3.
i Because the wicked haue euer some excuse to defende their doings, hee sheweth, that their owne lewde imaginations deceiue them, and bring them to these inconueniences: but God will examine their deedes by the malice of their hearts, 1.Samu.16.7. 1.Chron.28.9. Psalm.7.10. Chap.11.20 and 20.12. Reuel.2.23.
k As the Partrich by calling gathereth others, which forsake her, when they see that she is not their damme: so the couetous man is forsaken of his riches, because hee commeth by them falsely.
l Shewing that the godly ought to glory in nothing, but in God: who doeth exalt his, and hath left a signe of his fauour in his Temple.
m Their names shall not be registred in the booke of life.
n He desireth God to preserue him that hee fall not into tentation considering the great contempt of Gods worde, and the multitude that fall from God.

o The wicked say that my prophecie shall not come to passe because thou deferrest the time of thy vengeance.
p I am assured of my vocation, and therefore knowe that the thing which thou speakest by me, shall come to passe, and that I speake not of any worldly affection.
q Howsoeuer the wicked deale rigorously with me, yet let me finde comfort in thee.
r Reade Chap. 11. 20.
s Whereas thy doctrine may be best vnderstande both of hie and lowe.
t By naming the Sabbath day, he comprehendeth the thing, that is thereby signified: for if they transgressed in the ceremonie, they must needes be culpable of the rest, reade Exod.20.8. and by the breaking of this one commandement, he maketh them transgressors of the whole lawe, forasmuch as the first and second table are conteined herein.
* Chap.22.4.
a As the potter hath power ouer the clay to make what pot he wil, or to breake them, when he hath made them: so haue I power ouer you to doe with you as seemeth good to me, Isa.45.9 wisd.15.7. rom.9.20,21.

6 O house of Israel, cannot I doe with you as this potter, sayth the Lord ? beholde, as the clay is in the potters hande, so are you in mine hande, O house of Israel.

7 I will speake suddenly against a nation or against a kingdome to plucke it vp, and to roote it out and to destroy it.

8 But if the nation, against whome I haue pronounced, turne from their wickednesse, I will b repent of the plague that I thought to bring vpon them.

9 And I will speake suddenly concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdome to builde it and to plant it,

10 But if it doe euil in my sight and heare not my voyce, I will repent of ẏ good that I thought to doe for them.

11 Speake thou nowe therefore vnto the men of Iudah, and to the inhabitants of Ierusalem, saying, Thus sayth ẏ Lord, behold, I prepare a plague for you, and purpose a thing against you: returne you therefore euery one from his euill way, and make your wayes and your workes good.

12 But they sayde c desperately, Surely wee will walke after our owne imaginations, and doe euery man after the stubburnnesse of his wicked heart.

13 Therefore thus sayth the Lord, Aske now among the heathen, who hath heard such thinges? the virgin of Israel hath done very filthily.

14 Will a man forsake the snowe of Lebanon, which commeth from the rocke of the fielde? d or shall the colde flowing waters, that come from another place, be forsaken?

15 Because my people hath forgotten me, and haue burnt incense to vanitie, and their prophets haue caused them to stumble in their wayes from the e ancient wayes, to walke in the pathes and way that is not troden,

16 To make their land desolate and a perpetual derision, so that euery one that passeth thereby, shalbe astonished and wagge his head,

17 I will scater them with an East winde before the enemie: I wil shewe them the backe, and f not the face in the day of their destruction.

18 Then sayde they, Come, and let vs imagine some deuice against Ieremiah: for the Lawe g shal not perish from the Priest, nor counsell from the wise, nor the worde from the Prophet: come, and let vs smite him with the h tongue, and let vs not giue heede to any of his words.

19 Hearken vnto mee, O Lorde, and heare the voyce of them that contend with me.

20 Shall euill be recompensed for good? for they haue digged a pit for my soule: remember that I stood before thee, to speake good for them, and to turne away thy wrath from them.

21 Therefore, i deliuer vp their children to famine, and let them drop away by the force of the sworde, and let their wiues be robbed of their children, and be widowes: and let their husbands be put to death, and let their yong men be slaine by the sword in the battell.

22 Let the crye bee heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring an hoste suddenly vpon them: for they haue digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feete.

b When ẏ scripture attributeth repentance vnto God, it is not that he doeth contrary to that which he hath ordeyned in his secrete counsell: but when he threateneth, it is a calling to repentance, and when he giueth man grace to repent, the threatning (which euer conteineth a condition in it) taketh no place: and this the scripture calleth repentance in God, because it so appeareth to mans iudgement.

c As men that had no remorse, but were altogether bent to rebellion, and to their owne selfe will.

d As no man that hath thirst, refuseth fresh conduit waters which he hath at home, to goe and seeke waters abroad to quench his thirst: so they ought not to seeke for helpe and succour at strangers and leaue God, which was present with them.

e That is, the way of trueth, which God had taught by his lawe, reade Chap. 6. 16.

f I will shewe mine anger and not my fauour toward them.

g This argument the wicked haue euer vsed against the seruantes of God, The Church can not erre: we are the Church, and therefore whosoeuer speaketh against vs, they ought to die, 1. King. 22. 24. chap. 7. 4 and 10. 2. malac. 2. 4. and thus the false Church persecuteth the true Church, which standeth not in outward pompe, and in multitude, but is knowen by the graces of the holy Ghost.

h Let vs slander him, and accuse him: for we shall be beleeued.

i Seeing the obstinate malice of the aduersaries, which grew dayly more and more, the Prophet being moued with Gods Spirit, without any carnall affection prayeth for their destruction, because hee knewe that it should tende to Gods glory, and profite of his Church.

23 Yet Lord thou knowest all their counsel against me tendeth to death: forgiue not their iniquitie, neither put out their sinne from thy sight, but let them be ouerthrowen before thee: deale thus with them in the time of thine anger.

CHAP. XIX.

He prophecieth the destruction of Ierusalem for the contempt and despising of the word of God.

Thus sayd the Lord, Goe, and buy an earthen bottel of a potter, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the Priests,

2 And goe forth vnto the valley of Ben-hinnom, which is by the entrie of the || East gate: and thou shalt preache there the wordes, that I shall tell thee,

3 And shalt say, Heare yee the worde of the Lorde, O a Kings of Iudah, and inhabitantes of Ierusalem, Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring a plague vpon this place, the which whosoeuer heareth, his eares shall b tingle.

4 Because they haue forsaken me, and prophaned this place, and haue burnt incense in it vnto other Gods, whome neither they, nor their fathers haue knowen, nor the Kings of Iudah (they haue filled this place also with the blood of innocents,

5 And they haue built the hie places of Baal, to burne their sonnes with fire for burnt offrings vnto Baal, which I c commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my minde)

6 Therefore behold, the dayes come, sayth the Lord, that this place shal no more be called d Topheth, nor the valley of Ben-hinnom, but the valley of slaughter.

7 And I will bring the counsell of Iudah and Ierusalem to nought in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, & by the hand of them that seeke their liues: and their carkeises will I giue to be meate for ẏ foules of the heauen, and to the beastes of the fielde.

8 * And I will make this citie desolate and an hissing, so that euery one that passeth thereby, shalbe astonished & hisse because of all ẏ plagues thereof.

9 * And I will feede thē with the flesh of their sonnes and with the flesh of their daughters, and euery one shall eate the flesh of his friende in the siege and straitnes, wherewith their enemies that seeke their liues, shall hold them strait.

10 Then shalt thou breake the bottell in the sight of the men that go with thee,

11 And shalt say vnto them, Thus saith ẏ Lord of hostes, Euen so will I breake this people and this citie, as one breaketh a e potters vessell, that cannot be made whole againe, and they shal bury them in Topheth till there be no place to bury.

12 Thus will I doe vnto this place, sayth the Lorde, and to the inhabitantes thereof, and I will make this citie like Topheth.

13 For the houses of Ierusalem, and the houses of the Kings of Iudah shalbe defiled as the place of Topheth, because of al the f houses vpō whose g roofes they haue burnt incense vnto all the host of heauen, and haue powred out drinke offerings vnto other gods.

14 Then came Ieremiah frō Topheth, where the Lord had sent him to prophecie, and he stood in the court of the Lordes house, and sayde to all the people,

|| Or, gate of the sunne.

pronounced against it, because they haue hardened their neckes, and would not heare my words.

CHAP. XX.

2 Ieremiah is smitten and cast into prison for preaching of the worde of God. 3 He prophecieth the captiuitie of Babylon. 7 He complaineth that he is a mocking stocke for the word of God. 9 He is compelled by the spirite to preach the word.

WHen Pashur, the sonne of Immer, the Priest, which was appointed gouernour in the house of the Lorde, heard that Ieremiah pro-phecied these things,
2 Then Pashur smote Ieremiah the Prophet, and put him in the [a] stockes that were in the hie gate of Beniamin which was by the House of the Lord.
3 And on the morning, Pashur brought Ieremiah out of the stockes. Then saide Ieremiah vnto him, The Lord hath not called thy name Pashur, but || Magor-missabib.
4 For thus saith the Lord, Behold, I wil make thee to be a terrour to thy self, & to al thy friends, and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall beholde it, and I will giue all Iudah into the hande of the King of Babel, and he shall cary them captiue into Babel, and shall slay them with the sworde.
5 Moreouer, I wil deliuer all the substance of this city, and all the labours therof, and al the precious thinges thereof, and all the treasures of the Kings of Iudah will I giue into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoyle them, and take them away and cary them to Babel.
6 And thou Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house, shal go into captiuitie, and thou shalt come to Babel, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou and all thy [b] friendes, to whome thou hast prophecied lyes.
7 O Lorde, thou hast deceiued me, and I am
[c] deceiued: thou art stronger then I, and hast [d] preuailed: I am in derision daily: euery one mocketh me.
8 For since I spake, I cried out of wrong, and proclaimed [e] desolation: therfore the word of the Lord was made a reproch vnto me, and in derision daily.
9 Then I saide, I will not make mention of him, nor speake any more in his Name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut vp in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.
10 For I had heard the rayling of many, and feare on euery side. [f] Declare, sayd they, and wee will declare it: all my familiars watched for mine halting, saying, It may be that he is deceiued: so we shall preuaile against him, and we shall execute our vengeance vpon him.
11 [g] But the Lorde is with me like a mightie gyant: therfore my persecuters shall be ouerthrow-en, and shall not preuaile, and shalbe greatly confounded: for they haue haue done vnwisely, and their euerlasting shame shal neuer be forgotten.
12 * But, O Lorde of hostes, that tryest the righteous, and seest the reines and the heart, let mee see thy vengeance on them: for vnto thee haue I opened my cause.
13 Sing vnto the Lorde, praise ye the Lord: for he hath deliuered the soule of the poore from the hand of the wicked.
14 ¶ [h] Cursed be the day wherein I was borne:
and let not the day wherein my mother bare me,
be blessed.
15 Cursed be the man, that shewed my father, saying, A man child is borne vnto thee, and comforted him.
16 And let that man be as the [i] cities, which the Lord hath ouerturned and repented not: and let him heare the crie in the morning, and the showting at noone tide, 17 Because he hath not slaine me, euen from the wombe, or that my mother might haue bene my graue, or her wombe a perpetual [k] conception.
18 How is it, that I came forth of the wombe, to see labour and sorowe, that my dayes shoulde be consumed with shame?

f Thus the enemies conferred together to know what they had heard him say, that they might accuse him thereof, reade Isa. 29.21.

CHAP. XXI.

He prophecieth that Zedekiah shall be taken, and the citie burned.

THe worde which came vnto Ieremiah from the Lord, when king Zedekiah sent vnto him Pashur, the sonne of Malchiah, and Zephaniah, the sonne of Maaseiah the Priest, saying,
2 [a] Inquire, I pray thee, of the Lorde for vs, (for Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel maketh warre against vs) if so be that the Lord will deale with vs according to all his wonderous workes, that he may returne vp from vs.
3 Then said Ieremiah, Thus shall you say to Zedekiah,
4 Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I wil [b] turne backe the weapons of warre that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the King of Babel, and against the Caldeans, which besiege you without the walles, and I will assemble them into the middes of this citie.
5 And I my selfe will fight against you with an outstretched hand, & with a mighty arme euen in anger and in wrath, and in great indignation.
6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this ci-tie, both man, and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.
7 And after this, saith the Lorde, I will deli-uer Zedekiah the King of Iudah, and his seruants, and the people, and such as are left in this citie, from the pestilence, from the sword and from the famine into the hande of Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel, and into the hande of their enemies, and into the hande of those that seeke their liues, and he shal smite them with the edge of the sword:
hee shall not spare them, neither haue pitie nor compassion.
8 ¶ And vnto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I set before you the [c] way of life, and the way of [d] death.
9 * He that abideth in this citie, shall die by the sworde and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Caldeans, that besiege you, he shall liue, and his life shalbe vnto him for a [e] pray.
10 For I haue set my face against this citie, for euill and not for good, saith the Lord: it shalbe gi-uen into the hande of the King of Babel, and he shall burne it with fire.
11 ¶ And say vnto the house of the King of Iudah, Heare ye the word of the Lord.
12 O house of Dauid, thus saith the Lorde,
* Execute iudgement [f] in the morning, and de-liuer the oppressed out of the hande of the oppressor,

a Not that the King was touched with repentance of his sinnes and so sought to God, as did Hezekiah, when he sent to Isaiah, 2. King. 19.1. Isa. 37.2. but because the Prophet might pray vnto God to take this present plague away, as Pharaoh sought vnto Moses, Exod 9.28.
b To wit, from your enemies to destroy your selues.
c By yeelding your selues to Nebuchad-nezzar.
d By resisting him.

f Be diligent to doe iustice.

pressor, lest my wrath go out like fire and burne, that none can quench it, because of the wickednes of your workes.
13 Beholde, I come against thee, g O inhabitant of the valley, & rocke of the plaine, saith the Lord, which say, Who shall come downe against vs? or who shall enter into our habitations?
14 But I wil visite you according to the fruite of your workes, saith the Lord, and I wil kindle a fire h in the forest thereof, and it shall deuoure rounde about it.

g Meaning, Ierusalem which was builded part on the hill and part in the valley, and was compassed about with mountaines.
h That is, in the houses thereof, which stoode as thicke as trees in the forest.

CHAP. XXII.

3 He exhorteth the King to iudgment and righteousnesse. 9 Why Ierusalem is brought into captiuitie. 11 The death of Shallum the sonne of Iosiah is prophecied.

THus said the Lorde, Goe downe to the house of the King of Iudah, and speake there this thing,
2 And say, Heare the worde of the Lorde, O King of Iudah, that sittest vpon the throne of Dauid, thou and thy seruants, and thy people that enter in by these gates.
3 Thus saith the Lorde,* Execute ye iudge-ment and a righteousnes, and deliuer the oppressed from the hande of the oppressor, and vexe not the stranger, the fatherlesse, nor the widowe:
doe no violence, nor sheade innocent blood in this place.
4 For if ye do this thing, then shall the kings sitting vpon the throne of Dauid enter in by the gates of this House, * and ride vpon charets, and vpon horses, both he and his seruants and his people.
5 But if ye will not heare these wordes, I b sweare by my selfe, saith the Lorde, that this House shalbe waste.
6 For thus hath the Lorde spoken vpon the Kings house of Iudah, Thou art c Gilead vnto me, & the head of Lebanon, yet surely I wil make thee a wildernes and as cities not inhabited, 7 And I will d prepare destroyers against thee, euery one with his weapons, and they shall cut downe thy chiefe e cedar trees, and cast them
in the fire.
8 f And many nations shall passe by this ci-tie, and they shall say euery man to his neighbour, Wherefore hath the Lorde done thus vnto this great citie?
9 Then shall they answere, Because they haue forsaken the couenant of the Lorde their God, & worshipped other gods, and serued them.
10 ¶ Weepe not for the deade, & be not moued for them, but weepe for him g that goeth out: for he shall returne no more, nor see his natiue countrey.
11 For thus saith ý Lord, As touching h Shallum the sonne of Iosiah King of Iudah, which reigned for Iosiah his father, which went out of this place, he shall not returne thither, 12 But he shall die in the place, whither they haue ledde him captiue, and shall see this lande no more.
13 ¶ Wo vnto him that buildeth his house by i vnrighteousnesse, and his chambers without equitie: he vseth his neighbour without wages, and giueth him not for his worke.
14 He saith, I will build me a wide house and large chambers: so hee will make himselfe large windowes, and seeling with cedar, and paint them with vermilion.

*Chap. 21.12.
a This was his ordinarie maner of preaching before the Kings from Iosiah vnto Zedekiah, which was about fourtie yeres.
*Chap. 17.25.
b Shewing that there is none greater then he, Hebr. 6.13. and that he will most certainely performe his othe.
c He compareth Ierusalem to Gilead, which was beyonde Iorden, and the beautie of Iudea to Lebanon.
d The Ebrewe worde signifieth to sanctifie, because the Lord doeth dedicate to his vse and purpose such as he prepareth to execute his worke, Isa. 13.3. chap. 6.4 & 12.3.
e Thy buildings made of Cedar trees.
f As they that wonder at a thing which they thought would neuer haue come so to passe, Deut. 29. 24 1. king. 9.8.
g Signifying that they should lose their King: for Iehoiachin went foorth to meete Nebuchad nezzar, and yeelded him selfe and was caried into Babylon, 2. King. 24.12.
h Whome some thinke to be Iehoiachin and that Iosiah was his grandfather: but as seemeth this was Iehoiakim, as verse 18.
i By bribes and extortion.

15 Shalt thou reigne, because thou closest thy selfe in cedar? did not thy k father eate and drinke and prosper, when he executed iudgement and iustice?
16 When he iudged the cause of the afflicted and the poore, he prospered: was not this because he knewe me, saith the Lorde?
17 But thine eyes and thine heart are but only for thy couetousnesse, and for to sheade innocent blood, and for oppresion and for destruction, euen to doe this.
18 Therefore thus saith the Lorde against Ie-hoiakim, the sonne of Iosiah king of Iudah, They shall not lament him, saying, Ah, my brother, or ah, sister: neither shall they mourne for him, saying, Ah, lord, or ah, his glorie.
19 He shalbe buryed, as an asse m is buryed, euen drawen and cast foorth without the gates of Ierusalem.
20 ¶ Goe vp to n Lebanon, and cry: showte in o Bashan, and crye by the passages: for all thy louers are destroyed.
21 I spake vnto thee when thou wast in pros-peritie: but thou saidest, I will not heare: this hath bene thy maner from thy youth, that thou wouldest not obey my voyce.
22 The wind shall feede all thy pastors, p and thy louers shall goe into captiuitie: and then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded of all thy wickednesse.
23 Thou that dwellest in Lebanon, and makest thy nest in the q cedars, howe beautifull shalt thou be when sorowes come vpon thee, as the so-rowe of a woman in trauaile?
24 As I liue, saith the Lord, though r Coniah the sonne of Iehoiakim King of Iudah, were the signet of my right hand, yet would I plucke thee thence.
25 And I will giue thee into the hande of them that seeke thy life, and into the hande of them, whose face thou fearest, euen into the hand of Nebuchad nezzar king of Babel, and into the hande of the Caldeans.
26 And I will cause them to cary thee away, and thy mother that bare thee, into another countrey, where ye were not borne, and there shall ye die.
27 But to the lande, whereunto they desire to returne, they shall not retune thither.
28 Is not this man Coniah as a despised and broken idole? or as a vessell, wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they caryed away, hee and his seede, and cast out into a lande that they knowe not?
29 O earth, earth, earth, heare the worde of
the Lorde.
30 Thus saith the Lorde, Write this s man destitute of children, a man that shall not prosper in his dayes: for there shall be no man of his seede that shall prosper & sit vpon the throne of Da-uid, or beare rule any more in Iudah.

k Meaning Iosiah, who was not giuen to ambition and superfluitie, but was content with mediocritie and did onely delight in setting foorth Gods glory and to doe iustice to all.
l For euery one shall haue ynough to lament for him selfe.
m Not honourably among his fathers, but as carions are cast in a hole because their stinke should not infect, reade 2. King. 24 9. Iosephus Antiquit 10.8. writeth that the enemie slewe him in the citie, and commanded him to be cast before the walles vnburied, looke chap. 36.30.
n To call to the Assyrians for helpe.
o For this was the way out of Iudea to Assyria: whereby is meant that all helpe shoulde faile: for the Caldeans haue subdued both them and the Egyptians.
p Both thy gouernours and they that should helpe thee, shall vanish away as winde.
q Thou that art built of the fair Cedar trees of Lebanon.
r Who was called Iehoiachin, or Ieconiah, whom he calleth here Coniah in contempt, who thought his kingdome could neuer depart from him because he came of the stocke of Dauid, and therefore for the promes sake coulde not be taken from his house: but he abused Gods promisse, and therefore was iustly depriued of the kingdome.
s He sheweth that all posteritie shall be witnesses of this iust plague, as though it were registred for perpetuall memorie. t Not that he had no children (for after that he begate Salathiel in the captiuitie, Matthewe 1.12.) but that none shoulde reigne after him as King.

CHAP. XXIII.

Against false pastours. 5 A prophecie of the great Pastour Iesus Christ.

Wo

WO be vnto a the pastors that destroy and scatter b the sheepe of my pasture, saith
the Lorde.
2 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God of Israel vnto the pastors that c feede my people, Yee haue scattered my flocke and thrust them out, and haue not visited them: beholde, I will visite you for the wickednesse of your works, saith the Lord.
3 And I will gather the d remnant of my sheepe out of all countreyes, whither I had driuen them, and will bring them againe to their foldes, and they shall growe and encrease.
4 And I will set vp shepheardes ouer them, which shall feede them: and they shall dread no more nor be afraide, neither shall any of them be lacking, saith the Lord.
5 Behold, the dayes come, saith the Lord, that I will raise vnto Dauid a righteous e branche, and a King shall reigne, and prosper, and shall execute iudgement, and iustice in the earth.
6 In his dayes Iudah shalbe saued, and * Israel shall dwell safely, and this is the Name whereby they shall call him, * The Lorde our righte-ousnesse.
7 Therefore behold, the dayes come, saith the Lord, that they shall no more say, The f Lorde li-ueth, which brought vp the children of Israel out of the lande of Egypt, 8 But the Lord liueth, which brought vp and led the seede of the house of Israel out of the North countrey and from all countreyes where I had scattered them, and they shall dwell in their owne lande.
9 Mine heart breaketh within me, because of the g prophets: all my bones shake: I am like a drunken man (and like a man whom wine hath † ouercome) for the presence of the Lorde and for his holy wordes.
10 For the lande is full of adulterers, and because of othes the lande mourneth, the pleasant places of the wildernesse are dried vp, and their h course is euill, and their force is not right.
11 For both the prophet and the Priest || doe wickedly: and their wickednesse haue I found in mine i House, saith the Lorde.
12 Wherefore their way shalbe vnto them as slipperie wayes in the darkenesse: they shalbe driuen foorth and fall therein: for I will bring a plague vpon them, euen the yeere of their visitation, saith the Lorde.
13 And I haue seene foolishnesse in the prophets of Samaria, that prophecied in Baal, & caused my people Israel to erre.
14 I haue seene also in the prophets of Ieru-salem k filthines: they commit adulterie & walke in lies: they strengthen also the hands of the wicked that none can returne from his wickednesse:
they are all vnto l mee as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorah.
15 Therefore thus saith the Lorde of hostes concerning the prophets, Beholde, I will feede them with m wormewood, & make them drinke the water of gall: for from the prophets of Ie-rusalem is || wickednesse gone foorth into all the lande.
16 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Heare not the wordes of the prophets that prophecie vnto you, and teach you vanitie: they speake the vision of their owne n heart, and not out of the mouth of
the Lorde.

a Meaning the princes, gouernours and false prophets, as Ezek.34.2. b For the which I haue especiall care and haue prepared good pastures for them.
c Whose charge is to feede the flocke, but they eate the fruite thereof, Eze.34.3. d Thus the Prophets euer vse to mixe the promises with the threatnings, lest the godly should be too much beaten downe, and therefore he sheweth how God will gather his church after this dispersion.

17 They say still vnto them that despise mee,
The Lord hath saide, Ye o shall haue peace: and they say vnto euery one that walketh after the stubbernesse of his owne heart, No euill shall come vpon you.
18 For p who hath stand in the counsel of the Lord that he hath perceiued and heard his word?
Who hath marked his worde and heard it?
19 Beholde, the tempest of the Lorde goeth foorth in his wrath, and a violent whirlewinde shall fall downe vpon the head of the wicked.
20 The anger of the Lorde shall not returne vntill he haue executed, and till he haue perfourmed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter dayes ye q shall vnderstand it plainely.
21 * I haue not sent these prophets, sayth the Lord, yet they ranne: I haue not spoken to them, and yet they prophecied.
22 But if they had stande in my counsell, and r had declared my words to my people, then they should haue turned them from their euill way, and from the wickednesse of their inuentions.
23 Am I a God at hande, saith the Lord, and not a God s farre off?
24 Can any hide him selfe in secrete places, that I shall not see him, sayth the Lord? Doe not
I fill heauen and earth, saith the Lord?
25 I haue heard what the prophets saide, that prophecie lies in my Name, saying, I t haue dreamed, I haue dreamed.
26 How long? † Doe the prophets delite to prophecie lies, euen prophecying the deceit of their owne heart?
27 Thinke they to cause u my people to forget my Name by their dreames, which they tell euery man to his neighbour, as their forefathers haue forgotten my Name for Baal?
28 The prophet that hath a dreame, let him x tell a dreame, and he that hath my worde, let him speake my woorde faithfully: y what is the chaffe to the wheate, saith the Lord?
29 Is not my worde euen like a fire, saith the Lord? and like an hammer, that breaketh the stone?
30 Therefore beholde, I will come against the prophets, saith the Lorde, that z steale my worde euery one from his neighbour.
31 Beholde, I will come against the prophets, saith the Lord, which haue sweete tongues, & say, a He saith.
32 Beholde, I will come against them that prophecie false dreames, saith the Lorde, and doe tell them, and cause my people to erre by their lies, and by their flatteries, and I sent them not, nor commaunded them: therefore they bring no profite vnto this people, saith the Lord.
33 And when this people, or the prophet, or a Priest shall aske thee, saying, What is the b burden of the Lord? thou shalt then say vnto them, What burden? I will euen forsake you, saith the Lorde.

people that shall say, The c burden of the Lorde, I s Doe not I see your falsehood, howsoeuer you cloke it, & wheresoeuer you commit it?

t I haue a prophecie reueiled vnto me, as Nom.12.6.
† Ebr. Is it in the heart of the Prophets?
u Hee sheweth that Satan raiseth vp false prophets to bring the people from God.
x Let the false prophet declare that it is his owne fantasie, and not slaunder my word as though it were a cloke to couer his lies.
y Meaning, that it is not sufficient for Gods ministers to absteine from lies and to speake the word of God, but that there be iudgement in alledging it, and that it may appeare to bee applyed to the same purpose that it was spoken, Ezek 3.17. 1.cor.2.13. & 4.2. 2.tim.2.15. 1.pet. 4.10,11.

b The Prophets called their threatnings Gods burden, which the sinners were not able to susteine: therefore the wicked in deriding the worde, woulde aske of the Prophetes, what was the burden, as though they would say, You seeke nothing els, but to lay burdens on our shoulders; and thus they reiected the woorde of God as a grieuous burden.
c Because this worde was brought to contempt and derision, hee will teache them another maner of speach, and will cause this worde Burden to cease, and teache them to aske with reuerence, What saith the Lorde?

hath the Lorde answered thee? and what hath the Lorde spoken?

Then thus sayeth the Lorde, Because yee say this worde, The burden of the Lorde,and I haue sent

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 The vision of the baskets of figges 5 Signifieth that part of the people shoulde bee brought againe from captiuitie, 8 And that Zedekiah and the rest of the people shoulde bee caryed away.

THe Lord shewed me,and beholde, two [a] baskets of figges were set before the Temple of the Lorde, after that Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel had caried away captiue Ieconiah the sonne of Iehoiakim King of Iudah, and the princes of Iudah with the workemen, and the cunning men of Ierusalem,and had brought them to Babel.
2 One basket had very good figges, euen like the figges that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughtie figges, which could not be eaten,they were so euill.
3 Then saide the Lorde vnto mee,What seest thou, Ieremiah? And I said, Figges: the good figs very good,and the naughtie very naughtie, which cannot be eaten,they are so euill.
4 Againe the worde of the Lorde came vnto
me,saying,
5 Thus saith the Lorde, the God of Israel, Like these good figges,so will I knowe them that are caried away captiue of Iudah to bee good, whome I haue sent out of this [b] place, into the land of the Caldeans.
6 For I wil set mine eyes vpon them for good, and I will bring them againe to this lande, and I will build them, and not destroy them, and I will plant them,and not roote them out, 7 And I will giue them [c] an heart to knowe me,that I am the Lord, & they shalbe my * people,and I will be their God: for they shall returne vnto me with their whole heart.
8 * And as the naughtie figges which can not bee eaten, they are so euill (surely thus saith the Lorde)so will I giue Zedekiah the King of Iudah, and his princes, and the residue of Ierusalem, that remaine in this lande, and them that dwell [d] in the lande of Egypt:
9 I will euen giue them for a terrible plague to all the kingdomes of the earth, and for a re-proche, and for a prouerbe,for a common talke, and for a curse, in all places where I shall cast
them.

a The good figges signified them that were gone into captiuitie,and so saued their life,as Chap.21.8. and the naughtie figges them that remained,which were yet subiect to the sword,famine and pestilence.

b Whereby he approoueth the yeelding of Ieconiah,and his company, because they obeyed the Prophet,who exhorted them thereunto.

c Which declareth that man of him selfe can knowe nothing, till God giue the heart and vnderstanding.

* Chap.31.33. Hebr.8.10.

* Chap.29.17.

d Which fled thither for succour.

10 And I will sende the sworde, the famine, and the pestilence among them,till they bee consumed out of the land,that I gaue vnto them and to their fathers.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Hee prophecieth that they shall bee in captiuitie seuentie yeeres, 12 And that after the seuentie yeeres the Babylonians should be destroyed. 15 The destruction of all nations is prophecied.

THe worde that came to Ieremiah,concerning all the people of Iudah in the [a] fourth yeere of Iehoiakim the sonne of Iosiah King of Iudah that was in the first yeere of Nebuchad-nezzar
King of Babel:
2 The which Ieremiah the Prophet spake vnto all the people of Iudah, and to all the inhabitants of Ierusalem,saying, 3 From the thirteenth yeere of Iosiah the sonne of Amon King of Iudah, euen vnto [b] this day (that is the three and twentieth yeere) the worde of the Lorde hath come vnto mee, and I haue spoken vnto you [c] rising early & speaking, but ye would not heare.
4 And the Lord hath sent vnto you all his ser-uants the Prophets, rising early and sending them, but yee would not heare, nor encline your eares to obey.
5 They [d] sayde, Turne againe now euery one from his euill way, and from the wickednesse of your inuentions, and yee shall dwell in the lande that the Lorde hath giuen vnto you, and to your fathers for euer and euer.
6 And goe not after other gods to serue them and to worshippe them, and prouoke me not to anger with the workes of your handes, and I will not punish you.
7 Neuerthelesse ye would not heare me, saith the Lorde, but haue prouoked mee to anger with the workes of your hands to your owne hurt.
8 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hostes, Because ye haue not heard my wordes, 9 Beholde,I will sende and take to mee all the [e] families of the North, saith the Lorde, and Nebuchad-nezzar the King of Babel my [f] seruant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitantes thereof, and against all these nations [g] round about, and will destroy them, and make them an astonishment and an hissing, and a continuall desolation.
10 * Moreouer I will ‖ take from them the voyce of mirth and the voyce of gladnesse, the voyce of the bridegrome and the voyce of the bride,the noise of the [h] milstones,and the light of the candle.
11 And this whole lande shalbe desolate, and an astonishment, and these nations shall serue the King of Babel seuentie yeeres.
12 And when the [i] seuentie yeeres are accomplished, I will visite [k] the King of Babel and that nation, saith the Lorde, for their iniquities, euen the lande of the Caldeans, and will make it a perpetuall desolation, 13 And I will bring vpon that lande all my wordes which I haue pronounced against it, euen all that is written in this booke, which Ieremiah hath prophecied against all nations.

k For seeing the iudgement began at his owne house, the enemies must needes bee punished most grieuously, Ezek.9.6. 1.pet.4.17.

uen [l] ſerue themſelues of them: thus wil I recom-penſe them according to their deedes, and according to the works of their owne hands.
15 For thus hath the Lorde God of Iſrael ſpoken vnto mee, [m] Take the cuppe of wine of this wrath indignation at mine hand, and cauſe all the nations, to whom I ſend thee, to drinke it.
16 And they ſhal drinke, and be moued, and be mad, becauſe of the ſworde that I will ſende among them.
17 Then tooke I the cup at the Lordes hand, and made all people to drinke, vnto whome the Lord had ſent me:
18 Euen Ieruſalem, and the cities of Iudah, and the Kings therof, and the princes thereof, to make them deſolate, an aſtoniſhment, an hiſſing, and a curſe, [n] as appeareth this day:

uants, and his princes, and all his people:

the Philiſtims, and [p] Aſhkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Aſhdod:

of Zidon, and the Kings of the [r] Yles, that are beyond the Sea,

Kings of || Elam, and all the Kings of the Medes, neere one to another, and all the kingdomes of the worlde, which are vpon the earth, & the king of [u] Sheſhach ſhal drinke after them.

27 Therefore ſay thou vnto them, Thus ſaith the Lord of hoſtes, the God of Iſrael, Drinke and be drunken, and ſpewe and fall, and riſe no more, becauſe of the ſworde, which I will ſende among you.
28 ¶ But if they refuſe to take the cuppe at thine hande to drinke, then tell them, Thus ſaieth the Lord of hoſtes, Ye ſhal certainely drinke.
29 For loe, [x] I begin to plague the citie, where my Name is called vpon, and ſhould you goe free?
Ye ſhal not goe quite: for I will call for a ſworde vpon al the inhabitants of the earth, ſaith the Lord of hoſtes.
30 Therefore prophecie thou againſt them all theſe words, and ſay vnto them, * The Lord ſhall roare from aboue, and thruſt out his voyce from his holy habitation: he ſhal roare vpon his habitation, & cry aloud, as they that preſſe the grapes, againſt all the inhabitants of the earth.
31 The ſounde ſhall come to the endes of the earth: for the Lord hath a controuerſy with the nations, and wil enter into iudgement with all fleſh, and he wil giue them that are wicked, to the ſword, ſaith the Lord.

CHAP. XXVI.

2 Ieremiah moueth the people to repentance. 7 He is taken of the falſe prophets and Prieſtes, and brought to iudgement. 23 Vriah the Prophet is killed of Iehoiakim contrary to the will of God.

IN the beginning of the reigne of Iehoiakim the ſonne of Ioſiah King of Iudah, came this worde from the Lord, ſaying, 2 Thus ſaith the Lorde, Stand in the [a] court of the Lordes Houſe, and ſpeake vnto all the cities of Iudah, which come to worſhippe in the Lords Houſe, all the wordes that I commaunde thee to ſpeake vnto them: keepe not [b] a worde backe, 3 If ſo be they will hearken, and turne euery man from his euill way, that I may [c] repent me of the plague, which I haue determined to bring vpon them, becauſe of the wickedneſſe of their workes.
4 And thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, Thus ſaith the Lord, If ye will not heare me to walke in my Lawes, which I haue ſet before you, 5 And to heare the words of my ſeruants the Prophets, whom I ſent vnto you, both riſing vp earely, and ſending them, and wil not obey them, 6 Then will I make this Houſe like [d] Shiloh, and will make this citie [e] a curſe to all the nations
of the earth.
7 So the Prieſts, and the Prophets, and all the people heard Ieremiah ſpeaking theſe words in the Houſe of the Lord.
8 Nowe when Ieremiah had made an end of ſpeaking all that the Lord had commaunded him to ſpeake vnto all the people, then the Prieſts, and the Prophets, and all the people tooke him, and ſaid, Thou ſhalt die the death.
9 Why haſt thou prophecied in the Name of the Lord, ſaying, This [f] Houſe ſhalbe like Shiloh, and this citie ſhalbe deſolate without an inhabitant? and all the people were gathered againſt Ieremiah in the Houſe of the Lord.
10 And when the Princes of Iudah heard of theſe thinges, they came vp from the Kings houſe into the Houſe of the Lord, and ſate downe in the entrie of the [g] new gate of the Lords Houſe.
11 Then ſpake the Prieſtes, and the Prophets vnto the princes, and to all the people, ſaying, † This man is worthy to die: for he hath prophecied againſt this citie, as ye haue heard with your eares.
12 Then ſpake Ieremiah vnto all the princes, and to all the people, ſaying, The Lord hath [h] ſent me to prophecy againſt this houſe and againſt this citie all the things that ye haue heard.

your works,and heare the voyce of the Lord your God,that the Lord may repent him of the plague, that he hath pronounced against you.
14 As for me,behold, I am in your hands : do with me as ye thinke good and right.
15 But knowe ye for certaine, that if ye put me to death,ye shall surely bring innocent blood vpon your selues,and vpon this city, and vpon the inhabitants thereof: for of a trueth the Lord hath sent me vnto you,to speake all these words in your eares.
16 Then said the princes and al the people vnto the Priests,and to the prophets,This man is not worthy to die : for he hath spoken vnto vs in the Name of the Lord our God.
17 ¶ Then rose vp certaine of the Elders of the land,and spake to all the assemblie of the people,
saying,
18 Michah the Morashite *prophecied in the dayes of Hezekiah king of Iudah,and spake to all the people of Iudah,saying, Thus saith the Lorde of hostes,Zion shalbe plowed like a field, and Ie-rusalem shalbe an heape,and the mountaine of the i House shalbe as the hie places of the forest.
19 Did Hezekiah King of Iudah, and all Iudah put him to death? did he not feare the Lord, and prayed before the Lord, and the Lord repented him of the k plague, that he had pronounced against them? Thus might we procure great euil against our soules.
20 And there was also a man that prophecied in the Name of the Lord, one Vriiah the sonne of Shemaiah,of Kiriath-iarem, who prophecied against this citie,and against this land, according to all the wordes of Ieremiah.
21 Nowe when Iehoiakim the King with all his men of power , and all the princes hearde his wordes, the King sought to slay him . But when Vriiah heard it, he was afraid and fled, and went into Egypt.
22 Then Iehoiakim the King l sent men into Egypt,euen Elnathan the sonne of Achbor , and certaine with him into Egypt.
23 And they fet Vriiah out of Egypt,& brought him vnto Iehoiakim the King , who slewe him with the sword, and m cast his dead bodie into the graues of the children of the people.
24 But the hand of Ahikam n the sonne of Shaphan was with Ieremiah that they should not giue him into the hande of the people to put him to death.

* Micah.1.1. and 3.12.
i That is,of the House of the Lord,to wit,Zion,and these examples the godly alledged to deliuer Ieremiah out of the Priestes handes,whose rage else would not haue bene satisfied, but by his death.
k So that the citie was not destroyed, but by miracle was deliuered out of the hands of Saneherib.
l Here is declared the furie of tyrants, who can not abide to heare Gods worde declared, but persecute the ministers thereof, and yet in the end they preuaile nothing, but prouoke Gods iudgements so much the more.
m As in the first Hezekiahs example is to be folowed,so in this other Iehoiakims acte is to be abhorred:for Gods plague did light on him,and his houshold.
n Which declareth that nothing could haue appeased their furie, if God had not moued this noble man to stand valiantly in his defence.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Ieremiah at the commandement of the Lorde sendeth bondes to the King of Iudah and to the other Kinges that were neere, whereby they are monished to be subiects vnto Nebuchadnezzar. 9 He warneth the people, and the Kings and rulers that they beleeue not false prophets.

IN the beginning of the reigne of a Iehoiakim the sonne of Iosiah King of Iudah came this word vnto Ieremiah from the Lord,saying, 2 Thus saieth the Lord to me , Make thee
b bonds,and yokes, & put them vpon thy necke, 3 And send them to the King of Edom, and to the King of Moab, & to the King of the Am-monites, & to the King of Tyrus,and to the King of Zidon, by the hande of the messengers which come to Ierusalē vnto Zedekiah ye King of Iudah, 4 And command them to say vnto their masters, Thus saith the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, Thus shal ye say vnto your masters, 5 I haue made the earth,the man, & the beast that are vpon the ground,by my great power, and by my outstretched arme, and haue giuen it vnto whom it pleased me.
6 But now I haue giuen all these landes into the hand of Nebuchad-nezzar the King of Babel my c seruant, and the beastes of the fielde haue I also giuen him to serue him.
7 And all nations shall serue him , and his d sonne,and his sonnes sonne vntill the very time of his land come also:then many nations and great Kings shal e serue themselues of him.
8 And the nation and kingdome which will not serue the same Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel , and that will not put their necke vnder the yoke of the King of Babel , the same nation will I visite, saith the Lord, with the sworde, and with the famine,and with the pestilence , vntill I haue wholy giuen them into his hands.
9 Therfore heare not your prophets nor your
